Chapter 1601 An Ushered Era of Chaos! II

A party of terrifying Enders of Reality moved as they started off a maddening assassination attempt on a Future Candidate Ruler of a Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Bloodline!

But...this was not an isolated event.

Not by a long shot!

Across the vast Realities, many tumultuous events were occurring around major domains of power and areas where immense authority was concentrated under Primordials.

Across the vast Realities, outside the Boundary of a prominent Prime Reality of the Royal Wolf Bloodline that had an Eighth Firmament Overseer protected by many Royal Wolves at the Seventh Firmament.

Outside the Boundary of such a Reality, the Matriarch Belladonna could be seen along with the Blight Serpent Dragon Emperor as they had silently brought an army of Royal Blight Serpent Dragons outside the doors of a Prime Reality under Primordials, their armies not being alone as they were surrounded by terrific variations of Primordial Beasts releasing guttural roars of power!

Belladonna was bounded to her left by an Eighth Firmament Ender that had the body of an enormous Iridescent Purple Cosmic Serpent, its bestial eyes shining with malice as it roared out before descending unto the Prime Reality before them.

OOOOOH!

Surrounded by power on all sides, Belladonna had a sneer as she gazed at the unfolding chaos and slowly responding Primordials in the Reality below.

"It is time for the winds of change to ravage across Realities...it is time for the beginning of the end of the authority of Primordials!"

RUMBLE!

A declaration of war!

A war that would begin on this day and go on for a long, long time as the ushering of a new Era from an old one could not be done in a day.

Those acting to try and bring about a new Era knew this.

It was why they moved the way they moved as their actions spanned across countless Realities!

In another infinitesimally small region of the vast Realities.

The figure of a Draconic Elephantine Ender was watching thousands of Enders surrounded by Enlightened Zombies surge into a Prime Reality under the Cardinal Royal Solaris Simian Bloodline as his trunk bellowed out with excitement.

"I see."

Hyperion spoke out with fervor as he glanced at his destiny to see it rolling around with golden splendor.

"A war filled with Enders for me to devour...this is a glorious stage I cannot step off of!"

It was a selfish thought as a tumultuous and bloody conflict began. But in these vast Realities, one had to be cold-blooded and selfish if they ever wished to attain anything. So while seeing his very Bloodline declare war on Primordials and move while allied with other Bloodlines, Hyperion began to move and plan on how to best devour as many of these very same Enders to raise his own power and rise at the fastest possible pace during such a time!

In another region- this time near a Blue Tier Continuum Apocalypse Reality.

"You fucking dare?! Do you know who I am?!" With a look of rage and seriousness, an existence known as Europa stared at an Eighth Firmament Chthonian Telos backed by dozens of existences at the Seventh Firmament surrounding her and all those nearby as their eyes shone of malice and apocalypse.

"It is precisely because we know who you are that you must die, Princess. You and many others!"

The Eight Firmament Telos that released shocking waves of apocalyptic essence spoke coldly as it looked like a dead sea whale with a sparkling set of blue aurora wings, its eyes beginning to power up deadly lights thereafter as Europa's own eyes began to crackle with profound power while her body transformed into something else!

As she did so, her voice reverberated out to those around her.

"Eckert...bring out everything you have with your weak little Origin and try not to die. If you stay alive after all this...you might just have the bodies of many Seventh and Eighth Firmament fools under your Legions!"

WAA!

Her voice reached a blue eyed young man whose body was surrounded by waves of intense darkness, his eyes releasing tendrils of light as his face brought out into a devilish smile when facing enemies that would be certain death for others!

Such shocking events similarly unfolded across many regions of the vast Infinite Realities.

The Enders moved with shocking unity and timing as their targets were predetermined, whoever set up and planned such movements that spanned across different spacetimes being someone truly terrifying as their understanding of Destiny had to be entirely obscene!

This shock did not just pervade across the Infinite Realities though.

Across spaces and Dimension not seen by many, across Grotto Sanctums that powerful beings only knew about...golden blood spilled as a shocking cataclysm had begun at this time.

In a unique Dimension of Space that those of the Ninth Firmament of Ascendancy and below could not even reach.

"A Telos will still be a Telos at the end! We let you be our compatriot for all these eons and you dare to raise your eyes towards us?!"

RUMBLE!

A Reality shattering battle was unfolding in unseen planes of existence as the form of a creature the size of a Prime Reality was constantly flashing in and out of existence as his raucous laughter came out with ancientness and vicissitude.

"Haha...no need to be surprised, Little Vine Legend. This is simply my nature. The cycles of Continuum Apocalypse Realities satiated my hunger for Apocalypse briefly...but why would I not participate in Apocalypses of even grander scales? I would be going against my very own nature if I just stood by and let these Enders have all the fun!"

Shock and horror bloomed across the explored Realities and Explored Unique Dimensions as very few areas were untouched by the ushering of a New Era.

An Era of war and Conquest that would benefit some while harming the vast majority of others!

The vast Realities moved at their own pace as they had countless billions of years of history.

No single being could think themselves to be a chosen one of these vast Realities!

No single being could think that everything revolves around them!

When the times of chaos came and the Age of Emperors fully bloomed, nobody knew who would survive and come out on top as an Emperor to be respected and revered!

{Author Note}:: Yet another rendition of Noah Osmont!

Chapter 1602 An Ushered Era of Chaos! III

A cluster of shocking beings surrounded a Future Candidate Ruler of the Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Human Bloodline as their purpose was shockingly to assassinate!

The mystery of how they knew she would pass across this space across the vast Boundary Between Realities was unknown. The mystery of why she was targeted could be inferred as unfolding chaos broke out, but the party presented forth was overkill!

This...was what the vast majority of beings would believe when they stared at the group of Enders surrounding a single Cuboidal vessel with more than half of their strongest already releasing their most powerful attacks while fused with their dozens of Ascendancy Halos.

9 Ninth Firmament Enders releasing waves of horrendous power as they had to support them dozens of Enders at the Eighth Firmament of Ascendancy that vibrated with 20 Ascendancy Halos each! Then there were the Seventh Firmament Enders in the hundreds who either already had fused with their Halos, and there were less than half unfused as they showed 10 brilliant ascendancy Halos ranging from white to purple!

The entire domain for many light years was covered where not even a Primal Microbial species could escape, with an Enlightened Primordial Relic wielded by the most powerful White Dragon Ender releasing multicolored waves of light with the unique restriction of locking the essence of their targets momentarily to prevent them from even casting a single iota of an ability.

Then, there were three other Ninth Firmament Enders apart from the obsidian Scorpion shooting towards the cuboidal vessel as by all means...the single Ninth Firmament Pure-Blooded Human Guard surely could not stand against all of them, right? The Empress herself at the Eighth Firmament and her other guards at this same stage could sure not be able to extricate themselves out of this...yes?!

Let's not even mention the Seventh Firmament Enlightened Peerless Alchemist who should be one of the weakest beings in this enclosure!

