Chapter 1631 Keystone Ascendant Skill Tree! II

A Keystone Ascendant Skill Tree that utilized the essence of five Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edicts and fused them seamlessly to achieve Reality altering skills! One that had the effects of Apocalyptic Erasure from the Nomological Edict of Apocalypse and the boosts of all the other Quasi-TABOO Edicts as its effects...would simply be disastrous.

This was another pathway that had opened up before Noah through the Loot he gained from the authority of the Resplendent Treasure Emperor, his mind greedily gazing at the reformed abilities and new abilities under this skill tree that were now attached with True Reality Damage Values.

Ascendant Reality Fireball:: An extremely dense vacillating Reality made of up volatile essences of 5 Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edicts that had been condensed into an immense ball of Flames is called forth. It has a homing quality that transcends across Realities and dimensions as the target will always be hit as long as they remain in your mind during the process of casting. The moment that the Ascendant Reality Fireball makes contact with the enemy, it multiplies into five vacillating Realities that explode to release a Nova of Flames and Death. The ability can currently deal 2 True Reality Damage Values as it costs 100 Units of the Essence of Reality and 100 Trillion Units of Mana to cast...

The F rank Fireball that was learned when Noah first awakened was reformed into an ability that called forth a vacillating Reality condensed into an extremely dense and horrific sun, this ability currently dealing 2 True Reality Damage Values as if one looked closely, they could see the numbers (0/5) in parenthesis next to the name of the ability!

Similar to the mere skill points of the past, Noah could utilize the Reality Resource Points to elevate just how ridiculous this skill could be! And the results when he did so...

Ascendant Reality Fireball:: An extremely dense vacillating Reality made of up volatile essences of 5 Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edicts that had been condensed into an immense ball of Flames is called forth. It has a homing quality that transcends across Realities and dimensions as the target will always be hit as long as they remain in your mind during the process of casting. The moment that the Ascendant Reality Fireball makes contact with the enemy, it multiplies into five vacillating Realities that explode to release a Nova of Flames and Death. The ability can currently deal 10 True Reality Damage Values as it costs 50 Units of the Essence of Reality and 50 Trillion Units of Mana to cast...

The True Reality Damage was increased from 2 to 10 as the cost of activating the Ascendant Reality Fireball was halved!

It meant that without any other boosts, this single ability when cast under the Authority of the Black Tier Ascendancy Halo...easily reached over 1,000 True Reality Damage Values.

'And this...should be the most straightforward skill within this skill tree, yes?'

Noah's eyes released dazzling light as his mind continued computing on overdrive, going over to pump the rest of the skills and the entire Keystone Ascendant Firmament Cataclysm Skill Tree with Reality Resource Points before he read on!

Ascendant Sword of Reality:: From the folds of space, an enormous Sword of Reality made of up volatile essences of 5 Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edicts descends. The Sword of Reality has a homing quality that transcends across Realities and dimensions as the target will always be hit as long as they remain in your mind during the process of casting. The Sword of Reality has a unique feature as it contains its own Reality Altering Affix that makes its size and mass five times larger than its intended target. The ability can currently deal 20 True Reality Damage Values as it costs 100 Units of the Essence of Reality and 500 Trillion Units of Mana to cast...

Ascendant Noxious Rain:: An Area of Effect ability that covers any domain that the Unnamed Kainos Emperor lays out. The walls of the Dream Dimension as pulled upon with the aid of Infinite Dream as your consciousness has its operations reduced by half, but the result is a Noxious Rain from the tears of Nightmare Abominations of the Dream Dimension descending unto your enemies for as long as the skill is active. A single drop of the Ascendant Noxious Rain carries 2 True Reality Damage Value. Anyone designated as an enemy will face the Noxious Rain for 10 Microseconds as a single cast of this ability allows it to remain active for that long, utilizing 100 Units of the Essence of Reality and 500 Trillion Units of Mana to cast...

Ascendant Reality Sever:: Undoubtedly one of the fastest if not the fastest ability within the Firmaments of Ascendancy. It allows for one to release an extremely condensed ray of vacillating Realities for as long as their resources can handle it, this ray being capable of severing even the walls of dimensions to reach their intended target. When a ray of Reality Sever makes contact with an enemy, it has a chaining feature that allows it to strike up to one hundred nearby enemies as with every chain, the damage increases by 1%. Every time an enemy is hit by a Reality Sever ray, an Ascendant Reality Fireball also blooms as with every additional enemy the ray jumps onto, the number of Ascendant Reality Fireballs released upon contact increases by 1. The ability can currently deal 30 True Reality Damage Values as it costs 1,000 Units of the Essence of Reality and 500 Trillion Units of Mana to cast and keep active every Microsecond, allowing for the chaining effect to continue repeating on the same enemy or multiple nearby enemies until their Origins perish or your resources run out...

"Glorious..."

The stage was set.

Abilities so ridiculous that one would shake their head at them were born as just the singular ability of Ascendant Reality Sever caused one to take a few minutes to admire!

This...was just a single aspect of the Keystone Ascendant Firmament Cataclysm Skill Tree!

There was something else to be mindful of even after the design of such a ridiculous Keystone Ascendant Skill Tree.

Noah had gained the card of the Infinite Willow Tree Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Bloodline that he had yet to touch. He also still hadn't fused with his Ascendancy Halos to achieve his strongest form!

All of these were still factors to consider when accounting for just how much True Reality Damage Values he would be able to deal when the time came- with the Reality being that he still hadn't touched any of these cards he held!

This was because the danger he felt with his clone perishing out of this event...had not yet faded.

Either the Visage of the White Dragon Emperor still had many things to reveal or...there was something even more disastrous than the Amalgamation of the strength of 9 Ninth Firmament Enders of Reality!

If Noah attained his strongest form now, it meant he couldn't have any other cards to play when the truly perilous time came!

So he bid his time.

So he waited for whatever was lying in wait to reveal itself as he forged a terrifying Keystone Ascendant Skill Tree that was revealed at this moment to traumatize any being that remained alive enough to watch its abilities!

Chapter 1632 Let's not waste any loot! I

In an infinitesimally small region space within the vast Boundary Between Realities.

Spatial fluctuations could be felt as the figures of two beings were seen soon after, the two of them being entirely identical as their heads carried a grandeur of solidified crimson gold and blue crowns!

Their figures alone showed astounding visage as these two were True Sanguine Clones of Noah...two of the three newly unlocked Higher Existence True Sanguine Clones that Noah had gained with the upgrade of the Sanguine Emperor to Quasi-TABOO as its abilities were elevated. From the three True Sanguine Clones Noah could call out, this number had now been elevated to Six.

These two extra Clones appeared in the region of Unstable space next to the hidden rift into the Azure Forsaken Treasure Reality as they instantly surged into it- their appearance here being for two purposes.

One was to increase the pace that Noah explored and obtained the Modus Operandi hidden within this Azure Treasure Reality, and the other was to collect the Loot of Reality Crystals from the Clone that had been exploring this Reality with Natalya this whole time as Noah...would greatly need his reserves of the Essence of Reality to be regenerated if he wanted to use his newly forged abilities from the Keystone Ascendant Firmament Cataclysm Skill Tree fully!

