

A Man Like None Other Novel Chapter 5881

Full Read Online Chapter 5881 of the novel A Man Like None Other
Chapter 5881

“Now that the selections are made, we will depart in half an hour,” Elder Yanxin said in a deep voice. “David, the three of you and your beast will lead the way, maintaining a distance of a thousand feet. If you notice anything unusual, immediately raise the alarm. Do not act recklessly.”

“Understood.”

Half an hour later, the group began its ascent into the canyon.

David, leading Lin Feng, Shi Meng, and Wang Cai, was the first to step onto the path leading to the bottom of the canyon.

This path, carved out by predecessors, was narrow and steep, allowing only two people to walk side by side.

The lower they went, the higher the temperature became.

The pervasive smell of sulfur in the air was almost suffocating, and the scorching air burned the skin.

Ordinary mortals would probably be instantly dried out upon reaching this point.

But for cultivators, as long as they activated their immortal power to protect themselves, they could endure it.

David walked at the front, his chaotic immortal power flowing quietly within him. This not only shielded him from the high temperatures and poisonous fumes but also allowed him to continuously absorb the pure fire-attribute spiritual energy around him.

He could even sense that cultivating fire-based techniques in this environment would be twice as effective.

“Watch out!”

Lin Feng suddenly shouted, his longbow already in hand, a cyan arrow nocked.

At the bend in the path ahead, a dozen crimson lizard-like creatures clung to the rock face.

Each was about three feet long, covered in crimson scales that blended almost seamlessly with the rock wall, making them difficult to spot without close inspection.

“Crimson fire lizards, social creatures, adept at spitting poisonous fire and ambushing,”

Lin Feng said quickly. “I’ll handle them.”

He drew his bow to its fullest extent, and the cyan arrow shot out with a “whoosh,” splitting into three in mid-air, then into nine, transforming into nine cyan streaks of light that accurately struck the nine crimson fire lizards.

“Thud! Thud! Thud!”

The sounds of arrows piercing scales rang out one after another, and the nine crimson fire lizards died instantly.

The remaining few, however, were enraged. Hissing and lunging, they spewed dark red poisonous fire.

Shi Meng roared, swinging his twin hammers, which emitted a burst of earthy yellow light, forming a barrier to block the poisonous fire.

Wangcai, meanwhile, transformed into a golden-red blur, its claws tearing several fire lizards to shreds.

The battle ended in a few breaths.

David hadn’t even made a move, merely observing the characteristics of these ferocious beasts and his companions’ fighting styles.

Lin Feng’s archery was precise and efficient, his arrows incredibly fast and penetrating.

Shi Meng possessed solid defense and astonishing strength, making him well-suited for close combat.

Wangcai’s speed and attack power were even more remarkable, comparable to a sixth-grade Celestial Immortal.

“Cleared, let’s continue,” David said.

The three continued downwards. The deeper they went into the canyon

, the more numerous and stronger the ferocious beasts they encountered.

There were “magma worms” that spewed corrosive lava, “shadow fire leopards” that lurked in the shadows and launched sudden attacks, and swarms of fearless “fire ant colonies”...

David gradually revealed his strength.

Facing an attack from dozens of fire ants, he pointed his fingers like a sword, and a gray sword aura swept across, turning all the fire ants into dust the moment they came into contact with the sword aura.

When ambushed by three “lava giant lizards” comparable to the fifth rank of the Celestial Immortal Realm, he pressed down with his left hand, and chaotic immortal power transformed into an invisible force field, imprisoning the three giant lizards in place, allowing Lin Feng and Shi Meng to kill them.

On one occasion, a “fire dragon” that had been lurking in the lava river and suddenly leaped up to attack was punched on the head by David, its skull shattered and it fell back into the lava.

Lin Feng and Shi Meng’s initial caution gradually turned to admiration, and then to shock.

They finally understood why David, with only a superficial cultivation level of the first rank of the Heavenly Immortal Realm, could pass such a monstrous test.

His strength was definitely at the eighth rank of the Heavenly Immortal Realm or even higher!

