Chapter 4943

David was doing what he wanted, without any reservation, holding the Dragon Slashing Sword and constantly absorbing the evil spirits around him.

This place was really a paradise for David!

But just when David thought that there were only those evil spirits and that demon corpse in this purgatory, he suddenly felt a tremor.

Then he saw that the ground was cracking not far away, and then thousands of demon corpses slowly crawled out of the cracks.

“fu...”

David frowned slightly. It was a bit difficult to deal with a demon corpse just now, and now there are so many.

But knowing that these demon corpses are afraid of fire, David was not too panicked!

It was just right to use these demon corpses as his own cultivation resources.

David held the Dragon Slashing Sword, and flames rose from the Dragon Slashing Sword, and then rushed towards the demon corpses.

At this moment, the Gadfly, who was watching David's every move, said in disbelief: “Is this guy crazy? He has to deal with so many demon corpses alone?”

“Father...”

At this moment, Niu Li suddenly broke into the city lord's room, as if looking for him.

The Gadfly was startled and hurriedly covered the bronze mirror that revealed the Purgatory.

However, Niu Li had already seen it. Although the picture in the bronze mirror flashed by, Niu Li was still shocked.

“Hey, why is it him?”

Niu Li was very surprised when she saw David in the bronze mirror.

“What did you say?” The Gadfly asked.

“Father, how can there be a human image in your bronze mirror?”

Niu Li stepped forward and directly lifted the cloth covering the bronze mirror and said.

“Oh, this is the scene in the Purgatory. Someone is trying in the Purgatory. I took a look.”

The Gadfly said, then looked at Niu Li and asked, “What you said just now, do you know the person who is taking the trial?”

“Ah, I don’t know...”

Niu Li hurriedly shook her head to deny it. She didn’t dare to say that she knew David.

After all, she gave David the token, and then she couldn’t contact him. If her father knew about it, it would be troublesome.

“What do you want to talk to me about?” The Gadfly asked.

“Father, I want to go to the street to play. I’ve been in the mansion for so long, I’m going to be bored to death.”

Niu Li said.

“No, the city is not peaceful during this period. You should stay in the mansion obediently...”

The Gadfly refused instantly.

Now that the Flying Tiger City spies in the city have not been found out, it is very dangerous for Niu Li to walk around in the city casually.

Seeing this, Niu Li rolled her eyes in dissatisfaction and finally left!

David in the purgatory field, holding the Dragon Slaying Sword, then rushed into the group of demon corpses with blazing flames all around!

The Dragon Slaying Sword was wrapped in blazing flames, and it cut through the gloomy sky of the Purgatory Field like a meteor.

The moment David rushed into the group of demon corpses, thousands of demon corpses' rotten throats let out sharp roars at the same time, and the stench of decay rushed towards him like a substance. The turbid eyes flashed with greedy light, and rushed towards David frantically.

The first demon corpse waved its claws and pounced on him. David dodged sideways, and the Dragon Slaying Sword drew a red arc.

With a "swish", the demon corpse was cut into two parts from the waist, and the cross section was burning with golden flames.

Surprisingly, the black evil spirit emanating from the remains of the demon corpse did not dissipate, but was pulled by an invisible force and continuously poured into David's body.

David's eyes were like lightning, and the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand danced like flying. Wherever the sword passed, the limbs of the demon corpses were broken one after another, and the black corpse blood fell like raindrops.

Every time a demon corpse was killed, the evil spirit contained in its body flowed into David's body along the Dragon Slaying Sword like a snake.

At first, David still needed to deliberately guide the evil spirit to transform, but as the battle continued, this absorption became more and more natural and smoother.

Chapter 4944

His aura was rising, and his aura was getting stronger.

David, who had a hard time dealing with a demon corpse, was getting braver and braver.

Flames were dancing around him, burning and purifying the evil spirits around him, forming a fiery field centered on him.

Under the scorching flames, the demon corpses became slow in their movements and uttered painful howls.

David was agile and moved freely among the demon corpses.

Sometimes he leaped into the air and cut off the head of a demon corpse with a sword; sometimes he leaned over and swept across, cutting off the legs of the demon corpse.

As the demon corpses continued to fall, David's aura had reached a terrifying level, and the whole person seemed to have turned into a flaming god of war. Wherever he went, the demon corpses were reduced to ashes.

In the City Lord's Mansion, Gadfly stared at the scene in the bronze mirror, his eyes full of shock and disbelief.

He has been in charge of Rhino City for many years and has seen countless talented practitioners, but he has never seen such a terrifying speed of practice.

A person facing thousands of demon corpses, not only did not retreat, but became stronger and stronger. This scene is simply unheard of.

"How is this possible..." Gadfly muttered to himself, his fingers unconsciously clenched the armrest of the chair.

He looked at David's figure fighting in the bronze mirror, and his heart was full of doubts.

What is the origin of this young man?

Why can he transform the evil spirit in the purgatory into his own power in such a short time?

And the dragon-slaying sword in his hand does not look ordinary. It can kill the demon corpse so easily.

What makes Gadfly even more uneasy is that the strength shown by David at this moment has far exceeded his expectations of the trial.

Just when Gadfly was thinking about thousands of things, the scene in the bronze mirror suddenly became more intense.

David shouted loudly, and the flames on the Dragon Slashing Sword suddenly surged, forming a huge flame blade.

He swung the sword fiercely, and the flame blade swept towards the group of demon corpses. Wherever he passed, the demon corpses fell down in pieces and turned into ashes.

David had already killed his way into the center of the demon corpse group. His figure was as erratic as a ghost. Every time the sword flashed, a demon corpse fell to the ground with a bang.

