Chapter 5184

Seeing David's pale face and the blood at the corner of his mouth, everyone was worried.

"Quick, carry David into the stone chamber to heal!" Seventh

Palace Master said anxiously.

He had just finished healing and his realm had been raised, but he was already so badly injured!

They were really afraid that David's body could not bear it and finally collapsed!

Everyone hurriedly carried David into the stone chamber. The Seventh Palace Master took out a crystal clear pill and carefully fed it into David's mouth.

The pill melted in his mouth, and a gentle medicinal power slowly flowed through David's body, and his face gradually regained a trace of blood color.

"Great, David is fine."

Huo Jingjing cried with joy and held David's hand tightly.

Mo Qingyun also breathed a sigh of relief, with a trace of relief in his eyes.

Hu Mazi patted his chest and said, "I was scared to death. I thought this kid was going to die here."

"But then again, this kid is so fierce. He was able to tie with the Earthly Immortal Realm and beat him away. He is simply a monster."

The Seventh Palace Master sighed, "Although You Wuxie escaped, he will definitely not give up. This time, our Seventh Palace has completely forged a deadly feud with the Evil Dao Palace. I am afraid that the days to come will not be peaceful."

"What are you afraid of?" Hu Mazi said nonchalantly, "With David here, are you afraid of the Evil Dao Palace? When this kid is healed, we will go directly to the Evil Dao Palace and wipe them out!"

The Seventh Palace Master smiled bitterly and said nothing.

He knew that the Evil Dao Palace had a deep foundation and was not so easy to deal with.

Although You Wuxie was defeated this time, there must be stronger masters in the Evil Dao Palace. In the stone chamber, everyone quietly stayed by David's side, waiting for him to wake up.

The sky outside gradually cleared up, and the sun shone through the clouds, illuminating the devastated square and the hope in everyone's hearts.

Three days later, in the stone chamber.

David's fingertips moved slightly, and his eyelids slowly opened. A trace of confusion flashed in his eyes, and then was replaced by clarity.

He propped up his upper body, and felt that although there was still a stinging pain in the meridians in his body, the tearing feeling that was almost about to break had subsided for the most part. Although the spiritual power in his dantian was not full, it was more condensed than before the battle.

Although the deadly battle severely injured him, it also made him have a deeper understanding of the sword under extreme pressure.

"Are you awake?"

Huo Jingjing had been guarding the bed. When she saw him open his eyes, she stood up suddenly. Her eyes turned red instantly and her voice choked with sobs: "How do you feel? Is there any pain anywhere?"

David raised his hand and pressed her shoulder. His fingertips touched her slightly cold hand and he whispered: "It's okay, Jingjing."

Mo Qingyun walked in from outside the door with a bowl of spiritual porridge in his hand. His eyes fell on his face. Seeing that the blood color had stabilized, he said slowly: "The Seventh Palace Master said that this time it was a blessing in disguise for you. Under the power of medicine and sword intent, your body is stronger than before."

Hu Mazi squatted in the corner, holding a piece of grass in his mouth and laughed: "You are lucky boy! Only the soul of the old ghost You Wuxie escaped. I guess he dared not stay in the third heaven. He must have gone to the fourth heaven."

David took the spiritual porridge and drank it mouthful by mouthful. The warm spiritual power slid down his throat and warmed his limbs.

He put down the bowl, his eyes darkened: "Wherever he escapes, I will chase him."

"David!" Huo Jingjing was anxious, "You have just recovered from your injuries. The Fourth Heaven is a hundred times more dangerous than the Third Heaven. Even if You Wuxie is only left with a soul, he might be able to find a chance to recover in the Fourth Heaven. You..."

"I know." David interrupted her, but his tone was unusually firm, "If You Wuxie doesn't die, wouldn't I have been injured in vain?"

The Seventh Palace Master walked in at this time and sighed: "The Fourth Heaven is not so easy to go to. How many peak cultivators in the Scattered Immortal Realm were turned to ashes and failed to reach the Fourth Heaven because they could not survive the thunder tribulation!"

