Chapter 821 - Let's Go!!! II

"Let's go!!!"

A magisterial bellow erupted out as while faced with enemies in much greater numbers, Noah and his summoned pets moved with valor, their bodies shining out with power!

CAAA!

The resonant cry of the Golden Crow rang out first as the golden flames on its body shone splendidly, a single skill being cast that affected all allies.

[Aurora Flames of the Enforcer].

WAA!

The golden flames from her body intensified as they jumped onto the bodies of other pets, swirling around them menacingly as they each received a boost in power while gaining regenerative and defensive boosts from an ability of the Golden Crow!

ROAAAR!

The draconic roar of the Dragon Queen rang out majestically as the huge figure of Tiamat made her appearance.

There was a reason why Noah had not merged with her, this Queen Dowager sending him a single message some time back.

'Do not merge with me and share your aura of an Entity. I need to experience destruction in its true form- whether from my body being heavily injured or if I rip apart Entities...before I can completely comprehend the Dao of Destruction myself!'

Tiamat wanted to struggle against the Entities without any support, Noah trusting the abilities of this fearsome being to not die simply as he let her run free!

As for himself?

Since he had reached Peak Tier GALAXY and had become a genuine Entity, what prevented him from personally participating?

"OOOOOH!"

He bellowed out wildly as he didn't call forth any weapons such as the Trident of the Sea or the less useful Dagger of Time at this moment, simply going towards the cluster of Entities around the Primal Emperor with his body that palpated with the aura of the Dao of Withering!

"You dare come towards me with the Dao I have nearly assimilated?!"

The Primal Emperor called forth in anger and fury as he sensed the aura of the Dao of Withering on Noah, his body moving towards him wrathfully.

The Entities by his side rushed towards the menacing Blue Slime and Tiamat, the ones that appeared behind Noah being matched by the Colossal Helios Leviathan and the fearsome Jormungandr while the ones on the left and right were targeted by the Golden Crow and Calamity Bear on one side, the Oculothorax and Obsidian Panther on the other.

It was a grand scene of multiple Animus Summons and Noah's valiant figure rushing towards multiple Entities!

By all accounts, they were outnumbered!

Those they were attacking...were beings that had lived for very long and were already assimilated with their Daos by large amounts.

Everybody looking at this scene nearly closed their eyes as if they expected the massacre about to take place, as if they couldn't bear to see such a Tyrannical Entity be stopped by being ganged up on by 26 Entities!

BZZZT...BOOOM!

Space weaved and cried out as the first impact occurred.

Multiple Entities had thrown out skills or physical attacks against Noah and his summons, the expected scene that should have occurred being one of bloody murder as logically- blood should have been drawn!

OOOOH!

Noah and his pets were only pushed back a little as illusory barriers appeared around them!

It was Ruination Shields!

The Shield came from an Affix that applied to Noah, and Noah had separated himself into multiple clones.

The clones had the boost of the Ruination Shields, and so did the Animus Summons that they completely merged with!

The only being that didn't have the protection...was Tiamat as shocking ruptures and torn muscles could be seen after she took the strikes of multiple Entities, her grand wings shredded from the aura of Withering as white bones could be seen.

The Blue Slime wasn't even fazed as he had the protection of his own Grand Dao of Vastness and a Lesser Dao of Withering from the merged Noah, its body zipping around crazily as it targeted a single Entity to devour!

"This..."

The scalps of the Entities tingled as they saw only a single pet of the Tyrannical Entity be injured, and the one that was injured...its aura had begun to rise crazily from the heavy injuries it sustained!

With ruptured wings and muscles bleeding out profusely, the Queen Dowager's resonant voice rang out.

"From destruction comes rebirth."

THRUUM!

The words came with them the eruption of a majestic aura, of the essence of the Grand Dao of Destruction that had reached completion just seconds after the battle began. The Queen Dowager that was awakening its memories and getting back its power after tens of thousands of years...had finally taken another step as she reclaimed the title of an Entity.

WAAA!

A magisterial air erupted from her as her injuries began to heal rapidly, pillars of scorching flames beginning to erupt out!

Yet...even this was not the most terrifying scene within this Illusory Unbreakable Realm as it was not the thing the Entities from the Primal Winged Expanse were most shocked about.

The most shocking event was the body of an Aileron Entity freely floating in space as an empty husk, the light within its eyes dimming as many came to realize an Entity had somehow fallen in the span of a few seconds!

Not too far away, the glimmers of a resplendent ray of light returned to a golden winged eye that was the Oculothorax!

Shockingly, it wasn't the terrifying Blue Slime or Tiamat who were now Entities of Grand Daos that stole the show with the first impact.

Targeting an attacking Aileron Entity, the Oculothorax had released its [Eye of Doom] as the essence of Withering swirled around it, this ray ignoring the outstretched fist of the Entity as it shot straight to his soul and shattered it right away.

OOOOOOH!

An invisible cry reverberated out from the glistening golden eye as it announced itself grandly, letting everyone know it was one of the deadliest combatants here!

Ah!

Chapter 822 - Magisterial! I

The watchers of the battles found themselves standing up from their seats when they really confirmed that an Aileron Entity had fallen just seconds from the first impact!

That was an Entity you know.

A being that had lived and cultivated for thousands of years.

Gone!

RUMBLE!

"Soul Attack!"

"Reinforce your souls!"

...!

The Entities cried out quickly as they shook their heads with mourning, knowing one of them was lost so stupidly because they hadn't expected the rare Soul Damage attribute to appear here, nor how fast and deadly it would be when backed by the Dao of Withering!

The Primal Emperor had a wrathful expression as he voiced out.

"Be careful of Soul Attack and the devouring Slime. Move together to wipe out these fiendish freaks!"

WAAA!

The Entities moved in conjunction as they targeted Noah and his pets in groups.

The battles about to occur were so fast paced and involved so many moving pieces that we have to talk about them separately!

The following events were taking place simultaneously, each with their own ferocity and valor!

We start with the group of Entities that were facing the Lightbourne Oculothorax and the Obsidian Panther.

It used to be three of them, and now it was down to two as a dead Entity floated behind them!

Sadly, the body of this Entity didn't trigger the Affix of the Ruination Core to drop Dao Crystals nor did it trigger Noah's own Loot Skill to drop Assimilation Crystals.

The eyes of the remaining two Entities were looking towards the Oculothorax with careful eyes as they dared not underestimate the light shining from the enormous winged eye.

Yet as their attention focused on the Oculothorax with their bodies glimmering with resplendent abilities, the nonchalant Obsidian Panther by the side moved as his figure entirely disappeared!

