

Madam's 3771

Chapter 3771 Sister Nian is here

In addition to sending people to search the town according to Zhai Xicheng's request, she also privately used her network to search for the fish that slipped through the net.

"not yet."

Old lady Xie frowned: "He can turn into a butterfly and fly away."

The people of the Nance Alliance say it is an organization, but it is actually a group of passionate and ambitious anti-war people. Most of them are just ordinary people.

It was just an accident that Ji Qing joined them.

In fact, Ji Qing only stayed there for two years, and usually participated in some humanitarian relief activities.

These people would not have been affected by seasons.

The main reason is that they were unlucky. They happened to have a lot of contact with Ji Qing in the two years when the research results of Ji Qing were exposed, so the Hermit Family was not at ease.

Especially Nie Qingru was the first to propose the killing plan.

They are afraid that some of these people know or hide Ji Qing's research results, which touch their core interests and must not be spread.

So these people may be innocent, but for them, rather than caring about whether these ordinary people are innocent, they would rather let them be dead and solve their own troubles.

This is the world of the jungle, extremely cruel and realistic.

"I'll ask someone to investigate." Xie's servant said in a low voice.

Mrs. Xie had spent enough time in this dilapidated hotel, but suddenly she thought of a point that was difficult for others to think of: "You ask someone to find the family that adopted the child, and ask them if the child has contacted them or told me where to go."

"Okay." The servant was about to leave.

Old lady Xie waited for him to leave, and stayed in the room impetuously. Sitting there, she didn't know why she felt a little uneasy, and she always felt that something was about to happen.

But only the eldest son knows that she came here to track down the people who were missed by the Nantes League, so it is unlikely that anything will happen.

Besides, Ji Qing's death was a big secret back then, and no one knew the truth except for the families that participated in the hunt.

Ji Lingfeng didn't even know what Ji Qing had come up with.

What is she upset about?

Old lady Xie covered her heart, and couldn't tell what she was upset about, but that strong anxiety lingered on her chest for a long time and couldn't be relieved, like a big stone was pressing on her, making it difficult to breathe.

A face appeared in her mind.

The girl's rebellious face.

And those wolf cub-like eyes, those eyes seemed to stare at her through the illusion, as if they had discovered the truth over twenty years and were about to come to her.

Old lady Xie moved her body, got up to get a glass of water, and blamed herself for thinking too much: "When the last person is dealt with, no one will know this secret again."

"Come on, wait a little longer."

"It will be completely resolved immediately."

Airport.

The plane landed on the runway, taxied for a certain distance, and soon stopped by the Hongqiao.

Qiao Nian took off the blindfold, and after a nap, his mental state seemed to be fine, but his eyes still had the irritability of being woken up by the plane landing just now.

She has nothing to take, she can leave when she wakes up.

Qin Si has already got off the plane first.

Guan Yan was also very perceptive and didn't come to look for her.

Ye Wangchuan reached out to take the shoulder bag for her at this moment, got up to make way, and extended his other hand to her by the way: "Let's go."

Qiao Nian looked at the hand he stretched out in front of her, with slender finger bones, well-proportioned flesh and bones, white and beautiful like a work of art.

Chapter 3772 Sister Nian was followed as soon as she came back

She stared at it, put her hand on it silently, held it up, and said unhurriedly: "I'm going to the Red League to get things."

Ye Wangchuan pulled her up, still holding onto the girl's hand, with a smile on his thin lips, lazily: "Okay."

A group of people got off the plane.

Guan Yan had already arranged the car.

Qiao Nian and the others got into the car first after leaving the airport, and drove cross-country in the direction of Hongmeng headquarters.

In the car.

The scenery on both sides of the road is galloping.

Guan Yan sat alone in the co-pilot seat, turning his head and introducing the situation of the illegal area to the people in the back row, speaking quickly.

"Our illegal area is not as big as that of the Independent Continent, but basically the situation is similar. There is no absolute management here, only large and small power groups, and the biggest power group is the Tianchen you have heard of."

