Chapter 5696

The third floor remained brightly lit, carrying Cen Biqing's distinctive, faint fragrance.

However, David could immediately tell that Cen Biqing was in poor condition.

Her face was pale, her breath weak, and her once vibrant blue dress was now stained with wisps of glaring black energy, which seemed to be alive, constantly eroding her dragon essence and soul.

She sat cross-legged on the ground, resisting with all her might. Seeing David arrive, her beautiful eyes first flashed with surprise, then turned to anxiety.

"Mr. Chen! Quickly! Inside the tower... the core of the tower's seal has been triggered; it's repelling and attacking all dragons!"

Cen Biqing cried weakly.

"What happened? Where's Lao Hei?"

David darted forward, his palm imbued with pure golden dragon energy, pressing it against Cen Biqing's back to help her dispel the black energy.

"Old Hei is on the fourth floor; the situation is probably worse."

Cen Biqing, relieved of some pressure after receiving David's help, said urgently, "Shortly after you left last time, an ancient and angry will resounded within the tower.

It accused us of attracting outsiders and disturbing our slumber.

Then, the restrictive power on each floor surged and began actively attacking us, the suppressed ones.

This black energy is the manifestation of the sealing power; it's devouring our strength!"

"An ancient will?"

David's heart sank. "Is it the spirit of the Demon-Suppressing Tower? Or...something from a higher level?"

Just then, at the stairwell leading to the fourth floor, space distorted, and a sinister voice echoed: "Hehe, little Azure Dragon girl is right.

Golden Dragon boy, you shouldn't have come again. But since you're here, leave your Golden Dragon bloodline behind!"

Before the words were finished, a condensed, almost tangible black dragon breath, carrying a terrifying power capable of corroding everything and freezing the soul, suddenly erupted from the stairwell, striking David directly in the back!

The attack came suddenly and ruthlessly, its timing impeccable. It struck just as David was focused on healing Cen Biqing, his attention momentarily diverted!

"Watch out!"

Cen Biqing cried out in alarm. David reacted with lightning speed, shoving Cen Biqing towards a safe corner. Simultaneously, he turned, his Dragon-Slaying Sword held horizontally in front of him, instantly activating the Five Elements Shield!

Boom!

The black dragon breath slammed into the Five Elements Shield, unleashing a violent explosion! David shuddered violently, the shield flickering, and he was propelled backward several feet by the immense force. A sweet taste rose in his throat, and he nearly vomited blood.

The dark power contained within the dragon breath was actually trying to erode his meridians through the shield!

"Who is it?"

David stared coldly towards the stairwell.

There, black light converged, condensing into a small but jet-black dragon shadow, its scales shimmering with metallic luster, its eyes bloodshot and filled with savagery.

It wasn't a physical entity, but rather formed from pure demonic energy and a dragon soul!

"A demonic dragon?"

David's pupils contracted.

This was a mutated branch of the dragon race, fallen into demonic ways, cruel in nature, and taking pleasure in devouring the bloodlines of other dragons.

“Tsk tsk, as expected of the Golden Dragon bloodline, truly a great tonic.”

The Demon Dragon Soul licked its lips, its greed intensifying. “I’ve been imprisoned in this dark and sunless tower for countless years, and today I can finally have some meat! If I eat you, perhaps I can break through this damned seal!”

It turned out that this Demon Dragon Soul was also suppressed in the Demon Suppression Tower. Sensing David’s Golden Dragon aura, it didn’t hesitate to expend its soul source to forcibly break through part of the restrictions and launch a sneak attack!

“Want to eat me? I’m afraid you don’t have such good teeth!”

David suppressed his surging blood and qi, pointing his Dragon-Slaying Sword at the Demon Dragon Soul, his fighting spirit rising.

He realized that this rescue mission was far more dangerous than he had imagined!

Inside this Demon Suppression Tower, there were not only imprisoned individuals, but also such a malicious being!

