Chapter 5541

David and Hu Mazi felt the restraints disappear and struggled to their feet.

They stared in astonishment at the dissipating array around them and the desiccated corpse left by Xue Wuying on the ground.

“What...what just happened?” Hu Mazi asked, puzzled.

David was equally bewildered; he only remembered his soul being pulled by Xue Wuying before losing consciousness.

He had no idea what happened afterward.

Just then, the voice of the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord echoed in David’s sea of consciousness: “Boy, you’re lucky this time. If it weren’t for my intervention, your soul would have been sucked away by that guy long ago!”

David was startled and quickly asked, “Senior, did you save me just now? Weren’t you weak and almost dead?”

David didn’t understand. The Crimson Cloud Demon Lord’s soul was extremely weak after the battle with the Soul Devouring Venerable, and he almost died. How could he help him?

“Damn it, even if I was weak, inside your sea of consciousness, I could easily destroy that guy’s soul. I am a Demon Lord of the Ninth Heaven. This guy is nothing.” The Crimson Cloud Demon Lord boasted.

“Thank you so much, Senior...”

David didn’t know what had happened in his sea of consciousness, so he could only thank the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord first.

“No need to be so polite with me!” the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord said smugly. “However, that guy’s soul was eventually absorbed by that golden ancient book, which saved me a lot of trouble.”

David then understood that Xue Wuying’s soul had been absorbed by the Great Luo Golden Scripture in his sea of consciousness. Even the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord’s soul feared the Great Luo Golden Scripture

, so Xue Wuying’s soul was nothing. Seeing David’s expression, the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord quickly explained, “However

, I did beat that guy up, don’t think I’m bragging! ” ” No,

Senior is the most powerful figure in the Nine Heavens, how could I brag?” David said with a faint smile.

made the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord blush slightly, and he completely ignored David!

Looking at the dried corpse of Bloodless Shadow on the ground, Hu Mazi asked, “David, what should we do now?”

David snapped out of his daze, looking at the dried corpse on the ground, a cold glint flashing in his eyes.

“Bloodless Shadow is dead. We need to find a way to get clues about the souls of your clansmen from him.”

After saying that, David walked to Bloodless Shadow’s dried corpse and began searching his body.

Soon, he found a black jade pendant in Bloodless Shadow’s bosom.

This jade pendant was completely black, engraved with some strange runes, radiating a chilling aura.

“What is this?” Hu Mazi asked curiously.

David carefully examined the jade pendant and said, “This should be a token of the Evil Path Hall. Perhaps we can find some clues from it.”

After saying this, David put the jade pendant away and then said to Hu Mazi, “Master Hu, let’s leave here first and find a safe place to study this jade pendant more carefully.”

Hu Mazi nodded, and the two of them, without further hesitation, turned and left the branch hall of the Evil Path Hall.

When they emerged from the valley, they found it was already late at night.

Moonlight shone on the earth, adding an eerie beauty to the gloomy forest.

“Where do we go next?” Hu Mazi asked.

David thought for a moment and said, “Let’s find a place to rest first, and then figure out how to study the jade pendant. By the way, do you know if there’s any safe place nearby?”

Hu Mazi thought for a moment and said, “We can go back to Dongxiang County and rest there; it’s safe there.”

David glanced at Hu Mazi; he knew Hu Mazi definitely wanted to go back to Dongxiang County to play with women.

Chapter 5542

After all, Lin Yoona had found two women to keep Hu Mazi company.

Now that they were going back, they could continue playing.

It would just be tough on the two maids; Hu Mazi had made it difficult for them to even walk.

David nodded and said, “Alright, then let’s go to Dongxiang County.” Chen

Ping agreed to return to Dongxiang County because he wanted to try and see if the Bloodless Shadow jade pendant could help Lin Yoona’s father find his soul.

Although he knew that Lin Yoona's father's soul had been absorbed by him, the Evil Path Palace was skilled in the Dao of Souls, and perhaps there were other ways to restore Lin Yoona's father.

Without further hesitation, the two headed towards Dongxiang County.

The sandstorm still raged, like ferocious beasts roaring and galloping across the land.

However, David and Hu Mazi's mood was completely different from when they arrived.

