

A Man Like None Other Novel Chapter 6021

Full Read Online Chapter 6021 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 6021

Meanwhile, in Yu Ranran's elegant pavilion,

David stood by the window, his gaze seemingly piercing through layers of buildings, landing on the divine envoy who was being fawned over like a star.

Yu Ranran had been temporarily lured to the adjacent quiet room under the pretext of researching a meditation array that required absolute silence.

As David had subtly observed, the guards outside the pavilion were indeed much more lax than in the previous two days, with longer intervals between patrols.

Especially the secluded paths leading to the treasury area, which were now almost deserted.

"A divine envoy... a sixth-grade Upper Immortal..."

David murmured to himself, a cold glint in his eyes.

This was an opportunity—an opportunity to contact the divine race, obtain intelligence, and perhaps even find the whereabouts of the Soul Refining Crystal!

Yu Wuji, that old fox, suddenly relaxed his surveillance, his intentions crystal clear: to use someone else to do his dirty work, or to test the waters.

Since that's the case, then so be it!

David's figure flickered, as if blending into the shadows, silently leaving the Xiuge Pavilion.

He didn't immediately rush to the treasury, but like the most patient hunter, he followed the deliberately relaxed paths, using his understanding of the Jade Immortal Mansion's formations and the concealment properties of chaotic power to avoid all possible eyes and ears, stealthily making his way.

The treasury was a heavily guarded area.

But at this moment, because of the arrival of the divine envoy, most attention was drawn to the area at the main entrance of the treasury where offerings were exchanged.

David appeared like a ghost in a secluded corner behind the treasury.

There was a hidden small door there, used for emergency evacuation or transporting special supplies, with complex restrictions on it.

But all of this was not insurmountable for David, who possessed some of Fei Qing's memories and chaotic power.

His fingertips flickered with a chaotic gray light, like the most skillful key, gently probing into the forbidden node, silently and temporarily "paralyzing" and "assimilating" it.

A small door quietly opened a crack.

Inside the warehouse, the lights were bright.

Yu Wuji was personally accompanying the Yun Ting envoy to inventory piles of shimmering spirit crystals, medicinal herbs, ores, and other offerings.

Several divine guards were scattered on guard.

David seemed to merge into the boundary between light and darkness, his aura completely concealed, his gaze quickly sweeping across the warehouse.

His target wasn't these ordinary offerings, but... the location of the Soul Refining Crystals!

According to Fei Qing's memories, and the information he had subtly obtained from Yu Ranran over the past few days, the Soul Refining Crystals should be stored in the deepest part of the treasury, in the Xuanbing Chamber, a barrier personally set up by Yu Wuji!

He moved like a slippery fish through the shadows of the massive shelves and mountains of supplies, avoiding the occasional warehouse steward, and stealthily made his way towards the direction he remembered.

Deep within the warehouse, the temperature noticeably dropped.

A heavy, dark iron gate, engraved with icy runes, appeared before them, its surface shimmering with light and radiating a chilling aura.

It was the Mystic Ice Chamber! Just as David was about to try and break down the door, he suddenly heard soft footsteps and voices behind him!

It was Yu Wuji and the envoy Yun Ting, having completed their transaction, walking towards them!

It seemed Yu Wuji was showing the envoy the wealth of the treasury, or ... deliberately leading the envoy here? A thought flashed through David's mind, and he instantly dodged behind a pile of tall ice-attribute ore, completely concealing his aura.

"Envoy, please look, this is the Mystic Ice Chamber, where some special supplies are stored," Yu Wuji's voice came, carrying a hint of barely perceptible tension.

Yun Ting, the envoy, walked to the door of the Xuanbing Chamber, sensing the fluctuations of the restrictions on the door, and nodded: "The protection is acceptable. Lord Yu, is the unfinished Soul Crystal being condensed here?"

"Indeed,"

Yu Wuji replied, "It will take several more days before it can be retrieved."