The Demon Dragon Soul roared, no longer wasting words, and transformed into a black lightning bolt

, rushing towards David! It was extremely fast, its claws tearing through the air with a piercing shriek.

Chapter 5697

David swung his sword to meet the attack, and golden light clashed fiercely with the black energy!

Clang! Clang! Clang!

Clang! In an instant, the roars of dragons and the howls of swords echoed throughout the third floor, as golden light and black energy intertwined and exploded, turning the entire space upside down.

Cen Biqing, watching from the sidelines, was terrified but unable to help, only able to focus on defending against the black energy within her body.

Although this demonic dragon soul was only a soul form, its strength was extremely formidable, at least equivalent to a third-grade Celestial Immortal!

Moreover, it was experienced in combat, its moves ruthless and cunning, specifically targeting David's vital points and soul.

David used his sword intent, the power of the five elements, and time slowing techniques to their fullest extent, barely managing to hold its own.

However, since the opponent was a soul form, physical attacks were greatly reduced in effectiveness, and its demonic dragon breath posed a significant threat to David's soul.

"Boy, this won't do! Its core is that Demon Dragon Soul Crystal, located between its eyebrows! Find a way to attack that!" Crimson Cloud Demon Lord warned.

David also noticed this. He deliberately created an opening, and the Demon Dragon Soul fell for it, its claw reaching for David's wide-open chest.

"Now!"

David's eyes flashed with a sharp light, and he activated the Law of Time!

The Demon Dragon Soul's movements slowed down by a fraction of a second!

At the same time, the Great Luo Golden Scripture in David's sea of consciousness seemed to sense the threat of the Demon Soul, trembling slightly and emitting a vast and pure Yang aura!

"Divine Soul Impact, Slash!"

David seized the opportunity, merging the pure Yang aura emanating from the Great Luo Golden Scripture into his own divine consciousness, transforming it into an invisible golden sword, which followed the Demon Dragon Soul's claw, piercing straight for the Soul Crystal between its eyebrows!

"Ah—!"

The Demon Dragon Soul let out an extremely shrill scream! That pure Yang aura was extremely harmful to a demon soul like it!

The Soul Crystal between its eyebrows flickered violently, the black energy dissipated, and its entire soul body became somewhat transparent.

“Strike while the iron is hot!”

David showed no mercy, unleashing the strongest sword intent from his Dragon-Slaying Sword, unleashing the “Golden Dragon Rises Through the Sky” technique, which slashed fiercely at the Demon Dragon Soul’s neck!

Swoosh!

This time, the sword intent directly tore the soul apart! The demonic dragon soul let out a mournful howl of unwillingness, its soul body completely collapsing and transforming into pure soul energy. Most of it was absorbed by the Demon Suppression Tower, with only a small portion being automatically absorbed by the dragon crystal on David’s chest.

The battle ended, and David was also greatly exhausted, panting heavily.

He looked at the stairs leading to the fourth floor, where the light of the restriction seemed to have weakened somewhat due to the impact and death of the demonic dragon soul.

“Mr. Chen, are you alright?”

Cen Biqing asked with concern.

“I’m fine.”

David regulated his breathing for a moment, then walked to the stairs. “Let’s go up and find Old Hei!”

Stepping onto the fourth floor, the scene before him made David gasp.

The space on the fourth floor was much larger than the lower floors, but at this moment it was like a battlefield of carnage!

Old Hei was in an extremely abnormal state.

His eyes were bloodshot, and his body was surrounded by black demonic energy of the same origin as the demonic dragon soul, frantically attacking the surrounding void.

His scales were torn in many places, black blood flowing from them, and his aura was violent and unstable.

In the center of the space, the “treasures” that had once radiated a precious light had vanished, replaced by chains burning with black flames extending from the void.

These chains, like venomous snakes, lashed and coiled around Old Black, each strike intensifying his demonic energy and causing him to roar in agony.

“Old Black! Wake up!”

Cen Biqing cried anxiously.

