

Madam's 4101

Chapter 4101: We also have a document to show you

The shareholder representatives headed by Steve cautiously observed Nie Qingru's reaction, while Lei Kai and others looked at the high-level representatives who took the lead in shouting with half-smile eyes.

Only Nie Qing raised his eyelids as usual, and agreed: "Yes. I'm stuck in traffic on the road, and I'm late for a while. Everyone can start the meeting."

Others called her empress, but she didn't deny it, but admitted that she was still the empress of the hermit family!

The shareholders led by Steve were stunned by her move.

Steve instinctively glanced in the direction of Lei Kai.

Lei Kai raised the corners of his mouth and did not speak. He leaned forward slightly and put his hands on the round conference table, as if he didn't want to pay attention to Nie Qingru to amuse himself.

Steve got the information from his body language, sat down calmly, and gave the people on his side a look of "be quiet and don't be impatient".

The meeting was conducted in an orderly manner.

This Smith Bank shareholder meeting is a reform meeting proposed by the shareholder representatives, and it has been revealed in advance that they want to change people.

Nie Qingru naturally knew this.

So at the beginning of the meeting, the confrontation between the two sides was very intense.

On the one hand, the shareholder representatives headed by Steve stood up time and time again to criticize Nie Qingru's recent mistakes in decision-making, which dragged the bank into a financial trap.

On the one hand, senior executive representatives mainly trained by Nie Qingru distribute documents to each person, using data from the past ten years to prove that the bank's momentum has risen under the leadership of Nie Qingru.

"Previous successes cannot erase the fact that these few major decision-making mistakes!"

"Director Hans can guarantee that he will not make a single mistake in his life, and you will make the right decision every time?"

The senior management made a strong counterattack: "I don't think that a few occasional mistakes in decision-making can't eliminate the success of Mr. Nie's excellent leadership of Smith Bank for more than ten years. At least the data on the documents I handed over to everyone can explain everything! These data can't be fake!"

The meeting room fell into a brief silence.

Both sides were arguing with red faces, thick necks, and gasping for breath, neither of them convinced the other.

But Nie Qingru's written 'evidence' has always been more confident than the shareholder meeting's mere lip service.

Seeing that the scale was tilted towards Nie Qingru.

Steve Shi Shiran said: "We also have a document to show you."

He snapped his fingers: "Come in."

The assistants outside pushed the door in and distributed the documents that had been prepared to everyone, making sure that everyone had a copy, including Nie Qingru herself.

Nie Qingru looked at the paper in front of her, narrowed her eyes, and instead of flipping through it immediately, she pursed her lips and swept it away with sharp eyes.

She took a look at Steve first to make sure that he was a conservative. Only then did he pick up the documents on the table and roughly open them, scanning them for a look.

The more Nie Qingru looked, the lower the air pressure on her body became.

Steve threw out the trump card he had prepared a long time ago: "Everyone can take a look at the data I provided in my hand. From it, we can see the number of times the Nie family has asked for benefits from the bank in the name of Mr. Nie. During the year, the cooperative projects between Nie's family and the bank, as well as the income."

"In the documents I provided, you can clearly see that among the 30 projects we have cooperated with the Nie family, only 2 projects achieved profitability, but 28 projects lost money, and each of them caused heavy losses to the bank! "

"According to the rules, a partner bank like Nie's will not cooperate with the other party after the first loss."

Chapter 4102: Mr. Nie wouldn't want to mention the Zhai family

"Even if we will cooperate with the other party, we must go through a lot of consideration and hold a shareholder meeting to pass the decision before we can cooperate again."

He looked at Nie Qingru, who was sitting upright, and threw the question back.

"So I would like to ask Mr. Nie, what makes such a partner able to **** blood from the bank and take away bank projects time and time again?"

He did not attack Nie Qingru in terms of decision-making, but chose an unexpected point to attack.

Nie Qingru undoubtedly has a certain amount of ability on his body. It is difficult for him to succeed in changing people just by looking for reasons from Nie Qingru.

But Nie Qingru is followed by a group of vampire-like family members, and these are the main points he wants to talk about today.

Many people in Smith Bank have long been extremely dissatisfied with the behavior of the Nie family in the bank to get credit cards. With the shocking data on this document thrown out by Steve, they reminded them that Nie Tao and others oppressed them. The past of swaggering on the head.

Shareholders are quite irritated.

