

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3506

A disciple from Bloodroot Peak approached Helmut and reported, "Master, Igor is indeed not here, and I didn't see that fellow named Kai either."

"Damn it, where did they go? Could it be that they didn't return to Blood Spirit Valley?"

Helmut furrowed his brows.

The disciple from Bloodroot Peak looked at the bodies scattered on the ground before asking in bewilderment, "Master, what should we do now?"

At present, they hadn't found the individuals they came here for and even went so far as to kill the disciples of Blood Spirit Valley. Ultimately, they could be considered kin as they were practically from the same sect.

Their actions were ruthless, and once Igor found out, he surely wouldn't let this matter go easily!

"Remove all traces. No one is allowed to speak of today's events, or I will kill them without mercy!"

At this moment, Helmut had gradually calmed down and began to issue commands loudly.

Indeed, what he had done was excessive.

The numerous disciples of Bloodroot Peak began to bustle around anxiously, erasing all traces of their presence.

After erasing all traces and auras, Helmut swiftly departed with his disciples. Not long after Helmut left, Lauden arrived with people from the Five Great Sects.

"Mr. Delacroix, why do I feel like Blood Spirit Valley is eerily silent? I also detect a hint of blood." Someone spoke, their brow furrowed in concern.

"I smell it, too. And why can't I sense any signs of life? Could it be that there's no one left in Blood Spirit Valley?" someone chimed in agreement.

Lauden released his spiritual sense, and quickly, his brows furrowed.

"Let's go in and take a look. Everyone from Blood Spirit Valley has been killed!"

After Lauden finished speaking, he led the others into Blood Spirit Valley.

What greeted them was corpses littering the ground in Blood Spirit Valley while blood flowed everywhere. A few vultures, each over a meter long, were feasting on the bodies.

Gazing upon the horrific scene before them, everyone was left in utter shock!

Although Blood Spirit Valley belonged to the demons, the conflict between the humans and demons was not as intense here in Demonia Mountain.

The Five Great Sects had little conflict with the demons of Demonia Mountain. On the contrary, they often collaborated together.

Upon seeing that everyone in Blood Spirit Valley had been killed, the people from the Five Great Sects all felt a certain sadness in their hearts!

They had come in a huff, seeking nothing more than an explanation. They wanted Igor to hand over Kai , but they never intended to annihilate Blood Spirit Valley!

“Check if there are any survivors, then find out who did this. We haven’t had such an incident in the southern region for many years,” Lauden said with a gloomy expression.

The southern region was considered the most harmonious region in this realm. Although there were conflicts and casualties, incidents like the annihilation of an entire sect were almost unheard of!

Now that something like that had suddenly happened, he naturally had to investigate thoroughly to find out who was responsible.

After all, the status of their Five Great Sects in the southern region was not low, so naturally, they had to intervene when such an incident occurred!

“Mr. Delacroix, we’ve already checked. There are absolutely no survivors, and there are no traces of any auras either. It seems that the person who did this deliberately erased all evidence,” someone uttered.

“Mr. Delacroix, since Igor is not here, let’s just leave. We shouldn’t concern ourselves with such trivial matters. After all, Igor is not a good person. Since we can’t find Kai , I suggest we start looking for those individuals from the beast race!”

“Our disciples were killed, and a few of the beast race were involved. This matter isn’t over yet!”

Beside Lauden, a burly man with a dark complexion spoke, his voice filled with anger.

“Mr. Darkmore, even if we manage to find the three kings and four archons of the beast race, you must restrain yourself. You can’t just attack them upon sight. We need to clarify things first. There are no grudges between us and the beast race, so I don’t understand why they assisted Kai in killing our disciples,” Lauden said.

“Mr. Delacroix, isn't it obvious? Of course, it's all for the sake of benefits. Who cares about grudges when in the Celestial Battlefield? Everyone is after the treasures,” Heinrich exclaimed loudly.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3507

“Mr. Delacroix, I agree with Mr. Darkmore. We should stop worrying about this place for now and go find those members of the beast race to get a clear understanding of what's really going on, someone suggested.

