

The Mans Decree Chapter 3038 -

“Sure. These ants are worthless to me anyway. I’ll set them free now.” The old demon waved his hand, and the entire space began to shake. Gradually, the black fog dispersed.

Just as the elderly man thought his brother wouldn’t break the promise, a shadow came toward him and grabbed the God King Seal.

“Hmph! Do you think I didn’t foresee this?” the elderly man scoffed and retreated rapidly. When Kai saw that, he swung his blade, intending to stop the old demon.

Upon spotting Kai, who was on the verge of collapsing, the old demon sneered, “Pathetic thing, you dare attempt to stop me in that state?”

The old demon waved his hand, shooting a cloud of black energy at Kai. Kai defended himself and was launched back in an instant.

Even if Kai and the elderly man merged forces, he still wouldn’t be able to stand his ground against the old demon. He was weak now, and wanting to stop the old demon was a pipe dream.

The instant Kai was sent flying back, the green dragon’s primordial spirit flew out of his consciousness field. The old demon didn’t notice that, as he was only focusing on Kai and the elderly man.

“Cease your pointless resistance! Hand over the God King Seal, and I will grant you two swift deaths!” sneered the old demon.

“You’re too careless, brother. Your arrogance will be your downfall!” The elderly man spoke calmly upon spotting the green dragon’s primordial spirit. The old demon panicked. “What do you mean by that? Do you still have an ace up your sleeve?”

The old demon didn’t believe his brother still had a trump card. “Of course I do. Why else would I have lured you into this illusionary realm?” The elderly man grinned.

Soon, the old demon sensed a frightening aura coming from behind him. When he turned around, he saw a giant green dragon flying toward him with its mouth wide open. Startled, the old demon leaped away.

“What is this?” He was dumbfounded by the sudden appearance of the dragon. He didn’t examine the dragon too closely. If he had, he would’ve discovered that the green dragon was only a primordial spirit and wasn’t very powerful.

Before the old demon could react, the green dragon had already wrapped itself around him tightly. Seeing that, the elderly man injected spiritual energy into the body of the green dragon’s primordial spirit.

The old demon roared. He did not expect a green dragon to pop out of nowhere.

“Quick! Use Demon Flogger!” shouted the elderly man. Kai instantly pulled out Demon Flogger. However, he hesitated to make his move.

At that moment, the green dragon’s primordial spirit was binding the old demon. If Kai attacked, the green dragon would be injured.

The old demon continued to struggle, his body releasing clouds of black fog. By then, he had realized the green dragon was only a primordial spirit. As such, he no longer feared his opponents.

“Hmph! You lot are delusional if you think you can control me!” the old demon scoffed, the power exploding from his body grew more and more terrifying.

Looking at the struggling primordial spirit, Kai gritted his teeth and lashed his target with Demon Flogger. Demon Flogger emitted a golden glow, binding the green dragon and the old demon tightly..

The runes on Demon Flogger spun and stabbed into the old demon like needles, causing him to scowl. Since Demon Flogger targeted spiritual sense, he felt as though his head was about to explode. The green dragon’s primordial spirit was also being tormented by Demon Flogger.

Although Demon Flogger wasn’t that powerful against cultivators who weren’t demons, the green dragon didn’t have a real body. It was only a primordial spirit. Therefore, Demon Flogger was also very effective against it.

The Mans Decree Chapter 3039 -

Kai's heart ached as he watched the green dragon grimace. At that moment, the green dragon endured the pain and turned to the elderly man. "What are you waiting for, you old fart?"

Upon hearing that, the elderly man glanced at Kai before turning blurry. The void also started to twist. Suddenly, plenty of cracks leading to the void appeared in their surroundings. It was as though the world was shattering.

Following that, the void cracks began sucking everything in with immense force. Kai narrowed his eyes and his face was contorted.

The force in which the void cracks were sucking things was powerful. If one were accidentally dragged inside, they would be crushed by the temporal disturbance.

When the old demon spotted the void cracks, he lost his composure and said fearfully, "What are you doing, brother? Do you plan to perish with me?"

"That's right. We should have been dead a long time ago. We shouldn't be in this world. It's a shame that the dragon will have to join us," the old man answered.

The green dragon's primordial spirit laughed nonchalantly. "Falling into the void crack won't necessarily spell my doom! We Draconians are different from you mortal cultivators!"

Upon listening to his brother's and the green dragon's primordial spirit's words, the old demon grew even more anxious.

"Must you destroy me, brother? If you stop now, I'm willing to abandon demonic techniques and focus on Archaic Body Cultivation." The old demon was afraid because if he fell into the void cracks, he would be as good as dead.

As he spoke, he struggled to break free while shooting black fog at his brother to prevent him from widening the void cracks.

The elderly man was becoming more transparent by the second, looking as though he was on the verge of disappearing. Meanwhile, the green dragon's primordial spirit was dragging the old demon into the void cracks with great effort.

“Don’t do it, Sir!” shouted Kai as he resisted. the suction force of the void cracks. He didn’t wish to see the elder of the Archaic Body cultivators and the green dragon’s primordial spirit die with the old demon.

“Your future is bright, kid. Don’t go down the wrong path!” The elderly man smiled at Kai one last time before vanishing completely.

“Sir!” Kai shouted, his eyes filled with sorrow. Then, he turned to the green dragon’s primordial spirit. At that moment, it was still binding the old demon and had arrived at a void crack.

“Don’t worry. It doesn’t mean my primordial spirit will perish even if I’m brought inside the void crack. However, it may be years before we meet again. Hopefully, by our next reunion, the Draconians will be revitalized then, and you will already be the leader,” said the green dragon.

“I...” Kai wasn’t sure what to say because that future was still far away. Revitalizing the Draconians and becoming their leader wasn’t something that could be accomplished so easily.

“I have a gift for you at the very last moment...” The green dragon’s primordial spirit smiled before dragging the old demon into a void crack.

A burst of dazzling white light emitted from within the void crack. Kai could hear the old demon shrieking from the outside.

Soon, Demon Flogger fell from the void crack. Just as Kai grabbed it, a soft white light descended from the void crack. Moments later, the void cracks slowly closed up.

The ground began to shake, and the scenery shifted. The world of the old demon and the elder of the Archaic Body cultivators both collapsed at this moment.

The location Kai’s group was at was the intersection point between the two worlds, so the annihilation of the two worlds was especially apparent there.
