Chapter 5651

Finally, after passing through a misty area, a magnificent hall appeared before them.

Soaring into the clouds, the hall was imposing and grand, seemingly the abode of an ancient deity.

The walls of the hall were constructed of massive stone blocks, each carved with exquisite patterns—mythical beasts, mysterious runes, and formations.

David and Liu Xue slowly approached the hall. The doors were tightly shut, covered with intricate runes and patterns, emanating a powerful restrictive force.

David carefully examined the runes on the doors and discovered that they were intricately connected to the runes they had encountered in the stone forest.

“It seems that to open this door, we need to break the rune restrictions on it,”

David said, closing his eyes again and beginning to deduce the mysteries of the runes in his mind.

Liu Xue stood quietly to the side, her eyes fixed on the door, her heart filled with anticipation and tension.

After a series of arduous calculations and attempts, David finally found a way to break the rune restrictions.

He quickly formed hand seals and chanted incantations, and beams of light shot from his hands, striking the runes on the door.

As the light flickered, the runes began to change gradually; the originally tightly connected lines of the runes began to loosen, and a powerful force surged from within the door.

“Now!” David shouted, pushing hard with both hands, and the door slowly opened.

An ancient and mysterious aura rushed out, as if transporting them to a completely new world.

The interior of the hall was spacious and bright, with a smooth marble floor paved with various mysterious patterns and runes.

Around the hall were many huge statues, each with a different form, some majestic and solemn, others mysterious and unpredictable, as if guarding the secrets within.

In the center of the main hall stood a massive stone platform, upon which rested an ancient book radiating golden light. Chen

Ping and Liu Xue slowly approached the platform, their gazes fixed intently on the book. They could sense the boundless mysteries and immense power contained within it.

“Could this be the legendary treasure of the Tianmen Mountain ruins?” Liu Xue murmured, her eyes gleaming with excitement. David nodded, saying, “Very likely, but we must still be cautious.

There might be other hidden dangers within this hall.” Just as they were about to reach for the book, a deep rumble resounded throughout the hall, and the ground began to tremble violently.

Immediately afterward, beams of black light shot out from all around the hall, converging to form a massive black vortex. A powerful and malevolent aura emanated from the vortex, sending chills down their spines.

“Not good, danger!” David shouted, quickly shielding Liu Xue behind him while forming hand seals to prepare for the impending danger. A figure slowly emerged from the black vortex—a mysterious man clad in a black robe, his face shrouded in a layer of black mist, obscuring his features.

“Who are you? How dare you trespass into the Tianmen Mountain Ruins!” The mysterious man’s voice was low and hoarse, as if it came from hell. David stared at the mysterious man fearlessly and said, “We only came here by chance and have no ill intentions. However, we are determined to obtain the ancient book in this hall.”

The mysterious man sneered and said, “You think you can take this ancient book? You’re delusional! This ancient book is a treasure I’ve guarded for many years, and none of you will be able to take it away today!” With that, the mysterious man waved his hands, and waves of black energy swept towards David and Liu Xue.

David quickly used his spiritual power to form a protective shield, protecting Liu Xue within it. At the same time, he rapidly formed hand seals, unleashing powerful streams of spiritual energy like arrows that collided with the black energy wave. “Boom!”

A deafening roar erupted as the spiritual energy and the black energy wave neutralized each other, bursting forth with a blinding light.

Chapter 5652

David and the mysterious man each took a few steps back, their eyes fixed on each other, neither daring to let their guard down.

David and Liu Xue exchanged a glance, their eyes flashing with determination. They knew that only by working together could they survive in this mysterious and dangerous ruin.

“Alliance Leader Liu, let’s attack from both sides and catch him off guard!” David said in a low voice, his tone soft but carrying an undeniable resolve. Liu

Xue nodded slightly, her longsword flashing with a sharp, cold light. She shouted, “Good!”

Before her words even finished, the two moved with lightning speed. David channeled his spiritual energy, his body radiating intense light, like a blazing sun, charging towards the mysterious man’s right.

Liu Xue, on the other hand, leaped lightly, like a nimble swallow, attacking the mysterious man from the left.

