Chapter 5201

“This is... the token of the patriarch of my Hu family!”

Hu Mazi picked up the token and trembled with excitement. “It is said that only the patriarch can have it. I didn’t expect to find it here!” chen

Ping picked up the animal skin and unfolded it. The text on it was obscure and difficult to understand. Fortunately, he had dabbled in ancient characters and could barely recognize the general meaning.

The animal skin recorded the origin of the Burial Demon Abyss. This was the battlefield where the human race and the demon race fought in ancient times, and countless strong men fell here.

Later, a powerful talisman master set up a large formation to seal the dead monsters at the bottom of the abyss, so it was named “Burial Demon Abyss”.

The talisman master who set up the formation was the ancestor of the Hu family!

“Your ancestor is actually an ancient talisman master!”

David looked at Hu Mazi with a hint of surprise in his eyes. “The animal skin said that he had exhausted all his efforts to seal the monsters at the bottom of the abyss. Before his death, he hid part of the talisman inheritance in the depths of the Buried Demon Abyss, hoping that his descendants would inherit his will and protect Jiupan Mountain.”

David finally knew why Hu Mazi’s talisman skills were so powerful. It turned out that his talisman skills were so powerful.

Hu Mazi looked at the words on the animal skin, his eyes reddened: “It turns out that my Hu family is not ordinary. My ancestor actually had such great achievements... But why did we end up being exterminated?”

David continued to read down. The second half of the animal skin revealed a shocking secret.

The seal of the Buried Demon Abyss is not eternal. It will weaken every thousand years. The mission of the Hu family back then was to enter the Buried Demon Abyss when the seal weakened and re-strengthen the talisman array.

But 2,800 years ago, the seal suddenly became abnormal, and the monsters at the bottom of the abyss almost broke the seal and came out.

The Hu family used all their strength to suppress it, but they were seriously injured and attacked by unknown forces.

“It seems that the extinction of your Hu family may be related to the seal of the Demon Burial Abyss.”

David put down the animal skin, “That unknown force may want to use the monster to break the seal, or covet the talisman inheritance left by your ancestors.”

Hu Mazi clenched his fists, his nails deeply embedded in his palms: “No matter who it is, I must find out!”

He carefully put away the clan leader’s token and the animal skin, as if holding the hope of the entire family.

David cast his eyes into the depths of the cave, where there was a narrow stone door with the same rune array engraved on the door as the bronze box.

“It seems that this is the real entrance. let’s go.”

With the clan leader’s token, the rune array on the stone door collapsed, and the two successfully entered the next area.

This is a long corridor, with runes engraved on the rock walls on both sides. Unlike what I saw before, these runes emit a faint golden light, which the human rune master leaves.

“These runes can suppress the evil spirit. It seems that your ancestors laid them.”

David reached out to touch the runes and felt a gentle force surging into his body. “Following these runes, we should be able to avoid most dangers.”

At the end of the corridor was a huge stone chamber. In the center of the stone chamber stood a stone tablet as high as ten feet. It was engraved with dense runes and flashed with dazzling light.

There were several bones scattered around the stone tablet. Judging from their clothes, they should be members of the Hu family.

“These are... my ancestors of the Hu family!”

Hu Mazi looked at the runes remaining on the bones, and his eyes were wet again. "They should have come to reinforce the seal, but they couldn't go back..."

David walked to the stone tablet and carefully studied the runes on it. The more he looked, the more frightened he became.

The arrangement of these runes was extremely exquisite, containing the truth of the great way of heaven and earth, far beyond his understanding of the way of runes.

He tried to probe his consciousness into the runes, and felt a huge stream of information pouring into his mind, all about the perception and skills of the way of runes.

Chapter 5202

"This is... the talisman inheritance of your ancestors!"

David closed his eyes and absorbed this information with all his strength. "The runes on the stone tablet are a huge inheritance array. As long as someone of the Hu family bloodline approaches, the inheritance can be activated. Come here!"

Hu Mazi hurriedly walked to the stone tablet and attached the clan leader token to it. The stone tablet instantly burst into a thousand-foot light, and countless runes flew out of the stone tablet, swirling around Hu Mazi like fireflies, and slowly merged into his body.

Hu Mazi only felt that there was a lot of knowledge about the talisman in his mind, from the basic production of talisman paper to the advanced arrangement of talisman arrays.

His body was also changing. The spiritual power in his body became more pure, and the originally blocked meridians were opened by a gentle force. His cultivation began to slowly improve.

"This... This is true!"

Hu Mazi felt the changes in his body and was so excited that he couldn't speak.