Seeing the situation, Lauden could only nod and say, “Alright then, let's return first. Then we'll send someone to summon the three kings and four archons of the beast race. If they are truly responsible, even if it leads to a falling out with the beast race, we absolutely cannot let them escape punishment!”

The members of the Five Great Sects left, leaving the disciples of Blood Spirit Valley to continue being targeted by vultures.

Meanwhile, Igor was still recovering from his injuries, completely unaware that his disciples had been murdered.

After some time, Kai had fully recovered, and over the past few days, he had gained a deeper understanding of Blazing Stride and Impersonation Technique!

However, Kai was still unable to get that clock to work. He had no idea how to use it.

“Mr. Chance, these are some spiritual stones and mystical herbs sent by Mr. Daemon,” Cloud placed some resources in front of Kai .

Over the past few days, in order to expedite Kai 's recovery, Montane Daemon had been working tirelessly. He ventured into the depths of Demonica Mountain daily, searching for various resources that could be utilized.

It could be said that Montane Daemon's ability to withstand the demonic tribulation cloud and his substantial increase in strength were all thanks to Kai .

“Cloud, have you been cultivating during this period?” Kai turned to Cloud and asked.

“Mr. Chance, I've been busy gathering various resources with Mr. Daemon during this period, so I haven't had the chance to cultivate yet,”

Cloud responded.

Kai glanced at Cloud, gesturing for him to sit across from himself.

“You’ve been with me for quite some time now, yet your strength hasn’t increased much, nor have you gained anything-”

Before Kai could finish, Cloud hastily interjected, “Mr. Chance, I am already content just being by your side as it allows me to see the world.”

“What’s the use of seeing the world? I’m going to teach you a sword technique called Nine Shadows now. We’ll go to Divine Smithing Sect soon, and I’ll have them forge a magic sword for you there. This way, your strength will significantly increase!”

After Kai finished speaking, he gently placed a hand on the top of Cloud’s head. Swiftly, the Nine Shadows sword technique was imparted into Cloud’s consciousness.

Cloud entered his consciousness using his spiritual sense, and he immediately exclaimed in surprise, “Mr. Chance, is this the Nine Shadows sword technique? It looks so powerful!”

“Once someone has mastered the Nine Shadows sword technique, they can create nine clones, each possessing the same aura and even the same power! At that time, you will strike with a single sword, but what truly emerges will be ten real swords. Your own power will be greatly amplified. Of course, this sword technique can also be used to escape from difficult situations. Remember, when practicing swordsmanship, if you let your emotions become too agitated, not only will you fail in your training, but you may also plunge yourself into a state of collapse. I was now capable of having six shadow clones, and I also imparted some insights and cultivation methods to you.”

As Kai spoke, he imparted all his understanding of Nine Shadows to Cloud without holding back.

Excitement filled Cloud’s face as he unexpectedly knelt down before Kai . “Mr. Chance, your immense kindness in teaching me this sword technique is akin to a mentor’s. I-

“Hold on, we are friends and brothers. I am not your master. Otherwise, I wouldn’t have taught you.” Kai hastily interrupted Cloud’s words.

Looking at Cloud in this state, it seemed like he wanted to take Kai as his master. However, Kai had never considered becoming anyone’s mentor!

Upon hearing this, Cloud’s face flushed with embarrassment. He quickly stood up, thanked Kai , and then hurriedly left. Kai assumed he must have gone to cultivate.

“Kai , I heard you’ve almost recovered. Now, it’s time to repay the debt you owe me...”

Cloud had just left when Catina walked in.

She gazed at Kai with so much affection it seemed as if her eyes were about to well up with tears.

“What debt?” Kai asked, pretending not to know.

“Stop pretending!”

Catina lunged directly at Kai , mounting him in one motion.

Several days had passed once again as time flew by swiftly. Kai was completely absorbed in practicing Blazing Stride.

