

Madam's 4011

Chapter 4011 Qiao Nian, how dare you!

Zhai Xicheng's breathing was stagnant.

at this time.

The footsteps at the door stopped.

At the same time, a girl's voice came from a neutral voice: "Well, I found you."

Zhai Xicheng felt as if his heart had been hit by a sledge hammer, his chest trembled and hummed, his face suddenly turned pale, and almost immediately he nimbly knocked open the glass of the lounge with the safety hammer hanging on the wall, trying to get out and jump in. nautical mile.

"Stop him!"

As soon as Qiao Nian's voice fell, he also chased after him.

While chasing, she immediately drew her gun, squinted at the afterimage by the window, and fired a shot.

Just listen to 'Boom'!

A gunshot.

While shaking the seabirds moored on the boat, it precisely hit the left thigh of the fleeing person. Zhai Xicheng's left thigh slowed down, and bleeding bloomed around his leg.

He almost cried out in pain.

He clutched his leg, resisting the maddening pain and preparing to continue to escape.

Unexpectedly, the girl's voice was approaching behind her, and she said coldly: "Stop. I've already aimed at your temple. I'll count to three. Don't blame me for shooting if you don't stop."

Qiao Nian didn't even give him time to think.

Start counting in a deep voice.

"1."

In an instant, countless thoughts flashed through Zhai Xicheng's mind, piled up in a mess, his movements slowed down, and his back was stiff.

"2."

His heart began to beat fast, and he was about to throw himself out.

"...3."

Time suddenly slowed down endlessly in his eyes, and he even heard the sound of Qiao Nian pulling the safety catch behind him.

Zhai Xicheng didn't dare to bet whether Qiao Nian aimed at his temple or not, he stopped in his footsteps, his face was extremely embarrassed, he raised his hands and turned around slowly.

Looking into the playful eyes of the other party, I knew I had been fooled.

But at this moment, he didn't even dare to feel angry. He raised his hand and said in a low voice, "I surrender."

Qiao Nian was only a few steps away from him, and quickly walked up to him, and opened the magazine in front of him. Zhai Xicheng clearly saw that Qiao Nian's magazine was out of bullets.

Aware of the other party's intentions, he glanced over.

Qiao Nian raised his peaked cap, a pair of beautiful and cold eyes met his gaze, sneered, and casually admitted: "Playing with you."

Zhai Xicheng bit his lips tightly, afraid that he would lose control of his emotions, but even if he tried hard to control himself, he couldn't hide his trembling shoulders and his eyes that wanted to tear Qiao Nian apart.

Seeing the anger in his eyes, Qiao Nian smiled, put away the magazine casually, and said softly, "Why, I thought you liked playing games."

"You should like this feeling of playing with people's hearts."

Seeing his current situation clearly, Zhai Xicheng was much calmer, and said hoarsely to the girl, "Do you want to see me joke?"

He doesn't lose his composure.

Qiao Nian is going to be disappointed!

Who knew that the girl glanced at him lightly, as if hearing a joke, put away her gun: "I see what you are joking about? You are not that valuable. Don't take yourself too seriously!"

When Zhai Xicheng was once again so angry that his blood surged, and he was trying to endure the humiliation at the moment.

Qiao Nian had already turned his back on him, turned around and said, "Take off his hands, throw him on the speedboat and take him away."

Zhai Xicheng suddenly raised his head, his eyes were bloodshot and looked over: "Qiao Nian, how dare you!"

How dare she?

She didn't know how much Nie Qingru valued herself? If she hurt herself, Nie Qingru would definitely not give her a good look if she knew it.

However, the girl didn't stop walking, and waved her hand at them: "Come on."

Chapter 4012 Zhai Xicheng is in bad luck this time

At this moment, guns were aimed at him from all directions, and Zhai Xicheng was so mad that he could only stand still and watch him jump off the cargo ship.

Flower Arm just came over.

Seeing that he was still staring at the direction Qiao Nian was leaving, with uncontrollable gloom and dissatisfaction on his face, he went up and slapped him across the face.

"What to watch."

"..." Zhai Xicheng only felt that the left side of his face was burning hot, the scenery in front of him was blurry, and his ears were buzzing.

I tasted blood in my mouth.

He hasn't had time to react yet.

