

Madam's 4911

Chapter 4911: Mr. Nie, could this be a trap?

Nie Tao led the people to blend into the queue, and it didn't take long to reach them.

"Sir, please show me your ID."

"Give."

Nie Tao handed over his passport.

The airport staff will place the passport on the machine for scanning as usual. As long as the face is scanned and passed, the passport can be returned.

Generally, there are few problems after this process. The staff also performs routine inspections before boarding the plane. Unexpectedly, the machine made a 'ding' sound.

He then looked over in surprise and saw the words 'Document does not match' displayed on the computer.

The staff member took the ID handed to him by Nie Tao and tried it again. The computer still showed a red cross, indicating that the ID did not match.

Now the staff member looked up and looked at Nie Tao, something was wrong. He took his ID and said, "Sorry, sir, please wait a moment. There is something wrong with your ID. I'll help other people check in first. Let me help you take a look."

"Impossible, I used it when I first came in and there was no problem." Nie Tao said very dissatisfied.

But the staff insisted: "Sir, please wait a moment, I will try it for you later."

Nie Tao frowned and stood in a stalemate with the opponent for a few seconds. He didn't want to cause unnecessary trouble, so he patiently walked aside and waited.

After he left, there were his subordinates who lined up behind him.

As expected, there was also a problem with the subordinate's passport and he was unable to pass, so he was arranged to wait aside.

The staff encountered two passengers with inconsistent documents in a row and thought there was something wrong with the security check machine at the airport today.

Still worried and complaining about the ghost.

Fortunately, the third person's ID showed no problem, and we did not encounter any discrepancies with the same ID later.

The airport staff let everyone in line pass the security check and board the plane, then dialed the internal phone number and reported the situation on their side.

After a while, several staff members came and said to Nie Tao and the others: "Two gentlemen, your passports failed to pass the inspection. Otherwise, you first come with us to the office and take a look to see if it is a problem with your passports or something else." Caused by other reasons."

Nie Tao was hiding something in his heart. His face was sullen and his attitude was uncooperative: "I'm in a hurry!"

He was afraid that he would not be able to get on the plane, which would cause complications.

The staff's communication attitude was good and he assured: "Don't worry, it won't take long. We will ask our colleagues to check if there is a system problem. If found, we will arrange for you to get on the plane immediately, and it will not delay your schedule..."

The plane will not take off immediately after all passengers board the plane. You still need to wait for the tower to arrange dispatch. Generally, the plane will take off half an hour after passengers board the plane.

Nie Tao felt irritated as the staff in front of him continued to explain to him, but he also knew that if the trouble was not solved, he would not be able to get on the plane, and he might not be able to leave.

So he could only take them to the office to wait for passport inspection after the other party repeatedly reiterated that Nie Tao relented; "I have important things to catch the plane. If you want to check, you can do it. I will cooperate! Please hurry up."

"No problem." The staff assured them again and took the two of them to the administrative office of the terminal, carrying their passports in their hands.

Nie Tao followed the staff, wearing a suit and leather shoes, with a strong aura, and he was very cooperative.

Instead, the subordinate next to him took three steps at a time to catch up and whispered in his ear: "Mr. Nie, could it be... a trap?"

Chapter 4912: Waiting for you, Sister Nian

Nie Tao's well-maintained face showed no expression. He continued to walk forward and hummed: "No, there can be no problem with our passports. It must be bad luck."

The subordinate was silent for a moment, not knowing whether to feel relieved or unlucky.

The reason why Nie Tao was so sure that there could be something wrong with the passport was because it was Moody who provided them with a false identity.

He knew very well Moody's identity and the power behind it, as well as the huge energy of the father on the island. So Nie Tao never doubted Mu Di's 'ability' at all.

In his mind, even if something went wrong in other aspects, the fake identity 'passport' that Moody specially prepared for them would not be discovered.

He followed the staff into the office with great peace of mind. Another staff member took two cups of water in paper cups and handed them to them, asking them to sit next to them and wait. It would be ready soon.

Although Nie Tao was anxious to board the plane, he thought that he would be able to catch the plane, so he sat there and waited with peace of mind.

During this period, the staff member who brought them here answered the phone and told them that a technician was coming to pick them up, so he left first.