Seeing this, the mysterious man sneered disdainfully. He rapidly formed hand seals, chanting incantations.

Instantly, the surrounding black light intensified, forming countless black spikes that shot towards David and Liu Xue.

David’s eyes sharpened. He thrust his hands forward, unleashing a powerful surge of spiritual energy that transformed into a massive golden shield, deflecting the incoming black spikes.

At the same time, Liu Xue dodged the spiked attack with a swift movement, her longsword tracing a graceful arc like a meteor, aiming straight for the mysterious man’s chest.

The mysterious man sidestepped, easily avoiding Liu Xue’s attack, then swung his hand back, unleashing a black energy wave towards Liu Xue.

Liu Xue reacted quickly, lightly touching the ground with her toes, her body floating backward, avoiding the impact of the energy wave.

"Is that all you've got?" the mysterious man mocked.

David sneered, "Don't be too smug!"

With that, he rapidly changed hand seals, chanting ancient incantations. The surrounding air began to vibrate violently, and golden runes flew from his body, weaving into a massive golden magic circle in the air.

"Go!"

David shouted, and the golden magic circle pressed down on the mysterious man.

The mysterious man felt the immense pressure from the golden magic circle, his expression changing slightly. He formed hand seals again, attempting to resist the magic circle's attack. However, David's golden magic array was incredibly powerful, and the mysterious man struggled to defend against it.

Just then, Liu Xue seized the opportunity, letting out a sharp cry as her longsword erupted with dazzling light. She unleashed the Earthly Fiend Alliance's ultimate technique, "Earthly Fiend Sword Shadows," sending a series of sharp sword shadows hurtling towards the mysterious man. The mysterious man was overwhelmed, having to contend with both David's golden magic array and Liu Xue's sword shadow attacks, finding himself in a predicament.

He roared, his body flashing with black light as he tried to break free of the golden magic array's restraints.

Seeing this, David increased his spiritual power output, making the golden magic array even brighter, tightly suppressing the mysterious man.

Liu Xue seized the opportunity to close in, her longsword flashing like lightning towards the mysterious man's vital points.

"No!"

the mysterious man roared in despair, trying to dodge Liu Xue's attack, but it was too late.

Liu Xue's longsword pierced the mysterious man's chest with unerring accuracy, and a spurt of black blood gushed from the wound.

The mysterious man swayed a few times, then slowly collapsed.

However, in the instant he fell, a smile appeared on his face, though neither David nor Liu Xue noticed.

David deactivated the golden magic array, exchanged a glance with Liu Xue, and both breathed a sigh of relief.

“Finally, we’ve dealt with him,” Liu Xue said, a tired but gratified smile on her face.

David nodded: “Let’s quickly go get that ancient book.”

The two went to the stone platform, their eyes fixed on the ancient book that emitted a golden light.

David slowly reached out, and the moment his fingers touched the book, a dazzling light suddenly enveloped them.

“Ah!”

David and Liu Xue exclaimed simultaneously, feeling a powerful force surge into their bodies, their vision spinning, and they instantly lost consciousness.

Chapter 5653

David and Liu Xue slowly awoke, their heads throbbing as if struck by a heavy hammer.

Before them stretched a vast, boundless desert, a howling wind whipping sand and gravel across their faces.

The scorching sun, like countless sharp blades, relentlessly baked the earth, making the world seem like a giant furnace.

“Young Master Chen, where are we?”

Liu Xue asked weakly, her voice filled with confusion and fear.

David shook his head, his brow furrowed, trying to recall what had happened.

They had been in the main hall of the Tianmen Mountain ruins, preparing to retrieve the ancient book that radiated golden light.

Unexpectedly, the moment they touched the ancient book, a dazzling light enveloped them, and they immediately lost consciousness. When they awoke, they found themselves in this unfamiliar place.

"I don't know either. This doesn't look like the Ninth Heaven, nor does it look like any place we've been before,"

David said helplessly.

The two exchanged a glance, both seeing worry and unease in each other's eyes.

To figure out where they were, they decided to fly into the air to investigate.

