

A Man Like None Other Novel

Chapter 5611

Full Read Online Chapter 5611 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5611

However difficult it may be, David will find a way to help the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord restore his physical body. If all else fails, he will try to contact Mr. Shi.

After all, Mr. Shi can instantly revive those who have been reduced to ashes; restoring the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord's body shouldn't be difficult for him.

The Crimson Cloud Demon Lord, inside the cave, touched every corner with emotion.

Suddenly, his gaze fell upon a corner of the cave, where two heart-shaped circles were drawn. The Crimson Cloud Demon Lord froze.

"I didn't expect the hearts she drew to still be there..."

the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord murmured to himself!

Seeing the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord's expression, David knew this guy definitely had a secret.

And the "she" he mentioned must be a woman.

"Who is she?" David asked the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord.

The Crimson Cloud Demon Lord glanced at David, his eyes filled with complex emotions—reminiscence, longing, and a hint of unspeakable pain.

He slowly began to speak, his voice tinged with a sense of vicissitude, recounting to David the long-buried past.

"Once, in these Nine Heavens, I, the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord, was a renowned figure, roaming freely with few rivals.

Back then, I was free-spirited and unrestrained, acting entirely on my whims, making many friends among heroes, but also many enemies. Until one day, I met her..."

The Crimson Cloud Demon Lord's gaze softened, as if he were lost in beautiful memories.

"Her name is Fairy Lingyue, an outstanding disciple of a secluded sect in the Nine Heavens. Although the sect is small, it possesses profound resources. Its disciples all cultivate a unique technique, capable of manipulating the spiritual energy of heaven and earth to unleash incredibly wondrous spells.

My encounter with her was a chance meeting. At the time, I was being chased by a group of enemies, fleeing to a valley, severely wounded and on the verge of death.

Just when I was almost in despair, she appeared."

"

She was dressed in white, like a fairy descended from heaven, radiating a soft light.

Seeing my injuries, she didn't hesitate to help, never distancing herself from me because I was a demonic cultivator.

She used her unique technique to heal me; the warm and pure spiritual energy flowing into my body not only healed my wounds but also gave me an unprecedented sense of peace and security.

From that moment on, I knew that my life was destined to be inextricably intertwined with hers." (<https://www.fastla5100.xyz>)

"In the days that followed, we traversed the Nine Heavens together, weathering countless storms.

Her gentle kindness and my unrestrained spirit complemented each other perfectly. We supported each other, and our feelings deepened day by day. Together, we explored ancient ruins, searched for lost treasures, and faced powerful enemies side by side.

Those were the happiest and most unforgettable days of my life."

However, the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord's tone suddenly turned somber:

"Unfortunately, our happiness was short-lived. Our affair eventually came to the attention of her sect elders.

They considered me a member of the demonic path, irreconcilable with Fairy Lingyue, and resolutely opposed our relationship. They even set a trap to eliminate me."

"To protect me, Fairy Lingyue clashed fiercely with her sect elders.

She defied the sect rules and fought alongside me. But in the end, we were outnumbered and driven to the brink of death.

At that critical moment, Fairy Lingyue used a forbidden spell to save me, sacrificing her own life to open a path to survival for me.”

“I watched helplessly as she vanished before my eyes.

At that moment, my heart felt as if it had been torn to pieces, filled with endless pain and hatred.

From then on, my personality changed drastically, becoming more insane and violent.

I vowed to avenge her and make those who hurt her pay a terrible price.”

Full Read Online Chapter 5612 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5612

“So, I began my mad revenge.

I searched everywhere for those connected to her sect and slaughtered them one by one.

My reputation grew increasingly infamous, and I became a fearsome demon lord throughout the Nine Heavens.

But I knew that none of this could heal the wounds in my heart; I had lost her forever...”

The Crimson Cloud Demon Lord’s voice choked with emotion, tears welling in his eyes.

David listened quietly to the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord’s story, his heart filled with感慨 (gǎnkǎi, deep feelings).

He hadn’t expected that this seemingly carefree and unrestrained Crimson Cloud Demon Lord would have such a heart-wrenching love story.