"You are only at the sixth level of the Scattered Immortal Realm now. I am afraid that you cannot trigger the thunder tribulation and reach the Fourth Heaven!"

Chapter 5185

"How do you know if you don't try!"

David's eyes were full of determination. With his apparent strength, it should be no problem to trigger the thunder tribulation and break the passage to the fourth heaven!

In the square outside the Seventh Palace, David sat cross-legged.

He took a deep breath, and the spiritual power in his body circulated wildly. The cultivation of the sixth level of the scattered fairyland was released without reservation, and the spiritual power stirred the air around him.

"What is David going to do?"

Huo Jingjing looked at David in the square and asked worriedly.

The Seventh Palace Master's face was solemn: "He is going to forcibly trigger the thunder tribulation and use the power of the thunder tribulation to break the passage to the fourth heaven!"

"What?" Huo Jingjing and Mo Qingyun exclaimed at the same time.

It is extremely dangerous to trigger a thunder tribulation. If you are not careful, you will die. David actually wants to use the power of thunder tribulation to break through the space channel. This is simply playing a joke on his own life!

In the sky, the originally sunny weather suddenly became gloomy, dark clouds gathered, electric snakes roamed in the clouds, and a terrifying pressure enveloped the entire Black Wind Abyss.

“Here it comes!” The Seventh Palace Master said in a deep voice.

Boom!

A thick purple thunder popped out of the clouds like a dragon, and slashed towards David with the breath of destruction.

David suddenly opened his eyes, a trace of fierceness flashed in his eyes, and the spiritual power in his body was running to the extreme. The Dragon Slaying Sword appeared in his hand and slashed towards the thunder.

The golden sword energy collided with the purple thunder, making a deafening roar, and the violent energy spread all around.

David was shocked and stepped back a few steps, a trace of blood overflowed from the corner of his mouth, but the fighting spirit in his eyes was even more blazing.

“Come on!” David shouted and rushed towards the thunderclouds in the sky.

Boom! Boom!

Thunders came one after another, some like sharp swords, some like giant hammers, and some like dragons, constantly slashing at David.

David wielded the Dragon Slaying Sword, slicing the thunders into pieces. The golden sword energy shuttled through the thunders, forming a solid barrier.

But the power of the thunder tribulation became stronger and stronger, and wounds began to appear on David’s body, and blood stained his clothes red.

“David!”

Huo Jingjing was terrified and couldn’t help but wanted to rush up to help, but was stopped by the Seventh Palace Master.

“This is a test he must go through. We can’t help him.” The Seventh Palace Master said in a deep voice, his eyes full of worry.

In the square, David's breath became more and more disordered, but his eyes became more and more determined.

He could feel that his body was being tempered by thunder, becoming more and more powerful, and the spiritual power in his body was constantly compressed and condensed.

"Now!"

David's heart moved, and all the spiritual power in his body was gathered on the Dragon Slaying Sword, facing the thickest golden thunder.

The golden sword energy collided with the golden thunder, bursting out a brilliant light, and this light illuminated the entire Black Wind Abyss.

Snap!

With a crisp sound, the thundercloud in the sky was actually cut open by this sword, and a passage leading to an unknown space slowly opened in the gap, emitting powerful spatial fluctuations.

David took the opportunity to absorb the energy dissipated by the thunder tribulation, replenishing the spiritual power in his body and recovering from his injuries.

He jumped and came to the front of the passage.

"David!" Huo Jingjing and Mo Qingyun hurried over, their eyes full of reluctance.

"I'm leaving." David looked at the two and said softly.

"You must take care of yourself."

Huo Jingjing's voice was choked with sobs, and tears were rolling in her eyes.

Mo Qingyun also looked at David, hesitant to speak, and finally just said: "We will wait for you to come back."

David nodded, looked at the two of them deeply, turned to Hu Mazi and said: "Master Hu, let's go."
