

The Mans Decree Chapter 3025

I am going to kill you!” the old demon thundered. This time, it was the old demon’s turn to attack. With a swift motion, he grabbed at thin air and managed to grip Kai’s neck.

The sight of Kai in his captivity brought a smug smile to his face. “It’s time I put an end to your arrogance, kid.”

With a vicious expression, he clenched his fist, and cracking sounds were soon heard coming from Kai’s neck.

“My brother, I don’t want to talk to the kid. Come out and face me. Both of us should say a final goodbye. All I need is to gently tighten my squeeze, and both of you will disappear from this world,” the old demon called out to the elder.

He couldn’t understand why his own brother was willing to hand over control to a mere Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator.

Right then, Kai’s eyes twitched as a different kind of aura gushed out of him. He then began to speak with the elder’s voice. “You b*stard, I have nothing to say to you.”

“My brother, why don’t you admit your mistake already? Even if both of us are reduced to nothing but soul remnants, you’re still no match for me. I’m sure you understand by now that only demonic techniques can save the Archaic Body cultivators, don’t you? If we don’t give up the techniques of Archaic Body Cultivation, we will be left behind in Ethereal Realm sooner or later, and the Archaic Body cultivators will cease to exist. Even if you’re angry right now, you still can’t kill me. Instead, you’ll die at my hands.”

While gloating, the old demon continued to squeeze Kai’s neck until the latter’s face was swollen red. It was undeniable that Kai was in pain and couldn’t struggle free.

“My brother, you should beg for your life now, and perhaps I’ll spare you. Even if I do, you’re no more than a soul remnant that won’t live more than a hundred years.”

The old demon seemed to relish in schadenfreude as he demanded that the elder beg for his life. Unfortunately, the elder didn’t respond.

“In your dreams, you old fogey. Do you really think you can kill me this way?”

Kai flashed a mischievous look at the old demon.

“What did you say?” The old demon was stunned by the look on Kai’s face.
“How can you still survive at this stage? Do you think those insects can save you?”

The old demon turned his head toward the group of watching cultivators, thinking that they were the source of his confidence.

“I don’t need anyone to save me.”

Kai flashed a faint smile. During the exchange between the old demon and Kai, Sunny and the others sprang to action.

When they saw that Kai was grabbed by the throat and couldn’t escape, they planned to fight and rescue him.

By drawing the old demon’s attention away, they hoped that they could give Kai a chance to escape.

“Attack!” Cameron roared before leading the charge with his sword. With the others following him from behind, none of them were hoping to kill the old demon. All they were trying to do was create a window for Kai to escape.

Soon, a few figures flew out of the black mist, firing piercing lights at the old demon from their swords.

With an icy look in his eyes, the old demon grabbed at thin air, contorting the space around the lights and shattering them into pieces.

Spurt! Nonetheless, the old demon didn’t expect one of the transparent lights to fly past him. Despite his attempt to dodge it, it still cut his arm, causing a wound to open up and blood to ooze out from it.

“Spirit Divider? How dare you!”

The old demon’s face darkened, for he didn’t expect his enemies to know Spirit Divider. It was, after all, a dangerous technique. If one’s primordial spirit couldn’t return to one’s body in time, one would be done for.

The Mans Decree Chapter 3026

Moreover, the old demon was also shocked that a lowly Body Fusion Realm cultivator knew Spirit Divider, too. After Cameron's primordial spirit returned to his body from his use of Spirit Divider, he desperately gasped for air while his face lost all color.

Spirit Divider was a secret technique of the Nesser family, but he had no choice but to unveil it then. Unfortunately, the old demon was just too strong. Even with Spirit Divider, Cameron was only able to cut the former and failed to rescue Kai.

"Die!" The old demon was outraged that a lowly Body Fusion Realm cultivator had managed to wound him. Raising his hand, he fired off a raging black mist in Cameron's direction. Given how weak Cameron was at that moment, the attack was enough to annihilate him.

"Now!"