A thousand feet behind, the large group from the Earth Fire Pavilion advanced along the safe path cleared by David and his group, making their progress much easier.

Yan Lie watched as David easily dealt with one ferocious beast after another, his face growing increasingly grim.

He had originally wanted David to suffer while clearing the way, even hoping that David would be severely injured or killed by the beasts.

Unexpectedly, David not only emerged unscathed but also displayed great power, stealing the spotlight from the Earth Fire Pavilion disciples.

“Damn it...” Yan Lie gritted his teeth and muttered.

Huo Ling’er’s eyes shone brightly, and every time she saw David make a move, she couldn’t help but cheer softly, “So amazing! David has taken down another one!”

“Wang Cai is great too! Tear it to pieces!”

She even wanted to run ahead to watch up close, but was sternly stopped by Elder Yan Xin.

“Ling’er, do not stray from the group. The Crimson Flame Canyon is fraught with danger at every turn; we must not be careless,” Elder Yanxin said solemnly.

Huo Ling’er had no choice but to suppress her excitement, but her gaze remained fixed on the azure figure ahead.

After traveling for about an hour, the group reached the middle level of the canyon.

The environment here was even harsher.

The ground was covered with crisscrossing cracks, from which surged crimson magma, radiating terrifyingly high temperatures.

Visible particles of fire poison floated in the air; inhaling too much would damage one’s meridians.

On the surrounding rock walls, some strange crimson plants began to appear: there were “Crimson Flame Grass” swaying like flames, “Flame Crystal Vine” bearing fiery red fruit, and “Earth Fire Mushroom” emitting a rich fire spiritual energy...

but these were not their target.

“The Flame Spirit Basin is just five miles ahead,” Lin Feng said, pointing to an area shrouded in crimson mist in the distance. “The concentration of fire elemental energy there is ten times higher than outside, but it’s also much more dangerous. According to intelligence, ‘Flame Bats’ and ‘Lava Giant Apes’ are active in the basin.”

David nodded and continued leading the team forward.

However, just as they were about to reach the edge of the Flame Spirit Basin, a sudden change occurred!

A Man Like None Other Novel Chapter 5882

Full Read Online Chapter 5882 of the novel A Man Like None Other
Chapter 5882

“Boom—!”

The ground ahead suddenly trembled violently, and a massive crack abruptly split open, spewing scorching lava skyward like a fountain!

Immediately afterward, three colossal creatures crawled out of the crack.

They were three monstrous lava apes, each five zhang tall, their bodies composed entirely of black rock and crimson lava!

Each one exuded an aura that reached the peak of the seventh rank of the Celestial Immortal Realm!

Even more terrifying was that they didn't appear alone; on the shoulders of each ape stood hundreds of densely packed crimson bats—fire bats!

These bats were only the size of a palm, but their fangs were sharp, their wings edged with flames, and they flew at incredible speed.

Most troublesome of all, they could spew a special kind of “corrosive fire,” specifically designed to corrode a cultivator’s protective immortal aura and the spiritual light of their magical artifacts!

“Not good! It’s a three-headed lava giant ape and a swarm of fire bats!”

Lin Feng’s expression changed drastically. “How could they be gathered together? The intelligence didn’t mention it!”

Shi Meng gripped his double hammers tightly, sweat beading on his forehead. “We’re doomed. This lineup is too much for the three of us to handle... Quickly send a signal for help!”

David, however, narrowed his eyes, staring at the three-headed lava giant ape.

He noticed that the ape’s eyes were flashing with an abnormal crimson light, and its behavior was somewhat sluggish, as if it were being controlled by something.

“Someone’s tampering with things...” This thought flashed through David’s mind.

A thousand feet behind, the Earth Fire Pavilion team also saw the sudden change ahead.

“Three-headed lava giant apes? And a swarm of fire bats?”

Elder Yan Xin’s face darkened. “This doesn’t make sense. The two kinds of ferocious beasts have different habits and rarely act together.”

Huo Ling'er said urgently, "David and the others are in danger! Quickly send reinforcements!"