Someone snorted, put the paper on the table vigorously, and said in a low voice: "Yes! Director Steve is right. The bank is not a tool for someone to extract profits, nor is it the back garden of Nie's family. Mr. Nie wants to If you want to be re-elected, you have to give everyone an explanation!"

Someone pretended to be gentle and easy to talk: "Indeed, it would be too much if I didn't give an explanation."

Nie Qingru was still looking at the document in his hand, his face was livid and ugly, the finger bones holding the paper were pale, and he grabbed the edge hard, almost crumpling the document in his hand.

Fortunately, she still has some sanity in her body, so she won't lose her mind due to the good deeds done by her family. After she lost her composure briefly, she quickly adjusted her state.

"I didn't know about these things beforehand, and no one ever mentioned them to me."

"Mr. Nie said so, I'm afraid everyone will be very satisfied." Of course Steve will not let her go easily.

Nie Qingru raised her eyelids and looked at him again.

Steve had already figured out from Lei Kai the attitudes of the several giants of the Privy Council, so naturally he would not be afraid of Nie Qingru, who was no longer the empress.

"Mr. Nie, it has nothing to do with you that we want to change people. The main reason is that you have brought too many nepotism, and these bad relationships affect the normal operation of the bank. We need a more fair person to represent everyone's interests... "

Nie Qingru heard him tearing apart to express that he wanted to change, his expression changed from indifference to gloomy, and he suppressed the sullen look between his brows that was about to rain.

She sat up, put her hands on the round conference table and looked around at everyone.

"I'm not only related to the Nie family, but also to the Ji family in Independent State."

The expressions of everyone in the conference room changed slightly, and they began to re-examine her.

But some people have heard that her relationship with Independent Island is not as harmonious as imagined. The current head of the Ji family has no blood relationship with Nie Qingru, so she may not support her nominal mother.

One more... The Ji family in Independent Continent has a great reputation, but without the existence of BT like Ji Wu Falcon, the years under Ji Lingfeng's leadership can only be regarded as useless.

The Ji family is no longer the existence that everyone in the hidden family feared!

Nie Qingru's mention of Ji's family in Independence Island now doesn't have the deterrent effect he wanted. Everyone just relaxed after a short period of tension.

Including Steve.

"Mr. Nie, what exactly do you want to say?"

Nie Qingru was annoyed that he didn't give her face, her face remained calm, Shi Shiran said:
"Besides Ji's family, there is another person beside me."

Steve disapproved and said, "Mr. Nie, you don't want to mention the Zhai family, do you?"

Chapter 4103 The old witch moved sister Nian out

He didn't give Nie Qingru a chance to continue, and said bluntly: "That Young Master Zhai hasn't caused us enough trouble? We are all wiping his **** now. Mr. Nie thinks he is a treasure. In our eyes, he is better than those in your family." People are still troublesome."

Nie Qingru's face twitched, sharp brows were pressed down, and a pair of hooked eyes were extremely deep: "I'm not talking about him."

Steve pouted: "Then what are you talking about?"

"..."

Nie Qingru looked around at everyone in the meeting room. She could clearly see the dissatisfaction with herself and the ambition to replace her in the eyes of these people.

She narrowed her eyes.

"Qiao Nian."

There was an uproar in the conference room.

"Joe Nian?"

"What's the meaning?"

"Qiao Nian should be the one in Beijing? The girl who has a close relationship with Continent F and the illegal area?"

Everyone whispered to each other, buzzing and discussing.

Steve was also taken aback, looking after Lei Kai for confirmation.

Where is Nie Qingru playing?

Who knew that Lei Kai's frosty face was also staring at the woman in the top position, with surprise, inquiry, inspection and so on across his stiff face.

So much so that Lei Kai didn't notice Steve's begging eyes for him.

Seeing that the young man didn't respond, Steve had no choice but to rely on himself, and set his sights on Nie Qingru again, this time much more seriously.

"Mr. Nie, what does this mean?"

"She is my granddaughter." Nie Qingru sat on her own seat, relaxed her shoulders, slightly raised the back of her neck, and raised her chin slightly.

—Qiao Nian is Nie Qingru's granddaughter!

This answer was like dropping a bombshell in the conference room, and most people were so shocked that they didn't recover for a long time.

"this..."

Before there were various discussions.

When she cast this important secret, everyone couldn't even whisper, because it was too surprising.

Except for Lei Kai, no one thought that Nie Qingru and Qiao Nian would have such a relationship.