If anyone looked at this situation, they would see that the fate of the party of Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Humans was sealed as the planners of this shocking move had judged that such a party of Enders would be enough to eradicate this Future Candidate Ruler just like many others on their list.

But...unknown to them, their target was not just a mere Candidate Ruler. Their target...was a hidden monster that had been living since the Olden Times!

"They dare?! Mere Enders dare to make me a target?! Me?!"

RUUUUUMBLE!

Obscene and pure unadulterated power leaked out from the cuboidal vessel that four Ninth tier Enders were surging towards, the small figure of Empress Genevieve that should have been locked down and not been able to cast anything releasing shocking waves of gold, red, and utterly black essence as she seemed utterly enraged!

Facing Nine Ninth Firmament Ender Tyrants and many more terrific Enders...she was more enraged more than scared!

Her dark hair fluttered over her shoulders madly as her blessed stature stood tall, her crimson gold crown spinning with immense splendor as her eyes released waves of pure regal darkness, her entire figure looking like an aged Empress from ancient times.

"Come out."

She spat out these words as she saw the Reality shattering attacks of four Ninth Firmament Enders arrive, her own body not even moving even though she seemed to have entirely been able to ignore the restrictions that the White Dragon Ender imposed- and she instead called for something to come out!

Just what exactly could turn the tides against attacks from four powered up Enders who had already fused with their 30 Ascendancy Halos? Four Beasts that shone with multicolored lights of the essence of multiple Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edicts?!

CRACK!

Before the Empress, space cracked and sundered as crimson blood spilled out like a gushing geyser. It quickly filled the exquisite command room of the vessel as it drowned every single being within, their Origins trembling as this crimson blood carried a terrifying authority and was simply the prelude of an aura of something horrendous!

"KAKAKA!"

Cackling waves of madness echoed out from the bleeding crack before the Empress as an object enlarged from it, the horrific form of an ancient crimson skull making its appearance as the sockets of this skull shone with radiant golden flames of rage, vicissitude, and brutality.

The aura far exceeded any Enlightened Primordial Relic or Sui Generis Enlightened Primordial Relic- this being something far, far above it all!

As if it was alive, the golden flames of this crimson skull rolled gloriously as its bloody set of teeth cackled- the viscous blood that had spread out around the command room increasing in volume, becoming tout, and focusing itself in the four different directions where the attacks of four Ninth Firmament Enders were coming from as the blood formed into four illusory devilish sanguine Flowers shining with a demonic glint, the aura they carried being something no normal existence could release.

"KAKAKA!"

With fervor and excitement, the crimson skull howled as the expression of Empress Genevieve became increasingly cold, her dark eyes shining with multicolored light as she watched the attacks reach their cuboidal vessel, four blooming bloody flowers reaching to intercept them as...

BZZZZT!

The obsidian Scorpion and three other Enders shining with an aurora of wings were brought to a halt, their faces becoming painted in surprise and shock as they actually felt a foreboding sensation and did not proceed forward any further.

The multicolored eyes of the White Dragon Ender from afar shine luminously as they turned stern, noticing the demonic glint from the bloody illusory flowers coming from a crimson skull that was just called out, its words coming out as they caused the very surroundings to shudder.

"That...is something TABOO!"

The word 'taboo' was used as it didn't relate to the meaning of something that was just not allowed or permitted. It was used to specify a type of thing that no existences in the Firmaments of Ascendancy should have access to.

The existence that had called it out was truly not simple, the things she had access to being concepts and items that others could not even fully imagine!

Her figure rose at this moment as she brought her mesmerizing palm to stroke the crimson skull coldly, the Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Humans behind her finally being able to move freely once more as many of them shuddered when staring at the item the Empress had called out, their bodies exploding with an array of colorful Ascendancy Halos thereafter as the true might of the Pure-Blooded Bloodline bloomed.

SHAAA!

The cuboidal vessel they were on disappeared as the deadliest strike of an assassination was stopped with ease.

As if left unrestricted, the crimson blood leaking from a cackling bloody skull began to spread out and weave into tendrils of pulsing blood that shot out towards the Four Ninth Firmament Enders!

The enraged eyes of the Empress shone as she stroked the skull, speaking out a set of words that caused the weaker Enders to shudder as she turned to gaze at them all for even daring to make designs on her.

"Let loose and drink plenty...MADNESS!"

WAA!

Chapter 1603 An Ushered Era of Chaos! IV

<You have been affected by the influence of MADNESS and received the temporary reality altering Affixes of [Reasoned Madness], [Origin and Soul Expansion], [Soul Corruption], and [Resource Overdrive].>

Noah's expression was unchanged as such a prompt bloomed over his eyes the moment Empress Genevieve called out something horrific. Prompts due an item that granted Reality altering affixes Noah could only set a few of through RUINATION! Reality altering affixes that caused his origin to bubble with power as an unwanted brand of corruption actually forcefully tainted his soul due to this devilish crimson skull.

An item with sentience similar to Noah's Enlightened Primordial Relics, but far higher in tiers as the voice of a faraway Ender had called it TABOO!

"Let loose and drink plenty...MADNESS!"

The enraged voice of the Empress echoed out as she targeted four Ninth Firmament Enders as if she shockingly forgot she was at the Eighth Firmament! Yet the aura she released truly didn't match it as it seemed more horrific than even the enraged Ninth Firmament Pure-Blooded Human Guard beside her, her body shockingly blooming with Ascendancy Halos at this moment.

Not the 20 that all Eighth Firmament existences seemed to display.

30 brilliant Ascendancy Halos that only Ninth Firmament experts showed bloomed around her robust and blessed figure as her golden wrappings caused her bountiful chest to tremble with grandeur!

30 Ascendancy Halos...that each shone with a terrific golden glint!

Even more gloriously, each of these golden Halos were covered with their own Olden Runic Ecritures, some of these Halos even showing crimson irises erupting from their golden regality as they entirely outmatched anyone else's on the battlefield.

BZZZZT!

Thereafter, bellowing tendrils of stellar Realities began to come to life from the back of her head, beside her two shoulders, and then from three points on her back as the illusory sight of five Reality Passages formed in this enclosed domain!

Space shuddered and quivered. Immense power and pressure was released as after such a shocking display, Beatrix moved along with the other Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Humans beside her.

"Protect the Empress!"

BOOM!

Her body and the bodies of other Pure-Blooded Humans exploded with Ascendancy Halos and the illusory light of two or three Reality Passages, a counterattack blooming against a siege of exceedingly powerful Enders of Reality at this moment!

The figure of a lone Seventh Firmament Enlightened Peerless Alchemist was entirely neglected.

Noah watched the utterly ecstatic show of power before him as his illusory crown that now carried the colors of crimson, gold, and blue was spinning ever faster as it became more and more corporeal.

In such an environment, he had to survive. His destiny was spinning out with surging waves as it told him of bountiful dangers and opportunities coming hand in hand, his vast fortune telling him of a grand change coming as if he played it well enough...Reality would be but a mere achievement in a short period of time.

To survive this shocking Era that was blooming, Noah had to be even more destructive and overpowered!