As she spoke, she was about to lead several Earth Fire Pavilion disciples to rush over.

"Stop!"

Yan Lie flashed to block her way. "Junior Sister Ling'er, don't be impulsive! The situation ahead is unclear; it's too dangerous to rush forward!"

"But David and the others..."

"They're just hired guards,"

Yan Lie said coldly. "Since we accepted the mission to clear the way, we should bear the risks. The lives of us Earthfire Pavilion disciples are precious; how can we risk our lives for a few guards?"

He then turned to Elder Yan Xin: "Elder, I think we should postpone our advance and observe the situation. If David and the others can handle it, that would be best. If they can't... it will buy us time to find another path into the Flame Spirit Basin."

These words sounded grand, but in reality, they were ruthless. They were using David and the others as cannon fodder to draw the beasts' fire so that the Earthfire Pavilion could take the opportunity to detour or retreat.

Huo Ling'er was stunned, exclaiming incredulously, "Senior Brother Yan Lie, how could you say that? They are our companions!"

"Companions?"

Yan Lie scoffed. "Junior Sister Ling'er, you're too naive. They're only here for the reward. If they were truly in a life-or-death situation, they'd be the first to run. It's just an employment relationship, why take it so seriously?"

He looked at the other guards: "Don't you agree?"

The other guards remained silent.

Although they were indignant, they dared not refute Yan Lie.

After all, they were indeed here for the reward, and there was no need for them to risk their lives for the Earth Fire Pavilion.

Elder Yan Xin pondered for a moment, then slowly nodded: "Yan Lie is right. Our primary task is to collect the Flame Spirit Grass; we shouldn't cause any unforeseen complications. Since David and the others accepted the path-clearing mission, they should be prepared."

He looked ahead: "Observe for a while. If they are outmatched, we'll decide whether to provide support or retreat."

"Elder!" Huo Ling'er stamped her foot anxiously.

But Elder Yan Xin had already made his decision, and the disciples of the Earth Fire Pavilion remained on guard, showing no intention of going forward to provide support. At the front lines of the battlefield,

David heard the conversation behind him, his expression remaining calm.

Lin Feng and Shi Meng, however, looked grim.

"Damn it, they really are using us as cannon fodder!"

Shi Meng spat, "I shouldn't have accepted this mission!"

Lin Feng smiled bitterly, "It's too late to say that now. Fellow Daoist Chen, what should we do? Fight or retreat?"

David looked at the three approaching Lava Giant Apes and the swarms of Flame Bats flying everywhere, and said calmly, "You all retreat and protect yourselves. I'll handle this."

"You alone?" Lin Feng was shocked.

"Yes."

David took a step forward, his body surging with a hazy, chaotic immortal power.

Faced with such a formidable force, he held nothing back.

The first Lava Giant Apes had already charged forward, their millstone-sized rock fists, carrying scorching heat, slamming down on David!

David neither dodged nor evaded, his right fist clenched, meeting the attack head-on.

The two fists, one large and one small, collided.

"Boom—!"

With a deafening roar, the Lava Giant Ape's incredibly hard rock arm shattered inch by inch, starting from its fist!

Cracks spread all the way to its shoulder, and the entire arm exploded, sending debris and lava flying everywhere!

The giant ape roared in pain, its massive body staggering backward.

David's figure flashed, appearing above the giant ape's head, his right foot slamming down heavily.

"Crack!"

The giant ape's head was crushed by the stomp, its massive body crashing to the ground, turning into a pile of rubble and cooled lava.

All of this happened in the blink of an eye.

The other two Lava Giant Apes and the swarm of Firebats hadn't even reacted yet.

"Roar—!"

The remaining two giant apes roared angrily, swooping down simultaneously. The sky full of Firebats also scurried down, spitting out countless fireballs of corrosive energy, like a crimson rain!

David formed hand seals and softly uttered, "Chaotic Domain, open."

Within a thirty-foot radius of him, space suddenly distorted.

A hazy gray mist spread out, and all the spirit-corroding fireballs that entered this area slowed abruptly, then vanished silently like melting snow.

