

A Man Like None Other Novel

Chapter 5283 |

Full Read Online Chapter 5283 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5283

Qin Lie glared at him angrily: “Old ghost Zhang, that little bas killed my apprentice, and you still want to protect him?”

“Protect?”

Manager Zhang stroked his beard and swept his eyes across the entire audience, “Thousands of eyes saw what happened just now.

Zhao Jingfeng attacked after admitting defeat, and David fought back to protect himself. There is nothing wrong in terms of law and reason.

But Master Qin, are you going to violate the rules of Sword Saint City and retaliate in public?”

The heads and elders around him echoed:

“Brother Zhang is right, Zhao Jingfeng really can’t afford to lose, and he deserves to die!”

“Divine Sword Villa has always prided itself on being a prestigious and upright sect, but we didn’t expect such a despicable person to emerge!”

“If Master Qin were to force his way today, he would be making an enemy of all cultivators!”

A wave of discussion washed over Qin Fenglie. He stared at the disdainful glances around him, feeling the countless pointed and pointed gazes from behind. His old face flushed crimson, as if splashed with blood.

“What a... what a cultivator!”

Qin Lie turned abruptly on David, his eyes venomous. “Little bas, remember this! Today’s humiliation, today’s revenge, Divine Sword Villa will repay you a hundredfold! The Sword Sect will protect you? I want to see if you can protect him forever!”

David slowly straightened himself, wiping the blood from the corner of his mouth. The Dragon Slaying Sword trembled slightly in his hand, emitting a low dragon roar.

He stared at Qin Lie, his voice soft but clear, carrying throughout the room: "I, David, am in Sword Saint City, awaiting your arrival at Divine Sword Villa. But if you dare to attack me again, I won't just dismember you."

"You!"

Qin Lie trembled with anger, but under the cold gaze of Zhang, the head officer, he suppressed his murderous intent.

He took a deep look at the corpse on the ground, and finally, with a flick of his sleeves, he shouted to the disciples behind him: "Take Zhao Jingfeng's body back! Let's go!" A group of disciples from the Excalibur Villa hurried forward, wrapped Zhao Jingfeng's body in white cloth, and fled in dismay amid countless scornful glances.

As Qin Lie disappeared at the city gate, his bitter oath drifted back like a ghost:

"David, Sword Sect... Let's see!"

Only after the Excalibur Villa's men had completely departed did the tense atmosphere on the ring ease slightly.

Personnel Zhang looked at David with a complicated look: "Do you know that killing Zhao Jingfeng is like stirring up a hornet's nest?"

David bowed and said: "Junior knows, but where the Tao is, I will go even if there are thousands of people. If you can tolerate sneak attacks from behind, what kind of swordsmanship are you practicing?"

"What a Tao!"

Personnel Zhang laughed loudly, "I didn't misjudge you! Sword Saint City will testify for you about what happened today. If Divine Sword Villa dares to retaliate in Sword Saint City openly, I will not agree!"

He paused and took out a jade plaque engraved with sword patterns from his bosom: "This is the 'Protecting the Tao Order' of Sword Saint City. Holders of this order can pass unimpeded through the seven major sword sects in the fifth heaven. If you encounter a provocation from Divine Sword Villa, you can use this order to seek help from the major sects."

David took the jade plaque, which was warm to the touch and had a faint spiritual power flowing on it: "Thank you, Senior Zhang."

"Your injuries are serious. Go down and heal first."

Zhang, the person in charge, patted him on the shoulder. "The champion of the sword competition is none other than you."

Mo Chen hurried forward to support David: "David, I'll take you to heal."

Ling Xue and Hu Mazi also gathered around, their eyes reddened as they looked at David's wounds.

A group of Sword Sect disciples surrounded them as they walked off the stage. The cultivators along the way made way for them, their eyes filled with awe as they looked at David.

This young man, at the eighth level of the Sanxian realm, had defeated several Earth Immortal masters and even killed the genius of the Divine Sword Villa. With his resounding victory, he completely shocked the entire Sword Saint City.

Returning to the Sword Sect's courtyard, Mo Chen immediately took out the healing elixir and personally tended to David's wounds.

Full Read Online Chapter 5284 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5284

When Mo Chen unbuttoned David's clothes and saw the wound so deep that the bone could be seen, he couldn't help but gasp: "Zhao Jingfeng is such a piece of shit!"

David smiled slightly and said lightly: "It's okay, I won't die."

"You still say it's okay?" Ling Xue glared at him angrily and carefully wiped the wound with spiritual spring water, "Do you know how dangerous it was just now? If Qin Lie really took action, we would not be able to stop him!"

Hu Mazi flattered David from the side, "David, you are so awesome! That 'Tenglong Style' is so cool! When that kid Zhao Jingfeng was split in half, I almost jumped up!"

Mo Chen applied medicine to David and said in a deep voice, "The Divine Sword Villa will never let it go. Qin Fenglie is a vengeful person. He will definitely make trouble secretly after he lost face so much this time. I think you should leave Sword Saint City and avoid the limelight for a while."

David nodded, "We will leave immediately after getting the championship reward."

Even if Mo Chen didn't say it, David and Hu Mazi would leave Sword Saint City and go to find the branch of the Evil Dao Hall.

When Ling Xue mentioned the championship prize, her eyes lit up. "I heard the champion will receive the Sword Heart Enlightening Pill, a treasured possession of Sword Saint City, and have the chance to enter the Ten Thousand Swords Cave for three days of contemplation!"

"Sword Heart Enlightening Pill?" David was puzzled. "What's that?"

"It's an elixir that enhances sword intent," Ling Xue explained.

David looked at Mo Chen in disbelief. He had never heard of an elixir that could enhance sword intent.

"Exactly," Mo Chen smiled. "With this elixir, your sword intent barrier might truly transform into a sword domain."

