Chapter 731 - A Shocking Event!

Across the Dark Universe, there were a variety of powers spread throughout where clusters of experts were collected. There were also lone Entities that traversed the Dark Universe as each of them moved with their own aims.

On this day, across multiple locations in the Dark Universe- multiple beings were alerted of something shocking!

The first one was an Entity we mentioned before- one that already held a Page of the Book of Ruination and even later went into a super Black Hole that held terrifying gravitational forces that even affected Entities to obtain another one.

At this time this Entity was moving across the Chaotic Void As his face changed, bringing out the two pages he held as he saw they were shining with a brilliant red light!

"A being with a Universal Origin Physique has actually come to be..."

He was mumbling incredulously as he stared at the two Pages from the Book of Ruination!

If one recalled the Book of Ruination was something that came to be when the Cosmic Treasure itself was sundered apart, being something that the treasure itself had done to leave knowledge behind future generations to have a chance of using it or even possibly piecing it back together.

The first page that this Entity held was one that held an enormous amount of information on a being with a Universal Origin Physique, and the second page that he had obtained from the super massive Black Hole actually had explicit details of some of the history, enlightening this Entity some more as he understood more than others on exactly what this phenomenon he was seeing currently meant.

"With their arrival, our Universe will one more begin shifting into a new Era as we prepare..."

The gaze of the Entity shone with light as he wasn't the only one with these thoughts, multiple other beings facing similar situations through the Dark Universe!

One was an Ancient Power of high stature that actually had its experts holding on to a Ruination Core since ages past, and someone that was watching over their treasure vault sensed that for the first time ever, the Ruination Core had began vibrating as it shone with an immense red light.

This alerted many powerful experts and Entities, each of them trying to figure out what it meant to no avail!

They didn't know that this was the same time that Noah brought in a Ruination Core into his body, his Universal Origin Physique letting him equip a terrifying tool that only a Galaxy had been able to use up till now.

Aside from the previously mentioned Ancient Power, others just like it experienced similar phenomenons as some of them held pages from the Book of Ruination, with others being lucky enough to hold on to a Ruination Core themselves that they didn't even know how to use.

In the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter, a powerful Entity rose from his post deep in the core location of this Ancient Power, grabbing a communication Medallion as he sent word the moment he saw the brilliant red light shining from their treasure vault!

"Pass word to the Holy Emperor, something has happened to the tools of Ruination! Also tell the Holy Prince Rudolf to make haste!"

RUMBLE!

In another location, an area of the Dark Universe where cl.u.s.ters of Quasars were actually rotating near each other.

At the center of these rotating Quasars, a being with a cold demeanor and a small body was calmly floating, the aura of a Grand Dao swirling around her as her eyes opened briefly while she waved her hands, causing an appearance of a Ruination Core that was shimmering with red light to appear!

"You little shit. I carry you all this time and find nothing, and now you're shining for what reason? Huh??"

A voice of extreme coldness rang out from this being that held power which in no way matched her body, the swirling essence of the Grand Dao she released being enough to suffocate any Peak Tier GALAXY experts!

In another location!

The Entity that had just run with her tail between her legs after facing a terrifying Old Man Khan was traversing through the chaotic with a disgruntled expression.

Her face then abruptly changed as she waved her hands and took out her page of ruination, her eyes shining as she gritted her teeth!

"If I had another page...I would be able to understand more!"

Rage filled her heart as she thought of all the beings that stood against her recently, swearing to take her revenge the moment she made a breakthrough as she would make them all pay.

Being like her and even the old fogeys of Ancient Powers all reacted in similar ways on this day, the reactions of the Tools of Ruination across the Dark Universe sending waves.

Simply put- a change occurred on the Dark Universe on this day as many powerful beings were alerted!

Meanwhile, the person that caused all of this was sensing the profound strength of his body as he continued to stare at the blinking text box in front of him.

[Ruination Core successfully equipped. Which Affix would you like to equip?]

A question that seemed so damn simple and yet was so extremely difficult at the same time. But...Noah knew his next steps so he moved with conviction!

For him, the immediate things he considered he had to get done were his laws, and it was because he held a shocking one of the Pages of the Book of Ruination that told him how to begin assimilating all of them once they are fully comprehended, this assimilation bringing about something grand.

He had a hunch at what exactly it would bring forth, where he thought at the end of the Assimilation he would be gaining a Grand Dao or even more likely...a Cosmic Dao!

RUMBLE!

Just the mere thought of it caused waves of essence to erupt out as he made his mind.

He had many tools to use in his hands as he currently focused on the Affixes of the Ruination Core...and the ability of [Protagonist's Bookmark]!

Chapter 732 - Affixes and Bookmarks

When it came to which Affix he would choose, it actually went hand in hand with how he wanted to utilize [Protagonist's Bookmark]!

This ability would allow him to descend into the body of a being he had seen before as he gained a minute to make a choice on exactly what he wanted to learn.

There were many paths he could choose to take for [Protagonist's Bookmark].

He had met multiple shocking individuals in the past few weeks that each held their own uniqueness, and he had many options to choose from based on how he wanted to move.

He could choose the Bookmark Old Man Khan, Anastasia Fredrick Windsor, or Rudolf Fredrick Windsor as he increased his comprehension in the Dao of Summoning greatly, moving past the abysmal number of .008 as he possibly gained entire percentages!

Or he could choose to Bookmark the Entity that had been getting slapped left and right from the Burning Domains Galaxy as he obtained yet another Dao- Vitality!

There was even the Animus Summon of Old Man Khan- the Peak Tier GALAXY Realm Starry Behemoth Tarragon who like the Void Serpent or the Colossal Helios Leviathan that Noah had summoned, they would unlock and start comprehending their own unique Dao when they reached the upper rank of GALAXY.

The Starry Behemoth Tarragon that he had seen...was actually proficient in the Dao of the Void as it was the reason that it became the mount of Old Man Khan while traversing the chaotic void.

Thus...he had many choices as he could choose to enhance or embark on new Daos, but he actually...was not keen on choosing any of them!

As he made his calculations, he knew that the thing which would bring him immediate boost in strength and further help him set up his plan for how to move in the future.

It actually dealt with things considered lesser than Daos, and it was the Laws! He wanted to first completely comprehend the Universal Laws as he embarked on finally assimilating them according to the techniques described in the Page of Ruination. With this, he could step on the path of possibly obtaining a Cosmic Dao from the combination of all Universal Laws, and he would only have to wait a month before he could use Protagonist's Bookmark to enhance or obtain something else.

