

A Man Like None Other Novel

Chapter 5631

Full Read Online Chapter 5631 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5631

Hearing Yan Nantian's explanation, David was filled with surprise!

He then looked at Liu Xue with suspicion. Why would Liu Xue call him to help with such an important relic?

If it was just an apology, David certainly wouldn't believe it.

No way...

Seeing David's questioning gaze, Liu Xue quickly said, "Actually, we discovered the entrance to the relic, but we can't enter it, so we wanted to ask you to help us open it."

"You think I can open that entrance?"

David asked, puzzled.

While his strength was sufficient to deal with a ninth-grade Human Immortal, Liu Xue was clearly a Celestial Immortal. If she couldn't open it, how could she think she could?

"If you can't open it, the expert behind you certainly can..."

Liu Xue said with a smile.

David was stunned, staring intently at Liu Xue: "How did you know I had a powerful backer?"

"With your strength, it's impossible for you to oppose the Evil Path Hall, and you couldn't possibly have killed a Grand Elder, Dharma King, or Heavenly Venerable of that level."

"Besides having a powerful backer, I can't think of any other possibility..."

Liu Xue said truthfully.

Yan Nantian, hearing Liu Xue's explanation, was genuinely impressed.

Despite her young age, Liu Xue was incredibly perceptive and had figured this out.

Yan Nantian's protection of David stemmed from this, and Liu Xue was apologizing to David for the same reason.

David smiled: "I'm truly sorry, but I don't actually know where my powerful backer is, let alone how to summon him!"

"Then how did you manage to escape the pursuit of those powerful figures from the Evil Path Hall?" Liu Xue asked, puzzled.

"When I was in danger, those who wanted to kill me died on their own. I don't know exactly how they died,"

David said. In fact ,

David wasn't lying. He didn't know how Mu Fawang died, or whether he was killed by Mr. Shi.

He had only tricked Mu Fawang into cursing Mr. Shi, and then he died.

David didn't know what method Mr. Shi used to kill Mu Fawang, or even if Mr. Shi was the one who did it.

Liu Xue was taken aback and looked at David again, saying, "So, it's fortunate that our Grand Elder didn't kill him. If he had, he might be dead already."

"It's really possible..." David laughed!

Yan Nantian and Liu Xue both had strange expressions, not knowing whether they didn't believe what David said.

"Young Master Chen, even if you can't open the ruins, I still sincerely invite you. You will be a friend of our Earthly Fiend Alliance from now on." "

If Young Master Chen is worried, you can bring Sect Master Yan with you."

Liu Xue was afraid that David would misunderstand that she had some ulterior motive.

"What do I have to be afraid of? Just call me whenever you want to go!" David said nonchalantly.

"Young Master Chen is so kind! I'll go back and prepare immediately. Without further ado, we'll set off tomorrow."

Liu Xue finished speaking, turned, and vanished.

Watching Liu Xue disappear, David felt a surge of desire. Such a dignified beauty wouldn't be bad for a fling, especially with her great figure.

"David, are you really going to go with Liu Xue to find the ruins?"

Yan Nantian asked after Liu Xue left.

David nodded.

"Aren't you afraid Liu Xue will cheat?" Yan Nantian didn't understand why David dared to trust Liu Xue.

"Sect Leader Yan, I don't think Alliance Leader Liu will cheat," David said.

"Why do you trust her so much?"

"Because of her eyes. Her eyes tell me she's sincere..."

David recalled Liu Xue's dark eyes, which transformed into willow-leaf eyebrows when she smiled—truly captivating.

Full Read Online Chapter 5632 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5632

"You weren't seduced by her beauty, were you?"

Yan Nantian asked, looking at David's expression.

"How could that be? I'm surrounded by countless beauties; it's impossible for me to be seduced by one woman."

"Besides, I'll be taking Sect Leader Yan with me tomorrow. If there's any danger, Sect Leader Yan will protect me, won't he?"

David said with a smile.

Hearing that David was taking him, Yan Nantian laughed and patted David's shoulder, saying, "With me here, Liu Xue won't dare to play tricks. I'll make the arrangements right away."

Just as Yan Nantian turned to leave, David suddenly called out to him.

"Sect Leader Yan, I want to ask you about someone..."

“Who?”

“Does Sect Leader Yan know the God King of the Divine Temple? The one in the Eighth Heaven God King Palace,” David said.

“Of course I know. The Divine Clan’s temple is very famous. Although that God-King is in the Eighth Heaven, his strength is not weak. I wonder why you’re inquiring about the God-King?” Yan Nantian asked, puzzled.