Yun Ting stared at the door of the Xuanbing Chamber, his eyes flashing, and suddenly said: "Open it, I want to see the progress with my own eyes." Yu Wuji's expression changed slightly: "Envoy, the condensation process cannot be disturbed, what if..."

"I know what I'm doing."

Yun Ting's tone was unquestionable, carrying the arrogance unique to the gods, "Or is there something... that Lord Yu doesn't want me to see?"

The atmosphere suddenly became tense.

David, hiding in the shadows, sneered inwardly.

That old fox Yu Wuji, as expected, had no good intentions. He deliberately led the envoy to the location where the Soul Crystal was stored, wanting to use the envoy's hand, or perhaps David himself who might be lurking nearby, to stir up the situation!

A flicker of struggle crossed Yu Wuji's face, but he ultimately sighed, seemingly resigned: "Since the envoy insists... so be it."

He stepped forward, forming hand seals, and unleashed several beams of spiritual light onto the door of the Xuanbing Chamber. The runes on the door lit up in succession, the chill intensified, and a low rumble emanated as it slowly opened inward.

A purer, colder aura, mixed with a faint, soul-disturbing wave of resentment, emanated from within.

A hint of satisfaction flashed in the eyes of the Yun Ting envoy, and he stepped forward to enter.

Just as his foot was about to step into the Xuanbing Chamber...

a sudden change occurred!

A hazy gray sword light erupted without warning from the shadow of the pile of ice-attribute ores beside him!

Its speed was extreme, as if it had broken through the limitations of space, aiming straight for the Yun Ting envoy's vitals in the back! Wherever the sword light passed, even the air emitted a faint hissing sound of being eroded and annihilated!

It was David's long-awaited fatal strike!

The target was not Yu Wuji, but this divine envoy!

Envoy Yun Ting, as expected of a sixth-grade Upper Immortal, reacted with lightning speed!

The instant the sword light struck his body, a dazzling silver divine light erupted from his body, and a close-fitting inner armor automatically appeared. At the same time, he forcefully twisted his body to the side!

*Swoosh!

The hazy sword light pierced through the silver divine light, leaving a deep mark on the high-grade inner armor, almost piercing it through!

Residual chaotic power seeped into his body, causing Envoy Yun Ting to groan and his face to turn pale instantly!

"How dare you!"

Envoy Yun Ting, filled with shock and anger, turned and shouted sharply. At the same time, a flash of light appeared in his hand, and a long sword, gleaming silver and crackling with lightning, appeared in his grasp. He slashed fiercely in the direction from which the sword light had come!

However, David retreated immediately after the attack, not bothering to linger.

His figure, like a ghost, once again disappeared into the shadows, rushing towards the outside of the warehouse!

His purpose had been achieved: to attack the envoy, create chaos, and test the envoy and Yu Wuji's reactions!

"Stop him!"

Envoy Yun Ting was furious. Someone had actually attacked him in the Jade Immortal Mansion's storeroom!

This was an utter disgrace!

He moved like lightning, giving chase, his thunderous sword light tearing through the air!

A Man Like None Other Novel Chapter 6022

Full Read Online Chapter 6022 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 6022

Yu Wuji also shouted urgently, "Assassin! Protect the envoy! Close the treasury! Capture that thief!"

He directed the guards who rushed to the scene, seemingly cooperating fully to capture the assassin, but a strange, almost imperceptible glint flashed deep in his eyes.

David's figure moved like a ghost through the intricate palaces, corridors, gardens, and rockeries of the Jade Immortal Mansion.

He wasn't fleeing aimlessly, but deliberately using the terrain and the mansion's formations to constantly disrupt the vision and perception of the relentlessly pursuing Yun Ting envoy.

The power of chaos granted him near-perfect stealth abilities; if Yun Ting hadn't used a divine secret technique to lock onto his last remaining faint aura, he would have already shaken him off.

After several close calls, David even deliberately provoked Yun Ting's attack to affect some unimportant warehouses and gardens, creating even greater chaos.

Finally, like a slippery eel, he narrowly escaped back to the Yu Ranran Pavilion just before Yun Ting's enraged sword aura struck.