SHAAA!

"Watch out!"

The scalp of one of the two Entities trembled as he only saw a black flash before he noticed a claw filled with glimmering dark claws that palpated with the essence of Ruination swipe towards him.

RIIIIP!

A horrid sound erupted as the claws sunk into the forehead of the Entity, his eyes filled with solemnity as he tried to move back while feeling the destructive essence of Withering try to pierce through the torn head muscles and necrotize his brain!

SHAA! SHAA!

The black flash disappeared once more as the Entity could barely keep up, and during this period of shock, the ray of light from Eye of Doom reverberated out once more as the Lightbourne Oculothorax let out a deadly strike.

"F.u.c.k.i.n.g hell!"

The two Entities matched with these two pets dodged to the inch of their lives every time as they found themselves not even able to release attacks!

CAA!

The resonant cry of the Golden Crow came with blistering flames that threatened to scorch the very space itself, these flames coagulating into sharp Golden claws that descended towards 3 Entities maddeningly!

"Hmph!"

These 3 Entities had become careful, but did not feel the strain as they faced the two pets.

Their bodies shone with the light of the essence of Withering, utilizing their proficiency in this Dao to form illusory weapons that smashed onto the Flaming Golden claws cast by the Golden Crow!

"Nothing much, let us wipe them out and help the others!"

The Entities felt the quality of these two pets to be lower as they proceeded to ready deadly skills to quickly defeat them, but it was at this time when they felt a tremendous presence behind them.

THRUUUM!

The Calamity Bear they always had their eyes on had somehow appeared before them, its kingly aura leaking out as it looked like an arrogant Ruler!

"Hug of Life and Death."

WAAA!

The horrendous constrictive force was felt by the 3 Entities as they were held in place, their gazes changing as essence exploded from their bodies to resist.

Yet the Golden Crow appeared above them at this time as its golden eyes shone menacingly.

[Nirvanic Flames of Tyranny].

BZZZZT!

From its body, Golden flames that contained a tint of red appeared, the scorching temperatures they released only being enhanced by Noah's essence of Withering as they thundered down towards the 3 Entities held in place!

OOOOOOH!

The Entities shockingly felt like their lives were on the line as they bellowed out, their bodies shining brightly to defend against these deadly attacks...

These 5 Entities were facing the enormous figures of Colossal Helios Leviathan and the deadly Jörmungandr as they had their task somewhat easier, flying around the huge body of the Leviathan as they released powerful attacks towards it.

The fearsome Jörmungandr was on top of the Leviathan as its serpentine head coiled, its red eyes watching the Entities surrounding them closely!

They used the enormous body of the Leviathan to their advantage as they believed it was only a matter of time before they pierced through its thick scales and took it down.

At this scene, the Colossal Helios Leviathan felt insulted as its booming voice rang out.

"You think me to be huge and defenseless?!"

RUMBLE!

Its resounding voice was followed by intense reverberations as it released a single skill.

[Realm Depredation].

...BOOM...CRACK!

It was also at this time that Jörmungandr moved in a magisterial fashion.

It raised its head high as its blood seemed to be boiling, its red eyes shining with a brilliant l.u.s.ter as they honed in on 2 nearby Entities with solemn faces as they faced the Leviathan's [Realm Depredation].

With an air of majestic ancientness, Jörmungandr called out!

[Galaxy Devouring Serpent].

WAAA!

Essence gushed out wildly as an illusory image of a Primal Serpent appeared above Jörmungandr, its shape disastrous and massive as its abyssal eyes stared at the two target Entities.

Facing the eyes of this Illusory Primal Serpent, the Aileron Entities felt their souls shake as they actually felt a life-threatening feeling from it!

Chapter 823 - Magisterial! II

The sight of an enormous Galaxy Devouring Serpent was truly one of wonder as it captured the eyes of many of those watching this shocking battle!

Yet..there was still another ridiculous battle occurring simultaneously at the same time as the fights between the party of Colossal Helios Leviathan and Jörmungandr, the party of Golden Crow and the Calamity Bear, and the party of the Oculothorax and the Obsidian Panther.

It was the figures of Noah, a Blue Slime, and Tiamat going towards the Primal Emperor who was backed by 14 other Entities and 100 Ailerons in the Peak Tier GALAXY Realm!

THRUUUM!

Towards the enemies releasing deadly attacks filled with the backing of Daos, the three were fearless as they had the Ruination Shield still protecting Noah and the Blue Slime, with Tiamat having a grand light of destruction protecting her as she was the first to move.

[Wrath of the Dragon Queen].

RUMBLE!

The formation of 4 Illuosry Dragons with the same stature as Tiamat appeared grandly, the scorching pillars of flames billowing out of them majestically as this time...they held with them a deadly light of Destruction!

They were like palpating beams of plasma that even made the surrounding chaotic void melt as they rushed towards the 15 Entities and 100 Peak Tier GALAXY Realm experts rapidly.

Attacks like this were extremely deadly and effective as they affected a wide area, the coming Entities having to utilize a lot of their essence to cast skills that carried the essence of their Daos to protect themselves and stop it from wrecking the bodies of the Peak Tier Entities behind them that were actually feeling like they didn't belong in this battle!

BOOOM!

The scorching beans of plasma hit as the Entities defended, the figure of the Primal Emperor being the first to fly of the scorching plasma as his hand formed into a claw that tried grasping towards the rushing Noah.

SHAAA!

The Primal Emperor pulled back instantly as he still recalled what had happened to the Entity Vest that the body of this Blue Slime had covered, his face solemn as the other Entities soon came beside him.

But one must recall...the Blue Slime didn't just have its expanding ability and the Grand Dao of Vastness, it still had multiple other Grand and Lesser Daos that neared full comprehension because of <<Universal Devouring>>!

[Sundering Song of Death and Decimation].

The Blue Slime called out innocently as the essence around its body raged.

The essence of the Grand Daos of Vastness, Devouring, Macrocosm, Slaughter, and Four Elements raged our wild as they came together into a maddening symphony of chaotic tendrils of darkness that stretched out towards every single Entity!

It was the combination of multiple Grand Daos, these beings utilizing a Leser Dao looking forward in shock as they wondered how the hell a single creature containing so many Grand Daos!

The Primal Emperor's face sunk even more as his body formed a spectacularly shining shield made of the essence of Withering, his voice ringing out as he weaved in and out to defend against the deadly tendrils that were the [Sundering Song of Death and Decimation]!

"Focus on the most powerful one first!"