However, when they circulated their spiritual energy and tried to take flight, they found their bodies bound by an invisible force, unable to fly at all.

Not only that, they also discovered that their divine sense could only extend a few miles, their strength severely suppressed compared to before.

"How could this be? Why is our strength suddenly suppressed so much?"

Liu Xue said anxiously, her face full of worry.

David took a deep breath, trying to calm himself down: "Don't panic. Since we can't fly, let's walk around and see if we can find any people and ask them where this place is."

So, the two dragged their tired bodies forward with difficulty on the scorching sand.

Each step they took left deep footprints, the scorching sand burning their feet through their shoes. But to uncover the secrets of this place, they could only grit their teeth and persevere.

After walking for an unknown amount of time, suddenly, a rustling sound came from ahead, as if something was moving rapidly beneath the sand.

David and Liu Xue immediately became alert, standing back to back, their eyes fixed intently on what lay ahead.

Soon, a swarm of snakes emerged from the sand. These snakes varied in size and color; some were jet black, others were multicolored.

They hissed and flicked their tongues, surrounding David and Liu Xue, their eyes gleaming with greed.

"Oh no, a swarm of snakes!"

Liu Xue exclaimed, gripping her longsword tightly, ready to defend herself against any attack.

David clenched his fists, a resolute glint in his eyes: “Don’t panic, we’ll handle this carefully.”

The snakes launched their attack, swarming towards them like arrows released from a bow.

David and Liu Xue swiftly brandished their weapons, engaging in a fierce battle with the snakes.

However, their strength was suppressed, their movements becoming much slower, and each snake they repelled required considerable effort.

As the battle continued, the snake swarm grew in number, seemingly endless. David and Liu Xue gradually found themselves overwhelmed, several snake bites inflicting wounds, their clothes stained crimson with blood.

“This can’t go on, we must find a way to get rid of them!”

David shouted.

Just then, a gigantic snake emerged from the swarm. This snake was as thick as a bucket, its scales shimmering with a metallic sheen—it was the Snake King.

The Snake King flicked its tongue and let out a deafening roar, as if taunting David and Liu Xue.

Chapter 5654

Looking at the Snake King, David suddenly remembered the Golden Dragon bloodline within him.

The Golden Dragon, king of beasts, possessed a natural power of intimidation over these snakes.

Without hesitation, he cut his finger, letting the blood drip onto the ground.

Instantly, a powerful dragon’s might emanated from David, spreading outwards.

Sensing this might, the snakes retreated in terror, hissing mournfully.

Even the once-arrogant Snake King showed fear; it hesitated for a moment, then turned and led its horde away swiftly.

David and Liu Xue breathed a sigh of relief, collapsing to the ground, panting heavily.

The battle had exhausted them; their bodies ached, and even their fingers were difficult to move.

"That was close! If it weren't for your Golden Dragon bloodline, we'd probably be done for today,"

Liu Xue said, still shaken.

David nodded. "Yes, it seems the Golden Dragon bloodline can be useful sometimes. But we need to find a place to rest and treat our wounds quickly."

Just then, they heard footsteps approaching from nearby.

David and Liu Xue immediately became alert, gripping their weapons tightly and staring intently in the direction of the sound.

Soon, an old woman and a child came into view.

The old woman had gray hair and a face full of wrinkles; she walked with a limp, leaning on a cane.

The child was a boy, about fifteen or sixteen years old, who stared at David and Liu Xue with wide, curious eyes.

"Who are you? What are you doing here?"

the old woman asked warily.

David quickly said, "Grandma, we came from somewhere else and accidentally got lost here. Can you tell us where this place is?" Hearing

David's words, the old woman's wariness lessened slightly: "This is the Spirit Wasteland, a forgotten world. How did you get here?"

"The Spirit Wasteland?"

David and Liu Xue exchanged a glance, both seeing confusion in each other's eyes.

They had never heard of this name before and didn't know where the Spirit Wasteland was.

“Grandma, we don’t know why we got here either. We were originally in some ruins when we touched an ancient book, then lost consciousness, and when we woke up, we were here,”

David said truthfully.

Hearing David’s words, the old woman fell into deep thought: “An ancient book? Could it be that legendary... Never mind, let’s not talk about that now.