The man with both arms full of tattoos called two people over, and ordered them very familiarly: "Go, use up his hands."

Without saying a word, the two stepped forward and grabbed Zhai Xicheng's arm, one left and one right, and while Zhai Xicheng stretched his body to resist, they pushed back hard.

'click. '

Only two bone cracks sounded at the same time.

The young man who had been hard-tempered and refused to give in before let out a painful howl and fell to the ground, sweating profusely and unable to get up for a long time.

Hua raised her leg and kicked him in the stomach, showing no sympathy at all, and said coldly, "You're hiding behind your back and doing things, never thought you'd have today?"

"..." Zhai Xicheng was already unconscious from the pain, his handsome face was extremely distorted, and his neck was bulging with veins, but he couldn't use his hands to support himself to stand up.

The eyelashes in front of his eyes were covered with beads of sweat from pain, and he couldn't tell if this was a nightmare or real life.

I only heard someone say to him condescendingly and coldly: "The shotgun shot in Ye Shao's shoulder is not as loud as you shout, what a coward!"

Zhai Xicheng's vague consciousness probably understood why Qiao Nian had his hands broken off. It turned out to be revenge for Ye Wangchuan.

He grasped a sliver of comfort in the excruciating pain, thinking that Qiao Nian found him so quickly and attacked him so ruthlessly, regardless of Nie Qingru's face, Ye Wangchuan must have died or was seriously injured and unconscious.

Thinking of this, he felt a distorted pleasure in his heart, and the corners of his lips slowly curled up, and he was picked up like garbage and thrown into the speedboat below with this joyful pain.

Zhai Xicheng was dizzy from the fall, and his broken arm hit the wall, which made him whine in pain. Fortunately, those people didn't seem to care about him.

After boarding the boat, they left him in the corner and prepared to turn back.

Zhai Xicheng closed his eyes, looked at the dirty inner wall of the speedboat, quietly endured the pain, and comforted himself that as long as he waited, he would wait for rescue from M state.

Nie Qingru is Qiao Nian's grandmother.

Qiao Nian would never dare to stab her own grandmother in the heart, that would be called disobedience and unfilial piety.

Once there is a conflict between the two sides, Qiao Nian will definitely be afraid, and he will be released sooner or later.

Just like the conflict in the illegal area this time, Qiao Nian's harsh words actually made Nie Qingru and Ying Ying retreat completely.

Isn't this just hard-talking and soft-hearted, and I still can't play tricks on my grandma in my heart.

Zhai Xicheng thought he had pinched the girl seven inches, and gradually calmed down, and began to curl up in a corner to save his energy...

Several speedboats sailed back to the pier through the wind and waves.

The jeep that stayed at the pier drove in early and stopped to wait for Qiao Nian, Hua Arm and others to disembark.

When the speedboat docked at the pier, the Hongmeng people immediately came and pulled the companions on the speedboat in an orderly manner.

Two other people lifted up Zhai Xicheng, who was lying in the cabin like a dead fish, and threw them into the back row of a car without Qiao Nian's instructions. They closed the door and blocked the curious and inquiring eyes from all directions. Opportunities for others to see clearly.

Chapter 4013 Sister Nian: Don't inquire about social affairs

Hua Yi drove a car over, stopped in front of Qiao Nian, and stuck out his head from inside: "Sun, get in the car."

"Hmm." The girl walked at the end of the group, with her hands in her pockets, just like when she came.

The person in charge of the pier followed her all the way, seeing the red jeep '叫比啦' parked in front of them, blocking the way, he was embarrassed to follow. Looking at the girl, he said, "Then sun, I will send you here. That person..."

Qiao Nian raised his eyelids, and looked at him with his dark eyes.

The person in charge of the dock immediately gave up the idea of inquiring about the news, and made a respectful gesture of "please": "Sun, please."

The girl opened the car door with one hand, and looked back at him sideways before getting into the car: "Curiosity killed the cat."

There was a hint of warning in the casual tone.

The person in charge of the dock froze, and immediately realized that the other party had guessed the little calculation he had just had in mind, so he suppressed his nervousness and forced a smile.

"certainly."

"Don't worry, Sun, I won't talk nonsense."

"kindness."

Qiao Nian didn't care if he would talk about today's affairs, turned around, turned to get in the car, and slammed the passenger door.