Yet the other Entities could not reply to him as they were still trying to survive the deadly [Sundering Song of Death and Decimation] that tore apart their defenses any time the Dark tendrils touched them!

In the midst of all of this, Noah's eyes shone brightly as his body began to erupt with light.

When it came to Noah, he truly had a great deal of abilities he could use. So many in fact, that one could consider him to be neglecting some stupendous abilities!

To fix this while also utilizing his greatest perk that was Infinite mana, Noah had designed a skill and used 1 million Skill Points to create it on his way here.

[Automatic Cast of All Support Skills].

His mind gave a single command that initiated a great deal of skills.

THRUUUUM!

Support skills from all the Universal Laws!

From all the Skill Trees!

An enormous influx of mana was used as it caused such tremendous pressure and brilliance that it pushed away any surrounding beings.

The essence of all Universal Laws freely raged around a single being as he was enhanced by a multitude of abilities that utilized their essence, his body shining splendorously as he took on a new form to represent all of these cast abilities!

He didn't expand into the huge tree even though a transformation ability that also greatly supported him like [Galactic Tree] was cast.

Nor did he turn into a huge Terror or take on any enormous form!

The Universal Laws that he was assimilating in conjunction at this moment...wrapped around him seamlessly as when the light died down, Noah kept his original body while being adorned in a magisterial set of armor.

Shining with a rainbow of colors, he wielded sharp swords palpating with the essence of Death and Aether. On his back floated 6 golden gamers glimmering with the aura of Fate, with his robe shining a green l.u.s.ter as it represented the defense of Yggdrasil and Galactic Tree- shining with the essence of life!

On his back were mystical white and dark pair of wings, carrying with them the essence of Space, Light, and Wind as they threatened to be even faster than even the Obsidian Panther!

It wasn't just these Laws as all over Noah's body, the essence of all universal laws shone brightly as he actually utilized all of them at once, the laws forming into things like gloves, boots, earrings...anything that could attach to his body and strengthen him.

Behind these laws were also a myriad of |Intent|!

Overall, it produced a Noah that was garbed in a magisterial battle robe and resplendent pair of wings, his body seemingly shimmering with all colors as he disappeared in a flash of light, only to appear in front of the shocked Primal Emperor with his two blades shimmering with the aura of Death and Aether already striking at the fair neck of this Ruler!

Faster and deadlier than even the Obsidian Panther!

It was a magisterial sight as at this same moment, many beings had begun to arrive to see the conflict between the two Ancient Powers, the auras of multiple Entities utilizing resplendent skills drawing them to the borders of the Primal Winged Expanse right away.

When these powerful Entities from numerous Ancient Powers arrived behind the scenes to watch, their hearts shook as they saw multiple Entities encircling a single man and his summons.

The thing that provided the shocking factor was the fact that while surrounded by 25 Entities, the Tyrannical Entity in the encircling wasn't one bit on the losing side as he even took the initiative to control the pace of the battle!

What they were about to see would truly be eye opening, these beings never being able to forget it as they would be introduced to the one known as Noah Osmont in a stellar fashion!

Chapter 824 - One by One, They Shall Fall! I

Sister Gold was watching a curious scene play out in the border of the Ancient Power that was known as the Primal Winged Expanse.

She knew all there was to know about the Entities connected to this Power, the prowess of the Spirit Race being something very few beings could imagine!

She was very knowledgeable about the forces of this Ancient Power...so she was all the more surprised when she observed them taking a beating from a single being that was utilizing the Dao of Summoning and Withering!

As a being that was working to assimilate the Daos of Alacrity, Vastness, Frost, and Destruction, as well as being a unique existence from the Spirit Race- she had a very keen eye when it came to quantifying the battle power of others and understanding their might.

At this moment, she was working to analyze the combatants fighting in the Illusory Unbreakable Realm as her figure melded into the chaotic void a few miles away.

The strength of the Entities coming from the Primal Winged Expanse...she understood.

Many of them were proficient in the Dao of Withering and had already begun assimilating it, with quite a decent amount of them increasing their +2500% Extra Damage of this Dao into the ranges of +3000-4000%.

Especially the Primal Emperor himself, this being should have been at a shocking 4800% boost as he was in the upper percentages when it came to fully assimilating the Dao of Withering!

When she looked at these Entities, her unique abilities could quantify and understand the output of their power. Yet when it came to the enemy they faced...she actually could not make any headway!

"It is improbable..."

She uttered out calmly as her mind observed the shocking battle that was occurring at high speeds.

"That alone should have been very unlikely, if not impossible."

But even this point she placed aside as she focused on what this being was currently doing now.

From the 100 Peak Tier GALAXY Aileron experts that had circled the fighting Entities and got ready to lend support at any time while evading the horrendous attacks thrown within, Sister Gold picked up from their pensive conversations that the being facing 25 Aileron Entities was a genius from the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter, her ears picking up the names of Alexander and Noah simultaneously.

Her eyes were focused on this being as they observed that he alone was reinforcing and supplying the bodies of all 8 of his summons with an endless supply of Mana and Dao Essence!

He was supplying them with pure mana from the connection formed deep in their souls, and also using the mana within his own body and converting it to Dao Essence using his comprehensions in the Dao of Withering to boost the power of his Summons even more.

This thought process, Sister Gold could understand. But what she couldn't explain was how this Entity had not dropped dead from Mana exhaustion after spending the resource so freely and wastefully like this!

Her brows jumped even higher when out of nowhere, she saw the explosion of Universal Law Essences.

Not a few law essences...but all of the Universal Law Essences erupted out and then swirled around this single Entity, his body being adorned by a magisterial set of armament as his power jumped up multiple levels!

"This..."

Sister Gold's eyes finally became serious at this scene as she focused all her attention on this being.

Entities normally had one or two laws fully comprehended and assimilated, and they used them actively while supporting their Dao as they unleashed terrific attacks.

Yet to utilize the essence of all Universal Laws? At once?

"It is not probable!"

THRUUUM!

Her mental state was slightly affected by the scene in front of her, her thoughts moving quickly as she utilized the unique ability of the Spirit Race to send a message to all the Entities of her race.

One Race, One Soul!

This was the shocking motto of the Spirit Race that was one of the most feared Ancient Powers of the Dark Universe.

"I've come across an Anomaly while observing the war between the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter and the Primal Winged Expanse. I'll begin real time memory sharing."

RUMBLE!

In Sister Gold's mind, another voice rang out calmly.

"The utilization of all Universal Laws...and this usage of mana..."

Terrifying beings had gotten their eyes of Noah as a single creature of the Spirit Race floated a few miles away from the Illusory Unbreakable Realm, yet it was like the numerous Entities of the Spirit Race were all there as their cold eyes analyzed this anomaly of Noah Osmont!

