Chapter 2051 A Dimensional Cataclysm! LI

The basal layer of the Gourmandizing Dimensional Reality was rapidly transforming.

It was forming the planar level of the Dream Dimension as whatever was swallowed by the Pocket Dimensional Reality in the Dying Dream Dimension was restructured and rebuilt instantaneously!

Dense Absolute Dream Authority gathered and proliferated at the center of the forming sandy gold plane as above it, sandy gold Cosmos also began to bloom from their own singularities.

There were too many intricacies to talk about on what was happening at this juncture, but one of the major intricacies to gaze upon was the Latent Wills currently presiding in place.

With the proliferation of the planar layer of the Dream Dimension, the Latent Will of the Dying Dream Dimension also increased in weight within the Infinite Dimensional Reality as then...there was the Will that Noah was connected to!

There was the Infinite Dimensional Reality.

It didn't impose itself or try Devouring the Latent Will of the Dying Dream Dimension in any way as Noah had spoken to it already.

Wait.

This was the shocking command given to the Infinite Dimensional Reality as the first step was to facilitate and observe the successful restructuring of the whole Dream Dimension, and then over time as it became permanently and intricately linked to it....it could then assimilate the Latent Will!

This was a shocking truth that lay in wait as the unbelievable pace of restructuring continued.

Seas of Absolute Dream Authority were proliferating crazily in all this as in the Dimensional Holy Land where Noah was being bathed on the True Dimensional and True Reality Light of Conquest, even more prompts had begun to wash over his eyes

<One of the 9 Dimensions is in the process of being assimilated into your Gourmandizing Dimensional Reality.>

HUUUM!

The prompt shone with blue and gold borders as Providence was surging around Noah as the sheer gravity of this current situation was settling in.

<You have taken an unprecedented action not just in the Age of Quintessence, but across the many Ages past.>

<Your Authority as an Emperor of this Age quintessentially increases!>

...!

His Authority scaled up exponentially as his throne and backbone of a crown lit up with fantastical lights, the structure of the Throne of Authority being refined even more as the aura Noah released became that much more pristine!

<Your Understanding of the Decretum of Dreams is scaling towards completion.>

<The continued observation of the birth of the Dream Dimensional Layer within the Gourmandizing Dimensional Reality will allow for a full understanding of the Decretum of Dreams at completion.>

...!

Even more boons cascaded down as to top this all off...

<The new feature of <Absolute Authority> is being born in the Gourmandizing Dimensional Reality as it has begun the process of assimilating the source of a Decretum into itself.>

"...."

Yes.

The gravity of the situation was actually too heavy as the stage of things involved were too grand!

The Gourmandizing Dimensional Reality...everything about it was scaling upwards as from a cluster of Realities and a tiny beat of a domain of Dimensions, it was now incorporating a genuine Dimension as it was unknown where it would be at the end of this all.

And Noah...he had to figure out the most crucial part of this all as while the sandy golden plane Layer expanded and sandy gold Cosmos bloomed, Dreams and Nightmares were finding themselves in this new land as he was getting an influx of new existences.

This influx...eventually would include the Dream Dimensional Rulers.

He had discussed it with Eowyn before this as the critical moment was soon coming.

She had convinced her father, yes.

But there was Jajagan, the Old Dreamer, and the Dreamer of Ages aside from Eowyn and the Longest Dream!

Could Noah really trust to bring Nature Integration experts he did not have under his control inside the very depths of his home?

This...was a question deserving of answer as while his Main Body observed the ridiculously quick process of Apocalypse and Rebirth, the Dream Dimensional Chassis in the Dying Dream Dimension took the spot light.

While everything was being swallowed up by the singularity in the skies, Noah's Dream and Avalon Dimensional Bodies that were backed behind by Avalonian Dimensional Rulers came to float before the Longest Dream and the remaining Dream Dimensional Rulers- the authority of Eowyn was becoming unshackled gradually getting stronger as a pristine glow covered Noah!

Meetings were bound to take place during this tumultuous time in the Dying Dream Dimension, and even more meetings would occur as the effects of what was currently happening fully settled in.

In the Main Reality.

Within the depths of the hidden location where 12 stellar burning thrones floated pristinely.

The Wills of two beings returned as a light of authority spread out, Althea's voice being the first to ring out as she spoke mesmerizingly.

<The Dream Dimension is now accelerating towards an Apocalypse. We were only able to erase 1 Dream Dimensional Ruler...but with the cataclysmic of the Dimension, their Absolute Dream Authority will lose its strength to the extent that we can write off any interferences from this Dimension. The Avaloian Dimensional Rulers were not affected much as an unexpected variable appeared.>

...!

<Oh?>

An even more enigmatic voice stretched out after her words as the throne of the Eminent Mastermind, Noah, lit up with authority.

<What held the two of you back from fully utilizing this chance?>

Yes.

Two Tribunal Rulers sent forth should have achieved an even greater result than this, so it had to be known just what had interfered!

This time, it was Aegon who replied with a sharp light.

<The holder of the Sword of Avalon...>

WAA!

Aegon's throne shone with a sharp light as an illusory image showing the Avalon and Dream Dimensional Bodies appeared!

The features and details of every part of his body were pristinely clear as the eyes of 12 terrifying beings locked onto him.

<The Dimensional Rulers of Avalon revolved around him as even the Connate Avalonian Sacred Beast seems to obey his commands.>

Apart from his image, the scenes from the Dream Dimension began to play as the hue of cerulean blue of Absolute Mana Authority and everything else that had bloomed just moments ago came under the scrutinizing gazes of Tribunal Rulers!

Chapter 2052 A Dimensional Cataclysm! LII

<They seem to have seen through the weakness of the Abominations at first glance...with the holder of the Sword of Avalon being the most unique as he is releasing Pure Mana containing wisps of Absolute Fundamental Authority with every attack.>

An inquisitive voice echoed out in the stellar domain of 12 floating thrones burning with authority as a discussion was ongoing on what occurred in the Dream Dimension.

<Also, that is not his true face...he seems to be veiling himself as for Absolute Fundamental Authority to not be able to pierce it, he should possess one of the Fundamental Natural Treasures.>

...!

The voice of the Eminent Mastermind, Noah, echoed out with grandeur as his throne shone with authority!

His words were answered by another ancient voice that had remained silent for the majority of this time.

<He could be a Chosen or Destined Emperor. But no matter. Countermeasures will be made for him in the future. But...You all are missing something crucial in this current situation..>

WAA!

The voice was heavy and filled with great weight as an aged and wrinkled hand came out to play with the fabric of Reality around it.

<Yes...>

Before he could even continue, most of the Tribunal Rulers felt like they knew what he was talking about as this being still continued nonetheless!

<Absolute Dream Authority is not weakening...while the concentration of essence and power of Natural Laws is still rising. And it is rising at an extremely fast pace as if the Cataclysm of the Dream Dimension is not going to happen gradually over an unknown number of years...but in these next moments.>

...!