At this moment, the seemingly lax guards around the pavilion had already been alerted and were tensely setting up defenses.

David, however, slipped through a tiny gap in their defenses like a wisp of smoke, instantly returning to the pavilion.

He quickly changed out of his slightly damaged outer robe, let his hair down, and made it appear as if he had just come from studying formations in the meditation room.

Almost the instant he finished doing this, hurried footsteps and shouts came from outside.

Yu Wuji, looking furious, followed by the ashen-faced and unsteady-breathing Yun Ting, and a large number of guards on high alert, surrounded the pavilion.

"Search! Don't miss a single corner! That assassin must have escaped into this area!"

Yu Wuji ordered sharply, his gaze sweeping across the pavilion, meeting David's eyes as he emerged from his room upon hearing the commotion. A complex, indescribable emotion flickered deep within his eyes.

The guards stormed into the pavilion like wolves, ransacking everything, even Yu Ranran's boudoir and quiet room.

Yu Ranran was also startled by the commotion outside. Emerging from her quiet room, she was both shocked and furious upon seeing the scene: "Father! What are you doing?! This is my place!"

"Ranran, an assassin infiltrated the treasury and attacked Envoy Yunting. He may have fled here. I am searching,"

Yu Wuji reassured her, while discreetly observing David's reaction.

David's face showed appropriate surprise and concern: "An assassin? Attacked the envoy? Lord, is the envoy injured?"

Envoy Yunting clutched the wound on his chest, still throbbing from the erosion of chaotic power, his face terribly grim.

His sharp gaze swept over David like a knife, then across the entire Xiuge Pavilion.

This young man looked frail, and his aura was indeed only around the eighth rank of the Celestial Immortal Realm, completely different from the ruthless and unpredictable assassin from before.

But... for some reason, he felt something was amiss.

The guards searched for a full half hour, turning the Xiuge Pavilion inside and out, naturally finding nothing. “

Lord, no trace of the assassin was found,” the guard captain reported, forcing a smile .

“Useless!”

Yu Wuji feigned rage. “Continue the search! Expand the search area! Seal off the entire inner palace, don’t let a single fly out!”

Envoy Yun Ting raised his hand, stopping Yu Wuji’s performance. He looked coldly at Yu Wuji, his voice filled with suppressed anger: “Lord Yu, I was attacked in your heavily guarded treasury. The assassin moved freely within your residence, finally disappearing without a trace near your daughter’s residence... Shouldn’t you give me a reasonable explanation?”

The atmosphere instantly plummeted to freezing.

All the guards fell silent, even Yu Ranran felt the suffocating pressure.

Yu Wuji took a deep breath, a helpless expression on his face: “Envoy, please calm down. This matter... alas, it is shameful to say. In recent years, there have always been some... restless cultivators who harbor resentment towards the Divine Race and have often criticized my Jade Immortal Palace for its allegiance to the Divine Race.” “They dare not confront us directly, so they often cause trouble in secret, either by spreading rumors, stealing resources, or even... like this time, they have dared to attack the envoy, intending to damage the relationship between my palace and the Divine Race and put my palace in an unjust position!”

He spoke earnestly, directing the blame towards the cultivators who resisted the Divine Race.

“When I was attacked, the assassin used strange and unheard-of power, definitely not that of an ordinary cultivator.”

Envoy Yun Ting stared at Yu Wuji, pressing him relentlessly. “Lord Yu, your treasury is heavily guarded. How did that assassin infiltrate? And how did he know my whereabouts so accurately, ambushing me in front of the Xuanbing Chamber?”

“This...”

Yu Wuji looked troubled. “The treasury’s restrictions are complex. That assassin might be an expert in formations. As for his whereabouts... the envoy’s arrival was quite grand; perhaps someone with ulterior motives secretly spied on him.”

“It’s all my fault for lax management and negligence, allowing the thief to take advantage! I have ordered a city-wide curfew, sealing off all passages, and I will definitely find the murderer and hand him over to the envoy for punishment!”