In other hidden regions all around the border of the Primal Winged Expanse, numerous hidden figures had already been watching or were arriving and hiding themselves to watch the ongoing clash that involved multiple Entities, many of them questioning how it was even happening the way it was!

A single Entity controlling multiple Summons was standing against an entire group of Entities, and it didn't seem like he was on the losing side!

RUMBLE!

Inside the Illusory Unbreakable Realm, Noah was clad in shimmering armaments that thrummed with the power of Universal Laws that were enhanced with the essence of the Dao, his stats being boosted crazily as even he had yet to calculate the actual percentage.

Just from the single skill of Yggdrasil he had over +5000% Increase in Damage and other attributes, these percentages being increased crazily when he activated the support skills from all the Laws as he wouldn't be too surprised if just the boost in [Damage] was over +10,000%!

ZIIIIING!

HO!

A burst of essence erupted from this Ruler as everything around him was pushed back, his eyes glancing at the magisterial figure of Noah as well as the swirling coagulation of essence around him!

The eyes of the Primal Emperor became more and more somber as Noah pushed forward even faster than light, arriving beside him again as a shocking clash ensued.

While keeping at bay the ferocious Noah that seemed like a Primal beast out for blood, the Primal Emperor sought support from the many other Entities around him!

Yet this was the time was the figure of a small Blue Slime zipped out, its body carrying a profound aura of multiple Daos as while the ability of the [Song of Death and Decimation] continued to spread the Entities out while they defended- it went forward to attack as the targets of Devouring entered its line of sight.

The Blue Slime represented terror as it appeared instantly behind an Aileron Entity, its body expanding rapidly as it was about to remind everyone of the horror they saw before!

Chapter 825 - One by One, They Shall Fall! II

The Blue Slime had targeted a defending Aileron Entity as it appeared silently from behind, its body rapidly going on to expand as the Entity only felt an uncomfortable feeling wrap over him before...

<<Universal Devouring>>.

WAP!

...he disappeared!

RUMBLE!

Essence erupted out as the moment an Entity was so easily devoured, the Blue Slime's aura rose ever higher as instantly, it obtained the full comprehensions and assimilations of the Dao of Withering from the devoured Aileron Entity.

Off to the side, the scalp of the Primal Emperor tingled as his gaze remained cold, his wrathful eyes now counting 2 Entities on their side having fallen!

"Do not let them make a mockery of us!"

He bellowed out to the remaining 13 Entities nearby that had surrounded the baleful Tiamat and were carefully looking at the Blue Slime that had taken down their compatriot.

These Entities were beings that had lived long in age and were extremely wise, this ongoing situation beginning to make the gears in their heads spin as they began to have a foreboding feeling!

Noah's gorgeous multicolored figure flashed in front of the Primal Emperor once more at this time, his mind sending a telepathic message to the Blue Slime as his swords filled with the essence of Death and Aether thundered forward.

"That's the only one you can devour. Kill the rest so that we can have a chance of collecting Assimilation Crystals!"

A shocking message was sent out as the Blue Slime wobbled forth, its body exploding out with the auras of multiple daos as its speed was no less than Noah who was bolstered by all Universal Laws and Dao Essence.

Noah kept his eyes on the Primal Emperor alone as the other 13 Entities were actually held at bay by the dangerous Tiamat and Blue Slime, these PRISMATIC+ pets that each had their own shocking identities in the larger Primordial Chaos being even more overpowered than Noah!

He stared at the eyes of the Primal Emperor that seemed to have boundless wrath and calmness, the disposition of this Ruler being something rare as even in a situation like this, he remained level-headed as his body exploded with power.

Different coagulations and shapes formed around him as the assimilated Dao of Withering was used proficiently, each of them being extremely deadly as even while Noah evaded most of them, over 10 strikes had managed to land on him as the Ruination Shield on his body wavered!

THRUUUUUM!

Time seemed to slow down.

Ever since Noah had activated all the laws to reinforce his body, he seemed to have entered into a special state that he was slowly grasping as the seconds passed.

He didn't know what to call it or what exactly it was, but this unique state made his body and infinite mana move ever faster, every single time he moved and attacked becoming faster and faster!

The gorgeous eruption of essence all around him seemed to come to a stand still, as if time itself had come to a stop.

The kingly Calamity Bear that had managed to successfully grasp an Entity into his Hug of Life and Death.

The resounding image of the shockingly luminous Golden Crow raining down sundering flames to hold the other Entities at bay while the Calamity Bear squeezed the Aileron Entity to death!

The scene of the deadly Lightbourne Oculothorax shooting out resplendent beams of [Eye of Doom] while the Obsidian Panther was ravaging an Aileron Entity with his body that could only be seen like a flash of light.

The scene of the enormous Colossal Helios Leviathan working with the Galaxy Devouring Serpent-Jourmungandr, to withstand and even cause 5 Aileron Entities to stand on the losing side.

All of these scenes seemed to reflect on his mind as he could feel his blood raging!

His hair danced wildly as from those observing him and the shocking scenes occurring in the Illusory Unbreakable Realm, they shockingly felt like they were looking at an archaic creature let loose to bring destruction!

In his stat panel, unbeknownst to Noah, another shocking thing was happening.

The speed of his Universal Laws Assimilation was rising as the percentage in front of it changed with every passing second!

RIIING!

He felt the essence of laws coursing through him, and the dao essence that reinforced them as he actually...closed his brilliant eyes, his body moving even faster.

He put in even more effort as his body flashed faster than light, his two blades palpating with laws and dao essence piercing through the coagulation of dao around the Primal Emperor as he finally landed a deadly attack on this being!

SHAAA!

A second passed, and a bloody hand flew off the body of the Primal Emperor!

SQUELCH!

The sword in his other hand also landed as it dug deep into the bright wings of this Ruler, multiple pairs of wings flying out as blood freely splattered out.

...!!!

A shocking lull descended on the battlefield at this scene.

At this shocking juncture as blood freely overflowed from the body of the Primal Emperor, Noah's summons used this as a chance to lay out even more tremendous attacks as the instance of spacing out had shocking consequences!

From the side of the Colossal Helios Leviathan and Jormungandr, an Aileron Entity had been devoured in the jaws of the dreadful Serpent!

The Entity in the bear hug of the Kingly Calamity Bear...was squashed to paste after he lost the support of the other 2 Entities!

A shocking scene played out in the Illusory Unbreakable Prison as the being that had drawn the blood of the Ruler shone the most l.u.s.trously.