The Wills of multiple Tribunal Rulers used their Main Bodies to intricately sense the Main Reality and affirm their thoughts as their gazes turned sharp.

Yes.

The Dream Dimension perishing should be a slow process.

The Decretum of Dreams should slowly be weakening...but it wasn't.

It was like the destruction was not at all happening!

But this didn't make sense as the role of the Dream Dimension as an Anchor was gradually fading away in authority as the concentration of Natural Laws was increasing.

So...just what exactly was happening here?

Magisterial.

This was the only word Noah's main body could use to describe what he saw within the Gourmandizing Dimensional Reality.

The biggest change that he realized at this moment was nothing else but...the size.

The cluster of hundreds of thousands of genuine Cosmos in the Infinite Dimensional Reality was vast, but it was now becoming eclipsed by the golden planar Dimension that was being forged below it!

The boundaries of the reforming Dream Dimension had already exceeded the vastness that Noah's normal Cosmos covered- and this was a great number of Cosmos from Noah Devouring multiple Emerging and Prime Realities while the Gourmandizing Dimensional Reality roamed the Boundary Between Realities.

And the size of the reforming Dream Dimension only increased further as its expanse soon began to stretch out to the ends of the stellar horizons.

<Your Understanding of the Decretum of Dreams has increased to 88%.>

Amidst all this, prompts continued to rise before his eyes as he watched the proliferation and Rebirth of an entire Dimension, his own Origin with a nearly complete Fourth Dimensional Layer vibrating as a sort of resonance also began to occur with Noah's own Dream Dimensional Layer.

His path was unique as he himself was forging 9 Dimensional Realities with his Origin, and this was the plan for the Gourmandizing Dimensional Reality as at the end of it all...just what would occur?

If he could manage to forge 9 Dimensions in his Origin and also devour the remaining 8 Dimensions...just what glorious future awaited him?!

HUUUUM!

Hid thoughts were pushed aside with the vibrancy around him as the Dream Dimension was approaching completion as on top of the basal sandy gold floor, Millions upon millions of Dream Cosmos were forming from ever budding similarities, quadrillions of Dreams and Nightmares being brought into these Cosmos or in the blowing golden sands of the planar floor as the pace of the process was unmatched!

It meant soon enough...the entire source of the Dream Dimension would be used up.

When that happened and the last vestiges of the Dream Dimension crumbled...what would happen to the space it used to occupy?

HOONG!

The scene of Apocalypse was blooming all around them as in the Dying Dream Dimension, Noah and the Avalonian Dimensional Rulers faced the somber faces of the Dream Dimensional Rulers amidst all this!

Fissures and ruptures of the very fabric of Reality were stretching out endlessly as the only thing keeping the Wills of all beings in place was the spinning Pocket Dimensional Reality that sucked in anything to do with Dream Essence.

The fissure that had been stretching out endlessly continued to pulse by itself as its essence was not even reactive to the Devouring of the Pocket Dimensional Reality, everything about it isolated as the crucial thing right now for Noah were two things in this place.

ROAR!

One was the cluster of Abominations he had trapped in The Magistracy of the Apocalyptic Blitzkriegs, with their ridiculous Physiques slowly being ground down by him as a few nearly had their bodies half obliterated after being smashed into by Unparalleled Emperor's Blitzkriegs multiple times and Noah getting into close combat with them while reinforced by the Beacon of Thorny Consecration!

The other thing...was how to deal with the Dream Dimensional Layers as until he had assurances in his own power, he would not so easily grant them access to his own home.

So he gazed at the party of Dream Dimensional Rulers as Guinevere and the others stood beside him, his chest beginning to shine at this moment as a bound consciousness broke more of its shackles and for the first time ever...

SHAA!

Her will came out to release a profound brilliance and take form.

Tendrils of imperceptible chains of Providence and Absolute Dream Authority could be seen stretching towards the skies from her small figure as the visage of a long lost Dimensional Ruler that was from the generation that OPPENHEIMER had nearly wiped out made her appearance!

Chapter 2053 Magistracy! L

After being nearly destroyed by OPPENHEIMER and bound by the chains of Edicts, natural laws, and a Decretum, she had finally gained the capability to at least coagulate a form of hers outwards!

Her hair was radiantly gold as she had a simple golden robe draping over her skin, her face fair and unblemished as her beauty was only comparable to a single woman here- Guinevere.

Before she even fully formed, the Longest Dream let out a relieved smile as he floated before her and embraced her, the other Dream Dimensional Rulers gazing in shock towards this scene as they also recalled this figure!

<Eowyn...>

Jajagan spoke out in a raspy voice as the others looked forward, Eowyn getting out of her father's embrace as she came to stand beside Noah's Clones while beginning to speak.

<There isn't really much time for our reunion as some crucial things have to be taken care of first while the Cataclysm and Rebirth of the Dream Dimension occurs.>

WAA!

Eowyn's visage was astounding to see as she spoke with royal grandeur and coldness that these Dimensional Rulers were used to too many years ago!

<Instead of facing true destruction, the Latent Dream Will decided to Rebirth its authority in a different location.>

<Made possible by...> The Old Dreamer turned his gaze towards Noah when Eowyn mentioned this as all Dimensional Rulers focused on him.

At this juncture, Noah remained silent no longer as he had allowed events to unfold as Eowyn wished while restraining his authority for too long.

So he spoke as a profound air of authority leaked from him!

<Made possible by me. Made possible because I possess a tool that was in the past encroaching upon and Absorbing the domains of the Dream Dimension.>

WAA!

The dense Quintessential Authority that he had just increased in concentration pulsed out with fervor as he continued.

<Escaping the certain destruction of the Dream Dimension was only made possible due to this...and the fact that I am the Dimensional Inimicus.>

...!

Explosive words that some beings like Guinevere and the Longest Dream already knew boomed out, Morgana and others who had not yet been privy to this changing their expressions as Noah ignored all this currently!

<Yet the Latent Will of the Dream Dimension decided to choose my methods in order to survive. As profound as that is, we do not have time to focus on it as now...the focus is on what you all will do after the Rebirth and relocation of the Dream Dimension. What matters is your response to the actions of Primordials that caused this...and the response of the other Dimensions to this action.>

His voice was steady while staring at powerful existences as apart from his own power, he had backing!

<After all this...> To Noah's voice, the aged face of the Longest Dream came to focus on Noah as he spoke with grandeur.

<...The Quantum Dimension will more than likely call a Dimensional Conclave where the Rulers of all Dimensions will assemble.>

...!

A fantastical set of words bloomed from this being as Noah's eyes lit up brightly!

A Conclave of the 9 Dimensions.

Something only brought forth from dire actions as the destruction of a Dimension counted as one!

As thoughts of this just bloomed, changes occurred in the surroundings that caused all eyes and Wills to shift.