David was guarding the law on the side, and at the same time, he was also absorbing the information of the talisman scattered on the stone tablet.

Although he did not have the blood of the Hu family and could not obtain the complete inheritance, these scattered information also benefited him a lot, and his understanding of the talisman became deeper, and he even touched a new realm faintly.

After an unknown period of time, the light on the stone tablet gradually dissipated. Hu Mazi opened his eyes, and a gleam of light flashed in his eyes. The aura on his body was much stronger than before, and he broke through directly to the earthly immortal realm!

“I broke through!”

Hu Mazi clenched his fists, feeling the surging power in his body, “Thank you for reminding me, otherwise I would have missed this inheritance!”

“You awakened your own strength. Relying on inheritance alone, your strength would not have increased so fast.”

David knew that Hu Mazi was originally very strong, but after several reincarnations, his strength seemed to be sealed.

Now, with the help of this inheritance, Hu Mazi’s strength has been partially opened, so he can quickly reach the Earth Immortal Realm.

Later, Hu Mazi’s strength will become higher and higher.

David’s eyes fell on a line of small characters at the bottom of the stone tablet, “It seems that we have to speed up. The stone tablet says that an ancient demon general is sealed in the core area of the Burial Demon Abyss. Now the seal is extremely weak. If it is allowed to break the seal, the consequences will be disastrous.”

Hu Mazi’s face sank: “Then the treasure that Youyue wants is it not in the core area?”

“It is very likely.”

David nodded, “The demons have always wanted to release the demons at the bottom of the abyss. The treasure that Youyue asked us to take may be something that can control the demon general.

We must find the treasure before her people arrive; otherwise, the consequences will be disastrous.”

The two did not dare to delay and continued to go deeper along the passage behind the stone tablet.

The passage became narrower and narrower, and the demonic energy became more and more dense, but with the runes left by the ancestors of the Hu family and the clan leader's token on Hu Mazi's body, the demonic energy could not get close to them at all.

After walking for about half an hour, a magma pool appeared in front of them. The dark red magma rolled in the pool, emitting a scorching breath, and baked the surrounding rock walls red.

There was no bridge over the magma pool, only a few thick iron chains connecting the other side. The iron chains were covered with rust and looked like they could break at any time.

"How do we get across?"

Hu Mazi looked at the rolling magma with a frown, "The iron chain is too thin and can't bear our weight at all."

The two of them couldn't fly at the moment and could only move forward on foot. The sudden appearance of such a magma pool was very fatal.

David observed the surroundings of the magma pool and found that there was a protruding stone on the rock wall at regular intervals, with runes engraved on it. "These stones are footholds. The runes on them can withstand high temperatures. We can step on the stones to get over."

Chapter 5203

He leaped onto the first stone, which was as solid as a rock. The power of the rune isolated the burning breath.

"Follow me, step by step, and don't fall into the magma."

Hu Mazi took a deep breath and followed David's method, stepping on the stone and moving forward carefully. There were roars coming from below the magma pool, as if something was rolling in the magma, making people's scalps numb.

Just as the two were about to reach the other side, a huge wave suddenly rose in the magma pool, and a monster covered with black scales rushed out of the magma, opened its huge mouth and bit towards Hu Mazi!

“Be careful!”

David pulled Hu Mazi to his side, and at the same time, he sacrificed the Dragon Slaying Sword and chopped towards the monster’s head.

With a crisp “clang” sound, the sword energy landed on the monster’s scales and was bounced back.

The monster roared, and its tail whipped at the two people like a steel whip, smashing the stones under their feet.

Hu Mazi recognized the monster, “Ancient books say that it feeds on magma, is invulnerable to swords and guns, and is immune to water and fire!”

David looked at the monster’s eyes burning with flames, and his heart trembled: “Its weakness should be in the eyes, Master Hu, use your talisman to restrain it!”

Hu Mazi immediately took out a few talisman papers, injected spiritual power into them and threw them at the demon lizard.

The talisman papers turned into several golden light nets in the air, entangled the body of the demon lizard.

The demon lizard roared, and flames burst out from its body, burning the light net to ashes, but it was also temporarily restrained.

Taking this opportunity, David flashed and rushed to the head of the demon lizard like an arrow from a string. The Dragon Slaying Sword condensed all his spiritual power, turned into a golden long rainbow, and accurately pierced the demon lizard’s eyes!

“Ouch——”

The demon lizard let out a shrill scream, and its huge body rolled wildly in the magma pool, and the stirred up magma fell like a rainstorm.

“Hurry up!”

David pulled Hu Mazi up and jumped to the other side. Looking back, he saw the demon lizard struggling in the magma pool for a few times, and finally sank to the bottom of the pool and stopped moving.