However, Old Black, enraged, wouldn't listen, instead fixing his crimson eyes on David and Cen Biqing!

“Roar! I'll kill you! I'll devour you!”

Old Black roared, charging forward like a mad bull, enveloped in overwhelming demonic energy!

His strength was already formidable, but now, possessed by demons, his power surged even further, faintly reaching the Heavenly Immortal realm!

Chapter 5698

“His mind has been corrupted by demonic energy and these chains!” David instantly realized.

This fourth floor was nothing short of a trap, amplifying evil thoughts and luring people into demonic possession! Those so-called “treasure” illusions were just bait!

Old Hei's mind was relatively simple, making him easier to exploit!

Facing the frantically charging Old Hei, David couldn't deliver a fatal blow, only able to passively defend and parry.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Old Hei's fists crashed down like meteors, each strike containing the power to shatter mountains and split the earth.

David, relying on his exquisite footwork and sword intent, maneuvered around them, the Dragon-Slaying Sword colliding with Old Hei's fists, producing a deafening metallic clang. David

's blood surged from the impact, his tiger's mouth splitting open.

Killing Lao Hei would be easy for David, but controlling him without harming him was a different story.

David hesitated, constantly retreating.

"Mr. Chen, this won't do! We must awaken him!"

Cen Biqing tried to soothe him with the Azure Dragon's Voice, but the sound waves were easily deflected by the demonic energy surrounding Lao Hei.

"I know!"

David struggled to defend himself while observing.

He discovered that the black flame chains were the key!

They weren't just attacking Lao Hei, but also continuously injecting demonic energy into his body!

"I must sever these chains first!"

David's eyes sharpened, and he abruptly activated all the sword intent within him, transforming himself into a drawn sword!

"Slash!"

A highly condensed, thread-like sword aura, seemingly capable of splitting yin and yang, shot out, its target not Lao Hei, but the black chains connecting him!

Chichichichi!

The sword aura severed several chains in response! The broken chains emitted a sharp screech as they dissipated into black mist.

The chains snapped, and Old Black's body jolted violently. The crimson in his eyes faded slightly, and his movements froze for a moment.

"Now!"

David seized the opportunity, lunging forward and pressing his palm against Lao Hei's forehead. The pure, regal golden dragon essence surged into Lao Hei's consciousness without reservation! "

Lao Hei! Wake up! You are a noble black dragon, how can you be controlled by demonic thoughts!”

The golden dragon essence, like the sun melting snow, rapidly purified the demonic energy in Lao Hei’s consciousness. Lao Hei let out a painful roar, his body trembling violently, but the crimson in his eyes was rapidly receding.

A moment later, Lao Hei’s massive body shuddered violently, vomiting a mouthful of foul-smelling black blood. The madness in his eyes finally vanished completely, and clarity returned.

“Mr...Mr. Chen...I...” Lao Hei looked at David and his disheveled state, his face filled with fear and guilt.

David withdrew his hand, his face somewhat pale. The continuous high-intensity battle and exhaustion had taken their toll.

Having rescued Lao Hei, David didn’t dare delay and immediately went to the stairs leading to the fifth floor.

The protective barrier here was incredibly thick, with runes flowing across it like living tadpoles, emitting a chilling spatial repulsion force.

“That pseudo-dragon guy on the fifth floor is incredibly cunning; he ambushed us last time,”

David said in a deep voice.

“Let’s attack together!”

Lao Hei, now recovered, was full of fighting spirit.

David, Cen Biqing, and Lao Hei stood in a triangular formation.

David circulated his Five Elements Origin and sword intent, Cen Biqing activated the Azure Dragon Power, and Lao Hei unleashed the Black Dragon’s brute force.

“Attack!”

The three attacked simultaneously! A five-colored sword aura, a blue dragon breath, and a black shockwave slammed into the protective barrier on the fifth floor!

Rumble—!

The entire Demon Suppression Tower shook violently! The protective barrier flickered wildly, the runes on it flashing and cracking, but it stubbornly remained unbroken!