The transference of loot with the restrictions of the Forsaken Treasure Reality couldn't be bypassed at this moment with the Atlatl of Reality that Noah couldn't let go of during a great battle, so this action effectively meant that three of Noah's True Sanguine Clones would be wrapped in the Azure Forsaken Treasure Reality to rapidly unearth the remaining pages of the Modus Operandi of the Azure Treasure Emperor, with another True Sanguine Clone currently facing the will of a Dragon Emperor under a locked down domain.

This begged the question...where would Noah be utilizing his two other remaining True Sanguine Clones that could display battle power at times that exceeded the original body?

A devilish storm born from the will of White Dragon Emperor raged, pulling apart verdant stellar trees growing in space and burning the lush vegetation blooming all around from the Transcendent Plant Kingdom of the Unnamed Kainos Emperor that continued to heal just as quickly as it was destroyed!

The figure of Empress Genevieve was covered by sharply spinning rulers of Reality that protected her against the White flames burning everything, the figure of her Ninth Firmament Cardinal Royal Human Guard being worse for wear as this being had a solemn expression while his domain of stellar light protecting the other Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Humans behind him trembled.

This was a storm cast from the will of 9 conjoined Ninth Firmament Enders. It wasn't a joke as even someone of such a powerful Bloodline like a Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Bloodline could not withstand such a ridiculous attack!

Yet...

"Haha!"

The boisterous laughter of a certain Candidate Emperor of the coming Age of Emperors could be heard as he floated grandly on his throne while pointing a Spear of Reality that released countless Unstable Cosmos forward!

Unstable Cosmos that when they came in contact with the unbreachable scales of the White Dragon Emperor- they exploded into Novas of Reality due to the Reality Nova Jewel currently attached to the Spear of Reality.

While all of them struggled, this being was shockingly carefree while surrounded by glimmering Shields of Essence that seemed capable of withstanding the explosions of thousands of Realities!

HOOOONG!

The raging storm died down as along with it, devastating crevices and Unstable space was born, the eyes of the White Dragon Emperor glaring with majestic malice carefully at the unaffected Seventh Firmament throned being who actually withstood an attack from it!

Even the Ninth Firmament Royal Human Guard was breathing hard as he arrived to his knees, his body having been tinged by a few white flames as this being had gone to not only protect himself- but also the Eighth Firmament Cardinal Royal Humans that could shockingly not contribute much to the current level of battle.

Even Beatrix was breathing heavily while looking towards Genevieve with a seemingly saddened expression, her body ravaged by wounds like all the remaining Eighth Firmament Pure-Blooded Guards as even under the protection of another, they could not escape heavy damage to their Origins!

If an attack of such a caliber was released again, a few of them might just perish as if there were any drastic actions to be taken to absolve them of the current perilous situation, now was the time.

They all knew this as the pristine White Dragon Emperor knew it even more, not even batting his eyes towards the Eighth Firmament Pure-Blooded Guards as its focus remained on Noah and Genevieve!

It might not have paid attention...but a certain Emperor did.

"Hmmm..."

His laughter ended as while his Transcendent Plant Kingdom bloomed dense and lustrous vegetation all around him, he stared at the distraught bodies of some of the most powerful Eighth Firmament existences one could come across.

Of Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Humans who held 2 Reality Passages each as their power was unrivaled in the Eighth Firmament, with two of them even being capable of withstanding a single Ninth Firmament being on their own!

Such existences were...

"Too much of a waste if you do not perish in my hands..."

RUMBLE!

His Tyrannical will surged out!

He gazed above his throne as he saw the dense lustrous vegetation still blooming around him, pulling upon 100 Units of the Essence of Reality and 500 Trillion Units of Mana to call out.

"Ascendant Noxious Rain."

BZZZT!

The eyes of the White Dragon Emperor flashed with intensity.

Empress Genevieve's eyes flashed with anger as her observatory awareness felt the figure of Noah pull upon an immense authority that shockingly even exceeded to touch upon another dimension as from the highest points of space within this locked down domain...

TA! TA! TA...TRAA!

The sound of rain began to fall as along with it, the gazes of all beings except the cold eyes of the Unnamed Kainos Emperor became somber!

When the eyes of the Eighth Firmament Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Humans gazed up, they trembled as they saw countless purple silver drops of sharp rain drops descend down at speeds akin to the fastest bombs!

Countless rain drops that were falling and continued to fall as each one carried more than 200 True Reality Damage Values! One must recall how a mere shout from Noah that dispersed 100 True Reality Damage Values had injured and killed Eighth Firmament Enders as now, countless raindrops that each carried more than double of such damage smashed towards everyone.

The larger an existence was...the more rain drops would fall onto them.

With each one coming down with the exploding might of 200 Realities...

HOOOOONG!

Shocking rivers of crimson gold blood erupted! Along with them was the shout of a wrathful Empress!

"You dare?!"

WAA!

Chapter 1633 Let's not waste any loot! II

"You dare?!"

WAA!

An ability that pulled upon the Dream Dimension to call down a Noxious Rain that were the tears of Nightmare Abominations from this dimension! This was what Noah called down as such a rain coveted all the regions of the locked down domain!

ROAAR!

The White Dragon Emperor had its white scales shining with scintillating light as the Purple silver drops descended on it the most as it covered the largest surface area out of everyone.

The body of Empress Genevieve was swirling with even more rulers of Reality as one had even shot out to wrap around a heavily injured Beatrix!

But golden rivers of blood still bloomed as the already injured Origins of the Eighth Firmament Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Humans could not withstand the drizzling raindrops as their bodies were covered by hundreds of such dew drops in a single microsecond!

That was hundreds of dew drops that carried the force of 200 exploding Realities as these beings could do nothing but stare in shock as they perished!

Perished from an attack thrown out by the being their Empress was bringing along as Genevieve herself had spoken out wrathfully.

Yet against such anger, the eyes of the Emperor upon the throne raised languidly as he locked his gaze with the luminous wrathful eyes of Empress Genevieve and spoke out calmly.

"I dared."

TRRR!

Drizzling Noxious Rain continued to fall as the surrounding reality was thrown into utter chaos, microseconds passing as the duration of this shocking ability would end soon! Amidst it's eerie and shocking waves, the voice of the Unnamed Kainos Emperor continued to ring out.

"They would have perished in the next few attacks anyways, so I simply cleared the battlefield of pests that cannot contribute anything!"

WAA!

With a domineering gaze, he spoke out while watching bountiful prompts blooming over his eyes!

<The ownership of the Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edict and Flames of the Body Forging Emperor has been granted.>

<The ownership of the Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edict and Flames of Gigantomachia has been granted.>

<The ownership of the Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edict and Flames of the Skeleton Refiner has been granted....

Golden glimmering prompt after prompt cascaded over his eyes of him obtaining Edicts, Reality Resource Points, and even more wondrous loot in the form of Shards of a Seed of Reality!

The Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Human Guards were another Tier of beings as each held multiple Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edicts, with Noah gaining more from them than all the dozens of the Eighth Firmament Enders he defeated before as he felt over 90 Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edicts surging towards him as the robust origins of these existences shattered.

Even though he was tempted to utilize Resplendent Treasure Cache on these supremely built beings, he still held himself back as the golden light of the Cache shone the most possibilities on the Ninth Firmament existences!

'Existences like you...'