The flames on the Dragon Slashing Sword became more and more intense, gradually forming a vague shadow of a fire dragon surrounding the sword.

What was even more amazing was that with David as the center, a black vortex visible to the naked eye gradually formed in the air, and all the evil spirits that escaped after the death of the demon corpses were madly drawn into it.

As the last demon corpse was killed, David slowly put away his sword and stood up.

Although his body was covered with corpse blood and dust, his eyes became more and more determined and bright.

The originally gloomy and terrifying purgatory around was now weakened by the death of a large number of demon corpses.

David took a deep breath, feeling the surging power in his body, and a satisfied smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

The ashes of the demon corpses were still floating in the gloomy wind of the purgatory field, and the scorched earth on the ground was still emitting green smoke.

David had just put the Dragon Slayer Sword into the scabbard, when suddenly, a low hum came from the depths of the void, as if an ancient beast had awakened from its slumber.

He looked up suddenly, and saw a dark crack twisted in the air. The rusty bronze chain stretched out like a living thing, dragging a figure wearing heavy black iron armor to the ground .

“Boom!”

The ground instantly cracked into spider web-like patterns, and the armored warrior slowly straightened up in the flying gravel.

In the gap of the rusty helmet, the green ghost fire jumped in the rotten bone eye sockets. Under the cracked black iron armor, maggots were going in and out along the ribs. The fishy smell was more disgusting than thousands of demon corpses.

The giant mountain-splitting axe in his hand was more than ten feet long. The black substance condensed on the axe blade kept dripping, corroding deep pits on the ground with sizzling sounds. This guy turned out to be the demon corpse of the Sanxian Realm.

“Ant.”

The moment the armored warrior opened his mouth, David's eardrums hurt, and the space around him began to crack.

The sound seemed to come from the underworld, carrying the wailing of millions of wronged souls.

David's pupils shrank suddenly, and the pressure of the scattered fairyland was like a mountain pressing down on his head, making it almost impossible for him to breathe.

But he gritted his teeth, and the evil spirit he had just absorbed in his body circulated wildly, and the red flames on the Dragon Slaying Sword ignited again.

"Just in time!"

He shouted, his figure was like an arrow from a bow, and his sword went straight to the throat of the armored warrior.

The giant axe swept across with a thousand pounds of force, and David dodged it dangerously, and the axe wind brushed past his shoulder, cutting off a large piece of clothing.

He used the force to flip in the air, and stabbed the sword tip at the weak point of the armor joint, but was deflected by the black iron, sparks flew everywhere. The armored warrior swung an axe back, and David raised his sword to block it. The huge impact made his palm numb, and he retreated dozens of steps.

In the city lord's mansion, the servants had already delivered David's information.

When he saw that David was only an eighth-grade cultivator in the Transformation Realm, the Gadfly suddenly stood up from his chair, his eyes revealing disbelief.

How could a cultivator in the Transformation Realm, who had just been led by the Avenue, be so awesome?

The Gadfly took a look at the scene reflected in the bronze mirror, and his face turned pale.

"The powerful demon corpse from the Sanxian Realm has appeared, how can this kid fight against it?"

He stared at David, who was fighting fiercely with the armored warrior in the picture, and the veins on his forehead bulged.

You know, in the entire Rhino City, there is not a single person who can fight against the Sanxian Realm with the cultivation level of the Huaxian Realm. After all, the difference between the Huaxian Realm and the Sanxian Realm is not just a realm, but even a class, a stratum, a sky, and a land!

The Gadfly stared blankly, and the battle in the Purgatory Field became more and more intense.

David's flames were split by the giant axe again and again, and he had several deep wounds on his body that could be seen to the bone.

But every time he was injured, he could absorb the remaining evil spirits from the attacks of the armored strongman through the Dragon Slaying Sword, which made his own breath more condensed.

He keenly discovered that although the opponent had a high realm, his fighting style was extremely rigid, relying entirely on brute force to crush. Pinshu.com

"Found it!"

David's eyes flashed with a gleam of light.

When he was forced into a corner by the giant axe again, he suddenly abandoned his sword, formed seals with his hands, and the flames around him turned into chains to entangle the giant axe.

The moment the armored warrior was stunned, David rushed forward, and the Yang Fire condensed in his palm pressed fiercely on the opponent's helmet.

"Squeak—"

The black iron helmet made a teeth-grinding melting sound, and the dark green ghost fire twisted wildly in the high temperature.

The armored warrior roared and tried to break free, but David held on tightly like a thorn in his tarsal bone, and poured all his strength into the flame.

"Break it for me!"

With a roar, the helmet exploded, revealing a burning skull inside.

The Dragon Slaying Sword appeared in David's hand again at some point, and slashed down with a mighty force.

The moment the skull was split in half by the sword, the body of the armored warrior collapsed and turned into a pile of bones.

David knelt on one knee, panting violently, the wounds on his body healed at a speed visible to the naked eye, and his breath actually showed signs of a breakthrough.

The Gadfly watched all this, slumped in the chair, and cold sweat soaked his back.

He looked at David standing in the bronze mirror, bathed in blood, and a storm surged in his heart.

This young man not only killed a thousand demon corpses, but also defeated the powerful demon corpses of the scattered fairyland in an incredible way. With such talent and means, even the legendary ancient prodigy is no more than this!

If David is really a member of the demon clan, then Rhino City will be in danger!

“We must send someone to monitor him immediately!”

The Gadfly slammed the table and stood up, with a complex light flashing in his eyes.

He wanted to recruit David for his own use, but he was also afraid that the other party might be a demon clan.

At this moment, David did not know that his battle had been truly seen by the city lord, the Gadfly.