You seem injured. Why don’t you come back to the village with us? We have herbs there that can treat your wounds.”

David and Liu Xue hesitated. They didn’t know if the old woman and the child were trustworthy, but they were seriously injured and knew nothing about this place, so they could only follow them back to the village to see what it was like.

So, they followed the old woman and the child towards the village.

Along the way, the old woman kept chatting with them, asking where they came from and what the outside world was like.

David and Liu Xue answered cautiously, while observing their surroundings.

After walking for an unknown amount of time, they finally arrived at the village.

The village was small, with only a few dozen households. Most of the houses were built of mud and stone, looking very simple.

The villagers looked at the old woman with curious eyes when they saw her bringing two strangers back.

The old woman led David and Liu Xue to a dilapidated house, then took out herbs and treated their wounds.

While treating the wounds, David and Liu Xue noticed that the villagers seemed very strange, with greed and indifference in their eyes.

“Grandma, why do the people in the village seem a bit strange?” David couldn’t help but ask.

The old woman's hand trembled slightly, then she said, "Don't overthink it, they're all good people. You rest here for a bit, I'll go get you something to eat."

With that, the old woman hurriedly left the house.

David and Liu Xue exchanged a glance, both seeing a hint of unease in each other's eyes.

They vaguely felt that this village seemed to be hiding some secret.

After staying in the village for two days, David and Liu Xue found the villagers increasingly strange.

They always looked at them with a greedy gaze, as if they were plotting something bad.

Moreover, they noticed that the villagers often secretly gathered together in the middle of the night, seemingly discussing something.

On the third night, David and Liu Xue were resting in the house when they suddenly heard a commotion outside.

They immediately became alert, quietly approaching the door and peeking through the crack.

They saw the villagers, torches in hand, surrounding their house.

Leading them was a burly middle-aged man, holding a large knife, his eyes gleaming with ferocity.

"You two outsiders must have a lot of treasure on you! Hand it over now, or don't blame us for being impolite!"

the man shouted.

Hearing this, David and Liu Xue immediately understood everything.

It turned out the villagers had long coveted them and wanted to kill them for their resources.

"You greedy bass! We came to your village seeking help, and you want to harm us!" David said angrily.

The middle-aged man sneered, "Enough nonsense. In this dog-eat-dog world, only strength reigns supreme."

You two outsiders, your strength is suppressed, you're no match for us. If you know what's good for you, hand over the treasure obediently, otherwise you'll only face death!"

David and Liu Xue exchanged a glance, both seeing a resolute glint in each other's eyes.

They knew this battle was inevitable; since the villagers were unjust, they wouldn't be so ruthless in return.

"Alliance Leader Liu, let's go!" "David shouted and charged forward first.

Liu Xue was also fearless; she swung her longsword, unleashing a sharp sword aura towards the middle-aged man. The middle-aged man dodged easily, then brandished his broadsword, slashing at Liu Xue.

David, meanwhile, channeled his spiritual energy, unleashing his ultimate technique; golden runes flew from his body, shooting towards the surrounding villagers.

The villagers scrambled to avoid them, but many were still struck by the runes, letting out screams of pain.

The battle instantly intensified. Although David and Liu Xue's strength was suppressed, they relied on their rich combat experience and unwavering will to fight the villagers to the death.

However, the villagers were numerous and extremely fierce; they relentlessly..." They surged in from all directions, surrounding David and Liu Xue.

In the fierce battle, David and Liu Xue gradually found themselves struggling to hold their own.

Several more wounds appeared on their bodies, blood flowing incessantly.

But they did not give up, gritting their teeth and persevering.

Just when they felt despair, suddenly, David remembered the Golden Dragon bloodline within him.

A thought struck him, and he circulated his spiritual power, activating the power of his Golden Dragon bloodline.

In an instant, a powerful dragon's might emanated from him, spreading outwards.

The villagers sensed this dragon's might and retreated in terror, their faces showing fear.

Even the arrogant middle-aged man showed a look of horror; he had not expected David to possess such power.

"You greedy bass, today is your doom!"

