

A Man Like None Other Novel Chapter 5751

Full Read Online Chapter 5751 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5751

The black-robed leader's attention was entirely focused on the beastman before him; he hadn't expected someone to launch a sudden and ruthless attack from his side and rear, and with such terrifying strength!

By the time he felt the bone-chilling killing intent and the unparalleled sharpness of the sword energy, it was already too late!

In his haste, he could only hold the Myriad Soul Banner horizontally in front of him, channeling all his demonic energy. Ghostly shadows swirled across the banner's surface, attempting to block the attack.

However, before David's supreme sword strike, a fusion of multiple laws and driven by chaotic immortal power, his defense was as flimsy as paper!

"Swoosh—!"

There was no deafening roar, only a soft sound, like cloth being torn.

The five-colored sword energy sliced through butter like a hot knife through butter, easily penetrating the layers of black energy protecting the Myriad Souls Banner, and then precisely piercing through the black-robed leader's brow!

The black-robed leader froze instantly, his face still showing shock and disbelief, his pupils rapidly dilating.

The next moment, his body, like a sand sculpture weathered by time, began to crack from his brow, countless spiderweb-like fissures appearing, and then with a "bang," his soul and the spirit within were annihilated, turning to ashes!

Only the broken Myriad Souls Banner and a storage ring clattered to the ground.

Silence!

Deathly silence!

The sinister smiles on the faces of the remaining four black-robed men instantly froze, replaced by boundless fear and horror!

They hadn't even seen how the newcomer appeared, and their strongest leader had already been instantly killed?!

The two beastmen were also stunned. The dazed feeling of surviving the ordeal made them forget to react for a moment, staring blankly at the tall figure who had suddenly appeared, dressed in a blue robe and holding a blood-dripping longsword.

David established his authority with a single sword strike, without pausing. The Dragon-Slaying Sword emitted a pleasant hum, the sword moving with him!

“Space-Time Domain, open!”

Centered on him, the space within a ten-zhang radius was slightly distorted, and the flow of time became viscous and slow!

The four black-robed men, whose strength ranged from the second to the fourth rank of the Heavenly Immortal Realm, immediately felt as if they were sinking into an invisible quagmire. Every movement became extremely difficult, and the circulation of demonic energy within their bodies became extremely obscure!

“Die!”

The cold word came from David's mouth.

The sword light rose again, like the scythe of death, drawing a fatal trajectory within the narrow space-time domain.

“No!” “Spare me!” The shrill screams and pleas for mercy stopped abruptly. A flash of sword light, and four heads shot into the air, their faces filled with terror and despair.

The headless corpses swayed and fell, blood gushing out like a fountain, staining the ground red. Their souls, attempting to escape, were pulverized by the lingering sword energy within the domain.

From David's appearance to the complete annihilation of the five disciples of the Myriad Souls Demon Sect, the entire process took only a few breaths! Clean, swift, and thunderous! David stood with his sword, his robes fluttering, untouched by dust. He slowly turned around, looking at the two beastmen who were still in shock.

At this moment, David felt good! But reason told him that he couldn't be blindly confident and pretentious anymore. Otherwise, he would easily be proven wrong. “Thank you...

Thank you for saving my life, senior!” The tiger-striped man was the first to react, enduring the excruciating pain, struggling to kneel on one knee, his voice trembling slightly from excitement and injuries.

The leopard-tailed woman also quickly knelt down, her eyes filled with gratitude and awe. “No need for formalities.” David raised his hand in a gesture of support, a gentle force lifting the two men to their feet. His gaze swept over the corpses on the ground and the tattered Ten Thousand Souls Banner, his brows furrowing slightly.

“You just said they were from the Ten Thousand Souls Demon Sect? They frequently come to plunder your Beast Soul Crystal mines?” “Exactly!” the tiger-striped man gritted his teeth,

“These demon bass have become increasingly rampant in recent decades! Not only do they hunt down our clansmen who are alone on the outskirts, extracting their souls to cultivate evil arts, but they also covet the Beast Soul Crystal mines nurtured deep within the mountains! Senior, you...”

David didn’t answer immediately. He walked to the spot where the black-robed leader had vanished, and remotely retrieved the storage ring and the tattered Ten Thousand Souls Banner. He forcibly broke through the remaining restrictions on the storage ring with his divine sense. Inside, besides some commonly used demonic pills, materials, and a not-too-large number of spirit stones, there wasn’t much of value.

There were also no clues about the Soul Devouring Venerable or the core secrets of the Ten Thousand Souls Demon Sect. His gaze fell upon the lingering, not-yet-completely-dissipated flesh and remnant souls of the black-robed figures..

Its tacit understanding with David also increased day by day; often, a single glance was enough for them to understand each other’s intentions.

After traveling cautiously for about seven or eight days, the surrounding forest finally began to thin out.

The tall trees were gradually replaced by low shrubs, the sky opened up, and the dense, untamed, and fierce aura in the air gradually faded, replaced by a more orderly and clear spiritual energy.

David knew he was about to leave this vast forest that had taught him his first lesson.

Just as David was about to step out of the last patch of bushes at the edge of the forest, a series of intense sounds of clashing weapons, the roar of energy explosions, and angry shouts clearly reached his ears.

A Man Like None Other Novel Chapter 5752

Full Read Online Chapter 5752 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5752

Soul Searching Technique!