And for this...his Concepts were the answer.

<Due to the elevation of the Tyrannical Emperor, the Flames of the Tyrannical Emperor have burned away the Visage of the Emperor of Old Bloodline and obtained the full inheritance of the Bloodline, the identity becoming clear as the Supreme Tier Olden Bloodline of the Arcadian Tyrant now runs at the core of your Origin and Soul.>

WAA!

<The Title of Emperor of Arcadian Tyranny has been granted.>

Before the eyes of his main body, the prompts that told him of the elevation of the Tyrannical Emperor to the Quasi-TABOO level were blooming as he could read over them and ascertain their details before even an instant passed.

The speed of his thought processing was so powerful that when his main body returned to the Cosmic Holy Land, he could seemingly be thinking for a few hours before even an instant had passed in the outside world!

The shocking assassination of the Empress that put the life of one of his True Sanguine Clones in danger was akin to being paused and moving in slow motion as Noah took in all the information he was receiving while his main body analyzed and processed it in the Cosmic Holy Land...all the while Prime Realities began to fuse into his Infinite Reality and 5 Stars of Conquest formed from every single Prime Reality!

So at this moment, he was able to focus on the words that said he had Unlocked the Supreme Tier Olden Bloodline of the Arcadian Tyrant. The granting of the Bloodline of the Emperor of Arcadian Tyranny!

He was able to feel the shocking golden blood surging from the depths of his Origin and soul as his Ascendancy Value rose by another few million! Along with this, immense amounts of information flooded into his brain with its source being this very same source of golden blood.

<All basic abilities under the Nomological Edict of the Tyrannical Emperor have been greatly elevated, with the Ultimate Abilities under the Flames of the Tyrannical Emperor undergoing the greatest change.>

<The Ultimate Ability Nomological Regime is elevated to the point that the possibility to have the concept of the Tyrannical Emperor be elevated to TABOO has been opened, along with the possibility to elevate other Nomological Edicts to TABOO with the prerequisites of 5,000 True Stars of Conquest.>

<The Ultimate Ability Benevolent Light of Empowerment has been transformed as at this moment, it can grant Empowerment twice as it is also no longer restricted to concepts- with the Benevolent Light of Empowerment being capable of washing over and empowering the origin and souls of existences, concepts, items, and even treasures with the exchange of a single True Star Of Conquest. The Second Empowerment has a cost of ten times more than the first one...>

Bountiful glory!

That was what lay before Noah's eyes as the Nomological Edict of the Tyrannical Emperor at the level of Quasi-TABOO Unlocked many things. The identity of the Olden Bloodline was revealed, the chance to elevate his concepts to TABOO were open, and he could now even Empower the Origin and souls of existences along with items!

All of these were simply fantastic, but he wasn't done receiving information as the most prized one came from the Olden Bloodline of the Arcadian Tyrant.

Just who was the Arcadian Tyrant, and what did this title stand for?

<The memories of the Olden Emperor of Arcadian Tyranny begin to awaken as the technique [Arcadian Body and Soul Refinement] that allows one to forge the Limit Breaking Extreme Physique of the Arcadian Tyrant has been granted.>

...!

Chapter 1604 The Olden Emperor of ArcadianTyranny! I

Multicolored waves of beautiful essence pristinely flowed in slow motion before Noah's eyes in the Cosmic Holy Land.

He was in a Domain of time as he further focused on his overly strong soul and speed of thought processing to expand microseconds into hours- to the point that it was as if the events outside had nearly come to a halt!

The vibrant and unspeakable aura leaking from Empress Genevieve as she alone faced four Ninth Firmament Enders of Reality with something TABOO in her hands. The Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Human Guards that erupted with glorious Ascendancy Halos to shoot towards the White Dragon Ender and the remaining four Enders floating in different directions! The Dozens of Eighth Firmament and hundreds of Seventh Firmament Enders dazzling with waves of attacks from afar. Then...the lone figure of the Seventh Firmament True Sanguine Clone that had not made any moves.

All of this had nearly come to a halt in Noah's mind as when his lone True Sanguine Clone made a move in this terrifying enclosure, he wanted it to be a dazzling one that granted him tremendous benefits!

This was because all around him, hundreds of Seventh Firmament Enders that represented too many Insuperable Nomological Edicts waited!

Dozens of Eighth Firmament Enders who actually had a Golden Halo of Ascendancy here and there...they also lay in waiting if Noah could manage to defeat them as he could increase his collection of Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edict.

As for the 9 Ninth Firmament Enders...could Noah even touch them at this moment?!

The answer was unknown...but the possibilities were endless. This was because at this moment, Noah's irises spun with stellar light as the Nomological Edict of the Resplendent Treasure Emperor had covered them- the Resplendent Treasure Cache being activated as it shone on all the Eight and Ninth Firmament Enders that Noah could see!

If he could manage to kill any one of them...loot even higher than the level of the Gazer would land on his lap as things like Breath of Reality, Olden Orb of Transmogrification, Reality Jewels, and Blueprints of unique Constructs...they would bloom before him once again.

For Noah to utilize this chance to the fullest and obtain the maximum number of rewards possible, he had to prepare as his Main body moved his thoughts with haste in the Cosmic Holy Land, pulling in the new information he was receiving about the boons of the elevation of the Tyrannical Emperor while also feeling the strings of destiny being pulled as he received messages from multiple sources simultaneously!

From an existence linked to him by destiny- he received a vast memory of an army of Enders flooding towards a Prime Reality as a Draconic Elephantine Ender was about to join the fray. From his conquered Vassal Victoria of the Celestial Vines, he saw the memory of armies of Enlightened Zombies and Enders moving in conjunction as one of the main Prime Realities of Celestial Vines was actually being attacked!

'So...the Enders have begun their moves across the vast Realities...' Noah's thoughts played with Destiny as a golden book unfurled its pages within his mind, his thoughts being steered towards the right direction as a clearer picture was drawn in his mind.

'Just how far does their influence stretch? Will their alliances with other Bloodlines and the unfolding chaos last long or will Primordials suppress them in an extremely short period of time?'

His eyes danced with possibilities as these were questions one had to wonder!

Primordials had taken rulership and authorities over the vast Realities for eons! Would their authority really be tested and shaken by this move by Enders and those colluding with them, or would things unfold in an entirely different direction?

There were still too many unknowns as for now, Noah only saw what was directly ahead of him.

A battle where his True Sanguine Clone still faces the threat of death as the greatest danger from this Ender Assassination enclosure had yet to even show itself!

So...

'Let's power up to the fullest before collecting as much loot as possible!'

WAA!

Noah's thoughts were set as his focus honed in on the newly unlocked Bloodline of the Olden Emperor of Arcadian Tyranny that granted a technique for him to achieve a Limit Breaking Extreme Physique.

The boosts and elevation of Nomological Edicts were truly systemic as even though they each gave their own boosts, one could see a sense of similarities.

An example were the two concepts of Apocalypse and Tyrannical Emperor where after their elevation to Quasi-TABOO, they each Unlocked a Supreme Tier Bloodline and a method to attain a Limit Breaking Extreme Physique through their own means!