Underneath Kai ’s feet, a nearly imperceptible flame ignited, burning like a thin thread. This flame continuously swirled beneath Kai ’s feet.

With a single thought, the two thread-like flames surprisingly burrowed swiftly into the ground. Kai took a step forward, and in an instant, his body vanished. When Kai opened his eyes, he realized he had already traveled several kilometers.

“Damn it, I still can’t manage to travel fifty kilometers in a single step. This is too difficult to master. I really shouldn’t have angered Fire Spirit Lord back then...”

Kai let out a sigh. Blazing Stride is indeed impressive, but it’s just too difficult to master!

During this period, aside from recovering, Kai was completely engrossed in studying Blazing Stride. However, he could only cover a few kilometers in a single step!

Kai was no longer satisfied with covering only a few kilometers in a single step. He had never considered that, back when he was in the mundane world, using the Necro Ring could only teleport him a few hundred meters through the void!

Indeed, human greed truly knew no bounds!

“Mr. Chance, my father is calling for you. He has fully recovered now and would like to invite you to visit Blood Spirit Valley!” Rosetta came over to inform Kai .

“Alright, let’s go then!”

Kai also wanted to visit Blood Spirit Valley and then have Dalton take him to the Demon Devouring Cave.

With that, Kai and his group set off towards Blood Spirit Valley. As Montane Daemon was alone, he, too, accompanied Kai and the others to Blood Spirit Valley.

When they were still several kilometers away from Blood Spirit Valley, Catina furrowed her brows and kept looking towards the sky.

Kai turned to Catina and asked, “What is it?”

“There are a considerable number of vultures circling in the sky. There must have been a fight nearby, and some people even lost their lives.

Judging by the number of vultures, there must have been quite a few deaths.... Catina answered.

Upon hearing Catina’s words, everyone finally lifted their heads, only to see a considerable number of vultures indeed circling in the sky, occasionally swooping straight down!

“Oh no!” Igor was shocked. “The only place with people in this area is my Blood Spirit Valley. Could it be that something has happened to my disciples?”

Igor quickened his pace, with the others closely following behind, their speed pushed to the extreme.

For Kai and his companions, the journey of several kilometers took no more than a blink of an eye.

Gazing upon the lifeless Blood Spirit Valley before him, permeated with the stench of blood and the incessantly circling vultures, Igor’s face turned incredibly grim.

Even when he reached the door, Igor didn’t have the courage to push it open.

“Cloud, go knock on the door.”

Kai sent Cloud to knock on the door.

Cloud stepped forward and gently knocked on the grand door, but there was no response. Left with no other choice, Cloud gave it a push, and the door slowly swung open.

When the door swung open, it revealed a courtyard littered with corpses. Some bodies had been gnawed by the vultures to the point where only bare bones remained!

Upon witnessing this horrific scene, Igor’s eyes widened in shock. He spat out a mouthful of fresh blood and immediately fainted.

Dalton and Rosetta were also stunned, frozen in shock. After all, these were their fellow disciples, with whom they had lived together for many years.

Upon seeing the situation, Kai stepped forward, seizing Igor’s wrist. He channeled a surge of spiritual energy into Igor’s body, which finally roused the unconscious man.

“Who did this? Who was it!”

With a roar, Igor dashed into the courtyard. Kai and his companions followed inside, unable to bear the sight of the gruesome scene before them.

Montane Daemon furrowed his brow. “Who on earth did this? It’s been a long time since anything like this has happened on Demonia Mountain...”

Rosetta and Dalton burst into tears as they looked at the bodies scattered on the ground. Anyone who witnessed such a scene would find it impossible to control their emotions!

Kai remained calm and composed as he spread out his spiritual sense. He intended to investigate whether there were any other auras in Blood Spirit Valley apart from those of the disciples.

If there were any, it would be quite easy to identify the murderer.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3509

Kai utilized his spiritual sense to probe for a considerable amount of time, yet he couldn't detect even the faintest trace of another person's aura. It was evident that the other party had completely erased any remnants of their presence.