He raised his right hand as his Death Blade pointed towards the Primal Emperor while uttering tyrannical words.

"Weak! Weak! Weak!"

RUMBLE!

"One by one...all of you shall fall today!"

RUUUUMBLE!!!

Chapter 826 - Pretty Obvious

The juncture where the Primal Emperor had one of his hands and wings separated from his body was a particularly shocking one that etched itself in the minds of all those watching.

The Entities in the Illusory Unbreakable Realm were even more shocked as Noah's summons used this instance to take multiple Entities down!

Aside from the 2 falling by the hands of Calamity Bear and Jormungandr, the [Eye of Doom] from the Lightbourne Oculothorax had found another target as an Entity found their soul shattered.

The Entities near Noah and the Primal Emperor were most shocked as the Blue Slime and Tiamat didn't waste this opportunity.

The Queen Dowager's body glimmered with an intense light as she didn't use her dreadful [Wrath of the Dragon Queen], but another ability that she could now utilize as she had reclaimed her title as an Entity.

[Sanctimony of Destruction].

RUUUUMBLE!

Essence bubbled forth angrily from the body of the Queen Dowager as above her, an enormous black door formed.

The door looked primal and old, opening slowly yet rapidly at the same time as an instant later, one could see a shocking draconic claw coming out from this huge door!

The claw was entirely black as it was made up entirely of the essence of destruction, its direction focused towards one Entity as it pinched...and this Entity found its body surrounded by the horrendous light of destruction a second later as his body and origin were squeezed from all sides, his Lesser Dao not being able to withhold the terrifying essence as the Entity exploded!

POOOOF!

A shower of blood and gore erupted out as not too far away, the figure of the speedy Blue Slime was barely discernible as it chose a more eerie method.

Its body flashed in front of a shocked Entity as its viscous mass shot forth as it broke through the thin layer of essence shield and entered through the nose of this Entity!

After gaining access into the body of the Aileron, the Blue Slime expanded as its viscous mass that palpated with the light of multiple Grand Daos ballooned crazily.

POOOOF!

Another Entity exploded out grandly as in the span of seconds, 5 Entities fell!

5!

Five beings that lived for thousands of years perished together in seconds- this reality shocking all of those watching as they didn't even know what the hell they were looking at anymore.

Less than 20 Entities remained as Noah's eyes scanned everything, his expanded senses from utilizing all universal laws and the shocking state he entered showing him many things.

From the 5 Entities that had recently fallen, 2 had exploded in a shower of loot as Noah's eyes glimmered while landing his eyes on the shockingly colorful Assimilation Crystals for the first time!

Multiple in number and shining gorgeous, they disappeared silently from the battlefield as the merged Jormungandr silently put them away in Noah's Expansive Space.

THRUUUUM!

Amidst this shocking scene, the Primal Emperor still had a wrathful expression while looking at Noah, his aura continuing to rise ever higher even though he was injured!

"Do not falter!"

RUMBLE!

He uttered these words out confidently to the remaining Entities as the swirling essence formed into a stellar armor around his body and soul.

His wrathful eyes followed Noah as his body shot out, the torn arm and wings not even being paid attention to!

SHAAA!

Noah's figure flashed once more as he continued to get used to the unique state from utilizing all universal laws at once.

He noticed the activity next to the progress of All Universal Laws Assimilation percentage as it continued to rise ever so slowly, but it was rising!

This caused for his emotions to become even wilder as he got lost in the enticing feeling of the essence of all Universal Laws surrounding him, his mind forgetting anything else as he focused on their integration with him.

He had thought creating a skill like [Loot Drop- Assimilation Crystals] would be the only way to greatly increase his speed in assimilating Laws, but he was wrong!

The act he was undertaking right now was very unique.

Normally, a being would have gotten exhausted by now after activating and utilizing the abilities of all laws at once, but Noah's oppressive aura only kept increasing as behind him, he had Infinite Mana!

ZIIING!

This caused the swords made from the essence of death and Aether chase after the body of the Primal Emperor even faster.

Off in the distance of the chaotic void, Sister Gold was watching this scene as she relayed it to the many powerful beings in her Ancient Power.

There were many discussions ongoing among the group of existences from the Spirit Race, the beings that were ahead of everyone else when it came to comprehending and assimilating daos!

"He seems to be actively assimilating all universal laws..."

The obvious was stated as Sister Gold nearly pointed it out, but she wanted to be more productive as she shot back.

"It still does not escape the fact that it is not probable. Everything else aside, what is not explainable is where all the mana to make this possible is coming from."

There was silence as the powerful beings watched the ongoing battle in the Illusory Unbreakable Realm.

"We all agree that it's pretty obvious he's the one we might be looking for when it comes to the being collecting Ruination Cores?"

"The scene in front of us would make sense if this being contains the special constitution required to utilize Ruination Cores."

"But it still doesn't explain the source of his mana..."

"Stop it with the question of mana, we cannot explain it at this moment."

Many voices seemed to be buzzing back and forth in Sister Gold's head as she was the center of the established connection.

Her face remained placid as she asked a question that shut up all the voices in her head.

"Shall I confront him as an Ally or an Enemy?"

"..."

The silence in her head became deafening as not a single voice spoke!

Chapter 827 - Tyrannical!

In the Illusory Unbreakable Realm, the situation was actually ridiculously looking dire for the many Entities that were grouping up against a single one!

The Primal Emperor saw this scene as he observed the battle while clashing against a relentless Noah, his vibrant voice ringing out again as he gave a painful command to the forgotten 100 Peak Tier GALAXY Realm experts that were surrounding the fighting Entities and watching apprehensively as they threw out attacks that could heavily injure any Peak Tier GALAXY being who didn't have the protection of a Dao essence in an instant.

"Join together and fight! Keep the freaks at bay while we take them down!"

He continued teeming the unbelievably powerful Noah and his summons as freaks, his command ringing in the ears of the Peak Tier GALAXY experts as they moved apprehensively!

They actually did not want to enter the frightening battlefield, but Entity after Entity kept falling from their side as they knew if the unbelievable and impossible thing of all them falling occurred...death would also come for them.

So even though they were unwilling, they joined the fray!

BOOOM!

Resplendent long distance skills overflowed as they tried to keep their distance, but their abilities only bounced off the bodies of the summons as the moment they entered...the eyes Noah's pets honed in on them.

They saw the pristine loot of GALAXY Cores, Law Assimilation Crystals, and Dao Comprehension Crystals when they looked at these beings that hadn't yet fully comprehended their Lesser Dao, the option of them dropping Dao Assimilation Crystals not even being a possibility.

