Chapter 5976

As David finished speaking, the air in the valley seemed to freeze for a moment.

“No!” SH.S.Y.S.

“Absolutely not!”

Jin Buhuan, Li Baichuan, Dugu Ao, and others objected almost in unison, and even the Crimson Cloud Demon Lord frowned.

“David, are you crazy?”

Jin Buhuan said anxiously. “The Gate of Reincarnation is unpredictable, and the Lord of Reincarnation is even more unfathomable. Zhan E and Xue Youming are just its pawns. Although your strength has greatly improved, it is too dangerous to rashly enter its home ground!”

Li Baichuan also advised, “Boy, the soul of the Hu clan is important, but there is no need to rush. We can plan carefully and find out the details of the Gate of Reincarnation first.”

Dugu Ao said in a deep voice, “At least wait until we have reorganized the Twelve Heavens and mobilized all our forces before going together.”

The Crimson Cloud Demon Lord was silent for a moment, then spoke up, “David, the Lord of Reincarnation is definitely not a benevolent being. Senior Mu Sha also said that it may be a projection of an ancient will, possessing some of the laws of reincarnation.”

“Although your current chaotic power is strong, the outcome against such an existence is uncertain.”

Faced with everyone’s dissuasion, David’s expression was calm, but he shook his head firmly.

“I appreciate everyone’s kindness,” he said slowly, “but the longer the Hu clan’s souls remain in the Gate of Reincarnation, the greater the risk of them being completely assimilated. The Hu clan’s souls must be saved. This is something I promised Master Hu, and I must do it.”

He gazed at the faintly visible phantom of the Gate of Reincarnation in the distance, a complex light flashing in his eyes: "Moreover, I possess the Chaos Origin Seed within me, which has a subtle restraining effect on the power of reincarnation."

"Now that the Evil Path Palace has just been destroyed, the Lord of Reincarnation may not yet be fully aware of the situation, making this the perfect opportunity."

"But..." Jin Buhuan wanted to persuade him further.

David raised his hand to stop him, smiling slightly: "Rest assured, everyone, I know what I'm doing. If things become unmanageable, I will withdraw in time. Moreover..."

He paused, the chaotic vortex mark on his palm glowing slightly: "I also want to see whether this chaotic power is stronger or weaker than the true laws of reincarnation."

With that, David said no more, his figure transforming into a hazy gray stream of light, flying straight towards the altar atop Reincarnation Peak.

"David!" Crimson Cloud Demon Lord shouted, about to follow.

"Senior, please wait."

David's voice came from afar, "This journey is dangerous; I can handle it alone. You stay here and help Sect Master Jin and the others reorganize the situation. If I don't return within three days..."

He didn't finish, but his meaning was clear.

Crimson Cloud Demon Lord stopped in mid-air, a struggle flashing in his scarlet demonic eyes, but ultimately gritted his teeth and stopped.

He knew that once David made a decision, no one could change it. Moreover, with his current strength, going with him might only be a burden.

Jin Buhuan and the others watched David's departing figure with solemn expressions. They knew that this journey was fraught with peril, and his fate was uncertain.

"Pass down the order,"

Jin Buhuan took a deep breath, "Gather all forces and set up a grand formation outside the Evil Path Hall. If Fellow Daoist David has not returned in three days... we will launch a full-scale attack on the Gate of Reincarnation!"

"Yes!"

At the Evil Path Hall, on the altar. The hundred-zhang-tall phantom of the Gate of Reincarnation stood silently, its gray-white vortex slowly rotating, emanating a chilling ancient aura.

Countless intricate runes were carved on the gate, some resembling sacrificial offerings, some like the movement of stars, and some completely incomprehensible. David landed on the edge of the altar, calmly examining the gate. He could sense that the power of the Law of Reincarnation emanating from the gate subtly conflicted with the laws of this world, yet they were forcibly integrated, forming a strange balance.

This method of “opening a new path” was truly astonishing. “The souls of the Hu clan...” David murmured to himself, a resolute glint in his eyes. Without further hesitation, he took a step forward, heading straight for the Gate of Reincarnation. The moment he stepped within ten feet of the gate, a sudden change occurred! *Buzz... * The runes on the Gate of Reincarnation simultaneously lit up, their grayish-white light intensifying! The vortex within the gate suddenly accelerated, a terrifying suction force emanating from it.

