Chapter 5208

After hearing this, Hu Mazi was furious: "This Youyue is so vicious! We must find a way to expose her true face!"

"Don't worry." Chen

Ping held his shoulder, "We don't know the details of the Black Evil Palace yet. Rash actions will only alert the enemy.

The most urgent task is to improve our strength as soon as possible and find evidence of the truth behind the genocide."

"But... where should we start now?"

Hu Mazi frowned, "We have read the ancient books of the Demon Palace, and there is no detailed record of the truth about the genocide."

"Perhaps, we can start with the forces around Jiupan Mountain."

David pondered, "Youyue just mentioned that several forces around Jiupan Mountain have begun to stir, perhaps they know something about what happened back then.

Moreover, Youyue wants them to test us, so we can just use their tricks to investigate."

Hu Mazi's eyes lit up: "Good idea! We can pretend to deal with those forces and take the opportunity to find out the news."

"There is no time to lose, let's go now."

David stood up, "Before leaving, let's do one thing first." The two quietly came to the ancient book library of the Demon Palace, where ancient books and records of the Black Demon Palace from past dynasties are stored.

David used his spiritual power to open the door of the ancient book library, and the two quickly entered it.

The ancient book library was full of bookshelves, which were filled with various ancient books and files.

David and Hu Mazi divided the work and cooperated, carefully looking for records about the extermination of the Hu family.

After an unknown amount of time, Hu Mazi suddenly exclaimed, "Found it! Come and see!"

David hurried over, only to see Hu Mazi holding a yellowed file in his hand, which recorded a war 2,800 years ago.

The two sides of the war were the Black Demon Palace and the Hu family, and the cause of the war was that the Hu family discovered the secret that the Black Demon Palace wanted to release the demon generals in the Buried Demon Abyss!

"So that's it!"

Hu Mazi looked at the records on the file, his eyes full of anger and sadness, "It was the Black Demon Palace that destroyed my Hu family! In order to cover up the secret of wanting to release the demon generals, they killed my Hu family!"

David's face also became extremely ugly: "Youyue has been lying to us. She not only knows the truth about the extermination of the clan, but may even be a participant in the war that year!"

"Let's go and settle accounts with her now!"

Hu Mazi was furious and was about to rush out.

"Wait!"

David held him back. "We don't have any concrete evidence now. Even if we go find her, she won't admit it with just a file.

Besides, this is the Black Demon Palace, and there are her people everywhere. We are no match for them at all."

"Then what should we do? Should we just let it go?"

Hu Mazi said unwillingly.

"Of course we can't let it go."

David's eyes were cold. "Let's leave the Black Demon Palace first, and then find a way to take revenge. This file is evidence, and we must keep it well."

The two put away the file, quietly left the ancient book library, and left the Black Demon Palace at night.

After leaving the Black Demon Palace, the two headed eastward, heading towards the location of the forces around Jiupan Mountain.

They knew that a new challenge was about to begin, and this time, they not only had to face the forces around Jiupan Mountain, but also had to be on guard against the pursuit of the Black Demon Palace.

It had been three days since they left the Black Demon Palace. David and Hu Mazi headed eastward, avoiding several waves of demon patrols along the way.

Although the demonic energy outside Jiupan Mountain is not as strong as that in the depths, it is filled with a strange silence, and even the traces of birds and beasts are extremely rare.

“David, the Misty Forest is ahead.”

Hu Mazi pointed to the area covered by white mist in front. The animal skin map marked this as the territory of the Black Wind Village.

Chapter 5209

Black Wind Village is a mountain village on the outskirts of Jiupan Mountain. It is said that the owner of the village is a demon cultivator in the Earthly Immortal Realm. He usually makes a living by robbing passing cultivators and behaves in an extremely domineering manner.

David looked at the thick fog and frowned slightly. “This fog is unusual. It contains demonic energy. I’m afraid there is an illusion.”

“Demon cultivators are best at these unorthodox methods.”Hu

Mazi clenched the short knife at his waist. Since he got the inheritance from his ancestors, he has become more sensitive to demonic energy. “Should we bypass this place?”

“Bypassing it will arouse suspicion.”

David shook his head and took out two Qingshen Pills from the package. “Take this to resist the erosion of illusions. Let’s pretend to be passing cultivators and go to explore the details of Black Wind Village first.”

The two took the Qingshen Pills and walked into the misty forest.

The fog was like cold silk, and the visibility was less than three feet. There was a faint whisper in my ear, as if countless eyes were watching in secret.

Hu Mazi tightly grasped the tribe leader token. The white light emitted by the token could dispel the surrounding fog, which made him feel much more at ease.

“The demonic energy in this forest is very mixed, and there is more than one kind of demon cultivator. It seems that the Black Wind Village has collected many demons.”

David’s spiritual sense quietly spread out, but was disturbed by the demonic energy in the fog, and could only explore the range of ten feet in radius.

“Be careful, the illusion here can affect the spiritual sense, don’t be confused.”

After walking for about half an hour, a fork in the road suddenly appeared in front of them. At the intersection stood a stone tablet with the three words “Black Wind Village” engraved on it. The handwriting was crooked and revealed a fierce aura.

“Go this way.”

David pointed to the road on the left, where the demonic energy was thicker, and it was obviously the direction leading to the mountain village.

As soon as the two turned into the road on the left, there was a sudden sound of horse hooves in the fog, and a dozen demon cultivators riding black wolves appeared in front of them, blocking their way.

These demon cultivators all had hideous faces, holding knives and axes, and their eyes flashed with greed.

“I opened this road and planted this tree. If you want to pass through here, you have to leave money to buy your way through!”

The leading demon cultivator was a strong man with a wolf head, holding a huge axe, staring at David and Hu Mazi fiercely.