He was respectful, taking responsibility upon himself, while reiterating that he would do everything in his power to investigate.

Envoy Yun Ting’s eyes flickered, clearly not entirely believing Yu Wuji’s explanation.

The possibility of Jade Immortal Palace plotting something under his nose was far greater than any attempt by rebellious cultivators to infiltrate and assassinate him.

However, at this moment, he was alone deep within the core of Jade Immortal Palace. Although he had brought some guards, if he truly broke ties with Yu Wuji, he might not fare well.

Moreover, he was slightly injured, and the strange gray power made him quite wary.

After a moment’s hesitation, the envoy Yun Ting coldly snorted, “Fine, I’ll trust you this once. Lord Yu, I hope you can give the Divine Punishment Hall a satisfactory explanation as soon as possible.”

“As for the Soul Crystal... since it hasn’t been completed, I won’t linger. The offering has been handed over, and I will return immediately to report. Lord Yu, take care!”

He gave Yu Wuji a deep look, then glanced at the seemingly innocent David and the disgruntled Yu Ranran beside him, before turning away with a flick of his sleeve. Leading his divine guards, he left Jade Immortal Palace with a gloomy face amidst Yu Wuji’s “respectful farewell.”

He needed to collect the offerings elsewhere as soon as possible, then immediately return to the Hall of Divine Punishment to report today’s events, especially Yu Wuji’s unusual behavior and the situation of the strange assassin, to the Venerable One.

Watching the envoy Yun Ting’s carriage disappear into the horizon, the respect and sorrow on Yu Wuji’s face slowly faded, replaced by a deep calm.

He dismissed his guards, leaving only a few trusted confidants to guard the outer perimeter of the Xiu Pavilion.

A Man Like None Other Novel Chapter 6023

Full Read Online Chapter 6023 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 6023

“Ranran, go back to your room and rest. I have something to say to Mr. Chen,”

Yu Wuji said to his daughter, his tone leaving no room for argument.

Yu Ranran glanced at David worriedly, and seeing him nod slightly, she reluctantly returned to her room.

In the small hall outside the Xiuge Pavilion, only Yu Wuji and David remained.

The atmosphere was eerily quiet.

Yu Wuji slowly walked to the main seat and sat down, his gaze sharp as he scrutinized David.

After a long while, he finally spoke, “Mr. Chen, impressive skills.” David’s expression remained unchanged. He poured himself a cup of tea and took a small sip. “Why do you say that, Lord Yu? I’ve been studying formations here all this time and am unaware of what’s happening outside.”

“Heh.”

Yu Wuji chuckled, but his smile lacked warmth. “The warehouse assassin, he attacked and retreated in an instant, his movements unpredictable, his strength peculiar. He could move freely within my residence and finally disappeared near Ranran Pavilion... Mr. Chen, do you think such a coincidence is possible?”

David put down his teacup and looked up at Yu Wuji. “Does Lord Yu suspect me?”

“It’s not suspicion.”

Yu Wuji leaned forward slightly, his gaze sharp as a knife. “It’s certainty. Although you concealed it well, that gray, annihilating power—in the entire Jade Immortal Mansion, besides you, I can’t think of anyone else.”

David was silent for a moment, then suddenly smiled, but his smile carried a hint of coldness: “Since Lord Yu has already seen through it, why ask such a pointless question? And why deliberately relax the guards to create an opportunity for me?”

“Because I want to know who you really are and what you want.”

Yu Wuji said, enunciating each word clearly. “Now that Envoy Yun Ting is gone, it’s just you and me here. Can we be frank?”

David’s smile faded, his eyes becoming deep and sharp. The aura of a powerful figure was no longer deliberately concealed; although it was still the fluctuation of an eighth-grade Heavenly Immortal, it brought a subtle pressure to Yu Wuji.”Since the Lord of the Palace inquires, then this junior will no longer conceal anything,”

David said slowly. “My name is David, and I do indeed come from the lower realm. I have come here to seek out two old acquaintances, seniors Mu Sha and Liu Qingyin.”