Although the information obtained from searching remnant souls would be incomplete and could easily lead to unpredictable consequences, it was currently the most direct method to obtain information about the Myriad Souls Demon Sect.

To find the Soul Devouring Lord and uncover the secrets of the Myriad Souls Demon Sect, taking a risk was worthwhile!

David no longer hesitated, his hands swiftly forming an ancient and complex hand seal.

An incomparably powerful divine sense, like an invisible tentacle, instantly enveloped the scattered fragments of remnant souls, about to forcibly invade and strip away their memories.

However, just as his divine sense touched those remnant souls, before it even began to deeply search them,

A sudden change occurred!

A terrifying will, indescribable in its coldness, evil, and vastness like an endless starry sky, seemed to pierce through layers of spatial barriers, ignoring the obstacles of distance, and suddenly descended upon this place!

This will was filled with violence, destruction, and an indifferent gaze upon all living beings!

The sky seemed to darken instantly.

A gigantic hand, composed entirely of the purest and most condensed soul power, appeared out of thin air above David's head!

This gigantic hand blotted out the sky and sun, its fingerprints clearly visible, as if compressed and condensed from countless wailing souls, radiating supreme majesty that made the laws of heaven and earth tremble and space itself begin to distort and collapse!

It made no fancy movements, simply and simply, slowly, yet irresistibly, pressing down upon David and the surrounding area of several dozen feet!

Before the gigantic hand had even truly landed, its terrifying pressure, like a tangible burden weighing billions of tons, crashed down upon David's heart and soul!

He felt his breath stop instantly, his blood almost freeze, his bones groan under the unbearable pressure, and even his thoughts became sluggish!

This was an absolute crushing on a life level!

The strength of the one who attacked him had definitely reached the seventh rank of the Celestial Immortal Realm, or even higher!

“Not good! It's a top expert from the Myriad Souls Demon Sect! They actually planted such a powerful tracking and counterattack restriction in the souls of these disciples!”

David's heart was filled with horrified shock, and his soul seemed to tremble!

He did not doubt that if this ethereal hand pressed down on him, he would be annihilated, leaving not even ashes!

Escape! He had to escape! All his thoughts converged into this one word in an instant! He couldn't muster the slightest will to resist! “Go!” David let out a low roar, his supreme fire ignited, he activated the Fire Control Step, and his indestructible golden body protected him!

With a sudden grab of his left hand, a gentle force swept up the terrified Shi Yan and the leopard-tailed woman, Ying Wu, while his right hand pulled the frightened little fire unicorn into his embrace!

“Spatial Folding, Escape!” He unleashed the pinnacle of his current understanding of spatial laws, forcibly distorting the space before him, his figure becoming a blurry blur.

Like a streak of light existing between reality and illusion, he fled desperately towards the open area beyond the forest, in the opposite direction of the falling ethereal hand! His speed was almost beyond the limits of visual perception! The instant his figure vanished... “Boom—!!!!” The enormous hand finally slammed down.

There was no earth-shattering explosion as expected, only a chilling sound of annihilation, as if everything had been reduced to nothingness!

The area where the hand pressed down shattered like a broken mirror, then collapsed and contracted, ultimately forming a bottomless, absolute void about ten zhang in diameter!

The light, air, soil, rocks, and even the most basic spiritual energy and fragments of laws of heaven and earth all vanished, leaving only the most essential, deathly silence!

A terrifying shockwave, like an invisible tsunami, relentlessly pursued the direction David had fled! Wherever it passed, deep furrows were plowed into the ground, and vegetation turned to dust! Even though David had already fled far away, the edge of the pursuing shockwave still slammed heavily into his indestructible golden body! ”

David was struck as if by a heavy blow, his body staggering, and the blood spurting from his mouth drew a tragic arc in the air. He endured the excruciating pain that felt as if his internal organs had shifted and the shock to his soul, using the impact to increase his speed once more, recklessly speeding away without looking back

A Man Like None Other Novel Chapter 5753

Full Read Online Chapter 5753 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5753

He dared not linger for a moment, pushing his speed to the limit. He even relentlessly used short-range spatial teleportation repeatedly, disregarding the energy expenditure, until he felt the terrifying, clinging feeling of being locked on gradually dissipate, and the chilling aura of annihilation behind him recede into the distance. Only then did he dare to slow down slightly.

Like a meteorite, he crashed into a very secluded, narrow cave covered in vines.

“Thump!”

He landed heavily on the cave floor, coughing up several mouthfuls of blood, his face as pale as paper, his breathing erratic.

His desperate escape had almost exhausted most of his immortal power and mental energy.

The two of them were also dazed and confused from the fall, but fortunately, David had protected them, resulting in only superficial injuries.

The little fire-breathing qilin anxiously licked the blood from David’s lips, letting out a mournful whimper.

It took David a full incense stick's time to calm his churning blood and trembling soul, but the internal injuries and depleted immortal power couldn't be recovered in a short time.

He recalled the scene with lingering fear; the powerful Wanhun Demon Sect expert who had attacked from afar possessed unfathomable cultivation!

This Tenth Heaven was indeed a place where hidden dragons and crouching tigers lurked, fraught with danger!

“Senior... how are you?”

