Chapter 5596

David coldly looked at Wang Hu and said, "Want immortal stones? No way. If you have the ability, take them with your strength."

Upon hearing this, Wang Hu flew into a rage and roared, "You ignorant newbie, today I'll show you who's in charge in the Sword Sect!"

With that, he waved his hand, and several senior disciples behind him rushed forward. David didn't even move; he merely trembled slightly, and the Sword Sect disciples were instantly blasted away.

Seeing this, Wang Hu's face turned extremely ugly. He knew David was too strong, and he was no match for him, so he ordered someone to call for reinforcements.

Soon, a Sword Sect deacon hurriedly arrived.

This deacon was named Zhao De, and he often colluded with Wang Hu and his gang, engaging in similar acts of bullying new disciples.

As soon as he arrived, he shouted, "What are you all doing here? What kind of behavior is this!"

Wang Hu rushed over and pointed at David, saying, "Sir, this newcomer not only doesn't respect us, but he also dares to hit us! You must stand up for us!"

Zhao De glanced at David, a sly glint in his eyes, then said sternly, "A new disciple is so arrogant and disrespectful. According to the rules of the Sword Sect, he should be fined three thousand immortal stones and confined for three days."

David sneered, "You're really biased! They clearly started the trouble, yet you punish me without even asking what happened, and even imply that I should pay the fine to avoid punishment. The rules of the Sword Sect have been ruined by people like you."

Zhao De's expression changed, and he said angrily, "You arrogant fool, daring to openly defy the sir! If you're not severely punished today, how can the rules of the Sword Sect be upheld?"

With that, he waved his hand, and several guards behind him rushed towards David.

A cold glint flashed in David's eyes. He no longer held back, and with a sudden swing of his longsword, a sharp sword aura swept out like a whirlwind. Before the guards could even get close to David, they were blasted backward by the powerful sword aura, crashing to the ground and spitting blood.

Seeing this

, Zhao De turned pale with fright. He hadn't expected David to be so powerful.

Fang Xiang was also shocked by the scene. He rushed over and grabbed David's arm, saying, "Brother Chen, you should leave quickly. If this continues, they won't let you go."

David remained calm. He looked at Zhao De and Wang Hu and said coldly, "I'll wait here today and see what kind of people these Sword Sect's higher-ups are."

Soon, the Sword Sect's higher-ups were alerted.

Ling Xue, as one of the important figures in the Sword Sect, also rushed over.

When she saw David, she was instantly excited, her eyes sparkling with excitement.

"David, is it really you?" Ling Xue walked quickly to David, her voice trembling slightly.

David smiled slightly and said, "Senior Sister, it's me."

Only then did everyone realize that this seemingly ordinary new disciple was actually the legendary David who led the Sword Sect to glory.

The Sword Sect disciples who had clashed with David, along with the steward Zhao De, were all terrified, their faces pale, their legs weak, and they nearly wet themselves.

Ling Xue turned her head and coldly looked at Zhao De, Wang Hu, and the others, saying, "How dare you bully new disciples like this and tarnish the reputation of the Sword Sect!"

Zhao De, Wang Hu, and the others immediately knelt down and begged for mercy, "Elder, we know we were wrong, please forgive us this time."

Ling Xue ignored them and turned to David, saying, "David, tell me what's really going on in the Sword Sect."

David nodded and then recounted the current corruption within the Sword Sect, from the various injustices in the entry process for new disciples to the underhanded dealings during the assessments, and the bullying of new disciples by senior disciples, in detail.

Chapter 5597

Upon hearing David's words, Ling Xue was enraged. Her usually cold eyes now burned with fierce fury, and she exuded a chilling aura.

She coldly swept her gaze over Zhao De, Wang Hu, and the others, her voice as icy as a winter's chill: "You scoundrels, how dare you act so recklessly, turning the Sword Sect into chaos! Today, you will not be spared!" As soon as she finished speaking, Ling Xue drew her longsword, its light flashing like a shooting star across the night sky.

She moved with ghostly speed, weaving through the crowd, her sword flashing, each strike carrying a sharp killing intent.

Zhao De, Wang Hu, and the others stared in terror, trying to dodge, but found their bodies bound by an invisible force, unable to move.

In a short while, Zhao De, Wang Hu, and the other scoundrels of the Sword Sect who had participated in bullying new disciples and engaging in underhanded dealings all fell to the ground, their blood staining the earth.

The surrounding disciples were stunned by this sudden turn of events, too afraid to even breathe.