The swooping fire bats, upon entering the gray mist, seemed to lose their sense of direction, spinning in place before plummeting to the ground, their life extinguished before even hitting the ground.

The Chaotic Domain—this was the rudimentary form of a domain that David had created by combining his chaotic immortal power with his shallow understanding of space and time.

Although still imperfect, it was sufficient to deal with these low-intelligence beasts.

Two giant lava apes rushed into the domain, their movements instantly slowing, as if struggling in a quagmire.

David, like a ghost, appeared beside one of the giant apes, his fingers forming a sword, gray sword energy erupting forth.

A Man Like None Other Novel Chapter 5883

Full Read Online Chapter 5883 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5883

“Swoosh!”

A sword aura shot into the giant ape’s temple and out through the back of its head, killing it instantly.

Seeing the situation was dire, another giant ape turned to flee.

David raised his hand, his chaotic immortal power transforming into a large gray hand that grabbed the giant ape and slammed it to the ground!

“Bang!”

The ground trembled, and the giant ape was thrown around, completely disoriented.

Wangcai seized the opportunity, transforming into a golden-red lightning bolt, piercing through the giant ape’s eye and exiting through the back of its head, bringing with it a spray of lava-like blood.

The battle was over.

From beginning to end, it took less than twenty breaths.

Three Lava Giant Apes at the peak of the seventh rank of the Celestial Immortal Realm, along with hundreds of troublesome Flame Bats, were completely annihilated.

Lin Feng and Shi Meng were dumbfounded, forgetting even to breathe.

A thousand feet behind, everyone in the Earth Fire Pavilion was also petrified.

Huo Ling’er stared wide-eyed, her mouth agape, before finally muttering, “This...this is too...”

Yan Lie’s face was ashen, his fists clenched so tightly they cracked.

He never expected David’s strength to be this formidable!

Three peak seventh-grade ferocious beasts, dealt with so easily?

This is a first-grade Heavenly Immortal?!

Elder Yan Xin's eyes flashed with a sharp light as he stared at David's figure, as if trying to see through him.

"A nascent form of a chaotic attribute domain...this kid is no simpleton."

He muttered to himself, "No wonder the spirit-testing crystal couldn't accurately measure his cultivation. Chaos encompasses all things, its changes are endless, indeed difficult to fathom."

Then he looked at Yan Lie and said calmly, "It seems you underestimated him."

Yan Lie gritted his teeth and said, "Elder, the stronger he is, the more suspicious he is! How could a rogue cultivator have such strength and inheritance? He might be a spy sent by another force!"

Elder Yan Xin remained noncommittal: "Complete the mission first. We'll discuss other matters when we get back."

Ahead, David withdrew his domain, and the gray mist dissipated.

He walked to the corpse of a giant lava ape and examined it closely.

Sure enough, on the back of the ape's neck, he found a tiny, almost imperceptible crimson rune.

The rune was slowly dissipating, but the lingering aura...

David's eyes turned cold.

The aura of this rune was seven or eight parts similar to the Evil Path Hall cultivators he had encountered in Black Wind Valley!

"The Evil Path Hall... has infiltrated here?"

Alarm bells rang in his mind.

"Fellow Daoist Chen, are you alright?" Lin Feng and Shi Meng stepped forward, their attitude even more respectful.

"I'm fine."

David shook his head. “Continue onward, reach the Flame Spirit Basin as soon as possible.”

He glanced back at the Earth Fire Pavilion team, his gaze lingering on Yan Lie for a moment, then turned and continued leading the way.

Yan Lie felt a chill run down his spine from that glance, but then a deeper hatred welled up within him: “What are you looking at! Wait until we get back to the Earth Fire Pavilion, and see how I deal with you!”

The team continued onward.

With the terrifying strength David had displayed, the rest of the journey went much more smoothly.

Occasionally, ferocious beasts would appear, but they were quickly dealt with. Half an hour later, the group finally arrived at the Flame Spirit Basin.

This was a circular basin about three miles in diameter, surrounded by mountains on all sides, with only one narrow entrance.