Yet...he also knew that obtaining another Dao had a stupendous supplemental effect, where when he obtained the Dao of Summoning, he was able to advance through the laws much faster!

His eyes shone as a solution appeared in front of his Eyes, and it was the Entity from the Burning Domains Galaxy...

He would use Protagonist's Bookmark on this being not purely for the Dao of Vitality, but for her mastered and assimilated Law of Life!

He was planning on spending the first 50 seconds of the Protagonist's Bookmark on heavily enhancing the Ultimate Law of Life, and the latter 10 seconds on her comprehension of the Dao of Vitality so that he could simply step on this Dao and gain its initial supplemental effects!

Two prizes for a single Bookmark...

He chose to heavily start by enhancing the Law of Life as he knew it would cause a chain reaction with the remaining Laws, this law influencing the speed of the Law of Death and all other Laws as they would be caused to rise and in a matter of days...he saw himself completely mastering all the remaining Universal Laws.

An extremely domineering thought, but would he be able to achieve it?!

He had the Laws of Life, Death, Karma, Space, and Time as the only ones left to master! Karma was already at 71% while Space and Time had already gone over +80%. Life was at 33% with Death at 16%!

He wanted these numbers to change rapidly in the coming days as he sat himself down and closed his eyes.

The first thing he did was send his attention into the Ruination Core as he chose his Affix for now, something he could change whenever he wished as long as he provided enormous amounts of Mana!

But since he only had a single Ruination Core at this time, he could only ever have one Affix at a time.

This would change the moment he set off to find more Ruination Cores, and he knew where all of them were through [Excerpt III- Locations of Other Ruination Tools]!

Shockingly, his next target that was the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter that actually held a Ruination Core! But he placed all these thoughts aside for now as he chose his first Affix.

[Affix Selected- +10,000% Comprehension & Assimilation to the Law of Life.]

RUMBLE

The unique light of Ruination descended onto Noah as he closed his eyes and reveled in it, his thoughts moving forward as his will cast another skill- [Protagonist's Bookmark]!

The target was the The Entity from the Burning Domains Galaxy that Noah had enraged before, the same being that was proficient in the Dao of Vitality after finishing fully comprehending and assimilating the Laws of Life and Earth.

It wasn't mentioned before, but the name of this Entity was Nirnasha! Nirnasha of the Old Plains!

The moment that Noah cast [Protagonist's Bookmark] with this character as the target, he felt a part of him leave his soul and origin as he instantly shot out of the Novus Galaxy, the speed being nothing he had ever come across before as in just seconds, he crossed who knew how many light years across the chaotic void as the next time he blinked, he saw the illusory figure of himself already descending onto the familiar body of the Entity Nirnasha!

This being was currently moving through the chaotic void to who knew what location, and she didn't notice a single thing as another being shockingly descended and assimilated into her very Origin, all of her secrets laid bare as Noah could gain access to everything.

The moment he descended into her body though, a timer appeared on the corner of his eyes that read 60 Seconds, which went to 59 right after! His thoughts moved fast as while he adapted to the feeling of assimilating into the body of another being, he directly searched for and selected the comprehensions of this being's Law of Life as he wanted to make them his own!

THRUM!

His mind felt like it was receiving disjointed information that should not have been his, but his eyes began to shine as he collected all of it into a bundle of light that shone with a green l.u.s.ter. These were the comprehensions of an ultimate law that an Entity had spent years to cultivate, and he was learning them with ease as at the same time- he had the shocking effect of +10,000% Comprehension & Assimilation to the Law of Life active!

This would create for a shocking phenomenon as he did something nobody else in the Dark Universe could do- he was about to comprehend an Ultimate Law and master it in a stupid amount of time!

Chapter 733 - Why not master an Ultimate Law in minutes?!

The seconds dwindled down as Noah utilized [Protagonist's Bookmark] to obtain the comprehensions of the Ultimate Law of Life, all of them being condensed into a bundle of light that stuck very close to his soul!

During this time, the Entity Nirnasha continued on her journey across the chaotic void as she didn't feel a single thing, the ability that Noah was utilizing being that ridiculous.

When time dwindled down and it neared 10 seconds left, Noah quickly switched his thoughts as his will said to now focus on another aspect of this Entity- their comprehension of the Dao of Vitality!

In the next second, an even more vibrant verdant ball of light began to form around Noah's soul, its brightness being 10 times that of the ball of light that represented the Law of Life comprehension. This ball of light formed rapidly as the seconds passed, the timer that Noah could see in the corner of his eyes hitting 0 as his soul felt a pull back towards his main origin.

Just like that- the first [Protagonist's Bookmark] was used! Quick, efficient, with the target not even knowing that anything had happened!

Yet...Noah's soul traversed the chaotic void at shocking speeds while returning to the Novus Galaxy, bringing with it two balls of light that represented something grand. One was much smaller than the other, but its brightness outshone the former dominantly as the both of them returned with Noah's soul and delved back into his main Origin.

BZZZT!

The instant this happened, Noah felt like his brain was being split apart as hundreds and thousands of years worth of comprehension poured into him, yet his gaze was calm as he took all of them in! As for what happened next- we have to dissect it piece by piece even though it happened simultaneously!

There were actually only 2 pieces- the Law of Life and the not yet learned Dao of Vitality. We will start with what occurred the moment that the large ball containing the comprehensions of the Law of Life entered and merged with Noah's soul and origin.

Right before this, the percentage next to the law of life was at 34%. Another thing to keep in mind was the fact that at this moment, Noah had the affix of +10,000% Comprehension & Assimilation to the Law of Life active!

This, paired up with him already having active the techniques to cultivate the Dao of Summoning, the Laws of Life, Death, Space, Time, and Karma...all of these factors went together to cause an unbelievable sight that had never before happened in history.

The moment the comprehension of an Entity that had mastered the Law of Life entered his body, Noah's shining eyes saw that the percentage jumped from 34% to 55% in just a second! Yet...the ball of green light had not even been halfway absorbed as it continued to sink into his Origin, this percentage shooting up even higher as within his origin- the Primeval Tree of Life was shining with a shocking l.u.s.ter as it grew and branched out rapidly!

The other laws he still had not mastered- especially death in particular as it reacted with the ridiculous percentage jumps of the law of life, all of these laws had also begun rising at rates much faster than before.

Another second, and the Law of Life was at 70%!