Hu Mazi was about to take action, but was held down by David. David took out a small piece of immortal stone from his arms and threw it to the wolf-headed strong man: “We are just monks passing by, and we want to borrow your place to rest for a night. This little thing is not a respect.”

The wolf-headed strong man took the immortal stone, weighed it, and showed a trace of disdain on his face: “Just this little immortal stone? Are you sending away beggars? Hand over all the treasures on you, otherwise don’t blame me for being rude!”

The demon cultivators behind him also started to make a fuss, waving their weapons, and the atmosphere suddenly became tense.

A hint of coldness flashed in David's eyes, but he still suppressed the idea of taking action: "We are just casual cultivators, we don't have any treasures on us, please be lenient."

"Casual cultivators?"

The wolf-headed sturdy man looked the two up and down, his eyes fell on the clan leader's token in Hu Mazi's hand, and a hint of greed flashed in his eyes, "The jade pendant in that kid's hand looks good, hand it over, and grandpa will let you go!"

Hu Mazi's face sank, and he clenched the token: "This is my heirloom, I will never hand it over!"

"If you don't accept my toast, you will be punished!"

The wolf-headed sturdy man roared, waving his axe and slashing at Hu Mazi, "Grab it for me!"

A dozen demon cultivators immediately surrounded them, and their swords and axes came out together, slashing at the two.

David no longer hesitated, and the spiritual power in his body circulated, and the light golden shield enveloped the two.

At the same time, he offered the Dragon Slaying Sword, and the golden sword energy swept out, instantly knocking away the demon cultivators who were rushing in the front.

The wolf-headed sturdy man didn't expect David to be such a tough guy. He was shocked, but he quickly reacted. He roared, and the mountain axe came towards David's shield with a sharp sound of wind.

With a crisp "clang" sound, the shield vibrated violently, but it was still intact.

"With this little ability, you dare to rob people on the road?"

David snorted coldly, and the Dragon Slashing Sword pierced out like a stream of light, instantly piercing the shoulder of the wolf-headed strong man.

“Ah——”

The wolf-headed strong man screamed, holding his bleeding shoulder and retreating repeatedly, his eyes full of fear, “You... Who are you?”

“A passing cultivator.” David said indifferently, “If you don’t want to die, get out of the way!”

The wolf-headed strong man looked at his men wailing on the ground, and then looked at the Dragon Slashing Sword in David’s hand that exuded a sharp aura. Knowing that he was no match, he quickly fled with his men.

“These demon cultivators are too vulnerable.”

Hu Mazi looked at the back of the wolf-headed strong man fleeing, and said with some surprise.

“These are just minions. The real masters should be in the Black Wind Village.”

David put away the Dragon Slaying Sword. “Let’s keep going forward and be careful.”

The two continued to go deeper into the misty forest. After walking for about an incense stick of time, the fog in front of them gradually thinned, and a huge mountain village appeared in front of them.

The walls of the mountain village were built with huge black stones, with black flags on them. There was a ferocious wolf head pattern painted on the flags. At the entrance of the mountain village stood two bear monsters three feet tall, holding huge hammers and staring at the passers-by vigilantly.

“This is the Black Wind Village.”

David looked at the bear monsters at the entrance of the mountain village. “The strength of these two bear monsters is not weak, equivalent to the second-grade cultivators of the Earthly Immortal Realm.”

“How do we get in?” Hu Mazi asked.

“Go in directly.” David said, “We will pretend to be monks who come to Black Wind Village to seek refuge, and take the opportunity to find out the news.”

When the two walked to the gate of the mountain village, the bear demon immediately stopped them: “Stop! Who are you? What are you doing in Black Wind Village?” “

We are monks passing by, and we want to seek refuge in Black Wind Village. Please inform us.”

David said, and at the same time took out a few fairy stones from his arms and stuffed them into the bear demon’s hand.

The bear demon weighed the fairy stones in his hand, and a satisfied smile appeared on his face: “Wait, I will inform the village owner.”

Soon, the bear demon came back and said to the two: “The village owner lets you go in.”

The two followed the bear demon into the mountain village. The mountain village was more lively than expected. There were demon cultivators everywhere, including wolf demons, tiger demons, snake demons, etc., with different forms and exuding a strong demonic aura.

There was a huge meeting hall in the center of the mountain village. At the door of the meeting hall stood two fox demons holding long swords. They had beautiful faces but extremely cold eyes.

The bear demon brought the two to the door of the meeting hall and said, “The village chief is inside, you can go in by yourselves.”

The two walked into the meeting hall and saw a middle-aged man in a black robe sitting in the middle of the room. He had a sinister face and a sneer on the corner of his mouth. He was the village chief of Black Wind Village, the Black Wind Old Demon.

On both sides of the Black Wind Old Demon stood a dozen demon cultivators, each with a powerful aura, and they were obviously the core members of the Black Wind Village.

“Are you the cultivators who came to join me?”

The Black Wind Old Demon looked at David and Hu Mazi, and a glimmer of scrutiny flashed in his eyes.

“Yes, village chief.”

David said, “We heard that the Black Wind Village is very powerful, and we want to join the village chief and serve him.”

“Oh? What are your abilities?”

The Black Wind Old Demon asked.

“We know some simple magic spells and can fight for the village chief.” David said.

“Hahaha...”

The Black Wind Demon laughed, “Just the two of you, you want to work for me? I don’t accept trash in the Black Wind Village!”

“If the village leader doesn’t believe it, you can try our skills.” David said.

“Okay! Then I’ll give you a chance.”

The Black Wind Demon said, “My Black Wind Village has some grievances with the Green Snake Valley in the east recently. Go and kill the owner of the Green Snake Valley for me, and bring his head back to see me, and I will take you in.”