Meanwhile, Sunny and the others unleashed their aura to shield Cameron within it. They intended to use their combined powers to resist the old demon's attack.

Boom! The moment the attack struck Cameron, he spewed a mouthful of blood and felt as if he was about to be crushed.

Right when Cameron was on the brink of collapse, and the others couldn't resist any longer, a green glow suddenly encapsulated Cameron within it.

The green light exuded a harmonious aura and shielded Cameron from the black mist's attacks. In spite of that, Cameron was still thrown back and suffered grievous injuries. Brows slightly furrowed, the old demon fired.

out another barrage of black mists. Amidst the thunderous rumble, the black mists were pushed back upon impact on the green glow.

However, Cameron was still repeatedly thrown backward by the shockwaves until he finally crashed into the ruins of the palace.

"The light of a green dragon? Where did it come from?" The old demon was shocked and couldn't fathom the sudden appearance of the radiant green light.

Everyone else was equally puzzled, as they had no idea who had come to their rescue. Nevertheless, Cameron was still alive, albeit heavily injured, while saving Kai was now impossible.

“No one is coming to save you, kid. Let’s see if you can keep up that snarky attitude of yours once I break your neck.”

Worried that dragging out the matter would have unpredictable consequences, the old demon decided to kill Kai first.

The sudden appearance of the green glow had triggered a sense of dread within him. “I told you. You can’t kill me, yet you refuse to believe it,” Kai reiterated with a faint grin.

“No way that’s true.” With a curl of his lips, the old demon snapped. Kai’s neck forcefully. The sight of Kai’s lifeless body elicited hearty laughter from him.

Having witnessed the scene, Cloud and Kaison were filled with sorrow and anger, while the rest of the cultivators were overwhelmed with despair.

Now that Kai was dead, they knew they would be joining him soon. However, Kai slowly walked out of the huge crater that he crashed into earlier.

“Like I said, you old fogey. You can’t kill me.” Kai stared at the old demon with a smirk. His sudden appearance astounded everyone.

“How... How is this possible?” Filled with disbelief, the old demon turned to look at the Kai he was holding, which subsequently disappeared.

“Ah... An illusion spell. Don’t tell me this is another one of them?” the old demon roared, assuming that he was trapped in an illusion array.

However, the old demon had an epiphany a short while later and stared daggers at Kai. “This isn’t an illusion spell. It doesn’t feel like it at all.”

“Who told you it was an illusion spell? Can’t it be Clone Technique?” Kai retorted with a smirk. Upon regaining control of his body, Kai activated Nine Shadows and conjured up shadow clones.

With the elder’s support, his shadow clones were indistinguishable from his actual body. They could also last a lot longer than usual.

That was the reason why the old demon failed to hurt Kai with his two palm strikes. Every one of them had landed on a different shadow clone.

The Mans Decree Chapter 3027

“I don’t care if it’s an illusion spell or a shadow clone. I want you dead!” the old demon shouted angrily as his hands reached to grab Kai.

Kai swiftly took out Demon Flogger and whipped the air, eliciting an explosive sound. The old demon was shocked when he spotted the runes on the Demon Flogger.

In the next minute, golden runes began to form on the old demon’s arm and soon spread all over his body in the blink of an eye.

The golden runes resonated with the runes on the Demon Flogger as though they were one and the same. The old demon was stunned as the golden runes began to cinch around him, restricting his movement like a shackle.

“What is this? When did you put these runes on my body?”

He turned to Kai with a look of surprise. Despite keeping his guard up the entire time, he never noticed anything wrong with his body. When did Kai place these restrictive golden runes on me?

“When you grabbed onto me. Did you think you could catch me so easily? It was on purpose, you idiot. You even thought you could crush me with ease. Now, you realize my powers,” Kai taunted with a look of disdain.

“Argh! You cheat!” The old demon roared as anger surged through him. He had been on guard against Kai’s illusion spell, so he never expected to fall for Kai’s trap, even when Kai did not use his illusion spell.