At the same time, countless mixed roars, wails, and pleas echoed from within, as if billions of living beings were struggling within! These were fragments of consciousness left behind by the beings devoured and assimilated by the Gate of Reincarnation! David coldly snorted, the chaotic stars within his body slowly rotating, a layer of grayish-white chaotic domain naturally unfolding, isolating all those sounds and suction forces. He continued forward, and the instant his body touched the grayish-white vortex within the gate...

the world spun! Spacetime distorted! David felt as if he had been thrown into an endless vortex, countless lights, sounds, and fragments of memory rushing past him. There was the ecstatic joy of cultivators breaking through, the despair of living beings dying, the rise and fall of dynasties, the grandeur of stars being born and dying...

This was the torrent of memories of all living beings devoured and recorded over countless years before the Gate of Reincarnation! For an ordinary cultivator to enter, the sheer impact of these memories would be enough to shatter their soul and assimilate them into the Gate of Reincarnation.

But David’s Chaotic Realm remained as solid as a rock, blocking all these memories from the outside, allowing him to calmly observe from the perspective of an outsider. How long had passed—perhaps an instant, perhaps eternity—was unknown. All the chaos abruptly ceased.

David stood firmly on the ground and opened his eyes. Before him was a completely unfamiliar world. The sky was an eternal gray-white, devoid of sun, moon, and stars, only shrouded in a layer of hazy gray light.

The land was desolate, covered with strangely shaped gray rocks, and in the distance, a winding gray river flowed slowly, its waters reflecting countless twisted faces. The air was thick with the aura of reincarnation, more than ten times purer than the outside world, yet it carried a deathly stillness, a coldness, and an undeniable sense of order. Everything here—rocks, rivers, air, light—seemed to be governed by a unified law:

“Reincarnation.” “This is the inner world of the Gate of Reincarnation...the Land of Reincarnation?” David looked around, his expression grave. He could sense that here, the laws of the outside world were greatly weakened, replaced by the omnipresent law of reincarnation.

His chaotic power, though able to resist erosion, was somewhat sluggish in its operation.

Just then, the gray mist surged ahead, and three figures slowly emerged.

They were three humanoid creatures entirely formed from grayish-white mist. They had no facial features, no clothing, simply standing there silently, yet radiating a powerful aura. Each one was no weaker than the previous Reincarnation Guardian, and perhaps even stronger!

“Intruder...die...”

A hoarse, overlapping voice rang out simultaneously from the three gray figures, as if countless people were speaking at once.

Before the words of had even finished, the three gray figures moved at the same time!

They didn’t use any magical treasures or supernatural powers, they simply raised their hands, clenched their fists, and swung them.

But even such a simple action triggered a resonance of the laws of the entire Reincarnation Land!

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Three gray-white fists tore through the air, and wherever the fists passed, space was forcibly “reincarnated,” the young became old, the new decayed, and existence tended towards nothingness!

This was a terrifying method of directly applying the laws of reincarnation to an attack!

David's eyes narrowed, not daring to be careless. He clenched his right fist, condensed the power of chaos, and also threw a punch!

“Chaos Breaking Law!”

The gray chaotic fist imprint collided with the three reincarnation fist imprints in mid-air.

There was no earth-shattering explosion, only a strange dissolving sound.

Sizzle sizzle sizzle...

The instant the Chaos Fist Imprint and the Reincarnation Fist Imprint made contact, they frantically eroded and eroded each other!

The power of chaos sought to dismantle the laws of reincarnation, while the laws of reincarnation sought to assimilate the power of chaos!

In the end, David's Chaos Fist Imprint slightly prevailed, shattering all three Reincarnation Fist Imprints, but he also exhausted most of his own strength. The aftershocks struck the three gray figures, only causing them to stagger back a few steps; their misty bodies rippled briefly before returning to normal.

“Such powerful control over the laws of reincarnation...” David thought inwardly, shocked.