Even the shadow changed from being as silent as a sculpture before. Looking at Nie Qingru's back, he hesitated to speak, with a complicated expression on his face.

Only Nie Qingru was full of arrogance, regained control of the situation, and confronted Steve and a group of shareholders who opposed her: "She is the blood left by my daughter. She has been wandering outside all these years and has not recognized her. Therefore, she There was a misunderstanding with me. But these are just small problems, I believe that as long as we give us a little more time, sooner or later we will touch the gap..."

"After all, blood relationship can never be changed." She narrowed her eyes meaningfully.

after an hour.

The circular meeting in the meeting room is over.

The shareholders headed by Steve left like defeated roosters one by one, and several high-level executives also greeted Nie Qingru with interest and left.

In a blink of an eye, there were only a few people left in the conference room.

Lei Kai pushed aside the chair and stood up, put the file folder on the table for the meeting under his arm, and returned it before leaving.

He walked up to Nie Qingru who hadn't left yet, and said meaningfully, "President Nie uses Qiao Nian as his confidence, does she know?"

Nie Qingru looked over suddenly: "What do you want to say?"

On the surface, she still maintains the grace and elegance that a nobleman should have, but only she can understand the embarrassment inside.

Ristife and the others in the conference room before didn't know how ugly she and Qiao Nian were, but she could barely persuade herself to put on a show.

But facing Lei Kai who knew the inside story, what she said just now in an emergency was like a slap in the face.

It hurts as much as it hurts.

So of course Nie Qingru would not give Lei Kai a good look.

Chapter 4104 I thought Mr. Nie hated Qiao Nian

Fortunately, Lei Kai didn't mean to humiliate her, and looked past her face: "I thought Mr. Nie hated Qiao Nian very much."

Lei Kai saw her expression change.

I know it well.

He didn't irritate Nie Qingru any more. The shadow that rushed forward nodded and said to Nie Qingru, "Congratulations to Mr. Nie for being re-elected as the helm of the bank."

"I still have something to do, so let's go first."

Lei Kai said as he stretched his long legs, turned and walked outside.

His assistant was waiting outside for Lei Kai to go out, and thoughtfully opened the door of the conference room for the people inside, waiting for Lei Kai to go out.

The two exchanged a few words briefly.

The assistant looked at Nie Qingru who hadn't left yet, hesitated for a moment, let go of her hand, and followed.

The door of the conference room bounced back and made a 'pop-' sound.

It was like a loud slap in the face.

Nie Qingru curled her hand on the round conference table forcefully, the veins on the back of her hand were bulging, and trying to regulate her breathing, she closed her eyes and exhaled foul air, forcefully suppressing the anger in her heart.

"Do you have something to tell me?"

She didn't turn her head, but felt the shadow standing behind her, as if she wanted to say something to her.

Nie Qingru's mind is buzzing right now, and she is extremely upset. She really doesn't want to hear any more topics related to today's meeting.

But she didn't remind Shadow not to speak.

It's just frost on the face, cold eyes, and cold air on the body. Once the shadow talks about something she doesn't like to hear, she will immediately get angry.

"Queen, there is news from the illegal area."

Nie Qingru opened her eyes and turned to look at him.

Shadow hung her head on her neck, neither saying yes nor bad, Nie Qingru felt a strong sense of uneasiness, and she didn't know where she got her sixth sense, which was that things went wrong.

"Is he still alive in West City?"

"Young Master Zhai should still be alive." Shadow hurriedly said.

Nie Qingru's heart fell into the ground, but at least he didn't fall into the abyss. After calming down a little, he said, "Tell me, what's going on?"

She has been busy for more than half a month without touching the ground, but it doesn't mean she has given up on managing Zhai Xicheng.

Nie Qingru tried her best to find someone to rescue him in the limited time, and finally came up with a brilliant idea.

The illegal area is the territory of Lu Zhi.

The Red League is also one of the local forces that cannot be provoked.

It is really difficult for them to implement it there, so they came up with a good way to 'steal the day for the day'.

She personally met the F continent's stand-in.

Not to mention that he looks exactly the same as Zhai Xicheng, at least he has a five-point resemblance.

The key is that this man has the same body shape, fat, thinness, and skin color as Zhai Xicheng. If time does not allow, she can find a plastic surgery agency to do a few things for him, making him look like Zhai Xicheng.

But there was no time, so she instructed others to let the young man watch the video and imitate Zhai Xicheng's behavior and habits for a short time.

