Chapter 5316

The Blood-Armored Monk stepped forward, runes flickering on his blood-red armor. “Li Chunfeng, it’s been years since we last met, and you’re still as irascible as ever. Today’s matter has nothing to do with you. Get out of here!”

“How dare a lackey of the Temple dictate to me?” Li Chunfeng snorted coldly, his sword energy surging forth. The Blood-Armored Monk didn’t flinch, letting the sword energy slash through his armor, leaving only a faint white mark. “Your sword is still so soft.”

Li Chunfeng’s expression changed slightly. The opponent’s defense was so astonishing.

You Wuxie floated to the front of the formation, with black air swirling around him: “City Lord Li, he who knows the current affairs is a hero. David and my Evil Dao Hall are sworn enemies, and he must die today!”

“And me!” You Yue screamed, “I will dig out his eyes with my own hands!”

” Nan Batian walked out with Xiao Cui in his arms, laughing: “You are a bunch of ugly guys, and you dare to shout in front of your grandfather? Do you believe that my Information Building will dig out all your secrets?” Xiao Cui stepped forward, holding a jade slip in her hand: “The six halls of the Temple are secretly colluding with the Demonic Path, the branch hall of the Evil Dao Hall has taken away the souls of innocent cultivators, and Master Qin... Tsk tsk, I have a lot of stories about your son bullying men and women.”

Qin Lie’s face sank: “Don’t talk nonsense!”

“Whether it is nonsense or not, we will know after it is announced.” Xiao Cui said lightly, “As long as you withdraw your troops, today’s events will be written off.”

The Blood Armored Monk sneered: “Information Building? They are just rats who can only spread rumors. If you dare to say anything more, you will be killed without mercy!”

“Then let’s try!”

The cultivators behind Nan Batian simultaneously released their auras. Though few in number, each one possessed a concentrated aura, clearly elite warriors.

The two sides were on edge, a battle imminent.

Just then, David's voice echoed from the courtyard: "Enough of the nonsense."

He slowly emerged, followed by Mo Chen, Hu Mazi, Ling Xue, and all the Sword Sect disciples.

Although there were only a few dozen of them, each held their heads high, fearless.

"Qin Lie, don't you just want to kill me?"

David stared directly at him. "I challenge you to a duel, life or death, do you dare?" Qin Lie was stunned, then burst into laughter. "What did you say?"

You, a Loose Immortal Realm cultivator, dare challenge me, an Eighth-Rank Earth Immortal Realm cultivator?" "Why wouldn't you dare?" David gripped the Dragon Slaying Sword tightly.

"If I lose, I'll let you do as I please. If you lose, take your men and leave Sword Saint City and never offend again!" "David! No!" Mo Chen exclaimed urgently. "Mr. Chen, think again!" Li Chunfeng hurriedly intervened. David waved his hand, his eyes firm. "This is a feud between him and me, and it's time to settle it."

A sinister glint flashed in Qin Lie's eyes, as if he was eager for David to die. "Alright! I promise! But if anyone dares to interfere, don't blame me for being rude!" Qin Lie slowly approached David, his spiritual energy surging, and deep pits were carved into the ground. "Boy, it's your honor to die by my sword."

Qin Lie swung his longsword, and a surge of sword energy ripped a deep chasm between them. David took a deep breath, and the power of the three clans within him flowed simultaneously, tricolor energy coursing through his meridians.

He knew that this battle hinged not only on his own life, but also on the survival of the entire Sword Sect. "Stop talking nonsense, and attack!" Qin Lie's eyes surged with murderous intent.

Without hesitation, his longsword struck with the force of splitting mountains and shattering rocks. Even before the sword reached him, waves of energy were already rising from the ground.

"Well-timed!" David shouted, and the Dragon Slaying Sword transformed into a golden beam. "Dang!" The sound of metal clashing was deafening, and the ground beneath their feet exploded simultaneously, sending rubble flying.

David felt a surge of immense force, his arm instantly going numb. He retreated three steps before steadying himself, a trace of blood oozing from the corner of his mouth. "Sure enough, he's vulnerable!" Qin Lie sneered, and pursued him. His longsword fell like a violent storm, his sword energy crisscrossing and blocking all of David's escape routes.