They had arrived filled with trepidation and an eagerness to uncover the truth; now, however, they were more composed and resolute.

The two walked through the inky night, arriving once again at the city gates of Dongxiang County.

Under the dim lamplight, the city gates appeared ancient and solemn, like a silent guardian witnessing the rise and fall of this city.

The soldiers guarding the city, upon seeing them, instantly showed a hint of awe in their eyes, and quickly and respectfully made way, daring not to obstruct them in the slightest.

After all, the powerful aura David had released last time, like a towering mountain, had pressed down on them, leaving them breathless, a memory still vivid in their minds. The majesty and power contained within that aura instilled fear and reverence in them from the bottom of their hearts.

Looking at the soldiers' respectful demeanor, Hu Mazi's lips curled into a slight smile. He said, "I didn't expect the soldiers of Dongxiang County to be so sensible. Look at them, trembling with fear, as if we were some kind of monster."

David smiled faintly, a detached and serene expression in his smile. He said, "Strength determines everything; this is the law of the cultivation world. In this dog-eat-dog world, only by possessing great strength can you command respect from others."

The two entered the city, where the streets were still brightly lit, like daytime.

Vendors

lined both sides of the street, hawking various goods—fragrant delicacies, exquisite magical artifacts, and all sorts of strange and wonderful trinkets—creating a scene of prosperity.

The bustling atmosphere seemed to speak of the city's vitality and energy.

“Let’s go to the Lin family first,”

David said, turning slightly to Hu Mazi.

His gaze was firm and steady, as if he had already prepared for anything.

Hu Mazi nodded, a hint of anticipation flashing in his eyes.

After all, he couldn’t forget the taste of those two maids.

Those two maids were gentle and graceful, like flowers in spring, making his heart itch every time he thought of them.

The two quickly arrived at the Lin family mansion. The mansion was magnificent, its vermilion gate solemn and imposing, the stone lions in front of it majestic, as if guarding the peace of the mansion.

Hearing the servants report that David and Hu Mazi had returned, Lin Yun’er was overjoyed. She quickly lifted her skirt and rushed out.

Her hair swayed gently as she ran, like black silk, her face filled with surprise, her bright eyes sparkling with joy.

“Fellow Daoist Chen, Master Hu, you’re back!”

Lin Yun’er’s clear voice echoed in the air, like the most beautiful melody in the world.

Her gaze swept over the two men, seemingly searching for something, her eyes filled with a mixture of anxiety and anticipation.

“Miss Lin, we’re back,”

David nodded slightly, his tone calm and steady.

“Then...then my father’s soul...” Lin Yun’er asked nervously, her hands unconsciously clenching the hem of her dress, fine beads of sweat appearing on her forehead.

Chapter 5543

She worried about her father’s safety day and night, praying every second that his soul would be at peace.

David took out the black jade pendant from his pocket. The pendant exuded a mysterious and cold aura, as if it concealed countless secrets.

He slowly said, "We found some clues. This jade pendant was obtained from Elder Xue Wuying of the Evil Path Hall. Perhaps it can help your father recover his soul."

A glimmer of hope flashed in Lin Yun'er's eyes, like a bright lamp in the darkness, illuminating her path forward.

"Really? That's wonderful!"

Her voice trembled slightly with excitement, and her eyes glistened with tears.

"However, I can't guarantee success. I need to study this jade pendant first,"

David said earnestly, looking at Lin Yun'er.

His eyes held a seriousness and responsibility, as if telling Lin Yoona that he would do his best to help her father.

"It's alright, as long as there's hope,"

Lin Yoona said excitedly, her face beaming with a happy smile. That smile was like the warm and radiant spring sunshine.

She quickly led David and Hu Mazi into the mansion.

Inside, pavilions and terraces were arranged in a harmonious and orderly fashion, with lush flowers, trees, and shrubs, resembling a fairyland.

"Steward Zhang, quickly prepare rooms for Fellow Daoist Chen and Master Hu,"

Lin Yoona said to the old steward, her voice clear and melodious.

"Yes, Miss,"

Steward Zhang replied quickly, his slightly hunched back revealing his loyalty and respect for his master.

Soon, two rooms were prepared.

