A Man Like None Other Chapter 1986

A Man Like None Other Novel

"One of our members was attacked and killed in an alley shortly after leaving the building! The killer is still at large!" Godrick repeated himself. The look on Kai's face was incredibly gloomy and tense. "Wait for me..."

He then tossed aside the cards in his hand and ran out of the room. None of the girls dared make a sound as they could clearly sense the murderous aura coming from Kai.

"Should we go have a look as well, Cecilia?" Lizbeth asked. Cecilia was the most senior member of the group, so the girls all listened to her. "No. We should refrain from causing Kai any more problems."

Cecilia knew that they would only get in the way and worsen things if they went with Kai. After rushing over to Deragon Sect as quickly as he could, Kai made his way into the room where the dead member's body was placed. The look on Kai's face grew solemn as he knelt down and investigated the wound in detail. "Do you know who did this, Kai?"

Godrick and the others had no idea who would attack Deragon Sect, which was the largest sect in Jadeborough now. It was so huge that it had even taken over Warriors Alliance.

Besides, given Kai's reputation, no one in their right mind would dare oppose him anyway. Kai knew right away that it was Kazuo's doing, but he chose not to tell them as he didn't want to create mass panic.

Instead, he ordered Godrick, "Tell all members of Deragon Sect to not go out alone at night!" "Got it!" Godrick nodded and went off to inform the rest of the sect.

Kai then headed out onto the streets and wandered around aimlessly to see if he could draw Kazuo out. He even deliberately unleashed his aura so that Kazuo would pick it up and come after him.

However, an hour soon went by with no sign of Kazuo anywhere. Kazuo is likely still being pursued here in Jadeborough, so he probably wouldn't dare remain in the city for too long. In that case, I shall head over to the countryside and expand the range of my aura by a few miles!

Moments after doing that, Kai noticed a powerful aura headed in his direction. Sure enough, that aura belonged to Kazuo. It was his way of letting Kai know he was coming for him. Kai then stopped in his tracks and patiently waited for Kazuo's arrival.

It wasn't long before Kazuo showed up in front of him. "Were you waiting here for me, Kai?" he asked with a sneer when he saw Kai calmly standing there. Kai nodded at Kazuo, who looked like a complete mess, as he replied, "Yeah, I was waiting to kill you."

Kazuo burst out laughing. "You? Kill me? You were lucky to get away last time, but that's not going to happen again! You must've brought help with you, huh? There's no way you'd be so confident facing me on your own!"

As Kazuo glanced about their surroundings, Kai said coldly, "I came here alone, so don't bother looking. I don't need help to kill someone like you."

"You will pay for your arrogance, you insolent b*stard!" Kazuo shouted angrily as he channeled his aura and enveloped Kai with it. "We should go somewhere farther away. Wouldn't want to injure the innocent civilians."

As they were just outside of the city, Kai was worried that their fight would affect the civilians. "Hmph! My goal is to kill you, so why would I care about anything else?" Kazuo snapped at Kai as he lunged forward and swung a fist at him..

He was holding nothing back as he punched at Kai with all of his might. Kai quickly activated Golem Body and covered his body with a golden shield of light.

Clang! A deafening clang rang out as Kazuo's fist clashed with Kai's body, but his punch did no damage whatsoever. The ten-thousand-year-old tuber fleeceflower and the boost from Demon Sect had made Kai incredibly tough.

"Why do you Jetroinians love sneak attacks so much? Are you guys afraid that you can't beat me in a fair fight?" Kai asked nonchalantly as he slowly turned around and shot Kazuo a disdainful look.

Kazuo's eyes filled with anger and disbelief when he heard that. As Kai was about to take a step forward, Kazuo drew his katana and swung it in Kai's direction. The blade emanated a razor-sharp energy wave that went flying toward Kai.

Kai calmly stared the incoming attack down as he clenched his fist and punched at it. Despite how ordinary his punch looked, it packed a terrifying destructive power behind it.

Boom! A deafening boom tore through the land, stirring up a mini dust storm with its shockwave. The impact shook the ground beneath them and scared the nearby residents out of their buildings.

That was the reason Kai had wanted to take their fight elsewhere. Given the huge amount of residential areas nearby, their fight was bound to affect the people there.