David stared intently at the two heart-shaped patterns in the corner, his expression growing increasingly focused. He noticed a mysterious aura emanating from these simple heart shapes.

David approached for a closer look and discovered faint fluctuations of spiritual energy within the patterns.

“Senior, look at these two heart-shaped patterns. They seem somewhat unusual,” David said, pointing to the patterns.

“Unusual in what way?” Crimson Cloud Demon Lord was taken aback!

“These two heart-shaped patterns actually have faint fluctuations of spiritual energy. It seems they aren’t just two simple patterns,” David said.

“Spiritual energy fluctuations?” Crimson Cloud Demon Lord was stunned. “I can’t sense them!”

“You’re just a remnant soul now, of course you can’t sense them. When Fairy Lingyue drew those two patterns back then, there must have been other meanings, you just didn’t notice them,”

David said .

Crimson Cloud Demon Lord fell into deep thought. So many years had passed; he had no idea what the meaning was.

“Alright, don’t think about it anymore. Go back to my sea of consciousness, otherwise your soul will become weaker and weaker, and it will be even more difficult to restore your physical body later,”

David said, leading Crimson Cloud Demon Lord back to his sea of consciousness.

He entered the Demon Suppression Tower to begin his cultivation. Fortunately, he had the storage bag of the Dharma King Mu, which contained a considerable amount of supplies, perfect for his cultivation! ...

Guan

Jun led several disciples towards the Yama Heavenly Sect’s headquarters!

At this moment, a Yama Heavenly Sect disciple beside her spoke up: “Senior Sister, Master sent us to retrieve David. If we go back like this without retrieving him, will Master punish us?”

Guan Jun looked at the disciple, her face grim, and said: “Soul Devouring Venerable, Blazing Fire Demon Lord, which one can we handle?”

The disciple fell silent!

Seeing that the disciple was silent, Guan Jun continued: “Those auras just now were all at the peak of the ninth rank of the Human Immortal Realm. With that kind of strength, can the few of us handle them?”

The disciple remained silent!

“When we get back, none of you should say anything. I’ll explain to Master that David was being chased, and we couldn’t stop the pursuers.”

“That way, Master can’t say anything more. Besides, if we really take David to our Yanluo Heavenly Sect, our sect will likely face annihilation,”

Guan Jun continued

. “We’ll follow Senior Sister’s arrangements!” the disciples all said.

Guan Jun nodded. Actually, she had fought alongside the Evil Path Hall’s King Mu to take David to the Yanluo Heavenly Sect.

But on the way, David said he had offended the Soul Devouring Venerable and the Blazing Fire Demon Lord!

Hearing their names, Guan Jun was truly frightened.

Furthermore, those peak ninth-grade Human Immortal Realm experts were clearly after David. David had so many enemies, and they were all powerful figures, people even their Yanluo Heavenly Sect couldn’t afford to offend. Taking David back would only plunge their sect into crisis!

Although David burned the golden scroll and should have received the protection of the Yama Heavenly Sect

, such protection has its limits. When one’s strength is insufficient, the golden scroll is utterly useless!

Full Read Online Chapter 5613 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5613

“Damn it, you dare to curse me?”

King Mu was furious, his longsword already drawn, but he dared not strike.

The more David acted this way, the less King Mu dared to attack.

He truly couldn’t understand what David was up to.

Seeing King Mu hesitate, David grew anxious; this stalemate was disadvantageous for him.

Suddenly, David seemed to remember something, a smile appearing on his face.

Seeing David suddenly grinning foolishly, King Mu's heart tightened.

"Didn't you want to see the person behind me? I can bring him out now,"

David said with a smile.

"Alright, bring him out..."

King Mu gripped his sword tightly, ready for battle.

He could underestimate David, but he dared not underestimate the person behind David. Someone capable of killing a Guardian Celestial Venerable was definitely not weak.

"If I call him, he probably won't come out. But if you call him, he'll definitely come out,"

David said.

"I call him?" King Mu was taken aback. "How do I call him?"

"Just shout, 'Mr. Shi, come out here, or I'll beat you to a pulp!'"

"Hearing that, the powerful figure behind me will appear," David said.