Upon hearing these two names, Yu Wuji’s pupils contracted slightly, and the fingers on the armrest tightened imperceptibly.

“It seems the Lord of the Palace knows them,”

David stared at Yu Wuji. “This couple was publicly beheaded at Fallen Soul Slope for trespassing from the Heavenly Realm and spying on forbidden matters, and their souls were refined into soul crystals. Was this an order personally given by the Lord of the Palace?”

Yu Wuji remained silent, not denying it.

After a long while, he let out a long breath, his eyes filled with complex emotions: “Indeed, it was my order. But the reasons are not as simple as they are publicly stated.”

“I would like to hear the details,”

David said calmly, yet with an undeniable firmness.

“Musa and Liu Qingyin...”

Yu Wuji seemed to be recalling something, “They weren’t just simple stowaways. They seemed to know something... about how the Gods truly controlled the Thirteen Heavens, and their true purpose in collecting Soul Crystals.”

“They were secretly contacting some forces dissatisfied with the Gods, trying to do something.”

“I don’t know the specific details, but they sneaked into the vicinity of the warehouse, seemingly trying to steal or verify something, and were discovered by the formation.”

“The Gods quickly received the news and put pressure on me, ordering me to deal with them immediately, to execute them at all costs, and to refine their souls into Soul Crystals using the Soul Refining Formation and hand them over.”

He looked at David, his tone tinged with helplessness: “Although I am the lord of a prefecture, I have little choice in front of the Gods.

A Man Like None Other Novel Chapter 6024

Full Read Online Chapter 6024 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 6024

“Disobeying the divine decree, Jade Immortal Palace will be in danger of destruction in an instant. As for the matter of Mu Sha and his wife, I... am ashamed, but I had no choice.”

David digested this information, his heart filled with a mixture of anger and grief, but reason kept him calm. “So, where is their soul crystal, numbered Jiaxu 73?”

“In the Xuanbing Chamber.”

Yu Wuji said frankly, “But I cannot give it to you.”

“Why?” David’s eyes turned cold.

“Because this is my, and Jade Immortal Palace’s, lifeline,”

Yu Wuji said in a deep voice. “The Divine Race collects Soul Crystals periodically, and there are strict rules and purposes behind it. If I were to give this Soul Crystal to you privately, how would I explain myself when the next envoy comes?” “

At that time, the Divine Race will surely be furious and investigate thoroughly. Once they discover that the loss of the Soul Crystal is related to me, no one in the entire Jade Immortal Palace will survive.”

“Young friend Chen, I understand your desire to save your old friend, but I bear the weight of the survival of millions of lives in Jade Immortal City on my shoulders,” David said silently.

What Yu Wuji said was indeed the truth.

Forcibly taking the Soul Crystal would be tantamount to pushing Jade Immortal Palace to its doom, and it would also alert the Divine Race, making them even more vigilant.

“You killed Tu Gang, Tu Meng, and Fei Qing, right?” Yu Wuji suddenly asked.

David nodded: “Yes. They were merely executors, but their hands are stained with the blood of my old friends.”

Yu Wuji’s face showed no anger, but rather a hint of mockery: “Well done. Fei Qing, on the surface, was loyal to me, but in reality, he had long been secretly bribed by the Divine Race and was my biggest informant.” “

Many things I did were hindered because he was watching me. The Tu brothers were his henchmen, and their deaths were not a pity. By eliminating them, you have removed a lot of trouble for me.”

David looked at Yu Wuji with some surprise. It seemed that this Lord of the Palace harbored far deeper resentment and vigilance towards the Divine Race than it appeared on the surface. “Lord of the Palace, Yu, today you allowed me to attack the envoy and have been so frank with me here.

I’m afraid you didn’t just want to tell me this, did you?” David, with his keen insight, asked directly. Yu Wuji gave David a deep look, leaned back, and his eyes flashed with a gambler’s shrewdness. “Young friend Chen, you possess extraordinary skills, boundless potential, and exceptional courage, yet you clearly have a grudge against the Divine Race.