These three gray figures were clearly not true living beings, but rather “guardians” or “avatars” condensed from the laws of reincarnation.

Here, they were blessed by the entire Land of Reincarnation, making them virtually immortal.

“I must finish this quickly; I can't afford to waste time with them.”

David's mind raced, and his right hand formed a fist, the Dragon-Slaying Sword appearing in his grasp.

On the sword's blade, chaotic energy, the five elements cycle, earth fire, and the phantom of a golden dragon simultaneously manifested, the four forces perfectly merging into a hazy, gray sword aura dotted with four-colored starlight.

“Chaos – Creation!”

David unleashed a sword strike!

This strike no longer pursued subtle variations, but rather pushed the most fundamental characteristics of chaotic power—"creation" and "evolution"—to their extreme!

Wherever the sword aura passed, the gray-white energy of reincarnation was forcibly pushed aside and torn apart, as if to carve out a chaotic domain within this desolate land of reincarnation!

The three gray figures seemed to sense the terror of this sword strike, reacting differently for the first time.

They did not meet the attack head-on, but instead dispersed simultaneously, transforming into three wisps of gray mist, merging into the surrounding energy of reincarnation.

The next moment, the gray-white mist throughout the entire land of reincarnation surged wildly, pressing towards David from all directions!

Within the mist, countless gray-white chains, blades, and arrows coalesced, raining down upon David like a storm!

This is to use the power of the entire Reincarnation Land to completely suppress and assimilate him!

"A mere trick."

David's expression remained unchanged. His Chaotic Domain expanded to its full potential, its diameter increasing from a hundred zhang to three hundred zhang! Within the domain

, chaotic energy surged like raging waves, the five elements rotating and evolving into earth, fire, water, and wind. The true flames of earth fire burned fiercely, purifying all external forces, while the phantom of a golden dragon coiled and roared, suppressing all evil!

All the incoming gray-white attacks were rapidly decomposed and assimilated upon entering the Chaos Realm! The three gray figures reformed and stood outside the realm, their misty bodies trembling violently, clearly showing their extreme fear of the Chaos Realm.

"Since you won't come out, then I'll force you out."

David sneered, gripping the Dragon-Slaying Sword with both hands, the tip pointing downwards, and slamming it into the ground!

"Chaos – Earth Suppression!"

Rumble!

Centered on the Dragon-Slaying Sword, a ring of gray chaotic ripples spread outwards at an astonishing speed!

Wherever the ripples passed, the solid ground of the Reincarnation Land cracked inch by inch, and the gray-white rocks were eroded and transformed by the power of chaos!

The ground beneath the three gray figures' feet also trembled violently, forcing them to take flight.

Now!

A glint flashed in David's eyes, his left hand forming a hand seal, his right hand forming a sword-like gesture, and he pointed at the three gray figures in the air.

"Chaos – Threefold Return to Origin!"

Three gray rays shot out simultaneously from his fingertips, their speed surpassing thought, instantly striking the three gray figures!

This time, the gray rays didn't directly attack their bodies, but instead pierced their cores—the "nodes" where the laws of reincarnation condensed.

The three gray figures froze simultaneously, their mist churning violently, emitting silent roars.

They tried to mobilize the laws of reincarnation to resist, but the power of chaos had already invaded the law nodes, beginning to disintegrate their structure from within.

"Break!"

David uttered a low shout.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The three gray figures exploded simultaneously, transforming into three pure clusters of reincarnation energy.

This time, they couldn't re-condense, because the law nodes had been completely destroyed by the power of chaos.

The three clusters of reincarnation energy hovered in the air for a moment before being absorbed and transformed by David's Chaos Domain, becoming nourishment for the domain's growth.

Having dealt with the three gray guards, David didn't relax at all; instead, his expression became even more solemn.

He looked up into the depths of the Land of Reincarnation.

There, the grayish-white mist slowly parted to reveal a straight road.

At the end of the road, a majestic gray palace was faintly visible.

A grand, indifferent voice, seemingly from endless ages ago, came from the direction of the palace, echoing throughout the entire Realm of Reincarnation:

"Inheritor of Chaos...you have finally arrived."