Finally, she felt that it was almost done, and arranged for the person to be sent to the illegal area.

Her influence in the illegal area was almost uprooted by Qiao Nian, but this time she just sent a few 'ordinary people' into the illegal area.

This trivial matter is not difficult for Nie Qingru.

Now she doesn't know which link went wrong and how it failed.

Shadow roughly fed back the news he had received to her: "...David discovered the person who replaced Young Master Zhai, and planned to pull out our last nail in the illegal area. Half a day on the deck, Ying San Ying Liu was also arrested by him."

Chapter 4105 Have you figured out where to find raw materials?

He didn't dare to tell Nie Qingru that David's gangster Chunlei had dislocated both of Zhai Xicheng's arms and locked him up in a damp water tank.

Because of what he just said, he had already seen the Queen's eyes getting darker and colder, and she punched the conference table hard.

"He dares!"

Nie Qingru was so angry that her chest heaved up and down, and there was a string in her head that was tightly stretched and pulled the back of her head into a headache.

She was so angry that her complexion turned black, but she was clear in her heart.

David is from Qiao Nian, not from the Hermit family. He has nothing to do with her, so of course he won't fear her.

Because Qiao Nian himself didn't deal with her and didn't respect her as a grandmother, how could the people under Qiao Nian's subordinates take him seriously?

Nie Qingru almost vomited blood when he thought of this, and forced his blood to surge and asked the shadow: "Where are they taking people?"

"...Independent Island." Shadow has been with her for decades, so why can't she see how angry she is now, and whispered: "Qiao Nian is in Independent Island."

"Hmph." Nie Qingru sneered: "I know she's in Independent Island even if you don't tell me! How could David appear in the illegal area except for her orders. She's really cute!"

If Qiao Nian hadn't asked David to make a special trip, her people might have rescued Xi Cheng.

Nie Qingru vomited until she felt a pain in her chest at the thought that she was only going to miss the door. She pressed her hand to her heart and opened her eyes to try to find a way.

"We can't leave Xicheng in her hands, it's too dangerous."

Seeing that she was so angry and still thinking about Zhai Xicheng, Yingying couldn't help but whispered: "Queen, we have put a lot of effort into supporting Young Master Zhai. You are not in a good situation now, why don't you forget it? I want to lead by the nose."

"I don't want to hear you say something like this again." Nie Qingru turned to look at him with cold eyes, not angry but pretentious.

After being reprimanded, Shadow slowly lowered his head: "...Yes."

Nie Qingru ignored his emotions, turned around, and quickly hit the table with her knuckles, seeming to remember something, and asked him without raising her eyelids: "I remember you told me a few days ago that something interesting happened in Beijing. thing?"

"You mean..." Shadow looked over.

Nie Qingru thought, and ordered: "You bring that person here, I want to see her."

**

Qiao Nian still doesn't know that 'someone' has stabilized her position in State M in the name of her.

She and Xu Yi met Shi Fu and Feng Yu together.

Shi Fu shared with her the results of their research during this period. Among them, there are several raw materials. He still can't decide which material he has tested is more suitable for making the weapons left by Ji Qing.

Feng Yu has a wider network than Shi Fu in this respect.

He pulled Qiao Nian aside and chatted, "Have you figured out where to find raw materials?"

"There are several raw materials, and my friend has them. The only thing missing is chromium and tungsten. Among them, chromium is simple, and you can go to the black market to find sellers. The problem is tungsten..."

Qiao Nian thought about this on the road.

"We need a large amount of tungsten gold for experiments. A small amount can be found on the black market, but a large amount will arouse suspicion from all countries."

Tungsten is known as the king of war metals, the soul of the military industry, and it was first used in the civilian field at the beginning.

For example, Edison invented the light bulb.

Later, people gradually discovered that tungsten has a high density, and the alloy made from it has good hardness and strong corrosion resistance, so it is widely used in weapon manufacturing.

Currently all weapons and equipment need this metal, whether it is guns, cannons, missiles, or bombs, they all need it.

Chapter 4106 You are eaten to death by others

It is easy to buy guns and shells outside, but it is difficult for you to buy a large amount of tungsten gold.

Qiao Nian frowned at this thought, impetuously, raised her hand and pressed down the brim of her hat to cover her clear pupils, with the tails of her eyes slightly drawn back.

"Let me think about it again."

Hearing what she said, Feng Yu knew that Qiao Nian had no good path for the time being, so she looked away, nodded, and said solemnly, "I'll help you find a way."