Chapter 5317

David unleashed his Fire Control Step to its fullest potential, his figure weaving through the sword shadows like a ghost, the Dragon Slaying Sword fiercely guarding his vital points. Every collision sent his blood boiling.

"Is David courting death?" Hu Mazi stamped his feet anxiously.

"He's testing Qin Lie's strength,"

Li Chunfeng said gravely. "Qin Lie's swordsmanship is fierce and domineering, with few flaws. David will find it difficult to find an opening." David's situation grew increasingly precarious.

Qin Lie's swordsmanship grew faster and faster, his sword energy coalescing into the phantom of a ferocious tiger, lunging at David with its maw gaping.

"Roar!"

Wherever the tiger's phantom passed, the air ripped apart, emitting a piercing scream.

A flicker of determination flashed in David's eyes, and the murderous energy within him suddenly erupted, coating the Dragon Slaying Sword in a layer of black mist. "Dragon Slash!"

A black dragon, condensed from murderous energy, roared out, colliding fiercely with the phantom tiger.

"Boom!"

A wave of energy swept in all directions, and the onlookers retreated.

When the smoke cleared, David's face was pale, and a patch of his chest had collapsed, clearly suffering serious injuries.

Qin Lie also stepped back, a hint of surprise on his face.

“Interesting.” Qin Lie licked his lips. “Unfortunately, it’s not enough!”

He gripped the hilt with both hands, and spiritual energy surged into it, igniting a blazing fire from the longsword. “Burning Heaven Sword Technique!”

The sword shadows shone loudly, each strike carrying a heat that could incinerate mountains and boil seas, scorching the air and causing it to distort.

David’s pupils constricted. He could sense that the power of this sword technique was several times greater than before. A direct hit would be fatal.

“That’s the only way!”

David gritted his teeth, the dragon power within him churning furiously, golden scales emerging from beneath his skin.

Soon, his Indestructible Golden Body activated, and David was completely covered in golden scales.

“These are... dragon scales?” Ling Xue exclaimed in shock.

Mo Chen was also shocked: “Is this kid a descendant of the dragon clan?”

Qin Lie saw the dragon scales, and a hint of greed flashed in his eyes: “So you’re a dragon bad! No wonder you’re so difficult!”

His attacks intensified, each strike aimed at David’s vital points. Chen

Ping no longer held back, infusing his legs with the power of the divine dragon. His body suddenly accelerated, narrowly avoiding the sword’s edge. At the same time, the Dragon Slaying Sword swept out, aiming directly at Qin Lie’s throat.

“A trifle!” Qin Lie twisted his wrist and blocked the attack with his longsword.

At this moment, David quietly condensed a golden ball of light in his left hand, and taking advantage of Qin Lie’s moment of blocking, he fiercely struck him in the chest!

“The Dragon’s Fury!”

The golden ball of light exploded, and the dragon’s might spread. Qin Lie felt a tightness in his chest, his blood surging, and he was actually knocked back five steps.

“You’re courting death!”

Qin Lie was shocked and furious. He had never expected David to have hidden such a powerful killing move.

Killing intent surged in his eyes. He raised his sword overhead, his spiritual energy condensing into a massive fireball: "Burn Heaven and Destroy Earth!"

The fireball rose like a miniature sun, its radiant heat causing the surrounding cultivators to release their spiritual energy to protect themselves.

David stared at the fireball, which could have burned him to ash, a flicker of determination in his eyes.

"It seems I have no choice but to use it."

David slowly raised his left hand and grasped the air.

"Om..."

A soft humming sound echoed, and the pitch-black God King Bow appeared out of thin air in his hand. The golden patterns on the bow seemed to come alive, emitting a faint golden glow.

"That's... a divine artifact!"

"It's the God King Bow! The legendary artifact that can kill gods!"

The onlookers erupted in shock, their eyes filled with shock and greed.

Qin Lie was also incredulous: "How did the God King Bow end up in your hands?"

David didn't answer. Instead, he placed his right hand on the bowstring, and the Dao patterned evil energy within him instantly condensed into a dazzling arrow feather.