David, observing Ling Xue's swift and decisive actions, secretly admired her.

Once Ling Xue had sheathed her sword and stood still, he stepped forward and asked, "Senior Sister, why has the Sword Sect become like this? When I left, although the Sword Sect had experienced many ups and downs, the disciples were still united. Now, however, it's in such a chaotic state."

Ling Xue's face was full of shame. She sighed softly and said, "Junior Brother, since Master went into seclusion, I have been in charge of all the affairs of the Sword Sect.

At first, I was able to maintain order, but as time went on, the affairs became increasingly complex, and I gradually found myself overwhelmed.

Some unscrupulous people took advantage of the situation..." They exploited loopholes, formed cliques, and engaged in factionalism, turning the Sword Sect into a chaotic mess.

Although I tried to rectify the situation many times, I was always hampered by various forces, leading to the current predicament.”

David nodded after hearing this and said, “Senior Sister, don’t blame yourself. Now that I’ve returned, I will definitely lend you a hand to rebuild the Sword Sect.”

Ling Xue’s eyes flashed with gratitude and relief as she said, “With Junior Brother’s help, I will definitely be able to bring the Sword Sect back on track.”

In the days that followed, David and Ling Xue used an iron fist to manage the Sword Sect.

First, they re-established strict sect rules, clearly defining the reward and punishment system. Anyone who violated the rules, regardless of status, was severely punished. Simultaneously

, they vigorously reformed the assessment system to ensure fairness and select truly talented and capable disciples for the Sword Sect.

Regarding the issue of senior disciples bullying junior disciples, David and Ling Xue established a special supervisory body, encouraging disciples to monitor each other and report any instances of bullying immediately.

Senior disciples who bullied others were punished ranging from fines and confinement to expulsion from the Sword Sect.

Through their efforts, the atmosphere within the Sword Sect gradually improved.

The junior disciples felt fairness and justice and cultivated more diligently; the senior disciples also curbed their former arrogance and focused on improving their strength.

However, David knew that in this dog-eat-dog world of cultivation, good order alone was far from enough; personal strength was the foundation for survival.

After doing what he wanted with Ling Xue, David said to her, “Senior Sister, I’ve returned this time to cultivate in peace. Once my strength has improved further, I’m going to the Ninth Heaven.”

“The Ninth Heaven?” Ling Xue was utterly shocked.

She knew that in the eyes of these Fifth Heaven cultivators, the Ninth Heaven was an unattainable world.

“Junior Brother, I know you have lofty ambitions. Right now, in the Fifth Heaven, our Sword Sect is the strongest. Just focus on your cultivation.”

“Go to the valley behind Sword Saint City. I’ll send someone to protect you...”

Ling Xue knew that David didn’t belong to the Fifth Heaven, nor did he belong to her.

Chapter 5598

David nodded, then went to the valley behind the tower. After setting up some simple protective measures, he entered the Demon Suppression Tower to begin cultivating.

With tens of thousands of storage bags containing resources, David was currently quite well-supplied.

He didn’t know how much time had passed, but he felt that the resources in those tens of thousands of storage bags were almost completely depleted, and his cultivation level had only just broken through the Earth Immortal Realm, reaching the

Human Immortal Realm. S&P.S

... That day, Ling Xue was managing the affairs of Sword Saint City as usual. Suddenly, the void above Sword Saint City trembled, and a void passage slowly appeared. More than a dozen extremely terrifying auras emanated from the void passage. The cultivators of Sword Saint City, and even the entire Fifth Heaven, were all terrified.

Because those auras were incredibly powerful, they were definitely cultivators from higher worlds. They didn’t know why such powerful cultivators would come to the Fifth Heaven. Ling Xue gathered all the disciples of the Sword Sect, their faces solemn as they looked at the void passage.

Hu Mazi, sensing the aura, also got up from a female cultivator, put on his clothes, and hurriedly ran out of the room. Hu Mazi came to Ling Xue’s side, looking at the void passage, and said, “Miss Ling, don’t be too nervous, perhaps these people have no ill intentions.”

Although Hu Mazi comforted Ling Xue like this, he himself was equally nervous. Because he knew that David had offended many people, and they were all from higher worlds. If these people really knew David’s whereabouts and came here, then it would be troublesome; they probably wouldn’t be able to stop anyone.

Soon, the dozen or so auras drew closer and slowly emerged from the void passage. It was a woman, leading ten divine guards clad in golden armor. Upon seeing the woman, Hu Mazi immediately breathed a sigh of relief. “Miss Ling, don’t be nervous, this is one of our own, the Fourth Temple Master.”