Kai’s body began to glow after swinging his leg and kicking the old demon into the air. An aura shone as brightly as the stars flowed from Kai’s body. “Nascence power!” the old demon uttered in shock as he watched the aura being exuded from Kai’s body.

How can a weak Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator have nascence power? Just being able to perceive nascence space is already considered a genius, yet Kai actually has nascence power within him... This is outrageous! It’s inconceivable!

“Brother, you thought you’ve taken everything into account, but you didn’t expect my successor to possess this kind of power.”

The elder couldn’t help but laugh. Til tell you one more thing. The nascence space inside his body is the stars of the galaxy. That’s why you can sense the aura of the stars. The student surpasses the master. I advise you to surrender your soul remnant without a fight and don’t even think about conquering the Archaic Body cultivators and the Ethereal Realm. We’ve aged and can’t keep up with the times anymore.”

The elder advised his younger brother sincerely. Even in their generation, they couldn’t find a genius who possessed such an insanely tough body, a galaxy star-like nascence space, and comprehended a few nascence powers as only a Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator.

“I won’t give up. Never! Why doesn’t any of you scumbags fight me in a fair fight? But instead, resort to such an underhanded method? If you have the Demon Flogger, why don’t you use it early on in the fight? You guys are no angels. yourself!” the old demon screamed with rage.

“It’s up to me to take it out whenever I want. It’s none of your business! Since you refuse to surrender, don’t blame me, then.”

With a roar, Kai swung the Demon Flogger. The runes on the Demon Flogger surged like fast-flowing rapids, swiftly rushing into the golden runes that covered the old demon’s body. Golden glows flickered as they restrained the old demon.

“I won’t be restrained so easily,” the old demon yelled when feeling the restriction tightened across his body. As he let out a furious roar, the dark fog began to flow toward him from every direction.

The Mans Decree Chapter 3028

Slowly, the dark fog started to condense. One after another, giant monsters in every shape rushed out from the dark fog, charging. toward the old demon as though eager to aid him to escape.

Kai’s lips curved into a sneer at the scene. His hand, holding the Demon Flogger, suddenly. burst into flame. The flame consumed the Demon Flogger, lighting it brightly. At the same time, the runes on the old demon’s body also burst into flames.

The demon beast, which morphed from the dark fog, shrieked in pain when they felt the lick of the flames. Their bodies dispersed and returned to the dark blanket of fog.

The old demon continued to struggle, but it was in vain. The Demon Flogger's powers, coincidentally restricted his technique.

As the Demon Flogger swung, every type of spiritual energy and nascence power in his body flowed out of him as though being drained. At long last, the old demon's struggle ended as if he had given up. Seeing the old demon finally stop struggling. Kai let out a breath of relief.

"We succeeded..."

Joy filled Kai. Delight filled the rest when they witnessed the defeat of the demon, knowing they had survived from the brink of death. Meanwhile, the Five Slayers' expressions darkened.

They wanted to flee but were too scared to move. Since even the old demon was defeated, they knew they would not have the chance to escape.

The old demon watched the gleeful expression on Kai's face and snorted. "It's still too early for you to celebrate. Even if I'm being restrained now and don't have the power to retaliate, you still can't kill me."

"I don't believe that. With the Demon Flogger in hand, I'm sure I can kill you."

Kai swung the Demon Flogger, whipping the old demon. "Weren't you undefeatable a while ago? Now, do you finally realize my prowess?"

Kai swung the flogger, landing whip after whip on the old demon's body. Power laced his every stroke. Ferocity marred the old demon's face. Even though he looked in pain, he did not die even after sustaining so much flogging.

Kai's breathing turned ragged from the exertion. The spiritual energy he replenished, earlier had been exhausted.

"You can stop now. You won't kill him this way. Let me," Eamon, the elder of Archaic Body cultivators, said. Kai released the control of his body to him and merely stood there quietly, unmoving, as though pondering something.

“Since you possess numerous magecrafts, I’ll choose one and show you. Remember to watch my every move. It might be of help to you,” the elder reminded Kai.