"Thank you Feng Lao." Qiao Nian raised his head and looked over.

Feng Yu stretched out his hand and patted her shoulder, smiling: "Okay, don't be polite to me."

"En." Qiao Nian pursed her lips, and stopped saying thank you words that were too polite, and only kept his thoughts in her heart.

Feng Yu deliberately found a lighter topic after finishing his business, and let go of his hands: "You just came back, right? What are the arrangements for the evening."

Qiao Nian was tired from standing, so she simply leaned against the wall, stretched her legs, calmly suppressed the tiredness between her brows, and said in a low voice, "...No arrangement for now."

Feng Yu looked at Xu Yi and Shi Fu who were still communicating in the laboratory, turned his head away, and said to her, "How about having a dinner with the people from the research institute tonight?"

He didn't wait for Qiao Nian to refuse, and said with a smile: "Bring the one at home."

Qiao Nian raised his hand and touched the bridge of his nose, saying, "Okay, I'll ask him."

Feng Yu smacked his lips and shook his head: "You, you, everything is fine, but you will be eaten to death."

Qiao Nian thought of Ye Wangchuan, but didn't feel that there was a relationship between them. He took out his mobile phone and edited WeChat messages for someone noncommittally, without looking up, he asked, "Who else is there tonight?"

Feng Yu reported a few names, all of whom were familiar.

Shen Qingfeng and Xue Zhu are both there.

There are also Cao Yanhua and Han Cheng.

Feng Yu also mentioned a few names, Qiao Nian didn't have much impression.

But she is probably also a member of the First Research Institute. Since Feng Yu called these people, they must be more trustworthy people in the First Research Institute.

She has no comment.

After sending Ye Wangchuan a message about dinner, Qiao Nian put away her phone, put it in her pocket, stood up straight and said to Feng Yu, "Then I'll go in first?"

She also wants to go in and talk to Shi Fu about the data of their recent experiments, and discuss the issue of tungsten gold...

"Okay, let's go in." Feng Yu saw that she wasn't thinking about eating, so he waved her away.

Qiao Nian went in to find Shi Fu and the others.

at the same time.

In a senior club in Independent State.

Ye Fanchuan wore goggles, held a gun in his left hand, raised it, aimed at a target 50 meters away and pulled the trigger.

"boom!"

Only one gunshot was heard in the shooting range.

Everyone saw that the man put down his gun and took off his goggles in a leisurely manner, and the gentleman walked towards the crowd with his sleeves rolled up and his bare wrist exposed.

The staff of the club trot over to report to everyone.

"10 shots, 10 targets, hit the red heart."

Everyone looked at the young man walking over Ling Ran, but no one spoke.

This oriental man hit all 10 shots. The accuracy rate of this marksmanship is as high as 100%, which has reached the professional sniper level.

Finally, a pockmarked face came to his senses, he hugged Ji Nan's shoulders, leaned on him with a smile and said, "Young Master Ji, your brother-in-law is not ordinary."

Ji Nan was also in this group of people, and still belonged to the middle position. Now he suppressed his displeasure, slightly frowned, and patted his hand away: "Daniel, get up!"

"Don't be so heartless~"

The man named Daniel by Ji Nan has brown hair, three-dimensional and tough facial features, but the pockmarks on his face are more eye-catching than his appearance, and people always notice his complexion blemishes first.

Chapter 4107 You also know that Independent Island has always been exclusive

He himself didn't care about pockmarks, and he didn't use any means to cover it up, but his calm and free attitude made people look up to him.

Ye Wangchuan noticed this person at the first sight when he met Jinan, his aura was unique enough, he looked a bit like someone, with arrogance and wantonness on his body.

Thinking of this, Ye Wangchuan walked to his seat and bent down to pick up the jacket thrown on the back of the chair, found the phone, and looked at it.

I don't know if it's telepathy.

The first thing he saw was the message from Qiao Nian asking him to have dinner tonight.

Ye Wangchuan edited WeChat with his mobile phone in both hands, his thin lips were slightly raised, and his downcast and focused eyes became more and more outstanding.

The Eastern and Western aesthetics are not quite consistent.

But human beings have the same pursuit of beauty.

People who like to see the extreme, no matter what kind of aesthetics they put on, they will not make people say they are ugly.