Noah's eyes had moved to the maddened looking Ninth Firmament Royal Human Guard who had just spoken down at him now too long ago, this being staring towards him with more hatred than even the White Dragon Emperor as he looked at his fallen comrades while his body also faced heavy injuries from Noah's attack.

Even the Empress was maddened as her voice still came out while her body released waves of power!

"You..!"

"Me? Why put up this act, Empress?" Noah sat back on his throne languidly as the Noxious Rain let up and only left behind devastation, the enormous body of the White Dragon Emperor rising up once more as its scales barely looked dented even after suffering countless drops of 200 True Reality Damage Values!

"Would you have even let them live when they clearly see you are not truly a Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Humans at the depths of your soul? Why must we act like the both of us had not seen the destiny of these beings ending here today?!"

...!

His languid voice turned Tyrannical as he actually spoke back against Genevieve, the figure of this Sacred Beast species shaking from pure anger as Beatrix was barely protected by her visage, this Olden Emperor wanting to explode right here and now!

I have killed your subordinates. Should you not be thanking me now?

These were the words Empress Genevieve seemed to hear as her eyes erupted with utter wrath, her illusory crown spinning rapidly as her visage had taken an attack!

She truly wanted to explode at this being right here and now but...

"You must perish!"

BZZT!

The will of the White Dragon Emperor raged out once more.

Now was not the time as they still faced a great enemy!

The will of this enemy raged out as the coagulation of Enders saw Noah's increasingly ridiculous abilities and the authority of candidacy shining over his head, its astounding destiny told it this being truly had to perish here today!

Otherwise, an enormous sense of trepidation that it couldn't explain rose as it sensed even the destinies of the Endless Primordial Beasts becoming affected if this being wasn't cut off here and now.

Every moment that passed, this being seemed to reveal more and more disastrous power as the destinies of the collective Enders that called down the visage of the White Dragon Emperor came to a single conclusion.

This being had to be defeated as quickly as possible!

BZZZT!

Vibrant Essence of Reality began to accumulate on the dazzling white scaled chest of this majestic creature.

A resonating hum rang out at the same time as its jaws began to open, these jaws hiding immense pulsing stellar light as the strongest and most widely known attack a dragon could lay out was charged up at this moment!

It was Dragon's Breath...but at a scale that would make the strongest existences in the Ninth Firmament weep.

The expression of Empress Genevieve changed as her jewel-like eyes remained cold, Beatrix pulled close to her while the Ninth Firmament Royal Human floated beside her as well with a solemn maddened look!

A critical moment had arrived in the battle as the Unnamed Kainos Emperor layered more and more defensive Shields and Auras onto himself while voicing out at the terrifying build up of Essence of Reality from the jaws of the White Dragon Emperor.

"Could you not have waited a few microseconds longer?"

Just a few microseconds. Enough for his clone to return from the Forsaken Treasure Reality and give him some Reality Crystals that would replenish his reserves for him to go utterly crazy!

With the White Dragon Emperor throwing out another deadly ultimate attack now, Noah would be cutting it close as the moment this attack arrived...would also very the time he could fully utilize the strongest skills from his Keystone Ascendant Skill Tree as it was time to do something he had wanted to do for quite a while.

'Set the targets for the Resplendent Treasure Cache...'

...!

Chapter 1634 Wiping Out Ninth Firmaments in Microseconds! I

From the Dual Empowerment and Corruption of the Resplendent Treasure Emperor, its abilities were greatly elevated as Noah had even received the wondrous boon of having the number of times he could utilize Cache increased from 3 to 6!

Since he had already used it on the Gazer, he had the counter of 5 out 6 chances remaining.

Then just moments ago...he had elevated Resplendent Treasure Emperor to Quasi-TABOO along with 4 other Edicts, new boosts blooming out once more as one of them was the elevation of status from Destiny Goblin King to the Supreme Bloodline of the Destiny Goblin Emperor!

Along with this was another change in the Resplendent Treasure Cache ability.

<Resplendent Treasure Cache>:: The Resplendent Treasure Cache is an ability that will become available during a Nexus Event and can be utilized for a total of Nine times in your lifetime, each time against a single target. Its activation allows for the parameters of Reality to be exceeded greatly as the defeat of the selected enemy brings to fruition a [Resplendent Treasure Cache] that contains a wide assortment of Loot that is dictated by the momentary Increase of +50,000,000% Increased Loot Quantity and +5,000,000% Increased Loot Rarity. These Reality altering effects can only be activated by immense reserves of the Essence of Reality and are only applicable against the single selected enemy as the products one can obtain from the formed [Resplendent Treasure Cache] vary. Current chances to utilize Resplendent Treasure Cache- (8/9)

The addition of three more chances appeared before Noah's eyes as Increased Loot Quantity went from 10 million to 50 million for this singular ability, with Increased Loot Rarity also being multiplied five times!

With this wondrous elevation in place, there lay many possibilities on what the Cache would bring out as there could be even more glorious things than Olden Orbs of Transmogrification, Breath of Reality, and Reality Jewels!

SHIIING!

The targets were marked in Noah's mind for exactly which Ninth Firmament existences would be the ones to grant him the Loot from the Resplendent Treasure Cache, his figure shining with waves of incandescent multicolored light that was overpopulated with verdant green due to the Transcendent Plant Kingdom- his spear pointed forward as the White Dragon Emperor roared out!

"<Breath of the Endless White Seas>."

The surrounding space tumbled fearfully as the jaws of this visage of an Emperor glimmered with multicolored light, bright and burning clusters of condensed flames so potent that they seemed liquefied surging out as a singular glorious pillar that covered everything.

Everything!

Liquefied flames in the form of Dragon's Breath as seeing how they were tearing apart and melting the surrounding space, Noah measured it out to be over 3,000 True Reality Damage Values!

A truly terrifying attack as it has entirely surpassed what common Ninth Firmament existences could dish out, Noah curious to see how Genevieve would survive this as her body began to glow with devilish obsidian skull marks similar to MADNESS that she fused with.

As for Noah? He watched as the billowing pillar of liquefied flames came calmly.

His defenses were already in place as even if he was within an inch of his life, he had affirmed that this Clone would survive. He had no need to even fuse with all his Ascendancy Halos yet as for now, he waited for a True Sanguine Clone to leave a certain restricted Reality!

'1...2...3...!'

HOOONG!

As the billowing liquefied Breath surged out to cover everything, Noah counted down as the bells of destiny rung.

His figure was 2 microseconds away from being hit by the <Breath of the Endless White Seas>, but he knew that the attack he would throw out would reach his enemy first!

This was because at this moment, the Clone he had been waiting for appeared outside the Forsaken Treasure Reality. The Expansive Space he shared was freed of restrictions and pulled upon as the Reality Crystals were even shattered within this space, billowing seas of multicolored Essence of Reality surging out to fill Noah's soul!

A single soul, multiple bodies.

When restrictions were cast aside, everything connected to the main body could be freely grasped by his Clones as Noah felt his soul filling with the Essence of Reality- his mind moving rapidly as he went to cast the fastest skill in his arsenal!

<Ascendant Reality Sever>.

SHAA!

In slowed down time, one could see a shockingly sharp ray blooming from the tip of Noah's Spear of Reality.

A ray of a vacillating Reality that glimmered with a stellar light- an ability that a single cast of it allowed for it to chain on 100 enemies within a single microsecond!