80%! 95%!

100%!!!

"..."

Purely nonsensical!

One must know, this was an Ultimate Law! Others took hundreds of years or even thousands to fully comprehend it, yet Noah had pumped it from 34% to 100% in a matter of seconds...

Of course, this didn't just happen magically. It was due to the ridiculous 10,000% increased comprehension of the law of life granted by the Ruination Core, as well as the comprehensions of an Entity that had mastered this law herself. The 10,000% increase amplified the gained comprehensions crazily as it was the main reason this percentage shot up to 100% in mere seconds.

When one looked at it from this perspective, it would be weird if he didn't master the law after all these factors!

THRUM!

Vibrant essence swirled as he looked like a black hole swallowing everything around him, even his Infinite Mana being utilized to make up for the difference that the universal atmospheric essence could not provide because of the speed he was absorbing essence with.

Noah's dark hair flailed grandly as his emotions didn't even flutter after fully comprehending an Ultimate Law, his mind already moving towards the second piece of information we have to cover- which was the Dao of Vitality!

This smaller but even more luminous ball of light had also descended into his Origin as he felt a majestic force from it, his thoughts quickly moving towards the Ruination Core as he gave a command- Remove the [+10,000% Comprehension & Assimilation to the Law of Life] Affix and replace it with [+10,000% Comprehension & Assimilation in the Dao of Vitality].

RUMBLE!

His Infinite Mana leaked out without reservation to make this possible, the high mana usage of the Ruination Core that would drain even Sages with every use being nothing to him as easily switched from one Affix to another.

One may not be able to truly grasp just how much mana was utilized even as we reference how Sages would be drained with a single use of a Ruination Core at this moment, but when we delve into the stages after GALAXY- this idea would truly be cemented!

But at this moment, the focus is on the verdant ball of light that represented the Dao of Vitality! The moment the affix was switched and this ball sunk into Noah's origin, all colors outside of his body changed as they were bathed in an intense green light!

The Central Realm he was in where he was very close to the obsidian core of the Novus Galaxy...the verdant green light even covered this expansive Realm as the Behemoths and Infernals within it trembled at the aura of a Dao that was descending down with fervor.

The mystical swirling essence of the Dao descended down Noah in droves as the simple 10 seconds from [Protagonist's Bookmark] where he focused on the Dao of Vitality of the Entity Nirnasha...gave him comprehension in the Dao of Vitality as the percentage very quickly passed even his previously learned Dao of Summoning!

Chapter 734 - Merely Laws and Daos!

When it came to the Dao, one could say with confidence that the difficulty for it exceeded the laws by multiple times!

One had to put in tens times as much effort and have genius talent just to take a few steps in the Dao. This could be seen with how even Noah only had .008% in the Dao of Summoning after he first got exposed to it.

Yet on this day, the small verdant ball of light that represented the comprehensions of the Dao of Vitality from the Entity Nirnasha as well as the Affix of [+10,000% Comprehension & Assimilation in the Dao of Vitality] of a Ruination core...Noah watched with luminous eyes as a single number appeared in his stat panel, and it continued to rise until it reached 5%!

Only 10 seconds of descending and assimilating into an Entity through the Protagonist's Bookmark had given him 5% in a Lesser Dao...

Of course, this percentage was only made possible because of the affix of the Ruination Core as well, but made Noah think of many things! He only allocated 10 seconds of the Bookmark to the Dao of Vitality, and it had granted him 5%. If he allocated the full 60 seconds, that theoretically meant he could advance in this Dao by 30%!

Which meant just 2 more Bookmarks, two more months when considering the cooldown...and he could fully comprehend a Dao!

Who could do such a shocking thing other than Noah? Who could even imagine such incredulity?

This same concept would apply to the Dao of Summoning, where if he used the Protagonist's Bookmark on Anastasia, Rudolf, or Old Man Khan...just a few months would be enough for him to fully comprehend this Dao! When he did that...the type of power that his Summons would be able to show would be something simply ridiculous.

His face remained impassive as he simply nodded at the progress, staying steadfast as the moment he saw the verdant ball of vitality disappear and he finished absorbing all the fruits of the now on cooldown [Protagonist's Bookmark], he then turned his eyes towards the laws of Death, Space, Time, and Karma that were bubbling with essence while also advancing.

These laws were progressing at fast speeds, especially the law of death, with the completion of the Law of Life that still had its Primeval Tree of Life vibrantly sprouting leaves and cascading its effects of enhancing others laws down on Noah's origin!

Noah's thoughts moved as he utilized immense amounts of mana once more to replace the affix of Vitality on the Ruination Core as this time...he placed the affix of [+10,000% Comprehension & Assimilation in the Law of Death].

He actually planned to cycle through the affixes of Death, Space, Time, and Karma as he used this period of enhancement from the completed law of life and the swirling majesty of two Daos to actually...comprehend all of the Universal Laws!

He ridiculously wanted to comprehend all of the Universal Laws in one swoop as he finally embarked on assimilating them with the method shown on the page of the Book of Ruination, as he stepped on the path that would grant him a Cosmic Dao whenever he finished assimilating all the Universal Laws.

Such was his sight and plans at this moment...and he carried them out without hesitation!

RUMBLE!

The affix of the Law of Death was placed as this law began to go towards completion at even faster speeds.

In the coming days, Noah would switch it to Karma, Space, and then Time as he cultivated all of these laws to 100%!

A day passed.

Three days!

Two weeks!

Shockingly, Noah remained steadfast for two weeks as he fully comprehended one law after another, switching from one Affix to another in the Ruination Core.

After Death was completed, he targeted Karma, with the Laws of Space and Time finishing last on the 14th day as brilliance shone out.

This was a brilliance of all the law essences of Universal Laws swirling around Noah!

It was a multicolored luster of immense proportion as he looked like a precious treasure that was glowing on all sides.

Within his Origin, his Manifested QUASAR thrummed with power as surrounding it were the Law Origin Nebulae of Light, Dark, Fire, Water, Earth, and Air.

Within his Origin and Soul, he could also see the illusory particles of Aether and Chaos, Fate and Karma Lines, as well as the fabric of Time and Space! There was also the even more vibrant Trees of Life and Death that had thick roots entangling themselves within Noah's QUASAR.

All Universal Laws, fully comprehended!

THRUM!