Seven or eight jeeps left the pier in an orderly manner...

The person in charge of the terminal stood in place and watched the exhaust of the red jeep until the rear of the car disappeared around the corner. Then he wiped the sweat from his forehead and walked back with a slightly solemn expression.

In the jeep.

The girl pressed the window of the car, put her arm on the window, held the mobile phone in her right hand, her long black eyelashes drooped, and her white fingers were bathed in the sun and she was editing a text message.

Hua Bi saw it out of the corner of his eye, probably because he successfully captured Zhai Xicheng this time, he talked to Qiao Nian with a relaxed expression on his fierce face: "Sun, are you sending a message to Young Master Ye?"

He thought Qiao Nian couldn't wait to share the good news with Ye Wangchuan.

The girl didn't bother to raise her eyelids, her typing speed didn't slow down at all, and she was able to answer his question at the same time: "No."

Just a little lazy.

The kind of laziness after relaxing the nerves.

There happened to be a traffic light in front of her. Hua Yi stepped on the brake with one foot, and looked sideways at the girl playing with her mobile phone, showing curiosity.

Qiao Nian is used to being watched by others, but he didn't look up, and he didn't know what kind of eyes Hua Bi was looking at him, so he just typed out a line step by step and sent it out.

She hooked her head and saw the words 'sent successfully' displayed on the screen, put away her phone, leaned back, put her hands on the back of her head, closed her eyes and meditated.

Hua Bi originally wanted to wait for Qiao Nian to finish sending the text message before asking, but saw that the girl had already rested on the back of the chair with her eyes closed.

He was embarrassed to quarrel with girls again.

Just before the traffic light turned green.

Huaji slowed down, held the steering wheel, and drove the red jeep steadily towards their base camp.

at the same time.

M continent.

The Privy Council is engaged in a tense tug of war.

Comparable to a football field, the Great Council Hall, which can accommodate hundreds of people, is overcrowded at the moment, and there are people sitting on every step.

Everyone wears formal clothes, very formal occasion.

They either held a form in their hands with a solemn expression, or exchanged something in whispers with the person next to them.

The huge council hall buzzed continuously.

At this time.

The double doors of the council hall were opened from the outside, and hundreds of people looked over in unison.

I saw someone first coming in from the outside.

Walking ahead was the youngest and least experienced Lei Kai.

Chapter 4014 Nie Qingru just depends on getting married well

Lei Kai is wearing a black suit and tie today. He is more serious than usual, but he is young and lacks majesty.

Immediately afterwards, the second person who walked in was not the conservative faction of the queen's faction who was close to the radical faction. Instead, everyone first saw the corners of the red robes.

Archbishop Quentin walked in without looking aside under the gaze of everyone.

He is nearly 50 years old, pampered and well-maintained all the year round, his complexion is very well maintained, his hair is combed back, revealing a large forehead, his eyes are bright, and his aura is extremely strong.

In front of hundreds of people in the council hall, he insisted on strolling out of the courtyard, and Lei Kai became more and more immature under the background of him.

But those present today don't pay attention to these superficial things, but smell deeper signals through this unusual sequence of appearances.

"The archbishop and the Leonard family have gotten very close recently, is this a joint venture?"

"In the past, when the radical elders came in, they were usually followed by the royalists. Tsk, I think the attitudes of the radicals and the neutrals are very clear this time."

"You just noticed? The wind changed some time ago. The radicals were the staunch royalists before. Do you remember Elder Leonard? Everyone said he was the Queen's spokesperson. Since his death, the Leonard family The attitude changes."

"You mean... Elder Leonard died strangely?"

"I dare not say that." The man continued: "In short, Elder Leonard died in Independence Island. Afterwards, Lei Kai seemed to have a problem with the Queen, restraining the Queen everywhere, and even changed his attitude towards the Archbishop. ...This strange phenomenon is not to blame for our overthinking!"

No one dared to say more about the secrets involving several giants.

The two agreed to stop the discussion on this topic.

It was the young man who spoke first, seeing the old man in green shirt and Nie Qingru coming in from behind, and said in a low voice: "Do you think the impeachment will succeed this time?"