He stretched his arms over his head with palms facing the sky as if lifting something. Suddenly, a massive hand appeared in mid air. Lightning bolts flashed, and thunders rumbled in the middle of the gigantic palm.

“Thunder Palm!”

With a roar, the gigantic palm began to descend toward them. It was Kai’s first time unleashing Thunder Palm after comprehending lightning nascence. Thunder Palm would surely be more lethal with the boost of lightning nascence.

Moreover, the elder was the one who unleashed Thunder Palm personally while Kai silently observed from the side.

Boom! The loud rumble of thunders sounded as though the world was about to crack open. The palm continued to descend toward them. Even the void began to distort from the immense pressure.

Everyone stared dazedly at the enormous hand drawing closer from the sky. In their eyes, it was a technique immortals used.

As the palm crept closer, numerous lightning clashed. Each time one struck the ground, an abyss would form in the earth.

The old demon suffered intensified pain when more lightning nascence struck him. Kai studied everything closely, unwilling to miss even the smallest detail.

He knew it was probably the last time he could learn directly from someone in his lifetime.

The Mans Decree Chapter 3029

The palm continued absorbing lightning energy as it descended and became smaller. Soon, the lightning charge was condensed into a single point!

Finally, Thunder Palm shrunk into the size of a human palm as it landed above the old demon’s head. With the lightning energy gathered centrally. within the palm, a blinding streak of lightning. appeared as he was struck.

It was not the force of the strike that was terrifying, but rather the power of the lighting energy that was unleashed.

“Ahhh!” The old demon let out an agonizing scream the moment he was hit by the palm as excruciating pain swept over him. A pitch-black hole appeared in the old demon’s chest as Thunder Palm gradually disappeared.

Given that the old demon was a soul remnant without a physical form, it would have taken him no time to recover under normal circumstances. However, it was impossible for him to make a recovery from the damage caused by Thunder Palm!

The old demon’s eyes were filled with disbelief as he stared at the dark hole in the middle of his chest.

He knew that his older brother was not the one who activated Thunder Palm, but it hardly made sense to him that Kai, a low-level cultivator at the Body Fusion Realm, had mastered such a technique!

He was simply overwhelmed with shock! Only then did the old demon realize that he had gravely underestimated Kai, who had managed to shock him time after time.

“I guess that’s probably the end of the old jerk?” Kai fixed his gaze on the old demon, feeling quite certain that the old demon was finally meeting his demise!

“Not yet. That’s still not enough to kill him.”

After the elder finished speaking, he grabbed the old demon and lifted him off the ground. “Brother, do you really have to annihilate me?” the old demon asked the elder while looking at Kai.

At that moment, his face was scrunched up, and his expression was extremely grim. With the hole in front of his chest and the rest of his body covered in injuries, the old demon was panting effortfully. As such, he was no longer speaking in an insolent tone.

He was even hoping that the elder would let him off on account of familial ties. “It’s impossible for me to depart as long as your presence remains. Let’s leave together.”

Brotherly ties no longer meant anything to the elder. All he wished for was to perish together with the old demon!

“How can you guys be so despicable? What’s your true identity? How did you manage to have so many shadow clones? It’s just not possible that a Body Fusion Realm cultivator at your level would be able to do that!”

The old demon was reluctant to believe that Kai, a Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator, could produce shadow clones. It was completely incomprehensible to him, as even at his peak, he was not able to create that many shadow clones.

“Since you are so curious, I shall show it to you...” The elder spoke slowly before saying to Kai, “You should watch closely, too. It would be a waste if you only managed to learn the basics of a top-level sword technique like this.”

After he finished speaking, the elder took control of Kai’s body and picked up the Dragonslayer Sword! The next moment, bright golden rays shone from the sword.

“Nine Shadows, the final attack...” the elder shouted. With that, the light from the sword shone even brighter, blinding everyone’s eyes. Holding the sword, Kai moved his hand downward, and instantly, a crack appeared in the void!