The voice was devoid of emotion, yet carried an indifference that looked down upon all living beings.

David gripped the Dragon-Slaying Sword tightly and walked along the road, step by step, toward the gray palace.

As he stepped onto the steps before the palace, the palace doors opened silently.

Inside the hall, there was nothing but emptiness, except for a constantly shifting grayish-white ball of light suspended on the highest platform at the deepest part.

Within the ball of light, countless faces appeared and disappeared, some crying, some laughing, some joyful, some sorrowful.

Was that the true form of the Lord of Reincarnation? Or rather, its manifestation in this realm?

Chapter 5978

"Hand over the souls of the Hu clan, and I might spare your life."

David stood in the center of the hall, his voice calm yet carrying an undeniable resolve.

"Heh heh..."

A low laugh echoed from the grayish-white ball of light, filled with mockery and pity.
“Spare my life? Inheritor of Chaos, do you know that the moment you stepped into the Land of Reincarnation, your fate was sealed?”

“Oh?”

David raised an eyebrow. “Seasoned for what?”

“Seasoned to become a part of me, nourishment for the growth of the Laws of Reincarnation.”

The Lord of Reincarnation’s voice turned icy. “Your chaotic power is indeed special, having a restraining effect on my Laws of Reincarnation. But this is my domain, and I control a portion of the Laws of Reincarnation in this realm. You have no chance of winning.”

As soon as he finished speaking, the Qi of Reincarnation within the hall suddenly surged!

Countless gray-white chains of law stretched out from the void, coiling towards David like living creatures!

These chains differed from previous attacks; they were imbued with complete runes of the Law of Reincarnation, containing the supreme truths of laws such as “birth, aging, sickness, and death,” “the cycle of cause and effect,” and “the reincarnation of the true spirit”!

This was a true attack of law, touching the very source of the Great Dao!

David’s expression changed slightly. He unleashed his Chaos Domain at full power, simultaneously unleashing countless chaotic sword energies from the Dragon-Slaying Sword, slashing towards the chains of law.

Clang! Clang!

The chaotic sword energies struck the chains of law, producing a metallic clang!

The chains vibrated violently, their surface runes flickering, yet they were not severed!

Instead, even more chains of law surged from all directions, layering and compressing David’s Chaos Domain!

The domain’s range was compressed from three hundred zhang to two hundred zhang, one hundred zhang, and fifty zhang!

David felt the pressure increase dramatically. The chaotic stars within his body spun wildly, continuously outputting chaotic power to maintain the domain, but the rate of consumption far exceeded the rate of recovery.

“Useless.”

The Lord of Reincarnation’s voice was devoid of emotion. “Here, I am the law, I am order. Your chaotic power may be able to restrain reincarnation, but the difference in magnitude is too great. It’s like a cup of water can extinguish a candle, but it can’t extinguish a sea of fire.”

“Is that so?”

A fierce glint flashed in David’s eyes. “Then let’s see if your sea of fire engulfs me first, or if I evaporate your cup of water first!”

He held back no longer, pushing the “Primordial Qi Refining True Scripture” to its limit, completely fusing the four forces within his body, and the chaotic stars erupted with unprecedented light!

“Chaos – Creation of Heaven and Earth!”

David gripped his sword with both hands and unleashed his strongest sword strike to date towards the ball of light where the Lord of Reincarnation was located!

This sword strike contained all his understanding of the Dao of Chaos, creating heaven and earth from chaos, establishing order from disorder, and evolving all things from nothingness!

Where the sword light passed, the gray-white Qi of reincarnation was forcibly separated, the chains of law shattered inch by inch, and the entire hall trembled!

This sword strike briefly broke through the suppression of the laws of the Land of Reincarnation, carving out a passage to the Lord of Reincarnation! The sword light ultimately struck the grayish-white ball of light.

Swoosh...

The ball of light trembled violently, its grayish-white light dimming by a third, and a muffled groan emanated from within.

“Good! What a magnificent creation of chaos!” For the first time , the voice of the Lord of Reincarnation carried an emotional fluctuation—surprise, and even a hint of...excitement? “Your potential is greater than I imagined. By devouring you, my laws of reincarnation might advance further, perhaps even...filling their flaws.”