And for every microsecond that Noah held this ability, this chaining effect would continue as he could deliver 3,000+ True Reality Damage Values to his enemies simultaneously in the single microsecond!

This wasn't all as every attack would bloom with a Reality Frost Nova that with the capabilities of the Atlatl of Reality, it could deal a range of 200-400 True Reality Damage Values. Then...there was the feature of Ascendant Reality Sever that allowed for Ascendant Reality Fireballs to bloom on every enemy hit, with their number increasing for every successfully chained enemy as each of these fireballs also carried 1,000+ True Reality Damage Values, with each of their explosions also triggering another set of Reality Novas.

It was simply an obscene and disgusting sequence of skills that when everything was accounted for, over 4,000+ True Reality Damage Values would be delivered to every enemy, this damage only increasing the longer that Noah kept the Ascendant Reality Sever skill active!

'Let's us tear apart the visage of an old Emperor...'

SHAA!

Like a mere flash of light, the severing light that could tear apart dimensions shot out faster than even though it was cast after the terrifying liquefied Dragon's Breath, it reached the White Dragon Emperor first as a shocking sequence of events happening in the next few moments that would cause even the hiddenly watching existences to look on with serious expressions!

It was a multi-target skill, so Noah simply had the figures of the Nine Enders of Reality that made up the entire White Dragon Emperor in his mind when he cast it.

The severing ray of light first hit the tail of the White Dragon Emperor as it shockingly pierced through the visage as if it was bypassing dimensions, smashing into the body of the obsidian Scorpion as horrific Reality altering Ascendant Fireballs bloomed along with a direct hit to its Origin that all totaled to more than 4,000 True Damage Values!

Chapter 1635 Wiping Out Ninth Firmaments in Microseconds! II

4,000 True Reality Damage Values!

One must remember...a normal Ninth Firmament could release and receive a range of 100-300 True Reality Damage Values.

The Ninth Firmament Enders here were all top tier as they might be able to withstand even 500 Values, with the Visage that combined their wills and power granting them further protection as their Defenses rose above a thousand!

They could dish out much more damage than what each of them could individually receive due to their combinations of wills.

But when the visage of the White Dragon Emperor was smashed into as they received this damage themselves individually...a horrendous and unbelievable reality played out as Ascendant Reality Sever smashed into the tail where the Scorpion was and then chained to the crimson Spider, and then to all the remaining Ninth Firmament Enders contained within the formation that made the White Dragon Emperor!

The Ascendant Reality Sever could barely be seen as it chained across the Origins of these powerful enemies, bringing with them utterly shocking Damage as by the time the ray of Reality smashed onto the pure White Dragon Ender that was at the head of the enormous White Dragon Emperor...the whole visage of this will they called down developed ruptures as the untouchable scales fractured and began bursting with illusory golden red blood.

Its anchors that made it had their Origins rocked by immense Damage as the coagulated will was affected by extension, any powerful Ninth Firmament being capable of doing nothing but falling if they met 4,000 True Reality Damage Values onto their Origins!

And yet Ascendant Reality Sever was kept active as its last target had not even been reached for its first microsecond!

There was still one being that Noah designated as an enemy apart from the Nine Ninth Firmament Enders...the already injured Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Human Guard that had faced the collective attacks of the Nine Enders being the last target.

BZZZT!

Sever smashed into the Origin of this being with such haste and ferocity when he was shockingly already defending against the Dragon's Breath that had nearly reached them, such an unexpected attack creating for a saddening Reality for this being!

A truly saddening reality as when Ascendant Reality Sever reached him, it already had its Damage augmented by 9% as he faced the strongest attack yet!

Truly saddening as within this battlefield...the first Ninth Firmament existence to fall would be none other than him.

Nobody was even able to react.

Empress Genevieve's instincts had rung out warning bells even though she wasn't placed as Noah's target, her consciousness vibrating with power as shock coursed through it when she watched a terrifying blow link from the head of the White Dragon Emperor and smash into the Origin of her strongest guard- a ray of Resplendent Unstable Reality instantly piercing and ripping apart the soul contained within the body and origin of this being as under the effect of Apocalyptic Erasure, everything was already decimated before 10 Ascendant Reality Fireballs bloomed to entirely rip apart the origin and body of this being!

BOOOOOOM!

A shocking explosion rocked out.

A glimmer of unseen gold bloomed as the first target of the Resplendent Treasure Cache was triggered, illustrious pillars of golden light that only Noah could see shooting out and beginning to condense into a dazzling treasure chest!

It was around this same time that the Dragon's Breath actually reached Genevieve, Beatrix, and Noah's coldly gazing figure, but the shock in everyone's hearts was just beginning as the ability of <Ascendant Reality Sever> was still kept active, going on to chain towards its 11th target that turned out to be the Obsidian Scorpion once more.

The Ender that with the first strike had barely survived due to the Protection of the White Dragon Emperor's will faced even more horrific damage than the first time, the already unremarkable origin being shredded apart entirely along with its soul as this being also died even before it got to understand what just happened!

It wasn't the only one as the Crimson Spider was next, its Origin facing the same fate.

BOOM! BOOM!

One by one, every Ender that the unstoppable ray of light delivering over 4,000 True Reality Damage Values reached a second time perished without a shadow of a doubt!

Every Ender...but the most powerful pure White Dragon who let out a maddened roar and collected every part of the remaining visage of the White Dragon Emperor unto it.

"OOOOOOH!"

A bellow full of shock and disbelief echoed out as the scales that made the visage of the White Dragon Emperor fell apart one after another, this illusory figure fully shattering into a mass of golden blood and authority as the bloodied body parts of 8 Enders could be seen strewn out across Unstable space!

The powerful Dragon's Breath was halted and stopped as the pillar of Liquefied flames passed through and was withstood against by Noah's body and Genevieve's unique power, never being released again as when a microsecond passed, the whole battlefield had instantly changed drastically as only the maddened roar of the pure White Dragon Ender could be heard.

"I am the descendant of the White Dragon Em-"

SHAA!

Ascendant Reality Sever was kept active for the third microsecond.

The only targeted enemy was the pure White Dragon Ender as after chaining onto him last, the dangerous vacillating ray returned onto him once more as over 20 Ascendant Reality Fireballs bloomed with this last chain, this attack being 20%+ more powerful than its initial cast as just the 20 Ascendant Reality Fireballs each delivered 1,000 True Reality Damage that when compounded together...

HOOOONG!

Bloomed out like a blaring horn that entirely erased any roars, screams, or wills of any ancient being as space was entirely torn apart and ravaged so much that even Unstable spatial storms didn't form...this whole region shockingly being turned into a pure white space!

"..."

An eerie silence descended as anyone watching had no words.

Immense shock spread out as even the existence of the Olden Times was shocked!

Her mind buzzed as her eyes could not be taken away from the spotless white space that stretched out for a few light years.

A pure white space that had faced such disastrous Damage that it turned out this way- and it was even something that had a name that she knew very well!

"<A Legend's Visage>...!"

WAA!

A Legend's Visage.

A type of state and title that only those in the process of forging their Reality to become Legends could achieve.

The Process of forming a Reality was so arduous that the genius Destined existences from the Ninth Firmament could spend millions of years barely seeking their Visage to become Legends- and it was these beings who were widely known to be untouchable by those in the Firmaments while not truly having the status of Legends.