David remembered that the Ninth Palace Master of the Divine Temple had lost his life because of that one sentence.

Now it was a good opportunity for King Mu to test its effectiveness.

"Is the powerful figure behind you Mr. Shi?" King Mu asked.

"That's right, you can shout now..." David nodded.

King Mu hesitated. He really couldn't understand David at this moment, wondering what this guy was up to.

One minute he wanted him to kill him, the next he wanted him to curse Mr. Shi...

"You don't even dare to curse? Or do you not know how?" David deliberately looked at King Mu with disdain.

"Of course I'll swear."

After finishing his speech, King Mu took a deep breath and shouted, “Mr. Shi, come out here! I’m going to beat you to a pulp...”

The sound waves echoed throughout space and time, then pierced through layers of space and time, traveling far away!

“Achoo...”

In the distant space and time, Mr. Shi sneezed.

“What’s going on? Why is someone trying to beat me to a pulp again?”

Mr. Shi frowned slightly, his face turning somewhat ugly.

With a light wave of his hand, a white light instantly pierced through space and time, following the sound waves.

At this moment, after shouting, King Mu found that no one appeared, not even a sound, and couldn’t help but sneer, “Where is the expert behind you?”

David looked around and found that there was indeed no movement at all.

“Could it be that Mr. Shi didn’t hear it?” David said with a frown.

“You’re talking nonsense! My shout pierced through at least several dimensions. If the expert behind you is nearby, how could you not hear it?”

“I think you’re just...”

Thud...

Before Mu Fawang could finish speaking, his mouth still open, his head flew off.

Blood gushed out as Mu Fawang’s head fell, his eyes still wide open, blinking incessantly.

The four subordinates Mu Fawang brought were shocked by this scene.

They hadn’t even seen him, hadn’t sensed any aura, yet Mu Fawang’s head had been severed.

The four subordinates turned and ran without hesitation. Since their leader was dead, there was no need for them to fight anymore.

“Don’t let them get away...”

the woman in black shouted, charging forward.

Following closely behind, the white-robed cultivators she brought all attacked the four members of the Evil Path Hall.

Without any suspense, the four demoralized Evil Path Hall cultivators all died tragically at the hands of the Yama Heavenly Sect members.

David waved his hand, and Mu Fawang's storage bag appeared in his grasp.

The woman in black also collected the storage bag belonging to Mu Fawang's subordinate.

The woman in black walked up to David, looked at the now-dead Mu Fawang, and asked with a face full of doubt, "Who killed him? Was it really that Mr. Shi?"

Full Read Online Chapter 5614 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5614

Inside the Demon Suppression Tower!

David sat upright on the ground, emanating a powerful aura.

Beside him, the Dragon-Slaying Sword hummed, its spirit Zhong Li rapidly cultivating using the tower's time flow.

Sword intents swirled around David; the Dragon-Slaying Sword's enhancements would make him increasingly powerful.

David continuously absorbed various resources from King Mu's storage pouch. Fortunately, King Mu's status was high, so the resources in his pouch were plentiful, allowing David to cultivate for a period.

Otherwise, given David's monstrous cultivation pace, insufficient resources wouldn't even last one session.

David cultivated in this way for several months within the Demon Suppression Tower, completely absorbing all the resources from King Mu's storage pouch.

David's strength had reached the peak of the second rank of the Human Immortal Realm, but he was stuck at the final breakthrough stage. Unfortunately, he lacked resources and couldn't break through.

Although he had been cultivating for several months, only a little over a day had passed in the outside world.

After emerging from the Demon Suppression Tower, David turned his gaze back to the two simple heart-shaped patterns.

He was eager to know what message the so-called Fairy Lingyue had intended to leave behind in those patterns.

David stood calmly before the two simple heart-shaped patterns, his gaze fixed on them as if drawn by a magnet.

The two heart-shaped patterns had smooth lines yet exuded an ancient simplicity. They seemed ordinary, yet they faintly emanated an indescribable mysterious aura.

That mysterious aura was like a thin veil, gently enveloping the patterns, stirring the curiosity deep within David's heart, igniting an irresistible desire to explore. It was as if a voice whispered in his ear, urging him to uncover the secrets hidden behind the patterns.