The two of them slumped on the ground, gasping for breath, their backs soaked with cold sweat.

“This Burial Demon Abyss is really thrilling.”

Hu Mazi wiped the sweat from his face, “If this goes on, even if you are not killed by the monster, you will be exhausted to death.”

David stood up and looked at the passage on the other side: “After passing the magma pool, we should be close to the core area, and we should work harder.”

He took out some pills from the package and handed them to Hu Mazi: “Replenish your physical strength first, the road ahead may be more dangerous.”

Hu Mazi took the pills, but did not eat them immediately. Instead, he took out the patriarch token from his arms and carefully wiped the dust on it: “With the inheritance and token of my ancestors, I feel full of strength. No matter how dangerous it is, I will go on.”

David looked at the determination in his eyes and nodded slightly.

He knew that Hu Mazi was no longer the man who only knew how to play with women, but the true heir of the Hu family’s will.

The two rested for a while and continued to move forward along the passage.

At the end of the passage was a huge stone door, on which was engraved a hideous demon head pattern, with eyes flashing red and exuding a terrifying aura.

“This should be the entrance to the core area.”

David looked at the demon head pattern on the stone door, “The aura on it is very strong, I’m afraid there is a ban guarding it.”

Hu Mazi attached the patriarch’s token to the stone door, and the light on the token collided with the red light of the demon head pattern, making a “sizzling” sound.

The stone door vibrated violently, and the red light of the demon head pattern’s eyes became brighter and brighter, as if it was coming alive.

“No, the patriarch’s token can’t open this door either.”

Hu Mazi retracted his hand, frowning, “The demon clan set the ban on this stone door, and it repelled the ancestral runes.”

Chapter 5204

David walked around the stone door and found some tiny runes in the crack of the door, which were similar to the runes of the human race that he had seen in the corridor before.

“It seems that I have to use the method of the talisman to open it. Is there any method to break the demon clan’s ban in your ancestor’s inheritance?”

Hu Mazi closed his eyes and recalled the information from the stone tablet. Suddenly, his eyes lit up: “I got it! The Yin-Yang Talisman can break this ban. Yin and Yang complement each other and can neutralize the evil spirit of the demon clan!”

He took out two pieces of talisman paper from his arms, and according to the method in the inheritance, he used spiritual power as a pen to quickly draw two talismans.

One piece of talisman paper was golden, exuding masculine energy; the other piece of talisman paper was black, exuding feminine energy.

“David, help me protect the law!”

Hu Mazi pasted two talismans on both sides of the stone gate, formed seals with his hands, and muttered something.

The golden talisman and the black talisman burst out with light at the same time, forming a Tai Chi pattern, which slowly merged into the stone gate.

The demon head pattern let out an angry roar, and the red light and the Tai Chi pattern collided with each other. The stone gate shook violently, as if it would collapse at any time.

At this moment, the demon head pattern on the stone gate suddenly opened its huge mouth and sprayed out a black mist, attacking Hu Mazi!

David’s eyes were stern, and the Dragon Slaying Sword was unsheathed in an instant. The golden sword energy blocked Hu Mazi like a shield, cutting the black mist into pieces. “Concentrate on breaking the ban, leave it to me!”

After the black mist was chopped into pieces, it turned into countless small bats and pounced on the two.

These bats were pitch black with red eyes, obviously transformed by demonic energy.

David snorted coldly, and his spiritual power circulated. A light golden shield enveloped the two of them. The bat hit the shield, making a “sizzling” sound, and soon disappeared.

Hu Mazi did not dare to be distracted. The speed of his hands forming seals became faster and faster, and the light of the Yin-Yang Talisman became stronger and stronger.

The red light of the demon head pattern on the stone door gradually dimmed, and the Tai Chi pattern became clearer and clearer. Finally, with a loud bang, the stone door slowly opened.

Behind the stone gate is a huge space, like an underground palace, with a black altar in the center, and a long sword stuck on the altar. The sword body is black and exudes a cold breath.

The altar is full of bones, both from the demons and humans, and it is obvious that a tragic fight has taken place.

“Is that the treasure that Youyue wants?”

Hu Mazi pointed at the long sword on the altar, “It looks like a magic sword.”

David shook his head: “It’s not that simple, look at the runes around the altar, it’s a seal formation, this sword is probably used to suppress something.”

He walked forward and carefully observed the runes around the altar, and found that these runes were similar to the runes he had seen on the stone tablet before, but they were more complex and sophisticated. It was obviously the final seal set by the ancestors of the Hu family.