Beings who only held a Legend's Visage and could release attacks in this state that could wipe out any beings in the Firmaments of Ascendancy!

A state where their strongest attacks released immense damage that didn't just turn space tumultuous and cause spatial instabilities to form- but attacks that entirely erased the natural laws of Reality around that area that a blank white space forms!

The last chain of <Ascendant Reality Sever>...had actually collectively released such a level of damage as it left even the Origin of an Olden existence shaken!

Chapter 1636 Loot! Glorious Loot!!! I

<A Legend's Visage>!

If ever you happened to pass by a region of space that was void of the natural laws of Reality, you had to watch out and be extremely respectful as an Existence that had attained the Visage of a Legend could be nearby.

"This..."

The luminous eyes of three ridiculously powerful existences hidden behind the veils of the Mirror Dimension were serious as they looked at this White region of space, their eyes on the existence upon the throne carrying immense and unexplainable light as things did not go how they had foreseen!

This was because what they saw didn't match with what should be possible.

The existence before them had yet to break the shackles of the Seventh Firmament of Ascendancy and form his Reality Passages.

So...how could he manage to achieve a level of attack that released such horrendous True Reality Damage Values that it imitated the state of A Legend's Visage?!

It was a dreadful question with no answer as the norm was for any existences in the Firmaments of Ascendancy to run and be extremely respectful if they ever chanced upon such a being.

Yet the three existences carrying the Will of the Past Emperor only gazed at each other with luminous eyes as at this moment- there was still no fear in their eyes.

Seriousness, yes...but no fear!

Genevieve's glorious bestial form floated in space silently, Beatrix being the only thing by her side as the locked down domain they were in was entirely silent.

The domains laid down by the Enders that had now perished began to crumble and fall apart as only the Transcendent Plant Kingdom of the Unnamed Kainos Emperor remained!

The enormous party of Enders that consisted of Seventh, Eighth, and Ninth Firmament Primordial Beasts was entirely wiped out as when one looked at the situation closely, they would come to realize that all of them had perished under a single being.

All of them had perished to the will of the Unnamed Kainos Emperor!

HOOONG!

Incandescent waves of verdant green weaved out as the Transcendent Plant Kingdom had its vegetation covering everything, this sight reflected clearly in the jewel like eyes of Genevieve that had currently lost all light.

His attack played in her mind over and over again as she even questioned what would happen if it were to come towards her!

The answer...was one that caused her to turn utterly furious as her very origin and soul bubbled forth with madness!

She was truly an old existence.

She had seen the rise and fall of countless Emperors in the Olden Era, even catching a glimpse of the being that had obtained authority over other Emperors of the last Age.

The things she knew were truly too abundant as the moment she observed Noah eradicating existences that she would have had trouble with in a matter of microseconds, she moved decisively as her pride had been truly insulted today!

'Retrieve a TABOO Nomological Edict...no matter the price.'

BZZZT!

Her soul shuddered as it cried out painfully, but her gaze was cold and commanding as it left no leeway.

Behind her, her Reality Passages fluctuated as shockingly, more and more began to appear as if they were locked away this whole time!

The actions she was taking now would be detrimental to her in the future, but she had to do this now as if she didn't, she might as well not consider herself a worthy Emperor for the Age to come!

With a cry of agonizing pain, a portion of her soul was decimated as thereafter...

BOOOM!

A shockingly obscene aura began to leak out from her.

A maddening aura that no beings in the Firmaments normally got their hands on!

A maddening aura of power spread out from Empress Genevieve as Noah's enthroned figure watched on coldly, his eyes actually following prompts that had risen after his last attack caused a ruptured area of blank white space.

<An Astounding Achievement! You have released an attack capable of destroying the Natural Laws of Reality as you approach a stage that only truly powerful existences can stumble upon. Your Affinity to the Natural Laws of Reality rises as there is much to learn from the re-establishment of natural laws after their destruction. Your Maximum Reserves of the Essence of Reality have been increased by...>

OOOM!

Incandescent waves of light flashed in his eyes as a large portion of his will studied the blank white space that contained nothing.

There might be benefits for him to obtain even there as a portion of his focus was also on the maddening light being released by Genevieve, where some might ask why he had not included her and Beatrix as targets for the Ascendant Reality Sever.

The memories and experiences of such an existence would be invaluable as anyone would rashly do whatever they could to even try and kill them, but Noah had not even tried! Whether he could have succeeded or not was not entirely known with the unpredictable nature and cards that could fall out of the hands of this being, but Noah did not even try. This was because he was waiting for something like what was happening at this very moment!

'Why would I get rid of you before you obtain your TABOO Nomological Edicts once more?'

Yes!

Noah had not touched Empress Genevieve yet precisely due to this as he wanted this being to continue growing and reclaim her TABOO concepts and whatever else she had hidden from the Olden Times, and he wasn't let down as she shockingly released an overpowering aura of a concept that seemed to cause the very surrounding natural laws of Reality to tremble!

'Good!'

Noah's eyes were ridiculously bright at such a moment as there was another thing that caused him to be happy, and that was the overabundance of Loot that was flowing over his eyes.

Loot that was purely from Ninth Firmament existences as their blood and Bloodlines surged towards his throne to all go towards refining his Physique!

[+55,495,725 Cosmic Filament Cores obtained...] DING! The effects of Loot Multiplier are applied...[+ 55 Seeds of Reality are obtained.]

[+76,536,947 Runic Dao Line Enhancers obtained...] DING! The effects of Loot Multiplier are applied...[+ 76,530 Evolutionary Kainos Runic Lines of Ascendancy are obtained. ]

[+989 Trillion Skill Points obtained...] DING! The effects of Loot Multiplier are applied...[+989 Reality Resource Points obtained.]

[1,000 High Tier Reality Crystals have been obtained.]

There were no Blood Pearls in the form of loot as all the True Blood and Racial Bloodlines of these beings surged towards Noah in this starkly silent and eerie space.

But the loot that was given...ah! It was too wondrous!

Seeds of Reality.

Not Shards, not pieces...but complete Seeds of Reality could be obtained from Ninth Firmament existences!

<Seed of Reality> :: A rarely seen coagulation of essence into a perfect structure that allows for grand reality altering possibilities. A single Seed of Reality can be utilized to give birth to 100 Billion Cosmos, granting one the full number of Cosmos to fulfill this condition of those seeking Reality if their Origins and souls are unshackled and can withstand the raging essence within the Seed...

A singular multicolored ocular Seed that cascaded with stellar light could allow a being to forge all of their required 100 Billion Cosmos. So long as they weren't bound by restrictions like Noah currently was at 10 Billion Cosmos!

So long as they had broken their shackles and achieved Reality Passages...and their Souls were strong enough to bypass the shackles between the Eighth and Ninth Firmament of Ascendancy!

Chapter 1637 Loot! Glorious Loot! II

Noah had truly gained 55 Seeds of Reality as after affirmation from RUINATION, these wondrous forms of loot could also be Quadruplicated as it meant Noah could meet the requirements of 100 Billion Cosmos over two hundred times if it was allowed!

And all of this loot...was before Noah even opened the glittering Treasure Chests as just from his other abilities alone, there was still much more to come.