Today, your ability to injure Yun Ting, though aided by a sneak attack, demonstrates that you indeed have the resources to contend with or even confront the Divine Race.” “I, Yu Wuji, refuse to be the Divine Race’s dog for eternity, forced to be subservient and perform such heinous acts of extracting souls!”

“But I lack the power to resist. The four Venerables of the Divine Punishment Hall are like four insurmountable mountains.” “Helping you today is also helping myself. I want to take a gamble, betting that you, David, or the power behind you, have the ability to shake the Divine Race!” His voice was low but filled with determination:

“I cannot give you the soul crystals of Mu Sha and his wife for now. But I can promise that, given the right opportunity, I will find a way to help you obtain them and explore whether it is possible to awaken or preserve their remnant souls.”

“At the same time, I can provide you with some intelligence about the Divine Race in the Eastern Region, cover your activities in Jade Immortal City and even Azure Nether Immortal Continent, and even...

provide you with necessary support at crucial moments.” “In exchange,” Yu Wuji’s gaze was intense, “I need your promise that if you truly have the ability to fight against the gods, in the future...

you must help my Jade Immortal Palace break free from control and gain true freedom!” “And, you must not harm Ranran. Her love for you is genuine.”

A Man Like None Other Novel Chapter 6025

Full Read Online Chapter 6025 of the novel A Man Like None Other

Chapter 6025

David listened quietly, his mind racing.

Cooperating with Yu Wuji was undoubtedly extremely risky; if exposed, both of them would be doomed.

But the benefits were also obvious: a powerful ally within the God Clan’s controlled territory, an ally who understood the God Clan’s operations, and a glimmer of hope to rescue Senior Musa and his wife.

It was indeed a high-stakes gamble. But David had come for revenge and to uncover the truth, and had already disregarded life and death.

He stood up, walked to Yu Wuji, and extended his hand.

“Lord Yu, your frankness today is admirable. I will avenge Senior Mu Sha and investigate the secrets of the Divine Race.”

“If given the opportunity, I am willing to join hands with you, Lord Yu, to fight for justice for the Jade Immortal Palace and for all the oppressed beings of the Thirteen Heavens!”

David’s hand clasped tightly with Yu Wuji’s, and a fragile alliance was formed.

But the flames of revenge and investigation in David’s heart did not subside; instead, they burned even more fiercely.

Merely injuring Yun Ting was far from enough.

He needed to delve deeper and make more direct contact with the core of the Divine Race!

“Lord Yu...”

David released his hand, his gaze burning, “Will Envoy Yun Ting return directly to the Divine Punishment Hall after leaving?”

Yu Wuji shook his head: “No. His trip was routine to collect offerings and soul crystals from several forces in the Eastern Region. The Jade Immortal Palace was just one stop.” “

According to custom, he will continue to the next place, which should be the Xuanbing Valley in the northern part of the Eastern Region. He will only return to the Divine Punishment Hall to report after all the missions are completed.”

“Xuanbing Valley... how long will it take to get there?” David pressed.

“It could take half a day at the fastest, or a day at the slowest. His jade carriage isn’t slow, but it carries a large amount of offerings and follows a fixed route and handover procedure, so it won’t be too fast.”

Yu Wuji seemed to have guessed David’s thoughts and frowned. “Young friend Chen, you wouldn’t happen to be...”

“That’s right.”

A cold glint flashed in David’s eyes. “I want to keep this Yun Ting envoy here permanently. Then, I’ll use his identity for my own purposes.”

“Absolutely not!”

Yu Wuji blurted out, his expression grave. “Yun Ting is a sixth-grade Upper Immortal, and an elite member of the Divine Race. He’s not someone to be trifled with.”

“He also has dozens of Divine Race guards with him, none of them ordinary. Although you can injure him, the odds of winning a direct confrontation are uncertain.”

“Moreover, if a Divine Race envoy dies abroad, the Divine Punishment Hall will be furious and will send even stronger individuals to investigate. The risk is too great!”

David, however, seemed confident: “Lord, there’s no need to worry. I’m confident in a direct confrontation.”