” It turns

who came was Ling Xi, the Fourth Palace Master of the Divine Temple, who came with her divine guards.

Ling Xi and her people slowly landed in Sword Saint City. The aura that Ling Xi and her people inadvertently exuded was enough to make all the cultivators of the Fifth Heaven not dare to raise their heads.

In front of Ling Xi and her group, these cultivators of the Fifth Heaven were like ants.

“The Fourth Palace Master of the Divine Temple?”

Ling Xue couldn’t help but swallow.

You must know that the Sixth Palace Master of the Divine Temple was an invincible existence in the Fifth Heaven at that time. Now, it was actually the Fourth Palace Master of the Divine Temple who came.

“Master Hu, is Mr. Chen here?”

Ling Xi asked when she saw Hu Mazi.

“Fourth Palace Master, David is cultivating in the Demon Suppression Tower. He has been in seclusion for some time and has not yet come out of seclusion.”

Hu Mazi said.

“In seclusion?” Ling Xi frowned slightly.

“Fourth Palace Master, has something happened?” Hu Mazi asked.

“If Mr. Chen emerges from seclusion, tell him to come to the Eighth Heaven God King Palace to find me as soon as possible,” Lingxi said.

“Okay, I’ll tell him when he comes out,” Hu Mazi nodded.

Lingxi then turned her gaze to Ling Xue, who gritted her teeth and strained to look up, meeting Lingxi’s eyes.

“Are you Mr. Chen’s woman?” Lingxi asked Ling Xue.

Ling Xue nodded, then shook her head.

She didn't know what she was in David's eyes—his senior sister? His lover? Or his wife?

"You're very lucky and happy, cherish it..."

Lingxi said enviously.

Chapter 5599

To be David's woman is truly a blessing.

Before, Ling Xi looked down on David; even when he had needs, he would have his personal maid, Yun Xiu, take care of them.

But now, Ling Xi's heart is entirely devoted to David. She so desperately hopes that David will treat her the same way he treats other women.

However, Ling Xi won't bring it up herself; she's too shy. But waiting for David to make the first move is also unwise, as he doesn't lack women. Therefore, Ling Xi envies Ling Xue.

Hearing Ling Xi's words, Ling Xue smiled slightly: "You also want to be David's woman, don't you?"

"If so, I can pass on your message. I know you really want to, but you're too shy to tell David."

Women understand women best.

Lingxi's mention of David exuded a powerful aura of female hormones that Ling Xue could sense even from 800 miles away.

Both being women, no one should laugh at the other; Ling Xue herself had felt aroused and unbearably itchy when she saw David.

Lingxi looked at Ling Xue without saying a word, her face flushed, and suddenly waved her hand, opening a void passage and leaving.

Hu Mazi stood by, filled with envy.

He truly couldn't understand how David's women were all so understanding. They even actively sought out women for David without a hint of jealousy.

A few days later, David emerged from the Demon Suppression Tower. At this time, David had reached the second rank of the Human Immortal Realm, but all his resources had been exhausted.

Seeing David break through to the second rank of the Human Immortal Realm, Ling Xue and Hu Mazi were overjoyed.

"David, while you were in seclusion, the Fourth Palace Master came to see you, saying she had something to discuss and that you should go to the Eighth Heaven God King Palace to find her immediately after you emerge from seclusion," Hu Mazi told David.

Upon hearing this, David frowned instantly. He knew that Ling Xi's direct trip from the Eighth Heaven to the Fifth Heaven to find him meant something important had happened. "Master Hu, please stay in the Fifth Heaven for now and help Senior Sister manage the Sword Sect

. We'll notify you once we find the whereabouts of your clansmen's souls," Chen Ping said.

David was heading to the Ninth Heaven

, so someone of Hu Mazi's strength was no longer suitable to accompany him; otherwise, danger might arise.

"Alright, take care of yourself. It would be best if you could find the souls of your clansmen, but if you can't, don't force yourself."

"The Evil Path Hall is too powerful; you should try to avoid their attacks."

Hu Mazi didn't want David to take too much risk for his clansmen.

"I know. Even if I don't investigate the souls of your clansmen now, the Evil Path Hall won't let me go,"

David said with a slight smile.

After speaking, David looked at Ling Xue and said, "Senior Sister, take care. If anything happens, find Master Hu."

Hu Mazi's strength was now invincible in the Fifth Heaven.