They gazed at the land and skies around them to see a mass of Obsidian void becoming more and more visible from afar, the last golden wisps of the Dream Dimension surging into the spinning Pocket Dimensional Reality that shone like a blazing golden sun.

Within the Obsidian void, the gray fissure still remained as it pulsed with an eerie aura that couldn't really expand any further!

The Dream Dimensional Rulers watched on with solemnity and melancholy as the last vestiges of their domain disappeared into the spinning golden sun, their surroundings soon turned entirely black as the only points of light in the midst of all this...were 6 cerulean domains that held swirling Abominations that would soon be broken down one after another.

HUUUUM!

A sorrowful symphony played as at this moment, the Pocket Dimensional Reality released a blinding light and disappeared- bringing any residual essence within it back to the Gourmandizing Dimensional Reality.

At this moment, the Dream Dimension...was gone.

Silence permeated in the surroundings as Providence surged.

At the same time, every single being here and many more powerful beings from afar felt their souls blaze with powerful light as the power of Natural Laws felt an explosive rise within them!

Away from the black void of the past Dream Dimension.

In the Apollyon Dimension.

In a region of dense Absolute Apollyon Authority, Lilith rose up in shock as she felt Entropy, Manadynamics, and other Natural Laws she understood and integrated with begin to scale upwards in power!

<Impossible...instantaneous destruction of a Dimension? Even the Tribunal is not capable of that!>

Her devilish visage shone with utmost light as her fair hand tore across space, calling upon Absolute Dream Authority to create a Dimensional Gateway into this Dimension!

In another region entirely, this time within the Desolate Mausoleum.

The Five Empyral Domains of Nature blazed with multicolored light and expanded in size and concentration of Natural Laws in an obscene manner!

In the stellar domain with 12 thrones of authority and a pedestal holding a stellar Heart, utmost brilliance was erupting out as the mood was not the greatest.

<Instantaneous destruction...even the Essence of NULLITY would not be able to achieve that of a Dimension this quickly.>

WAA!

NULLITY!

The radiant and incandescent gray essence that covered the powerful weapons that Tribunal Rulers wielded as well as what covered the Abominations!

It was mentioned at this juncture as even the Tribunal Rulers were surprised at the pace of destruction of a Dimension that seemed to occur within moments!

Across many light years away from the Main Reality, another existence felt a reaction as his eyes opened wide.

His eyes... were the size of Cosmos as the extent of his body was utterly titanic.

His visage was veiled within the Boundary Between Realities as Absolute Dream Authority surged along with multiple Fundamental Natural Laws, the concentration essence even in the Boundary Between Realities surging as Seas of essence began to manifest!

The massive existence whose eyes alone were the size of Cosmos spoke with an extremely deep voice while hidden in the folds of the Boundary Between Realities.

<The first key has been turned...>

WAA!

Profound wonder and Essence rose up all around as far away from this location, in the Gourmandizing Dimensional Reality that was forming Seas of Golden essence- Noah was also viewing multiple prompts of new information.

<An irreversible nexus event has taken place.>

...!

<The Authority of all Natural Laws of Reality quintessentially increases!>

<The Singularities of new Realities in the Desolate Mausoleum quintessentially increases!>

Chapter 2054 Magistracy! LI

...!

<The Authority of all Natural Laws of Reality quintessentially increases!>

<The Singularities of new Realities in the Desolate Mausoleum quintessentially increases!>

A bubbling source of power.

This was what Noah felt as his body was surrounded by surges of authority and light, where his Quintessential Kainos Authority was increased to a stupendous level while his authority of the Fundamental Natural Law of Manadynamics also rode to greater heights!

Yet his expression was impassive in all this it also meant his actions had directly caused the explosive strength of the power of too many Nature Integration Realm existences.

One's foundation, EMPYRAL transformation, Origin, Physiques, Bloodlines, and many other things went to make their base stats as one person could have vastly different strengthening from the 1,000% Augmentation to True Damage Values compared to another.

The foundations of existences that had lived for billions of years were too profound as with the disappearance of the functions of one of the Anchors, the strengthening of Natural Laws allowed the most powerful beings...to get even more powerful!

Especially those who completely understood multiple Natural Laws- where beings like Lilith would be augmented the most!

So Noah took this change in strides as he focused on the utter and complete change before his eyes.

A sandy golden glow permeated across all of the Gourmandizing Dimensional Reality as Nkah faced many prompts about its elevation.

But the most important ones remained what it signified!

<The Source of the Dream Dimension has settled into your construct.>

<You have gained an unquantifiable authority over the Decretum of Dreams.>

<Your Understanding of the Decretum of Dreams has reached 100%>

<You have gained the recognition of the Dream Dimension and gained the right to be granted the title of a Dream Dimensional Ruler once you reach a sufficient ranking.>

<All features of the Infinite Dimensional Reality are undergoing an elevation.>

<The Atlatl of Reality has gained the weight of an entire Dimension as it undergoes a Quintessential Evolution.>

<The feature of Absolute Authority has added the Dream Dimension under its banner.>

...!

Row after row of prompts continued to cascade down as Noah brought it to a stop at the words of <Absolute Authority>.

A new feature to have arisen from this all as what did it entail?

Noah's Tri-Pupiled eyes focused on this feature as details bloomed.

<Absolute Authority>:: A feature of the Gourmandizing Dimensional Reality that is applicable to any authority it has devoured the Source of. It allows for an instant and complete understanding of the concept of the Source and a smooth method of integrating it unto yourself, as well as the authority of Entry into the Gourmandizing Dimensional Reality for those who have been branded as the Rulers of the Source. It also allows for the parameters on the expansion or stabilization of the Source to be modified at will. Currently devoured Sources: Dream Dimension...

...!

A feature with a simple and concise description!

Yet it solved Noah's current biggest problem on how to maneuver around the Dream Dimensional Rulers as well as have aspects with shocking implications.

This aspect was the capability of allowing the expansion or stabilization of the Dream Dimension!

What was currently happening that was leading the Desolate Mausoleum and 9 Dimensions towards an apocalypse?

It was the constant expansion of Dimensions and Realities that violated balance, with Entropy gaining an ever increasing edge as Noah's actions today which caused the increased proliferation of Realities would also hasten the pace of Cataclysm for the Desolate Mausoleum!

But his action had also stopped the Cataclysm of one Source as for the Dream Dimension...Noah could choose to stop its expansion and have it stabilize through the Gourmandizing Dimensional Reality's feature of <Absolute Authority>!

If he devoured other sources, including the vast Realities themselves...would this feature be the thing to actually stop the progression of an apocalypse?

THUMP!

Noah's Heart of Mana pulsed in his chest as Providence surged around him.

He felt the authority course within him while having such a grandiose thought, his eyes watching the radiant Seas of gold wading across the stellar Cosmos as a Dimension fully settled into his home!

But in his silent appreciation, his Will was brought to attention as a piercing voice traveled up from his Lineage.

"Father!"

WAA!