The tiger-striped man struggled to sit up, looking at David's pale face, asking with concern, his tone filled with gratitude and lingering fear.

The leopard-tailed woman also cast a concerned glance.

“It's nothing, I'll be fine after a short rest,”

David waved his hand, his voice somewhat hoarse. He looked out of the cave, his gaze grave.

“The person who just attacked was extremely powerful, likely a high-ranking member of the Myriad Souls Demon Sect, perhaps even the sect leader.”

The tiger-striped man and the leopard-tailed woman both showed fear upon hearing this.

The sect leader of the Myriad Souls Demon Sect was a monstrous demon infamous throughout the entire Tenth Heaven!

“Senior, why would you...”

The tiger-striped man hesitated, clearly puzzled by David's sudden intervention and the formidable enemy he had incurred. David looked at them and said in a deep voice, “I have some old grudges with the Myriad Souls Demon Sect. You call this place the Myriad Beasts Mountain Range, who are you?”

“We are disciples of the Myriad Beasts Sect!”

The tiger-striped man said. “This is Shi Yan, and this is Ying Wu. We are both patrol disciples of the Myriad Beasts Sect, responsible for guarding this outer area to prevent outsiders from trespassing and... to deal with harassment from the Myriad Souls Demon Sect.”

His voice lowered at the end.

David nodded.

The Myriad Beasts Sect sounded like the indigenous force of this vast mountain range, hostile to the Myriad Souls Demon Sect.

This suited him perfectly.

He needed to learn more about the Tenth Heaven, especially about the Myriad Souls Demon Sect, and these two local beastmen disciples were undoubtedly a good breakthrough point.

At the same time, saving them would also establish a good relationship with the Myriad Beasts Sect.

He looked at the two still-shaken individuals, and the little fire unicorn beside him, who looked at him expectantly, and his mind raced.

The Soul Devourer was hiding in the Myriad Souls Demon Sect, a powerful sect teeming with experts. With his current strength, going there rashly would be tantamount to throwing an egg against a rock.

Perhaps the Myriad Beasts Sect could serve as a temporary foothold and a source of information.

“This place is not safe to linger. Although that expert hasn’t personally pursued us, there’s no guarantee he won’t have follow-up measures.”

David stood up, his face still pale, but his eyes had regained their calm and sharpness. “Let’s leave here first and find a safe place to discuss this further. Do you know of any hidden places to stay nearby?”

Shi Yan and Ying Wu exchanged a glance, both seeing hope in each other’s eyes.

David was powerful and had a grudge against the Myriad Souls Demon Sect; if they could get his help, it would undoubtedly be a good thing for the Myriad Beasts Sect.

“Senior, we know a few hidden strongholds. Please follow us!”

Shi Yan struggled to his feet. Although his injuries were serious, his familiarity with the terrain allowed him to act as a guide.

David nodded, and with the little fire qilin, disappeared into the darkness deep within the cave.

A Man Like None Other Novel Chapter 5754

Full Read Online Chapter 5754 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5754

Led by Shi Yan and Ying Wu, David, with the little fire qilin, traversed rugged mountain paths and hidden trails.

Although both were seriously injured, they were extremely familiar with the terrain, avoiding several areas where dangerous monsters might lurk.

After traveling for about half a day, as the setting sun painted the sky orange-red, they arrived at a secluded valley nestled between two mountain peaks.

The valley entrance was obscured by dense vines and illusion arrays, making it extremely difficult to spot without a guide.

Passing through the illusion arrays, the valley opened up dramatically.

Dozens of houses built of massive stones and timber stood against the mountainside, with a relatively tall stone hall in the center. In the plaza in front of the hall stood a blurry stone sculpture of a colossal beast, exuding an ancient and desolate aura.

Some cultivators with distinct beast-like features were active in the valley, some cultivating, some patrolling, and some processing the materials from the hunted demon beasts.

This was the Rock Valley, an important stronghold of the Ten Thousand Beasts Sect located on the outskirts of the Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range.

Seeing Shi Yan and Ying Wu return with a strange human youth and a powerful-looking Qilin cub, the beast-like cultivators in the valley cast curious and scrutinizing glances.

Especially when they sensed David's mere seventh-grade Human Immortal aura, many looked at him with a hint of disdain and subtle rejection.

In the dog-eat-dog world of the Tenth Heaven, especially among the beast race where strength reigns supreme, those of lower cultivation levels were often disregarded.

Shi Yan and Ying Wu didn't bother to explain, leading David directly towards the largest stone hall in the center.

Inside the hall, an old man wearing brown leather armor, with gray hair, a dignified face, and a ferocious claw mark on his forehead, sat in the main seat, listening to a disciple's report.

The old man possessed a powerful aura, clearly a fifth-grade Celestial Immortal, none other than Elder Li Yan, who was stationed here. “

Elder Li!”

Shi Yan and Ying Wu stepped forward, bowing respectfully.

Elder Li Yan raised his eyelids, glancing at the two. Seeing their injuries, his brow furrowed slightly: “What happened? Did you encounter those scum from the Myriad Souls Demon Sect again?”

His voice was like the grinding of sand, carrying an undeniable authority. “Reporting to the Elder, it was indeed him!” Shi Yan quickly recounted his encounter with the Myriad Souls Demon Sect's squad, his near-death experience, and his rescue by David. He emphasized David's lightning-fast attacks, instantly killing five Demon Sect disciples.