Next to him is a friend of the same age who has made good family with him. The young man sneered coldly: "Which of the queen's recent decisions has not brought us any losses. It is normal for the archbishop and several top families to be dissatisfied with her. After all, the hermit family is the upper class." The collective interests of hundreds of families are the main priority, not a tool for someone to play with authority! Her old man has been praised too much these years, and I am afraid that she will soon forget that she is only from a middle-class family."

Nie Qingru's background is not high.

This is the common cognition of hundreds of hermit family members.

The reason why she can become the most special one in all the families step by step, in the final analysis, is that she married well!

She was selected by a group of family bosses to be married to the genius in Independent Continent. With the help of Ji Wu Falcon, she became a different existence in the hermit family.

Even if Ji Wu Falcon died later, Nie Qingru relied on the prestige of her husband's family to return to the hermit family and enter the decision-making level.

Otherwise, with her and the Nie family behind her, how could Nie Qingru surpass Leonard, Elder Xue, and the archbishop at that time, and step on the heads of these veterans and powerful people from top families at a young age, and secure the top spot.

to be honest.

Nie Qing's domineering status depends on her being married well.

"The Xue family behind her takes advantage of her superior status. They don't leave any room for others. They love to take advantage. There are many families who have been irritated in the past. Everyone keeps silent because they can't offend her old man. In addition, they are afraid of the independent continent forces behind her. No matter how poor the Ji family is these years, they are at least the overlord of the Independent Continent, and no one wants to offend her and the Independent Continent behind her."

Chapter 4015 Outsiders can see that she takes pills sooner or later

"It's different now. After so many things, everyone began to find that Ji's family in Lizhou didn't seem to give her face that much. Her ancestor had limited affection in front of the illegitimate son who came home, and Ji's family in Lizhou never listened to her." She commands. In this way, everyone will naturally have new considerations."

The young man who spoke looked at Nie Qingru who walked in at the end with disdain.

Nie Qingru was wearing the queen's crown dress, solemn and majestic. Accompanied by her attendants, she was the last to enter and enjoyed the bow of everyone.

He felt absurd about everything in front of him.

While bowing his head, he whispered to his friend: "Actually, I have never understood what her old man is thinking. If I were her, I would never hurt my only daughter at the beginning. As long as my daughter does not die, as a direct bloodline, the Ji family will not be able to return in the future." It is in her daughter's pocket, and it is not possible for an illegitimate child to successfully climb to the position of patriarch."

"I don't understand this, and then the empress is hostile to her granddaughter everywhere, and I don't understand what she is thinking."

In his eyes.

Half of Nie Qingru's current status is due to her own marriage, and the other half is due to her relationship with the Ji family in Independence Island... In this case, what is the empress so arrogant about? Why doesn't she use her own advantages to support her granddaughter to replace the disobedient illegitimate child and strengthen herself? relationship with the Independent States.

Only by doing this can she keep her high position in the Hermit Family unshakable.

It's just that their queen is very smart and ruthless in other things, but she is so confused in this matter that people can't understand what she is thinking.

She even wanted to kill her own granddaughter...

Does she not know why she can sit firmly in the top spot of the Hermit Family?

What is emotion compared to interests?

The reason why those old men were willing to support her to sit in this position, wasn't it for the independent continent to see? Let the old boss of the immortal in Independent Continent see how they treat the widow of the boss well, how to give them respect and status...

"So I think the result of today's impeachment vote may disappoint her!"

Nie Qingru has already walked over.

The two also straightened up and raised their heads naturally.

They are just the most common group among the younger generation, and they are arranged in an inconspicuous position in the back steps.

Nobody noticed what they were whispering.

But both of them looked at the backs of the big guys who walked past with blankets in the middle, waiting for the voting session to end and the final result.

Front.

Lei Kai was the youngest, with the least seniority, so he didn't take the first seat.

Instead, he lowered his hands, stood there quietly waiting for the people behind to come over, and then took the initiative to speak: "Archbishop, Mr. Xue, you sit down first."

"Thank you." Quentin obviously had a better relationship with him, and sat in the seat offered by Lei Kai without any courtesy.

The old man in the blue shirt had a solemn expression on his face, and walked over, sat down next to the archbishop, turned his head and asked softly, "Are you really going to impeach the queen?"