In a blink of an eye, only the two of them were left in the small office.

The man brought by Nie Tao was from the army. He was vaguely aware of something unusual around him and wanted to remind his master.

But when he turned around, he saw Nie Tao sitting there looking at his watch, drinking water, and swallowing back his words.

Mr. Nie had previously stressed that there could be no problem with the passport. If he mentioned it again, Mr. Nie would probably be angry... With this mentality, the man brought by Nie Tao fell silent and forced himself to ignore his sense of danger. He stood next to Nie Tao and waited for the staff to come back.

I don't know how long it took, but there was finally a sound of footsteps outside.

The human ear that Nie Tao brought was amazing. He could judge the number of people coming through the door. He whispered to Nie Tao: "Mr. Nie, they are back. Two people. It should be the person with the computer skills he said. The staff came together."

"Hmm." Nie Tao glanced at the time on the wall clock. Ten minutes had passed. The vertical lines between his eyebrows gradually deepened. He lowered his voice and said, "I told them to move faster!"

It took them a few minutes to get here, and another ten minutes to sit here. It would take another seven or eight minutes to walk from here to the boarding gate.

It takes half an hour to go back and forth.

Nie Tao was most worried about not being able to catch the plane. He was willing to patiently cooperate with the other party's request and come and wait, only on the premise that the other party guaranteed that he could catch the plane.

If he can't catch the plane and leave Beijing today...

Nie Tao was still thinking when the door opened from the outside.

He stood up, ready to preemptively ask: "Where have you been? Why did it take so long? My passport..."

He saw the person coming in clearly, and his expression suddenly changed: "...Why is it you?! Why are you here!"

That's right.

There were only two people outside.

But it was not the airport staff who brought the technicians as they thought, but Qiao Nian and Wei Lou who came from Qingdao University.

Qiao Nian walked in front, looking unruly, like a lone wolf entering her own territory. She didn't take Nie Tao's cannibalistic eyes into consideration at all, and walked straight into the office.

Wei Lou followed her and thoughtfully closed the door for them to block the outside view, so as not to make any noise and be seen by people outside.

Chapter 4913: Qiao Nian, don't go too far

He now has a straight haircut, which is completely different from the image of the **** brother around the city. He has dealt with a lot of things with his father in the past few years, and his body is infected with a very strong and decisive anger. It's not easy to mess with at first glance!

When he came in, he did not forget to glance at Nie Tao and Nie Tao with his peach blossom eyes, and said hello with a smile: "Hey, this must be today's protagonist?"

Weilou had long legs and long, and walked to Nie Tao's extremely aggressive eyes and swept up and down, and said lightly: "Oh, admire. Dare to pull hair on the tiger's mouth."

He had a smile on his face, but Nie Tao saw keenly that his smile did not reach his eyes, and instead there was a strong murderous look in his eyes.

Nie Tao is also a person who has seen the world, so of course he will not be frightened by this trick. He very calmly ignores Wei Lou's provocation and turns all his attention to the girl who came in.

As soon as he arrived, he unconsciously put on the air of an elder that he was not aware of: "Why are you here? Who asked you to come. Did you mess with my passport? What do you want to do?"

Qiao Nian picked her ears and turned back impatiently: "You have so many questions, how can I answer you?"

Nie Tao became angry when he saw her fearless attitude and took a deep breath. He said again: "Did you mess with my passport? What do you want to do?"

Qiao Nian heard clearly now. She calmly pulled out the chair and sat down. She put her legs on the table, raised her head and said lazily: "I should ask you this question. What do you want to do, Nie?" total."

Nie Tao's heart sank.

If he still doesn't know that he has been exposed by this point, then there is something wrong with his IQ.

But how did Qiao Nian find out about him so quickly?

The driver is dead, he has no family members, and he is a bachelor. The money he gave to the driver was not from his personal account, but from Nie Tao's donation to poor patients in the name of a charitable foundation...

It is impossible for Qiao Nian to find out about him.

It happened that the person who was least likely to find him showed up at the airport at this juncture, and it was such a coincidence that there was something wrong with his passport and he couldn't leave.

Nie Tao didn't know which link he had made wrong, but he knew that Qiao Nian must have found something, so he came to block him directly.