The only question that remained was just which one granted the better boosts and had a more efficient utilization? There was the changed ability of <Reality Devourer> to <Reality Limit Breaker> from the concept of Apocalypse that required Noah to spend 10,000 Units of the Essence of Reality to devour a Reality in exchange for slowly building up towards a Limit Breaking Extreme Physique.

Now, the concept of the Tyrannical Emperor Unlocked the Bloodline of the Olden Emperor of Arcadian Tyranny as would its utilization and Limit Breaking Extreme Physique it came with be something even more fantastical?!

<Olden Emperor of Arcadian Tyranny>:: An Olden Bloodline inherited by meeting the conditions set forth by the Arcadian Tyrant. The name of Arcadian was set forth by the Progenitor of this Bloodline as a contrast to their true nature of an existence that is always embroiled and constantly influencing the weaving of destiny around them, an existence that in the Olden Times had bathed countless Realities, Dimensions, and Grotto Sanctums in the blood of his enemies. When he stared out from his throne built by the blood and origins of countless shattered Realities, what he wished for the most was peace and calm- and so he titled himself the Emperor of Arcadian Tyranny. It is a Bloodline with roots tracing back across space and time as techniques from the Olden Time can return through your hands, with currently unlocked techniques being <Arcadian Body and Soul Refinement>, <Throne of Arcadian Tyranny>, and <Wisps of the Arcadian Modus Operandi>. The Heart of the Arcadian Tyrant is calm and peaceful as they are unphased by any outside forces no matter the situation, with the possibilities of unlocking further uses of this Bloodline relying on the actions of the holder of this Bloodline itself...>

'Ah...' Noah's eyes shone with a devilish glint of wonder as he read over the details and memories of the uniqueness that was the Emperor of Arcadian Tyranny!

Chapter 1605 The Olden Emperor of Arcadian Tyranny! II

Noah's thoughts moved with haste as he put his amazement and wonder on hold after viewing the details of the Olden Bloodline of the Arcadian Tyrant, his eyes honing onto their skills!

<Arcadian Body and Soul Refinement>:: The will of the Arcadian Tyrant quietly calls upon the submission of the body and Bloodlines of fallen enemies to be utilized for the Refinement of their own body and soul. Only the True Blood and Bloodlines of existences at the Eighth Firmament and above who have broken past their limits contain enough potency to activate this ability, with every fallen target that cannot defend their Origins having their True Blood and Bloodlines directly devoured to aid in the refinement of your Body and Soul. Achieving complete refinement will grant the Limit Breaking Extreme Arcadian Physique that will at a minimum guarantee a body capable of withstanding the connection of 10 Reality Passages. Current progression of the Limit Breaking Extreme Arcadian Physique- 0%>

Something truly beautiful appeared as it also held extreme conditions to achieve it!

To begin working on the Limit Breaking Extreme Arcadian Physique, Noah had to use the fallen bodies of Eighth Firmament existences and above as it was in case to ask an existence who had yet to break past the limits and forge Reality Passages to actually be targeting existences that had done so!

It was insane...and yet it was the path of the Arcadian Tyrant as such an existence was supposed to be capable of scanning upwards and ignoring the rank in power to be capable of wiping the floors with existences a stage above them.

'10 Reality Passages!' This wonder caused Noah's eyes to vibrate as even without the factor of a Modus Operandi coming into play, the Extreme Arcadian Physique could already grant one something so ridiculous as it made Noah wonder about the Reality Passages displayed by Empress Genevieve!

The reality known and set forth by many was that the moment you broke past your limits and established your Reality Passages for the first time- that was it. You couldn't somehow forge more later or reduce what you had as if you had forged a single one, you would forever be stuck with that and never achieve Reality! The 5 Reality Passages shown by Empress Genevieve were domineering and guaranteed her Passage into the realm of Reality, but were they really all she had?

Since Noah could possibly achieve 10 just from the Physique of his Olden Bloodline, could this Empress not do the same with hers?

There were many questions with little information as for the sake of time, Noah chose to move on with his preparations as he continued on the currently unlocked abilities of Arcadian Tyranny.

<Throne of Arcadian Tyranny>:: The Throne of Arcadian Authority can be called out from the illusory Emperor's Crown, allowing for the Arcadian Tyrant to undergo a passive <Soul Strengthening> whenever they bathe under its light, along with the capabilities to optimize the strength of their body and origin in unique ways. One can cleanse their body and soul of unneeded concepts as they turned into pure essence to strengthen their soul, and they can also seamlessly forge new concepts and add them to their soul as the effects of <Affinity Attunement>, <Monarchical Comprehension>, and <Seeker of Taboo> are constantly applied to them to aid in their understanding...

<Wisps of the Arcadian Modus Operandi>:: The method to operate one's Origin in the same manner as the Progenitor of Arcadian Tyranny can be obtained by following the wisps of the Arcadian Modus Operandi to lead you to the Remnants of the Olden Times that cannot be reached through normal means...

The other two features under the unlocked Emperor of Arcadian Tyranny were shown as each of them came with many possibilities, especially the one that could actually lead Noah to unknown locations that held things from the Olden Times!

It was something to utilize in the near future as because of the limitations of time at this moment, Noah's hand rose up as he tapped the illusory crown floating above him while calling out.

"Throne of Arcadian Tyranny."

BZZZT!

Resplendence erupted around him as the crown shimmered with authority, shooting it out as it formed into an exquisite illusory throne that seemed to have crimson and gold flames constantly dancing over it as they formed into a flaming floor that the throne floated atop of!

Noah's figure went forward to sit on the Throne of Arcadian Tyranny as his soul instantly began to feel its nourishment, his eyes already seeing forward into the future when he would choose to eradicate the concepts he gained in exchange for strengthening his soul as with the Hundreds of Seventh Firmament Enders included in the Ender Assassination party...Noah would be able to obtain thousands of Nomological Edicts that ranged from Minor to Insuperable which he wouldn't have the uses for!

But this was only a possibility for him if his True Sanguine Clone could survive amidst a battle that included Ninth Firmament Tyrants. For this, his preparations involved the concept of Apocalypse that could now even allow him to break the Ascendancy Halos of others if their Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edicts could not defend against him, the concept of the Tyrannical Emperor opening the doorway to the Arcadian Body and Soul Refinement to help him break past his limits if he could take down the enemies before him...and there was one other crucial thing he had yet to do that would close up everything and have him ready.

The next step to making himself as powerful as possible before he made his move was...

"Burn 50 True Stars of Conquest to elevate Sanguine Emperor to Quasi-TABOO."

He spoke out domineeringly while situated upon the nourishing Throne of Arcadian Tyranny, his Origin buzzing with magisterial waves of power as the light of newly gained True Stars of Conquest erupted out!

50 dazzling stars spun around him as they represented the conquest of 50 Emerging Realities, austere rivers of milky white light beginning to swirl around the Throne of Arcadian Tyranny as they all surged towards a single being as he elevated a concept that was a major reason to the level of strength he currently had!