“That God-King came to the Ninth Heaven, but we lost contact. A friend asked me to go to the Ninth Heaven to inquire about him,” David said.

“Several years ago, I saw that God-King. At that time, he was with two temple masters from his temple in the Tianmen Mountain area. I guess they were also looking for the Tianmen Mountain ruins.”

“As for where he is now, I don’t know. But if we go to Tianmen Mountain, we can inquire again,”

Yan Nantian said.

Hearing that the God-King had appeared in the Tianmen Mountain area, David became even more determined to go to Tianmen Mountain.

“Alright, thank you, Sect Master Yan,” David nodded.

Yan Nantian turned to leave, but then seemed to remember something and turned back, saying, “David, may I take some blood from you?”

David was taken aback, not understanding what Yan Nantian meant.

Why did he suddenly want his blood?

“Don’t misunderstand. Our Yama Heavenly Sect has some secret techniques. I can find the location of the person behind you through your blood.”

“Don’t you also want to know where the person behind you is?”

” Yan Nantian explained.

Upon hearing this, David dripped a drop of blood from his fingertip, which landed on Yan Nantian’s palm and quickly spread!

“Sect Master Yan, let me warn you, the person behind me might be a bit powerful. If anything happens to you, I won’t be responsible,”

David warned Yan Nantian.

“Of course, I’m just sensing the location, not doing anything else. What could possibly happen?”

Yan Nantian finished speaking, closed his eyes slightly, and the blood in his palm turned into a wisp of red mist that began to dissipate.

Boom!

Suddenly, Yan Nantian opened his eyes, only to see that his clothes had weathered away and turned into powder.

The entire main hall of the Yanluo Heavenly Sect began to shake violently.

And not far from the Yanluo Heavenly Sect, a mountain ten thousand meters high collapsed in an instant.

“What’s going on?” The disciples of the Yanluo Heavenly Sect all rushed out in panic!

Everyone was shocked to see Yan Nantian’s naked body.

David was also completely dumbfounded and quickly took two steps back, saying, “Sect Master Yan, do your Yama Heavenly Sect’s secret techniques require such a huge sacrifice?”

Yan Nantian remained silent, slowly opening his palm. Inside, red blood had solidified into a large character.

“Get lost...”

Looking at the character, Yan Nantian swallowed hard, opened his mouth, and said, “Mr. Chen... Mr. Chen, the person behind you is too powerful...”

After saying this, Yan Nantian turned and left, leaving a watermark on the ground.

Yan Nantian initially knew that David had a powerful backer, but he never expected it to be so powerful that he couldn’t even comprehend it.

He had only tentatively tried to check the other party’s location, and the result was almost the annihilation of his entire sect.

If the other party hadn’t held back, the Yama Heavenly Sect would be gone by now.

David glanced down and saw that Yan Nantian was terrified.

Chapter 5633

“Mr. Shi, what exactly is your identity? What is your strength?”

Staring into the void, David was completely bewildered.

Throughout Mr. Shi’s journey, David had never seen him fear anyone. Their only major battle was alongside Wen Haotian.

However, in the Celestial Realm, when Mr. Shi and Wen Haotian met again, Wen Haotian was so frightened that he turned and ran away.

...

The next morning!

Liu Xue arrived at the Yanluo Heavenly Sect alone, perhaps to avoid David’s misunderstanding.

After tidying up, David left the Yanluo Heavenly Sect with Liu Xue.

Because of yesterday’s investigation into the person behind David, Yan Nantian’s soul was somewhat unstable, so he couldn’t accompany them. He was so frightened that his three souls almost left his body and needed proper rest.

Along the way, David and Liu Xue remained cautious.

Around the Tianmen Mountain ruins, cultivators gathered in droves, and various forces were secretly spying, trying to find the mysterious entrance to the ruins.

David and Liu Xue knew that once the news of the entrance to the ruins was leaked, it would attract countless covetous eyes and invite unnecessary trouble.

Tianmen Mountain, one of the famous mountain ranges in the Nine Heavens, soared into the clouds, shrouded in mist.

From a distance, the entire mountain range looked like a gateway to the Tenth Heaven, hence its name, Tianmen Mountain.

It was early morning, and the rising sun shone golden sunlight on the mountain peaks, adding a touch of holiness to this mysterious mountain range.

However, within this seemingly tranquil mountain range, countless greedy eyes were hidden.