He heard the voice of his son emanate from his blood as his body quickly disappeared, traversing across the spatial folds to quickly appear in the stellar space of a certain Cosmos that shone with Seas of Dream Essence and Mana.

Here, Noah's Will surged out to see the figure of Little Henry with the Emperor Penguin, Kazuhiko, and many others who were currently staring with alarm towards a certain spot!

A spot...that held the visage of none other than the Ender of Reality- Hyperion!

<GAAAH!>

This being was currently bellowing out with immense pain and fervor as shockingly, his voice actually held authority.

Authority!

An existence like him who like many of Noah's people had just recently achieved the stage of Reality and was traversing the Stratas...somehow emanated Authority in his voice!

His large draconic elephantine body was undergoing a process of destruction and Refinement as around him, wisps of Absolute Mana Authority were entering his body and causing his aura to rise.

'What is...' Even Noah couldn't fully explain the workings behind this as in the next moment, prompts began to rise before him.

<Due to your increase in Quintessential Kainos Authority, you are now capable of reading more about the workings of Reality.>

<The Desolate Mausoleum has regained a significant portion of its past authority and can exert its Will more efficiently.>

<The Desolate Mausoleum has sensed its pathway towards destruction as to achieve balance, it has begun infusing the Authority of Manadynamics into its constructs and exerting a greater level of control.>

...!

An unintended consequence!

The Desolate Mausoleum was unshackled from one of its Anchors as it benefited a great deal.

But its proliferation of Realities was occurring even faster as it would hasten towards an apocalypse!

So it utilized this increased authority to do something rather drastic.

The creatures it had forged to destroy blooming Realities were being strengthened in a shocking manner as the Desolate Mausoleum actually wished to exert a greater level of control on them, and it infused wisps of the one Absolute Fundamental Authority that could bring balance onto Primordial Beasts!

Chapter 2055 Magistracy! LII

Absolute Fundamental Authority was being cordially infused into Enders of Reality!

It was a tremendously painful process as for those who were weak, their Origins might not even be able to withstand such essence as for the Grotto Haven or Nature Integration Enders of Reality...their strength was about to be scaled upwards in a ridiculous manner.

So what Noah was seeing before him with Hyperion...it was actually happening to every single Ender of Reality.

Arcs of Absolute Mana Authority surged into Hyperion's body as his aura rose, his trunk blaring out like a horn as his eyes...gradually became more and more blank and emotionless as if he was losing himself and his sense of identity!

Seeing such a scene, Noah's gaze changed as his figure flittered forward, coming before Hyperion's body and releasing his own domain of Absolute Fundamental Authority!

In the Pure-Blooded Domains of the Reality Ursidae.

A massive stellar Ursidae the size of a Reality was watching the rising concentration of essence around him with focus, the defensive line of this region of the Pure-Blooded Domain staying behind him as he was a powerful Primordial at the stage of Grotto Haven that was currently defending this area against a surge of Primordial Beasts.

His Adjudicator Legions were stationed behind him as he was successful in repelling the enemy Suzerain multiple times since their attacks began when the forces of the Dream Dimension attacked.

Yet at this moment...

"Huh?"

From the opposing side where his enemies should have been, he felt massive waves of authority erupting out as soon after- a boisterous laugh erupted that began with joy and gradually turned apathetic.

Then soon after, the terrifying authority this Suzerain Ursidae felt neared rapidly as in a show of shock and wonder, a massive 9 Winged Empyral Tiger that the Suzerain Ursidae had battled too many times appeared before him once more!

But this time...

Its skin looked peeled as in some areas, one could see stellar blue glows of authority.

The same blue glow that now covered its eyes with a radiant cerulean sheen as on its forehead- a runic ecriture depicting a semilunar shape shone brightly!

This Ender of Reality didn't even talk when it appeared before the Suzerain Ursidae as its claws thundered down- claws that carried an undeniable authority that very few would have access to!

"Wha-"

Terror and dread filled the Primordial Suzerain that had lived for millions of years as it instantly felt its origin turn absolutely dark.

Its Innate Reality Barrier was torn apart like paper as in a speed it couldn't even react, the Claw tore down with an authority that instantly distinguished its Aspects of Existence.

"..."

ROAAAR!

The 9 Winged Empyral Tiger then roared out while looking at the Legions and Realities the Primordials were protecting, turning into a streak of light towards this direction as behind it, waves of Enders of Reality with newly granted authority surged forth!

A shift in power slowly began to bud as the singular action of the death and Rebirth of a single anchor...it truly had too many far-reaching effects.

Even now, Nature Integration Realm experts were just beginning to react to it as in the Apollyon Dimension, Lilith had a grave expression while her fair crimson tinted hand slashed at the space before her with an allure of a golden light- an allure of Absolute Dream Authority!

Yet no matter what she did, she couldn't connect to the Dream Dimension.

She couldn't open a gateway to it!

This made utterly no sense her mind told her it couldn't be destroyed since she could utilize its authority, yet what could possibly deny her entry into a Dimension she has mastered the Decretum of?!

<I refuse to believe it!>

HUUM!

Her devilish visage shone brightly as she now utilized a different method. She didn't try to connect to the Dream Dimension, but instead the spatial coordinates her soul remembered when she had been roaming in the Dream Dimension!

BZZT!

This...had a reaction.

Her hand shone with a multicolored light as she slashed out, a multicolored rift forming as behind this rift...Lilith could only see dense darkness.

With her eyes shining with utmost power and brutality, her true body that always resided in the Apollyon Dimension...entered the rift.

An instant passed.

Her surroundings changed as she crossed through veils of spacetime and arrived into...nothingness.

<Impossible.>

The words escaped her mesmerizing lips as her devilish visage glanced around in all directions.

Everywhere she looked that should have sandy golden waves of essence surging...had absolutely nothing.

It was all a blank void as it ascertained the Dream Dimension...had truly disappeared!

As the situation was simply that incomprehensible, she spread her senses far and wide.

Like a billowing storm, her will spread out in all directions as in a short period of time...

<Oh?>

Her eyes brightened.

She could see a dazzling point of a cerulean light extremely far away from her current position- 6 points of shining blue lights that seemed like incandescent suns!

Near these lights was also a long stretch of a pulsing gray fissure that continued on for many light years.

Near these lights...were also the auras of multiple Nature Integration Realm experts.

BOOM!

Her figure instantly turned into an explosive light that surged towards this direction fearlessly!

This wasn't a Clone or formed Thought or Will.

This was the Main Body of arguably one of the most powerful Dimensional Hellion Rulers.

And it now surged towards the point where a certain battle had taken place!

And she was not alone.

Multiple Nature Integration Realm existences from all Dimensions and Realities had felt the unbelievable changes as those who utilized similar methods to Lilith...all began to arrive into the void of nothingness at this juncture.

SHIING!

From one direction, a verdant light shone as auras of Prana blazed with life.

In another direction, auras densely powerful with a blue Fantasia light appeared.