However, when Elder Li Yan's sharp, hawk-like gaze fell upon David, and he carefully sensed that David was indeed only a seventh-grade Human Immortal, the slight seriousness on his face instantly transformed into undisguised suspicion and disdain. “Seventh-grade Human Immortal?

In an instant, he killed five disciples of the Demonic Sect, including a fifth-grade Celestial Immortal?” Elder Li Yan sneered, his voice filled with sarcasm.

“Shi Yan, Ying Wu, are you two suffering from severe injuries and hallucinating? Or have you been deceived by this person using some kind of illusion?” He simply didn't believe it! It was already incredibly difficult for a Human Immortal to challenge a Celestial Immortal, let alone instantly killing multiple opponents of a higher realm.

This was simply a fantasy! In his view, this stranger must have used some trick or scheme to help him by chance, and then exaggerated his story, trying to take advantage of the Ten Thousand Beasts Sect. “Elder, it's absolutely true!

This junior is willing to guarantee it with his life!” Shi Yan said urgently, and Ying Wu nodded vigorously beside him. “Hmph!” Elder Li Yan snorted coldly, ignoring Shi Yan and the other two. His gaze swept arrogantly over David, as if he were appraising a piece of merchandise.

“Boy, no matter what methods you used, since you saved a disciple of my Ten Thousand Beasts Sect, my sect will not treat you unfairly.” He casually took out several low-quality, spiritually weak immortal stones from his storage bag and tossed them at David's feet like charity to a beggar.

Then, in a cold tone, he said, "Take these immortal stones and leave Rock Valley. This is not a place for you. The Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range is fraught with danger; be careful not to lose your life here."

A Man Like None Other Novel Chapter 5755

Full Read Online Chapter 5755 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5755

The few immortal stones rolled to the ground, covered in dust. The spiritual energy they contained was utterly useless to David at his current state.

This almost insulting expression of gratitude made Shi Yan and Ying Wu blush with embarrassment.

David looked at the immortal stones at his feet, then glanced at the high-ranking, disdainful Elder Li Yan, his eyes calm and unwavering, showing no sign of anger.

Having endured the beatings of the Soul Devouring Venerable and the trials of the early Tenth Heaven realm, his temperament had long since matured, and he wouldn't lose his composure due to such contempt.

He didn't even bother bending down to pick up the few immortal stones, simply speaking calmly, "No need for thanks. I have an old grudge against the Myriad Souls Demon Sect; saving those two was just a favor."

With that, he didn't look at Elder Li Yan again, turning and walking out of the hall.

The little fire unicorn growled, glared at Li Yan, and quickly followed David.

"Senior!"

Shi Yan and Ying Wu called anxiously, trying to stop him, but were stopped by a cold glare from Elder Li Yan.

"Ignorant brat!"

Watching David's departing figure, Elder Li Yan sneered, "A seventh-grade Human Immortal dares to boast about having an old grudge against the Myriad Souls Demon Sect? He probably hasn't even seen their outer disciples! Let him go; staying here is just a burden!"

David walked out of the stone hall, feeling the curious, sympathetic, or equally contemptuous gazes of the surrounding beastmen cultivators. He remained expressionless and walked straight out of the valley.

He hadn't intended to stay long anyway; Li Yan's attitude was merely a way of telling him to leave early.

The Tenth Heaven was vast; there was bound to be a place for him to find shelter and gather information.

Less than an hour after David stepped out of the illusion array of Rock Valley and disappeared into the surrounding mountains, night quietly fell. The bright moonlight draped the valley in a silver veil, and scattered lights illuminated the valley, creating a tranquil scene. Elder Li Yan was meditating in the hall, while Shi Yan and Ying Wu were applying medicine to heal their injuries. Most of the disciples had returned to their residences. Suddenly—“Buzz!!!”

The illusion array

enveloping the valley emitted a violent hum, unable to bear the strain, and then, like shattered glass, it exploded with a deafening roar!

Thick plumes of black energy shot into the sky from outside the valley like smoke from a wolf's beacon, instantly enveloping the entire Rock Valley!

A chilling, evil, and resentful soul pressure swept down like a tidal wave, covering every corner of the valley!

“Enemy attack! It's the Myriad Souls Demon Sect!!”

A shrill alarm instantly shattered the tranquility of the night!

Elder Li Yan suddenly opened his eyes, shooting out a terrifying glint, and his figure flashed, appearing in the plaza outside the hall.

From the direction of the valley entrance, dozens of black-robed cultivators surged in, the two leading figures both possessing auras that had reached the fifth rank of the Heavenly Immortal Realm, on par with him!

One of them wielded a white bone mourning staff, while the other controlled three skulls surrounded by green flames.

Behind them, more than twenty demonic cultivators of the third to fourth rank of the Celestial Immortal Realm, along with a large number of early-stage Celestial Immortal Realm disciples, surged forward like a tide!

“Form ranks! Prepare for battle!”

Elder Li Yan roared, his hair and beard bristling, but his heart was filled with icy coldness.

The enemy had deployed two experts of the same level and so many elite troops; they were clearly well-prepared and determined to win!

Although the beastmen disciples in Rock Valley were panicked, their long history of fighting against the Demonic Sect had made them well-trained, and they quickly assembled into battle formations.