"Under Tianchen, there are Red League, K organization, etc. Besides these big organizations, there are many other forces entrenched in the illegal area. The relationship between the major forces... How should I put it, it is not as loud as Independent Continent Killing, no one can see who is better. But it's not a good relationship between the two brothers, usually it's fine if they don't provoke each other, but if they provoke each other, it's hard to say."

Speaking of this, Guan Yan looked in the direction of the girl with peach blossom eyes, and saw the girl lying in the back row with the brim of her hat lowered to reduce her sense of presence.

She said as if feeling something: "Actually, the illegal area was similar to Independence Island at the beginning. Fighting and killing every day, it seems that if there is nothing to do every day, everyone is boring. It changed later..."

"Why is the illegal area the same as the Independent Continent before, but it changed later?"

There were five people in the car, except for the driver and herself, only Qin Si was listening to her seriously.

Guan Yan glanced at him, originally wanting to say something.

At this moment, she glanced at the rearview mirror from the corner of her eye, frowned, and said to the driver in a deep voice, "Look at the Buick behind us, has it followed us all the way?"

"Which one?" The driver was a burly man also wearing a peaked cap, and his arms were particularly eye-catching.

He hasn't spoken since he received the person. His personality is similar to Qiao Nian's. He is a dull type, reticent and has no sense of presence.

If Guan Yan didn't ask him suddenly, Qin Si would have thought he was dumb.

Guan Yan Nunu lowered his jaw: "It's our black Buick that is following behind. I noticed him from the last traffic light. That car has been following us."

Before she was not sure whether the other party was following them, but after passing through two traffic lights, the other party still kept a distance of two cars from them and followed them.

She couldn't be more vigilant.

The man with the big flower arm doesn't say much: "Try it and you'll know."

Guan Yan raised his eyebrows.

He turned his head and said to the people in the back row: "Everyone, sit still."

After speaking, he turned the steering wheel violently, stepped on the accelerator to the bottom, and the car body turned and suddenly changed speed and drove towards the fork road on the left.

Guan Yan had already prepared to grab the handrail, so he was not affected by the speed change of the car. He sat firmly in his seat and turned his head to observe the situation of the car behind him.

Sure enough.

The black Buick that was not far behind them saw them suddenly change lanes and speed up, and followed them, apparently not caring about exposing themselves.

Guan Yan's eyes turned cold, his expression was serious, and he turned around and ordered Qin Si: "Close the window."

"..."

Although Qin Si didn't know what happened, he still clutched his brow that hurt from the impact, and hurriedly pressed on the car window.

Chapter 3773 Wocao, is it so wild in the illegal area?

Almost at the same time he closed the window, the black Buick sped up next to them, paralleling them.

And the other person is squeezing their space like crazy, almost trying to cause a car chase accident on the road.

The road they turned into temporarily was originally a one-way street, the road was not wide, and there was a green belt next to it. At this time, two cars driving side by side were already crowded. up.

Qin Si stays in Beijing most of the time, even if he comes to Independent Island, he stays in Ye Wangchuan's territory, where has he seen such a battle.

He immediately turned pale, and muttered: "Wo Cao, these people are dying!"

Guan Yan was at ease in the front, and was still in the mood to tease him: "You only know? This is the characteristic of the illegal area, and Qin Shao still sees too little of the world."

"Don't talk, hold on to the handrails." Qin Si yelled at her, really don't know why this woman is so fearless of death, she is still in the mood to joke at this time.

Guan Yan originally wanted to laugh at him a few more words, but when he saw the genuine concern on his face through the rearview mirror, he swallowed the words unconsciously: "Forget it."

Qin Si didn't notice half of her words, and turned his head to look nervously at the man beside him: "Master Wang, what's going on?"

Ye Wangchuan pulled the back of the front seat with one hand, and firmly protected Qiao Nian with the other hand. There was no extra emotion on his face, and he calmly said, "Someone wants to give us a greeting gift."

"Who is TM?"

"Zhai Xicheng." Ye Wangchuan uttered three words steadily.

Qin Si frowned: "I haven't heard of it, who is this thing? A member of the hidden family?"

Ye Wangchuan smiled lightly, and lazily said: "Forget it."