He slowly approached the patterns, each step filled with caution and anticipation.

When he finally stood close to the pattern and crouched down to examine it closely, he discovered that it indeed contained some subtle details. Along the smooth edges of the heart-shaped pattern were tiny, almost imperceptible lines.

These lines were intricate and interwoven like a maze; without careful observation, they were impossible to spot.

David's eyes were fixed on these lines, his fingers unconsciously touching them lightly. His divine sense began to cover the pattern, as if to better perceive their direction.

As David's divine sense continued to explore, an astonishing discovery made his heart race: within the pattern was an address and a string of complex runes.

The address seemed to be pointing him to an unknown place; the runes, mysterious and unpredictable, each symbol seemingly containing endless power and profound meaning, utterly enigmatic.

The moment David's divine sense covered them, the runes, as if possessing a life of their own, entered David's body.

"What...what does this mean?" David pondered silently, his brows furrowed, his eyes filled with doubt and contemplation.

He knew that the secret hidden behind this pattern was far from simple, perhaps concerning a significant event or a precious treasure.

After some thought, he decided to ask the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord, since this pattern was left by the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord's woman, and perhaps it could unravel the mystery in his heart.

“Senior, I discovered that this pattern actually contains quite a bit of information.”

David quickly told the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord about the pattern in detail, including the hidden location and the complex runes.

The Crimson Cloud Demon Lord remained silent for a moment in David's sea of consciousness, a silence that seemed to freeze time, making David's heart leap into his throat.

Full Read Online Chapter 5615 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5615

Finally, the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord slowly said, “This address... is where her former sect was located. As for that string of runes, I've never seen it before, but since she left it, it must have had a purpose.

However, her sect was destroyed by me back then, and it's probably just ruins now. No matter how hard I searched, I never saw her even once...”

After saying this, the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord sadly shed tears.

It was clear that the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord had truly fallen for the Spirit Moon Fairy.

A powerful demon falling for a fairy was indeed not easily accepted.

After all, in many people's eyes, demonic cultivators were not respectable practitioners.

Upon hearing this, David frowned slightly. He guessed that the Spirit Moon Fairy left this address and runes to convey some kind of information or guide him to a certain place.

The reason he didn't explicitly tell the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord at the time was probably because he thought the Demon Lord might discover the secret of the pattern later.

But who knew that the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord would become bloodthirsty and ultimately be defeated and his soul scattered in the Celestial Realm, leaving only a wisp of his soul that never returned.

Therefore, the secret of the pattern has remained hidden!

If David hadn't brought the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord to the Nine Heavens, and if the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord hadn't asked David to hide in this place, the secret of the pattern would likely never have been discovered.

"I've decided to investigate this address and see if I can find any clues," David said.

He knew that Fairy Lingyue wouldn't leave such a thing behind for no reason.

If this address and runes could open a ruin or something, wouldn't he be rich?

Even if he found nothing, David would just consider it a stroll around; after all, he currently lacked resources and couldn't cultivate.

The Crimson Cloud Demon Lord didn't object, but reminded David to be careful, as that place was Fairy Lingyue's former sect, and no one knew its current state.

Perhaps it's already abandoned and fraught with danger; or perhaps remnants of a force still guard it, preventing outsiders from intruding.

David nodded. He knew this journey was fraught with unknowns and dangers, but his curiosity and thirst for exploration made him determined to go.

Leaving the cave, David vanished instantly! Following the address on the map

, David found the former location of Fairy Lingyue's sect.

However, what lay before him was a desolate landscape, as if forgotten by time.

The once magnificent sect buildings were now nothing but ruins, overgrown with weeds.

A gentle breeze stirred, raising clouds of dust and rustling softly, as if telling a story of past glory and present desolation.

"Is this Fairy Lingyue's sect? You were truly ruthless back then, wiping out the entire sect..." David thought with deep emotion.

For Fairy Lingyue's sake, the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord had ultimately destroyed this entire sect.

As the saying goes, what is love that makes people willing to die for it...

David looked around, scrutinizing every detail, trying to find some useful clues in this desolate scene.