Dense vibrations spread out with Noah at the very center, a cylindrical light that seemed to be welcoming an archaic being shooting out from him and into the skies! This gorgeous show of colors continued for a few minutes before Noah opened his eyes once more to rejoice with a unique sense of power flowing through him.

His luminous eyes glanced around him as even he had to take a pause, the truth of what he had done just now settling in his mind!

He had actually gone ahead and fully comprehended all of the Universal Laws after he first embarked as a Rank F Hunter just a few months ago.

Less than a year!

Less than a year since he began rising through the realms of power...and he now stood at this position.

Who could claim to be able to do this? Who could claim such ridiculous advancements?!

He was such a ridiculously shocking genius that he could stand atop the geniuses of Ancient Powers and have them grovel below his feet!

There were sacred things that many people could not even hope to master multiple of them, yet to Noah... he could say they were merely Laws and Daos.

RUMBLE!

The domineering thought only made Noah's demeanor more vibrant as his body was still surrounded by colorful swirls of essence, moving on to his next goal as his hand waved forth and brought a page from the Book of Ruination appeared in front of him!

Chapter 735 - Begin Assimilation!

What exactly was the Assimilation of laws and daos?

It was the act of becoming one with the laws and daos after one had comprehended them- the act of fusing these concepts to their very beings as they wielded shocking power.

Of course to Noah, it meant being able to deal even more horrendous damage or obtaining ridiculous defense.

The page from the Book of Ruination in front of him detailed a lot of things, but it focused on the act of Assimilating Laws!

It talked about a unique method of assimilating all laws, and even discussed about other methods of Assimilation that would provide different results.

Like the previous Ruination Tools, this page had sections that were filled with unintelligible words before, but the upgrade in Eyes of Truth with the completion of the Protagonist Trait made it so that Noah could see all of this information!

The [Excerpt] of this page talked about a method where one could assimilate together the Laws of the 6 Elements that granted Noah the Universal Origin Physique(Light, Dark, Fire, Water, Earth, and Air), the result of assimilating these laws together granting the Grand Dao of Six Elements.

Yet Noah breezed past this information as he cared not for assimilating laws into a Grand Dao, his eyes searching for the information he truly wanted as he found it soon enough!

[When all Universal Laws are assimilated at the same time, a Cosmic Dao lost in time can be brought to life, a Dao that one needs if they truly want to be able to utilize the Cosmic Treasure that birthed the Ruination Cores. When one fully assimilates all the Universal Laws, the Cosmic Dao of Ruination will be born.]

[The technique that allows one to combine all their laws and assimilate them as one is termed The Primordial Universal Alignment, and it uses the laws as the base in order to bring forth the Dao of Ruination when the assimilation is complete...]

Numerous bundles of information entered Noah's mind as soon enough, an Absolute Skill was clearly displayed in his in his stat panel!

<<The Primordial Universal Alignment>> :: A technique that assimilates all learned Universal Laws simultaneously, refining the Origin and Soul of the user as the insights and comprehensions of the laws are forged into them. As the task of the ability is truly grand, only those at the level of Great Sages are capable of providing the essence required to activate it and keep it active for a few minutes before they have to regenerate their reserves.

Noah's heart beat could be felt with extreme clarity as he read over this information, the fact that The Primordial Universal Alignment was such a high level technique that only Great Sages had enough mana to utilize it for merely a few minutes made him laugh!

With his Infinite Mana, he was planning on activating this stupendous ability at all times as he passively assimilated all the Universal Laws, seeing exactly how long it would take him before he could fully Assimilate them as he gained a Cosmic Dao that nobody else could even dream of achieving right now.

THRUM!

Without a second delay, The Primordial Universal Alignment technique was cast for the first time, and shockingly the last time as Noah would not initiate its activation ever again- he would always keep it active until his goal was achieved!

The moment the skill was cast, his QUASAR felt a unique sensation as he felt all the law essences inside him to have been provoked, each of them vibrating as the tout 10 million Fate and Karma Lines, Chaos and Aether Particles, Nebulae of Light, Dark, Fire....all of the law essences were pulled towards his vibrant QUASAR as they infinitely neared it.

The Trees of Life and Death that were already within the QUASAR were even more vibrant, their leaves turning illusory as they seemed to be ever so slowly merging with the surroundings.

This was Assimilation! All the learned laws that Noah learned being pulled towards his origin and soul as in time, they would fully be incorporated into him as he could utilize them with such ease as if they were his own limbs!

The power of any skills and abilities of laws would be enhanced by ridiculous degrees when one became assimilated to them, and now Noah had embarked on this path.

He monitored his Origin as he saw a new section appear on his stat panel, one that showed the arduous road ahead of who knew how many months before he would achieve his goals!

[Universal Laws Assimilation: .00006%]

A decimal percentage with many zeroes that caused his heart to ache, with this number actually only being this high because he still had the affix of +10,000% to the Comprehension and Assimilation in the Law of Time active since this was the last law he mastered.

Even while enjoying the +10,000% boost in the assimilation of just a single law, the number was still rising abysmally as Noah saw among all of the slowly assimilating law essences, the law of time was fusing at 100 times the rate that other laws were fusing at!

But just this number would still cut down what might have taken him years to accomplish...in possibly just a few months as whenever a law was fully assimilated, he would switch to another Affix.

OOOM!

The essence around him gradually calmed as he nodded while breathing out, seeing everything going smoothly as stepped towards the obsidian core of the Novus Galaxy while feeling like a new man.

In the span of just over two weeks, he had accomplished a great deal of things as his power was enhanced greatly, and yet he still had many things to do!

He still had to summon another Animus Pet from the body of Noah, train the Colossal Helios Leviathan to Grand Completion of the Low Tier GALAXY Realm, get ready to embark for the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter where multiple goals coincided as along with joining an Ancient Power and expanding his knowledge of the numerous powerhouses of the Dark Universe- another Ruination Core resided within this Ancient Power.

There were many more things he had to do in addition to the aforementioned tasks above, but the mission in front of his eyes as he strode towards the obsidian core of the Novus Galaxy was a simple one.

"With powerful Entities and unknown Ancient Powers that hold legacies of the foolish Sages and Great Sages as our potential enemies, we have to strengthen ourselves even more so that no random being can just stride in and destroy everything we have built."

RUMBLE!

His voice was calm as his steps were light, his eyes shining with a multicolored light as he came within a few inches of the obsidian core of his home Galaxy-something that in the past gave him immense pressure, he looked up at this core as he stayed shocking words!