"What does Mr. Xue mean?" Quentin raised his eyebrows, and said in a low voice: "I only initiate the impeachment procedure in the name of the Privy Council. Whether to impeach depends on the results of everyone's vote... If everyone has this meaning, it can only explain Follow everyone's choice. Don't blame me alone, I can't bear the responsibility."

Old Xue was completely blocked by his words, with a blue face, he sat back upright, and he didn't know what he was thinking in his dark eyes.

Chapter 4016 The Yu family rejected your offer

Lei Kai did not participate in the discussion between the two, and sat down next to Mr. Xue. In this way, he was separated from Quentin by a seat.

The old man in the blue shirt probably felt that someone sat down beside him, turned his head to his side, and cast sharp eyes on him: "You also agree with the archbishop's approach?"

"Old Xue, this is the legitimate right granted to our Privy Council by all the families of the Hermit Family. I don't stand on anyone's side, I only stand on the end."

The old man in the blue shirt hit nails on the left and right sides, the left side was hard stubble, and the seemingly light words on the right also gave him soft nails.

Lei Kai told him clearly that they should be loyal to the Hidden Family, not someone from the Hidden Family...

Old Xue understood that it was meaningless for him to continue talking.

He simply stopped making fun of himself, sat upright in his seat, and waited for the staff on the stage to unveil the impeachment conference vote.

This is an extremely serious matter.

The Privy Council has never held a meeting of this level before.

It is impossible for the staff to come up with so many fancy opening remarks on such a solemn occasion like an auction.

So as soon as he went up, he asked someone to lower the curtain, aimed the ultra-clear projector at the wall behind him, stood in front of the microphone, and lowered his voice to inform the hundreds of people below: "Everyone, keep quiet, five minutes. Then we will have a voting session."

He introduces the back curtain.

It probably means that everyone has a remote control in their hands, with two buttons for and against, after voting.

The projector on the stage is connected to the computer to synchronize the voting results of everyone, and the voting will change in real time until everyone casts their own vote.

"Queen." Shadow hurried over at this time, and in the dim environment, his expression did not look relaxed: "The old man said... neither the Yu family nor the Ross family gave a clear answer."

Nie Qingru's expression darkened by an inch.

In this case, if the other party does not give a clear answer, it is a silent rejection.

The Yu family is just a small role in the hidden family. Last year, Yu Qingliu's death was even more vital, and he was about to withdraw from the hidden family.

In the past, she would not be able to see the Yu family even if she forgot, but now it is different, this kind of impeachment vote can have one vote for every member of the hermit family.

The Yu family naturally has their own voting rights.

Nie Qingru originally thought that Yu Qingliu's death was more or less related to Qiao Nian, so he came to the door and asked Nie's family to go out to help talk to the other party and win a vote.

Yu's family would refuse for no reason.

However, she never expected that the Yu family refused.

"How many companies have we won?" Nie Qingru said softly.

Shadow hesitated to speak: "59."

Nie Qingru probably knew it in her heart, and she was quite calm when she heard the numbers he said.

There are a total of 108 hermit families.

59 votes is not a high number, at least it can keep her status, but this result will make her lose face to some extent.

After all, as the empress of the hermit family, she only barely has more than half of the approval ratings, and if it spreads, it will make people laugh.

Nie Qingru doesn't care about his appearance at the moment, so he can only firmly grasp the immediate interests first.

"Then leave the Yu family and the Ross family alone."

Her eyebrows showed contempt.

It's just two small roles. If it weren't for the difficulties they encountered now, they wouldn't even be worthy of carrying their shoes, and they still had the courage to refuse her. It's ridiculous!

Chapter 4017 Just a group of ordinary people

Summer insects cannot speak of ice, and well frogs cannot speak of sea.

Just a bunch of ordinary people!

Nie Qingru stopped thinking about the Yu family and the Rose family, and looked sideways at Archbishop Quentin who fell in the row behind her, with darker eyes.

Compared to small roles like the Yu family.

She was even more afraid of the powerful Quentin, and she didn't know what this fox valued Qiao Nian, since Qiao Nian stayed in State M for a while.

Quentin is getting more and more rude to her.

But this time she won.

"As long as we can get 59 votes, it will be more than half, and they can't move my seat despite all their efforts." Nie Qingru whispered.

Shadow nodded, with a calm face, but inexplicably uneasy in his heart, always feeling that things would not go as smoothly as they imagined.