Daniel's eyes flickered and looked at Ye Fanchuan several times, and he sighed with emotion: "I used to think that oriental people have flat facial features and no characteristics. Until now, seeing him, I have to admit that my eyesight is narrow. I can understand why your sister likes it. He is... really good, if I was a woman, I would also like this type of handsome guy."

"She is not the superficial person you say." Ji Nan extremely dislikes people talking about Qiao Nian, even though Daniel has no malicious intentions, just teasing in a Western style.

Ji Nan still didn't give Daniel a chance to continue talking, and cut to the point: "You know the purpose of my coming to you today, right?"

Daniel said: "Of course."

The shooting range of this club has been occupied by this group of people all year round. There is even a bar here, and the wine racks at the bar are full of red wine that is hard to find outside.

In addition to playing shooting games that the upper class loves to play, they also occasionally play kendo, equestrianism, and golf.

These venues are next to this shooting gallery, as long as you go out, you can play.

Today except Daniel.

Ji Nan called many people.

There are a dozen or so people in total.

The dozen or so people here are all rare people outside, and they are definitely at the top of the independent continent's food chain.

Of course, these people are relatively young in terms of age. They are in the same generation as Ji Nan, and they are 10 years younger than Ji Lingfeng, Simon and others.

Ji Nan counted the number of people, and probably knew it well.

"Ross didn't come?"

"He said something happened at home."

Ji Nan frowned, suppressed his anger and said, "Nanling didn't come either? Is there something wrong with his family?"

"Hmph." Daniel shrugged and laughed: "You two are close, his uncle, wife and your mother are sisters, so you can be related as cousins. You ask me?"

Ji Nan's face flashed with obvious displeasure, and he pushed him away: "You really don't know?"

Daniel looked at him with a half-smile, then looked away and caught a glimpse of Ye Fanchuan who was playing with his mobile phone not far away, then looked back, looked at Ji Nan again, and said vaguely: "He told me to go to the manor Visit Aunt Xie, come over when you have time."

"..." implies that the time is too late to come.

Ji Nan laughed angrily.

He knew the meaning of Ross and Nanling, but he looked down on outsiders from the Independent State.

Even if he personally builds a bridge to make a referral, there will always be people who are unwilling to give face, thinking that coming here is a waste of time.

Because Ye Wangchuan was still here, Ji Nan suppressed his unhappiness, and said with no expression on his face, "I see."

Daniel saw that he was angry, put his arms around Ji Nan's shoulders, and said comfortingly: "Hey! You also know that Independent Island has always been xenophobic. It's not that everyone doesn't give you face, it's really a habit for a long time."

Chapter 4108 Ji Nan introduces Mr. Wang into his circle

"Didn't we have a lot of people here? You want to introduce friends, so many people are enough for you to introduce for a long time."

"Hehe." Ji Nan sneered twice, but he didn't push him away, but said inexplicably: "Since I specially asked you to come out and introduce someone to you, I won't introduce you for nothing. What do you really think I am?" They asked you to come out and introduce each other?"

"Yes, yes, yes." Daniel agreed, but he thought in his heart that this person is not your brother-in-law? Don't you just want to match your brother-in-law into the circle of Independence Island?

Ji Nan could hear the perfunctory in his tone, didn't bother to tell him, shook off his hand and raised his legs and walked over to look for Ye Wangchuan.

At this moment, Ye Fanchuan just finished replying to the message.

Out of the corner of his eye, he glanced at the man's put away mobile phone interface, saw the familiar WeChat avatar, and eased his tone: "Niannian looking for you?"

Ye Wangchuan put the mobile phone back into his coat, and said with dignity and elegance: "Well, the dean asked for dinner."

"Old Feng?" Ji Nan looked at him.

Ye Wangchuan turned around: "Yes."

Standing face to face with Ji Nan, he is a bit taller than Ji Nan, and there will be a sense of oppression in his aura, but Ye Wangchuan deliberately restrains himself, so his whole body is very relaxed.

"Tonight together?"

He took the initiative to invite Ji Nan.

Ji Nan felt a headache when he thought of Feng Yu and others, so he declined: "Forget it, I'm not interested in what you guys are talking about."

He was recently forced by Ji Lingfeng to learn black powder technology.

It's just that he himself is not this material.

Compared to black powder, he prefers to study the numbers on the stock market rather than a bunch of obscure experimental articles.

Ji Nan spent every day among a group of teachers in Ji's family and suffered a lot. He really didn't want to make himself uncomfortable, so he went to the First Research Institute to listen to those things again in front of the top experts.