David roared, his hands rapidly forming hand seals, beams of golden light shooting from them towards the villagers.

The villagers scrambled to dodge, but many were still struck by the golden light, their bodies instantly torn apart, turning into a cloud of blood mist that dissipated into the air.

Seeing the situation was dire, the middle-aged man turned to flee.

But David wouldn't let him escape so easily. He flashed forward, instantly appearing in front of the man and kicking him to the ground.

"Spare us, sir! We were blind to your greatness, please spare us!"

the middle-aged man pleaded in terror.

David coldly stared at him: "You greedy bass, you'll stop at nothing to get the treasure. Today you must pay the price for what you've done!"

With that, a flash of light appeared in David's hand, and a golden sword aura slashed down, instantly decapitating the middle-aged man, blood gushing out.

The other villagers, seeing this, turned pale with fright, kneeling on the ground and begging for mercy.

David looked at the villagers without a trace of pity.

He knew that if it weren't for his and Liu Xue's considerable strength and the deterrent effect of their Golden Dragon bloodline, they would have long since died at the hands of these villagers.

"You greedy bass, you don't deserve any sympathy!"

David said coldly, then his hand flashed again, and sword auras shot towards the villagers.

The villagers screamed in agony as they were struck by the sword auras and instantly fell to the ground, dead.

In a short while, everyone in the village was dead, except for the old woman and the child.

David and Liu Xue walked up to the old woman and the child, looking at them coldly.

The old woman trembled with fear, kneeling on the ground and repeatedly kowtowing, begging for mercy: "Sir, spare us! We were forced into this! We never intended to harm you!"

The child stared wide-eyed at David and Liu Xue, his eyes filled with terror.

David looked at the two without a trace of pity.

Liu Xue whispered, "Young Master Chen, why don't we release this grandmother and grandson?"

David didn't speak, but instead walked up to the old woman and child, holding his Dragon-Slaying Sword. "I never kill women and children..." Upon hearing this

, the old woman and the child breathed a sigh of relief, a cold smile appearing on their faces.

Thud...

Just as the old woman breathed a sigh of relief, David's Dragon-Slaying Sword pierced through her body.

The old woman stared at David in disbelief, saying, "Didn't you say you wouldn't kill women and children?"

"Yes, you're not a child either," David said.

The old woman: "....."

Thud...

David then pierced through the child's body with his sword.

The child's eyes widened.

"Don't stare at me, you're not a woman either..." David sneered.

The child: "....."

The old woman and the child were both killed by David, and Liu Xue, standing nearby, was both amused and exasperated by David's antics.

"Alright, let's go!"

David prepared to tell Liu Xue to leave!

*Boom!

- Suddenly, the world roared, and the world before them began to collapse. Everything went black, and the two fell unconscious again!

When they slowly awoke, they found themselves in a completely unfamiliar world.

The sky here was an eerie purple, with clouds churning and surging like burning flames.

On the ground, massive cracks crisscrossed, as if ripped apart by an invisible giant hand.

In the distance, several towering mountain peaks pierced the sky, their summits shrouded in black smoke, exuding an unsettling aura.

"Young Master Chen, where is this?"

Liu Xue asked weakly, her face as pale as paper, clearly indicating that the previous battle and teleportation had severely weakened her.

Chapter 5657

David shook his head, his brow furrowed. "I don't know either, but this place is eerie. We must proceed with caution."

The two stood up, ready to explore the area, when suddenly a piercing scream came from afar.

They exchanged a glance and immediately ran towards the sound.

When they reached a valley, the scene before them made their hearts tighten.

A gang of bandits was frantically chasing a family of three. The parents, their faces filled with terror, tightly protected their child behind them, while the bandits brandished sharp weapons, emitting sinister laughs.

“Stop!”

David roared, about to intervene, but suddenly found himself seemingly controlled by an invisible force.

His body became incredibly heavy, his movements as slow as a snail’s pace.

Liu Xue faced the same predicament. Her eyes widened, wanting to rush over, but she could only watch helplessly as the family of three was driven to despair.

“No!”

Liu Xue screamed in despair.

Under their watchful eyes, the bandits quickly caught up with the parents.