It's just in front of Nie Qingru, it's not good for him to get into trouble at this time.

Nie Qingru was full of ambition in his eyes. After talking to the shadow, he stopped talking and sat on his seat, looking like he was sure of winning.

Even the passing staff murmured when they saw the expression on her face, and secretly praised the queen as worthy of being a queen, and she can have a strong aura in any occasion.

Five minutes passed quickly.

The host came to the stage for the second time and said as concisely as before: "Everyone, the time is up. I count to three, and everyone can press their voting devices to vote for or against. Note that one person, one vote, everyone is sure. according to."

"1."

Nie Qingru sat upright, her wide neckline set off her extraordinary temperament, a handbag was placed beside her, and a big crowned hat blocked the right side of her face.

She was concentrating on the host on stage, and the real-time counting of votes that popped up on the curtain behind the host.

at this time.

The phone in her bag buzzed and vibrated.

At the beginning, Nie Qingru didn't want to look at the mobile phone on important occasions, and looked at the front without squinting. For some reason, she frowned again, took the handbag, found the mobile phone inside, and glanced at it. .

Gives her full attention with just one glance.

The dimly glowing phone screen showed that Qiao Nian had sent her a new text message a minute ago.

Nie Qingru's heart was hit, and she pinched the phone and put it away with her fingers. She had a vague sense of foreboding, so much so that she didn't hear the host count to three.

She unlocked and opened the text message sent to her by the girl. When she saw the content inside, she jumped up from her seat.

Originally, hundreds of people in the conference hall were welcoming the solemn moment.

She stood up suddenly in the top position, undoubtedly attracting everyone's attention.

"What's wrong?"

"what happened?"

"What happened to the Queen?"

Some people noticed that Nie Qingru was looking at his mobile phone, and couldn't help frowning, dissatisfied that this important person was distracted on such an important occasion.

This is not just not taking this impeachment vote seriously, it is a disguised contempt for them.

No matter how people's hearts fluctuate.

At least no one dared to walk up to Nie Qingru to remind her.

The archbishop's row of three people also noticed Nie Qingru's unusual behavior, and the old man in the green shirt frowned first and asked, "Did something happen?"

Lei Kai also felt something was wrong.

Only the mature man with the sleeves of the religious robe said unhurriedly: "Oh, our empress is not someone who will be affected by ordinary things, I am afraid that the 'happening' has nothing to do with the hidden family, it is the empress private matter."

Chapter 4018 I saw the text message sent to her by Sister Nian

Mr. Xue gave him a look of extreme disapproval, but did not argue with him in a muffled voice.

Lei Kai kept quiet all the time, but he was paying attention to Nie Qingru's movements. He saw the shadow of the left hand and right arm beside the queen pat the distracted queen on the shoulder.

The empress seemed to have come to her senses, looked back at the auditorium behind her eyes, and sat down with an extremely embarrassed expression.

The phone is still in his hand.

They are relatively close to each other.

Lei Kai has very good eyesight. From a distance, he can see the veins on the back of the Queen's hands are bulging, and she has endured hard enough.

For some reason, a figure appeared in his mind.

Girls are arrogant and rebellious, and they are not stingy.

Lei Kai subconsciously connected Nie Qingru's gaffe with the figure in his mind, and always felt that it had something to do with Qiao Nian.

It turns out that he guessed right!

"Empress, what happened?" After quickly reminding Nie Qingru, the shadow squatted on the ground in a low voice and asked the person sitting in the seat.

Nie Qingru handed him the phone: "Look for yourself."

Shadow respectfully took the phone with both hands, and looked down.

I saw a text message from the number signed by Qiao Nian, which said—[You hurt someone I care about. In return, I also removed Zhai Xicheng's two arms. Oh, and he saw me running, and I shot him in the left leg as well.]

Extremely arrogant.

Extremely provocative tone.

The girl's domineering expression almost jumped out of his mind to his eyes, and the shadow could imagine the curvature of the other party's mouth when sending text messages.

That wanton and arrogant attitude, and the brilliance in those eyes that are harder to tame than wolves.

"Young Master Zhai is in Qiao Nian's hands." He immediately judged the information contained in the text message.

"Hmph, she sent a text message. What do you think?" Nie Qingru's face was extremely embarrassed.