<The effects of Absolute Looter are applied>

<The Flames and Bloodlines of the Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edicts of Flame Spider Emperor, Obsidian Emperor, Bestial Draconian, Unshakable Beast, Mountainous Terror...have been granted>

<The Flames and Bloodlines of the Insuperable Nomological Edicts of...>

<The Flames and Bloodlines of the Quasi-Insuperable Nomological Edicts of...>

Quasi-TABOO, Insuperable, Quasi-Insuperable!

From the 10 Ninth Firmament existences to fall, Noah felt over 300 Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edicts and counting trying to surge into his soul as the vast majority had to be pushed into the Soul Library first!

This was because even as he continued to purge Minor, Greater, and Quasi-Insuperable Nomological Edicts to strengthen his soul through the Throne of Arcadian Tyranny, he was still receiving too many Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edicts at once as his soul was still expanding and strengthening rapidly to be able to contain all of these concepts.

But he continued to collect all of these wondrous loot while Genevieve was unshackling herself in his now verdant domain, watching with utter coldness as the strewn golden blood of 10 Ninth Firmament Enders surged into his Body for the purposes of refinement.

Noah collected all of the racial Bloodlines under these beings for three purposes of refinement...except a single Bloodline that stemmed from the only non-Primordial Beast killed in the past microseconds!

<The Supreme Tier Bloodline of the Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Human has been granted.>

OOOM!

His Origin cried out gleefully as it collected the second Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Bloodline...leaving behind only three for Noah to seek.

As he marveled at the information and uniqueness of the Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Human Bloodline while comparing it to the Infinite Willow Trees, Noah's eyes landed on the dangerous beastial form of Genevieve and an entirely ashen Beatrix that was locked onto him!

"You have hidden yourself deeply, Alexander."

WAA!

The Archaic voice of this Empress from the Olden Times rang out as her aura continued to rise, billowing waves of a terrifying concept raging around her as she took a drastic action because of this being before her! Around her, one could see the shocking scene of 18 Reality Passages, far greater than before as they ceaselessly pumped her with tremendous waves of inexhaustible essence!

"Tell me...what is more believable? The fact that you have always had power at the very peak of the Ninth Firmament of Ascendancy since you met me, or you truly were and still are at the Seventh Firmament of Ascendancy...yet to break your shackles and you can already take down peak Ninth Firmament existences?"

Each possibility was more terrifying than the last, with Noah listening to the words of this terrifying being with a minute portion of his soul as most of his focus...was currently with his Main Body that had relocated multiple glimmering illusory Treasure Chests to appear before him in the Cosmic Holy Land.

The battle had ended with the death of all Ninth Firmament Enders simultaneously as Noah knew there would be a brief respite before the true danger revealed itself, with him wanting to use this time to increase his power as much as possible as the solution now...lay in the randomized bountiful loot from the Resplendent Treasure Cache!

So as time barely moved in the outside world, Noah's main body was looking at 5 dazzling illusory Treasure Chests that gave off a glint of multicolored light, but they mostly shone of wondrous rays of gold.

All 5 were currently vibrating and pulsating with fervor as they seemed to be asking to be opened, holding boundless glory within as Noah had chosen his targets delicately!

10 Ninth Firmament existences had fallen under his Ascendant Reality Sever, and he had utilized 5 of the remaining 8 chances he held to utilize Resplendent Treasure Cache in his life.

He had three other chances remaining as this was the number his destiny advised him to leave behind, where he didn't even know when the next time would be that the count of Resplendent Treasure Cache would be increased or even replenished!

Previously, he had opened only a single Cache from the death of the Gazar as he had received ridiculous things like a single Olden Orb of Transmogrification, 10 Reality Jewels, Flasks of Life and Death, a few Blueprints of Enlightened Primordial Relics...and more. But what would he be getting now that the target of these 5 Resplendent Treasure Caches were Ninth Firmament existences? Now that the Nomological Edict of the Resplendent Treasure Emperor had been elevated to Quasi-TABOO, Double Empowered, and Corrupted?!

With a heart expectant of enormous glory, Noah gave the command as the first Resplendent Treasure Cache was opened.

OOOOM!

Like a golden gate rising, the illusory chest opened as rays of golden pillars bloomed with it, fantastical prompts beginning to bloom before Noah's eyes!

<100 Olden Orbs of Transmogrification have been obtained.>

<500 High Tier Soul Crystals have been obtained.>

BZZZT!

Boundless golden splendor rose and fell as glimmering ancient Olden Orbs were deposited into his Expansive Space along with even more brilliant High Tier Soul Crystals!

He had only received a measly number of Medium Soul Crystals from the Cache before as today, he received hundreds of High Tier ones, with the prompts continuing!

<1000 Ascendant Breaths of Reality have been obtained.>

<100 High Tier Naturally Formed Primordial Treasures have been obtained>

<1,000 Ascendant Flasks of Life and Death have been obtained.>

<The Quasi-TABOO Relic <Dimensional War Beads> has been obtained.>

...!

<The Blueprint of the TABOO Relic <APEX> has been obtained.>

"Ah...!"

Pure wonder was unfolding before Noah's eyes as he could barely contain himself when he received a Quasi-TABOO Relic that stood above Enlightened Primordial Relics and Sui Generis Enlightened Primordial Relics, but he was further taken off guard when he received the Blueprint for a TABOO Relic!

APEX.

A gloriously fitting name that Noah was just now finding out exactly what it was, his mental waves fluttering with sheer wonder as bountiful information and prompts bloomed before his eyes.

And this....was still just from the first Resplendent Treasure Cache!

Chapter 1638 No Need to Hide! I

Bountiful loot cascaded out of the Resplendent Treasure Cache as there were a great deal of things, the one most worthy of mention being a Blueprint of a TABOO Relic by the name of APEX!

Noah's mind focused on this and a few others to better grasp just what had landed on his lap.

<Blueprint of the TABOO Relic, APEX>:: A Blueprint that details the formation of a Relic normally wielded by those who have built their own Realities and can oppose natural laws of Reality without the utilization of the Essence of Reality. Its forging requires 500 Ascendant Breaths of Reality, 500 Naturally Formed Primordial Treasures, A Sui Generis Enlightened Primordial Relic, 1,000 Reality Moonstones, and 10,000 Units of the Golden Sand from the Dream Dimension. More information on its uses can only be obtained once forged...

Quasi-TABOO <Dimensional War Beads>:: Pulled from an unknown Dimension, this pair of War Beads grants their holder +10 base True Reality Damage Values to all attacks and skills. They are extremely unique to come across as they were forged from 50 Naturally Formed Primordial Treasures, 10 Dimensional Crystals...

There was no specification on the TABOO Relic APEX, but the mere details of the Quasi-TABOO Relic <Dimensional War Beads> were utterly disastrous for all of Noah's enemies!

It granted a base of 10 True Reality Damage Values to all of his attacks and abilities as something like the Ascendant Reality Fireball that had 10 Damage Values could now display 20! It meant that once utilized through his Halos...it could reach upwards of 2,000 True Reality Damage Values alone!

The elevation of all other abilities worked the same way as in the Cosmic Holy Land, Noah waves his hands to call out the Dimensional War Beads.

SHAA!