Qin Si saw that he was still in the mood to laugh, his brain hummed and hurt as if someone beat him with a wooden clapper: "Master Wang, you are not afraid..."

Before he finished speaking, he heard the girl's low reminder: "Qin Si, bow your head."

"ah?"

Before Qin Si could react, the glass of the car on his side was shattered, which startled him a lot.

He immediately turned his head and looked over, and saw that the car parallel to them on the opposite side opened the window at some point, and a man wearing a mask pointed a black muzzle in their direction. White smoke was coming out, obviously a shot had been fired just now.

"The grass!!" Qin Si had never seen such an exciting scene, his face was pale, and he couldn't believe his eyes.

"The law and order in your illegal area is too bad! What kind of movie scene is this?" He said so, but he tried his best to dodge the window of the car honestly. While hugging his head, he didn't forget to ask Qiao Nian: "Sister Qiao, does this car work, the second shot won't just blow up on my head, right?"

Before Qiao Nian could answer him, Guan Yan kindly answered him: "Bulletproof glass, don't worry."

The opposite party obviously didn't know that this ordinary-looking off-road vehicle was equipped with something as advanced as bulletproof glass.

The first shot failed to shatter the glass, and the person on the opposite side fired two more shots in a row, all of which hit the glass and were bounced off.

Even so, shooting at such a close range still made the glass covered with cobwebs, making it look shaky and unsafe.

Qin Si was so close to life and death for the first time.

He has always been used to talking, but now he is a bit speechless.

Chapter 3774 Wait for my command

Qiao Nian rubbed the space between his brows and said to him, "Let's change places."

"Sit down, I'll come." Ye Wangchuan seemed to know what she was going to do, stopped her, and changed places with Qin Si.

Then he directed the big flower arm driving in front: "How long will it take us to drive this road?"

"three minutes."

"Where is this road going?" Ye Wangchuan asked methodically.

Big Flower Arm thought for a while: "It should be the business district outside Tianchen."

Since it is a commercial area, there must be more people and denser traffic.

Ye Fanchuan hummed, knowing what was in his mind, and ordered him calmly: "In order to prevent them from beating our tires, you will follow my instructions later."

Big Flower Arm glanced at him, but didn't immediately agree.

Until the girl's stern voice sounded: "Listen to him."

"Yes, sun."

Big flower arm has a correct attitude, and agrees without saying a word.

The two cars were still driving side by side, and the man in the Buick couldn't even shoot a few shots to break the glass of the car, and quickly realized the difference in this off-road vehicle.

"Damn, the opposite side is bulletproof glass, which cannot be broken."

They also had four people in the car.

The other man was a veteran at first glance, and said without any panic: "What's the hurry, since the car glass can't be broken, I'll hit the tires of their car. The boss only said that he wanted their lives, but he didn't say that he must shoot them to death. Even car accidents."

"good."

The person responsible for shooting the gun immediately calmed down, reloaded the bullet, and the gun was facing down, ready to aim at the fast-rotating tires of the off-road vehicle.

at this time.

He saw the off-road vehicle on the opposite side roll down the window by himself, and then saw the man's outstanding handsome face, which made people stunned.

what's the situation? Did they even deliver it to their door?

Just when he was in a daze.

He heard the man's deep voice of command: "Bump over!"

"?"

He subconsciously felt that something was wrong, but everything happened so suddenly that he didn't have enough time to react.

He saw that the black off-road vehicle that had been driving to avoid them suddenly approached their car with a speed change.

The accident happened at this moment.

When the car hit him, he subconsciously wanted to raise his gun, but someone grabbed the gun and pulled him hard, pulling half of his body out of the car.

"Hiss." He gasped in fright, changed his expression on the spot, and quickly called his companions: "Help me, catch me quickly!"

The little friend behind him reacted fairly quickly. He quickly grabbed his leg and pulled him back, but the gun in his hand had already been snatched away by the man.

And just before he had time to catch his breath after experiencing the thrilling scene, he heard a dull gunshot.

"Chi-!"

Their car site was spinning uncontrollably, and the car body began to circle on the road as if out of control, unable to stop.