"Junior brother, take care of yourself. When you get to the Eighth Heaven, treat the Fourth Palace Master well. I can tell she likes you very much."

"If possible, spend time with her. She's a woman, and she's lonely and needs a man."

Ling Xue knew that David might not return for a long time.

Besides, he couldn't be without a woman by his side, hence her words.

David was slightly taken aback, then smiled and said, "Senior sister is joking. I'm leaving..." As soon as he finished speaking, he vanished in an instant, turning into a golden light and disappearing!

David didn't open a void passage; instead, he planned to traverse the starry sky to reach the Eighth Heaven.

He feared being trapped in the void passage again, which would mean he would never be able to escape.

David left the Fifth Heaven and arrived in a starry sky.

"Boy, are you really planning to risk going to the Eighth Heaven like this?"

"Although void passages can be dangerous at times, it's much safer than tearing through spacetime like this."

The voice of the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord echoed in David's mind.

"It's a bit dangerous, but better than being trapped in that void passage."

David, wielding the Dragon-Slaying Sword, continuously traversed through space-time. This forced tearing of time was much slower.

"Kid, someone's coming!"

Crimson Cloud Demon Lord warned.

No sooner had Crimson Cloud Demon Lord finished his warning than a loud crash resounded! The space in front of David shattered without warning.

Although David didn't know who this figure was or what it wanted, he already wielded the Dragon-Slaying Sword and slashed out.

He knew the principle of striking first, or suffering the consequences.

*Thud!

- David's Dragon-Slaying Sword pierced the dark figure, but after being struck, the figure suddenly vanished.

The next moment, the time around David began to blur and become illusory. A mysterious force seemed to be enveloping him, pulling him out of this spacetime.

David was shocked. He hadn't expected that there was such a powerful person in this spacetime who could control him without showing himself.

"Die..."

David swung his Dragon-Slaying Sword, and the entire spacetime began to shatter.

Countless sword beams tore the entire spacetime apart, and the mysterious force slowly disappeared along with the countless sword beams.

David's heartstrings tightened to the extreme at that moment, like a fully drawn bowstring.

Although he didn't know who this suddenly appearing black shadow was, its ability to accurately find him in this chaotic spacetime flow and silently shatter the spacetime barrier showed that its strength was absolutely terrifying.

The strange force surrounding him, trying to drag him out of his current spacetime orbit, carried a cold, undeniable aura of law.

You cowards hiding your heads and tails, get out here!"

David shouted fiercely, his voice echoing through the shattered fragments of spacetime, but receiving no response.

Only the invisible pulling force continued to intensify, the surrounding spacetime scenery began to distort and rotate, and the colorful light bands became chaotic, as if he were being thrown into a huge, invisible vortex.

He dared not be negligent in the slightest, and the immortal essence of the second rank of the Human Immortal Realm within his body surged like a boiling river.

Sensing its master's fighting spirit, the Dragon-Slaying Sword emitted a clear and resounding sword cry, and dark golden runes on its blade lit up one by one, flowing with a destructive aura.

David's wrist suddenly trembled, no longer a simple thrust, but instead, he poured his vast immortal essence into the sword, unleashing a more exquisite and domineering sword technique.

"Slash!"

With a sharp shout, the Dragon-Slaying Sword erupted with a blinding light. Thousands upon thousands of condensed, almost tangible sword energies surged forth from David like a raging tornado, spreading in all directions.

This was not a chaotic slash; each sword energy contained David's rudimentary understanding of the laws of space. They precisely sliced and tore apart the spacetime nodes where the mysterious force binding him resided.

"Sizzle, sizzle, sizzle—!"

A dense sound, like cloth being torn apart, rang out. The distorted and blurred spacetime around him shattered like a mirror, revealing countless clear cracks.

The chilling pulling sensation momentarily faltered, becoming less stable.

David's resolve hardened, and his attack intensified.

Sword light crisscrossed like rainbows, transforming the spacetime region he occupied into a deathly domain of sword energy.

Shattered fragments of space were engulfed by the sword energy, forming a small-scale spacetime storm. Any matter caught within it seemed destined to be pulverized.

Just as this sword energy storm reached its zenith, the vanished black shadow finally reappeared.

It did not appear from a specific location, but rather, like a drop of ink falling into water, it re-condensed from the surrounding turbulent shadows of time and space.

Its face was still indistinct, and even its specific shape was unclear. It was like a constantly twisting and changing humanoid darkness, with only two scarlet lights shining where it should be the head, filled with indifference and death, locking onto David.