“The place under the altar should be where the Demon General is sealed.”

David pointed to a groove in the center of the altar, “I’m afraid Youyue doesn’t want this sword, but the thing in the groove.”

In the groove was a black bead, only the size of a thumb, emitting a strong demonic aura, but suppressed by the surrounding runes and unable to spread.

“What is this thing?” Hu Mazi asked curiously!

David also took a look, and didn’t know what the black bead was at all!

“That’s a demon core!”

The voice of the Red Cloud Demon Lord sounded, “And it’s the demon core of the ancient demon general! With this demon core, you can control the sealed demon general!”

“Demon general?” David was stunned and asked in confusion, “Senior, is this demon general more powerful than you?”

The Red Cloud Demon Lord sneered: "If he were more powerful than me, he wouldn't be suppressed here. He's not as powerful as me..."

Chapter 5205

At this moment, the altar suddenly shook violently, the black magic core burst into dazzling light, and the runes around the altar melted quickly like ice and snow.

A huge pressure came from under the altar, and the entire underground palace began to shake, as if something was about to break out of the ground.

"Not good! The seal is about to break!"

David's face changed drastically, "Youyue probably knew this would happen a long time ago. She asked us to take the magic core just to make us break the seal!"

A deafening roar came from under the altar, and huge cracks appeared on the ground. Black magic energy gushed out from the cracks and condensed into a demon shadow dozens of feet high.

The demon shadow held a huge axe and had a hideous face. It was the sealed ancient demon general!

"Hahaha... I finally came out!"

The voice of the demon general exploded like thunder, making the two people's eardrums hurt. "It's been two thousand eight hundred years. I didn't expect that someone would dare to open the seal of this seat!"

Hu Mazi's face was pale, and the hand holding the clan leader's token trembled slightly: "This is... the ancient demon general? The breath is so strong!"

David protected Hu Mazi behind him, and the spiritual power in his body burst out without reservation. The dragon-slaying sword made a buzzing sound and exuded a sharp sword energy: "It just broke the seal, and its strength has not yet fully recovered. We still have a chance!"

The demon general's eyes fell on David, and a trace of disdain flashed in his eyes: "A mere human cultivator dares to be presumptuous in front of this seat? Come and die for this seat!"

It waved a huge axe and chopped at the two people. The black axe blade carried the momentum of destroying the world and tore the air of the entire underground palace apart.

David did not dare to be careless. He pulled Hu Mazi and jumped to avoid the axe blade.

The axe blade fell to the ground with a loud bang, and the ground was split into a bottomless chasm, and gravel splashed.

“Senior, this guy is out, you attach yourself to me and kill him directly, he is not as awesome as you!”

David hurriedly asked the Red Cloud Demon Lord to possess him, and then kill the demon.

But David shouted for a long time, and the Red Cloud Demon Lord seemed not to hear it! Pinshu.com

“fu , pretending to be dead...”

“Master Hu, find a way to re-reinforce the seal!” David had no choice but to let Hu Mazi reinforce it, and he rushed towards the demon general with the Dragon Slaying Sword, “I’ll hold it back!”

He knew that it was impossible to defeat the ancient demon general with the strength of only two people, and there was only a glimmer of hope if he re-sealed it.

Hu Mazi also reacted, and immediately took out the talisman paper, and began to draw the talisman to reinforce the seal according to the method passed down by the ancestors.

Seeing that David dared to take the initiative to attack, the demon general flashed a trace of anger in his eyes, and swept the giant axe across, slashing towards David’s waist.

David dodged like a ghost, and at the same time, he brought out the Dragon Slaying Sword, and the golden sword energy fell on the demon general like raindrops.

However, the demon general had a very strong defense, and the sword energy fell on it, leaving only a faint white mark, and could not cause any substantial damage at all.

“It’s useless! My demon body is invulnerable to swords and guns. With your little Taoism, you want to hurt me?”

The demon general laughed arrogantly and swung the giant axe again, forcing David to retreat again and again. David was anxious. He could feel that the demon general's strength was constantly recovering. If this continued, let alone reinforcing the seal, both of them would die here.

At this moment, he suddenly remembered the inner elixir of the demon dragon and hurriedly took it out from his arms.

The inner elixir exuded a strong, demonic energy, which could be used to suppress the demon general temporarily.

He infused spiritual power into the inner elixir, and it instantly burst into a dazzling black light, flying towards the demon general.

When the demon general saw the inner elixir, a trace of greed flashed in his eyes, and he reached out to grab it.

“Now!”

David seized the opportunity, and the Dragon Slaying Sword turned into a stream of light, slashing towards the demon general's arm.