Crystalline silver in color, a set of half moon earrings with stellar spinning circles of Reality at their very center could be seen- these earrings flashing out to instantly attach themselves onto Noah's ears as they looked like minute flashes of light on him that one might not even see unless they were looking closely at him!

'Hmmm...'

He felt waves of new power course through the Dimensional War Beads and wrap around his soul, entirely changing his Damage output and making him many times stronger than before as he ascertained that Resplendent Treasure Caches was the way to go to achieve what he wanted!

The TABOO Relic APEX was something he had to quickly find a way to forge, where he felt like he would obtain all the needed components quickly except two- the Reality Moonstones he didn't even know about along with the Golden Sand from the Dream Dimension.

He had only utilized his Infinite Dream to spread his will across Realities so far as he hadn't fully delved into the Dream Dimension himself, but this now seemed like something he had to do as he looked forward into the future!

"Very well..open the remaining Resplendent Treasure Caches."

BZZZZT!

Fantastical splendor shot out as pillars of golden light, 4 other Resplendent Treasure Caches beginning to open and filling the Cosmic Holy Land in the beautiful allure of loot.

Only a total of 5 Caches were obtained by Noah as he utilized the ability on the Ninth Firmament Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Human and the 4 strongest Ninth Firmament Enders, but in his heart...he knew he would be getting a chance to use this ability again very soon.

As the rays of splendorous golden light rose to greet him with new prompts, we turn our gazes back to the infinitesimally small region within the vast Realities where he and Empress Genevieve were staring coldly at each other.

The body of this Empress shone with shocking authority that at this moment...fully finished its arrival after countless shackles were forcefully broken to retrieve it!

When it fully settled in, an astounding change occurred on this being as Noah's eyes rose in surprise, gazing upwards to look at the illusory crown above Genevieve's head actually begin to solidify at this moment!

A solidifying of authority that meant one had done something astounding enough to be considered a Candidate Emperor for the coming Kainos Era! Noah had achieved his solidification of authority through making a Bloodline comparable if not greater than those of the Olden Times, naturally gaining his candidacy as this Bloodline was termed of the Kainos Era.

Now, Genevieve had done what she always knew she could achieve if she paid a high enough price- and she had paid this heavy price to extract an old concept as the achievement of a TABOO Edict while an existence was still in the Firmaments of Ascendancy...was another method to obtain Candidacy for the coming Age of Emperors!

There were many methods out there as each required one to be an astounding genius that stood out amongst geniuses, with Genevieve being simply a cheater who had already lived through an entire Era before that things were much easier for her.

"Well? Which Reality is true, Alexander King?! That you are an existence at the Seventh Firmament of Ascendancy who can release the same level of attacks as a Legend's Visage?!"

Her voice boomed out as her recent actions seemed to have caused her to regain her pride.

Her lustrous white and black fur flowed like stellar rivers as her crimson gold horns forming the Ecriture MADNESS pulsed with power, her solidifying crown giving her an overpowering new aura as whatever TABOO Nomological Edict she had unlocked...it had come with its own unique Bloodline that was undoubtedly identified as a Kainos Emperor Bloodline!

The figure of the injured Beatrix had her eyes fluttering with fervor as she bowed towards Genevieve as if a subject was paying respects to their reborn queen, Noah watching this scene calmly as his Black Ascendancy Halos began to pulse with activity...beginning to edge towards his body that was still seated upon the throne.

"I am that and more. But you...my dear Empress, you disappoint me!"

RUMBLE!

His voice boomed out with even more majesty and grandeur as while surroundings with dense stellar vegetation, one could see his black Ascendancy Halos flowing towards him as if he was about to fuse with them!

Chapter 1639 No Need to Hide! II

Noah's Ascendancy Halos had bloomed with activity once more as they truly seemed like they were about to fuse with him!

Empress Genevieve saw this scene as her eyes turned entirely cold, her enraged voice ringing out.

"I disappoint you? This is why you are going to obtain your true form now? Do you truly think you stand a chance to kill me? Do you dare make me your enemy?!"

...!

The surroundings warped at her mere voice as whatever TABOO concept she had unlocked that had granted her a Kainos Bloodline was utterly dreadful, such a thing that only Legends normally held having shocking implications on the power of an existence in the Firmaments of Ascendancy that held it.

At her words, Noah's eyes were shockingly tinged with more disappointment that only caused Genevieve to burn with even more coldness, his voice echoing out.

"I had thought an existence that has lived as long as you would have made sufficient preparations...that I could actually rely on your power to overcome the perils to come, but I was wrong!"

WAA!

"You do not even know right now that an even greater peril is coming...how can I not be disappointed? No, Empress Genevieve. Me fusing with my Ascendancy Halos...it is not for you."

...!

His words were akin to a clap of thunder echoing in the hearts of the souls of all beings nearby as Beatrix shuddered frightfully, the words being understood by her and Genevieve right away as their eyes became entirely somber while spreading out their auras to look around them!

"It makes me both disappointed and happy...because I also continue to affirm that my destiny is far above and beyond even someone like you to be able to sense the enemies who have not yet made a move even now. You all...do not need to hide any longer!"

HOOONG!

His words caused majestic waves of destiny to burst forth like a dam, his visage turning glorious and shocking while on his Throne of Unnamed Tyranny as his Ascendancy Halos sank into his skin and fused with him.

His eyes gazed upwards to a certain region of space that had absolutely nothing, but his astounding reserves of Destiny and fortune told him of a confounding sense of danger there!

BZZZT!

His body danced with profound waves of essence as he began to transform.

His Maximum Reserves of the Essence of Reality also stably stopped at exactly 100,000 after his achievement of being capable of entirely wiping out the natural laws of Reality came to be, the blank white region currently trying to reestablish its natural laws as if one studied this and comprehended the weaving of reality itself...the benefits were boundless!

But there were a vast array of existences over the countless Ages of the past who could erase the very natural laws of Reality and bring about blankness...but those that were able to comprehend something from this blankness were very few.

Back in the Cosmic Holy Land, Noah's main body also popped an Ascendant Flask of Life and Death as all of his resources and vitality were recovered- his body achieving the most optimum state as he had a full 100,000 Units of the Essence of Reality to play around with!

His soul felt pristine as with the fusion of the Black Tier Ascendancy Halos, his True Sanguine Clone began to undergo a transformation as pairs of wings made of pure light erupted from his back and flashed behind his throne, his eyes actually being met with a prompt at this moment that caused his mind to buzz.

<Under the fusion of your Ascendancy Halos, you can attain your True Form that traces all the way back to your roots. Due to the remodeling of your body and soul when awakening your Unnamed Kainos Emperor Bloodline, your true nature is what you choose. Possible True Forms for you to select from are: Human, Unnamed Kainos Tyrant, Arcadian Tyrant, Samsara Universal Origin, Samsara Cosmic Origin, Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Human, Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Infinite Willow Tree, Destiny Goblin Emperor...>

A prompt that told him he could shockingly choose his own True Form appeared.

As he sensed the profound essence of vitality around him from the Transcendent Plant Kingdom, the choice this time around was natural!

'Infinite Willow Tree.'

HOOOONG!

Pure unadulterated splendor rose in cascading waves.

The Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Bloodline that was among the very few that stood at the peak among Primordials!

Just what quality did they have to trump even above Pure-Blooded Cardinal Royal Humans?

Today, Noah would find out!