“As for the risks... since I’ve decided to be an enemy of the Divine Race, I’ve already disregarded life and death.”

“If I can infiltrate the Divine Race’s stronghold as Yun Ting, gather intelligence, and even uncover the secrets of the Soul Crystal, this risk is worth taking.”

He paused, looking at Yu Wuji. “Besides, this is the first step in our cooperation, isn’t it? If I can’t even handle an injured Yun Ting, how can I talk about shaking the Divine Race?” Yu Wuji looked at David’s calm yet incredibly confident eyes, and his heart trembled.

This young man was not only incredibly audacious, but also seemed to possess some kind of hidden trump card.

Perhaps... he really could do it? After pondering for a long time, a decisive glint flashed in Yu Wuji’s eyes. Since the bet had already been placed, why not go even higher! “Alright!” Yu Wuji said in a deep voice,

“After Yun Ting leaves my Jade Immortal City, his route to the Profound Ice Valley will inevitably pass through Black Wind Gorge.” “The terrain there is treacherous, the spiritual energy is chaotic, and there are often spatial turbulences, making it an excellent location for an ambush. I can give you a detailed route map.”

“However...” he solemnly instructed, “You must kill him in one strike, leaving no survivors or traces!” “Moreover, Yun Ting must possess a secret treasure or restriction that allows him to urgently contact the Divine Punishment Hall. We must be extremely careful, and it would be best to instantly imprison his soul to prevent him from transmitting messages or self-destructing!” “I understand.” David nodded. Soul searching was originally his plan.

He not only wanted to kill him but also to obtain his memories. The two discussed in secret for a while and finalized the details. Yu Wuji gave David a clearly marked route map and information about the various ways Yun Ting might possess to protect himself and communicate.

David then entered the Demon Suppression Tower, using the time inside to further adjust his state, digest what he had gained from his dual cultivation with Yu Ranran, and push his combat power to its peak. While only half a day had passed outside, dozens of days had gone by inside the tower.

David quietly left the Xiuge Pavilion, still avoiding the lax guards, and like a ghost in the night, he left the Jade Immortal Mansion, speeding towards the Black Wind Gorge indicated by Yu Wuji.

He didn’t use any overly conspicuous movement techniques or magical treasures, only simulating ordinary escape light with the power of chaos, yet his speed was incredibly fast. Black Wind Gorge is located between two towering mountain ranges that are perpetually shrouded in black gales.

The gorge is deep and rugged, with strange black whirlwinds howling year-round. These whirlwinds can not only disrupt divine sense but also interfere with spatial stability and communication fluctuations to a certain extent, making it a natural treasure trove for murder, robbery, ambush, and assassination.

David arrived ahead of time, carefully surveyed the terrain, and chose a section of the gorge where the cliffs on both sides were steep and the black whirlwinds were most violent and chaotic.

He didn't set up a complex formation, but instead quietly merged his own chaotic power with the surrounding disordered spiritual energy and raging black whirlwind, as if he had become part of the canyon environment, his aura completely disappearing. He lay in wait like the most patient hunter.

About two hours later, the familiar cry of a phoenix and the sound of a chariot cutting through the air came from the horizon. A magnificent chariot pulled by a three-headed jade phoenix, surrounded by dozens of silver-armored guards, was flying towards Black Wind Gorge along the predetermined route.

Inside the chariot, Envoy Yun Ting's face was still gloomy. Although he had temporarily suppressed the injury to his chest caused by the chaotic power with a divine secret technique, it still ached faintly, making him extremely depressed. The details of the attack on Jade Immortal Mansion kept replaying in his mind, as well as Yu Wuji's seemingly respectful but secretly cunning behavior, and doubts arose one after another.

"Speed up and pass through the canyon ahead," Yun Ting ordered in a deep voice. The environment of Black Wind Gorge was harsh, and he instinctively didn't want to stay any longer. The chariot accelerated and plunged into the canyon. Just as it reached the narrowest point of the canyon, where the black whirlwind was at its most violent, another anomaly occurred!