Shadow returned the phone, and couldn't find anything to comfort her for a while, so she could only say as gently as possible: "Miss Qiao may just be talking."

He thought about it and said: "Before you left, you specially invited her to see you off the plane. You made it clear that you wanted to ease the relationship with her. She might just want to annoy you on purpose. Children, it is inevitable that you will have this kind of mentality, hoping to arouse the elders. Pay attention to."

"..." Nie Qingru did not respond.

She clenched her fists tightly, and her palms were red from friction.

Yang Ying might not believe what he said, but Nie Qingru, as a normal person with good judgment, naturally wouldn't believe his so-called 'Qiao Nian just wanted to attract attention'.

Nie Qingru was more inclined to believe that the wolf cub was deliberately taking revenge on her, so she immediately showed her color.

I also know that it will never be easy for the west city to fall into Qiao Nian's hands.

It's just that she always firmly believes that although Qiao Nian will not let Zhai Xicheng go for her, at least she knows the importance of Zhai Xicheng in her mind.

Even considering her status as a grandmother, Qiao Nian wouldn't be too ruthless.

So she didn't particularly believe in the message that Zhai Xicheng's two arms were broken and one leg was injured.

The reason why she lost her composure was that she didn't expect Zhai Xicheng to be caught by Qiao Nian.

Especially before she got into trouble by going to the illegal area for Xicheng, and she hasn't found anyone yet. She just left afterwards, and now the other party told her...that someone was caught.

What she resented was that what Qiao Nian did was against her everywhere, repeatedly slapping her in the face.

"No matter what. You calm down first, and wait until the voting is over..." Shadow lowered his voice and comforted her in a low voice.

Chapter 4019 The number of votes is developing in the wrong direction

Nie Qingru's expression gradually softened, but the muscles in his cheeks were tense, and he could vaguely see that he was angry: "I know."

While the two were talking, most of the voting was done.

When they looked up at the projection screen, the number of votes on it was relatively normal.

16:17.

Nie Qingru leads by one vote.

It's about the same as the 59:49 they determined in advance.

Nie Qingru saw the 16 votes in favor of deposing her, her eyes darkened, she snorted coldly, and continued to watch with a sullen face and no expression.

the other side.

Lei Kai was a little surprised when he saw the number of votes, and instinctively looked towards Quentin over the old man in blue.

Old Xue caught his cruising gaze, put his hands in front of him, and said calmly: "The queen has found many people in private, and you will lose."

Lei Kai pretended to be relaxed: "Old Xue, the result hasn't come out yet, you judged too early."

The real-time votes ahead have changed again.

It became 17:25 vote this time.

Nie Qingru took advantage.

Seeing this scene, the old man in green shirt looked at Lei Kai sideways, and said with a faint smile: "Young man, I made a judgment too early or you chose the wrong position."

"You don't need to offend the Queen."

"The Hermit Family needs help from the Independent Continent."

This is a decision he made after some thought. Their conservatives will stand on the Queen's side. He has also communicated with several conservative families who have opinions on the Queen.

Lei Kai stopped talking this time, and looked forward firmly, continuing to pay attention to the real-time vote count on the large projection screen.

19:29.

As long as Nie Qingru can get more than 54 votes, they will fall short, and they will also offend the Queen because of this voting.

But Lei Kai has no regrets at all.

He was just a little anxious in his heart, worried that if he couldn't bring down the other party this time, he would give the other party a chance to get up and breathe, and it would be difficult for them to know a good time in the future.

Time doesn't slow down because of anyone's anxiety.

The number of votes on the screen changed from 19:29 to 20:34...

No matter how calm Lei Kai could be, he was only a young man. He was too green compared to a group of old foxes, and looked in Quentin's direction again.

He thought that the archbishop was sure that he could impeach the queen.

But the current situation is not very friendly to them.

Quentin didn't look at him, but sat on the seat with his arms folded, as if he didn't know how to be anxious.

The old man in the blue shirt also noticed his unusual calmness, and observed his every move with probing eyes.

However, Quentin always maintained an expression and a movement, as if he was just looking up at the votes, and he was not emotional.

The more he behaved like this, the more worried Mr. Xue was.

Sure enough.

His hunch started to come true.

The big screen jumped this time.