Various beast roars rang out, demonic energy soared into the sky, clashing fiercely with the eerie ghostly energy of the demonic cultivators!

A great battle erupted instantly!

The light of spells, the clash of weapons, the roars of demonic beasts, the wails of vengeful spirits... all these sounds intertwined into a bloody symphony of death!

The Myriad Souls Demonic Sect's techniques were bizarre and vicious, specializing in attacking the soul, and they had come prepared.

As the white bone mourning staff swung, its soul-snatching demonic sounds ignored physical defenses and penetrated straight into the sea of consciousness. Many of the weaker beastmen disciples immediately clutched their heads and screamed in agony, bleeding from their seven orifices as they died.

A Man Like None Other Novel Chapter 5756

Full Read Online Chapter 5756 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5756

The three green fire skulls spewed viscous ghostly fire, igniting anything that touched it, scorching not only flesh but also corroding the soul!

Elder Li Yan fought alone against two demonic cultivators of the same level. Although incredibly brave, his tiger claws tearing through the void and repelling attacks, he quickly fell into a disadvantageous position due to the opponents' tacit cooperation and the interference of strange magical artifacts.

had several deep, bone-revealing wounds on his body, and his left arm was grazed by the ghostly fire, emitting a sizzling sound and excruciating pain.

Shi Yan and Ying Wu fought back-to-back against several demonic cultivators. Their injuries had not yet healed, and they were now in grave danger. Shi Yan's giant axe was entangled in the iron chains of one of the demonic cultivators, and another demonic cultivator seized the opportunity to unleash a poisoned dagger, aiming straight for his back!

Shadow Dance's twin daggers danced like the wind as she desperately parried, only to be struck in the shoulder by a sudden Soul Spike. She groaned, her movements faltering, and she was on the verge of death!

The entire Rock Valley had become a battlefield of carnage!

Houses collapsed, flames soared into the sky, and the ground was littered with the corpses of disciples from both sides, their blood staining the earth red.

Although the beastmen disciples were fierce, their defeat was only a matter of time under the absolute strength and technique of the opposing forces.

Elder Li Yan's eyes were bloodshot as he watched his familiar disciples fall one by one, his heart filled with despair and regret.

Was Rock Valley about to be washed away in blood today? Just as Shi Yan and Shadow Dance closed their eyes to await death, and Elder Li Yan himself felt despair—a clear and cold sword cry, like the roar of a dragon from the heavens, suddenly came from outside the valley, drowning out all the noise of the battlefield!

Immediately afterward, a dazzling, multicolored sword aura, seemingly condensing all the light in the world, appeared.

Like a shooting star tearing through the night sky, it traversed the heavens with incredible speed, striking with unparalleled precision the demonic cultivator who was about to plunge his dagger into Shi Yan's back!

“Pfft!”

The demonic cultivator, a third-grade Celestial Immortal, didn't even have time to react. His protective demonic aura was pierced like paper, leaving a gaping, bloody hole between his brows. The savage grin in his eyes froze instantly, replaced by endless terror and bewilderment, before his body slumped to the ground.

This sudden sword strike silenced the entire chaotic battlefield!

Everyone instinctively looked in the direction from which the sword light had come. Under the moonlight

, at the shattered illusion array at the valley entrance, a figure in a green robe stood with his hands behind his back, his clothes fluttering gently in the night breeze, his expression calm, as if he were simply strolling leisurely.

It was David, who had returned!

Behind him, the little fire unicorn stood majestically, its body surrounded by crimson flames, making it appear like a mythical beast.

He hadn't actually gone far; he had been meditating in the nearby mountains and forests. Sensing the violent energy fluctuations and soaring demonic energy erupting from the direction of Rock Valley, he knew something was wrong and immediately rushed back.

"It's...it's Senior!"

Shi Yan, having escaped death, looked at the figure, his voice trembling with excitement.

Ying Wu's beautiful eyes widened, filled with unbelievable joy.

Elder Li Yan was utterly shocked. He stared at the young man he had previously dismissed with utter contempt and even insult, now appearing as if a divine warrior had descended from the heavens, averting the imminent death of Shi Yan and his companion with a single sword strike.

His facial muscles twitched violently, his heart churning with turbulent emotions: "How is this possible?! It really is him?!"

"Who are you?! Daring to interfere in the affairs of my Ten Thousand Souls Demon Sect!"

The demonic cultivator leader, wielding a white bone mourning staff, roared in shock and fury.

David completely ignored his shouts.

His gaze swept across the ravaged valley, littered with the dead and wounded, finally settling on the ferocious black-robed demonic cultivators. His eyes instantly turned icy cold.

“Those who harm my subordinates die.”

His words, though simple, contained an undeniable resolve and killing intent.

He moved.

With a single step, his figure vanished like a ghost, appearing the next instant at the most densely packed spot among the demonic cultivators!

A Man Like None Other Novel Chapter 5757

Full Read Online Chapter 5757 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5757

“Five Elements Sword Domain, full power!”

“Buzz—!”

The five-colored sword domain, several times larger and more solid than when dealing with the previous small teams, roared open, instantly covering an area of nearly a hundred feet!

Countless fine and sharp sword energies spontaneously generated within the domain, slicing wildly! The flow of time slowed drastically, and the spatial structure was slightly distorted!