In just a few seconds, Nie Tao's mind raced at least several times, and his complexion also changed. After finally calming down, he lowered his shoulders and said in a low voice: "I don't know what you are talking about!"

Qiao Nian didn't expect that he would think of such a lame excuse after thinking for so long. She looked at him from head to toe and asked in a light tone: "You don't know why I'm looking for you, and you don't know what happened at the gate of Qing Dynasty." I don't know anything about the car accident, so why did you use a fake passport to come to Beijing? What are you doing in Beijing? To travel?"

Nie Tao's eyebrows became even more vertical, and he looked back with sharp eyes: "What do you mean? Why do I need to report to you for what I came to the capital for? Qiao Nian, are you too arrogant!"

"You understand, you don't recognize your ancestors and us. What? I am your elder. When I go out to do things, I still need to give an explanation to your junior? This is the education you have learned in so many years outside! Yes! The filial piety that your country Z is so proud of? Who taught you to talk to your elders like this?"

Before Qiao Nian responded, Wei Lou frowned in discomfort. His usually smiling peach blossom eyes really lost their smile this time.

Nie Tao seemed to be panting with anger, but in fact he had no confidence in his heart. He could only rely on his stern appearance to intimidate the girls in front of him: "Qiao Nian, don't go too far!"

Chapter 4914: Sister Nian: Oh, what did I do?

"Papa pa pa." He was answered with a series of applause. The girl raised her head, revealing her fair and delicate face, slightly raised her chin, and stared at him with a pair of bright eyes, not stingy with her praise.

"well said."

Nie Tao suddenly blushed and became thick-necked, like a clown who was pushed onto the stage, wanting to get angry but afraid of the person in front of him.

"Qiao Nian, what on earth do you want to do!"

The girl raised her long eyes and looked at him with a surprised expression: "I wasn't listening to you. What did I do?"

She turned her face sideways and looked at the guard building on the side inquiringly.

Wei Lou raised the corners of his lips and gave her a satisfactory answer: "You didn't do anything. You just came in from outside, greeted people, and asked a few questions. Mr. Nie got angry and looked like he wanted to eat you. Looks like that, tsk! He also brought out his filial piety and suppressed others. I don't know if he thought he was a serious relative of yours."

...If they are not serious relatives, they are not serious relatives, and they are people who are totally out of touch.

Qiao Nian held her chin with her hand and nodded vaguely, seemingly listening: "Oh, I don't think I did anything."

Nie Tao couldn't bear the humiliation and shouted angrily: "Qiao Nian!"

The girl instantly put away the smile on her face and glanced over with her dark eyes, just like the snowy night of the twelfth lunar month in the middle of winter, a glance is enough to freeze someone's soul.

"Did I give you face?"

With one sentence, most of Nie Tao's furious momentum was suppressed.

Nie Tao frowned, his face flushed, and he seemed to be menacing, but in fact, he was so fierce and inwardly that there was nothing to fear: "What are you going to do by asking people to detain us here? I have already told you that your matter has nothing to do with me. I don't know what you said." Those. I need to go back to country m to discuss business now!"

"Do you think I will come to you without any evidence?" Qiao Nian asked.

Nie Tao was panicked, but he quickly sorted it out in his mind and felt that it was impossible for him to fall into the trap, so he replied with confidence: "I told you, I don't know! Let him go immediately."

"Your country Z's laws are all about evidence. If you insist that I did it or have something to do with me, you can go to the police with evidence and ask the police to arrest me."

"If you don't have evidence, don't waste everyone's time here. Let me go quickly. I have to catch the plane back."

"My family still has things to do. Unlike you, who has no family and no relatives, you don't have to care about anyone. I still have to go back and take care of your grandpa."

Qiao Nian looked at him with deep vertical brows and said something about Mr. Nie. She looked at him deeply for a few times, put away her legs on the table, stood up, and walked to him.

What happened before Nie Tao had already cast a psychological shadow on the man in front of him, and he was deeply afraid of this 'madman'.

The moment Qiao Nian approached, he backed away in fear. Due to his face and unwillingness to show his fear, he gritted his teeth, lowered his voice, and hissed from the depths of his throat: "Qiao Nian, don't forget. You The blood of the Nie family flows in your body! You have already killed your grandmother, what else do you want? Do you want the entire Nie family to be buried with your mother, so that you can feel comfortable?"