"Go to hell!"

David shouted, releasing his right hand.

The arrow shot out like a meteor, carrying the momentum to tear the sky and the earth apart. It instantly crossed a distance of dozens of feet and shot towards the huge fireball.

Chapter 5318

“Boom!”

The moment the arrow feather collided with the fireball, time seemed to stand still.

Then, a devastating energy erupted, and the golden light engulfed everything, even the space was trembling slightly.

Everyone was shocked by this power and subconsciously closed their eyes.

When the light dissipated, the scene in the field made everyone gasp.

Qin Lie half-knelt on the ground, a hideous bloody hole appeared on his chest, blood gushed out, and the purple-gold armor shattered into several pieces.

He looked at the wound on his chest in disbelief, his eyes filled with fear.

David was not much better off. The backlash of the God King Bow caused his meridians to be broken, blood kept flowing from the corners of his mouth, and his body was shaky.

“I... I actually lost?”

Qin Lie muttered to himself, a flash of madness in his eyes. “No! I didn’t lose!”

He suddenly looked up at the crowd behind him. “What are you still standing there for? Attack! Kill him! Seize the artifact!”

Greed flashed in the Blood-Armored Monk’s eyes, and he charged first: “The Divine King Bow is mine!”

Not to be outdone, You Wuxie, shrouded in black aura, lunged at David: “David, your body is mine!”

You Yue and You Wuji followed closely behind, and masters from various sects also attacked. All were captivated by the Divine King Bow and David’s dragon bloodline, having long forgotten their previous agreement.

“Despicable!”

Li Chunfeng roared, unsheathing his longsword and charging towards the Blood-Armored Monk.

“Protect Mr. Chen!”

Nan Batian and Xiao Cui attacked simultaneously, and the monks from the Information Building formed a human wall to block the incoming enemy.

Mo Chen and Hu Mazi supported David as he retreated, while Ling Xue, sword in hand, stood in the front, gazing coldly at You Yue.

“Little b!tch, prepare to die!”

A bone whip appeared in Youyue’s hand, and with a piercing sound, it lashed towards Lingxue.

“Get out of the way!” Lingxue shouted angrily, and her longsword thrust out like a flash of lightning, forcing Youyue back.

A melee broke out instantly!

Li Chunfeng battled a Blood-Armored Monk. Both were at the ninth level of the Earthly Immortal Realm. Their sword energy clashed with the blood-colored aura, and every exchange of blows caused the heavens and the earth to change color. Nan Batian , wielding the Axe of Creation, fought with unparalleled valor, fending off the attacks of several Earthly Immortal Realm monks.

Xiao Cui, with her agility, targeted her enemies’ vital points with her silver needles, creating a perfect synergy.

Though weaker, the Sword Sect disciples were fearless and engaged the evil cultivators of the Evil Dao Hall. Screams and the clash of weapons filled the air. David leaned against the wall, watching the chaotic battle unfold with a frenzy of anxiety.

He wanted to help, but he couldn’t even lift a hand. The backlash from the Divine King Bow was more severe than he had imagined.

Using the bow this time had nearly depleted David’s Dao Pattern Sha Qi.

“David, are you all right?” Hu Mazi asked anxiously, using talismans to block the attacks.

“I’m fine...”

David coughed up blood, a flicker of despair in his eyes. Was he really going to die here today?

“I’ll take you away. I’m afraid these people won’t be able to hold out for much longer.”

Hu Mazi wanted to take David away!

But David shook his head. These people had risked their lives to save him, following Qin Lie and the others.

How could David just walk away?

“Fire Qilin...”

David shouted.

A red light burst out from the storage ring and landed on the ground.

The Fire Qilin, covered in red scales, opened its mouth and let out a childish roar.

Although the Fire Qilin had grown significantly, it was still a cub.

“Is this... a Fire Qilin?” Mo Chen exclaimed in shock.

The little Fire Qilin seemed to sense David’s danger, a fierce glint in its eyes, and it inhaled sharply.

“Roar!”

With a deafening roar, the little Qilin’s body expanded at a visible rate. In the blink of an eye, it grew into a giant beast several feet tall, its body ablaze with blazing flames, emitting the overwhelming power of a divine beast.