"I think the time has come to fully fuse my Infinite Realm with your core, to elevate it to the stage of a Galaxy as we can finally use its features to create something grand."

Chapter 736 - Upgrade the Infinite Realm!

In the Central Realm of the Novus Galaxy, Noah spoke with a calm expression about something monumental, a task that would produce a shocking reality that not even those who currently owned Spiritual Lands could believe to be possible!

He spoke of fusing the Infinite Realm to the Novus Galaxy, of upgrading this treasure that began as a Spiritual Land into something that could be called a Galaxy!

One must think back and recall that in the beginning, there was only this small Spiritual Land that was a floating land mass in the Northern Region of the Beast World.

A mere floating land mass that had unique uses, the same location where an arrogant Emperor Penguin led thousands of beasts! This floating landmass went on to become a world, and even further on to become a Realm.

Now...it was actually a possibility for it to go into the stage of a Galaxy!

Ah!

Who could have thought this possible? Who could have imagined such grand advancements of something so minuscule?

"If we can utilize the features of the Infinite Realm, of the portability of it and the ability to fuse with other entities...I don't see why we can't form a moving Galaxy that slowly gobbles up other Galaxies...creating a power no less than these Ancient Powers waiting for us out there."

RUMBLE!

A grand goal and aspiration! A domineering thought that would even cause Sages and Great Sages to tremble!

[This was inevitable.]

The voice of the Novus Galaxy rang out after a few seconds as it understood the gravity of the situation.

For the Novus Galaxy to fuse with the Infinite Realm, its core had to be eaten up and assimilated by the core of the Infinite Realm, and this process would be very unique as both of these entities already shared a connection with each other!

Thus, their fusion should not pose too much of an issue! And when it came to be Infinite Realm itself, the requirements to upgrade it to the next level have long since been met as the Infinite Realm beasts rose from Star Forging all the way up to Black Hole at this time, the only thing needed being the core of the next stage this realm would want to achieve.

"Then let us not waste any time."

RUMBLE!

Waves of essence erupted out as within this same Ancient Grove where the core of the Novus Galaxy resided, the archaic blue door that represented the gateway into the Infinite Realm floated peacefully.

If one recalls, Noah had dragged this blue gateway into the Celestial Realm weeks ago as his Infinite Mana Trait was brought to completion after the Novus Galaxy formed a line of connection that shot into the gateway to reach the Infinite Realm.

This time around, something even more dangerous and grand would be occurring as within the Ancient Grove of the Central Realm where the obsidian Core of the Novus Galaxy resided- this obsidian core began floating towards Noah as he held it delicately in his hands...and then walked through his Realm Gateway!

The core of a Galaxy was extremely delicate, and Noah had to be careful to not even make grand spatial movements with it as even passing through the Realm gateway was risky.

But this occurred without any issues as in the next instant, Noah appeared above the skies of the Infinite Realm. The moment he appeared, the voice of the Infinite Realm rang out in his mind as even its coldness seemed to contain a hint of excitement!

[Is it truly time, Master?]

"Since the requirements are met and we have a Galaxy Core, let's upgrade to the next tier." Noah nodded his head as a mystical light began to converge around the obsidian core of the Novus Galaxy, this core then being pulled towards the Central Continent as it was there where the fusion of realm and galaxy would occur, the influence of the Infinite Realm expanding to cover an entire Galaxy!

This wasn't like the previous upgrade of Tiers when a core of a world had to be sacrificed in order to proceed. This time the core of the Novus Galaxy would be assimilated into the core of the Infinite Realm as the two became one and the same, the product being something that nobody could have imagined.

Such a task was nearly impossible to do, especially when it came to the master of the Infinite Realm being capable of providing the essence required to carry out the fusion of a Galaxy. Yet when it came to Noah's Infinite Mana, such things were purely useless!

THRUUM!

The moment the core of the Novus Galaxy disappeared into the earth of the Infinite Realm, a wave of essence reverberated out as the inhabitants within felt a grand change.

The newly risen Black Hole experts from the ranks of Harbingers left their abodes as they spread their senses out, their eyes very soon locking towards the outline of Noah in the skies while they sensed the vibrations that had begun to spread out across the entire Infinite Realm.

In the minds of all these Harbingers of Sin, only a single thought singularly passed through them.

'Just what ridiculous thing is he doing right now?'

A question on everyone's mind, and a grand sight for all to see!

It was a grand sight that would not just be experienced by those within the current Infinite Realm and Novus Galaxy, but also a show that could be seen by any nearby Entities within a range of a few light years.

This was because the mana that was going to be consumed in order to upgrade the Tier of the Infinite Realm and fuse an entire Galaxy with it...was truly monstrous!

What occurred in the next few minutes could only be considered a fantastical sight that very few would ever come across in all their lives, a sight that would take an uncountable number of pages to describe but could be summarized in a few sentences.

It was a gorgeous show of colors as in the skies of the Infinite Realm, its master was required to provide the mana to catalyze the fusion as from him, a blue light began to leak out.

The shimmering blue light of mana only further brightened his figure to those glancing up towards him, their hearts beginning to thump with unknown feelings as they saw a majestic image of a being erupting out with an immense aura, tendrils of blue lights leaking from his eyes as his body shone with even more blue l.u.s.ter- all of this essence flowing down towards the Infinite Realm endlessly!

It was a magisterial sight as Noah looked like an ancient being from ages past, his face expressionless as his eyes blazed out with tendrils of blue light!

Chapter 737 - My Infinite Galaxy! I

In an unknown corner of the Dark Universe, a Galaxy was undergoing deep changes as a brilliant blue light spread out from a certain Realm and went on to cover everything in sight.

This was the same Galaxy that had undergone Life Essence Endowment as its atmospheric and universal law essences were boosted to great degrees, and now a mystical light of pure mana spread out across all of corners and grooves as the master of an Infinite Realm wished to connect this entire Galaxy into his Realm, making it something he controlled!

Such actions though, required immense amounts of mana- mana that would not leave the hands of a normal being, but would instead be seen from powerful Entities that were in the Peak Tier GALAXY Realm that had lived for tens of thousands of years and had built up great mana reserves.

So when an ability or skill was used that utilized such high levels of mana, its brightness and pure oppressive pressure could be felt a few light years away!

As Noah let his mana flow freely to fuse the cores of his Infinite Realm and Novus Galaxy together, there actually happened to be someone passing a few light years away from the discrete Galaxy, this being turning his head towards this direction with shining eyes.