"Since you don't want to die, why did you come to provoke me?" The girl was not affected by his emotions at all and was not led by him: "I said, as long as you don't come to provoke me, I won't care about you. But you You have to get in front of me again and again and give me the opportunity to deal with you again and again..."

Chapter 4915: I don't have time to spend with you

She even sighed: "Well, what do you think I can do? I can't just satisfy you."

She said it a long time ago.

Let the Nie family, Nie Qingru, Nie Tao, and Zhai Xicheng, all stay away from her, preferably as far away as possible. Don't say hello to anyone you meet on the road, and just take a detour when you see her.

But these people never listened to her.

Whether it was Nie Qingru or now Nie Tao, it was as if they had not learned enough lessons, and they would come to seek death in front of her when they were a little better.

Qiao Nian has never been a good-tempered person.

Nie Tao seeks death again and again, and she doesn't mind wasting some time to help him cover the coffin board, otherwise she would have to spend time having people stare at them.

Guan Yan stayed in M state for half a year for them.

Nie Tao is not worth it.

The Nie family is not worth her time.

"I told you, that matter has nothing to do with me!" Nie Tao instinctively sensed the danger, but he couldn't do anything about the person in front of him. He argued angrily: "I just came to the capital to do business and don't know anything. If you think it was me who did it, You can produce evidence, and I will admit it if you produce evidence, otherwise I will leave here, and no one can stop me! According to your laws, you have no reason to prevent me from leaving the country!"

Nie Tao used a false identity to enter the country. It stands to reason that he can be detained and punished, and then he can be investigated further.

But in addition to being a member of the Nie family, Nie Tao is also a member of a hidden family.

Due to the special nature of the Hermit Family, major countries have actually reached some agreements with the Hermit Family, including that they can use protective status to enter and exit the country.

In other words, it is legally illegal for Nie Tao to use a false identity to enter and exit the country, but Nie Tao is a member of a reclusive family and has special protection laws, so he can do it.

The laws of country z can't help him.

"Have you never messed around here? Everything is in accordance with the law. What you are doing now is violating your own principles." Nie Tao seemed to have grasped Qiao Nian's shortcomings and held on to them: "Qiao Nian, this is what you are doing How does Beijing treat guests? Who will dare to come to Beijing to do business after word spreads? You don't want to ruin the reputation of Beijing because of your incident."

Wei Lou has seen shameless people before, but he has never seen anyone as shameless as Nie Tao. He immediately lowered his handsome face, stepped forward and said to the girl: "Don't worry about it next, leave it to me!"

It means that Qiao Nian should not come forward, and he will deal with Nie Tao on behalf of the Wei family.

But someone grabbed his wrist and pulled him back.

Wei Lou turned around and met the girl's bottomless black eyes. There was arrogance and fury in them, but there was no fear.

"I just asked you to come with me, not to stand up for me. I don't need anyone to stand up for me!"

Wei Lou frowned: "But..."

He looked at the confident Nie Tao, with veins twitching on his forehead. He wished he could punch Nie Tao right away and let him run rampant here.

Qiao Nian just shook her head and told him not to be impulsive.

Wei Lou was used to listening to her, so he suppressed his temper and stepped aside.

Nie Tao breathed a sigh of relief when he saw this. At the same time, he felt more and more that he had caught Qiao Nian's weakness, and he couldn't hide his sharpness: "You have delayed me for so long, can we go now?"

"Where do you want to go?" Qiao Nian crossed the guard tower and stood in front of him, blocking the way.

Nie Tao stared at her with furrowed brows, and said patiently: "I told you, I want to go back to Country M. Your grandpa is not feeling well, so I have to go back to take care of him. In addition, Country M has a business deal waiting for me to go over and discuss it. I don't have time to waste here with you..."

Chapter 4916: Who says I can't find an IPA?

"Knock, knock." There was a knock on the door.

Instantly attract the attention of people in the room.

Even the guard building didn't know who was coming.

The only person present was Qiao Nian, who calmly stood in front of the door. He raised the corners of his lips and pursed his lips in a wild arc: "You're right, the laws of country Z can't do anything to you. But you forgot that there is another one. The place has something to do with you."