Chapter 5319

“A divine beast! It’s the Fire Qilin!”

“What a treasure! If we can capture it, refining elixirs will surely lead to a breakthrough!”

More people, drawn to the Fire Qilin, turned and rushed in their direction. The Fire Qilin roared, spewing out a stream of fire that instantly incinerated the leading cultivators to ash.

It nuzzled its head against David, its eyes filled with affection.

“Fire Qilin, stop them!” David said weakly.

As if understanding his words, the Fire Qilin turned to face the oncoming enemy, opening its maw and unleashing countless fireballs like a meteor shower.

“Boom! Boom! Boom!”

Explosions echoed one after another, sending the oncoming cultivators flying, temporarily alleviating the crisis.

But this was only temporary. The main forces of the Sixth Hall and the Hall of Evil Paths had yet to be deployed. Once they unleashed their full might, even with the Fire Kirin’s assistance, they would be difficult to resist.

The Blood-Armored Monk, in the midst of a fierce battle with Li Chunfeng, saw the Fire Kirin and a flicker of greed in his eyes. “Li Chunfeng, I’ll spare you for today!”

He fainted, then turned and charged at the Fire Kirin. “The divine beast is mine !”

Li Chunfeng hurried after him, but was stopped by several Divine Hall monks. He could only watch helplessly as the Blood-Armored Monk pounced on David.

“David, die!”

The Blood-Armored Monk slammed his palm towards David, a blood-red shield of light carrying destructive power.

A flicker of despair flashed in David’s eyes. He no longer had the strength to resist.

At this moment, two elder voices rang out simultaneously:

“Wulian Tianzun, benefactor, stop!”

“To outnumber the few is unseemly!”

Two golden beams shot out like meteors, landing precisely on the Blood-Armored Monk’s palm.

“Boom!”

The Blood-Armored Monk was knocked back three steps, looking at the newcomer in disbelief. Two veteran Taoists appeared on the scene: one holding a whisk, with white hair and a youthful face; the other, dressed in Taoist robes, had a solemn appearance.

Behind them followed dozens of Taoists, each exuding a powerful aura.

“Daoist Master Wuji? Daoist Master Wuwei?” David was surprised and delighted. “Why are you here?”

David hadn’t expected to encounter these two here.

After the seal on the Celestial Realm was lifted, Daoist Master Wuji had returned to the Celestial Realm with Daoist Master Wuwei’s spirit, and David hadn’t seen them since.

Unexpectedly, these two would appear at this moment.

Taoist Wuji stroked his beard and smiled. “David, your reputation is well-known throughout the Fifth Heaven. It’s impossible for us not to know you.”

“We heard today that an evil demon is causing trouble here, so we’ve come to exorcise it.” Taoist Wuwei also smiled faintly. “David, the Temple is colluding with the demonic sects and harming lives. How can our Leiyin Temple sit idly by?”

The Blood-Armored Monk’s face darkened. “Are you trying to intervene?”

“No.” Taoist Wuji looked at David. “We’re here to lend a hand.”

“David is my disciple’s husband. I don’t want my disciple to be a widow.”

Hearing Taoist Wuji’s words, Ling Xue looked at David with confusion.

She had never heard David mention a wife or a girlfriend.

And now, suddenly, a wife?

David glanced at Ling Xue and said, “I’ll explain later. I actually have many women…”

“For a cultivator, having three wives and four concubines is normal. There’s no need to make a fuss,”

Mo Chen said from the side.

David was a little embarrassed and didn’t say anything else. He didn’t have only three wives and four concubines. He probably had thirty wives and forty concubines. He couldn’t even remember how many women he had!

Some were just for transactions and only had a chance to sleep with them. Like the two sisters of the Ji family, Ji Meiyan and Ji Meiling, David was forced by the ancestor of the Ji family to sleep with the two sisters!

In order to let the two sisters have his bloodline, there was actually no emotion. At that time, David was completely a stud.

Chapter 5320

A flicker of fear flashed across the Blood-Armored Monk's eyes. Leiyin Temple was a great sect with a thousand-year heritage, its strength formidable.