Kazuo was shocked speechless when he saw Kai instantly shatter his energy wave attack with a seemingly normal punch. Kai, on the other hand, looked perfectly calm as he already knew what would happen.

"I can't believe you've gotten so much stronger in such a short amount of time, Kai..." Kazuo muttered through clenched teeth. "If you want to kill me, then you'll have to give it everything you've got!" Kai replied coldly.

Kazuo's expression slid into a frown as he realized he had underestimated Kai's strength. "Don't get too cocky just yet, Kai!" he yelled as he launched himself at Kai while swinging his katana. As though it was charging up a terrifyingly devastating attack, the blade was glowing brightly as it cut through the air with a loud swoosh.

Swoosh! "Hundred Slash Attack!" Kazuo roared as he unleashed a blindingly bright light from his katana. Countless sword shadows went flying toward Kai in an instant.

The sword shadows packed so much power that they produced deafening sonic booms and distorted the space around them as they sailed through the air. Kazuo was really determined to cut Kai into pieces.

Clang! Clang! Clang! Kai simply stood there and took all the blows. with his Golem Body. Eventually, Golem Body began to break as its scales slowly fell off and disappeared.

Even so, Kai continued to receive all of Kazuo's blows with his toughened body. "Ha!" Kai yelled all of a sudden, causing his body to exude a golden glow that lit up the area around him like the sun. Kazuo's katana emitted a loud rumbling noise as the sword shadows continued to hit Kai in rapid succession.

Although Kai was able to withstand the Hundred Slash Attack, the same could not be said about the ground beneath his feet. Cracks began forming and spreading with each hit that he took.

Boom! A golden ball of light came out of Kai's body and destroyed all the sword shadows around him, but it also created a crater beneath him that was several meters deep. Kazuo quickly jumped backward when he felt the terrifying destructive force behind that attack.

A faint smile formed on his lips as the dust cleared up a little. "Taking my Hundred Slash Attack head-on without fighting back, huh? You sure are an insolent one! I'm afraid such insolence comes with a price, though!" Kazuo said as he made his way through the dust cloud, only to realize that Kai was no longer standing in the crater.

"Huh? Where did he go?" Kazuo mumbled with a confused frown. "Are you looking for me?" Kai's voice came from above him all of a sudden.

As Kazuo looked up, he saw that Kai's body was completely unharmed even though his shirt had been torn to shreds. He looked majestic with his body exuding a golden glow. "What the... How could this be?"

Kazuo could not believe what he was seeing. "Nothing is impossible. You're nothing but an insignificant bug to me. I could squish you with a finger if I so much as wanted to. Did you really think you would be able to kill me?" Kai asked coldly with a sneer.

"Oh, just you wait, Kai! I'll teach you a lesson for running that mouth of yours!" Kazuo screamed at the top of his lungs in frustration as he raised his katana high into the air and charged it with martial energy.

The katana buzzed loudly as a terrifying energy came surging out of its blade. "Die!" Kazuo roared as he unleashed a blindingly bright attack with it. It was as though someone had compressed the sun into an energy wave and fired it as a projectile.

Boom! With one swing of his katana, Kazuo sent that energy wave flying toward Kai, who was still in the air. He looked tiny and weak in comparison when faced with such an overwhelming attack..

Even so, he simply continued levitating in that same spot without even trying to block or dodge it. As the energy wave closed in on Kai, he held his arms out as though he was welcoming it.

The energy wave produced a ton of sparks as it collided against the golden light around Kai's body, making it look like a fireworks display from afar.

As the seconds went by, the energy wave from Kazuo started getting shorter and shorter. Eventually, it disappeared completely, while Kai remained perfectly fine.

Just like that, Kai had completely dispelled Kazuo's attack with the sheer toughness of his body alone. "W-What..."

Kazuo swallowed nervously in shock and disbelief. I'm a freaking Greater Martial Arts Marquis who will soon become a Martial Arts Saint! How are my attacks so weak against Kai? C-Could it be that he has already become a Martial Arts Saint at such a young age?

"Is that all you've got? If so, then it's about time I sent you back home!" Kai said coldly. "Aaaargh!" Kazuo screamed like a madman as he launched energy waves at Kai again and again.