It was like a front-loading washing machine inside, which made them dizzy.

He barely stabilized his body, clung to the back of the driver's seat and shouted: "What are you doing? Why are you driving? Hurry up and stabilize yourself!"

"Damn, the tire is blown, what can I do! Sit still!" The person in charge of driving was also shouting.

The car spun out of control for a while, and then hit the green belt with a bang.

While they were enduring the huge impact, their blurred vision saw the black off-road vehicle drive away.

The weapons snatched from them were also dropped on the ground.

Chapter 3775 They arrived at the Hongmeng headquarters

"Damn!" His eyes were covered with blood, his face was flushed with anger, but he had no choice but to kick the car door quickly and pull all his little friends out of the car.

While gasping for breath, he took out his mobile phone that was not broken and called the number on the top: "Hey, Young Master Zhai, we failed."

After Qiao Nian and the others got rid of the Buick that was following them, they finally drove to the Hongmeng headquarters.

"arrive."

The black off-roader stopped in front of a small white western-style building, parked firmly on the lawn, and Guan Yan told everyone to get off.

She got out of the car first, took out her mobile phone and made a call.

After the shocking scene just now, Qin Si still couldn't calm down, and his face was a little pale. When he saw the girl get off the car, he asked her, "Who is she calling?"

Qiao Nian looked up at the person he was talking about, and found that it was Guan Yan, so he put his hands in his pockets, and said casually, "It should be Slender Waist Control. She wants to check the background of those people just now."

Slender waist control stays in the illegal area all year round, and is the person who is most familiar with the illegal area.

It's a pity that the thin waist control is not in the illegal area now.

Qin Si didn't ask any further questions, and looked at the small white western-style building in front of him again, a little unbelievable: "...is this the Hongmeng headquarters?"

Qiao Nian has already stepped inside.

Da Huayi also got out of the car, took a bottle of mineral water and threw it to him, and smiled when he saw him like that: "Why, this doesn't look like our headquarters?"

"It's just a little unbelievable." Qin Si touched the bridge of his nose unabashedly, and caught his water: "I thought the Red League headquarters should be... something different."

For example, a building complex of the size of Jiushou, or a manor-like courtyard like Ji's, how could it be an ordinary house that looks the same as the place where you live.

Big Flower Arm seemed to know that he would say that, so he took out a bottle of water from the car without paying much attention, walked up to the handsome man and handed it to him.

This is more respect than Qin Sishui.

Ye Wangchuan took the water and said: "Thank you."

Big flower arm looked at him with admiration, patted his shoulder, and said very approvingly: "Brother, you are good at it!"

Guan Yan turned around and finished the phone call, and saw that his people were calling Ye Wangchuan brothers and sisters, but that superior Ye Shao was still smiling gently, and he didn't seem to be putting on airs.

"Are you from the East? You also came around the city?"

"No, from Beijing."

"Oh. How did you meet sun? Doesn't sun like to talk, usually very cold..."

Guan Yan couldn't listen anymore when he heard this, walked over and patted him on the back, and said angrily, "What are you guys talking about. Go in first!"

Before Dahua Arm had time to speak, he heard Guan Yan walk up to Ye Wangchuan and politely invite him: "Young Master Ye, please."

Ye Shao...

Da Huayi vaguely remembered that he had heard the name Ye Shao somewhere, but he didn't remember it for a while.

As soon as he was distracted, he fell behind.

Only with Qin Si finally entered the Western-style building.

After they entered, they found that this small western-style building not only looked ordinary from the outside, but also had some ordinary furniture and daily necessities inside.

The slightly different place is that in addition to the furniture in the living room, there are several computers placed one by one in the dining room.

Those desktop computers are divided into upper and lower layers just by the display screen. Although no one uses them, it can be seen that they are very professional.

Chapter 3776 Sister Nian came back to take something that was a weapon

Qiao Nian is no longer in the living room.

Big Flower Arm played the role of housekeeper tactfully after they came in, went to make a cup of tea for the three of them, and delivered them to them one by one.

This was originally Guan Yan's lair.