The demonic cultivators trapped within the sword domain, whether at the early stage of the Heavenly Immortal Realm or the fifth rank, felt as if they were trapped in viscous amber, their movements becoming incredibly sluggish.

Their demonic energy circulated sluggishly, and they had to constantly resist the omnipresent, incomparably sharp cutting of the five-element sword energies!

Screams of agony immediately filled the air!

“Time Acceleration! Space Folding!”

David's figure flashed within the sword domain as if teleporting, his Dragon-Slaying Sword transforming into streaks of deathly light.

His sword was faster than the eye could perceive; with each appearance, a demonic cultivator perished!

Their throats were pierced, their heads severed, or they were shredded into a bloody mist by the violent sword energy!

He specifically targeted the core members of the Heavenly Immortal realm.

A third-grade Heavenly Immortal demonic cultivator attempted to block with a soul shield, but a flash of sword light cleaved the shield and the cultivator in two.

A fourth-grade Heavenly Immortal demonic cultivator used the Ghostly Shadows technique, but under the time-slowing domain, his movements were riddled with flaws, and David pierced his heart with a single sword strike, his soul.

The little fire qilin was not idle either; it let out a majestic roar, spewing forth qilin true fire like a torrent of magma, specifically targeting demonic cultivators attempting to attack from the outside or escape the sword domain.

The blazing flames contained a holy power to purify evil spirits; demonic cultivators who touched them ignited instantly, turning to ashes amidst their agonizing screams!

One man and one Qilin, like tigers among sheep, were unstoppable!

The once-mighty demonic sect's army was instantly routed, their formation thrown into chaos!

The two fifth-grade Celestial Immortal leaders, both shocked and enraged, attempted to join forces to attack David and break the Sword Domain. But Elder Li Yan would not allow them to succeed.

, his spirits lifted, and ignoring his injuries, he roared and entangled the leader who controlled the green fire skeleton.

David, on the other hand, took the initiative to approach the leader, wielding the white bone mourning staff.

"You junior, prepare to die! Ten Thousand Souls Howl to the Heavens!"

The demonic cultivator leader swung the mourning staff like a windmill, and countless vengeful spirits roared out, forming a powerful soul shockwave that slammed towards David.

“Nonsense.”

David’s eyes were cold, and he thrust forward with the Dragon Slayer Sword in an unremarkable manner.

This sword, seemingly slow, seemed to contain the ultimate principles of space, ignoring the soul shockwave and directly striking the body of the mourning staff.

“Crack!”

The extraordinary demonic treasure could not withstand this sword that contained the power of chaotic immortality and the cutting power of space, and it broke in two!

The demonic cultivator leader suffered a backlash, spitting out a mouthful of black blood, his eyes filled with horror.

David’s swordplay continued unabated. With a flick of his wrist, a condensed sword aura, like a venomous snake emerging from its hole, instantly pierced the demon’s heart. The sword energy erupted, shredding the demon’s internal organs and soul!

Seeing his companion killed instantly, the other leader was terrified and tried to escape with a feint.

David coldly snorted, his fingers forming a sword-like gesture, and slashed through the air.

“Spatial Rift!”

A thin black spatial rift appeared silently in the demon leader’s escape path.

By the time he noticed, it was too late; half his body was instantly swallowed by the rift, letting out a short scream before vanishing completely!

With their leader dead, the remaining demon cultivators crumbled. Under the pursuit of David and the little fire unicorn, and the counterattack of Elder Li Yan and the remaining beastmen disciples, they were quickly wiped out.

The battle ended, and the valley was deathly silent, save for the crackling of burning embers and the groans of the wounded.

A strong stench of blood and burnt flesh filled the air.

A Man Like None Other Novel Chapter 5758

Full Read Online Chapter 5758 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5758

The once orderly Rock Valley was now a ruin, with less than a third of the beastmen disciples surviving, all wounded.

Elder Li Yan, leaning on his half-broken battle sword, stood with a complex expression as he watched David slowly approach. He felt a mixture of relief at surviving, awe at David's strength, but above all, an endless, gnawing regret!

He remembered his arrogant attitude, the few low-grade immortal stones he had thrown on the ground, and his merciless dismissal.

Each memory was like a resounding slap across his face and his heart!

If he hadn't judged him by his appearance and underestimated him, if he had treated this unfathomably powerful young man with courtesy and kept him in the valley, how could Rock Valley have suffered such heavy losses? How could so many excellent disciples have died in vain?

"Senior... Senior..."

Elder Li Yan opened his mouth, a hoarse voice coming from his dry throat, his face burning. His previous arrogance had vanished, leaving only humble pleading.

"Thank you... Thank you for saving me, Senior... I was blind and offended you before. I beg you... Save me. I am willing... willing to pay any price..."

He felt his meridians, corroded by the Netherworld Ghost Fire, deteriorating rapidly, his life force draining away at an alarming rate.

Without the help of a powerful figure to expel the demonic fire, he would surely die.

And this young man before him was his only hope.

David stopped, looking at him calmly, his eyes like a deep well, without the slightest ripple.

He saw regret, fear, and pleading in Li Yan's eyes, but nothing more.

David felt no pity for such a snobbish person who was arrogant at first but obsequious later, only realizing his worth at the critical moment.