Clang! Clang! Clang! However, all of his attacks were blocked by the golden light around Kai's body, so they did no damage to him whatsoever. It wasn't long before Kazuo was drenched in sweat and panting heavily.

"I'm surprised someone as weak as you had the audacity to come after my life!" Kai said nonchalantly as he descended from the sky. Kazuo gripped his katana with both hands, clenched his teeth, and glared at Kai when he saw him coming.

Boom! Kai swung his fist with so much force that it created a sonic boom in the air as it came crashing down upon Kazuo. Kazuo instinctively tried to block it with his katana, only to have his weapon break in half upon contact with Kai's fist.

Kazuo's face clouded over as he stared at his broken katana. "You... How dare you break my katana? This is a royal item!" he yelled furiously. "Hmph! So much for it being a royal item! It's nothing compared to my sword!" Kai replied as he summoned Dragonslayer Sword.

The sword emitted a faint gray glow and continuously produced a dragon's roar. Upon the appearance of Dragonslayer Sword, Kazuo felt immense pressure and involuntarily staggered a few steps back.

Disregarding the pressure Kai brought to Kazuo, just Dragonslayer Sword alone was already enough to make him tremble with fear. If Kai had taken out Dragonslayer Sword from the beginning, Kazuo probably wouldn't have fought and would have run away immediately.

He hadn't expected that in such a short time, and Kai's strength had grown so much that even his weapon had become more powerful.

Panic flashed in Kazuo's eyes as he said to Kai, "Kai, I was forced to try to kill you by the Watanabe family. If I didn't do it, they wouldn't have let me off the hook."

Kazuo was trying to gain sympathy, fearing that Kai would kill him. "Are you scared?" Kai smirked. "Don't you Jetroinians hate failure the most? Once you fail, you'll have to disembowel yourself out of shame."

"No, no, not every Jetroinian would do that. I hope you can spare me, and that will also guarantee your safety. If you kill me, the Watanabe family will continue to send people after you, and you'll never have peace. Think about it. If you let me go, I won't return to Jetroina, but I'll convey to the Watanabe family that I'm pursuing you. As long as I'm alive, they won't send anyone else," Kazuo pleaded.

In a desperate attempt to save his own life, Kazuo analyzed the situation for Kai. "If I kill you, the Watanabe family will likely not send someone else," Kai slowly said. "Why?"

Kazuo was taken aback. "Because after killing you, I'll destroy the Watanabe family, so they'll never have a chance to send anyone else to kill me again."

Kai had long planned that after killing Kazuo, he would go to Jetroina and eradicate the Watanabe family completely. He couldn't leave such a hidden danger, nor could he let those at the Law Enforcement Department die in vain for his sake.

"Kai, you dare to go to Jetroina to destroy the Watanabe family? Do you know how powerful they are? And even if you go to Jetroina, how are you so sure you can find them? Can you enter the Watanabe family's territory? If you plan to barge in, I bet you won't make it out of Jetroina alive. Even if you have the strength of a Martial Arts Saint, it's impossible to destroy the Watanabe family and leave unscathed!" Kazuo cried.

Kazuo thought Kai was crazy to have such an idea. Kai's eyebrows furrowed slightly as he also knew what Kazuo said was true. Kai was unfamiliar with everything in Jetroina, How would he find the Watanabe family? And even if he did, how could he get close to them? Even if he destroyed the Watanabe family, how could he escape unscathed?

These were all questions Kai had yet to address. Seeing Kai's furrowed brows, Kazuo hurriedly continued, "Kai, as long as you don't kill me, I can help you. I'm willing to take you to Jetroina. In fact, I've long been fed up with the Watanabe family's arrogance. Now even the imperial power can hardly control them. They've become too full of themselves!"

Kazuo was desperately trying to persuade Kai to spare his life, showing just how terrified he was of death. Kai looked at Kazuo's nervous expression and casually took out a pill from his pocket and handed it to him.

"This is a Heartburn Pill. If you take it, I won't kill you, but you'll have to listen to me, as I'm the only one with the antidote. Otherwise, you'll die in extreme pain." Kai spoke slowly, then observed the changes in Kazuo's expression. Kazuo didn't hesitate to take the pill and swallow it immediately. At this point, as long as he could survive, he'd be content.