The rooms were elegantly furnished, with tables, chairs, and benches, and the bedding on the beds was soft and comfortable, as if inviting people to lie down and rest. Upon seeing the room, Hu Mazi couldn't wait to say, "Miss Lin, those two maids..."

His eyes revealed a greedy and lustful glint, as if he couldn't wait to spend the night with them.

Lin Yun'er blushed slightly, like the sunset, and said shyly, "Master Hu, don't worry, they're already waiting in the room."

Hu Mazi laughed heartily, his laughter both cheerful and unrestrained, and said, "Great, then I'll head back to my room first."

With that, he hurried towards his room, his hurried steps as if afraid that if he was even a step too late, the two maids would disappear.

Lin Yun'er watched Hu Mazi's retreating figure, shook her head helplessly, and then looked at David: "Fellow Daoist Chen, your room is this way."

David nodded and followed Lin Yun'er to his room.

The room was simply yet elegantly furnished, with a landscape painting hanging on the wall. The mountains and water in the painting seemed to possess a vibrant energy, making one feel as if they were immersed in nature.

"Fellow Daoist Chen, please rest for a while. I'll prepare some tea for you,"

Lin Yoona said gently, her voice like a gentle murmur, soothing the senses.

"No need, I want to study this jade pendant first,"

David said, his eyes fixed on the jade pendant in his hand, as if trying to glimpse deeper secrets through it.

Lin Yoona nodded: "Alright then, if you need anything, just call me."

With that, she turned and left the room.

Her light steps were like a butterfly fluttering in the air, a beautiful sight to behold.

David closed the door and took out the black jade pendant to examine it closely.

The pendant was entirely black, like the night sky, with strange runes engraved on it. These runes resembled mysterious lines, radiating a chilling aura.

David could sense that the jade pendant contained powerful soul energy, which surged like a turbulent tide in his perception.

Chapter 5544

“It seems this is the magical artifact used by the Evil Path Hall to collect and store souls,”

David muttered to himself, his eyes revealing wisdom and contemplation.

He began to carefully study the runes on the jade pendant.

These runes were extremely complex, like mysterious codes containing profound laws of soul power.

As David studied them, he mentally deduced how to decipher them.

His brow furrowed and relaxed intermittently, as if he were engaged in a fierce battle with the runes.

Time passed slowly, and David was completely immersed in his research.

He seemed to have forgotten everything else, focusing only on the jade pendant in his hand and the deductions in his mind.

Meanwhile, laughter and cheerful voices came from Hu Mazi’s room.

Two maids were diligently serving Hu Mazi, their faces beaming with gentle smiles, their eyes revealing a submissive and shy demeanor towards him.

Hu Mazi lay on the bed, enjoying this unprecedented pleasure, his face filled with satisfaction, as if he had reached the pinnacle of life.

“Miss Lin is so understanding, she knows what I need,”

Hu Mazi thought to himself, his eyes revealing a sense of pride and contentment.

In the following days, David studied the jade pendant day and night.

He neglected sleep and meals, devoting almost all his time to his research.

Lin Yun’er visited him daily, bringing him celestial dew and fruits.

Seeing David’s efforts, Lin Yun’er was filled with gratitude.

She knew that David was working so hard on the jade pendant for her father’s sake.

Hu Mazi, on the other hand, stayed in his room all day, indulging in pleasure with the two maids.

He rarely even left his room, completely immersed in his erotic world.

It seemed that for him, the world consisted only of the two maids and that warm bed.
Master

Hu, your body won't be able to handle this,"

Lin Yun'er said worriedly, her eyes revealing concern and anxiety.

Hu Mazi laughed heartily, a hint of disdain in his voice: "Don't worry, Miss Lin, I'm perfectly healthy. This little thing is nothing.

Back in the day, I could handle ten women at once without a problem."

Lin Yun'er shook her head helplessly, saying nothing more.

She had never seen anyone so reckless with women.

Meanwhile, after several days of diligent research, David finally gained some understanding of the jade pendant.

This jade pendant was a secret artifact of the Evil Path Hall, specifically used to collect and store souls.

Only elders were qualified to wear it; ordinary cultivators of the Evil Path Hall could only store their souls in soul storage bags.