And one after another, auras representing the Mirror Dimension, Niflheim, Elysium...and a single abstruse yet dominating aura stemming from the Quantum Dimension bloomed at this juncture.

All of them saw the blank void.

All of them then felt the clustering of auras in a certain direction as well as the loud roars of Beasts.

All of them then surged towards 6 domains of cerulean lights where one man was trying to quickly take down Abominations for their Loot!

Chapter 2056 Rulers From All Dimensions! L

He had just finished a tough battle that even had the possibility of Death, and he just wanted to collect his boons successfully and go home to enjoy the feeling of achievement!

But...things would never be that easy.

Surrounded by the Avalonian and Dream Dimensional Rulers, Noah's visage turned towards certain directions at the same time as them as they felt the terrifying auras of multiple beings burn.

Within the Magistracy of the Apocalyptic Blitzkriegs, countless infinity symbols had filled up the domains as pure mana smashed into the Abominations over and over again, their roars becoming ever louder as for some of them- half of their bodies were already destroyed!

Noah was close to begin destroying them one by one as ridiculously, these creatures required to be ground down with a total accumulation of a few Quadrillion Damage Values.

But he was close.

So close!

Yet, here came shockingly powerful interferences as his Clones worked with even more haste.

At the same time...

<The Prana Dimensional Chassis has advanced in the Hero's Journey as they are entering the [Point of Death and Rebirth]>

This prompt rose again before his eyes as Noah wanted to curse!

The pristine aura of Providence rose around him as the Prana Dimensional Chassis became wrapped in a spatial light and disappeared soon after.

And just in case, the Dream Dimensional Chassis also did the same as moments later, the first blazing aura arrived.

It was wild and filled with power as Noah was actually familiar with it, and he didn't expect to feel it again so soon as the titanic and devilish visage of a demoness appeared near them!

Her form seemed to constantly show different variations, but she always settled on an exceedingly beautiful demoness with curved crimson gold horns rising atop her head, her obsidian crimson hair crackling with flames of Absolute Authority as her figure was wrapped in a fiery tight fitting battledress that screamed HERESY.

The instant she arrived, the Longest Dream, Guinevere, and others blazed up with powerful auras while gazing at her with cold eyes.

Yet this Dimensional Hellion Ruler did not focus on them as wondrously, her gaze honed in on Noah's Avalon Dimensional Chassis and his other remaining Clones that were battling with Abominations in the dazzling cerulean domains!

<You.>

WAA!

Her body began to blaze with billowing power as it remained on Noah, waves of stupendous authority shooting out from her in waves.

<You are also involved in this? That is one too many instances that I'm comfortable with!>

BOOM!

She made a move the moment that she arrived.

Her soul was pristine and powerful as it told her many things.

The two Hearts she carried also told her even more as coming into what used to be the Dream Dimension and seeing this being somehow here after his movements in the Avalon Dimension...Lilith could not let it be.

<Halt!>

The Longest Dream bellowed as waves of sandy gold Absolute Dream Authority surged out from him, the other Dream Dimensional Rulers doing the same as fantastical authority rose up like waves.

Morgana clicked her teeth as since she could already see Guinevere moving, sending her Enchanted Nature Integration Beasts over to defend as well- the enemy being a single being!

A single being that after feeling the coming auras and sensing her own wants, her gaze quickly became more stern.

As she saw multiple Dimensional Rulers moving against her, she only spoke with a tone of certainty.

<No.>

HOOONG!

<Not today.>

Her crimson eyes shone with authority as the fabric of space and time exploded around her.

Why was Lilith feared across Dimensions?

Why was she known as one of the strongest Dimensional Rulers?

The answer lay in the number of Authorities she controlled.

And at this juncture in particular, she did not have her clone or will present.

She had her main body here!

And this being that continued to appear at the center of Quintessential events...she had to get a grasp on him at this juncture!

BOOM!

From her visage, multiple Authorities of Decreta erupted, but they were still overshadowed by the allure of Absolute Fundamental Authority.

Entropy.

Manadynamics.

Relativity.

Providence.

And two more unknown Fundamental Natural Laws blazed around her along with multiple Natural Laws as after the rapid strengthening of Natural Laws due to the disappearance of the Dream Dimension...it was hard to say where the power of existences like Lilith reached!

<Hellion Reign>.

...!

Her voice was light and filled with majesty.

With her exceedingly beautiful face of her main body that matched Guinevere in beauty, she spoke as the very fabric of Reality around here changed.

The Fundamental Natural Law that weaved together even this void began to move at her words, turning into weapons against her enemies as the gazes of the Dreamer of Providence and others changed when they felt multiple stacked authorities of the very spacetime they stood on press upon them and push them away!

OOOOH!

Her goal was not to battle them.

She merely wanted to push them away and focus on a single being!

And as if she had released a propulsive force of the very fabric of Reality that the Dimensional Rulers fought against, her figure pressed forward towards Noah's while Guinevere and the others were shockingly repulsed away.

Against nearly 10 Dimensional Rulers, she actually showed such prowess that she was pushing all of them back to just reach a single being.

This was a Dimensional Hellion Ruler who was spreading her reign across Dimensions.

This was the Dimensional Deceiver- Lilith, when she moved seriously!

Besides Noah, the recently unshackled Eowyn who was just reclaiming her authority floated in front of him valiantly as Absolute Dream Authority emanated from her and tried to alter the oppressive reality that Lilith released.

<Why hasn't an old Relic like you retired already?>

...!

Her tone as Lavalliere was gradually changing as she took on the majesty and grace of the Dimensional Ruler Eowyn, standing fearlessly against Lilith's assault as for Noah himself...

His Origin pulsed as he was just about to make a grand move.

Chapter 2057 Rulers From All Dimensions! Li

Noah's Origin pulsed as he was just about to make a grand move!

A grand move that involved one of the biggest boons to come from Absorbing an entire Dimension!

He wanted to call upon the revamped feature that was even getting its name altered!

But Providence shone in his eyes.

And he became utterly calm under Lilith's relentless assault that utilized the very fabric of Reality to push Dimensional Rulers away as an instant layer...a singularity bloomed between him and Lilith's hands that were reaching out.

She was close.

So supremely close as her crimson-tinted fair hands were just about to reach Eowyn and his visage!

But a singularity that shockingly unfolded into a maddening Reality bloomed before them as it exploded with the Absolute Fundamental Authorities of multiple Natural Laws.

BOOOM!

Someone had wondrously throne a singularity of a blooming Reality as an attack as it was filled with Absolute Fundamental Authority!

The impact was reality rending as it pushed Lilith back, her eyes becoming tinted with an even greater crimson light as she gazed up in annoyance while the Dimensional Rulers around Noah re-exerted their authority.

The perpetrator to have made the move and stopped the advancement of all this made themselves clear as above everyone in the void of nothingness, a kingly existence releasing waves of majesty gazed down with coldness.