One bandit swung his broadsword, viciously slashing at the child’s father.

The father tried his best to defend himself, but the disparity in strength was too great; the broadsword instantly pierced his shoulder, and blood gushed out.

“Father!”

the child cried out in heart-wrenching agony.

Immediately afterward, another bandit thrust his sword at the child’s mother.

To protect her child, the mother shielded her with her own body, the sword tip piercing through her flesh. She slowly collapsed, her eyes filled with reluctance and worry.

“Mother!”

the child rushed to his mother’s side, tears streaming down his face.

David was burning with rage. He struggled desperately, trying to break free from the invisible control. Finally , in a sharp pain, he felt the force binding him suddenly disappear.

“You beasts!”

David roared, charging at the bandits like a raging beast.

The Dragon-Slaying Sword in his hand gleamed with dazzling light, each strike carrying immense power.

Liu Xue had also regained her mobility. She brandished her longsword, unleashing a fierce swordsmanship, fighting alongside David.

The bandits, caught off guard by the sudden appearance of two such powerful individuals, were momentarily thrown into disarray.

However, under their leader's command, they quickly regained their composure and charged at David and Liu Xue with their weapons.

David's eyes were icy. He channeled his spiritual energy, unleashing his ultimate technique.

Golden sword beams shot from his body, hurtling towards the bandits. Wherever the sword light passed, the bandits screamed in agony, their bodies struck by the sword light, instantly collapsing dead.

Liu Xue was not to be outdone; she unleashed the Earthly Fiend Alliance's ultimate technique, "Earthly Fiend Sword Shadows," unleashing a barrage of sharp sword shadows like a torrential rain upon the bandits.

Unable to dodge in time, the bandits were struck by the sword shadows, blood splattering everywhere.

After a fierce battle, David and Liu Xue finally wiped out all the bandits.

Panting heavily, they walked to the child's side.

At that moment, the child was kneeling beside his parents' corpses, tears streaming down his face.

She looked up at David with eyes full of hatred and cried out, "Why didn't you act sooner? If you had acted sooner, my parents wouldn't be dead!"

David felt a pang of pain in his heart. He explained, "Child, I was controlled by an invisible force, which slowed my movements. I only just broke free."

However, the child wouldn't listen to his explanation. She continued to cry out, "You're the one who killed my parents! If you had acted sooner, they wouldn't be dead!"

Seeing this, David felt a surge of anger.

He said coldly, "Child, I understand your pain, but you can't accuse someone without knowing the facts. I was indeed controlled, and I did my best."

Chapter 5658

The child persisted, standing up and lunging at David, trying to punch him with her small fists.

David easily dodged her attack.

“Stop it!” David said, frowning.

The child suddenly stopped, looking at David with a strange gaze, and coldly said, “I’ll make you pay for my parents’ lives.”

David was stunned; he hadn’t expected the child to say such a thing.

He was about to ask a question when he suddenly felt a dangerous aura approaching.

Just then, the child suddenly pulled a dagger from her pocket and stabbed at David.

David reacted quickly, dodging to the side and grabbing the child’s wrist at the same time.

“What are you doing?” David shouted angrily.

The child sneered, “You killed my parents, and I’ll make you pay.”

David was both shocked and furious; he hadn’t expected the child to be so stubborn.

Looking into the child’s hateful eyes, a sudden resolve welled up within him.

“Child, I can let you see your parents!” David said.

“Really?” The child exclaimed joyfully, “Hurry, hurry and let me see my parents...”

“Alright...” David nodded, and with a flick of his Dragon-Slaying Sword, a sharp sword aura slashed towards the child.

“No!”

Liu Xue cried out in alarm; she hadn’t expected David to actually attack.

However, the sword aura instantly pierced through the child’s body.

The child stared wide-eyed at David in disbelief, then slowly collapsed.

"Your parents are waiting for you in the underworld. I'm sending you to see them," David said, slowly sheathing his Dragon-Slaying Sword.

"David, you..." Liu Xue looked at David, her eyes filled with shock and confusion.

