Chapter 5693

David deliberately revealed his aura as a fifth-grade Human Immortal, making him inconspicuous on this battlefield where even Celestial Immortals were frequently involved.

Several bloodthirsty cultivators caught a glimpse of him, sensed his fifth-grade Human Immortal realm, but merely curled their lip in disdain, completely ignoring this lucky loser hiding in a corner, and instead sought out more worthy targets.

“Fight, fight as fiercely as possible,”

David sneered inwardly.

He was happy to have some peace and quiet, circulating his cultivation technique to stabilize his slightly improved cultivation level, which had just been restored after consuming the Nine-Turn Pill, while carefully observing the operation of the four stone lions and the entire protective formation.

Some sharp-eyed cultivators also spotted David. Seeing him cowardly hiding, they couldn't help but mock him:

“Hey! That hiding brat, a fifth-grade Human Immortal dares to wade into this mess? He's courting death!”

“Go home and suckle! This isn't a place for you!” “

A piece of trash, staying here is just an eyesore!”

Facing these taunts, David didn't even bother to lift his eyelids, completely ignoring them.

His mind was mostly immersed in the subtle connection between the dragon crystal on his chest and the Demon-Suppressing Tower.

The Crimson Cloud Demon Lord sneered in his sea of consciousness: “A bunch of fools, not even aware of their impending doom. Kid, you're quite composed.”

David replied: “Arguing with them is a waste of breath. When the snipe and the clam fight, the fisherman benefits. Let them both be weakened, or... find a way in.”

He felt the dragon crystal on his chest growing hotter and hotter, as if an invisible passage had been established between it and the Demon-Suppressing Tower.

The four stone lions seemed to react to the aura of the dragon crystal. The spatial pressure they emitted exerted a strange “affinity” on him, no longer as resolutely blocking others as they had on others.

The chaotic battle lasted for nearly an hour.

All sides suffered heavy casualties, and most of those still standing were wounded and their auras were weakened. Even the few Celestial Immortal cultivators were greatly exhausted from the mutual restraint and fighting.

The protective formation remained stable, but under the continuous impact of energy, it also rippled violently. Just when everyone was exhausted from fighting and temporarily stopped, standing guard warily and thinking about how to break the formation next—David moved! Like a cheetah that had been lying in wait for a long time, his figure transformed into a faint shadow that almost blended into space.

He did not rush straight towards the tower gate, but instead circled the four stone lions quickly in a mysterious trajectory. As he swept past, the eerie light in the eyes of the four stone lions flickered slightly, and the invisible spatial barrier parted like ripples in water, creating a gap for him! “Huh? What’s that kid doing?”

“He...he’s getting close to the formation!” “Oh no! He’s going in!” someone cried out in shock and anger. But it was too late! David’s figure flashed before the tower gate, disappearing instantly like a drop of water merging into the ocean. The spatial barrier that had parted immediately returned to its original state after he entered, firmly blocking several hastily launched magical attacks.

The entire chaotic battlefield suddenly fell silent. Everyone stared in disbelief at the tightly closed gate of the Demon-Suppressing Tower and the four stone lions that still exuded a chilling aura.

That kid they had mocked, ignored, and thought was just there to make up the numbers, a mere fifth-grade Human Immortal...he had actually entered so easily? “How...how did he do that?”

“Did he find a loophole in the formation?” “Damn it! We fought tooth and nail, and some ant got away with it!” “bas! When he gets out, we’ll tear him to pieces!”

Roars of anger, regret, and jealousy echoed through the rift, but at this moment, besides their impotent rage, they could only watch helplessly as the Demon-Suppressing Tower appeared

Chapter 5694

At this moment, David had already stepped into the bizarre and layered inner world of the Demon-Suppressing Tower.

He sensed Cen Biqing and Lao Hei's increasingly clear auras, his gaze fixed resolutely on the depths of the tower.

"Xiao Qing, Lao Hei, I'm here..."

"Boy, I sense something's wrong." In his sea of consciousness, the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord's voice was grave. "The tower's aura is very violent, the spatial fluctuations are extremely unstable, as if it's been enraged by something, or rather... it's on guard against something."

David nodded; he sensed it too.

This time, the Demon-Suppressing Tower was like an ancient, ferocious beast that had been disturbed, baring its hideous fangs.

"No matter what, I must go in!"

David's tone was firm.

He had promised to rescue them!

David adjusted his breathing, raising his state to its peak, and then his figure transformed into a streak of light, rushing straight towards the tower gate!

However, just as he approached within a hundred feet of the tower, a sudden change occurred!

"Roar—!!!"

The four stone lions seemed to have fully awakened, simultaneously letting out a deafening roar!

The Celestial Venerable runes on their bodies suddenly lit up, shooting out four thick beams of white light that intertwined in the air, instantly forming a light net covering the entire tower area!

On the light net, runes flowed, radiating an aura of confinement and destruction!

At the same time, the space in front of David shattered inch by inch like glass, forming countless extremely sharp spatial fragments, accompanied by violent spatial turbulence, sweeping towards him!

This was no longer a simple barrier, but a deadly array combining spatial tearing!

“Well done!”

David was prepared, and his Heavenly Eye instantly activated, clearly revealing the incredibly complex array structure and spatial nodes before him.

“Slash!”

The Dragon-Slaying Sword was drawn with a clang, emitting a high-pitched dragon roar!

David unleashed his newly comprehended sword intent to its fullest extent, unleashing a condensed, five-colored sword aura imbued with the power to cleave space!

Sizzle!