Standing amidst the desolate ruins of the sect, David was filled with a myriad of emotions. This once-renowned immortal sect was now nothing but broken walls and ruins, a truly poignant sight.

He carefully observed his surroundings, trying to find some useful clues.

Just then, David suddenly felt the runes within his body begin to heat up slightly, seemingly resonating with some kind of power around him.

A thought struck him, and he quickly focused his senses, discovering that the connection was emanating from a direction deep within the ruins.

“Could these runes be connected to that place?”

David pondered to himself, then decided to walk in the direction he was sensing.

Full Read Online Chapter 5616 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5616

Passing through layers of ruins, David arrived at the relatively intact ruins of a grand hall.

Although the hall was also dilapidated, its former grandeur was still faintly discernible.

In the very center of the hall stood a massive stone tablet, covered with ancient runes.

As David approached the tablet, the runes on his body suddenly emitted a dazzling light, resonating strongly with those on the tablet.

The runes on the tablet lit up one by one, forming a complex pattern.

“Just as I thought!”

David was overjoyed and quickly matched his runes to the pattern, matching them one by one.

As the last rune was placed, the entire hall suddenly began to tremble.

The ground slowly cracked open, revealing a bottomless passage. A faint aura of immortal energy emanated from the passage, inspiring a sense of longing.

Without hesitation, David went inside.

The passage wasn't long, and he soon arrived at a spacious basement.

The basement was filled with all sorts of precious cultivation resources: shimmering immortal stones, enticingly fragrant immortal herbs, and immortal crystals refined from various materials.

"I'm rich!"

David was overjoyed; these resources were enough for him to break through to the third rank of the Human Immortal Realm.

However, he wasn't blinded by the wealth before him and continued exploring.

At the deepest part of the basement, David saw a huge crystal coffin.

The crystal coffin was crystal clear, and inside lay a stunningly beautiful woman. She wore a white dress, her face serene

, as if she were simply asleep.

"Is this Fairy Lingyue?" David was shocked; Fairy Lingyue's beauty far exceeded his imagination.

Just then, a violent fluctuation suddenly came from David's sea of consciousness. The voice of the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord was filled with unprecedented excitement and trembling: "Yue'er! It's Yue'er!"

Before David could react, the remnant soul of the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord forcefully broke through the shackles of David's sea of consciousness, transforming into a black shadow and appearing in front of the crystal coffin.

"Yue'er! It really is you!" The Crimson Cloud Demon Lord looked at the woman in the crystal coffin, his voice choked with sobs, and two lines of bloody tears flowed from his eyes.

He reached out, wanting to touch the crystal coffin, but was afraid of disturbing the sleeping Fairy Lingyue.

This deep affection moved even David, who was standing beside him.

“Lingyue... it was me, it was me who harmed you...” The Crimson Cloud Demon Lord’s voice trembled, and tears welled up in his eyes.

The Crimson Cloud Demon Lord raised his head, his gaze earnestly fixed on David: “David, I know that Mr. Shi behind you is very powerful. He can revive Lingyue. Please, you must find a way to revive Fairy Lingyue.

I’m willing to pay any price to revive her, even if it means my soul is scattered. You don’t need to waste time trying to restore my physical body!”

David was moved by the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord’s grief-stricken appearance.

After a moment of contemplation, he said, “Senior, I understand your feelings, but reviving someone is no easy task. Besides, I can’t contact Mr. Shi right now. If I could, I would definitely help you.”

Upon hearing this, a glimmer of hope flashed in the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord’s eyes: “Alright, I believe you.”

“Senior, forcibly leaving my sea of consciousness like this is too damaging to your soul. You should go back quickly. I also need to use these resources to cultivate.”

“Once I see Mr. Shi, I will definitely have him revive Fairy Lingyue. Don’t worry,”

David reassured the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord.

The Crimson Cloud Demon Lord’s remnant soul is already very weak. If it remains exposed to the void for an extended period, it fears it will eventually be completely destroyed.

The Crimson Cloud Demon Lord nodded, glanced at Fairy Lingyue again, and then returned to David’s sea of consciousness.