

Chapter 5689

Faced with an attack powerful enough to kill even a mid-stage Celestial Immortal, David merely raised the Dragon-Slaying Sword in his hand.

"A mayfly trying to shake a tree,"

he uttered softly, as the Five Elements Origin Power, now mostly restored, erupted and merged into the sword. Simultaneously, a ripple of the laws of time rippled outwards.

"Slash!"

A simple yet powerful five-colored sword aura, seemingly containing the might to cleave the heavens and earth, easily tore apart the massive ghost-face formation like shredding cloth.

The sword aura continued its momentum, sweeping past the screaming old woman.

The ferocity on the old woman's face instantly froze, and she and her magical weapon were silently cleaved in two!

"What?!"

Ancestor Xuansha and the other elders were horrified. They hadn't expected David's strength to be so terrifying!

"Quick! Activate the sect's protective formation!" Ancestor Xuansha shouted in terror.

However, it was too late.

David's figure was like a ghost, moving faster than their divine senses could perceive, amplified by the accelerated time.

With each flash of sword light, an elder perished.

"No! Senior, spare us! It was that Bi Xiao Zi who offended you, it has nothing to do with us!"

an elder pleaded desperately.

David's eyes were cold and unwavering. The sword light swept past, and the pleas for mercy ceased abruptly.

In the blink of an eye, only Ancestor Xuansha remained.

He trembled, looking at David, who was like a god of death, his heart filled with endless regret and fear. He never dreamed that his sect

, with its thousand-year history, would suffer such a catastrophic disaster because of the callous words of an inner disciple!

"Why...why..."

Chapter 5690

He asked hoarsely, still finding it hard to believe. David looked at him and said calmly, "If you raise a child without teaching him, it's the father's fault. If you teach without strictness, it's the teacher's laziness. Your Xuan Yin Sha Sect is crooked from top to bottom; you deserve this retribution."

Before he finished speaking, the Dragon-Slaying Sword had already transformed into a streak of light, piercing through the Xuan Sha Ancestor's brow.

The Xuan Sha Ancestor's eyes widened, and his body slowly fell. The last thing he saw was David's indifferent figure as he sheathed his sword, and the words that echoed in his mind.

Only in death did he understand that the root cause of the sect's destruction was his and his elders' usual indulgence of their disciples' conduct and their own improper behavior.

David didn't even look at the corpses on the ground. His divine sense swept across the entire Xuan Yin Sha Sect, plundering its treasure trove of resources accumulated over hundreds of years.

After doing all this, he turned and left without hesitation, his figure disappearing into the vast sky.

Behind him lay only the blood-soaked, utterly lifeless Xuan Yin Sha Sect.

The ancestors of the Xuan Yin Sha Sect, even in heaven, would never have imagined that the sect's destruction would begin with a few sarcastic remarks from an inner disciple they considered their pride, directed at a "meddling" passerby.

"Boy, where to next?" the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord asked.

"Back to the Yama Heavenly Sect, of course, to absorb and refine these resources..."

David finished speaking and headed towards the Yama Heavenly Sect.

But after flying for only a short while, David suddenly felt a pang of fear, and then the dragon crystal within Cen Biqing's body began to glow.

David was stunned, then his eyes blazed with excitement.

"The Demon Suppression Tower! The Demon Suppression Tower has appeared in the Ninth Heaven..."

With that, David followed the aura emanating from the dragon crystal and headed straight for the Demon Suppression Tower.

Following the increasingly intense light and clear senses emanating from the dragon crystal on his chest, David once again pinpointed the tower deep within a treacherous region of the Nine Heavens known as the "Void Rift"—the Demon-Suppressing Tower, a place that both haunted his dreams and instilled fear in him!

The tower remained majestic, soaring into the clouds, seemingly connecting heaven and earth.

At the four corners of its base, the four stone lions, inscribed with intricate celestial runes, seemed to possess a greater aura of liveliness and ferocity than when he had last seen them.