The sword aura collided with the net of light, producing a piercing tearing sound.

The net of light, capable of easily annihilating a Celestial Immortal cultivator, was forcibly torn open by the Dragon-Slaying Sword, which fused with sword intent and spatial power!

The spatial turbulence and fragments had already reached him! David's figure flickered like a ghost, dodging several fatal spatial rifts in the nick of time, while simultaneously wielding the Dragon-Slaying Sword to shatter the incoming spatial fragments one by one!

Each collision erupted with dazzling sparks and violent spatial tremors.

David's arms were numb from the shock, and his blood surged.

The power of this spatial killing array far exceeded his expectations!

“Don't try to withstand it head-on, find the array's core!” the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord warned.

David's Heavenly Eye rapidly scanned, instantly locking onto the core runes on the foreheads of the four stone lions that were constantly outputting energy!

“Break!”

he shouted, the power of the five elements within his body surging wildly, converging at the tip of his sword. He became one with his sword, transforming into a rapidly spinning drill, defying the raging spatial turbulence, and thrusting four swords at the foreheads of the four stone lions!

Clang!

Clang!

Clang!

Clang!

Four clear, resonant sounds, like the striking of jade chimes, rang out almost simultaneously!

The four stone lions abruptly froze, the runes between their brows dimming instantly.

The massive net of light also trembled and weakened considerably.

David seized this fleeting opportunity, his figure flashing like lightning as he darted through the weak point of the net, simultaneously slashing his sword fiercely at the newly formed yellow runes on the tower gate!

Boom!

The runes shattered, and the tower gate swung open! Without hesitation, David stepped into the familiar, decaying space within the tower!

Stepping inside, David's expression instantly changed!

The scene on the first floor was vastly different from when he last left!

The scattered corpses and bones had mostly vanished!

In their place stood a massive, complex, and eerie array emanating a dense black aura in the center of the ground.

Chapter 5695

In the center of the formation, a small number of the freshest, remaining corpses were piled up, melting at a visible rate, turning into pure black corpse energy, which was being absorbed by the formation.

The corpse energy on the entire first floor was so dense that it was almost tangible, suffocating everyone.

“What’s going on? Where are the corpses?”

David’s alarm bells rang in his mind.

“Not good!”

The Crimson Cloud Demon Lord’s voice was urgent, “It seems that your intrusion last time alerted some being within the tower. It accelerated the absorption of corpse energy, probably to recover its power, or... to prepare something!”

Just then, the black light of the central formation intensified, and a ferocious figure, three zhang tall and entirely condensed from dense corpse energy, slowly stood up!

It had no facial features, only two scarlet points of light serving as eyes, radiating endless violence and deathly stillness!

“Intruder... Die!”

The Corpse King emitted a hoarse, twisted mental wave, brandishing its enormous claws formed from corpse energy, and lunged at David with a stench that filled the air!

Even the air itself was corroded in its wake!

“A mere corpse demon dares to block my way!”

David, though startled, remained calm. His Dragon-Slaying Sword erupted with a dazzling golden light; the golden dragon energy had a natural advantage against such sinister creatures!

“Golden Dragon Breaks Evil!”

A golden dragon-shaped sword aura roared forth, instantly piercing the Corpse King’s chest!

The dense corpse energy melted away rapidly, like ice and snow meeting the sun.

However, the Corpse King only paused briefly; more corpse energy surged from the surrounding array to replenish it, and the hole in its chest instantly healed!

It roared and pounced again, faster and stronger than ever!

“If this array isn’t broken, it’s practically immortal!”

David frowned deeply. He tried attacking the ground array, but it was exceptionally sturdy and connected to the entire tower, making it difficult to destroy in a short time.

“Don’t linger!”

David made a decisive move, his figure blurring as he dodged the Corpse King’s attack and charged directly towards the stairs leading to the second floor.

The Corpse King roared and chased after them, but was blocked by an invisible force at the top of the stairs, only able to roar angrily in place. Stepping onto the second floor

, the scene before David changed again.

The hundreds of naked corpses and demonic beasts still stood, but now their eyes were all open, flashing with an eerie light!

The entire second floor was filled with a thick, impenetrable pink mist, and the air was filled with a sweet, intoxicating fragrance. As soon as David stepped in, the “corpses” actually moved, making all sorts of extremely seductive and obscene movements, emitting seductive sounds.

The pink mist was all-pervasive, trying to penetrate David’s seven orifices and erode his consciousness.

“These despicable methods again!”

David snorted coldly, maintaining a clear mind.

His powerful soul and unwavering will made it difficult for these alluring forces to truly affect him.

But the illusion before him did not disappear; instead, it became even more real.

He even saw Lin Keting, Bai Qian, Gu Ling’er, and even Cen Biqing walking towards him with extremely alluring postures...

“Illusory things, how dare you disturb my Dao heart!”

A fierce glint flashed in David's eyes, and he held nothing back.

He took a deep breath, and the boundless sword intent within his body erupted!

Buzz—!

An invisible sword intent domain spread out from him!

Within the domain, sword energy crisscrossed, and all illusions were annihilated!

Those writhing "corpses," pink mist, and alluring illusions, under the impact of the supremely powerful and pure sword intent, shattered and dissipated like bubbles in the sunlight!

The entire second floor instantly returned to clarity, leaving only the truly lifeless corpses, frozen in place, devoid of any abnormality.

"Sword intent actually has the effect of dispelling illusions!" David was overjoyed, his understanding of this new power deepening.

He didn't linger and quickly ascended to the third floor.