Chapter 1606 Pioneer! I

The first Prime Reality experienced Apocalypse and fused into the Infinite Reality as one of Noah's True Sanguine Clones was observing the wondrous sight while the main body overlooked the coming of the Arcadian Tyrant and the elevation of the Sanguine Emperor while also observing the assassination attempt still moving in extremely slowed time far away.

With the Assimilation of this Reality, tens of thousands of Cosmos were added along with the unique domains that the Overseer of this Reality managed! So austere lands that had clusters of essence of destiny were seamlessly placed towards the center of the Infinite Reality as the Overseer of this past Prime Reality and the Sixth Firmament existences and below...they had all already kneeled under the Atlatl of Reality!

Their Fealty was sworn to the being wielding the Spear of Reality as with every existence bending the knee and being assimilated into his Reality, Noah's Origin and Power thrived even more under the effects of the Tyrannical Emperor!

This was even more so after the elevation of this Edict to Quasi-TABOO as the effects of [Tyranny of the Soul] and [Oath to the Emperor] were magnified even more.

The conquest of entire Realities and the existences within them whose numbers were just becoming countless...the feedback from the Nomological Edict of the Tyrannical Emperor allowed Noah to feed off every Vassal pledging Fealty as his soul was strengthened by leaps and bounds!

To understand where he stood, one would have to equate it to a being that had lived for hundreds of millions of years and accumulated the strengthening of their soul this whole time with hard effort and the use of treasures.

He had already far surpassed the soul strength of normal Eighth Firmament existences as on this aspect...he could be considered to have already exceeded the limit! And the true issue that would give birth to a glorious happening in the future was the fact that the strengthening of his soul faced no limitations due to [Tyranny of the Soul] that simply added to his soul strength the more Realities full of beings that he conquered!

The True Sanguine Clone felt this feedback of soul strength from the main body as this broken limit was just the first aspect that Noah planned to exceed, with his having yet to even refine his soul with the means of the Olden Emperor of Arcadian Tyranny.

"Now, what will the Sanguine Emperor call forth?"

BZZZT!

Multicolored essence bloomed as the focus returned to Noah's main body.

50 True Stars of Conquest spun over his head as all their essence gushed into his Origin, painting a portion of his soul that contained the authority of the Sanguine Emperor entirely white as this concept that had made many things possible for Noah faced an elevation to Quasi-TABOO!

This was the concept that allowed Noah to birth the unique Ascendancy Halos he held. The concept that allowed for his True Sanguine Clone that were akin to three other combatants capable of dishing out ridiculous power! A concept that Interlinked the system of power as it could easily influence the Bloodlines of Noah himself and other existences...

The moment that its elevation began, Noah could feel the True Blood within his body begin to surge with fervor and madness Freewebnovel.com.

He could feel a unique sensation as if he went through with this elevation as it is, he would no doubt obtain something extremely beneficial to him!

'But...I do not just want another elevation similar to Apocalypse or Tyrannical Emperor. Give me something even more overpowered!'

WAA!

His thoughts moved with utmost tyranny as his voice commanded out.

"Empower the Nomological Edict of the Sanguine Emperor...and then Empower it again!"

...!

Dual Empowerment.

The first concept to undergo such a boost was Sanguine Emperor as Noah did this shocking process during its elevation to Quasi-TABOO- whatever boosts or Bloodlines of features that would have been unlocked before this being greatly elevated and thrown to greater levels because of this!

A single True Star of Conquest had risen as it split apart to release its milky white light, and 10 more rose thereafter for the second Empowerment as everything fervently surged into the concept of the Sanguine Emperor.

As this splendor of colors washed over him, Noah still wasn't fully satisfied as he truly wanted a game changer to result from the elevation of the Sanguine Emperor- his hands waving to a far away RUINATION looking towards him with curiosity as she caught 10 Reality Crystals that represented 10,000 Units of the Essence of Reality.

"Corrupt it. Make it so that even if it is something taboo...I shall get my hands on it!"

WAA!

His gaze was vast as he could seemingly see a boundless future. Even the emotionless RUINATION seemed to have been affected as she nodded with luminous eyes, coming beside Noah to place her hands on his head and chest as 10 Reality Crystals disappeared while Concept Corruption went to work on an evolving double Empowered Nomological Edict!

With all of these boosts and a Double Empowerment that no other Edicts had received...just how wondrous would the results of the Sanguine Emperor be? How differently would the boosts be now as what could possibly exceed the results of Apocalypse that now allowed Noah to even break Ascendancy Halos and Tyrannical Emperor that granted a full Olden Bloodline that had countless boons within it?

These thoughts of Noah...seemed like a challenge as everything around him began to tremble and shake thereafter.

Now, it was not just his True Blood...but even the strings of the many Bloodlines he held had also begun to rise and tumble within his body.

The Olden Bloodline of the Arcadian Tyrant bubbled forth. The Royal Bloodline being born under Interlinked Royal Lineage bubbled forth among many others as the moment that the True Stars of Conquest lost their light...

BZZZZT!

The whole Cosmic Holy Land shook in a terrifying tremor as Noah's glorious body of a cosmic being actually erupted into a vast crimson gold sea of blood, RUINATION becoming bathed within this sea as she continued her Corruption!

Chapter 1607 Pioneer! II

A constantly surging and expanding crimson gold sea of blood spread out as it shone of stellar Cosmos that sparkled with radiance- Cosmos that if one counted- they would get exactly 10 billion.

The True Sanguine Clones moving outside on their own nearly crumbled at this moment as to protect them, Noah subconsciously sent thoughts to his soul as a pristine crimson bloody cocoon went on to cover all of them at this moment- the change Noah was undergoing being too grand as it affected all of them!

The only glorious thing was the passage of time in the Cosmic Holy Land granting a semblance of time where after Noah finished whatever transformation was coming, maybe a microsecond or less would have passed on the outside world- so his True Sanguine Clones would not be too crazily affected.

But his body truly exploded into a stellar sea of blood as everything about him could be discerned within this sea...along with all of the strings that represented the Bloodlines he had collected so far!

'What is this...' His thoughts watched everything with utter marvel as his transformation wasn't just occurring within him, even outside space was affected as his raging sea of blood seemed to be resonating with the very space and natural laws of Reality around him!

The influence of double Empowerment. The influence of becoming a Ruined concept!

It caused everything to run wild as the resonance rose with a cacophony of sound and magisterial wonder until...

<The Dual Empowered and Ruined concept of Sanguine Emperor has begun its true birth as it forges towards the rank of Quasi-TABOO.>

OOOM!

Multicolored rays of light began to bloom from Noah's expanding blood sea as it stopped expanding after filling up nearly all of the Cosmic Holy Land, and it began to retract at this moment to form Noah's new body! And while this occurred...shocking prompts didn't stop coming!

<The abilities of Sanguine Aggregation and Interlinked Royal Lineage have resonated and evolved, becoming activated passively as the birth of the Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edict of the Sanguine Emperor forcefully pulls upon all your current Bloodlines and takes their strongest aspects to go towards fusing your own singular Bloodline.>

RUUMBLE!