Shockingly verdant green essence proliferated throughout as from the Throne of Unnamed Tyranny, countless branches filled with stellar colored leaves sprouted out.

Numerous and shining with pristine sharpness, they were attached to a single trunk that stably wrapped around the Throne of Unnamed Tyranny, this trunk that all branches stemmed from being rainbow colored and giving odd sparkling majesty that would cause others to unconsciously kneel!

BZZZT!

The domain that was already filled with vegetation and stellar trees growing from space proliferated even more, many light years becoming filled with blooming forests at this moment as at the center of it all, a dazzling Infinite Willow Tree could be seen anchoring everything.

With a rainbow colored trunk and countless stellar branches that tore apart space itself stemming from it, a solidified crown enlarged and shone with utter splendor above it as one couldn't see the features of eyes or anything similar to a human!

Simply a tree.

Simply...a stellar Infinite Willow Tree whose branches continued to grow endlessly until now.

<You have taken the form of the Infinite Willow Tree while fused with your 10 Black Tier Ascendancy Halos.>

<All attacks and abilities are now cast with a single authority while in this form, allowing your base values and skills to obtain a multiplier of 500 to your True Reality Damage Values and True Reality Defense Values.>

...!

<As an Infinite Willow Tree in your True Form, you are further granted an additional multiplier of 250 to all abilities that increase True Reality Damage Values.>

A shocking true form was taken while Noah called out domineeringly for the hidden enemies to reveal themselves- the boosts of this form alone making it so that the horrendous Damage he achieved after 20 stacked boosts of Sever...he could now more than likely achieve with a single attack!

Repeatable attacks matching those who had grasped A Legend's Visage...what did that mean for the level of power that he had achieved?!

Chapter 1640 Merely a Dead Thing! I

The boosts from fusing with his Ascendancy Halos and taking on the Infinite Willow Tree True Form were explained.

A multiplier of 500 to all cast skills and abilities, with an additional multiplier of 250 to any abilities that provided the True Reality Damage Values.

This alone was ridiculous enough, but it wasn't everything. There was then the Infinite Willow Tree's form itself!

Noah's consciousness was spread out in a fantastical fashion as he felt like he could see everything around him with even more clarity- even a semblance of the natural laws of Reality becoming clearer!

Wherever his Infinite Willow Tree branches passed, he felt like he had utmost control in that area as the most shocking this was truly in the name of this bloodline itself.

Infinite. So long as he provided mana...the branches he could release were infinite as he could grow and expand to a shocking size. Whether this feature had a limitation or if it was truly as it seemed was unknown, but Noah would test the limits!

OOOOM!

The Transcendent Plant Kingdom trembled as Noah's will spread out, his branches extending and multiplying even further with his voice coming out at the same time.

"You have hidden and watched all this time...surely expecting us to work up more of a sweat against the peak Ninth Firmament Enders."

...!

"It seems like something very cowardly and weak but hey, who am I to judge? The question is how much longer do you plan to remain in hiding."

His words were provocative as they seemed to be coming from all directions!

Anywhere that his Infinite Willow Tree branches were spreading out to- his voice could be heard.

"..."

Silence reigned in the verdant domain.

A deafening silence that seemed to reject the words that this Unnamed Kainos Emperor was speaking out, and yet his infinite branches weaved out with confidence, tearing apart space wherever they passed as they waited!

Genevieve's eyes were also filled with seriousness and as always recently- a sense of anger due to the ongoing actions.

The silence didn't remain too long.

"Interesting."

RUMBLE!

A single word.

A single word, but it was filled with shocking power as in the next moment the area above the verdant domain split apart like a mirror.

Like a dazzling mirror shattering, this area broke apart one after another as in mere moments it reflected three reality shaking figures behind it!

Wrapped in the veil and barrier of the Mirror Dimension, the watching existences revealed themselves with utter calmness and ease.

"It is truly interesting to come across an existence that can mimic the bloodlines of others so well."

Noah's awareness shone with utmost splendor as he landed his awareness on the being speaking. Enormous in stature and grand in its visage, it was the archaic bird that he knew nothing about at this moment. Only that it looked regal and ferocious with its crimson stellar fur wrapped around it, and the dazzling illusory crown rotating above it.

An illusory crown that was shared as a feature among its two other compatriots!

One was a humongous Unicorn shining with the allure of reality, and the third being was a fantastical eye with long spanning wings behind it shining with that lure of gold and white.

Olden Emperors.

Those were the enemies hiding in the dark! Utterly dreadful existences that Noah could sense were still in the Ninth Firmament of Ascendancy, and yet at the same time, something about them felt entirely different from how he sensed Genevieve and the other ninth filament existences.

Even in the shockingly robust memories of the Enders that he had just defeated, he could not find any information about the species, power, or faction that these three existences could belong to. And when he turned to the Quasi-TABOO Nomological Edict of the Dictum Emperor to utilize Premium Reader or its other abilities...he saw that these beings were shielded by a powerful force!

What was even more shocking was the fact that the crimson gold bird had its eyes revolving with the austere silver light that controlled the barrier of the Mirror Dimension before them.

The capability to interfere with the Mirror Dimension like this was something that very few existences in the Firmaments of Ascendancy could ever hope to achieve, and yet this being was doing this naturally as Noah gazed at them while continuing to speak out calmly.

"You have been watching in hiding this whole time. Will you shed this veil of cowardice and come forward to state your purpose now?"

His words kept their tyrannical demeanor while even Genevieve was watching the three figures above with extreme coldness, her eyes releasing a knowing light as her voice actually rang out to intercept before anyone else could speak.

"You fools were here for me were you not?"

WAA!

"An Archaic Devil Bird, a Nine Reality Horned Unicorn, and an Eclipsing Celestial Void Eye. Such an assortment of failed Emperors can only be collected from the Archaic Beastial Grotto Sanctum by a single fool that I know of....has that coward Golden Eye become tired of the free Grotto Sanctums given to him by following the will of a ridiculous existence that he now makes it his job to send his lackeys after those seeking Destiny?"

RUMBLE!

Her words carried shocking secrets as the revolving eyes of the Dimensional Archaic Devil Bird locked unto her with increasing intensity.

"For you to know of us and even attribute what you see to our master...you must have been truly someone special in the ages past."

Its feathers flashed a splendid radiance as its voice continued

"Yet look at you now....not even the Visage of a Legend surrounds you even when you used to be a Legend in the past yourself. To the point that today, you will even fall to the hands of beings that have yet to achieve reality! How wondrous and mysterious the tides of destiny are..."

WAAA.

The impetuous words of an Olden Emperor rang out as Genevieve's eyes adopted stern wrath!

In the past seconds in the past day and even now. Every single thing continued to anger her and test her limits.

Someone like her...a past Legend!

A past Emperor that used to reign over vast domains!

"It seems that I have been truly gone for too long...to the point that nobody even remembers me."

BZZZT!

Her figure began to crackle with astounding power, but the clashing wills of Emperors were prideful as when they met, they wouldn't allow one voice to occupy everyone else's for too long!

"Why should you be remembered? A Mere Disaster Remnant...a dead thing that should have remained dead, and yet you still latch on trying to find a future glory. A mixed species that cannot even stand a chance to regain her former glory...why should you take Candidacy in the coming Age of Emperors to just fail again?"

...!