David took a deep breath and said, "Alliance Leader Liu, I know you feel sorry for this child, but she's blinded by hatred, and she even tried to kill me just now.

In this dog-eat-dog world, we can't have the slightest pity or soft-heartedness, otherwise it will only bring us more trouble."

Liu Xue fell silent; she knew David was right. In this unfamiliar world, they had to be vigilant, not easily trust others, and certainly not have a saintly heart .

"Let's go, we can't stay here any longer," David said, then pulled Liu Xue to leave the valley.

Boom! Just as David and Liu Xue were about to leave, the world before them collapsed again.

"Damn it, not again?"

David was speechless.

The two fell unconscious again.

When they woke up again, they found themselves in a void.

Looking at the chaotic void before them, David finally understood what was happening.

"Young Master Chen, what's this...?" Liu Xue looked at the void before her, completely bewildered.

"A test. The world we encountered before was a test!"

David realized.

"A test?" Liu Xue frowned slightly.

"It's a test of whether we're saints. Because in this world, being a saint, bound and kidnapped by morality, makes it impossible to reach the top."

“This must be a test from the owner of the ruins. Only by passing the test can we see the true ruins,”

David explained.

Otherwise, their frequent teleportation to unknown worlds was inexplicable.

“So what kind of test is this time?”

Liu Xue asked.

“I don’t know either. Anyway, when we see children, women, old men and women, we’ll just kill them first...”

David said.

Liu Xue: “...”

At this moment, a stone gate suddenly appeared out of thin air in front of David and the others. The stone gate was tens of thousands of feet tall and seemed to occupy the entire void.

“It seems we have to get through this stone gate first.”

Looking at the tall stone gate, David said.

David and Liu Xue arrived before the tall stone gate.

The stone gate was perfectly smooth, without any runes or writing.

David tried to push the stone gate with his hands, but no matter how hard he tried, he couldn’t budge it.

Liu Xue also tried, but when she touched the stone gate, it opened automatically to both sides.

Seeing this, David was dumbfounded, not understanding why he couldn’t open the stone gate.

“Why is that?” David asked.

“Maybe it’s because I’m a woman!”

Liu Xue explained with a smile.

David was speechless. The two walked through the stone gate, but as soon as they entered, the stone gate automatically closed, trapping them inside.

“Welcome, both of you...”

An aged voice rang out, and then an old man with white hair and beard appeared before them.

“Young Master Chen, this old man...”

Liu Xue said.

“Kill...”

David’s Dragon-Slaying Sword slashed directly at the old man.

The sword light sliced through the old man’s body, cleaving him in two.

The old man: “.....”

But soon, the two halves of his body slowly coalesced.

“What are you doing? Why did you attack without saying a word? Luckily, I was just a phantom, or you would have really killed me.” The old man said angrily

“Isn’t this a test? A test of whether I’m holy or not, so when I see old people and children, I just kill them.” Chen

Ping said.

“Although it’s a test, I’m the examiner. You killed the examiner, do you still want to enter the ruins?” the old man rebuked angrily.

Upon hearing this

, David quickly sheathed his Dragon-Slaying Sword, clasped his hands in a fist salute, and said, “Senior, I’m so sorry for the misunderstanding...”

“Alright, enough talk, I’m going to give you a question.”

The old man said slowly.

“Okay!” David nodded, wanting to see what kind of question the old man would give him.

“If your entire family were wiped out, would you kill the entire family when you have the strength?” the old man asked.

“Yes!” David nodded without hesitation.

“What if, after wiping out the entire family, you found a child, only a few years old, still alive?” the old man continued.

“I would tell that child to remember me so he can seek revenge. When I see him a second time, I will kill him and then leave,”

David replied.

Hearing David’s answer, the old man laughed, about to say something, but David continued, “After taking a few steps, I’ll turn around immediately and tell the child that this is the second time we’ve met, giving him a chance. He didn’t seize it, so he can’t blame me.”

“Then I’ll kill the child with one sword, without hesitation...”

Hearing David’s words, the old man’s smile froze on his face, then he asked, “After killing the child, will you leave?”

“Of course not. I’ll hide in the shadows and see if there are any children still alive,” David said.