“Want to devour me? Then let’s see if you have the ability!”

David gritted his teeth and unleashed another sword strike.

But this time, the Lord of Reincarnation no longer passively defended.

The ball of grayish-white light suddenly expanded, transforming into a ten-zhang-tall grayish-white giant phantom.

The giant’s face was blurred, only its eyes were like two swirling grayish-white vortexes, deep and endless.

“Reincarnation: Tribulation of Rebirth!”

The giant phantom raised its hand and pointed at David.

Instantly, David felt an irresistible force descend upon him!

It wasn’t a force attacking his physical body, nor a force attacking his soul, but rather a force directly acting on his “existence” itself, on his “cause and effect,” “fate,” and “reincarnation”!

Countless images flashed before his eyes...

He saw his own cries at birth, the hardships of his childhood cultivation, the trembling of his first kill, the grief of losing loved ones, the despair of the Earth Fire Ancestor’s demise...

These were the “reincarnations” he had experienced in the past!

Not only that, but countless “futures” he had never experienced, yet which might occur—

he saw himself completely assimilated by the laws of reincarnation, becoming a walking corpse; he saw himself perish in battle, his soul sucked into the Gate of Reincarnation; he saw himself defeat the Lord of Reincarnation, only to have his Dao foundation collapse due to excessive consumption...

These were the possible “reincarnations” of the future!

Past, present, and future—fragments of three lifetimes of reincarnation simultaneously assaulted David's soul, threatening to plunge him into endless illusions of reincarnation, causing him to lose himself and ultimately be assimilated by the laws of reincarnation!

"What terrifying reincarnation powers..." David gritted his teeth, maintaining his composure, shrinking his chaotic domain to three feet around his body, desperately resisting this attack that struck at his very core.

But the Lord of Reincarnation's attacks came wave after wave.

"Reincarnation – Karma Slash!"

The giant phantom raised its hand again, and countless gray-white causal threads appeared in the void. The thickest of these connected David to the Lord of Reincarnation.

The giant phantom grasped the causal thread and yanked it sharply!

"Pfft!"

David was struck as if by a heavy blow, spitting out a mouthful of blood, his aura instantly weakening by three-tenths!

This was not a physical attack, but a direct severing of causality, damaging his very essence! If he hadn't been protected by the power of chaos, that attack would have been enough to cause irreparable cracks in his Dao foundation!

"Reincarnation – Fate Alteration!"

The giant phantom raised its hand for the third time. This time, it intended to directly alter David's "fate," forcibly reversing his fate from "life" to "death"!

David felt his life force rapidly draining away, as if an invisible hand was pushing him from a state of "living" towards "death"!

"Damn it... Is this the power of a being who truly masters the laws?"

A sense of powerlessness welled up in David's heart.

Chapter 5979

Although he had fused with the Chaos Origin Seed, causing his strength to surge, his understanding and application of the laws were still far inferior to that of an ancient being like the Lord of Reincarnation.

It was like a child, even with a divine weapon, who couldn't defeat a skilled adult.

"This can't go on..." A resolute glint flashed in David's eyes, "I'll fight!"

He focused all his attention on his dantian, and the chaotic star spun wildly, even developing fine cracks on its surface.

He was going to forcibly activate the primordial power of the chaotic star and use a forbidden secret technique recorded in the "Primordial Qi Refining True Scripture," a technique that he shouldn't be able to use at his current level!

But just then...

"Enough."

The voice of the Lord of Reincarnation rang out, tinged with amusement. "I have seen your strength. Very good, qualified to become my highest-ranking 'Messenger of Reincarnation'."

The giant phantom withdrew its hand, and David felt all the attacks vanish instantly, but his condition was already at its worst. He was covered in blood, his aura was weak, and his chaotic domain had shrunk back into his body, making it difficult for him to even stand.

"However, before that, you need to experience what the true 'suffering of reincarnation' is."

The Lord of Reincarnation's voice turned cold: "Only then will you understand how foolish it is to resist me." As soon as the words fell, the giant phantom opened its palm towards David.