The temperature inside the basin was extremely high, and the ground was dark red crystallized soil that made a crisp “crackling” sound when stepped on.

In the center of the basin was a lava lake with a diameter of a hundred feet, and in the center of the lake was a small red island.

On the island, a patch of crimson spirit grass grew. The grass leaves were slender with golden veins along the edges, and a faint crimson light flowed within the grass stems, like flowing flames.

This was their target—the Flame Spirit Grass!

At a rough glance, there were at least forty or fifty plants, more than thirty of which were already mature, with pale golden flame-shaped flowers blooming at the tips of the grass.

“Found it!”

The disciples of the Earth Fire Pavilion exclaimed excitedly.

Elder Yanxin’s expression turned grave: “Be careful, the Flame Dragon might be nearby.”

He looked at David and the guards: "Gentlemen, as agreed, you are responsible for guarding and defending against possible attacks from ferocious beasts. The harvesting work will be carried out by the disciples of the Earth Fire Pavilion."

"The reward will be doubled upon completion of the task."

The guards nodded and dispersed at the entrance and around the basin, standing guard.

David and the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord chose a high rock overlooking the entire basin.

Under Elder Yanxin's command, the disciples of the Earth Fire Pavilion carefully entered the basin and began harvesting the Flame Spirit Grass.

Huo Ling'er followed in as well. She seemed very skilled at harvesting spirit grass, her movements gentle and swift, and she quickly picked three mature Flame Spirit Grasses.

Yan Lie followed beside her, harvesting while vigilantly observing the surroundings.

Everything seemed to be going smoothly.

However, just as the disciples of the Earth Fire Pavilion were harvesting their twentieth Flame Spirit Grass—

"Roar—!!!"

A deafening dragon's roar erupted from the depths of the lava lake!

The entire basin trembled violently, the lava lake churning as if boiling, unleashing towering waves of lava several meters high!

A colossal, suffocating figure slowly rose from the lava lake.

It was a dragon over thirty meters long! Its entire body was covered in crimson-gold scales, each the size of a washbasin, with edges as sharp as knives.

Its head was ferocious, its horns were like forged crimson gold, and its eyes burned with tangible golden flames.

The terrifying dragon's might swept across the entire basin like a tsunami, causing all cultivators below the seventh rank of the Heavenly Immortal Realm to feel difficulty breathing and their immortal energy to stagnate.

The peak of the ninth rank of the Heavenly Immortal Realm—the Flame Dragon!

“Not good! We’ve alerted it!”

Elder Yan Xin’s expression changed drastically. “Retreat quickly!”

The disciples of the Earth Fire Pavilion rushed frantically towards the edge of the basin.

But it was too late.

The Flame Dragon opened its massive maw and spewed out a torrent of golden flames over three meters in diameter!

Wherever the flames passed, even space itself was scorched and distorted!

“Form a defensive array!” Elder Yan Xin shouted.

The disciples of the Earthfire Pavilion quickly formed a crimson defensive array, barely managing to block the first wave of fire attacks.

However, the array’s protective barrier fluctuated violently, clearly indicating that it wouldn’t last long.

A Man Like None Other Novel Chapter 5884

Full Read Online Chapter 5884 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 5884

“All guards, advance and assist!”

Yan Lie roared at the outer guards while maintaining the formation.

However, facing the Flame Dragon, a peak ninth-grade Celestial Immortal, these guards, whose highest rank was only sixth-grade Celestial Immortal, dared not step forward.

“Damn it, this is simply beyond our capabilities!”

One guard turned and ran. “Is money more important than life? I quit!”

With one taking the lead, the other guards scattered like birds.

They were only hired; there was no need for them to risk their lives for the Earth Fire Pavilion.

Faced with the invincible Flame Dragon, fleeing was the most rational choice.

Crimson Cloud Demon Lord looked at David: "Shall we retreat too?"

David stared at the fiery dragon, then glanced at the Earth Fire Pavilion disciples still struggling in the basin, especially Huo Ling'er, pale-faced and protected by Yan Lie...

"You go first, wait for me in a safe place," David said.

"You want to save someone?"