Nie Tao frowned and opened his mouth: "What do you want to say?"

"IPA." Qiao Nian spit out the name of the organization, and Nie Tao's expression suddenly changed, and he looked at her with such anger that he wanted to tear her into pieces.

"Qiao Nian, are you crazy? I am your great-uncle! It's not enough for you to kill your grandmother, but you also want to destroy our family? Don't you have the heart!"

He was really afraid that he would bring up the blood relationship between Nie Qingru and the Nie family and Qiao Nian.

Because Nie Tao knew exactly what Qiao Nian wanted to do.

IPA is not a law enforcement organization of a certain country, but an international police organization. They are not subject to the laws of various countries and are mainly responsible for handling some difficult international disputes and major crimes.

Nie Tao thinks that he has nothing to do with the two, but IPA can indeed arrest him, so he doesn't know what tricks Qiao Nian is going to play and what reasons he plans to use to get IPA to take action, but it doesn't stop him from being afraid...

Nie Tao's fear showed that he was not as confident as before, and he started to play the emotional card again: "Qiao Nian, we are a family, and there is no overnight feud between families. I admit that what we did about your mother was wrong. place. But there were too many people who wanted her life at that time, and we couldn't save her at all..."

"Now that your grandma is dead, we are even. Why can't everyone pretend that nothing has happened? We are still a family, and your grandpa misses you. We have contacted you privately so many times and asked you to go home. Go and have a look, your cousins also want to see you... No one in the younger generation of the Nie family is better than you. As long as you are willing, we can even support you..."

Mr. Nie had this plan with him before, especially when Nie Qingru died and the Nie family lost its backer.

They began to be despised and bullied by other members of the Hidden Family.

They thought about supporting someone again.

But the younger generation of the Nie family are mostly ordinary people, and not everyone can be Nie Qingru or Qiao Nian.

Qiao Nian became their best choice.

They thought about training Qiao Nian to be the new Nie Qingru, the new queen of the hidden family, and let Qiao Nian take the place of Nie Qingru and continue to support the Nie family moving forward...

But Qiao Nian is different from Nie Qingru.

Qiao Nian didn't accept their kindness at all, didn't take their emotional cards, and even didn't answer their calls at all. Every time she changed the number, she would be blocked.

There was nothing they could do against Qiao Nian, and then she took away her shares in Smith Bank... Only then did Nie Tao and Mrs. Nie become murderous.

There is no need for a descendant who cannot be used by them and hates them to stay in the world! Someone on the island happened to want to get rid of her, which was a rare opportunity for Nie Tao and Mr. Nie. They discussed it all night and agreed to cooperate with each other.

Nie Tao took a deep breath: "Besides, you don't have to scare me. You can't find the IPA people right away, but I'm leaving Beijing soon."

Qiao Nian interrupted him at this moment: "Who said that?"

Nie Tao didn't know what was going on: "?"

Qiao Nian smiled half-heartedly: "Who said I couldn't find the IPA person right away?"

Chapter 4917: He has a special status. Is it okay for me to fully take over?

The door opened the next second.

Fred led a team of IPA people in from the outside. When he passed the girl, he raised his hand and patted his shoulder, saying hello to Qiao Nian: "I'm not late, am I?"

Qiao Nian replied very politely: "It's just the right time."

"That's good." Fred smiled, let go of his hand, and turned his head to look at the three people inside. His eyes passed over Weilou: "Three people?"

Qiao Nian shook his head: "Two."

She walked to the side of Weilou and introduced to Fred: "This is my friend, Weilou."

He turned to Wei Lou and said, "Fred, the person in charge of IPA."

"Hello."

"Hello."

The two of them knew each other's identities and shook hands politely, so they were considered acquainted with each other.

Fred walked resolutely in front of Nie Tao and his assistant, looked at them seriously, took out his identity documents and showed them: "I am the person in charge of IPA. Mr. Nie, you are suspected of a financial money laundering case and murder. , please come with us."

Nie Tao was stunned and subconsciously broke away: "What financial money laundering case? I don't know what you are talking about..."

Fred put away his certificate slowly and said: "You have traded so much money through charity foundations, you should know what I am talking about."