A unique multicolored essence wrapped around his visage as he was exceedingly handsome, his hair radiantly dark as his eyes radiated starry light.

His fair face held a hint of a bronze hue as his forehead was branded with a constantly changing runic ecriture that released a multicolored light!

He was adorned in a simple gold and white Emperor's robe as his voice emanated out.

<What happened here?>

WAA!

The Authority of a unique Dimension that seemed to lord over others appeared as it was none other than the Quantum Dimension.

With his entrance, the other Dimensional Rulers that had arrived after feeling the changes to the Dream Anchor appeared as their auras blazed powerfully while gazing at Lilith and all others in this location!

<What happened here?>

HUUM!

The voice of the Longest Dream boomed out with anger as his authority raged, looking towards the Dimensional Ruler from the Quantum Dimension with the same distaste he showed towards Lilith!

<That...is what happened here. The beings you all chose to not concern yourselves with...that is what occurred here!>

His voice reverberated outwards as he pointed towards the massive gray fissure that pulsed with a deadly light, his attention also pointing towards the Abominations contained in the Magistracy of the Apocalyptic Blitzkriegs!

The Ruler from Quantum Dimension gazed at the gray fissure along with the others, the Essence of life force rising at this juncture as 3 existences shining with the Essence of Prana floated towards the gray fissure as their wills covered it entirely.

All three had the appearances of Ancient and aged existences as they were in humanoid forms and draped over with incandescent verdant robes, the one at the forefront showing a ranked face that contained more Vitality than most beings here as he spoke out calmly.

<It is the Essence of NULLITY that is born outside of the Desolate Mausoleum and Dimensions. It has the capability to critically injure a Dimension and accelerate its pathway towards destruction...but not this fast. Not so instant.>

The voice filled with life echoed out as once more, the focus came on the Dream Dimensional Rulers as all new beings here wished to understand what had occurred!

<Why does any of that matter?>

WAA!

The authoritative voice of Lilith boomed out at this juncture as she still released wild waves of power-seemingly unfettered even while standing in the midst of all of these Rulers!

<The Dream Dimension has seemingly been taken out as an anchor as it did not face Annihilation, and instead seems to have been entirely shifted away from its current location. So the important question is who is capable of carrying out such a thing? Because it sure as hell isn't the Tribunal!>

<Oh?>

Against her words, the Dreamer of Providence rose up with a chilling voice.

<You would know whether it is the Tribunal or not, wouldn't you? Since you have been playing conqueror with them these past years?>

WAA!

Authorities raged around rampantly as the might of multiple Rulers clashed against each other!

In the midst of all this, the Wills of these Rulers also focused on the 6 cerulean domains that had roaring Abominations, a woman with dazzling blue hair and an aura of the Essence of Fantasia surging around her coming close to these barriers and watching the Abominations within as well as Noah's figures that were seemingly ignoring the arrival of important Dimensional Rulers and continuing to attack the NULLITY Beasts.

<What I find most interesting...>

This woman had a curvaceous figure and a devastating allure as her blue hair shone with magic, her red lips parting to release more of her words as she focused on Noah's Avalon Dimensional Chassis and the Avalonian Dimensional Rulers.

<...is the newly crowned Imperius Avallonis. Why is an existence that has not reached Nature Integration being tasked with handling NULLITY Beasts as he even continues to do so at this juncture? And why was my dear Dimensional Queen Lilith reaching out towards him, what else do we not know here? >

WAA!

One voice after another was rising.

There were too many distinguished beings here.

Too many beings with their own ideologies and ruling!

In the midst of all this, some of their focus came to wrap around Noah!

Eowyn stood beside him with shining eyes as Guinevere stepped up as the voice of authority from the Avalon Dimension.

<As the Imperius Avallonis who has yet to reach his peak of power, he simply asked to train himself against these remaining Abominations after two Tribunal Rulers who are responsible for all this retreated with Legions of Abominations ten times what remains here.>

Her austere visage came under everyone's eyes as at this juncture, the authoritative voice of the Quantum Dimensional Ruler rang out again.

<The Primordial Tribunal did all this? They are responsible for this unfathomable situation?>

His question brimmed with an unknown authority as if even amongst Dimensional Rulers, he was seemingly placing himself above them.

He asked the crux of the question that everyone wanted to know as at this point in time, Noah felt his will and heart become exceedingly calm!

Only the Avalonian and Dream Dimensional Rulers knew the truth.

And at this moment, all of them remained impassive to let their agreement be known!

<Well...>

The eyes of Lilith flashed as she had many thoughts she kept to herself, her voice echoing out melodious as Providence began to surge.

<We can simply reverse the Spacetime continuum to gaze upon what happened.>

Chapter 2058 Irreversible! L

Reversal of the spacetime Continuum to gaze upon what happened in the past!

It was a shocking ability that only existences like Lilith could speak so freely about, and she said this for multiple reasons.

The moment she finished, her will read the expressions and minute changes in essence of the Avalonian Dimensional Rulers and the Dream Dimensional Rulers.

They were the parties that were here and involved, and any negative reaction from them when it came to the reversal of the spacetime continuum would mean they were hiding something!

So she watched.

And...she became utterly shocked as not every single being did it, but a large percentage of the Dream and Avalonian Dimensional Rulers slightly turned their gazes or shifted their wills towards none other than a single man.

The man who wielded the Sword of Avalon!

At Lilith's words, they actually turned towards him as if they were first gauging his reaction- as if this would decide how they would react and what they would do after!

!And the Imperius Avallonis...looked unfettered.

He didn't seem worried in the least about the reversal of the spacetime continuum and others gazing at the secrets of what happened here!

After seeing his carefree demeanor, the Avalonian and Dream Dimensional Rulers thereafter also made no moves.+

But this minute and small moment in time.. it caused Lilith to become even - certain that this being was at the center of it all!

To the point that Dimensional Rulers were seeing how he would react before reacting with him as if it was negative or positive- they seemed like they would do it.

It was a shocking revelation.

She didn't know how or even fully have all evidence that supported this, but she believed that the disappearance of the Dream Dimension was involved with this being.

Her intuition told her so!

<Then let us reverse the fabric of Reality and gaze upon what has been veiled from us.>

HUUM!

The authoritative and domineering voice of the Quantum Dimensional Ruler emanated out in support of Lilith's words as his body began to burn with Absolute Fundamental Authority of Relativity.

Relativity.

A law that stated that what beings perceived as the forces of nature...arose from the curvature of space and time.

It also stated that the speed of light is constant for all observers, and that these observers moving at constant speeds would all be subject to this Fundamental Natural Law!

That the speed of an object through space...would reflect how much of its motion through time was being diverted. So the faster something moved through space, the more it was being diverted away from moving through time, so eventually...time slows down.

Users of the Fundamental Natural Law of Relativity could actively interfere with such concepts to not just slow down time or accelerate it...but they could cause the continuum of space to shift as at this moment, the Quantum Dimensional Ruler was utilizing the deep meanings of this law to reverse the Spacetime continuum merely to gaze at what happened in the past.