He changed the subject, looked back at Daniel and the others, and said to Ye Wangchuan: "Let's go, I'll go over and introduce these people to you."

"Um."

He thought about it and said: "You Yaomen's identity is not convenient to use, you always need an identity to go in and out of some occasions."

"These people are all my friends. It won't hurt you to get acquainted, just prepare yourself an extra identity."

"I know."

Ye Wangchuan knew the other party's thoughts from the moment Ji Nan asked him to come. With his level of thinking, since he cooperated with Jinan to come here, he accepted Jinan's kindness.

"Thanks."

"You still don't want to say thank you to me." Ji Nan glanced at him with a complicated expression, but didn't say anything, and dragged Ye Wangchuan to the crowd.

Daniel and the others were already waiting at the rest area.

The shooting range here is specially equipped with a super large circular leather sofa, coffee table and so on in order to let the group of young masters rest well.

This sofa alone is worth hundreds of thousands.

It doesn't hurt that such an expensive sofa is thrown out by a few people as a pastime. This kind of generosity alone is more profligate than Beijing City Zhang Yang and others.

Jinan led Ye Wangchuan over.

Daniel took the lead to say hello to the visitor, with a friendly attitude: "Friend, I heard that you are Ji Nan's brother-in-law, and his brother-in-law is my brother-in-law. From now on, I will cover you~"

He patted his chest for assurance, and then reported his name: "Daniel. What about you?"

Ye Fanchuan, with black hair and black eyes, was particularly conspicuous among a group of people, with a calm and calm aura around him, standing beside Jinan and looking at Daniel neither humble nor overbearing.

"Ye Fanchuan."

"Ye?" Daniel couldn't pronounce the words clearly.

He probably admired Ye Wangchuan's hit rate of 10 shots and 10 targets before, and he might also look at Ji Nan's face, so he reached out to Ye Wangchuan.

Chapter 4109 I have already had an idea

"We know each other?"

"certainly."

Ye Wangchuan reached out and shook his hand.

The two let go of their hands.

Daniel turned his head to look at the others: "What are you doing in a daze, let me introduce myself."

His status in Ji Nan's circle is not low, that is, he is a little lower than the crown prince of the Ji family, and his family is also one of the top forces in Independence Island.

Others saw that Daniel put down his body and took the initiative to make friends with people from outside, so they didn't want to give Daniel and Ji Nan face.

Everyone introduced themselves to Ye Wangchuan.

"Kevin."

"Scarlett."

"..."

Seven or eight people in a row came up and briefly reported their names to each other.

However, compared to Daniel, these people seem to be more perfunctory, and most of them just deal with it with their mouths and say that they will take care of Ye Wangchuan.

In fact, they don't even have to exchange contact information with each other.

Daniel saw the attitude of other people, spread his arms on the back of the sofa, leaned back, and looked at Jinan with his eyes.

That look seemed to say: Look, I told you it's not that easy!

Ji Nan caught a glimpse of his eyes looking over, and a trace of annoyance flashed across his handsome face, but it was hindered by his face, and everyone showed him face.

He is not easy to criticize, he insists that the big guys don't accept the people he pulls in.

Ji Nan could only hold down a breath, tilted his head and was about to talk to Ye Wangchuan: "You want to have dinner with Niannian tonight, why don't you go first?"

What he wanted was to talk to these people again alone.

Unexpectedly, Ye Wangchuan raised his eyebrows slightly, his dark and deep eyes swept across the people present, and he stood up straight with his long legs.

Suddenly he said: "I have a rare earth business in my hand and want to enter the independent continent. Everyone knows it. Is there anyone interested?"

Rare earth?

The people present sat up straight.

All looked at the oriental man in astonishment.

Daniel even changed his previous slackness, sitting upright, squinting his eagle's sharp eyes and shooting at Ye Fanchuan: "Do you have rare earth?"

"If the quantity is small..." Rare earths are not something that everyone can have, and only fragmentary quantities are circulated on the black market.

Daniel thought that the rare earths Ye Wangchuan had on hand were similar to retail investors on the black market, only a few hundred grams or several kilograms.

Then he is not interested.

He subconsciously regards people outside the Independent Continent as vain chickens, and he doesn't think too much of it. He just gives Ji Nan face and doesn't embarrass Ye Wangchuan.

"If you have a small quantity and want to find a way to sell, I can give you some pointers, or find a friend to find a way to sell it for you."