Crimson Cloud Demon Lord frowned, "That's a fiery dragon at the peak of the ninth rank of the Heavenly Immortal Realm! Even if you unleash your full power, you might not be a match for it!"

"I know,"

David said calmly, "but I promised to protect her." "

Her" naturally referred to Huo Ling'er.

Crimson Cloud Demon Lord looked at him for a few seconds, then sighed: "Alright, be careful. If things get too difficult, run, don't be reckless."

After saying that, he also turned and retreated—he wasn't a member of the Earth Fire Pavilion, there was no need for him to take risks.

In the basin, the Earth Fire Pavilion's defensive array was already on the verge of collapse.

"Crack!"

The first crack appeared in the array's light shield.

"Elder, we can't hold on any longer!"

A disciple coughed up blood and collapsed.

Elder Yan Xin gritted his teeth, took out a crimson jade talisman, and crushed it.

The talisman transformed into a crimson light shield, temporarily replacing the shattered formation.

But this talisman could only hold for a moment.

"Yan Lie, take Ling'er and go first!"

Elder Yan Xin roared, “I’ll cover the rear!”

“Elder!” Yan Lie hesitated.

“Go quickly!”

Elder Yan Xin spat out a mouthful of blood essence, pouring it into the fiery red gem at the top of his cane.

The gem burst forth with dazzling light, transforming into a crimson fire python that lunged at the Flame Dragon, attempting to buy time.

Yan Lie gritted his teeth and grabbed Huo Ling’er’s hand: “Junior Sister Ling’er, go!”

“But Elder... he...” Huo Ling’er struggled.

“If we don’t leave now, we’ll all die!” Yan Lie forcefully pulled her towards the edge of the basin.

However, the Flame Dragon had already noticed them.

Or rather, the Flame Dragon had noticed Huo Ling’er—the pure and rich fire spirit aura emanating from her had a natural attraction for the Flame Dragon.

“Roar!”

The Flame Dragon swatted away Elder Yan Xin’s fire python with a single claw, its massive tail sweeping across and sending Elder Yan Xin flying, crashing into a rock wall, his fate unknown.

Then, it turned its head, its golden dragon eyes locking onto Huo Ling’er, and opened its enormous maw, spewing out a second golden flame!

This flame was even more solid and terrifying than the first, melting the ground into magma wherever it passed!

Yan Lie’s face turned deathly pale. He released Huo Ling’er’s hand and dodged to the side first, abandoning her!

“Senior Brother?!”

Huo Ling’er was stunned.

Just as the torrent of flames was about to engulf her—a figure in cyan descended from the sky like a meteor, blocking her path.

David!

He held his hands in front of his chest, and chaotic immortal power surged out wildly, transforming into a constantly spinning gray vortex.

The golden torrent of flames crashed into the vortex, like a mud ox entering the sea, quickly decomposed, devoured, and annihilated!

But the flames of the Flame Dragon were too powerful. Although David blocked it, he still groaned, a trace of blood spilling from the corner of his mouth, and took three steps back to steady himself.

“David!” Huo Ling’er was both surprised and delighted.

“Get behind me.”

David wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth, staring at the Flame Dragon with a solemn expression.

Peak ninth-grade Celestial Immortal Realm, indeed terrifying.

He had barely managed to block that attack with all his might, and even suffered minor injuries.

Seeing its attack blocked, the Flame Dragon roared in fury, its massive body leaping completely out of the lava lake, hovering in mid-air, blotting out the sun.

It stared at David, a flicker of doubt in its dragon eyes. This tiny human could actually withstand its dragon breath?

But then, doubt transformed into rage. Its dragon might intensified, and the temperature of the entire basin soared again!

“David, run! Don’t worry about me!” Huo Ling’er cried urgently, “It’s too strong, you can’t beat it!”

David didn’t respond, his mind racing.

A direct confrontation was definitely out of the question. While the Chaos Immortal Power was profound, the difference in cultivation level was too great; his total amount and quality of immortal power were far inferior to the Flame Dragon’s. Dragging it out would inevitably lead to defeat.