He wasn't fully reversing the fabric of Reality of this area- but merely wanting to gaze at the events of the past as before everyone's eyes, a multicolored film of light arose like a blanket in the void!

But it was extremely hard to materialize as the Quantum Dimensional Ruler sharpened his eyes, harrumphs echoing out from multiple Dimensional Rulers as from Lilith and two Mirror Dimensional Rulers that were off to the side- Absolute Mirror Essence flew out of them to enter this film of light and stabilized its reflection for all to see.

And on the film of light, events from moments ago began to rewind.

Lilith's ferocious assault came under the gazes of everyone in slow motion as in real time, her figure had a devilish smile while watching it all!

The events then showed her figure moving in reverse as thereafter, moments before anyone arrived...

SHAA!

Two of Noah's Clones appeared in reverse.

It was the Prana Dimensional Chassis and the Dream Dimensional Chassis he had sent away after getting the prompt that just the former was entering the stage of the Point of Death and Rebirth!

Yet when they were shown on the film of light, they didn't show the glow and grandeur of green and gold.

They didn't show their connection to the Dream and Prana Dimensions as Noah's heartfelt profound ease- the Heart of Destiny within him shockingly working retroactively to hide what he wanted to hide from the gazes of others the identities of his Clones weren't revealed!

But this didn't prevent Lilith and the others from locking onto this moment as her authoritative voice came out.

<Why did you send two of your bodies away before our arrival?>

Her voice was sharp and filled with power as Noah raised his head towards her calmly.

And without any ounce of authority, he replied with even more calm.

"It takes a heavy toll on me to maintain so many bodies, those two could not maintain the same level of power here so I sent them away."

WAA!

His words flowed naturally as the Dimensional Rulers turned a part of their wills to his other bodies in the cerulean domains that were still fighting with roaring Abominations.

Lilith's eyes turned even sharper at this as she continued to watch, the figures of the Dream and Avalon Dimensional Rulers parting away on the film of light as a crucial moment came.

The moment that would show the ending of the Dream Dimension in this location!

And it began to show as a point of golden radiant light slowly bloomed as the Dimensional Rulers watched in expectations, but a second later...

BZZT...CRACK!

The film of light stopped, fissured, and cracked in a mere instant as everyone watched the scene incredulously!

They were all existences that had integrated with Nature so they could read what Nature portrayed at this moment.

And Noah could also read it as for him, it came in the form of a prompt!

<An Irreversible Nexus Event cannot be gazed upon.>

Chapter 2059 Irreversible! L

"...."

The prompt he had seen the moment that the Dream Dimension was assimilated into his Infinite Dimensional Reality.

The prompt of an Irreversible nexus event!

One could not reverse the Spacetime continuum to undo this event, and it turned out now that they couldn't even gaze at it!

This was the reason Noah remained calm when Lilith had proposed the reversal of the Spacetime continuum!

And now, this was revealed before everyone's eyes as dense silence descended on this location.

<An Irreversible Nexus Event...>

Lilith read the fabric of Reality as she uttered these words out coldly, her gaze remaining towards the direction of a single being.

She knew more than others here about him as the more roadblocks she came across, the more determined she became about him.

She knew he was an Irregular.

She knew in her heart that he was somehow connected to everything here as if she couldn't find it outright, she would pursue other methods!

She calculated millions of things in a mere instant as in the next moment, her exquisite face adopted a devilish smile as her voice continued to resound.

<Since we cannot gaze upon an irreversible nexus event, it seems the only thing we can do is believe the words of those who experienced it.>

WAA!

Her smile was chilling.

She gazed towards Noah's visage as she played along!

The other Dimensional Rulers had their own myriad of thoughts as they didn't voice them out, the recent event being too crucial as the implication was too far reaching!

This was because as the descendants of the existences that set up the 9 Anchors, they knew best what their function was.

<The 9 Anchors have been suppressing the Desolate Mausoleum for all this time. In all the Parallel Paths that the Quantum Dimension has monitored...it has remained this way with no change.>

HUUM!

The booming voice of the Quantum Dimensional Ruler echoed out as he made himself the center of attention, the constantly changing multicolored runic ecriture on his forehead buzzing with grandeur as he continued.

<The Parallel Paths had never interfered with each other as they ran in conjunction, with the first change occurring with the Irregular that was OPPENHEIMER Fundamentally changing the Desolate Mausoleum...this change spreading to the myriad of Parallel Paths. This change...was also an Irreversible Nexus Event.>

BOOM!

For some reason, this existence began monologuing and taking the eyes and attention of all others the moment the Irreversible Nexus Event was introduced as he released information about what occurred when the Age of Destiny ended!

The splitting of the Main Reality...was an Irreversible Nexus Event!

It could not be undone.

At least...not in the same manner that it was done.

One could not just attain the Seat of the True Emperor like OPPENHEIMER did and simply reverse what he did to return the Main Reality to how it was!

This shocking truth revealed a great deal of information as to why many of the Dimensional Rulers and powerful Nature Integration existences currently...they weren't scrambling towards the Seat of the True Emperor and waging war across the Desolate Mausoleum and 9 Dimensions.

They weren't killing each other and warring constantly like in the past Ages when blood flowed like rivers!

They knew that what was done could not be undone.

But there existed special existences like Lilith who believed differently.

They sought for another path to take as for them...even if they couldn't return things to how they once were, they had the ideology that they could forge something different!

Something similar to what OPPENHEIMER had done as they sought for another Nexus Event that would never be reversed.

But that...could only be achieved with the Seat of the True Emperor.

Yet at this point in time, an Irreversible Nexus Event had occurred.

Such an action emboldened Lilith and those like her.

Such an action spurred many changes!

<Since we have come across another Irreversible Nexus Event, the Dimensional Conclave will have to be called.>

WAA!

The Quantum Dimensional Ruler spoke powerfully as a sheer rose from Lilith at his words!

<Ah, yes. The Dimensional Conclave...because that was so damn useful last time. What did the great Leader of the Dimensions decide at that time? That OPPENHEIMER was banished and would be dealt with outside of the Desolate Mausoleum and 9 Anchors, and that before the proliferation of Realities and expansion of Dimensions exceeded the Absolute Limit and led everything to Cataclysm...the Parallel Paths would all be reset by your Ancestors with our current Reality as the center. That sounds about right? Do things currently seem to be taking that fucking direction? Is the disappearance of the Dream Dimension part of the grand fucking plan?!>

Her words began with a sneer and schadenfreude, but they ended with crimson flames of rage as demonic energy of blood began to burn around Lilith!

<Useless. All of you are utterly fucking useless. Had you not turned your backs against my father when he stood against OPPENHEIMER, none of this would have even occurred. Your complacency is the one thing I absolutely abhor the most out of every single thing I've come across in all my years of life.>

Her emotions were fluctuating greatly as her rage seemed simmering and contained, her Absolute Fundamental Authority raging as she continued.