But Noah's target when creating the loot drop skill was always to increase the rate of his law assimilation, so these 100 Peak Tier GALAXY experts were simply gift wrapped for him!

He gave the command to his pets that while they matched and took down the Entities, they shouldn't forget to send an attack or two to reap the lives of the Peak Tier GALAXY experts!

Ah!

Such a domineering thought process came naturally to Noah. The thought that his summoned pets could simply take a few seconds of their time to butcher Peak Tier GALAXY experts for their loot...

How far he had come!

How short the period of time!

THRUUUM!

The Golden feathers of the mystical wings overflowed with blood as the Aether sword found its target once more.

The gaze of the Primal Emperor had turned solemn as he gave a command to the 10+ nearby Entities that were attacking Tiamat and the Blue Slime in conjunction.

"Support me!"

RUMBLE!

The words were strong, but painful to hear!

It was the Ruler of the Primal Winged Expanse asking for help from his allies...he was expressing that he alone could not keep the Noah that continued to rise in oppressive aura at bay.

How shameful!

The Primal Emperor could nearly feel his face burning red as two Entities appeared beside him, these two giving their brethren Entities a much harder time as they left them alone with Tiamat and the Blue Slime that comprehend many Grand Daos!

They reinforced the Primal Emperor as Noah now faced three powerful Entities by himself.

"Hmph!"

His domineering snort rang out as he moved like a flash of light, avoiding the attacks of the new Entities as his body finally materialized for more than a second once more.

His hair danced wildly as it didn't even have the texture of normal hair anymore, seemingly looking like tendrils of blue mana dancing on his body as the arrogance and disappointment on his face was apparent.

"The weak always huddle and gather together when faced against an oppressive force!"

...!

The faces of the Primal Emperor and all other Aileron Entities in the Illusory Unbreakable Realm turned red at these words that stabbed deep into their hearts!

Those watching from afar that were in parties looked at their friends in shock as expressions of incredulousness were apparent on their faces.

They seemed to be asking themselves, did this f.u.c.k.i.n.g guys really just say that?!

But Noah paid all of this no heed as at this juncture, he changed one of the affixes on the Ruination Core as he stopped seeking for safety and defense, wanting to go on the full offensive mode.

The affix of creating a Ruination Shield if he hadn't taken Damage for 10 seconds was taken off.

He didn't choose the affix for Smiting his enemies with 10,000% Ruination Damage that had a 10% chance to activate.

He further made his base offensive boosts even crazier as he activated the fairly simple [+10,000 to All Damage] Affix!

Simple, straightforward, and for his current state that was already enhanced by numerous percentages and support skills...it was simply deadly!

THRUUUUUUM!

The moment the affix was activated, the faces of the Primal Emperor and the 2 Entities behind him drastically changed.

The Golden hammers shimmering with the essence of fate that were floating behind Noah disappeared and reappeared above their heads smashing down.

Noah's body also turned into a flash of light as beside him just attacking with his Law Sword, he now also began casting active skills.

[Sever].

ZIIING!

[Portals of Terror].

[Fireball].

BRRRRRRRR!

Enhanced by ridiculous amounts, skills were cast as they bloomed in the midst of the 3 Entities.

Their faces drained of colors as they felt blazing miniaturized suns smash into them on top of a chaining Aether lightning, along with portals that released deadly essence!

"No...!"

One of the Entities screamed as he felt his Dao essence shield be ripped apart by the destructive nature of these skills, his wings beginning to burn up as a unique aroma permeated the surroundings.

It was the smell of a bird being overcooked, a second later a shining miniaturized sun stemming from [Fireball] piercing into his now defenseless head as his brain was melted!

RUMBLE!

The other Entity beside the Primal Emperor also had his Dao essence shredded as he fared somewhat better, evading the miniaturized suns with a heavy face as he thought he was out of the woods...that is until he felt the piercing dual swords of Aether and Death reach both sides of the neck from a suddenly appearing Noah, his head separated from his body a second later as blood bloomed out gorgeously.

Noah finished the job as his swords moved even faster, cutting up the entire body of the Entity as he was destroyed in both body and soul!

Only the Primal Emperor was able to escape the shocking attacks with heavy injuries as to his dismay he realized...the two Entities he had just called to support him were dead in seconds!

WAA!

Noah's grand figure materialized again as his domineering eyes locked with the Primal Emperor.

"Call some more."

...!

Cold and domineering words that were deadlier than even his real attacks reverberated out of the battlefield, those watching nearly losing their minds at what had just occurred!

Chapter 828 - Surrender in not an option!

THRUUUM!

Outside of the Illusory Unbreakable Realm, silence reigned in the expansive chaotic void.

Even though many experts were hidden in the folds of space while watching the shocking battle, not a single vibration of sound could be heard!

Many of those watching were Entities from powerful Ancient Powers, and even they had solemn expressions as they watched Noah dispatch 2 Entities in a matter of seconds, only the more powerful Primal Emperor escaping his grasp.

Their solemn eyes were because they felt like they were facing a great enemy, the power that this single being showed being something they had not expected to see when they came to check out the war between the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter and the Primal Winged Expanse!

But among those watching, there were few that were only observing with cold eyes as a myriad of thoughts crossed their minds.

Sister Gold, the stupendous being from the fearsome Spirit Race, was among these Entities.

Ever since she had asked the question of whether they would treat this tyrannical Entity in front of them as an enemy or ally, the voices in her mind had quieted down!

This was because they knew the full weight of this decision after observing the power of this being along with the high possibility that he was the one that was connected to the Ruination Cores.

Thus, they calculated greatly before they even brought forth a thought.

The silence did not last too long, as an aged voice rolled out extremely slowly in the mind of Sister Gold.

"Strength is king."

RUMBLE!

"Enemy or ally, it does not matter. It only matters whether our goals can be achieved. If he furthers our goals he can be an ally, if he stands against us...there shall only be destruction."

THRUUUM!

A shocking statement was uttered in Sister Gold's mind as her eyes shone brightly.

The being that spoke was someone extremely special among the Spirit Race, one of the beings that they termed Ancestor!

Even after watching and analyzing the horrendous strength that Noah displayed as he matched numerous Entities, he had still uttered a statement that made it seem that if they were to become enemies...it wasn't them that would perish.

Even as they saw how he butchered Entities in the Illusory Unbreakable Realm.

Even as they saw his seemingly inexhaustible mana reserves or the terrific Animus Summons that were no less powerful than him!

Those from the Spirit Race were confident!