The only way...

David thought of his True Dragon bloodline.

Among dragons, bloodline suppression was extremely severe. This Flame Dragon, though powerful, was merely an ordinary dragon, its bloodline not pure.

David possessed the bloodline of a five-clawed golden dragon, the king of the dragon race!

If he fully activated his golden dragon bloodline, he might be able to intimidate it and buy time to escape.

But once activated, his identity might be exposed.

The golden dragon bloodline was too conspicuous; what if someone with ulterior motives saw it... ?

David glanced at the pale-faced Huo Ling'er behind him, then at Elder Yan Xin, whose fate was unknown in the distance, and Yan Lie, who had escaped to the edge of the basin but was looking back...

“I can’t worry about that now.”

David took a deep breath and made his decision.

He formed an ancient and complex hand seal, and his blood and qi began to boil.

“Roar—!”

The Flame Dragon attacked again. This time, it swooped down, its massive claws tearing through the air, aiming for David!

Before the claws even reached him, the terrifying pressure had already cracked the ground and pulverized rocks!

Huo Ling'er closed her eyes in despair.

However, the expected death did not come.

She opened her eyes and saw a scene she would never forget—

David stood there, roaring to the sky!

It wasn’t a human howl, but... a dragon’s roar!

A high-pitched, majestic, and soul-shaking dragon’s roar!

With this dragon’s roar, a dazzling golden light erupted from David’s body!

A Man Like None Other Novel Chapter 5885

Full Read Online Chapter 5885 of the novel A Man Like None Other
Chapter 5885

The golden light was so pure and sacred, it seemed capable of dispelling all darkness and evil in the world!

Within the golden light, the faint phantom of a five-clawed golden dragon could be seen, coiling around David, its head held high, its eyes like the sun and moon, looking down upon all living beings! Its terrifying dragon might was ten, even a hundred times stronger than that of the Flame Dragon!

It was a suppression from the deepest recesses of its bloodline, the absolute dominance of the superior over the inferior!

The Flame Dragon, poised to swoop down, was struck as if by lightning the moment it heard the dragon's roar and saw the phantom of the golden dragon!

Its enormous dragon eyes were filled with unbelievable terror and...awe!

"Roar..."

The Flame Dragon let out a low, almost mournful roar, its massive body beginning to tremble.

The dragon race had a strict hierarchy of bloodlines. The five-clawed golden dragon is the king of the dragon race, a legendary being capable of ruling over all dragons.

Even a mere trace of its bloodline pressure is enough to make ordinary dragons tremble in fear, unable to muster the slightest thought of resistance.

Although this fire dragon's cultivation had reached the peak of the ninth rank of the Heavenly Immortal Realm, its bloodline was only of medium quality. Faced with David's fully activated five-clawed golden dragon bloodline, it instinctively felt fear and wanted to submit.

David seized the opportunity, taking a step forward, the golden dragon phantom moving with it, its dragon might even intensifying!

He pointed at the fire dragon, uttering ancient dragon language: "Retreat!"

A simple word, yet like an imperial decree, carrying unquestionable majesty.

“Woo...”

The fire dragon let out a mournful cry of unwillingness, its massive body slowly retreating, sinking back into the lava lake.

Its golden dragon eyes gave David a deep look, filled with awe and doubt, but ultimately, it disappeared beneath the churning lava.

The crisis was averted.

David immediately withdrew his bloodline power, the golden light and the golden dragon phantom quickly dissipating. His face was pale, and his body swayed—fully activating the Golden Dragon bloodline had consumed a great deal of energy, almost draining him of thirty percent of his vital energy and immortal power.

“David!”

Huo Ling’er quickly supported him. “Are you alright?”

“I’m fine, let’s go.”

David said urgently, “The Flame Dragon is only temporarily stunned; it could react at any moment. Take Elder Yan Xin with us and leave immediately!”

Huo Ling’er nodded and ran to Elder Yan Xin’s side, finding that although he was severely injured and unconscious, he was still breathing.