“Young Master Chen, Tianmen Mountain is just ahead,”

Liu Xue stopped and pointed to the majestic mountain range ahead.

David looked in the direction Liu Xue was pointing and saw that the mountains were rolling and shrouded in mist, indeed a place of auspicious geomancy.

However, what concerned David even more was that so many cultivators had gathered around this mountain range.

“It seems the news of the Tianmen Mountain ruins has spread throughout the Nine Heavens,” David said calmly.

Looking around, they saw cultivators everywhere—at the foot and halfway up the mountain. Some were in groups of three or five, others alone, all carefully searching for something.

A tense yet excited atmosphere filled the air.

Liu Xue nodded: “Yes, since the legend of the Tianmen Mountain ruins spread, new cultivators have come here almost every day.

However, they only wander around the perimeter and can’t find the real entrance.”

“Then where is our entrance?” David asked.

“In a hidden valley deep within the mountains, protected by ancient restrictions, which ordinary people can’t find,”

Liu Xue smiled mysteriously. “But we must be careful and not let others discover our whereabouts.”

The two cautiously advanced deeper into the mountains.

Along the way, they encountered many cultivators, both independent cultivators and sect disciples.

These people all showed wariness in their eyes when they saw David and Liu Xue.

“Isn’t that Leader Liu of the Earthly Fiend Alliance up ahead?”

“I didn’t expect Leader Liu to be interested in the Tianmen Mountain ruins.”

“Who’s that young man next to her? He looks unfamiliar.”

“I don’t know, but judging from Leader Liu’s attitude towards him, she seems very respectful.”

The surrounding cultivators whispered among themselves, their gazes constantly shifting between David and Liu Xue.

David could feel many ill-intentioned stares upon him.

Especially a black-robed cultivator whose eyes were fixed on David. Although David didn’t look at him directly, he had already detected the man’s gaze with his divine sense.

Moreover, David even sensed a trace of hostility from the man’s aura.

Liu Xue seemed to have noticed these gazes and whispered to David, “Young Master Chen, let’s speed up and leave here as soon as possible.”

David nodded, and the two quickened their pace, heading deeper into the mountains.

Full Read Online Chapter 5634 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5634

After walking for about an hour, the two arrived at a relatively secluded valley.

There were significantly fewer cultivators here, only a few scattered individuals searching.

“Young Master Chen, let’s rest here for a while and gather some information,” Liu Xue suggested.

David had the same idea; he still needed to find out the God King’s whereabouts.

The two found a hidden cave, and Liu Xue set up a simple soundproofing array.

“Alliance Leader Liu, wait for me here; I’ll be right back,” David said.

“Where are you going, Young Master Chen?” Liu Xue asked with some concern.

"I'm going to gather some information; I'll be back soon,"

David smiled and turned to leave the cave.

David didn't go far; nearby, he found a middle-aged cultivator who appeared to be a rogue cultivator.

This cultivator was resting on a large rock, looking somewhat tired.

"Fellow Daoist, please wait a moment." David stepped forward and said politely.

The middle-aged cultivator looked up and stared at David warily: "What do you want?"

"I am David, a newcomer here, and I would like to ask you about some things." As he spoke, David took out a high-grade immortal stone and handed it over.

A glint of greed flashed in the middle-aged cultivator's eyes as he saw the high-grade immortal stone, but he still feigned composure and said, "Ask me anything, and I'll tell you what I know."

"Thank you, fellow Daoist,"

David smiled. "I'd like to inquire whether you've heard of the Divine King of the Temple arriving here recently? He's from the Eighth Heaven."

"A Divine King?" The middle-aged cultivator paused, then shook his head. "I haven't heard of him. But recently, quite a few important figures have come here; several major sects from the Eighth Heaven have sent people."

David was somewhat disappointed, but still continued to ask, "Then, have you heard of anything unusual? For example, someone being hunted down, or some kind of battle?"

The middle-aged cultivator thought for a moment and said, "Something unusual... there is one. A month ago, I saw several disciples of the Temple in that valley. They seemed to be escorting someone, but they looked very nervous." (Disciples of the Temple?"

David's heart stirred. "Which direction did they go?"

"It seems they went deeper into the mountains."

The middle-aged cultivator pointed in a direction. "However, it's very dangerous there. It's said that powerful demonic beasts roam there, and ordinary people dare not go in."

“Thank you for informing me, fellow Daoist.”

David took out several high-grade immortal stones and handed them to the middle-aged cultivator. “These are a token of my gratitude.”