Nie Tao's eyes suddenly changed and he opened his mouth: "I don't..."

Fred didn't give him a chance to finish. He gave him the exact name of the charity fund and said with absolute confidence: "This charity fund... Mr. Nie should be familiar with it. Unless we have absolute evidence, we won't find you." Come on, come with us!"

Qiao Nian called Fred here, but she did not provide Fred with this evidence. She just asked Fred to come over on the phone and bring someone to help her temporarily control the two of them. She didn't mention the specific reason to Fred.

She had planned to let Fred violently control the person first, and after bringing him back to IPA, she would ask Guan Yan to investigate Nie Tao's bad things.

Save Fred from breaking the rules for her.

Qiao Nian didn't expect Fred to come more prepared.

"How did you know?" When Nie Tao heard the name of the charity foundation, his expression changed and he could no longer pretend.

He was extremely frightened and blurted out: "Could it be that Mu..."

Fred was not a good-natured person. He raised his hand, called two IPA police officers, and said: "Take the person away!"

Nie Tao forgot to ask him if something had happened to Mu Di for a moment, and began to look for Qiao Nian in a panic: "Qiao Nian, we are a family, you can't do this to me."

"Qiao Nian, you took advantage of me once last time in F Continent. It was because you were sorry for me that I took revenge on you. Even if I was confused for a while, wouldn't you be fine?"

"Just tell them, I promise, there won't be a next time."

"Your grandpa is in poor health and can't bear the blow! It's my fault this time. I admit my mistake to you and apologize to you."

"Qiao Nian, please help me."

"Let's forget it this time, okay..."

"Boss, shall we take the people away first?" The IPA police officers were quick and decisive, shackling their hands and escorting the two of them to leave.

Fred observed the girl's expression and saw that he had no intention of being soft-hearted, so he took the initiative to mention it: "He has a special status. Since I am here to take care of this matter, it is not easy for him to stay. I want to bring him back to the base camp and let the IPA interrogate him." Those things about him...are you okay?"

Chapter 4918: Master Wan: I'm here to pick you up

IPA has been in contact with big guys from all continents all year round, and Fred knows very well that these people are tough and domineering at heart.

They are often willing to handle disputes themselves and are unwilling to let the IPA intervene, let alone let the IPA take people away.

But Fred didn't have a better idea.

Since he is involved in Nie Tao's matter, he cannot be a pure tool. If he wants to manage, he must follow their IPA rules.

According to the rules of the IPA, Nie Tao should be taken away for review and any problems found should be dealt with in accordance with international law.

As long as someone is taken away by them, Qiao Nian will no longer have the right to deal with Nie Tao.

So Fred needs to ask clearly to see if the other party is willing.

If Qiao Nian is not willing, it will be difficult for Fred.

"You know the rules of IPA..." Fred thought he would have to spend more time explaining.

Who knew that the girl was quite indifferent and agreed: "You can take the person away."

"It's not that I won't give you the person... uh... what did you say?" Fred reacted mid-sentence, a little surprised and surprised: "You agreed?"

"Yeah." Qiao Nian said cheerfully: "I originally planned to hand over the people to you. It is not convenient for the capital city to deal with these people."

Nie Tao is a member of a reclusive family no matter what. He is like a hot potato to deal with in Beijing, so it would be more appropriate to hand it over to IPA.

"I'll ask Guan Yan to check what happened to him later. Judging from his courage, he must have been carrying a lot of things over the years."

"OK."

Fred breathed a sigh of relief and relaxed.

"I'll be on the plane in half an hour. I'll take the person back to the base camp first and start investigating the financial case on him, slowly."

Fred smiled and said: "Don't worry, I will definitely give you a satisfactory result."

The two of them decided Nie Tao's next fate in just a few words.

He didn't even shy away from being present, and he chatted freely.

Nie Tao was controlled by two police officers. Listening to the exchange between the two, he was shocked and angry. His knife-like eyes wanted to scratch Qiao Nian. "Okay, I'm leaving." Fred didn't stay long and winked at Qiao Nian playfully, his rough face showing a hint of cleverness and cunning: "My private jet is rushing me."

private plane...

Qiao Nian received the teasing wink from him, grabbed the words, but didn't ask him anything, watching the IPA police officers take Nie Tao and his subordinates away.