“Not enough!”

David gritted his teeth.

He could sense that the restriction was connected to the core of the entire tower, and its power was continuous.

Chapter 5699

“Boy, use your blood!” the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord suddenly shouted. “Your Golden Dragon bloodline is the supreme among all dragons, possessing a natural suppressive power against this tower specifically designed to suppress dragons! Use your blood as a catalyst, force a resonance!” Upon hearing this, David unhesitatingly slashed his palm with the Dragon-Slaying Sword, sprinkling golden blood containing the pure essence of the Golden Dragon onto the barrier’s light screen! *

Sizzle!*

The blood, upon contact with the light screen, reacted like cold water dripping into hot oil, instantly boiling!

The runes on the light screen seemed to have encountered their nemesis; their light dimmed rapidly, and the sturdy barrier became as unstable as ripples on water.

“Now! Combine your strength, break!”

David roared, and the three of them unleashed their strongest attack once more, concentrating their strikes on the blood-stained area!

*Crack!

A sound like shattering glass rang out! The protective light barrier on the fifth floor was finally blasted open, leaving a gaping hole!

“Go!”

David charged ahead, rushing into the fifth floor.

Cen Biqing and Lao Hei followed closely behind.

The fifth floor wasn't a simple hall, but a constantly shifting, layered spatial maze!

Countless smooth, mirror-like walls stood, moved, disappeared, and reappeared, reflecting countless images of David and his companions, making it dizzying and disorienting.

Distorted light and chaotic spatial fluctuations permeated the space.

"Hehe, hehe... Here they come again? With two helpers too?"

A childlike voice came from all directions, its source impossible to pinpoint.

"You cowardly coward, show yourself!"

Lao Hei roared, punching a wall.

Boom!

The wall shattered, but new walls immediately appeared behind it, seemingly endless.

"Useless, Lao Hei." David scanned the maze with his Heavenly Eye, attempting to decipher its patterns, but the spatial laws contained within were extremely profound, making it difficult to unravel in a short time.

"This is my home turf! You can play slowly, play until you die!"

The voice was full of mockery.

Suddenly, countless distorted beams of light shot out simultaneously from the surrounding mirrored walls. These beams contained chaotic and disintegrating power, striking the three from various tricky angles!

The three immediately stood back to back, each using their own methods to defend. David's sword intent swept across the maze, annihilating the beams;

Cen Bi's azure dragon breath formed a shield; Lao Hei, with his thick skin and tough flesh, withstood the attacks.

But the beams of light were endless, and as the maze shifted, the attacks became increasingly dense and the angles increasingly bizarre.

“We can’t just passively take this beating!”

David’s mind raced, recalling the spatial insights he gained in the fourth-floor alternate dimension, and the essence of the Demon Suppression Tower—it was formed from the natal demon core of a demon race grand lord, its core being the laws of space!

“I understand!”

A flash of realization crossed David’s eyes. “This maze isn’t invincible! It also has a core node! Find it, and we can break the deadlock!”

He stopped blindly attacking the walls and instead combined his divine sense with his Heavenly Eye, focusing all his energy on perceiving the flow of spatial energy throughout the maze.

He abandoned visual interference, relying solely on spatial perception to “see.”

A moment later, he suddenly opened his eyes, his Dragon-Slaying Sword pointing at a seemingly ordinary, constantly moving corner of the maze!

“There! Attack that point!”

Although Cen Biqing and Lao Hei didn’t understand, they trusted David implicitly and immediately changed direction, attacking the point David had pointed to with all their might!

Boom!

The combined attack of the three of them accurately struck the spatial node!

The entire spatial maze trembled violently, all the moving walls instantly stopped, and then shattered and disappeared like phantoms!

The true appearance of the fifth floor was revealed—a not-so-spacious stone chamber.

In the center of the chamber, squatting was a boy dressed in a floral dress, with a topknot, who looked only seven or eight years old.