In the palm, a gray-white vortex slowly rotated, emitting an aura that made David's soul tremble.

That was... the manifestation of the origin of the Law of Reincarnation!

"Bear the cycle of reincarnation. When you have experienced a hundred lifetimes of reincarnation, tasted all the bitterness of the world, and finally lost yourself, I will come to guide you, grant you new life, and make you my loyal servant."

The vortex detached from the giant's palm and slowly flew towards David.

David wanted to resist, to dodge, but his body was as if bound by invisible shackles, unable to move.

His chaotic power was exhausted, and his soul had been severely injured in the previous attack; he couldn't even muster a trace of power.

He could only watch helplessly as the grayish-white vortex disappeared into his brow.

Cold.

Endless cold.

Then came darkness.

Absolute darkness.

David's consciousness, like a candle flickering in the wind, swayed in the darkness before finally going out completely. In the moment before he completely lost consciousness, he vaguely heard the indifferent voice of the Lord of Reincarnation:

"See you a hundred years from now. I hope that by then, you will understand what...destiny is."

Before his eyes, the last glimmer of light disappeared.

David fell into eternal darkness.

The land of reincarnation returned to silence.

Only that gray-white ball of light floated quietly, within which countless faces rose and fell, and a new, blurry face was slowly coalescing...

"Shanshan...please open the door..."

David stood in front of Delia's house, shouting repeatedly!

"David, you convict, get out of here! My daughter is going to marry Jordan!"

Delia's mother, Ethel, kicked David hard and said!

"Impossible..." David shook his head.

Delia came out, took a few hundred yuan and threw it at David's face: "Get lost! Why not? I'm going to marry Brother Lei!"

"Delia, you dare to betray me? Take this Dragon-Slaying Sword..."

David was furious, and with a wave of his hand, he was about to unleash the Dragon-Slaying Sword.

But after waving it for a long time, nothing came out.

"David, are you trying to make my wedding day miserable?"

The wedding procession arrived, and Jordan got out of the car and yelled at David.

Chapter 5980

David groggily opened his eyes!

Before him was a blurry figure.

He rubbed his eyes hard, but the figure remained blurry, surrounded by a faint white halo.

"Who are you? Where am I?"

David asked blankly.

When the figure turned around, David froze, then ran over, hugged the figure, and cried.

"Mr. Shi, I...I just had a terrible dream!"

David remembered being beaten by those thugs, unable to use his abilities no matter how hard he tried, and felt extremely frightened and sad.

Mr. Shi smiled faintly and patted David's head: "Silly boy, that wasn't a dream..."

"Not a dream?"

David was stunned: "How could it not be a dream? In that dream, nobody recognized me, and nobody dared to hit me."

“That really wasn’t a dream. That was your other life. If you weren’t the Golden Dragon True Body, what you just saw was your world,”

Mr. Shi said.

David was stunned, somewhat bewildered.

“If I weren’t the Golden Dragon True Body, wouldn’t Sonya and Gu Ling’er recognize me?”

David looked at his hands.

“Of course. If you weren’t the Golden Dragon True Body, you wouldn’t have obtained the Heart-Concentrating Technique. Without the Heart-Concentrating Technique, you’d just be an ordinary person.”

“If you were an ordinary person, your life would change,”

Mr. Shi explained.

“I understand. I’ve gotten to where I am now not because I’m so amazing, but because of my Golden Dragon True Body, because my father is amazing.”

David finally understood that his ability to reach the Immortal Realm and have so many women was all because he had a powerful father.

If he were just an ordinary person, let alone making it to the Immortal Realm, even in the mortal world, young ladies like Sonya and Gu Ling’er wouldn’t even give David a second glance.

“Good to know. Often, a person’s birth determines their future potential. Just keep honing your skills!”

Mr. Shi gently patted David’s shoulder.

“Mr. Shi, what about the Lord of Reincarnation...”

“Over there...”

Mr. Shi pointed.

Only then did David notice that not far away, a middle-aged man who looked to be around thirty, fair-skinned and refined, was kneeling on the ground, trembling.