Guan Yan naturally found a place to sit down with ease, picked up the tea and drank it one after another.

Compared to her ease, Qin Si is much more uncomfortable.

He probably walked around the house, and found that this is a place to live, and the furnishings inside are also very simple, nothing unusual.

He picked up a small lion statue that was randomly placed on the shelf, and turned to talk to the woman: "I said that your place is too unlike the headquarters."

"Then what do you want to call the headquarters? Isn't the headquarters just a place for us people to stay, we also have to eat and sleep, instead of building a flashy building, it's better to just like this here, where everyone can live comfortably, so there's nothing wrong with it. "

"..." Qin Si was unable to refute for a long time because of her fallacious reasoning. Just as he was about to say something, he saw the girl coming down from the upstairs room.

Qiao Nian distributed one of the things he brought out of his arms to each of them, and his movements were crisp and quick, without expression: "Hold it for self-defense."

Qin Si barely caught it, but when he looked down, he realized that what Qiao Nian threw to him was a small Bock pistol. His expression changed slightly, and when he raised his head, his eyes also became complicated.

"Joe..."

The girl distributed the rest before he finished speaking, and said frankly: "This is an illegal area, and these are all legal possessions. You need to bring them for self-defense, and you don't have to use them."

She also handed Ye Wangchuan a hand: "Hey."

Ye Wangchuan took it, tested the feel of the hand, loaded it directly, took aim, and then readily accepted it: "When are you going to set off to find someone?"

Guan Yan has his own.

She gave Dahua her arms, and raised her eyelids a little loosely after hearing the words. The thin eyelids were fan-shaped with folds and narrowed at the end of the eyes, and the eyes were sharp and lazy.

"tomorrow."

"Why wait for tomorrow? Can't we start now?" Qin Si said.

Guan Yan read for Qiao: "You don't understand Sun's worth. Since our plane landed in the illegal area, there have been countless pairs of eyes on us. If she goes to find someone now, she will only attract everyone's attention to that old man." body."

"It's easy to deal with just being an old man, but the old man has a half-grown child. In order to ensure their safety, we must get rid of some eyeliner."

Guan Yan was upset by what he said.

"That's right." She remembered one more thing and gloated: "The news that Sun was ambushed when he got off the plane today will soon spread throughout the illegal area, and the illegal area will become lively again."

In the past, the illegal area was the same as the Independent Continent, and the major forces refused to accept each other.

Later, Tianchen and Hongmeng grew stronger, and the two were closely related. With Qiao Nian taking the lead, many forces in the illegal area did not dare to make mistakes. The time for fighting became less and less, and the illegal area became more and more peaceful...

It can be said that Sun was intercepted and killed when he got off the plane this time, which is the most explosive news in the illegal area recently, and it must be spread.

Qiao Nian walked over and happened to pass by her: "If you have time, just get rid of the eyeliner outside, don't beep here again."

Guan Yan said vowedly: "Don't worry, I have greeted the waist control as soon as I got out of the car. Later, there will be cars driving out of our base non-stop. Let those people follow if they want to follow, and when they follow Seven or eight cars, let's go out again. Take care and get rid of most of the eyeliner!"

Chapter 3777 Offending Hongmeng and offending Tianchen have the same effect

Because Qiao Nian entered the area of the Red League and did not leave, the major forces in the illegal area did not get any first-hand information.

Everyone only knew that Sun's plane was ambushed shortly after landing, but no one knew whether Sun was injured or not.

K organization.

"How about it, haven't found it yet?"

"No. The territory of the Hongmeng is very quiet. No doctor was called and no outsiders went in. We can't figure out what's going on inside for the time being. But I heard from the people at the airport that there are four people from Sun coming back this time. Apart from the main member Guan Yan, there are also There are two men."

"She hasn't shown up in the illegal area for a long time. I don't know what to do when she comes back this time." The little leader of the K organization muttered to himself.

The people under him didn't know much about Hongmeng, so they said disapprovingly: "Boss, we don't care what she does, no matter how good she is, she's just a hacker."