"Use your body as the conduit to create a doorway. We shall reinforce you just in case."

"...Yes, Ancestor."

...!

Even though Sister Gold was a terrifying being that was studying and assimilating many Daos, someone who looked down on the Entities studying a single Lesser Dao that Noah was butchering right now...even she was being sent reinforcements just in case!

Those of the Spirit Race did not take risks unless they knew they would win!

Essence silently erupted in a corner of the chaotic void near the Illusory Unbreakable Realm, no other Entities being any wiser on what was to come...

Back in the Illusory Unbreakable Realm, over half an hour had passed as the realm only had 30 minutes remaining.

This 30 minutes...felt extremely grueling to the Aileron Entities as with every passing few minutes, another Entity would fall!

From the side of the Colossal Helios Leviathan and the fearsome Jormungandr, only 2 Entities remained as 3 were taken down.

The Golden Crow and Calamity Bear were left with a single Entity that had a fearful look on his face as his defenses were slowly ground down!

Where the main force of 15 Entities used to be around the Primal Emperor who faced the most terrifying Blue Slime, Tiamat, and Noah...only 5 Entities remained alive including the bloodied and battered Primal Emperor.

The results of this battle were extremely shocking to look at as time passed!

Many considered if it was a show, the unbelievable sight of Entity after Entity falling from the hands of a single being and his Animus Summons being something purely out of fantasy.

The face of the Primal Emperor remained cold and wrathful, nobody being able to understand the thoughts coursing through his mind as he pushed his body further and knocked away the vibrantly shining figure of a winged Noah that swirled with the essence of all laws!

WAA!

Every attack or skill coming from the shining being in front of him felt like a hammer of death smashing towards him, the damage they dealt being inconceivable.

The +10,000% All Damage increase from the Ruination Core was something overpowered as it felt like a train smashing into the body of a defenseless being every time!

With his body bleeding profusely on all sides, the Primal Emperor kept his cold gaze as his remaining wings shimmered, streaking towards Noah once more as he attacked.

Throughout all this time, he never uttered any words of weakness or called for the battle to stop while claiming misunderstanding like others in a deadly situation like this would do.

The remaining Aileron Entities looked at this scene in despair as they finally came to the conclusion that no matter what happened today, the Primal Emperor would not stand down!

Some felt emotional as they fought faster, while some had looks of hesitation as they felt like their lives could be taken at any second from the ridiculously powerful pets that seemed to have boundless strength.

The remaining Entity facing the the Oculothorax and Obsidian Panther could not hold on any longer as he evaded the rays of [Eye of Doom], his expression ashen as he called out!

"I surrender!"

THRUUUM!

The cry wasn't particularly loud, but it reverberated throughout the Illusory Unbreakable Realm and the surrounding chaotic void.

"..."

Those that had it had somber expressions as they could understand the reason why!

The Aileron Entities hearing it were angered as they looked towards their struggling brethren with faces of betrayal, but the being's pitiful cry only rang out again, this time with more determination.

"I surrender!"

Ah...

Many shook their heads at this scene as the shockingly golden and white winged eye that was the Oculothorax stopped in front of the Entity in his last seconds of life.

Off in the distance where Noah continued to clash with the Primal Emperor, his bright and oppressive voice resounded out for all to hear.

"Surrender is not an option that I can offer."

RUMBLE!

With his body flashing with innumerable lights from the essence of all laws and dao essence, Noah looked like a cruel archaic being as his bright eyes brought down judgment.

"I shall offer you all salvation...as my loot!"

...!!!

Chapter 829 - Emperorslayer! I

The plea of surrender was heard from the distraught Entity...and it was ignored!

THRUUM!

The body of the Oculothorax erupted with another golden ray of [Eye of Doom], this ray shining the fearful and shameful expression on the Entity calling for surrender, his face being burned into the eyes of many of those watching as it was illuminated brightly before the golden ray smashed into him.

BOOOM...CRACK!

Body and soul were shattered as another Entity faced their death!

"..."

Dense silence descended in the chaotic void as the only sounds heard were the crackling of resplendent skills cast from the relentless animus summons and the bubbling body of Noah.

The Primal Emperor remained steadfast as his eyes had become extremely calm in the midst of this unbelievable situation.

His wrath and anger were abated as even with fewer and fewer Entities remaining beside him, he still moved towards Noah with his utmost power!

He didn't call upon the other Entities to lend him, nor the less than 30 remaining Peak Tier GALAXY Ailerons that were fearfully trying to evade shocking skills in the dreadful locked battlefield.

He moved by himself as he felt his shoulders heavy, the weight that a Ruler of an Ancient Power had to carry being felt with clarity by him at this very moment!

He knew very well what was happening, and who exactly had brought it to the stage that it was at right now.

THRUUUM!

Every strike and ability that Noah released caused even more deathly injuries to wreck the body of the Primal Emperor as the other Entities within the Illusory Unbreakable Realm were not too far off the same fate.

His terrifying Animus Summons moved with valor as they relentlessly ground down their enemies, despairing gazes occupying the minds of the Aileron Entities as they one after another...they were all falling!

The Peak Tier GALAXY Ailerons that moved with confidence and power in their Ancient Power were few in number, many of them killed just from the residual energies released from the shocking battle of Entities.

Within the Illusory Unbreakable Realm, the cl.u.s.tering glow of an abundant amount of loot could be seen floating around, cl.u.s.ters of Cores, Skill Books, Dao Crystals, and Assimilation Crystals being seen in some regions!

Noah's eyes scanned all of these things as his eyes focused on the heavily injured body of the Primal Emperor.

It was time.

It was time to bring the Ruler of an Ancient Power to rest.

THRUUUUM!

Those watching felt breathless as they instantly felt that something of immense importance was about to take place!

A flash of multicolored light streaked across the chaotic void.

Two swords shimmering with death and aether vibrated, the sound they released akin to wailful cries that sought death and destruction.

The swords streaked towards the neck of a heavily injured grand Ruler of an Ancient Power that had remained dignified throughout the entire battle!

Not once did he beg for mercy.

Not once did he call off the ongoing battle.

His eyes seemed aged and filled with a mystical light, the Dao of Withering shining even brighter on his body!

At this juncture as he saw the shadow of death, he seemed to have understood something as the Dao in his origin became even more active. As he faced ultimate destruction, the essence of the Dao of Withering bathed his origin and soul as the last thing he was missing to finish assimilating was coming together.

If he had a status panel, he would be able to notice his assimilation in the Lesser Dao of Withering going from 98% to 99% as it was about to touch 100%!

SHIIING!

A flash of light.

A head flew.