Coincidentally, it was the same Entity that was traversing the Dark Universe for the pages from the Book of Ruination, the same one that currently held two pages and was looking for the Esteemed Being that had successfully established a Universal Origin Physique that could utilize the tools of Ruination!

"Let's see which guy is being so flashy hmmm?"

This time, this Entity went towards the powerful aura of mana being utilized, making way towards the Novus Galaxy rapidly!

Meanwhile, Noah oversaw the process proceeding smoothly as his mana grandly washed over the entire Galaxy, his origin feeling a unique sensation as he was connected to both the Infinite Realm and Novus Galaxy before their fusion.

If he were to close his eyes and describe what was happening, he would draw the Novus Galaxy to be a circle as right at the center of it, his Infinite Realm had placed itself as it utilized his mana to release numerous strong lines that connected everything within this Galaxy to itself and kept it together!

THRUMM!

At this point, the entire galaxy seemed to be vibrating with the gorgeous light that Noah released as it neared completion, those in the Infinite Realm who could see the scene only looking up in unbounded shock and incredulity.

Within the past Infinite Realm, the Beasts that were naturally born within from the dense condensation of essence were bubbling with essence as they found their Realms to be breaking through with the influence of the place they were tightly connected to being elevated even higher.

RAA! RAA! RAA!

The piercing cry of an Emperor Penguin could also be heard as it made an even smarter use of this opportunity while sensing the bubbling essence in its body, waving its flippers as it went on to hug Cores at the Ranks of Black Hole and QUASAR that Noah had given out to them to increase their Realms- the arrogant penguin hugged these cores as it began to absorb them in conjunction with the enhancing of his Realm that came with this phenomenon!

Its stage in the Realm of Black Hole began to be elevated rapidly as it wanted to see if this opportunity could be used to break into QUASAR.

There was no worry about something like Grand Completion, so what prevented this majestic penguin from using the opportunities provided to it to advance forward?!

THRUM!

In another region, the Terrors that were the original protectors of the Galaxy were gathered together as the planetary sized Cthulhu spread out its senses with a somber gaze. Many emotions seemed to be rolling through its mind as the other three Terrors also glanced towards it, their thoughts being something that only they were privy to!

Yet the process that was taking place...was nearing completion as the brilliant blue light of mana flashed out even brightly to announce the completion.

RUMBLE!

The whole galaxy seemed to pulse and tremble with power as the raging essences gradually died down. Outside of the Galaxy, if one was looking at its boundary they would be able to notice the transparent barrier to turn into a brilliant hue of blue, its thickness beginning to increase by multiple hundreds of miles as it seemed like an endless fortress wall.

Inside the galaxy, dense atmospheric essence was running rampant as Noah's eyes opened to look at the results of the actions he had taken today.

He looked at the used to be Infinite Realm that was now fused with something even grander as a voice rang out in his mind.

[The fusion and integration of a Galaxy has successfully allowed the Tier to be elevated to 12, with the current stage being that of a Galaxy.]

The voice was feminine while holding a hint of excitement, Noah picking out the mechanical qualities of both the Novus Galaxy and the core of the past Infinite Realm in it!

He nodded his head at the voice as his gaze swept out across the Realm he was in and saw through the boundary to glance at the millions of stars outside of this huge galaxy. Even the starry space shimmered with intense light as his body still had a glimmer of a shining blue light bouncing off it, his heart feeling extremely full as what he accomplished today was out of his wildest dreams!

As his eyes gazed upon this new galaxy, he spoke as a deep and sonorous voice rang out throughout the past Infinite Realm and extended to the hundreds of thousands of miles nearby, a voice filled with strength and regality that could be heard by experts and lowly rank F beings alike.

"My Infinite Galaxy..."

RUUUMBLE!

His words seemed to usher its full completion as a light shined out brightly, announcing the arrival of something shocking that would make waves across the Dark Universe in the coming future! It was the coming of the Infinite Galaxy, and the many possibilities that it came with!

Chapter 738 - My Infinite Galaxy! II

In the new Central Realm of the Infinite Galaxy.

This wondrous Realm that was the source of the Spiritual Land that later became a Spiritual World and Realm was currently the location where the core of this Galaxy now resided!

The many inhabitants within this Central Realm did not even know what to make of what had just occurred, but those who knew Noah as well as some of his secrets could not help but tremble when they heard his resounding words that reverberated throughout the Realm.

"My Infinite Galaxy..."

RUUUMBLE!

His words shook them to their core as they realized the shocking meaning of it when it related to Noah and his Infinite Realm, and they realized this ridiculous guy had truly done something crazy!

Barbatos was among the many that were looking towards Noah in stupor, her small figure crackling with deathly essence as over the past weeks as her strength increased, her curves had only become more prominent as her expression was much too vibrant for the Necromancer that reveled on destruction.

Currently being at the Realm of Black Hole, her power had grown greatly as her Undead Legion grew ever so larger, this force being enhanced even further as she had placed all her focus and skill points on elevating the Arch Lich Skill Tree that Noah had left behind in the Library of the Infinite Realm!

All this time, she had been telling herself that she was surely getting closer and closer to him in strength, that she was only a rank behind where he was and she could confidently stand beside him again while raising her head high.

Yet as she saw his image as he looked like an archaic creature out of primordial times while he was apparently fusing the Infinite Realm to the Novus Galaxy...she was finally able to admit something to herself that allowed her to feel as if shackles were lifted from her heart!

This guy...was not someone she should even f.u.c.k.i.n.g think of matching or standing next to on an equal level! But...she realized that she did not have to be in the same realm as him or be as strong as his in order to confidently stand beside him, nor should she change how she acted towards him because of his continued elevated position.

This thought caused her to feel immense weight lifted off her shoulders as while she gazed at the image of Noah still glimmering with blue light, her face regained the same mischievous smile and coldness that Noah had first seen when he met her in the Lost World of Atlantis, her small body shooting out towards him as she shouted out grandly while leaving all reservations behind.

"Little Fish!"

THRUM!

In the state of awe filled stupor that everyone was on at that moment, the figure of Barbatos streaking across the shimmering skies and diving into the wide chest of Noah was imprinted on the minds of many!

Far off in the distance, Adelaide was being held back by the Shadow Guard Night as she looked like she was about to pop off, Elena nearly shooting off blood spears with her eyes as even further away, the Inquisitor Athena had a forlorn expression.