The number of votes that came out became 26:35.

It seems that Nie Qingru still has the advantage between the two, but the number of people who voted for it has increased, and they have begun to draw closer to them.

If you want to say that Mr. Xue can still comfort himself a little at the moment, there is a gap of 9 votes in the middle.

Even the data that jumped out in the next second started to make him fidget.

32:35.

6 more votes in favor, and they didn't move at all.

The face of the old man in the green shirt became ugly, and Lei Kai began to relax his tense expression, and even turned around and said to him: "Old Xue, it seems that we may not necessarily lose."

"What's going on?" Nie Qingru was also paying attention to the number of votes.

When the votes of approval rose sharply, and they couldn't move anymore, her face was as bad as Xue Lao's. If it wasn't for her good upbringing to force her to sit in her seat, she might have to stand up again.

Chapter 4020 Nie Qingru fell to the altar

But the nightmare has just begun.

Soon the number of votes on the big screen was overtaken and became 36:35.

Immediately afterwards it became 40:35.

When the approval vote exceeds the 50 mark.

Their side moved a vote with difficulty, barely becoming 36 votes.

Nie Qingru seemed to be choked by fate, her throat made a grunt, her face was gloomy, and she suddenly asked Shadow: "Didn't you say that we are sure we can win 59 votes?!"

If they can get 59 votes, it is impossible for the opponent to exceed 49 votes.

But now I slap my face.

The opponent already has 50 votes.

Their so-called certainty of getting 59 votes has become a joke.

And as the current plot continues to develop, Nie Qingru's heart beats faster, and she is about to throw herself out of the throat, unable to imagine the scene where she loses.

How sure they were that they would win before, now how much they hope that time will slow down and they will have a chance to reverse the unfavorable situation.

But time waits for no one.

Just like not waiting for Lei Kai before, time will not favor them now.

The big screen is refreshed again.

This time the number of votes in favor came to 55 votes, and they were still a poor 36 votes.

The winner is out!

Nie Qingru's palms were sticky and sweaty, she couldn't believe in looking at the projection screen, and she couldn't believe that she had worked hard for so many years and was beaten back to her original shape!

Is she angry?

Of course I was extremely angry.

But she is very clear that anger is useless at the moment, it will only make people laugh for nothing.

Nie Qingru even heard the tide of discussion behind her when the number of votes in favor reached 55, saying that she—

"God, are we witnessing history? The queen was impeached."

"Before the votes came out, I couldn't believe that the queen would really be impeached. I heard that the queen and the Nie family had found many families before, and it didn't seem to be very effective."

"...and old Xue, a conservative, wasted his hard work. In order to keep the queen, he begged many people and owed a huge debt of favor. This is a big loss!"

"It's good that the hidden family doesn't have an empress. I've long been displeased with the domineering people of the Nie family who bully men and women with the help of the so-called empress. As the empress, I don't see her taking care of her family. It's all right now... Gone."

"The voting results are out."

The next few minutes were undoubtedly a disguised insult to Nie Qingru.

The number of yes votes on the projection screen keeps rising, and after 55 votes, the rise is getting faster and faster.

However, negative votes did not move at all.

The final result comes out.

72 votes in favor of impeaching the Queen.

36 votes against.

It is clear at a glance who wins and who loses.

The second the result came out, Nie Qingru left the meeting angrily, and left the Privy Council with the eyes of hundreds of people in the parliament hall exploring and watching.

As one of the three giants of the Privy Council, Mr. Xue had to sit in his seat and listen to the announcement of the voting results. It felt as if there were needles under his buttocks, which was extremely uncomfortable.

At this moment, the archbishop stood up and walked in front of him, with a polite smile on his mature and handsome face, he said to him, "Old Xue, let me go."

The other party's behavior undoubtedly slapped him again in public. Xue Lao changed his face after being humiliated, and stood up by himself: "You shouldn't be on Qiao Nian's side."

"No matter how she is, she is just an outsider, and she will not help our hermit family if she values the capital city and the Ji family of Independent Continent in the future."

He thinks the archbishop is too confused.

They should not help anyone but their biggest opponent in the future.

Qiao Nian is very much like Ji Wu Falcon back then.

Genius turned out to be unstoppable!

They should work together to put out this fire, and not give her a chance to start a blaze.