The endless crimson gold seas converged in a shocking manner as Noah barely saw this message flash while his body was being reformed!

Shockingly, Sanguine Aggregation was activated forcefully along with an ability from another concept entirely as they didn't just select a few powerful Bloodlines to fuse as Noah planned to experiment...but they took all aspects of Noah's current Bloodlines as they tried to birth something fantastical along with the birth of Quasi-TABOO Sanguine Emperor!

The shocking phenomena occurring around Noah was truly not just focused around him as ever since the Empowerment and Corruption with his body exploding into a sea of blood, space itself had been shaking and trembling as the Cosmic Holy Land was the first affected, but now the vast hundreds of thousands of Cosmos within the Infinite Reality and even the second Prime Reality that was about to fuse into it...they all began trembling and humming uniquely as what was occurring seemed to be resonating with Reality itself!

Maybe it was due to Noah's connection to the Infinite Reality. Maybe it was merely the awakening of the Sanguine Emperor to Quasi-TABOO while also becoming empowered and corrupted. Maybe it was other factors that weren't even known...but his transformation seemed to be something that exceeded anything that should have been happening.

This was because as the crimson gold seas converted back to reform his body, the form of a stellar Cosmic existence bathed in the light of stars and the hue of crimson gold came to be. And as he came together...the space around him began to crack and be torn into shreds, wisps of multicolored Essence beginning to leak out as they surged into Noah's developing form!

Bountiful Essence of Reality flowed out of these cracks in space as along with them, something else also came in the form of memories and information.

<Your blood resonates with the natural laws of Reality as your Affinity increases!>

WAA!

Boundless essence and information surged towards Noah as around him, space cracked and sundered as Essence of Reality surged out- Noah's Affinity to the Infinite Realities vastly increasing at this moment!

Affinity!

Something abstruse that Noah had been steadily increasing anytime he forged unique treasures or refined stellar Alchemical products, the moment that it began to elevate at this moment allowing it to reach past a crucial Boundary and breaking through it as Noah received its bountiful rewards.

This action meant many things, but there was a factor that was changed the most that affected Noah at this moment...and that was the limit that was the 10,000 barrier reserves of the Essence of Reality that

Noah had not even yet used the Limit Breaking Pills he forged to surpass yet. This limitation...was broken at this moment!

<The Limitation of 10,000 Maximum Reserves of the Essence of Reality has been exceeded.>

<Your Maximum Reserves of the Essence of Reality have been increased by 1,000.>

<Your Maximum Reserves of the Essence of Reality have been increased by 1,000.>

<Your Maximum Reserves of the Essence of Reality have been increased by 1,000....>

Multicolored essence surged into his body as Noah truly broke past a limitation with ridiculous ease even before forging his Reality Passages.

This meant that the Limitation of the Soul and reserves of the Essence of Reality had already been exceeded at this moment as one had to wonder- just how would this affect the number of Reality Passages Noah could form?!

THUMP!

The beat of his heart rang out like a stellar drum as it seemed to come alive and resonate with the Infinite Reality.

THUMP!

The boons of the Sanguine Emperor were just beginning as all the Bloodlines within his body...the newly unlocked Olden Bloodline of the Arcadian Tyrant, the Bloodline of the Watcher, the Bloodline of Primordial, Celestial Vines...even the Bloodlines of all of his current Nomological Edicts!

If they were a Bloodline, they were pulled upon at this moment forcefully and in a domineering manner as they contributed to the coming of something utterly preposterous!

BZZZT!

The Essence of Reality surged around Noah with even more fervor as his form became clearer and clearer, with the bountiful information he was receiving being displayed before his eyes as prompts- a particularly stunning one rising up at this moment.

<There was the Olden Era, but everything does not end there.>

<After the Old, the New shall always arrive as you have achieved a condition to birth a Kainos Emperor Bloodline that Pioneers the coming Kainos Era!>

Chapter 1608 An Illusory Crown Solidifies! I

The Olden Times!

An Era of shocking power and destiny filled with terrible powerhouses...but it was a past Era!

It had come and gone as all those with wondrous Olden Bloodlines, all of the Emperors of Old that were reigning...their time had come and gone.

Why was this?

Why weren't the immensely powerful Emperors capable of continuing their reign as all that was left now were mere remnants with only a history of the Olden Times existing through a few surviving Bloodlines?!

Just what had caused the past Age of Emperors to come to an end? Just what had been the spark that burned the astounding visage of existences of the Olden Times!?

Noah had an inkling, but he did not have all the answers.

At this moment though, he pulled on something not of the Olden Era- but the Era that came after it as it was termed the Kainos Era!

Kainos was a word that had a meaning of new, and it was the term that would define the coming Age of Emperors that was fully blooming at this moment. As for why we would consider the Age of Emperors to have already arrived? It was due to existences like Noah that were currently laying their candidacy into this new Age!

BZZZT!

A stellar crimson gold sea filled with billions of Cosmos had converted as it formed a new body, Noah's form changing once more as the one feature of his that could never decide its color changed again. His hair had undergone many changes depending on which Bloodline he was representing, but his current reforming body had vibrant free flowing gold, crimson, and black streaks of hair that shone with dazzling light.

His skin was painted by a hue of crimson gold Cosmos as he truly looked like an existence that was fitting to be a Pioneer of a coming Era, the illusory crown above his head currently spinning as it actually began to feel more...real!

The illusory crown that represented the authority of an Emperor. It could be influenced by any powerful Bloodlines as even the Royal Bloodline Noah had been awakening through Interlinked Royal Lineage had painted a portion of this crown blue. Now...its colors were flashing with luminous frequency as it slowly seemed to be solidifying!

WAA!

As it did so, streams of multicolored liquid leaked from it to bathe Noah's body as while the outside was formed- it was merely like a husk as the inner parts of Noah's Origin and body were currently being reborn to match the new Bloodline of the Kainos Era!

As his Origin and soul were being reformed, Noah's soul still had a semblance of control as similar to what he had done during the elevation of the Sanguine Emperor...he wanted the utmost stellar results from the elevation of his body and soul as he used the chance of the birth of his Kainos Bloodline to do something he had to do.

And that was...

"Dual Empower my Origin, Body, and Soul."

OOOOM!

The empowering of something other than his Nomological Edicts!

And he did it while he was undergoing a process of rebirth as whatever wondrous result was about to happen- he had commandeered the process to make this result even wilder!

He did all of this so that the moment he obtained the boons of a Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edict of the Sanguine Emperor and understood the new Bloodline from the Kainos Era, he wanted to erupt with his strongest power in the enclosure of an assassination as he began a thorough rampage!

SHING!

33 True Stars of Conquest rose and shattered to achieve their purpose, the last few Stars barely being reached a few seconds ago after another Prime Reality successfully fused into the Infinite Reality.

And while all of this occurred, information on all the changes continued to flash within his mind!