At this scene, the tendrils of blue light shooting off of Noah gradually faded as he looked down towards the Barbatos that was hugging his chest as hard as she could. He raised his hand as he patted the head of this curvaceous Necromancer as his heart calmed down, bringing to a brief stop as he took in the accomplishments of what he did!

To go from where he was to his current position...was truly a thing of wonder that deserved amazement from all angles. In the next instant though, the smile he had on his face was wiped away as his eyes squinted, his own senses and the Infinite Galaxy feeling a terrifying aura of strength wave over them as outside of the blue boundary of the Galaxy...a huge being with the oppressive aura of an Entity had appeared!

This was the same Entity that had sensed the profound fluctuations of mana from a few light years away, coming to this location to check it out as to his shock, he found out that it was merely a Galaxy.

Yet this Galaxy carried a unique sensation as it had qualities he hadn't come across before, and his expression changed heavily as while his aura spread out, it caught onto the image of a single figure as this Entity sensed something shocking within this being!

"This...this!"

He called out incredulously as inside his personal isolated space where he kept his items and treasures, he felt the two pages from the Book of Ruination trembling as his own power that swept over the galaxy saw a shocking image on the being he locked in on- it was the image of 6 swirling Nebulae that represented the Universal Origin Physique he had only read about, as well as the even more shocking item he had only heard about actually dwelling within one of these Law Origins, a Ruination Core!

Faced with this situation, even the Entity couldn't help but fall into a stupor as the being he was searching for with all his heart had ridiculously appeared right in front of him.

Yet on the other side, Noah wasn't feeling the same way as the moment he felt the aura of an Entity that seemed multiple times heavier than even the Entity Nirnasha while also feeling the trembling of the Tools of Ruination he had on himself- he made a move right away as he knew he could not deal with such a powerful Entity at this moment!

So he wasted no time as before he could even look at the new features of the Infinite Galaxy, he used [Size Regulation] paired up with immense mana to cause the enormous size of the entire Galaxy to instantly shrink down, leaving the watching Entity with even more shock as he observed the galaxy with the length of a few thousand light years incredulously shrink down so damn rapidly that it barely became a speck in the chaotic void.

Instantly!

The entity then felt waves of spatial fluctuations as he called out hurriedly.

"Wait...!"

...but it was to no avail as Noah who knew the dangers of powerful Entities, especially one that seemed multiple times more powerful than one that he previously met...he instantly teleported away after he shrunk and anchored an entire Galaxy onto himself, not wasting a single millisecond with the foreign Entity!

"..."

"You...!"

The Entity looked forth incredulously at this sight, not even knowing how to move as his face soon turned into anger and frustration.

He was right there! The being he was searching for this entire time...the answer to everything he wanted...had just stupidly slipped past him the moment he was found.

Ah!

Aside from this, he was even more shocked by the methods this being had utilized, being able to actually control an entire Galaxy into a miniscule size as he teleported with it...this was something that even this thousands of years old being had never come across before!

Meanwhile, spatial fluctuations erupted out on the other end where Noah had made his destination, his figure appearing in the chaotic void near the Nexus Galaxy as his eyes landed on his next target while he reflected on what just happened.

Chapter 739 - {Spiritual Galaxy Management}

In the chaotic void not too far away from the Nexus Galaxy, Noah gazed far away as he thought about the recent situation. His mind moved rapidly as he realized that the Entity wasn't randomly pulled towards his Infinite Galaxy, and that it was very likely that his high usage of mana that could rival and surpass those in the GALAXY Realm was the thing that alerted this Entity.

Realizing this, Noah made sure to plan to mask both himself and the Galaxy whenever he carried out grand moves like this in the future so that he wouldn't draw too much attention to himself!

Noting this, his eyes landed on the shimmering Galaxy he had miniaturized in the palm of his hand as many thoughts crossed his mind.

Even after he just used enormous amounts of mana to utilize the features of this unique treasure that were now applicable to something as grand as a Galaxy, Noah didn't think much of it as it required basically nothing from him!

But the possibilities themselves were huge when one remembered exactly what features were present in the previous Infinite Realm and even the past Spiritual Land. All of these features were now present in this shimmering Galaxy in the palm of his hands!

Can you imagine the stage you would have to be to accomplish what Noah was doing now? To literally hold a Galaxy within his hands??

Such a thought brought a smile to his face as he then glanced towards the far away Nexus Galaxy.

Within this Galaxy, the body of Alexander had warped in the Central Realm he had been invited to before as he went forth to bring a proposition!

As Noah shared the same soul and it was just another one of his bodies, his eyes saw an imaginary scene where Alexander arrived in the Central Realm as the obsidian core of the Nexus Galaxy looked towards him questioningly.

But Alexander's words were simple as he smiled and said,

"Do you want to be a part of something larger? To guarantee the life of all the beings in this Galaxy as you don't even have to worry about Entities?"

Alexander had begun using honeyed words with the core of the Nexus Galaxy as Noah planned to fuse this Galaxy into his Infinite Galaxy first!

He would then move on to the Stellar Sky Galaxy and the few other Galaxies that were under the influence of the Imperials as the task ahead of him was insurmountably large.

When it came to fusing more Galaxies though, the task would actually be very easy to do as the cores of galaxies were nothing but logical beings!

The moment that Noah revealed the nature of the Infinite Galaxy, as well as the nigh impossibility of killing the owner of it...these logical entities would be going against their very nature if they did not make the decision to be fused into his Galaxy.

The only thing left to do after giving them the offer is sharing memories with them as they confirm the truth of Noah's abilities and the unique features of the Infinite Galaxy!

Noah also stared at the character shimmering faintly outside of the Nexus Galaxy- the character that read EXPANSIVE which Old Man Khan had laid down before he left! His eyes shone as he knew that while it might have seemed like a form of protection due to Anastasia speaking out, it was more than likely also possible to monitor the large movements of the Nexus Galaxy with it.

But it didn't give Noah any worries as he planned to cast covert skills the moment the fusing was about to occur, this EXPANSIVE character floating in the chaotic void only being able to observe the disappearance of a galaxy thereafter!

As Noah waited for the eventual results from Alexander's task, his eyes turned down to the stat panel as he viewed the past {Spiritual Realm Management} that was now {Spiritual Galaxy Management}

{Spiritual Galaxy Management}

Upgrade Conditions- Over 100,000 Assimilated Galaxies

The beautiful set of words that displayed a summary of his Infinite Galaxy were clearly displayed as he gave a light smile.