"Then your strength will be significantly increased."

"What about the Ten Thousand Swords Cave?" David asked curiously.

"That's where..."

Mo Chen had just begun to speak when footsteps were heard outside the courtyard. A disciple from Sword Saint City stood respectfully at the door. "Mr. Chen, Director Zhang wants you in to announce the prizes for the sword competition."

David stood up, a look of anticipation on his face: "Let's go."

When David reappeared in the main hall of Sword Saint City, all eyes were on him. The heads and elders on the VIP platform stood up and gestured, their eyes filled with kindness as they looked at him. A genius who could challenge the Divine Sword Villa, everyone wanted to befriend him.

Zhang, the head of the group, held a brocade box and announced loudly: "The sword competition has concluded successfully. This year's champion is David!"

The applause was thunderous, more enthusiastic than any previous one.

Zhang handed the brocade box to David: "Inside is the Sword Heart Enlightenment Pill and the admission token to the Ten Thousand Swords Cave. In three days, I will personally take you into the cave."

David took the brocade box and was about to thank him when a disciple hurried in and whispered something in Zhang's ear.

Zhang's face suddenly became solemn.

He looked at David and said in a deep voice, "David, I'm afraid you can't stay in Sword Saint City for long.

Before leaving, Qin Fenglie sent a message to all the major sects friendly with Divine Sword Villa, saying that you possess rare treasures and are murderous, and called on all cultivators to fight against you."

Mo Chen's face changed. "He's trying to slander David and make him a target of public criticism!"

"Despicable!" Ling Xue said angrily.

Manager Zhang sighed. "Divine Sword Villa has a huge influence in the sword dao lineage, and many sects will give them face. I'm afraid it won't be long before someone comes to cause trouble."

"After all, Divine Sword Villa not only has swordsmanship, but also advanced forging techniques. Many sects purchase their spiritual swords from Divine Sword Villa, so they will still give them this face."

David clenched the brocade box in his hand, a cold look flashing in his eyes. "Want to attack us in groups? Then let's try..."

Full Read Online Chapter 5285 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5285

David turned to Zhang, the person in charge: "Senior, I won't enter the Ten Thousand Swords Cave. I'll accept the reward and take my leave now."

"Will you not consider it again?" Zhang, the person in charge, said with some regret, "The Ten Thousand Swords Cave is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for sword cultivators.

"Although the opportunity is good, you have to live to enjoy it." David smiled and said, "After I solve the trouble at the Divine Sword Villa, I will come to ask you for advice."

Zhang, the person in charge nodded: "Okay, I'll have someone take you away through the secret passage to avoid a lot of eyes and ears."

“Outside the Sword Saint City, there is a sword tomb. You can also go there to practice. Since you can’t enter the Ten Thousand Swords Cave, practicing in the sword tomb can be regarded as compensation for you.”

“Thank you, senior!” David bowed!

Half an hour later, the Sword Sect and their group left the bustling city through the secret passage of the Sword Saint City.

Standing on the hillside outside the city, David looked back and saw the outline of Sword Saint City gradually blurring in the setting sun.

“David, where are we going next?” Mo Chen asked.

David looked westward. “I want to visit the Sword Tomb first.”

“Okay, I’ll take you there. But this Sword Tomb is different from the Ten Thousand Swords Cave. It’s a place of slaughter. Those with weak resolves can easily become possessed.”

“It also depends on each person’s understanding. Not everyone who enters the Sword Tomb will improve. Some people come out as fools!”

Mo Chen explained the dangers of the Sword Tomb to David.

“I’m not afraid. I have to give it a try...” David smiled faintly!

The group headed towards the Sword Tomb!

The Sword Grave lies in the mountains behind Sword Saint City, a vast valley filled with densely packed ancient swords. Each sword exudes a faint sword aura, converging to form an invisible sword domain.

Each sword represents a lost life, and beneath this sword domain, a thick aura of malevolence hangs.

“This is the Sword Grave,” Mo Chen said, pointing to a stone tablet in the valley’s center. “Inscribed on that tablet is the ‘Sword Saint Heart Sutra.’ How much you can comprehend depends on your luck.” David approached the tablet, which was covered in densely inscribed ancient characters. These words seemed to possess life, slowly flowing across the stone tablet, emanating a majestic sword aura.

As David gazed at the inscriptions, he felt a vast stream of information flood his mind, and countless profound sword principles emerged before his eyes.

He seemed to witness the swordsmen of past generations training: some comprehending the sword intent of heaven and earth atop lofty mountaintops, others sharpening their murderous blades in seas of blood, and still others experiencing the human spirit and sword principles of the common people in the marketplace...

After an unseen moment, David slowly closed his eyes, forming hand seals with his hands, and the spiritual energy within him slowly began to flow according to the principles of the "Sword Saint Heart Sutra.

" An aura gradually emanated from him, one that merged with the "Sword Tomb." The ancient swords in the valley seemed to be inspired, each humming with a clear, crisp sound.

Mo Chen, standing in the distance, observed the transformation in David, his eyes filled with wonder. "I didn't expect his comprehension to be so high, to resonate with the Sword Tomb's sword intent in such a short time..."

Just as David's aura blended perfectly with the Sword Tomb's, and the humming of the ancient swords around him intensified, something unexpected happened!

The dark, sinister aura that had once lingered in the valley suddenly erupted into a violent rage, as if drawn by an invisible force.

They ceased to be dispersing mists and transformed into surging black torrents, carrying a sickening stench. From all directions, they converged towards the stone tablet where David stood!

"Boom..."

The earth shook violently, as if a giant beast had awakened underground.

The ground of the Sword Tomb Valley cracked around the stone tablet, and from countless deep cracks, white bone claws suddenly broke through the earth!