As soon as the words came out, the man looked over with murderous eyes: "Just a hacker? Ha. Don't talk to me like that when you go out, and don't drag me down when you are about to die."

The minions under him were startled and their faces changed: "Boss, is that sun so... scary?"

The little boss sneered: "Hackers are not scary. What's scary is that these hackers still have the world's most cutting-edge weapons in their hands. Looking at the entire illegal area, how many forces dare to challenge the Hongmeng? You Seeing that their small building is built at the intersection of major forces, that place is a central point, surrounded by dozens of halls, who dares to approach that area within ten kilometers? Everyone agrees that this area belongs to the restricted area!"

Xiao Luoluo's face became even uglier. So awesome?

"Hmph, and you told me what's so scary about the sun. Let me tell you, since the establishment of the Hongmeng, she built that house there. At the beginning, some forces disagreed, saying that it was too close to them. , insisting on grabbing territory and driving people away. That force disappeared from the illegal area the next day."

"..." Xiao Luo's legs were weak, and he barely grabbed the sofa from sitting on the ground:
"Tianchen... don't you care?"

The boundaries of illegal areas default to Tianchen's decision.

"Tianchen..." The little boss was silent for a moment, he had a guess but he couldn't tell his subordinates, he just said: "The relationship between Tianchen and Hongmeng is complicated. Offending Hongmeng. Offending Hongmeng has the same effect as offending Tianchen."

The little boy was told that he wanted to cry but had no tears: "Then boss, are we still watching?"

"Look!" The little boss gritted his teeth and said, "Sun came back suddenly this time, we must at least figure out what she is doing when she comes back."

Now most of the eyeliners who are watching outside the Hongmeng headquarters have this idea.

They didn't dare to intercept and kill Qiao Nian, but when they saw Qiao Nian suddenly stepping into the illegal area, they had to be vigilant, wanting to see what this boss who hadn't come back for a long time was going to do.

That's all.

The little leader lowered his head to think, and said with a sneer: "I don't know who is so bold to intercept Sun this time. Recently, there have been a lot of ghosts and monsters mixed in in the illegal area. I don't know if Tianchen will make any moves..."

He had received news before that several foreign forces had quietly come to the illegal area to find people.

Those people went to the mountains as soon as they came.

Because they have been operating in the mountainous area and have not affected the people in the central area, everyone has not paid much attention to these people.

Chapter 3778 He just doesn't take the initiative to call

Not surprisingly.

The person who intercepted Sun this time must be one of these people.

As for the person they were looking for, it might have something to do with Sun's sudden return to the illegal area this time.

The little boss thought about it, went back inside and called someone.

"You said that they had conflicts with the same person that led to the farce of interception and killing on the main road?" The woman's voice was cold and capable.

The little boss replied cautiously: "Yes. This subordinate guessed that way, I don't know if it's right."

Jian Jin asked him expressionlessly: "Then do you know who those people are looking for?"

"This..." the little boss thought about it: "Someone from the Xie family found us with a relationship, and asked us to ask some news about a man and a woman. It is said that they are looking for a child and an old man, which was picked up by the couple. The child and his grandfather. There is nothing special about these two people, I don't know why those people are looking for them."

"I see."

Jian Jin hung up the phone and went to find Lu Zhi.

She pushed open the glass door of the office and walked in. Seeing the man sitting behind the large desk with his eyes closed, she couldn't help but slow down.

"Boss."

Lu Zhi opened his eyes, and there was still fatigue in his eyes. He didn't speak, as if he didn't see anyone coming in from outside, he picked up the pen again and prepared to open the document: "Speak."

"QIAO is back."

Lu Zhi's fingers holding the pen were closed, and the knuckles were faintly white: "She still knows to come back."

Jian Jin didn't tell him that Qiao Nian was ambushed on the road, but only told him that Qiao Nian might have come back to find someone.

While she was talking, she observed Lu Zhi's expression: "She came back from Independence Island specially, I'm afraid those two people have something to do with her mother."

Lu Zhi didn't answer immediately, but put down the pen in his hand and tapped his fingertips on the table, as if he was thinking about something.

"What is Nie Qingru doing?"

