Chapter 5973

Zhan E became even more cautious: "We cannot be careless. This boy is strange. He was able to recover so quickly from the backlash of the Divine King Bow. He must have had a fortuitous encounter. Moreover, he dared to come to our door on his own initiative. He must have something to rely on."

He pondered for a moment and sneered: "However, he has come at the right time. The three Reincarnation Guardians bestowed by the Lord need to be tested in actual combat."

"Pass down the order to activate the mountain-protecting formation and have all the cultivators who have pledged allegiance to us gather outside the mountain gate. I will crush these traitors in front of everyone and let everyone in the Twelfth Heaven know the consequences of opposing the Gate of Reincarnation!"

"Yes!"

Half an hour later, outside the mountain gate of the Evil Path Palace.

A dark mass of cultivators gathered like a tide, numbering no less than ten thousand.

These were cultivators from all sides drawn by the Gate of Reincarnation, now forming a human wall under the command of the Evil Path Hall.

Above the mountain gate, Zhan E and Xue Youming stood suspended in mid-air, behind them three Reincarnation Guardians and dozens of elite elders remaining from the Evil Path Hall.

The phantom of the Gate of Reincarnation flickered above the altar, casting a grayish-white halo that amplified their imposing aura.

When David and his group arrived, appearing outside the mountain gate, a stark contrast emerged.

One side was an army of ten thousand, their momentum fierce and their killing intent palpable.

The other side consisted of only a few dozen people, each exuding a calm and collected aura, especially David, who, despite being only a seventh-grade Celestial Immortal, seemed to be the center of the entire world.

All light, sound, and even the laws of nature seemed to tilt slightly towards his position.

“David!”

Zhan E’s voice, like a venomous snake’s hiss, echoed across the sky. “I didn’t expect you to have the audacity to willingly offer yourself to die! It seems the backlash from the God King’s Bow last time failed to kill you, giving you an unwarranted misconception.”

Xue Youming sneered, “Boy, my new arm just happens to need a sacrifice. Your head is perfect.”

Facing their mockery, David remained calm as an ancient well, not even glancing at them.

Instead, he turned his gaze to the three Reincarnation Guardians behind them, and the faint phantom of the Gate of Reincarnation on the altar further away.

“Only three puppets?”

he said calmly, his voice not loud, but clearly reaching everyone’s ears. “The Lord of Reincarnation doesn’t seem to value you much.”

“Insolence!”

Zhan E’s face darkened. “You dare to speak so arrogantly even when death is imminent! Today, I’ll let you witness the divine power bestowed by the Lord!”

He waved his hand: “Reincarnation Guardians, kill!”

Buzz!

The three previously motionless Reincarnation Guardians simultaneously emitted a gray-white light in their eyes.

Without roaring or howling, they simply took a step forward at the same time.

Boom!

Three gray-white beams of light shot into the sky from their bodies, intertwining in the air to form a massive triangular light array! Within the array, the energy of reincarnation surged like a tide, transforming into countless gray-white chains, swords, and giant hammer phantoms, crashing down upon David!

Each attack contained the terrifying power of a second-grade Upper Immortal, and carried the unique “erosion” and “assimilation” characteristics of the power of reincarnation.

Even a trace of it would allow the energy of reincarnation to invade the body of an ordinary cultivator, gradually causing them to lose their sense of self and become puppets.

The myriad cultivators watching below gasped in shock.

This was the power of the Reincarnation Guardians?

It was terrifying!

No wonder the Evil Path Palace dared to be so arrogant!

Jin Buhuan and the others also wore solemn expressions, instinctively gripping their magical treasures.

The combined attack of these three puppets was nearly at the level of a fourth-grade Upper Immortal!

However, facing this earth-shattering attack, David merely raised his right hand.

His five fingers spread, and the faint chaotic vortex mark on his palm glowed slightly.

“Disperse.”

A single, soft word.

There was no earth-shattering aura, no dazzling light.

Only a layer of gray ripples, almost imperceptible to the naked eye, emanated from David’s palm.

Wherever those ripples passed, a bizarre scene unfolded.

The countless gray-white chains, swords, and giant hammer phantoms raining down, upon touching the gray ripples, melted and disintegrated silently, like ice and snow under the sun!

They weren’t shattered, not neutralized, but rather seemed to be fundamentally “erased” from existence!

Even the surging reincarnation energy within the triangular light array rapidly thinned and dissipated under the sweep of the gray ripples!

“What?!”

Zhan E and Xue Youming exclaimed in shock at the same time, their eyes almost popping out of their sockets.

That was a combined attack from three second-grade Upper Immortal Reincarnation Guardians!

Even at their peak, they would have to take it seriously.

David actually neutralized it with just a single, light word?

How could this be?!

The myriad cultivators watching below were even more dumbfounded, a deathly silence falling over them.

Many cultivators who had originally been full of confidence in the Evil Path Palace began to waver at this moment.

David withdrew his hand, his gaze finally falling on Zhan E and Xue Youming, his tone still calm: “If this is your reliance, then it can end here.” As soon as he finished speaking, he moved.

Without using the Dragon-Slaying Sword, he simply pointed his fingers like a sword and lightly slashed in the air towards the three Reincarnation Guardians. ” Chaos Dividing Light.” A thin gray ray shot from David’s fingertip. The ray appeared slow, but it was incredibly fast, seemingly transcending the constraints of time.

It silently traversed the void, leaving a long-lasting black crack in its wake, with chaotic energy flowing around its edges. The three Reincarnation Guardians seemed to sense a deadly threat, simultaneously unleashing their strongest Reincarnation Qi, creating layers of gray-white barriers in front of them.

The light in their eyes flickered wildly, attempting to lock onto the gray ray and counterattack. But it was useless. The gray ray touched the first barrier. Poof. The barrier shattered like paper. The second, third, fourth... a series of soft poof sounds rang out as the gray ray, unstoppable, pierced through all the barriers, then lightly swept across the center of the three Reincarnation Guardians’ bodies.

Time seemed to stand still for a moment. The next instant!

Crack!

Crack!

Crack!

The movements of the three Reincarnation Guardians froze simultaneously.

They looked down at their bodies, only to see a fine gray crack extending from their foreheads to their abdomens.

Then, the crack widened.

Boom!

Boom!

Boom!

The three powerful Reincarnation Guardians, comparable to the second rank of the Upper Immortal Realm, exploded at the same time!

Not an explosion, but like weathered sand sculptures, they disintegrated into countless gray-white specks of light, which were then completely annihilated by the invisible chaotic power, leaving not even a speck of dust.

Silence.

Deathly silence.

Inside and outside the mountain gate, tens of thousands of cultivators, including the elders of the Evil Path Hall, including Jin Buhuan and others, all gaped, unable to utter a sound.

Three puppets of the second rank of the Upper Immortal Realm... just like that... gone?

One move?

No, it couldn't even be considered one move, just a casual slash?

What kind of power was this?

Third rank of the Upper Immortal Realm?

Fourth rank?

Or higher?