He saved Shi Yan and Ying Wu because of a promise and his true feelings; he killed the demonic cultivator because of an old grudge with the Ten Thousand Souls Demon Sect; but what did Elder Li Yan's life or death have to do with him?

He didn't speak, not even bothering to give them a mocking glance, simply shifting his gaze to Shi Yan and Ying Wu who were walking quickly towards him.

This indifference caused Elder Li Yan more despair and pain than any insult or revenge!

“Pfft—”

Overwhelmed by rage and the onset of his injuries, Elder Li Yan suddenly spat out a mouthful of foul blood mixed with fragments of internal organs, his body trembling violently.

He stretched out his hand, as if trying to grasp at the last straw, his eyes filled with resentment, regret, and hatred for his previous actions.

Finally, his outstretched hand fell limply, his eyes glazed over, his massive body crashed to the ground, and his breath ceased completely.

Even in death, his eyes remained wide open, filled with deep regret.

An elder at the fifth rank of the Celestial Immortal Realm, due to a moment of arrogance and prejudice, ultimately met such an end, a truly lamentable fate.

Elder Li Yan's corpse lay at the feet of those he had scorned.

His wide-open eyes were filled with endless regret and despair, forming a poignant picture against the backdrop of the surrounding carnage.

The surviving beastmen disciples watched this scene with incredibly complex emotions, a mixture of sorrow for the elder's passing and, even more so, awe for David's unfathomable strength and ruthless decisiveness.

Shi Yan and Ying Wu looked at the dead Elder Li Yan, their feelings complex, but mostly gratitude and reverence for David.

They walked before David and bowed deeply once more: “Thank you again for saving our lives, Senior! If it weren't for your timely return, we... we would have already...”

David waved his hand, his gaze sweeping over the ravaged valley and the few survivors, his tone still calm: “This place is no longer safe to stay. Since the Myriad Souls Demon Sect has already dispatched such forces, there will likely be even stronger reinforcements to follow.”

A Man Like None Other Novel Chapter 5759

Full Read Online Chapter 5759 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5759

“Senior is absolutely right!”

Shi Yan nodded hurriedly, his face pleading. “Senior, Elder Li Yan has perished, and Rock Valley has been destroyed. We must immediately return to the headquarters of the Myriad Beasts Sect to report this matter.”

“Senior has shown us kindness as if we were second nature. We humbly request that the Senior accompany us to the headquarters!”

“The headquarters is filled with powerful experts; they will surely be able to better receive Senior and let the Sect Master know of Senior’s kindness and strength!”

Ying Wu also nodded vigorously, her vertical pupils filled with anticipation.

Having witnessed David’s true combat power, they knew that if they could persuade this mysterious expert to go to the headquarters, it could bring a turning point, both for them personally and for the Myriad Beasts Sect, which was currently in fierce conflict with the Myriad Souls Demon Sect.

David pondered for a moment.

He needed to find a place to stay to gather information about the Myriad Souls Demon Sect and the Soul Devouring Venerable. The Myriad Beasts Sect, as the local power and an enemy of the Myriad Souls Demon Sect, was undoubtedly the best choice.

Although the initial contact in Rock Valley was unpleasant, Shi Yan and Ying Wu’s attitude was sincere, so there was no need to completely reject them because of Li Yan alone.

“Alright,”

David replied simply.

Shi Yan and Ying Wu were overjoyed and immediately gathered the belongings of their fallen comrades, quickly collecting them and burning all the corpses in the valley to prevent them from being used by the Demon Sect.

Afterwards, the group dared not delay and, under the cover of night, led by Shi Yan and Ying Wu, hurried towards their headquarters deeper into the Myriad Beasts Mountain Range.

Leaving the scorched Rock Valley, the group traversed even denser and more dangerous primeval forests.

The deeper they went into the mountains, the denser the spiritual energy in the air became, even condensing into a faint spiritual mist, but this also meant that the lurking demonic beasts were more powerful.

If it weren't for David, this formidable figure, overseeing things, Shi Yan and his crippled disciples would never have been able to penetrate so deeply.

Along the way, they encountered a swarm of Bloodwinged Bats, generally at the second or third rank of the Celestial Immortal Realm, which attacked like a dark cloud;

They also alerted a Xuanbing Flood Dragon, lurking deep in a frigid pool, whose strength was comparable to a seventh-rank Celestial Immortal Realm creature, capable of freezing hundreds of miles with a single breath.

But these dangers were all insignificant before David.

With a flash of sword light, the bats fell like rain; a punch, containing the supreme yang power of chaotic immortal energy and fire-based laws, directly shattered the Xuanbing Flood Dragon's scales, sending it howling as it burrowed back to the bottom of the pool, never daring to show its face again.

David's actions were swift and decisive, often eliminating threats before anyone could even react.

This made the surviving beastmen disciples even more awe of him, their eyes filled with admiration and trust.

The little fire qilin also feasted during this process

. The essence of the flesh and blood and the inner cores of those powerful demonic beasts were extremely nourishing for it, and its size subtly increased. Its body was surrounded by a flowing crimson-gold light, making it exceptionally majestic. Shi Yan and Ying Wu seized the opportunity to introduce the Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range and the Ten Thousand Beasts Sect to David.

The Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range stretches for millions of miles and is one of the largest gathering places of demonic beasts in the Tenth Heaven, as well as an important foundation for the beast race. The Ten Thousand Beasts Sect is not strictly unified, but rather a vast alliance formed by numerous beast tribes, worshipping a common totem and jointly led by a few of the strongest elders and the sect leader.

The disciples of the sect cultivate different beast soul combat techniques according to their bloodline and talents, can communicate with demonic beasts, and can even transform into beast forms to fight, making them formidable.

Their mortal enemy, the Ten Thousand Souls Demon Sect, is entrenched in the Crimson Blood Plain next to the Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range. The cultivators within the sect are skilled at devouring souls and refining demonic heads, and they act ruthlessly and viciously.

Over the past thousand years, their activities have become increasingly rampant, constantly eroding the resources of the Ten Thousand Beasts Mountain Range, leading to increasingly fierce conflicts between the two sides.

Chen listened calmly, noting down all the information.

He noticed that when the Ten Thousand Souls Demon Sect was mentioned, Shi Yan and the others' eyes held not only hatred but also a hint of barely perceptible worry, clearly indicating immense pressure from the Demon Sect.

After traveling for three days and three nights, traversing several dangerous canyons and swift rivers, the group finally arrived at the main peak area of a magnificent mountain range.

A Man Like None Other Novel Chapter 5760

Full Read Online Chapter 5760 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5760

The mountains here, like sharp swords piercing the clouds, are shrouded in mist.

Countless magnificent buildings, built against the mountainsides, are faintly visible, their style rugged and ancient. Huge animal bones and totem poles are scattered everywhere, and the air is filled with a vast and powerful primordial aura.

At a massive mountain gate, carved with a pattern of galloping beasts, the group was stopped by guards.

The guards, all fierce beastmen, were surprised to see Shi Yan and his companions in such a disheveled state and with such a small number of people.

“Shi Yan? Ying Wu? Aren't you stationed in Rock Valley? What...”

The guard captain, a burly man with a rhinoceros horn on his forehead, asked in a deep voice, his gaze warily sweeping over David, the unfamiliar human, and the strange little fire qilin beside him.

“Captain Xiwu, Rock Valley... is gone!”

Shi Yan's voice was filled with grief as he quickly recounted the events of the attack by the elite forces of the Myriad Souls Demon Sect, the death of Elder Li Yan, the near annihilation of the valley's disciples, and their eventual rescue by David.

“What?! Elder Li Yan, he...”

Captain Xiwu's body trembled, his eyes filled with horror and anger.

He looked at David again, his gaze now different, less wary, and more filled with suspicion and scrutiny.

A seventh-grade Human Immortal?

Single-handedly defeating an elite force led by two fifth-grade Heavenly Immortal leaders of the Demon Sect?

This sounded utterly unbelievable!

“This matter is of utmost importance; I must immediately report to the Sect Master and all the elders! Follow me!”

Captain Xiwu dared not delay, immediately leading everyone through the massive mountain gate, along the winding stone steps, towards the most magnificent and imposing Myriad Beasts Hall atop the mountain.

Along the way, many disciples of the Ten Thousand Beasts Sect cast curious glances, especially upon seeing David, a seemingly weak human, being personally led by Captain Xi Wu, which sparked much discussion.

Upon entering the Ten Thousand Beasts Hall, an even more ancient and heavy pressure swept over them.

boasts an extremely vast interior space constructed from countless massive animal bones and rocks. The walls are adorned with lifelike carvings of various ancient mythical beasts.

At this moment, the atmosphere within the hall is solemn. A powerful lion-clan member, with a towering physique, a resolute face, and an aura of terror, sits in the main seat—this is the Sect Master, Lie Tian.

Several elders with profound auras sit to his left and right, clearly discussing important matters.

“Sect Master! Elders!”

Captain Xi Wu steps forward, kneels on one knee, and reports in a deep voice, “Disciples Shi Yan and Ying Wu, stationed at Pan Shi Valley, have returned to report that Pan Shi Valley... was breached by the Ten Thousand Souls Demon Sect three days ago. Elder Li Yan fought valiantly and died in battle. Only thirteen disciples remain in the valley!”

“What?!”

A clamor erupts within the hall!

Sect Master Lie Tian abruptly stood up, an overwhelming and terrifying pressure instantly enveloping the entire hall, almost suffocating the surviving disciples like Shi Yan, and even David felt a slight pressure.

“What exactly happened? Tell me in detail!”

Sect Master Lie Tian’s voice echoed like thunder in the hall.

Shi Yan, enduring the pressure, recounted the events once more.

This time, he was more detailed, especially emphasizing David’s miraculous intervention at the crucial moment, swiftly slaying the demonic cultivators and saving them. He also mentioned David’s claim of having an old grudge against the Ten Thousand Souls Demon Sect.

All eyes instantly focused on David.

The elders’ gazes were sharp, filled with scrutiny, suspicion, and even a hint of barely perceptible contempt.

“Seventh Grade Human Immortal?”

Elder Yu Sha, dressed in feathered robes with eagle-like eyes, spoke first, his tone carrying undisguised skepticism.

“Shi Yan, are you sure you didn’t see it wrong? Elder Li Yan, a fifth-grade Heavenly Immortal, fought against the Martyr Valley. Are you saying this kid defeated the Demonic Sect's army and even killed two fifth-grade Heavenly Immortal leaders? That's utterly ridiculous!"