Ye Wangchuan Shi Shiran: "There are a lot of them."

Daniel frowned, crossed his hands on his knees, leaned forward and said, "Do you know how much is too much in Independent State?"

He has a sense of momentum and pressure.

Compared to the foolish look before, this seems to be his true face, he is not a joking person, otherwise he would not appear in Ji Nanzan's game.

Independence Continent is a mixed bag of good and bad people, and those who can get into this circle will not be incompetent masters even if they rely on the shelter of their families.

"I have several mines." Ye Wangchuan said indifferently.

He didn't deliberately use his aura to overwhelm others like Daniel.

Ye Wangchuan stood tall and tall beside Ji Nan, with loose hands in his pockets, slightly raised eyes, and smooth forehead, he definitely didn't look like Daniel and others were exposed.

He is like a handsome nobleman who came out of the ancient East, he is restrained in his bones, but he is not inferior to others!

People dare not underestimate it.

Chapter 4110 Missed 100 million

Daniel smiled bluntly and turned his head to look at Ji Nan next to him: "Ji Shao, you didn't give us the bottom line before this."

Ji Nan's face was stiff, and he smiled awkwardly: "Ha ha."

Actually, he didn't know that Ye Wangchuan was planning to use rare earths to break into the independent continent market.

He didn't even know how many rare earth mines Ye Wangchuan had.

What does rare earth mine mean?

Even if it is not an independent continent.

People like Ye Fanchuan will be wooed by various forces on any occasion.

Ji Nan knew almost immediately what he was thinking—in the face of actual interests, any exclusion and prejudice could be resolved.

It is much more practical for him to use the rare earth business to break into the circle than to insist on introducing him into the circle!

"Are you interested?" Ye Fanchuan looked straight at Daniel.

Daniel froze for a moment, pointing to himself: "You mean me?"

He looked left and right, saw the people around him who were about to move, and said with a smile: "You don't think about other people?"

Others immediately looked at Ye Wangchuan, looking expectantly, it seems that everyone wants to take a bite of this business.

Ye Wangchuan ignored these gazes: "There is nothing to consider, you are the best candidate."

"Interesting!" Daniel laughed.

He stood up, walked in front of Ye Wangchuan, and stretched out his hand again, this time his attitude was much more equal and sincere: "Then we have a pleasant cooperation?"

"Happy cooperation." Ye Wangchuan lightly shook hands with him and let go.

The two exchanged contact information under the witness of Ji Nan.

Others saw that they missed this rare earth business, and it was a lie to say no regrets, and each of them felt extremely uncomfortable like a cat scratching.

Wait until Ye Fanchuan and Daniel are almost done talking.

They didn't use Ji Nan's recommendation to take the initiative to talk to Ye Fanchuan, and they didn't take Joe, they rushed to exchange contact information.

What is said inside and outside the words are friends.

There are always one or two people who didn't squeeze in, and those who watched the excitement and didn't think it was a big deal sent messages to the few people who didn't come in the corner.

[fmi: Are you really not coming? ]

They also privately have their own group messages.

The few people in the group who didn't come were still playing dead, and no one came out to make bubbles.

Everyone is a thousand-year-old fox, and Kevin naturally understands why they don't come out to speak.

He said to himself.

[fmi: You missed a big opportunity by not coming today. ]

[fmi: The friends Ji Nan introduced this time are not the bumpkins and gold diggers we thought before. We didn't know how many rare earth mines they had in their hands before, but Daniel had a good attitude and took the initiative to say hello to people. This is not the case. They want to bring the rare earth business to Independent Continent. They need to find a partner. They chose Daniel as their partner. ]

He said sourly.

[fmi: So Daniel is better than us every time, no, let him take advantage again. ]

Thinking of something in a blink of an eye, Kevin bowed his head and edited the message and sent it to the group.

[fmi: But... let's add the contact information of Ji Nan's friends, and look for opportunities to make more appointments later, and we can talk about cooperation. ]

[fmi: Rare earths are not a business accessible to everyone, and there are such a large amount of rare earths, tsk! You are at a loss! ]

No one in the group spoke up.

But Kevin put away his phone contentedly, and most of the suffocation in his chest was released.

He wasn't worried that those few people didn't see the news in the group.

Everyone who stays with their mobile phones 24 hours a day will see it sooner or later.

He firmly believes that those few people have seen it a long time ago, but it's just that they can't talk to each other because of their sympathy.