"Still dealing with the mess with Beijing City." Jian Jin wanted to laugh when she mentioned this: "The dissatisfaction with her within the Hidden World Family is getting stronger and stronger. She shouldn't be able to hold on for long before reaching an unconditional settlement with Beijing City. Just look at it." Will the capital city be willing to reconcile? The old man of the Ye family is not a vegetarian and has always been tough. If she wants to reconcile, the old man is not willing to let go easily. She is shooting herself in the foot. "

"Um."

Lu Zhi seemed very tired, and after a few seconds of silence, he said to himself: "Then don't worry, wait until she asks us for help."

"..."

Jian Jin raised her head several times, but couldn't help it: "Boss, don't you call QIAO?"

Qiao Nian finally came back once.

What a great opportunity!

Brother Lu couldn't figure out why he just sat and waited for QIAO to call them. If QIAO would call them, he wouldn't be that person!

Qiao Nian's character, he hasn't counted it all these years.

Lu Zhi didn't raise his head, he was very calm: "Don't fight, let's wait and talk."

Jane was convinced: "Okay, whatever you want."

She didn't want to talk anymore, it hurt her teeth, and her boss never listened to persuasion. She simply put it badly: "Anyway, as long as you don't regret it yourself."

Lu Zhi glanced at her, as if he had no intention of regretting it.

Jian Jin was completely speechless, so she simply opened the door and went out.

at the same time.

In a hotel in a small town.

Zhai Xicheng also received news that the interception failed.

Chapter 3779 Oh yes, Qiao Nian is also here

He was not surprised at all, and directly ordered the hidden guard: "Take care of those people, clean up, and don't let anyone catch them."

"yes."

The dark guard went out to do errands without any surprise.

Zhai Xicheng narrowed his eyes, got up and prepared to go out to get some air.

When I opened the door, I met Mrs. Xie who happened to come out.

Old lady Xie saw his eyes light up, and came over to say hello with a smile: "Young Master Zhai, I just came out by meeting you. I happen to have something to look for you."

Zhai Xicheng didn't see each other in private, but since everyone met him, he still gave him the face he deserved: "The old lady has something to do with me."

Old lady Xie saw the perfunctory in his words, suppressed her discomfort with a smile, and said, "I have found someone."

Zhai Xicheng didn't expect that she could find Michelle, so he smiled and didn't quite believe it: "Oh? The old lady can't make a mistake, right? So many of us have been searching here for several days but we haven't found anyone. You have been I found someone without going out in the hotel."

Mrs. Xie told him how she found the people, and finally said: "They are hiding in a family in a small town. The building is too dilapidated, and there are many and mixed people living in it. If we go directly to Grabbing might send them getting the message in advance and running away."

She expressed a little satisfaction: "So I thought of a way and got someone to send them a message saying that his parents asked him to meet in the grove. The child must miss his parents. We just need to wait for them to make the appointment and then arrest them." gone."

Zhai Xicheng looked at the fierce and mean look on the face of the old woman in front of him, and he didn't know what to think, his eyes showed sarcasm, and the corners of his mouth slightly raised: "As expected of a person from Independent Island."

Old lady Xie didn't hear the mocking meaning in his words, thinking that Zhai Xicheng was praising her, she couldn't stop smiling from ear to ear. Wei Wei tidied up her turban and said, "If the last hidden danger is solved this time, I still hope that Young Master Zhai will help me say something nice to the Queen."

"certainly."

Zhai Xicheng readily agreed.

The old lady Xie secretly breathed a sigh of relief, and her attitude towards him became more and more warm, and she told him the time and place agreed with the child.

In order to relax the vigilance of grandpa and grandson, Mrs. Xie very cunningly arranged the time at six o'clock in the morning when the sky was dark.

People are the most relaxed and easily shaken at this time, which is also in line with the mentality of parents wanting to see their children.

After all, it is impossible for anyone to meet in the small woods in the middle of the night, and those who are blinded by the dark lights can't see clearly.

"If they don't come..."

"They will definitely come." Mrs. Xie was very confident: "I asked the person who brought the message to say that his adoptive mother was sick, seriously ill, and he just wanted to see him one last time."