SHING! SHING! SHING!

The Tyrannical Entity was relentless as the swords flashed incessantly at the head that flew out, cutting it into innumerable pieces.

SHIIING!

The blades then aimed at the heart of the Ruler's body as it was ruptured and decimated, shining brightly as they went on to sever the body on all sides.

"..."

Noah stood with cold eyes as he was about to continue attacking, but stopped the moment he saw the eruption of loot occur.

RUMBLE!

Essence crackled wildly around his body as even with the battle against the Primal Emperor finished, his aura only continued to rise ever higher!

In the past few seconds, his heart had shaken as he felt a shocking aura about to bloom from the body of the Primal Emperor.

He wasn't the only one, the many other Entities watching from afar also saw the same scene as they gaped in shock, realizing they would very soon see a being take the first step towards becoming a Sage!

To be considered a Sage, one had to have 2 or more Daos fully comprehended and assimilated. For a Great Sage, they had to have advanced past the GALAXY Realm while also comprehending and assimilating a Grand Dao or multiple Lesser Daos.

This Ruler of the Primal Winged Expanse...was just about to step on this path as he became among the few that had assimilated an entire dao, needing to do the same to one more before he was titled a Sage!

Yet...

Before the shocking aura could bloom, it was cut off.

Sighs of regret rang throughout the chaotic void.

His body glimmered with intense light as the essence around his body bellowed out in waves, his two swords dripping with blood as he stared at the chunks of meat that were the Primal Emperor!

He gave a nod of respect that only made those watching look at him incredulously, but it affirmed the reality of what they were seeing.

On this day, the Ruler of an Ancient Power in the Dark Universe had fallen!

Not to an army or an assassination from another powerful Ancient Power, but to a single man that wasn't known until just a few weeks ago!

Chapter 830 - Emperorslayer! II

The Entity Traverser had crossed the vast gulf of distance from where he was as he sped towards the two Ancient Powers currently embroiled in the war.

It had taken a significant amount of time for him to get there, his eyes sensing the grand light of powerful skills being cast by multiple Entities as he made his way towards the border of the Primal Winged Expanse where a shocking fight was taking place!

He arrived minutes before the end of the battle, he arrived just in time to see a being assimilate a Dao...and then watched in shock as this being became mincemeat seconds later.

But the more shocking thing that made his heart shake was the archaic looking being that killed a possible future sage...his sight remembering the face that was surrounded by intense light as the same one that had escaped from him weeks ago!

The same being he was chasing, the being that had the physique that could wield Ruination Cores and ultimately...the Cosmic Treasure known as Ruination!

"This..."

His heart thumped in excitement and in shock as he recalled this being was merely in the Quasar Realm when he laid his eyes on him before he and the entire Galaxy he was in suddenly disappeared.

Yet this being had pierced into the rank of Peak Tier GALAXY a few weeks later, and now even held the power of an Entity as he just dispatched a Ruler of an Ancient Power!

"..."

Traverser was deep in thought as he wondered...was the being with the physique receptive to Ruination Cores supposed to be this ridiculous?

Many thoughts were crossing through his mind as first and foremost, he wanted to talk with this special person!

Yet he knew this thought might be hard to bring to fruition when he spread out his senses and felt the many hidden auras in the chaotic void surrounding the Illusory Unbreakable Realm...

Inside the locked Realm that had just a few minutes remaining before it would break, occasional yells and death wails could be heard as Aileron Royals became empty body husks or had their origins ruptured.

Noah's expanded senses were able to catch many eyes from multiple directions staring towards him, but his gaze remained placid as his focus stayed within the Illusory Unbreakable Realm. His eyes remained without an ounce of emotion as he turned his face to the few remaining Ailerons within the Illusory Unbreakable Realm.

The remaining Entities were on their last breaths of life after the death of the Primal Emperor, their hearts in deep pain as they joined the rest of their brethren in the next few seconds!

The 100 Peak Tier GALAXY Ailerons...were reduced to 0 even though they had not even been at the focus of the battle- just the stray attacks from the Entities shattering their bodies and souls.

Noah did not even have to lend his help after he took down the Primal Emperor, his Summons being proficient enough to wipe out all remaining Entities thereafter!

In the region of the chaotic void, deafening silence pervaded as when one looked into the Illusory Unbreakable Realm, they found not a single Aileron alive.

The void of space was painted with a tinge of red as the focus of many eyes remained on the luminous figure supported by the multicolored lights of many laws.

They watched as he flew slowly in the locked space, going towards glistening cl.u.s.ter.s of light that were Cores, Dao Crystals, and Assimilation Crystals.

They were swiped away in seconds as the calmness in the locked Realm remained.

Not a single soul moved as the shimmering figures of Noah and his pets took the spot light!

This action by itself was extremely shocking, and the one carrying it out was given an unspeakable title that nobody had held in the last tens of thousands of years.

"Emperorslayer..."

It began as an uttering among the hidden figures, but this uttering was as loud as a strike of thunder as it traveled through the chaotic void and entered the ears of many!

Emperorslayer!

THRUUM!

Essence erupted out as at this moment, the barrier that kept the Illusory Unbreakable Realm together trembled and shattered.

The 1 hour timer had passed as those within could come out, and those outside...could reach the beings that were within!

Noah's eyes remained cold and fearless as he looked to the blank chaotic void around him, not making a single move.

SHAA! SHAA!

The grand figure of the Holy Emperor who held a difficult expression appeared, backed by Old Man Khan and 5 other Entities from the Expansive Dragon Cl.u.s.ter!

As this Ruler of an Ancient Power looked at the being that had just become an Emperorslayer, the thoughts swirling in his head were too many!

Old Man Khan by the side still had an expression of disbelief as even while he watched the whole battle and how everything went down, he still couldn't believe this was the same being that wasn't even in the GALAXY Realm when he first met him weeks ago.

Yet he was somehow an Entity that could dispatch an Emperor of an Ancient Power that was about to fully assimilate a Lesser Dao!

"Truly tyrannical..."

This was the only thing Old Man Khan could say as he sighed while he, the Holy Emperor, and other Entities stood in front of Noah while looking out to the expanse of chaotic void before them.

They knew that multiple powerful figures from all corners of the Dark Universe were watching and observing nearby.

They saw how Noah had just spent a whole hour fighting with 26 Entities and taking all of them down, and knew he wouldn't be in any state to match even more fearsome Entities if those watching in the dark attacked!

Thus, the Holy Emperor and the Entities he had nearby all came towards Noah as they planned to put their lives on the line to defend this Tyrannical being that should be exhausted by this point!