The middle-aged cultivator was overjoyed and quickly accepted the immortal stones: “Thank you, fellow Daoist! Thank you, fellow Daoist!”

David left the middle-aged cultivator, already having some clues in his mind.

The disciples of the Temple were escorting someone, and they were heading deeper into the mountains. This was very likely the God King and his group.

David didn’t return immediately. He inquired with several other cultivators, and the results were similar.

It seemed that the God King had indeed been here, and was likely still deep in the mountains.

Just as David was about to return, he saw a familiar figure.

This person was the black-robed cultivator he had met at the foot of the mountain earlier, whose gaze had seemed somewhat strange then.

The black-robed cultivator also saw David, a sinister glint flashing in his eyes, but he quickly turned and left.

David sneered inwardly; it seemed he had been targeted.

However, he didn’t care. As long as it wasn’t a Celestial Immortal realm expert or higher, he was confident he could handle them.

When David returned to the cave, Liu Xue was meditating.

Hearing footsteps, Liu Xue opened her eyes.

“Young Master Chen, have you found out anything?” Liu Xue asked.

“There are some clues, but we need to confirm them further.”

“Alliance Leader Liu, when shall we go find the entrance to the ruins?” David asked.

Chapter 5635

"No rush, there are too many people right now, we need to wait a bit longer. If Young Master Chen has other matters to attend to, he can go and take care of them," Liu Xue said.

David nodded: "Alliance Leader Liu, then you wait here for me, I'll go and investigate some more."

"Young Master Chen, please be careful," Liu Xue cautioned.

David nodded and left the cave again.

This time, he headed in the direction the middle-aged cultivator had pointed.

After walking for about half an hour, David arrived at a more secluded valley.

There were even fewer cultivators here, only a few who appeared to be very powerful searching.

David saw an old man with white hair. This old man looked extraordinary, probably an elder from some major sect.

"Senior, please wait," David stepped forward.

The white-haired old man turned around and sized up David: "What do you want?"

"I wish to inquire about some things from you, senior." David said, taking out a storage bag containing one hundred high-grade immortal stones. The white-haired old man's eyes flashed with surprise upon seeing the storage bag, but he quickly regained his composure: "What do you want to inquire about?"

"I want to know if you, senior, have ever seen the God King of the Eighth Heaven God King Palace in this place." David said directly.

The white-haired old man paused for a moment, then shook his head: "What are you saying? I don't quite understand."

The old man deliberately paused, glancing at the storage bag in David's hand.

David understood his meaning and took out another one hundred high-grade immortal stones: "As long as you can tell me useful information, these are all yours."

A hint of greed flashed in the white-haired old man's eyes, but he still said: "Alright, I can tell you something. That so-called God King is being controlled by his two palace masters."

"Controlled?" David's heart tightened. "Are you sure?" "Of course I'm sure, I saw it with my own eyes. Those two palace masters looked very nervous, and the God King looked strange, as if he had lost consciousness," the white-haired elder said.

"Which direction did they go?" David asked hurriedly.

"Hmm..." The elder stopped speaking, his eyes greedily fixed on David's storage bag.

The meaning was clear: to know which direction they went, he would need to exchange some immortal stones.

Seeing this, David tossed out five hundred immortal stones without hesitation, saying, "Tell me the direction..."

The old man beamed at the sight of the five hundred high-grade immortal stones, then pointed in a direction: "Heading towards Death Valley. However, it's very dangerous there. It's said that some demonic beasts roam there, and people from the Evil Path Hall are also active there."

"With your strength at the third rank of the Human Immortal Realm, you probably can't even reach Death Valley. If you need me to take you there, I can..."

"Thank you for informing me, senior." Before the old man could finish, David tossed out another five hundred high-grade immortal stones, saying, "These are a token of my gratitude."

These high-grade immortal stones were nothing to David.

The white-haired old man was very satisfied with David's generosity: "Young man, I advise you not to meddle in other people's business. The people from the Evil Path Hall are not to be trifled with."

"Thank you for the reminder, senior. I know what I'm doing."

After saying this, David turned and walked towards Death Valley.

Although David was unfamiliar with this place, he couldn't possibly let a stranger guide him. In this crucible of the Heavenly Realm, there were no good people, only self-interest.

His generosity might have already lured the old man with malicious intent.

Death Valley, as its name suggests, was an extremely dangerous place.

It was shrouded in miasma, littered with bones, and filled with the stench of death.

It was said that very few cultivators who entered this place ever returned alive.