Even if it is fake.

But people are like this, it is always easy to soften your heart when you hear about family ties.

Once soft-hearted, they will take risks.

Zhai Xicheng raised the corners of his lips, and he looked at her with admiration in his usual cold eyes: "I can't see that Mrs. Xie can... do it like this."

Old lady Xie heard that the other party meant to mock her this time, and her smile fell, because the other party's identity was not easy to attack.

I was secretly annoyed.

What does this Zhai Xicheng mean?

She figured out a way to lure him out, but he is still here in a weird way, it's really inexplicable!

Fortunately, Zhai Xicheng didn't stay too long, so he raised his legs and walked down: "I'll inform everyone to make arrangements and prepare to collect the net."

He still didn't forget to turn his head and say to the old lady Xie who was standing there: "Oh, by the way, Qiao Nian is here too. We have to hurry up."

Chapter 3780 Chase, don't let them run away

Old lady Xie felt as if struck by lightning when she heard the words, she opened her mouth, and a layer of goosebumps appeared on her body - what is Qiao Nianlai doing? Could it be that she knew something?

Five thirty in the morning.

The small town is shimmering in the morning light, and the sky is still bright.

In a dilapidated tube building, a man in shabby clothes with a beard and a scruffy face opened the door and poked his head out for a while.

After confirming that he didn't see anyone, he quietly stepped aside and said to the old man and the other behind him: "I saw, there is no one outside. You can come out."

After a while, a thin old man and a little boy who was only six or seven years old came out from behind him. The old man held the little boy's hand and stood at the door to thank the man: "Lian, thank you. I have caused you trouble these two days If it weren't for you..."

The sloppy man supported him and refused to let him thank him. He said vaguely: "Mr. Mi, don't thank me. I should thank you. If it weren't for your Nansi Alliance to help our village, I can't live now."

"Grandpa, let's go." The little boy seemed to be in a hurry, pulling the old man's clothes and urging him to leave.

The old man raised his hand and rubbed his hair, and comforted him softly: "Hey, wait a minute. Grandpa will finish talking to uncle right away."

The man named Ryan looked at him and then at the unhappy child with pouting lips, rubbed his brows, and finally persuaded him: "Mr. Mi, I shouldn't talk too much, but you are kind to me. I still want to remind you. The news came too suddenly this time, and I'm afraid there may be fraud..."

"I know, thank you." The old man rubbed the little boy's hair again, and looked up at him, only with a helpless expression on his face.

How could he not know how 'false' the news that the so-called adoptive mother wanted to see them was so 'fake', but the child insisted on going to see the mother.

He can't help it either.

Michelle whispered: "It's enough for me to hide for so many years. At worst, I will die and give it to them."

The grove is at the entrance of the forest not far from the town, and it becomes more and more desolate as we go.

This kind of dim time.

There was no pedestrian on the road, and the surroundings were eerily quiet.

"Grandpa, where do you think mother will wait for us?"

"She didn't mean in the woods."

"Then grandpa, can we find mother in the past?"

"..."

As they entered the range of the grove step by step, everything was abnormally quiet.

The old man's heart sank, and he was not in the mood to comfort the cheerful child. He looked around vigilantly, and held the little boy firmly.

What should come will still come.

Just when they had completely entered the range of the grove, there was a sound of hee-hee rustling, like approaching footsteps.

The old man's face suddenly changed, he grabbed his grandson's hand and shouted instinctively: "Run!"

He pulled his grandson and ran away.

This area is full of woods, interspersed with various trails, and the terrain is very complicated.

The old man was obviously familiar with the terrain, so he dropped a smoke bomb that he carried with him to avoid the first wave of follow-up from these people, and ran away with the child in a blink of an eye.

"Fuck, let them go!"

"Ahem, this old man is wearing a smoke bomb!"

Old lady Xie was the most angry person, and immediately shouted: "Why are you still standing there, chase after me!"

After the thick smoke dissipated a little, the group of people immediately divided into three groups and chased in three different directions, and they were bound to catch up with them.