The next moment, numerous shadow clones of Kai emerged from the crack. All of them were holding the Dragonslayer Sword, looking exactly like the real Kai!

Even their expressions were perfectly replicated.

One!

Two!

Three!

Nine shadow clones lined up behind Kai. In addition to the man’s true form, there were ten identical Kais in total!

Everyone was shocked at the scene that had just unfolded in front of their eyes. None of them had ever witnessed such a sight! “Illusionary realm. I’m sure this is an illusion. You’re using the illusion spell to confuse me...”

There was no way the old demon was going to believe that that was real.

The Mans Decree Chapter 3030

Kai was equally shocked. He did not expect the elder to be able to unleash the ultimate power of Nine Shadows.

“Sir, you’re amazing! I can’t believe you. managed to carry out the ultimate attack of Nine Shadows!” Kai exclaimed in surprise.

However, the elder let out a sigh and replied, “I have yet to master the ultimate move of this sword technique that has been passed down for thousands of years. At its limit, Nine Shadows would not result in any shadow clones.”

Baffled by the elder’s words, Kai asked, “Sir, what do you mean by that?”

“All things return to oneness. If one is able to fully master Nine Shadows, activating the technique would not result in nine shadow clones. Instead, you would receive nine lives...” the elder explained slowly.

Buzz...

Kai was in utter shock after hearing what the elder said and was at a loss for words. He had never imagined that, by mastering Nine Shadows, one would be able to have nine lives! That sounds too good to be true!

Without waiting for Kai to reply, the elder lifted the Dragonslayer Sword in his hand.

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

The other nine Kais followed suit, pointing their swords at the old demon. “Do you really think that we are just illusions?” Kai asked his opponent.

Shock was written all over the old demon’s face. Reeling in disbelief, he could clearly feel the aura emitted from the swords charging toward him!

“What’s going on? What exactly is going on?”

The old demon felt as if he was about to lose his mind! He was unable to fathom how Kai, a Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator, came to possess such an ancient sword technique.

Where on earth did this fella learn all these techniques? The sword beam from the ten swords sent a tingling sensation through the old demon's entire body. Already in a weakened state, it was impossible for him to withstand the incoming attack!

At that moment, he fully regretted not taking Kai seriously right from the start. He had assumed that, even with a strong build, a Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator would not be able to cause him any harm.

However, from the looks of it, not only did Kai have a robust body, but he also possessed a wealth of ancient techniques that were deadly.

"Die!" Kai bellowed, Right after his voice sounded, the ten Dragonslayer Swords arced through the air simultaneously. However, Kai's spiritual energy, nascence aura, and the Power of Dragons were all activated at once!

Even though the nine other shadow clones were exact replicas of Kai, only his true form was able to provide the energy for the attack.

Having to support his nine clones, the man's energy was rapidly decreasing. However, the power unleashed by him was also immense!

Kai could clearly feel his energy draining away from his body as if he had been completely hollowed out. Despite that being the case, he was confident that the attack was enough to exterminate the old demon.

Ten lights cut across the air and sped toward the old demon. The old demon was not about to go down without putting up a fight. As he let out a furious roar, the dark fog started to gather around him, acting as a defensive shield.

However, his efforts were completely futile, as nothing was able to stop the swords from advancing.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

The old demon's eyes widened as the ten lights pierced through his body. He had never expected himself to be defeated by a Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator.

In fact, even Ninth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivators like Typhon were nothing more than mere ants in his eyes, not to mention Kai, a cultivator of a lower level.

However, he was indeed defeated by someone whom he had regarded as an insignificant being! The old demon was hacked into multiple pieces by the ten sword beams, and not a single area of his body was left unscathed..

Instead of reconstructing his flesh, the old demon was currently reduced to a pulp!

The rune that was binding the old demon started to vanish. At the same time, the surrounding dark fog was also swiftly dissipating.

Although no one was speaking, everyone had excited expressions on their faces.