At this point, identifying the culprit would prove to be quite challenging.

"When I discover who is responsible for this, I swear I will tear them apart!" Igor bellowed, emanating a terrifying aura.

Simultaneously, Igor's spiritual sense enveloped the entirety of Blood Spirit Valley. He desired to ascertain the identity of the individual who had come to the valley and slaughtered all of his disciples.

However, even after an extensive period of probing, Igor failed to detect any other person's aura.

"Mr. Lothian, I have also conducted an investigation. It appears that the other party intentionally erased their aura and any traces, which is why we are unable to detect anything," Kai reported.

"Ah!" As if driven to madness, Igor let out a roar filled with a sense of injustice and unwillingness.

Dalton gritted his teeth and exclaimed, "Are we simply going to let this go if we cannot uncover the culprit? Did my fellow disciples die in vain?"

Dalton also harbored resentment, but what purpose did it serve when they couldn't even determine who was responsible?

“Could it have been Helmut? After all, when Mr. Chance first returned from the Celestial Battlefield, he attempted to kill Mr. Chance but was stopped by Mr. Lothian. If he harbored resentment, could he have attacked Blood Spirit Valley?” Cloud speculated.

“That is impossible. Although he is competitive and ruthless, he would never stoop to such levels against Blood Spirit Valley. After all, we could be considered part of the same sect,” Igor shook his head. He simply couldn't fathom the idea of Helmut committing such an act!

“This is indeed perplexing. Blood Spirit Valley has always maintained a peaceful existence, never engaging in conflicts with others. Who could be so heartless as to commit such an act of genocide?” Catina pondered.

The reputation of Blood Spirit Valley had always been commendable. Whether it was among the human race, the demon race, or the beast race, they all held a great deal of admiration for Igor's character.

The sudden occurrence of such an event made it incredibly difficult to pinpoint a culprit!

Montane Daemon spoke up. “Mr. Lothian, I am aware of a demon beast known as the telepathic beast, which possesses the ability to trace auras. Even if the other party deliberately erases their aura, this creature can still restore it.”

Upon hearing this, Igor furrowed his brow and said, “I have heard of such a beast before, but where are we supposed to find it? Furthermore, even if we do locate it, would this creature obey us? There is a good chance it may even attack us.”

“I am familiar with this demon beast. They can be found in Spirit Beast Valley. I can assist you in acquiring one,” Catina offered hastily.

As one of the figures among the three kings and four archons of the beast race, Catina should have no trouble dealing with a demon beast!

“Spirit Beast Valley is under the jurisdiction of Lion Archon, correct?” Feenix inquired.

Catina glanced at Feenix and replied, “Yes, but he will not be stingy when it comes to a telepathic beast, especially since you are here as well!”

“Indeed, it is merely a telepathic beast. Lion Archon certainly benefited greatly from me in the past!” Feenix declared smugly.

Although Kai was unfamiliar with what a telepathic beast was, he stated, “Then I will accompany the two of you. Let us swiftly retrieve a telepathic beast.”

“Very well, let us proceed,” Catina nodded.

Kai briefly conversed with Cloud, instructing him to remain here and assist Igor in managing the aftermath.

Meanwhile, he followed Feenix and Catina, making their way directly towards Spirit Beast Valley.

Spirit Beast Valley was located on the other side of Demonica Mountain, thousands of kilometers away. Even if Kai and his group traveled at their maximum speed, it would likely take them a full day and night to reach their destination.

If Kai had mastered Blazing Stride, which allowed him to cover fifty kilometers in a single stride, the journey would have been much quicker. However, for now, they could only traverse through the void, hastening their journey as much as possible!

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3510

In a secluded forest in Demonica Mountain, Monkey Archon, Lion Archon, Leopard King, and Thousand-Faced Demon Archon gathered together.

The expressions of the four individuals were far from pleasant as their venture into the Celestial Battlefield this time had yielded minimal gains.