But the boy’s eyes were filled with vicissitudes and cunning. His face was pale and a trace of blood was spilling from the corner of his mouth. Clearly, the destruction of the spatial maze had caused him to suffer a backlash.

Chapter 5700

“You...how could you possibly find my spatial node?”

The boy, a cultivator of the pseudo-dragon lineage, stared at David in disbelief.

“Your understanding of spatial principles is still far from sufficient,”

David said coldly, pointing his Dragon-Slaying Sword at him. “Now, can we have a proper talk? Or do you want to follow in the footsteps of that demonic dragon soul?”

Sensing the sharp sword intent and pure golden dragon pressure emanating from David, the pseudo-dragon boy’s arrogance vanished instantly, replaced by fear.

He could sense that this golden dragon’s son was completely different from the one he had met last time; his strength and methods had undergone a dramatic transformation.

Under the intimidation of David’s martial prowess and the natural pressure of the golden dragon bloodline, the pseudo-dragon boy—who called himself “Thousand Faces”—finally became obedient and revealed the information he knew.

According to him, the Demon-Suppressing Tower has nine levels. The lower three levels mostly imprison ordinary dragons or sub-dragons who have committed offenses; the middle three levels imprison some stronger dragons or those with special bloodlines, as well as pseudo-dragons like himself who are skilled in transformation and disguise; and the upper three levels are extremely mysterious, even he knows very little about them, only that they imprison ancient dragons who have truly angered ancient powerful beings, or who bear enormous karma, or even... the sin kings among the dragons!

The sudden strengthening of the restrictions within the tower and their attack on the imprisoned individuals likely originated from the upper three levels, where some ancient being awakened a portion of its consciousness and orchestrated everything.

Its purpose seems to be to absorb the power of all the imprisoned dragons to break through the final seal!

“Break through the seal?”

David frowned. “What would happen if it broke through?”

“I don’t know.”

Thousand Faces shook his head, a hint of fear flashing in his eyes. “But it would definitely be a disaster. None of those imprisoned in the upper three levels are simple. And its current method of frantically absorbing power is inherently destructive.”

David sensed the seriousness of the situation.

He not only had to rescue Cen Biqing and Lao Hei, but also had to stop the being on the upper three levels!

Otherwise, if it escapes, the consequences would be unimaginable.

“Can you open the restrictions leading to the sixth floor and above?” David asked Qianmian. Qianmian looked distressed: “I can’t

. The restrictions between the middle three floors and the upper three floors are the strongest in the tower, directly controlled by the tower’s core. Unless you can approach or even control the core, no one can go up.”

“Where is the core?”

“I don’t know. Legend says the core is inside the tower, but its location is unpredictable; it might be on any floor, or it might be in a separate mezzanine.”

David pondered for a moment, deciding to try communicating with the core first. He concentrated his mind, spreading his pure golden dragon bloodline aura and friendly intentions like ripples throughout the entire tower.

“Demon-Suppressing Tower! I am David, son of the Golden Dragon. I sensed the disturbance within the tower and have come to quell it! Please show yourself!”

His voice, imbued with dragon might and sincerity, echoed within the tower.

Initially, there was no response. But after a while, the entire Demon-Suppressing Tower suddenly trembled violently!

Immediately afterward, a cold, vast, and emotionless will descended like a tidal wave, enveloping the entire fifth floor!

“Golden Dragon... Bloodline... Intruder... Disrupting... Order... Must be punished!”

This will was intermittent, filled with chaos and violence, but the power it contained was terrifying, far surpassing any opponent David had encountered before!

Boom!

In the center of the fifth floor, space distorted, and a gigantic, semi-transparent figure, formed from countless runes and spatial power, slowly emerged.

It had no fixed form, sometimes resembling a dragon, sometimes a tower, radiating a terrifying aura of suppression!

This was the spirit of the Demon-Suppressing Tower!

Or rather, the spirit influenced, even partially controlled, by the ancient being on the upper three floors!

The moment the spirit appeared, it launched its attack without hesitation!