Until the group of people disappeared from sight.

Wei Lou then approached: "Are you so well prepared?"

Qiao Nian didn't look back: "If I said I just called people over, would you believe it?"

Wei Lou looked back with a look of "do you think I believe it?"

Qiao Nian turned around and saw it, raised the corners of her lips and chuckled: "Hey, it's really not me."

She took her things and pulled down her peaked cap. She looked carefree, wild and dazzling: "It's really not me, but I know who it is."

"Let's go."

She walked ahead.

Wei Lou followed her, thinking about what Qiao Nian said all the way.

If not her, who else could it be?

When the two of them walked out of the airport, the guardhouse was about to pick up the car. He saw the eye-catching Phaeton parked on the side of the road. He watched the car window roll down and the people inside pushed the door and got out of the car and walked towards them.

He thought about Qiao Nian's reaction in the airport office again, and wondered what he still didn't understand.

Stop immediately.

He watched helplessly as the tall, long-legged, and handsome man walked up to the girl holding a black umbrella. The handle of the umbrella was tilted to bring the girl within his range.

Hooked his head slightly, his eyes were full of possessiveness: "I'm here to pick you up."

Chapter 4919: Wan Ye declares sovereignty

Qiao Nian raised her head and met his eyes: "I knew it was you."

"Didn't I ask Principal Liang to tell you?" She didn't even go to the hospital. She only found a street clinic to bandage her wounds, but he still found out.

Ye Wangchuan was noncommittal: "I didn't find anyone to follow you. I received news of a car accident on a blocked road in Qingdao University, so I asked someone to check it out."

Ye Wangchuan noticed the person standing aside who had not yet consciously left. He raised his narrow eyes, retracted his gaze, and naturally took Qiao Nian's hand and said, "Let's talk about it when we get back?"

Qiao Nian was used to being free and casual, so she didn't notice his little movements. She was mainly used to his close contact. She thought about it and said, "I'll tell Wei Lou..."

Ye Wangchuan grabbed her hand, inserted his long fingers into the gaps between them, and clasped them together firmly, saying, "He saw it, so there's no need to go there."

Qiao Nian frowned, instinctively feeling that he should go over and say hello to Wei Lou before leaving.

But Ye Wangchuan didn't give her time to think, and said in a hoarse and low-mellow voice: "Go back first, I have something to tell you."

"?" Qiao Nian raised his head, his eyes confused. What can't be said here?

Ye Wangchuan raised the corners of his lips: "It's about the people who helped Nie Tao behind the scenes."

"Okay." Qiao Nian was very interested in this and wanted to know who instigated Nie Tao to be so bold. He wanted to kill her as soon as he started, and he even dared to go to the capital to watch the excitement.

She and Ye Wangchuan got into the car first, took out their mobile phones and sent a message to the editor at Weilou.

Ye Wangchuan got into the car from the other side. Before getting on the car, he did not forget to look at each other from a distance with Wei Lou. The two did not speak. Their eyes collided in mid-air, causing sparks to disappear in the blink of an eye.

The black Phaeton drove away from the airport first.

Only the rear of the car is left.

"Tsk." Wei Lou twitched the corner of his mouth, touched his head, suppressed the frustration in his eyes, took out his cell phone from his coat pocket and turned it on.

Clicking on it, he saw the WeChat message Qiao Nian sent him.

[QN: He has something to tell me. I will go back first. Thanks for today. I'll treat you to dinner another day. ]

"Haha." Wei Lou sneered from the gap between his lips. He stared at the first half of the sentence 'He has something to tell me' on the screen. The more he looked at it, the angrier and more bitter he became.

Qiao Nian may not have noticed the undercurrent just now, but he clearly felt Ye Wangchuan's preparedness and hostility towards him.

That is the threat that a male will never allow another person to approach in his own territory.

Wei Lou had no doubt that if it weren't for Qiao Nian's sake and Ye Wangchuan's skills, Ye Wangchuan would make him pay the price just for accompanying Qiao Nian today.

He quickly felt relieved, took out his car keys, and turned them around in his fingers.

Whocare?

The treasure he had been guarding for several years was snatched away, so he stood by as a friend. If Ye Wangchuan still had objections, they would fight to see who would kill the other.