The runes within the jade pendant contained powerful soul force laws, capable of forcibly extracting a cultivator's soul and sealing it within the pendant.

"So that's how it is. No wonder Xue Wuying was able to collect so many cultivators' souls."

David suddenly realized, his eyes revealing a sense of relief after understanding.

However, he still hadn't found a way to release the souls.

The jade pendant's design was ingenious; it could only take in but not out. Once a soul was sucked in, it was very difficult to release it.

"It seems I need to find a way to break this,"

David said, frowning, his eyes revealing a determination and persistence.

He believed that as long as he persisted in his research, he would definitely find a way to break it.

He continued to study the runes on the jade pendant, trying to find a flaw.

His fingers gently caressed the jade pendant, as if sensing every subtle change in the runes.

Just then, he discovered that the runes on the jade pendant seemed to form a cyclical array.

This array continuously absorbed the surrounding soul power while firmly sealing the souls within the jade pendant.

Chapter 5545

“If I can break this cyclical formation, perhaps I can release my soul.”

David’s eyes lit up, revealing excitement and anticipation.

He seemed to see the key to unlock a treasure trove; breaking this formation would save Lin Yun’er’s father.

He began to try attacking the runes on the jade pendant with his soul power.

His soul power surged towards the runes like invisible threads.

However, the jade pendant’s defense was extremely strong; his attacks were completely ineffective.

The runes acted like a sturdy shield, reflecting all his soul power back.

“It seems I need more power,”

David thought, his eyes revealing determination.

He knew that only with greater power could he break through such a powerful magical artifact.

He began circulating his immortal energy, channeling it into his fingers, and then tapped it towards the runes on the jade pendant.

The immortal energy, like a golden dragon, surged towards the pendant with immense power.

“Buzz!”

A soft sound rang out, and the runes on the jade pendant began to flicker.

David could feel the soul power within the pendant fluctuating violently.

The fluctuations seemed like the calm before a storm, filling his heart with anticipation.

David was overjoyed, his happiness blooming like a flower.

He increased the output of his immortal energy, continuing to attack the runes on the jade pendant.

The immortal energy surged like a raging tide, relentlessly impacting the runes.

Time ticked by, and beads of sweat covered David’s forehead.

These beads, like large pearls, rolled down his cheeks.

He had been attacking continuously for nearly an hour, but the runes on the jade pendant remained unbroken.

“This can’t go on.

David frowned, his eyes revealing anxiety and contemplation.

He began to consider other methods, trying to find a more effective way to break the jade pendant. Just then, he remembered the Great Luo Golden Scripture in his sea of consciousness.

The Great Luo Golden Scripture contained powerful laws, which might help him break the jade pendant.

The Great Luo Golden Scripture seemed like an endless treasure trove, containing countless mysteries and powers.

David concentrated his mind and began to release his soul spirit. The jade pendant sensed David’s soul spirit and began to absorb it frantically.

David used his soul spirit to attract the jade pendant into his sea of consciousness. As soon as the jade pendant entered his sea of consciousness, the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord was so frightened that he instantly dodged away.

This jade pendant was specifically for collecting souls, and the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord only had a wisp of remnant soul left. He might be sucked in.

“David, why did you bring this thing in? You’re going to kill me...”

the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord roared!

“Senior, I only wanted to break this jade pendant!”

David said, then began to communicate with the Great Luo Golden Scripture in his sea of consciousness. His spirit, like an invisible thread, penetrated deep into his sea of consciousness, establishing a connection with the Great Luo Golden Scripture.

Soon, a golden light emanated from the Great Luo Golden Scripture and merged into the jade pendant.

“Buzz!”

The jade pendant emitted a soft sound, and the runes on it began to flash rapidly.

The flashing runes resembled twinkling stars, radiating a mysterious and powerful aura.

David could feel that the cyclical formation within the jade pendant was being broken.

“Excellent!”

David was overjoyed, his happiness surging like a tide.

He continued to communicate with the Great Luo Golden Scripture, increasing the output of his law power.

That law power, like golden threads, continuously coiled around the runes on the jade pendant, attempting to completely break it.

Finally, with the help of the Great Luo Golden Scripture, the cyclical formation on the jade pendant was completely broken.