<What will the Dimensional Conclave do? Talk some more? The first course of action should be to put all Dimensional Rulers on alert within all Dimensions- that if Tribunal Rulers can appear and heavily injure the Source of a Dimension with their usage of NULLITY, the goal should be to guard your domains against this! But you'd rather waste your time flaunting your authority while everything falls apart...you...you cannot fathom my endless hatred towards you all.>

HUUUM!

Her Authority boiled and bubbled over as the empty void was painted red.

The Quantum Dimensional Ruler had a trace of anger cross his eyes as a domineering aura leaked from him, his voice coming out just as powerful as he bellowed out!

<Do not overstep your boundaries, Deceiver!>

...!

BZZZT!

Two wills and authorities intertwined as the clash caused the fabric of Reality to tremble once more.

The anger and rage contained in Lilith's eyes faded as her demonic form shone with resplendence, turning to gaze at all the Dimensional Rulers here as her gaze came to lock onto Noah at the very end, speaking complacently thereafter.

<You all have your Conclaves. I'll do what actually matters instead of believing in veiled prophecies and the words of beings who have no interest in these Barren Lands unless things go wrong and their own interests come into the picture.>

...!

Tinged with authority and valor, her words echoed out as her figure disappeared soon after!

Chapter 2060 Quadrillion! L

In a flash of black and crimson lights, Lilith disappeared from the blank void as many faces turned dark with her words.

The Longest Dream had a tired look as he gazed at Eowyn beside Noah, voicing out towards all beings here.

<We will be there for the Dimensional Conclave and cooperate in giving all the information of what unfolded here. For now...we just need some time.>

He wanted time with his daughter.

He wanted to process and understand what had occurred with the Dream Dimension!

The Dimensional Rulers nearby gazed at each other and nodded as the Quantum Dimensional Ruler spoke out while being covered with a spatial authority.

<Have your forces be on high alert and monitoring all domains for now. The Dimensional Conclave will be within a day as we discern the truths behind the fabric of Reality.>

WAA!

While leaving behind authority and valor, his visage disappeared as he nodded towards Guinevere and a few others who knew of the pathway towards the Quantum Dimension where the Conclave would be taking place!

From the Prana Dimension, one of the more ancient Dimensional Rulers in humanoid form gazed at the domains holding roaring Abominations.

<What about these NULLITY Beasts?>

<We shall take care of their containment and destruction.> Before anyone else could even reply, Eowyn's small figure replied sharply as she knew Noah wanted to Isolate these Beasts into loot without interference from others!

With these assurances and a plan made for the future, these Rulers worried about their own Dimensions as they began to return just as quickly as they had appeared.

Each of them locked their gazes onto the one existence wielding the Sword of Avalon as while not to the extent of Lilith, they still put Noah under their radar!

SHAA!

One by one, they disappeared.

The tenseness in the surroundings gradually faded as the situation returned to its level of calm as it was before, where the only issue that remained was with the swarm of Abominations remaining in the Magistracy of the Apocalyptic Blitzkriegs.

An issue that Noah wanted to wrap up before any more surprises as at this juncture...a few things occurred that caused his soul to be bathed with Providence.

One was the recalibration and restructuring of one of the features of the Infinite Dimensional Reality, and the other...was the completion of the Fourth Dimensional Layer!

He had given much of his resources to Lavalliere for her rapid unshackling as he had gained the ridiculous boon of one of the 9 Anchors for it, but he had lost the resources required to achieve the Fifth Dimensional Layer.

Buy the Fourth...he had more than enough to finish it as at this moment- his main body continued to undergo yet another set of changes as the color silver permeated throughout his figure while he was still isolating Hyperion in the Gourmandizing Dimensional Reality!

Within a region of the Gourmandizing Dimensional Reality.

A domain of Absolute Fundamental Authority surged around Noah and the visage of Hyperion whose whole body was trembling with arcs of authority, his face undergoing a cycle of immense pain and expressionlessness every now and then.

Little Henry and a few other prominent beings were watching in the surroundings as Noah's body at this juncture...began to release brilliant waves of silver lights!

Waves that were followed by a band of starry silver light shining on his body as below it, a band of purple, verdant, and golden lights shone with splendor!

Even amidst all of this, the prompts cascaded over his eyes.

<You have successfully completed the Fourth Dimensional Reality.>

<A version of Pure Undefined Authority has been isolated for your future use above the Mirror Dimensional Reality.>

Another cluster of Pure Undefined Authority was reserved for Noah in the form of a radiant white bubble.

A bubble of authority that floated at the very peak of a silver Dimensional Layer whose planar floor seemed to reflect its skies and shone with a glimmer of countless extending mirrors.

Above this mirror floor, incandescent silvery Kainos Royal Mirror Cosmos rotated with grandeur and power as the whole Dimension looked like a reflection of the things within it, where even the skies and smallest spaces seemed like they were occupied by countless mirrors!

Silvery seas of essence swam in the whole Dimensional Layer as the Decretum of Mirrors that should have been somewhat foreign to Noah...it felt like he had been understanding it for millions of years.

And below this Dimensional Layer, dazzling Ascendancy Stanchions and Reality Passages were stably situated in the other Dimensions as with its formation, these two concepts waited to be connected to this silvery layer as well!

With such a grandiose picture blooming inside him, the prompts continued.

<Your Authority as an Emperor of this Age significantly increases.>

<Through your reign over the Mirror Dimension Reality, a level of influence can be exerted in the Mirror Dimension.>

<The Undefined Authority under you has increased.>

<Your Understanding of the Decretum of Mirrors has been forcefully raised to 50%.>

<Your Reserves of the Essence of Reality have been elevated to the Maximum of 3.2 Billion.>

<Your Maximum True Vitality Values have risen to 4 Trillion.>

<Your rate of Progression in the Decretum of Mirrors has increased by 1,000,000%>

<The saturated Paramount Kainos Mirror Dimensional Reality grants a base addition of 400,000 Dimensional Dream Damage and Defense Values, bringing your Overall Origin Base Value to 1,300,000.>

<4x Pure Quintessential Kainos Natural Decretum Seeds has been obtained.>

A storm of prompts cascaded down as too many things underwent upgrades!

And to top it all off, 4 new dazzling Pure Quintessential Kainos Natural Decretum Seeds had appeared.

Apart from Dimensional Reality Panaceas, these were some of the most fundamental loot under Noah.

In other parameters, his base Values rose up greatly as since he forged 200 Trillion Kainos Royal Mirror Cosmos to fully saturate this Dimensional Layer...his Understanding of the Decretum of Mirrors was instantly brought to 50%+

Then, his values for Vitality and the reserves of the Essence of Reality exploded upwards again as when one applied the augmentations of the understood Natural Laws and Decreta...it would show Noah's power having risen stupendously!