“If another child runs out, will you kill him with one sword?” the old man asked.

David shook his head: “Not one sword, but four...”

“Four swords?” Liu Xue, standing to the side, was somewhat confused.

“I’ll stab the child’s heart once, and another sword in his right chest, to prevent his heart from growing backwards.”

“Another sword in his throat, to prevent him from raising his heart to his throat, and the last sword will stab his stomach, to prevent him from putting his heart inside his stomach.”

David explained.

Liu Xue: “.....”

"If another child runs out at this moment, clinging to your leg and begging for mercy, and you have a sword and a piece of candy on you, how do you tell whether this child should be killed or not?" the old man asked!

"Too simple..."

David smiled slightly: "If the child has a sword, it proves that the child has murderous intent, and this child must not be spared."

Chapter 5660

"But what if the child takes the candy?" Liu Xue asked.

"That proves the child is extremely cunning; such a child must not be allowed to live," David replied.

"What if the child takes both?" Liu Xue continued.

"That proves the child is greedy; such a child must not be allowed to live," David answered.

"What if the child doesn't choose either?" Liu Xue pressed.

"That proves the child is rebellious; such a child must not be allowed to live," David continued.

Liu Xue: "....."

Child: "You're awesome, you're arrogant, you can't accept defeat, don't play..."

The old man looked at David speechlessly: "You have good talent; practice more and read less useless things..."

With that, the old man's figure vanished instantly.

At the same time the old man's figure vanished, the void before David and the others distorted, and then a towering mountain appeared.

Moreover, high on the mountain stood palaces.

"Why does this mountain look so familiar?" David said, puzzled, looking at the suddenly appearing mountain before him.

“Tianmen Mountain, isn't this Tianmen Mountain?” Liu Xue exclaimed!

Only then did David realize that the mountain before him was indeed Tianmen Mountain.

“Could it be that we've emerged from the ruins?” David wondered, how did they suddenly return to Tianmen Mountain?

“Probably not. Looking at the palaces on Tianmen Mountain, they should be the vanished Tianmen.”

“Let's go take a look...” Liu Xue said excitedly.

The two headed towards the palaces of Tianmen Mountain.

However, just as they were about to step onto Tianmen Mountain, they suddenly felt a powerful restrictive force blocking their path.

The power was vast and boundless, as if the entire Tianmen Mountain was protected by a massive barrier. “

It seems we still need to pass the final test,”

David said, then began carefully observing the surrounding environment, searching for a way to break the barrier.

Just then, an aged yet majestic voice suddenly rang in their ears: “Young people, you've finally arrived.”

David and Liu Xue were startled and quickly looked around, only to find no one there.

“No need to look, I'm here.”

The voice sounded again, and then an old man in a white robe slowly appeared before them.

This old man had white hair and beard, a kind face, but his eyes revealed a sense of majesty and vicissitude.

He exuded a powerful and pure aura, inspiring awe in those around him.

“And you are?” David asked respectfully.

The old man smiled slightly and said, “I am the last sect leader of Tianmen. You can call me Elder Tianmen.”

“Sect Leader of Tianmen?”

David and Liu Xue were both stunned. They hadn't expected to meet the legendary sect leader.

Elder Tianmen, seeing their shocked expressions, slowly said, “That's right, I am the sect leader of Tianmen. Since Tianmen disappeared, I have been guarding the sect's ruins here, waiting for the destined one to arrive.”

“You've been waiting for us?”

Liu Xue asked

Elder Tianmen nodded and said, “That's right. I see hope in you, the possibility of Tianmen's revival. However, before I pass on the Tianmen's legacy to you, I must first tell you a story, a truth about Tianmen's disappearance.”

David and Liu Xue listened quietly, their hearts filled with curiosity and anticipation.

The old man of Tianmen sighed deeply, a trace of pain and regret flashing in his eyes: “That was more than a thousand years ago. At that time, Tianmen was at its peak, holding a pivotal position in the entire Nine Heavens. As the sect leader of Tianmen, I was even hailed as the strongest person in the Nine Heavens.”

“However, it was at that time that I met a child who would change the fate of Tianmen.”