She quickly took out a crimson pill and put it into the elder’s mouth, then looked at Yan Lie at the edge of the basin: “Senior brother, come help!”

Yan Lie then seemed to wake from a dream, his expression complex as he ran over and, together with Huo Ling’er, helped Elder Yan Xin up.

His eyes as he looked at David were filled with shock, jealousy, fear... and a deeply hidden killing intent.

He had seen that scene clearly.

The Golden Dragon bloodline!

This David actually possessed the Golden Dragon bloodline!

No wonder he was so powerful! No wonder the princess treats him so favorably!

“I must eliminate him...”

This thought surged in Yan Lie’s mind. “Otherwise, will I still have a place among the younger generation of the Earth Fire Pavilion? He’ll probably completely steal the princess’s heart...”

But on the surface, he showed gratitude: “Fellow Daoist Chen, thank you for saving us! The Earth Fire Pavilion will repay this kindness!”

David glanced at him and said calmly, “Let’s leave first.” The three of them , carrying the unconscious Elder Yan Xin, quickly retreated from the Yanling Basin.

On the way, Huo Ling’er tightly gripped David’s arm, her eyes red: “David, thank you... If it weren’t for you, I would have...”

“Princess, you don’t need to be so polite

,” David said calmly. “I’ve been entrusted with this task, and I must be loyal to it. Since I accepted the guard mission, I naturally must protect the princess’s safety.”

Huo Ling’er looked at his calm profile, a complex emotion welling up inside her.

The scene of David standing in front of her, activating his Golden Dragon bloodline to intimidate the Flame Dragon, was deeply etched in her heart.

At that moment, he was like a god descended to earth, majestic and powerful, making people’s hearts tremble, and even more so... moved.

“What was that just now...” she couldn’t help but ask.

“Just some life-saving trump cards,” David interrupted her. “Princess, please keep this a secret. I don’t want to cause unnecessary trouble.”

Huo Ling’er was taken aback, then nodded emphatically: “I understand! Don’t worry, I absolutely won’t tell anyone! Senior Brother Yan Lie, you must keep it a secret too!”

Yan Lie forced a smile: “Of course, Fellow Daoist Chen is our Earth Fire Pavilion’s benefactor, how could I harm him?”

But in his heart, that thought grew stronger and stronger.

The group quickly reunited with the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord, Lin Feng, Shi Meng, and others on the outer perimeter.

The other guards had long since disappeared, only Lin Feng and Shi Meng were still loyal and waited in a safe area.

Seeing David and the others emerge safely, the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord breathed a sigh of relief: "It's good that you're alright. That dragon roar just now... did you use your bloodline power?"

David nodded: "The situation was urgent, there was no other way."

The Crimson Cloud Demon Lord glanced at Yan Lie and transmitted his voice: "That kid saw it?"

"Yes."

"Trouble. He probably won't keep it a secret for you."

"Let's take it one step at a time."

The group dared not linger and retreated from the Crimson Flame Valley at full speed.

They arrived cautiously, and fled in panic. Fortunately, the Flame Dragon didn't pursue them, and they didn't encounter any other powerful beasts along the way.

Two hours later, the group finally escaped the canyon and returned to safety.

Elder Yanxin awoke under Huo Ling'er's care; although his injuries were severe, his life was not in danger.

He looked at David, his expression complex: "Young friend Chen, I will forever remember your life-saving grace. The Earth Fire Pavilion owes you a great favor."

David shook his head: "Elder, you flatter me. Since I accepted the mission, it is what I should do."

"No, it's different."

Elder Yan Xin looked at him deeply, "That Flame Dragon was at the peak of the ninth rank. The fact that you were able to save us from its claws shows a strength and courage far beyond what ordinary guards should do."

He paused, then added: "Young friend, rest assured, the Earth Fire Pavilion will give you a satisfactory explanation for today's events."

"Double the reward is the bare minimum. In addition, you can choose three treasures from the Earth Fire Pavilion's treasury. I will also personally inquire about the clues to the Earth Core Jade Marrow Milk for you."

This promise was truly weighty.

David clasped his hands in thanks: "Thank you, Elder."