Anyway, he has been in a bad mood recently and has no energy to do anything. At worst, it will cause a big problem and ask the two adults to come forward to mediate.

He is not afraid, he is just beaten by his father.

Ye Wangchuan has always been a mature and wise representative in the circle. When they work together, Ye Wangchuan must be scolded more.

The old man of the Ye family is not a good-tempered person.

With Weilou thinking this way, he walked straight towards his big G, ready to go home.

He also wanted to tell Aunt Yuan so that she wouldn't be frightened when she heard the news about Qiao Nian's car accident. He wanted to tell Aunt Yuan that she was safe first.

Chapter 4920: Weilou likes you

In the car.

Qiao Nian opened the car window and let the wind from outside blow in. He rested his elbows there and tilted his head: "Tell me. Who is the person behind?"

Ye Wangchuan closed the window: "It's cold outside, so don't blow the wind. Don't catch a cold."

Qiao Nian frowned and pursed her lips, but said nothing. She still tilted her head and looked at him, waiting for him to continue: "Aunt Lan told you that I am here?"

"You have something against Nie Tao." Qiao Nian said with certainty, and she never doubted: "What's going on with that charity foundation?"

Fred's pursuit of Ye Lan is no secret.

Fred mentioned the charity foundation several times since he entered the door today. It was also because he mentioned the charity foundation that Nie Tao became honest.

Qiao Nian didn't believe that Ye Wangchuan's handwriting wasn't involved.

"The person behind him is...the one related to you?"

"no."

Ye Wangchuan raised the partition to block Gu San's peeking view in front of him. He crossed his long legs, looked elegant and proud, tilted his head and said to her: "Let me see where you are injured."

"Ahem." Qiao Nian's mind was filled with things. When she suddenly saw him reaching out his hand, he coughed and avoided it, muttering: "I'm fine, just a little injured."

Ye Wangchuan didn't force her, he sat back, and the smile on his raised lips seemed to have a profound meaning: "Oh, it was a little injury, so you went to Weilou and didn't tell me."

"..." The hairs on Qiao Nian's back stood up. Although she was not afraid of anything, there were times when she felt guilty and dared not look into people's eyes.

She avoided the gaze that seemed to be focused on her, and coughed: "Then what... I just happened to have something to do with him, it has nothing to do with being injured."

Ye Wangchuan put his slender hands on his legs so he could watch her lie: "Is that okay?"

"Ahem!" Qiao Nian raised her hand and touched the tip of her nose. She raised her head helplessly, with clear black eyes: "I didn't want to hide it from you."

Ye Wangchuan replied to her, 'Do you believe it?' look over here.

^^Qiao Nian: "..."

She is not nervous about fighting with others in the illegal zone, independent continent, and F continent. The key is that she is still at a disadvantage, and it is rare that she has no idea of resistance.

What should she say?

She has never faced this kind of situation before, and she always feels that she is more helpless than when she goes to the laboratory to research a new weapon.

Especially the way Ye Wangchuan looked at her, it was clear that he didn't say anything, but Qiao Nian felt guilty... as if she had been caught doing something behind his back.

"Wei Lou and I are friends, pure friendship."

Ye Wangchuan didn't answer and asked: "How did I hear that he stayed in Baocheng for three years for you, and even opened a sanatorium to help you sell small pills on the black market?"

"...Cooperation." Qiao Nian said helplessly.

Ye Wangchuan nodded: "The Wei family has introduced him to seven or eight blind dates. It is said that this Young Master Wei has never met him once. He has many tricks of rejection. This time he went to other provinces to avoid the blind date. His family members He had a headache, but he had no intention of letting go. As soon as you called him, he ran back to Beijing from the other provinces."

Qiao Nian rubbed the center of his eyebrows: "He didn't tell me."

Ye Wangchuan saw that it was almost done, stopped, suddenly grabbed her hand, pulled her to him, and said in a low voice: "Wei Lou likes you."

^^Qiao Nian: "?"

Her hand was clenched tightly, and the fingers were intertwined so tightly that no gap could be found. The warmth from his palm was continuously transmitted to her.

Even though Qiao Nian was not good at handling this situation, she was somewhat enlightened: "I made it very clear to him that I have someone."