Seeing Kazuo swallow the pill, Kai smiled faintly. "All right, you can go. But remember, you must take the antidote within three days. I'll go to Jetroina during these three days, and I believe you'll be able to find me."

"Okay, okay..." Kazuo nodded repeatedly, then turned and ran.

Kai returned to Deragon Sect, feeling a surging energy within his body. He was surprised to find that the recent battle with Kazuo had given him a sense of impending breakthrough.

Although a ten-thousand-year-old tuber fleecflower had only allowed Kai to advance to an Eighth Level Greater Martial Arts Marquis, he was only a step away from attaining Ninth Level Greater Martial Arts Marquis.

After battling Kazuo, Kai could feel a tingling sensation within his body. “Kai, have you found the murderer?” Godrick asked when he saw Kai return.

Kai nodded and said, “Inform everyone that the restrictions have been lifted. I’ve driven away the person. He’s a ronin from Jetroina. Also, take out some of the medicinal herbs stored in Deragon Sect. I need to refine some pills...”

Godrick nodded and hurriedly made the arrangements. Later, Kai also informed Axton to bring extra medicinal herbs when he came to Jadeborough to treat Xavier.

Kai wanted to use these herbs to refine an energy condensing pill and see if he could break through to the Ninth Level Greater Martial Arts Marquis. If he could, he’d have a better chance of success when he went to Jetroina.

After giving instructions, Kai walked out of the room and slowly looked toward the Warriors Alliance. By now, the Warriors Alliance building had already become an office space for Deragon Sect.

“Josephine, where exactly are you?” Kai sighed. Although he knew that Josephine was locked away in a secret realm, where should he look for that secret realm?

Kai had to go to Jetroina to deal with the Watanabe family, so the task of searching for the secret realm was left to Flaxseed and Jessica. Even if Kai were there, he wouldn’t be much help in finding the secret realm of Evil Heart Sect. It would be up to Jessica..

Kai walked toward the two’s room, intending to tell them about his trip to Jetroina. But as he approached the door, he heard Jessica’s moans. Kai’s face turned slightly red, and he had no choice but to wait outside until they finished. Kai smoked a cigarette and waited for half an hour before the room finally quieted down. Flaxseed then said, “Kai, come in...”

Kai pushed the door open and walked in. Jessica’s face was flushed, and she quickly poured a cup of water for Kai. “Kai, why are you here this late to eavesdrop on me instead of sleeping? You have so many women, so just pick one to sleep with you,” Flaxseed said teasingly with a playful expression.

“You knew I was outside, and yet you still took so long. I came to see you for a reason! I need to go to Jetroina for a few days to deal with some personal matters, so I’ll need you and Ms. Zimmerman to search for the secret realm of Evil Heart Sect,” Kai said seriously.

“You’re going to Jetroina? What for? To shoot a movie?” Flaxseed joked. “I’m not kidding with you. I’m really going to Jetroina!” Kai then recounted the events involving the Law Enforcement Department and Kazuo that had occurred that day to Flaxseed.

Upon hearing this, Flaxseed immediately dropped his smile. Gritting his teeth, he said, “Damn, these Jetroinian ronins are relentless. But going to Jetroina alone is too dangerous for you, and the Watanabe family is not as weak as you imagine. You can’t possibly destroy their entire family by yourself! I’ll accompany you. I have friends in Jetroina who can help us once we’re there.” Kai shook his head. “No need. You’ll be searching for the secret realm of Evil Heart Sect with Ms. Zimmerman. I hope that when I return, you’ll have succeeded in finding it.”

“I’m afraid you won’t make it back. I’ll go with you instead. Jessica can handle the search for the secret realm herself. The entrance must be near the Warriors Alliance, so it shouldn’t be too hard to find.”

Flaxseed insisted on going with Kai out of concern for his safety. “Mr. Chance, please let Mr. Flaxseed accompany you. You’ll be alone and unfamiliar with the place, and there will indeed be many dangers. I can handle the search for the secret realm myself. As long as the entrance is nearby, I can sense it.” Jessica said to Kai.