Most importantly, there was a puddle of water at his feet—he had clearly wet himself!

“He’s the Lord of Reincarnation?”

David looked at the man before him, his face full of disbelief.

This person didn’t look like the powerful Lord of Reincarnation at all.

A ruthless person who forged his own path!

“Hahaha, he’s no Lord of Reincarnation what? Just a ghost, using the Ghost Clan’s Gate of Reincarnation to swindle and deceive.”

Mr. Shi laughed heartily.

“Ghost Clan?” David was somewhat bewildered!

He had never heard of a ghost clan.

“The cycle of heaven and the rebirth of the soul are actually the abilities of the ghost clan. Do you remember that I could revive someone whose soul and spirit have been annihilated?” Mr.

Shi asked. “Yes, Mr. Shi, with a wave of your hand, you can annihilate someone’s soul and spirit, and with another wave, you can revive them,” David nodded. “Haha, actually, I’m not that powerful.

Those whose souls and spirits have been annihilated, those who no longer exist in the Three Realms, cannot possibly be revived.”

“The reason you see people whose souls and spirits have been annihilated still able to possess others is because after their souls and spirits are annihilated, they haven’t truly disappeared, but have been imprisoned in the Ghost Clan’s Reincarnation Division, which is why they can be revived,” Mr. Shi explained to David. “

Mr. Shi, are you a member of the ghost clan?” David looked at Mr. Shi in surprise. He had never imagined that Mr. Shi would be from another race. “I am not a member of the Ghost Clan, but I have a very good personal relationship with the Ghost King!” After saying this, Mr. Shi glanced at the Lord of Reincarnation: “Considering my personal relationship with your Ghost King, I will spare your life today. However, it is fate that your Ghost Clan has come to this.”

“Thank you for sparing my life...” The Lord of Reincarnation hurriedly kowtowed. “What about the souls of the Hu Clan? Release them immediately!” David asked the Lord of Reincarnation. “They have already been imprisoned in the Reincarnation Bureau. I... I cannot release them!” The Lord of Reincarnation said, trembling.

“Mr. Shi, Master Hu has been kind to me. I promise to rescue the souls of his clansmen so that they can rebuild their physical bodies.” “I hope you can help me rescue the souls of the Hu Clan.”

David looked at Mr. Shi with pleading eyes. “This Hu Mazi, he only teaches you how to play with women. Now that you are entangled in love, this guy is also responsible.”

Mr. Shi glared at David. David blushed, somewhat embarrassed, and said, “This has nothing to do with Master Hu. It’s just that I’m a sentimental fool.” “Sigh...” Mr. Shi sighed, and with a gentle wave of his hand, hundreds of rays of light of various colors shot into the sky from the Land of Reincarnation.

“Alright, the souls of the Hu clan have all returned!” “Thank you, Mr. Shi.” David was overjoyed, and then said, “Mr. Shi, since you’re here, could you help me restore Wan Jianxing, and teach the patriarch of the Divine Race a lesson? Wan Jianxing is the hall master of my Heavenly Dragon Palace.”

“And Senior Chi Yun’s woman, did you revive her?” “I don’t care...” Mr. Shi glared at David, “You promised to do it yourself. Weren’t you going to find the patriarch of the Divine Race and make him release Wan Jianxing?” “I...” David opened his mouth. With his strength, he didn’t know when he would be able to defeat the patriarch of the Divine Race.

He heard that the patriarch was a Golden Immortal, while he was just a mere Celestial Immortal. The patriarch could kill him with a single breath. “The matter has been resolved. Go to the Thirteenth Heaven. From now on, focus more on your cultivation,” Mr. Shi said. “I’m only at the Celestial Immortal Realm. To reach the Thirteenth Heaven, one needs to be at the Upper Immortal Realm. Besides, I’ve heard...”

Before David could finish speaking, everything went white!

When he could see clearly again, the gray-white of the Reincarnation Land was gone, replaced by a desolate wasteland.

The towering mountains, as if trampled by something, had crumbled.

“Mr. Shi, Mr. Shi...”

David shouted, but Mr. Shi was nowhere to be seen!