This was especially true for Lion Archon, who, after much difficulty, had discovered the whereabouts of the Divine Bow yet had been unable to retrieve it.

Thousand-Faced Demon Archon seemed to understand Lion Archon’s feelings. He stepped forward, patting Lion Archon’s shoulder and saying, “Lion Archon, the Divine Bow is not meant for us. Even if we obtain it, neither of us can use it. The Divine Bow has been stored in your territory for so many years. You couldn’t even remove it from the mountain peak, let alone draw it, so it’s better to give up on that thought. Although our gains were not substantial on this trip to the Celestial Battlefield, we still managed to gain something. Let’s each return to our homes and focus on our cultivation. The strength of the beast race is currently too weak.”

Upon hearing Thousand-Faced Demon Archon’s words, Lion Archon seemed to overcome his frustration as well. After all, even if the Divine Bow was given to him, he would have a hard time lifting it!

This time, Fox Queen really lucked out. If things continue this way, she might just become the leader among us,” Leopard King said with a hint of envy.

“It doesn’t matter who the leader is. We, the beast race, must stand united. Otherwise, it will be even more difficult for us to establish a foothold in this realm. Let’s all head back to our respective homes. I’ll be leaving as well.”

After Thousand-Faced Demon Archon finished speaking, he turned around and prepared to leave.

Just as Thousand-Faced Demon Archon turned around, dozens of rays of light arrived in an instant from all around.

Immediately following, dozens of figures surrounded the quartet.

Upon seeing the situation, all four individuals instantly became alert!

Upon recognizing the newcomers, Thousand-Faced Demon Archon stepped forward and said, “So, it’s the people from the Five Great Sects. May I ask what brings you here?”

The members of the Five Great Sects were all glaring intently at the quartet, their eyes filled with murderous intent.

Lauden stepped forward and declared, “Thousand-Faced Demon Archon, the four of you need to come with us.”

“Mr. Delacroix, may I ask why? We don’t seem to have much interaction with your Five Great Sects. If there’s something on your mind, I suggest you speak directly,” Thousand-Faced Demon Archon said.

“Thousand-Faced Demon Archon, quit your acting. If we tell you to come with us, then you should just follow. Why all the unnecessary chatter?” Heinrik roared with anger on his face.

Thousand-Faced Demon Archon’s countenance turned cold in an instant. Although their cultivation level was not as high as the leaders of the Five Great Sects, in terms of status and position, the three kings and four archons were on par with the human sect leaders.

The lack of respect from Heinrik caused Thousand-Faced Demon Archon’s face to darken considerably. However, Thousand-Faced Demon Archon did not retort. After all, the other party was not only numerous but also stronger. A wise man knew better than to cause trouble when he was at a disadvantage.

Lion Archon glared discontentedly at Heinrik as he snapped, “Heinrik Darkmore, what are you saying? Why should we follow you? Just because you have more people, you think you can bully us?”

Lion Archon’s territory was around Demonica Mountain, and he was quite familiar with the Five Great Sects, so he was not afraid of them at all!

Lion Archon knew that the people of the Five Great Sects, being humans, would not recklessly kill others, especially in the vicinity of Demonia Mountain!

Here in the southern region, regardless of whether they were from the human, demon, or beast races, they all maintained a sense of courtesy, and large-scale conflicts rarely occurred.

Suddenly, the people from the Five Great Sects surrounded them. However, Lion Archon was not afraid. He did not believe these people would dare to lay a hand on him.

If the Five Great Sects were to cause a large-scale conflict between the beast race and the humans, they wouldn't be able to bear the consequences!

“Lion Archon, if I tell you to follow, you follow. Spare me your nonsense. If you dare to utter another word today, believe it or not, I'll kill you!”

The aura around Heinrik surged dramatically, instantly bearing down on Lion Archon.

The leaders of the Five Great Sects were more powerful than Lion Archon and his group.

Moreover, they had greater numbers. If a fight were to break out, Lion Archon and his three companions would stand no chance at all!