But as he gazed at the Divine King Bow and Fire Kirin so close, greed finally overcame reason: "Don't blame me for being rude! Disciples of the Divine Temple, follow my command, kill!"

"Kill!"

Hundreds of Divine Temple monks attacked simultaneously, their blood-red light shield merging into a single, surging wave.

"Disciples of Leiyin Temple, form the formation!" Taoist Wuwei shouted.

Dozens of Taoists chanted Taoist scriptures simultaneously, and golden divine light coalesced into a massive palm print, striking the blood-red light shield.

"Disciples of the Sword Sect, form the formation!" Mo Chen, observing this, hurriedly shouted.

The Sword Sect disciples stepped on the Seven Stars, their spiritual energy condensing into a massive immortal sword, slashing down upon the oncoming enemies.

Li Chunfeng, Nan Batian, and the others seized the opportunity to counterattack, instantly turning the tide.

David watched the chaotic battle before him, a mixture of emotions welling up within him.

He hadn't imagined that, in his most desperate moment, so many would fight for him.

But he knew this was only the beginning.

The Divine King Bow, the Dragon Bloodline, the Fire Qilin... the revelation of these secrets would inevitably drag him into a greater vortex.

The Taoist formation of Leiyin Temple and the Sword Sect's Seven Star Sword Formation complemented each other, interweaving golden divine light and piercing sword energy into a web that shattered the blood-red light shields of the temple monks.

The Fire Qilin, even more so, moved with impunity. Wherever the flames passed, the black-robed evil cultivators of the Evil Dao Hall were reduced to charcoal, their screams echoing incessantly.

“Retreat! Retreat!”

An elder from a small sect, seeing the situation was dire, led his disciples in a retreat.

They had been lured here by Qin Lie's offers, and now, seeing both the Divine Temple and the Evil Dao Hall at a disadvantage, how could they dare to continue fighting?

With the first one gone, there would be the second.

The cultivators from various sects dispersed like the receding tide, and most of them were gone in the blink of an eye.

You Wuxie watched his disciples fall in droves, a flicker of fear in his eyes.

The Taoist techniques of Leiyin Temple were the nemesis of these evil cultivators. Further fighting would only lead to annihilation.

“Let's go!”

You Wuxie acted decisively, taking Youyue and You Wuji with him as a stream of black air and escaping, not even bothering to take the altar with him.

The Blood Armored Monk looked at the disastrous situation, his face livid.

He had originally intended to seize the God King Bow and the Fire Kirin, but he hadn't expected the great god of Leiyin Temple to show up halfway.

If he didn't leave, he might even die here.

“Let's go!”

Without even a glance at Qin Lie, the Blood Armored Monk took the temple disciples and turned into a stream of light and left.

They had originally come only to carry out the orders of the Sixth Palace Master, and now that the mission had failed, they naturally wouldn't be buried with an unrelated Qin Lie.

In the blink of an eye, the originally dark crowd was reduced to only Qin Lie and his son and a few loyal warriors from the Divine Sword Villa.

Qin Lie looked at the empty surroundings, then at David and his men approaching step by step. His face drained of color, and his eyes were filled with despair.

“No... Impossible!”

Qin Lie muttered to himself, the longsword in his hand clanging to the ground. “How could my Divine Sword Villa, a foundation built for thousands of years, be lost to a mere brat like you!”

David slowly approached him, the blood still stained on the Dragon Slaying Sword. “Qin Lie, you colluded with the demons and murdered your fellow believers. Today is your day of death.”

“Dad! Save me! I don’t want to die!”

Qin Feng cried bitterly, his body splattered with blood from the broken blade.

Qin Lie glared at David, a glint of madness in his eyes. “David! If my son dies, even as a ghost I won’t let you go!”

He suddenly leaped up and lunged at David, intent on a shared death.

“You’re so stubborn!”

David’s eyes glared coldly, and the Dragon Slaying Sword flashed with a glare.

“Puff!”

Blood splattered, and Qin Lie’s head fell to the ground, eyes wide open, eyes still open.

Qin Feng stared at his father’s body, his body paralyzed with fear, his urine and feces flowing. “Mercy... Please, please, please, please...”