The thing one would notice first would be the number of beasts, especially those in the Nebula and Star Forging Realm that now existed within the Galaxy!

Due to the high number of cores that Noah provided as well as the recent upgrade of tiers, many of the naturally born beasts of the Infinite Galaxy experienced great progress as the number of Nebula Rank experts towered over 800.

This number was really eye opening when one realized that the past Novus Galaxy had only had a few Nebula Rank experts that could be counted on one's two hands, and now with Noah's influence there were hundreds in just a matter of months!

Aside from this shocking number, there were also the unlocked features as well as the upgrade requirement into the next stage, which actually required 100,000 Galaxies to be fused into the Infinite Galaxy.

This was the reason why Noah had already gone ahead and began discussing with the Nexus Galaxy, as he knew he had to truly make an effort in the days to come if he wanted to accomplish this!

With all future Galaxies he wanted to take under his banner, he would have one of his clones constantly make way through the Dark Universe as more and more Galaxies were taken under his banner.

When the time came for him to actually have the requirement of fusing 100,000 Galaxies...he believed the Infinite Galaxy would be grander than even the domains of the Ancient Powers!

Chapter 740 - Fuse With Nexus!

Noah's eyes honed in on the newly unlocked features as grand thoughts crossed through his mind!

[Assimilation] :: Existences of similar nature can be assimilated into the Infinite Galaxy as the bounds of its expansion are only limited to the capabilities of its master. As long as the other party is willing, assimilation is as easy as can be.

[Trait Blessing] :: The Master of the Infinite Galaxy can choose to awaken the Traits of the beings dwelling within. Traits are specific to the beings themselves and the tier cannot be chosen by the Master of the Infinite Galaxy, this concept remaining fairly random with higher chances for greater tiers being attributed to the fate of the being. As Traits require the very essence of a galaxy and this Infinite Galaxy has a Master, the mana of this Master will be exchanged for the required galactic essence needed to awaken and develop Traits. Use sparingly as if too many Traits are granted at once, the user can face mana depletion as their core dries out and dissipates.

The features were stupendous, to say the least. [Assimilation] was very straightforward as Noah only gave it a few glances, but it was [Trait Blessing] that made his eyes shine with splendor!

Such an ability seemed to come just in time when it came to elevating the strength of all the beings in the Infinite Galaxy, where if he wanted them to be comparable to beings that had been living in the domains of Ancient Powers...mass strengthening them all with Traits was definitely a way to go about it.

He glanced over the details as he felt the only way to truly satisfy his heart was to see its effect right away, bringing his palm up as he let the miniaturized Infinite Galaxy float in the chaotic void.

His eyes then honed into the Central Realm of the Infinite Galaxy- the one that used to be known as Infinite Realm where his home and most of his people were located!

Just a test, he focused on all the remaining Harbingers of Sin that had not unlocked their Traits yet, as well as the high tier Beasts of the Infinite Galaxy.

RUMBLE!

He then cast the [Trait Blessing] ability as his eyes observed a curious sight! All the beings he selected had begun to shine with a dense blue-silver light, each of them looking blankly in space a moment later as they most likely saw a notification pop up on their skill panel about a Trait!

Such a scene would have left anyone with shock, yet Noah had done it so nonchalantly as he merely nodded while seeing the happiness spread on the faces of the beings he chose.

These Traits would greatly enhance their strength, and Noah as the Infinite Galaxy Master could freely awaken the Traits of the beings dwelling within it...so what prevented him from putting out that classification that he wanted to awaken the Traits of all beings within the Galaxy right away?

He had the Mana to do it, so why not?!

This grand thought entered his mind briefly before his shining eyes had to look away from the miniaturized Infinite Galaxy and stare towards the Nexus Galaxy.

At this moment, he looked over to this galaxy as in its Central Realm, Alexander had finished discussing with the core of the Galaxy as things went as expected- this logical entity went with the path of being assimilated into his Infinite Galaxy!

With a knowledgeable nod, Noah floated towards the Boundary of the Nexus Galaxy as he floated only a mile away from it. He then took the Infinite Galaxy in his hands as he let it freely float in the chaotic void.

If he wanted to be showy, he could have expanded the size of the Galaxy back to its light-years distance before he proceeded with the fusing of another Galaxy, but even while miniaturized the fusion would occur without any issues!

In the effort to also hide from prying eyes and the shining EXPANSIVE character floating in the chaotic void, the body of Alexander in the Central Realm of the Nexus Galaxy breathed out as he clasped his hands, casting some not so recently utilized [Blood World] and [World Veil]!

If one recalls, these were abilities stemming from the Vampyre Progenitor Bloodline that created a huge circular barrier and cast a veil on a world where nobody could see nor feel what was happening inside even when spreading out their aura.

Such skills were normally employed at the level of worlds, or even just a few meters of miles to just surround an enemy. Yet Noah was using them now to hide the happenings of entire Galaxies!

THRUM!

Essence surged silently with the casting of the covert skills, very little fluctuations resounded out as from the body of Alexander, a transparent red circular tinge that smelled of tangy metallic odor erupted out.

It covered the Central Realm in less than a second as it spread out even further, enormous amounts of mana pumped into it as it was covering millions of miles instantly!

The sheer grandness of this could not be expressed more as very soon the barrier and veil covered a light-year's worth of distance, and in a matter of minutes went on to cover the entirety of the Nexus Galaxy's thousands of Light Years size as it simply expanded a little more to cover the body of Noah and the miniaturized Infinite Galaxy outside the boundary.

With the spread of these skills, of course the powerful beings of the Nexus Galaxy felt it- but the core of this galaxy itself sent the Imperial Adjudicator a message to make all Imperials stand down as they prepared to enter into a brand new age, an age where they were joining hands with powerful beings that were doing things which should not have even been possible!

With the proper skills in place and all the pieces together, the fusing of galaxies would take place as enormous amounts of mana were utilized, never again powerful Entities being able to pick up signals of Noah using horrendous reserves of mana unless he wished for them to.

Such was the stage where we have arrived! Fusing actual galaxies as the being in question could even cause it to miniaturize and hold a Galaxy in the palm of his hand.

After this fusing of the Nexus Galaxy and carrying out discussions with the natives to bring order, Noah still had many things to do on his plate as he was already on his way to reducing his workload and make his way towards the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter!

This would of course be achieved by the hundreds of thousands of skill points that had spilled past a million after his siege, as well as his skill trees...