First was the successful elevation of the Sanguine Emperor to Quasi-TABOO even while some of its many shocking effects were occurring to Noah in real time.

<Through the Nomological Regime of the Tyrannical Emperor, the concept of the Sanguine Emperor has been successfully elevated to Quasi-TABOO.>

<Due to the elevation of the Sanguine Emperor, the Flames of the Sanguine Emperor are now in the process of forging an Evolvable Quasi-Venerable Bloodline of the Kainos Era that grants a unique distinction!>

The information flowed down freely as Noah's Origin, bones, and organs were beginning to form within his body- but they were doing so through a unique fashion that was something new for even Noah to observe!

<An Evolvable Quasi-Venerable Bloodline stands with too much importance as its formation is led by its own awakening will.>

<At the core of your body and soul, [Kainos Primordial Mesenchymal Cells] begin to produce the very structure of your bones as the unconscious will of the awakening Quasi-Venerable takes charge to form the very blood cells that will continue producing your Kainos True Blood.>

BZZZT!

Noah's reforming body cascaded with waves of crimson gold power as blood and organs were formed in shocking stellar ways to account for a glorious new Bloodline that took from the aspects of all his other Bloodlines!

And the bountiful information continued to flow as this process continued!

<All basic abilities under the Nomological Edict of the Sanguine Emperor have been greatly elevated, with the Ultimate Abilities under the Flames of the Sanguine Emperor undergoing the greatest change.>

<After becoming A Ruined and Dual Empowered Concept, Sanguine Emperor is further elevated as all Ascendancy Halos formed through its influence can now display Ruined Sanguine Eyes of Ascendancy.>

Ah!

Noah's soul hummed with power as information of something wondrous came down.

The Ruined Nomological Edicts of Apocalypse and Tyrannical Emperor had granted Ruined Eyes of Ascendancy within the Ascendancy Halos they were in as they each had their own usage, but now all of Noah's Halos would be capable of displaying Ruined Sanguine Eyes of Ascendancy as the effects of such a fantastical concept were bound to be drastic!

Chapter 1609 An Illusory Crown Solidifies! II

Even though time was moving extremely slowly to the point that it didn't even seem to pass for Noah, events still continued to unfold in the enclosure that Enders had created to assassinate a Future Candidate Ruler of a Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Bloodline!

Across the vast Realities, wars had begun to bloom in multiple locations as assassinations of important figures of Primordial Bloodlines were also occurring in real time, with glorious bloody conflicts beginning across many major Prime Realities.

In the Grotto Sanctums that weaker beings could not even begin to comprehend- existences that normally lay dormant for hundreds of millions of years made their moves as this point in time could be considered the full ushering of the coming Age of Emperors, of the Kainos Era where just as specific races and beings had come to rule in the Olden Era...new Emperors would rise who would come to rule in the Kainos Era!

OOOOOOH!

In the enclosure where not even an ounce of Essence could leak outside, the over buff bodies of the Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Humans expanded even further as 20 Ascendancy Halos roared around the bodies of the Eighth Firmament guards with utter glory- these guards breaking into parties of two as they moved like dazzling nuclear lights towards a Ninth Firmament Ender!

The 8 Eighth Firmament Guards moved in parties of two as they were able to cover four Ninth Firmament Enders, while the only middle aged Ninth Firmament Pure-Blooded Human Guard under the Empress bellowed out while thundering towards the pure white Dragon Ender.

BZZZT!

Arcs of profound reality destroying light bloomed as three Reality Passages formed from the back of this devilishly handsome Pure-Blooded Ninth Firmament Guard, his 30 Ascendancy Halos going on to fuse with him as his right hand stretched out to call a treasure...and caused for a glimmering golden mountain filled with archaic vicissitude to appear at this time!

A mountain! It was actually a mountain that released an aura at the Sui Generis Enlightened Primordial Relic level as it revolved with Runic Escriptures over its surfaces- this mountain surging with essence as it smashed towards the cold eyed pure White Dragon Ender.

9 Ninth Firmament Enders, and 5 of them were covered by her guards as shockingly, the lone figure of Empress Genevieve stroked a crimson gold skull cackling with Madness as she shockingly targeted 4 Ninth Firmament Enders all by herself!

The dozens of Eighth Firmament and hundreds of Seventh Firmament Enders had to navigate such a shocking battlefield without perishing as even a streak of essence leaking from these beings could seriously injure them, so they stayed in the back while releasing the strongest attacks that their Origins could muster to destabilize any moves that the Empress and her Guards made.

Their purpose was to wear them down with their attacks while the Ninth Firmament Enders focused on reaping their lives!

A few Enders also honed their eyes on the lone figure of a devilishly handsome man who seemed to have veiled himself in a crimson gold cocoon that even covered his crown, their attacks also going towards him as all those traveling with the Empress had to die!

This was the shocking battle blooming out.

But even as this occurred in this enclosed domain where no beings should know what was happening, there were three pairs of eyes watching from an entirely separate Dimension of space.

Three pairs of eyes that ignored everything else and focused on the figure of a curvaceous robust Empress Genevieve with her dark hair sparkling with power, the golden wrappings around her tinted red from the seas of blood that were being released from the calling crimson gold skull she stroked!

The three hidden beings watching from the veils of a Mirror Reality were the Dimensional Archaic Devil Bird whose revolving eyes kept their presence in the Mirror Reality active, a Nine Reality Horned Unicorn that had a sharp horn shining with incandescent waves of stellar Cosmos and eyes that emanated immense holiness, and a winged golden eye burning with flames that was the Eclipsing Celestial Void Eye.

The Dimensional Archaic Devil Bird shone with tremendous brutality as its voice echoed out.

"It is a vile Remnant Disaster that has already begun to reclaim its possessions...we cannot let it get any more powerful!"

WAA!

The Dimensional Archaic Devil Bird locked its luminous eyes with the cackling skull in the hands of the Empress as its two powerful compatriots nodded, the Eclipsing Celestial Void Eye shining with destiny as its voice also echoed out.

"We can uncover any other TABOO possessions this Remnant Disaster has hidden away after we split apart her Origin."

A voice full of confidence and regality.

Eyes that looked at the scenes playing out without an ounce of worry!

These three beings were entirely confident in what they had to do even as they stared at the terrible power being shown below...because even a single one of them was letting out a unique aura more powerful than even all 9 Ninth Firmament Enders that were currently besieging Empress Genevieve!

Kainos Primordial Mesenchymal Cells! An Evolvable Quasi-Venerable Bloodline! Ruined Sanguine Eyes of Ascendancy!

Too many vibrant things rained down in a glorious fashion as it didn't even seem halfway there, the prompts still following closely within Noah's mind.

<Through the activation of any Ascendancy Halo put together by Sanguine Aggregation, the Ruined Sanguine Eye of Ascendancy is capable of releasing the inviolable Sanguine Authority of the Kainos Era that can take control of the Ascendancy Halos of other existences.>

BOOOM!

A shocking prompt of information flowed down as Noah wasn't given any breaks!

<Under the Ruined Sanguine Eye of Ascendancy, multiple authorities of Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edicts have to be utilized if they wish to resist the control of the Will of a Kainos Emperor. If a vast gulf exists in the strength of the Soul, even dozens of Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edicts would not be capable of stopping the will of a Kainos Emperor.>

...!

Control!

Apocalypse allowed Noah to destroy other beings' Ascendancy Halos as he could cause irreparable damage to their very concepts, while the Tyrannical Emperor allowed Noah to deactivate their Ascendancy Halos! Now, Noah could actually control them under the Authority of the Ruined Sanguine Eye of Ascendancy as he could effectively cause the Halos of others to release attacks against the very beings that forged them or their allies.

This was how ridiculous things were getting! And there was still more to come as other enhancements of the Sanguine Emperor continued!

<The Ultimate Ability Sanguine Aggregation is elevated to the extent that it now allows for the seamless fusion of 60 Flames of Nomological Edicts into a single Ascendancy Halo.>

"..."

THUMP!

Noah could feel the beat of his newly forged Heart as it felt like everything came to a stop.

As stellar bones, organs, and musculature fully bloomed within his body to grant him a stupendous rebirth...he was given a fantastical surprise that would pave way to utterly shocking possibilities!

60 Flames of Edicts into a single Halo of Ascendancy! Such a number would put Noah at 600 Nomological Edicts in his 10 Ascendancy Halos as any remaining Insuperable and Quasi-Insuperable

Nomological Edicts he was saving in the Soul Library could all be implemented into his Halos so long as his soul could handle it.

But after Noah did this, the number of Concepts he had in his Halos would be so far ahead that it would even beat normal Ninth Firmament Existences who had already forged 30 Ascendancy Halos!

Chapter 1610 An Illusory Crown Solidifies! III

THUMP!

After the shocking new reality of him being capable of putting 60 Flames of Edicts into a single Ascendancy Halo, the reformation of his body and surprises of the now Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edict of the Sanguine Emperor seemed to be nearing their end.

THUMP!

The beat of his reformed heart was strong as his new body shone with cascading lights, his entire form seeming like it was made up of innumerable crimson gold Cosmos as his hair that had once more changed adopted streaks of stellar strands tainted with crimson, gold, and black colors as even these strands of hair also held minute illusory Cosmos sprinkled throughout!

His entire main body quite literally looked cosmic as his True Sanguine Clones could take on many other forms and have human skins or the skins of other Bloodlines- but his main body would remain the same!

It floated in the Cosmic Holy Land while being showered with liquefied golden essence all around him due to the continued fusion of Prime Realities into the Infinite Reality, yet another prompt that dealt with the Sanguine Emperor flowing through his mind as his transformation neared its end.

<The Ultimate Ability Bloodline Extraction has been changed to Hematopoietic Progenitor, an ability that can replicate the Bloodlines of others as if they were your very own so long as you obtain a sample of their Blood. From its elevation, even the Bloodlines of past and future Emperors of the Olden Era or Kainos Era can now be replicated and forged within your Origin so long as you obtain a sample. Each cast of Hematopoietic Progenitor to replicate an Olden Bloodline or a Kainos Bloodline required 20,000 Units of the Essence of Reality and 1 Trillion Units of Mana...>

The robust prompts and information about the elevation of the Sanguine Emperor stopped here with a last feature that was truly domineering!

It opened up many possible pathways as with it, Noah had the chance to play around with the Olden and Kainos Emperor Bloodlines of the beings he came across...if he could obtain a sample of their blood that is.

Many ideas crossed his mind as above his head, his illusory crown shockingly fully solidified as his reformation was completed.

OOOM!

<The Unnamed Quasi-Venerable Bloodline of the Kainos Era has been born. At your own discretion, you can choose the name of this Kainos Bloodline that best signifies what you stand for.>

...!

His surroundings buzzed with fervor and an austere aura of serenity and recognition as right after his illusory crown solidified, it began to be surrounded by crimson gold Runic Ecritures that rotated around it with shocking majesty!

As for Noah himself...his body felt limitless waves of power coursing through him as his Ascendancy Value continued to rise crazily, and it was about to shoot up even higher as he felt the buzzing of the Essence of Reality around him.

<An Astounding Achievement! You have managed to forge a Kainos Emperor Bloodline and solidified your candidacy as one of the Emperors striving for Hegemony in the coming Era!>

WAA!

Near his body, spatial cracks that had just healed were ripped apart once more as Essence of Reality gushed out, sinking into Noah's body and filling him up as if he was a dry desert!

<Your Maximum Reserves of the Essence of Reality have been increased by 50,000 due to your increased Affinity to the Infinite Realities and solidified destiny as an Emperor in the coming Era.>

The concept of Affinity rose up once more as it related to the very natural laws of the vast Infinite Realities spread out across space time- and one must not confuse this with Noah's own Infinite Reality.

His Limitation of Maximum Reserves of the Essence of Reality were entirely torn apart and shredded due to his increased Affinity as the value had reached 15,000 during his power up, and now it became 65,000 as it was nearly five times its past Value! All of this...just from Noah solidifying his candidacy as an Emperor of the coming Era by obtaining its Bloodline!

And the unique thing about it all was that Noah could name his Bloodline just like how in the Olden Times, the Olden Emperor of Arcadian Tyranny had termed himself Arcadian only after he had established his path and knew himself.

Noah could choose to give himself his name at this very moment or days or years down the line as for now...

"There is no rush."

WAA!

His voice came out as it sounded utterly mesmerizing, the mere opening of his mouth shooting out bountiful stellar essence as if any beings were near him, they would feel their origin and soul nourished from the sheer essence Noah released at this moment!

A stupendous stellar Dual Empowered Body, Origin, and Soul was achieved as his new Bloodline that took aspects of all his current Bloodlines and fused them finally rose before his mind in a crimson gold boxed prompt.

QUASI-VENERABLE <Unnamed Kainos Emperor Bloodline> :: An evolvable Bloodline that has cemented its qualifications as a Candidate Emperor in the coming Kainos Era. It is currently unnamed until its Progenitor chooses what best signifies him, with his nature being that of immense kindness to his loved ones and utter coldness towards his enemies. His very soul has an unquenchable need for the exploration of the unknown, as well as the search for a level of strength and power that no other beings could rival. An immensely Tyrannical nature is budding with his very Origin as he seeks to achieve his wishes no matter what stands against him, with the only path for those standing against him being Fealty or Death. As this Bloodline is made up uniquely of many aspects of Bloodlines that the Progenitor currently holds, abilities unique and geared for him have been unlocked as they include <Destined Physique>, <Limit Breaking Mana Refinement>, <Throne of Unnamed Tyranny>, <Cosmic Lineage>, <Bloodline Assimilator>, <Loot Emperor>, and <Eyes of a Kainos Emperor>. These are preliminary abilities as the chance to unlock more lie in the actions of the Progenitor of this Bloodline- the elevation to a Venerable Bloodline or even higher being possible through the inclusion of more Bloodlines into this evolvable Kainos Emperor Bloodline...
