

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3521

Evindal led the Demonic Cultivators into the cave of the telepathic beasts. Upon seeing the two telepathic beasts, they were filled with excitement.

“So this is a telepathic beast. It seems rather dull-witted. Is it truly sensitive to aura?” Mayze asked.

“It has just given birth. You mustn’t get too close...”

Evindal quickly raised his voice to prevent Mayze from approaching. However, Mayze charged forward and grabbed the mini telepathic beast.

“Stop! What are you doing?”

Evindal was greatly alarmed and hurried to stop her.

A cold glint appeared in Zander’s eyes. “This telepathic beast is now ours. If you dare to stop us, it will cost you your life.”

Having said that, he moved to strike Evindal.

Evindal was greatly taken aback. He hadn’t anticipated that the Demonic Cultivators would dare to brazenly snatch the telepathic beast right before his eyes.

He hastily retreated, but Mayze had already seized the mini telepathic beast.

“Zander, let’s go...” she shouted.

The people of the Soulless Hall began to rush out of the cave.

“Stop them!” Evindal roared.

Numerous cultivators from the Spirit Beast Valley promptly took action. However, the Demonic Cultivators from the Soulless Hall were clearly much stronger. Many cultivators from the Spirit Beast Valley were knocked to the ground one after another.

Just as the Demonic Cultivators were about to break out of the Spirit Beast Valley, three figures appeared. One of them threw a punch.

This punch emitted a deafening sound, and countless fist shadows directly blocked their escape route.

Upon seeing the situation, Zander stepped forward and threw a punch at the fist shadows.

A resonating sound pierced the heavens, followed by an overwhelming wave of spiritual energy that immediately radiated in every direction.

Zander hesitated slightly, then took three steps back. Upon seeing this, Mayze also instantly halted her steps.

“Put down the telepathic beast, and I can let you go.” Kai looked at them coldly.

The few individuals from the Soulless Hall did not recognize Kai. When they saw that Kai was only a First Level Tribulator cultivator, they even thought they had misunderstood the situation.

Zander’s face was extremely gloomy. He was a Sixth Level Tribulator cultivator. In the Soulless Hall, he was considered one of the best.

He thought it was utterly humiliating to be forced back three steps by a single strike from a cultivator who had just reached Tribulator.

He maintained a cold expression, gritting his teeth as he said, “Get out of my way or I’ll kill you!”

“Such a big talker...”

Catina and Feenix slowly stepped forward.

Catina exuded the aura of a Seventh Level Tribulator cultivator, which bore down relentlessly on the few individuals from the Soulless Palace.

At that moment, Evindal had led people to catch up and surround the Demonic Cultivators.

The expressions of those from the Soulless Hall became increasingly grim when they saw that Catina was a Seventh Level Tribulator cultivator.

“How audacious. We are from the Soulless Hall. If you dare lay a hand on us, you will face the wrath and execution of the Soulless Hall. If you don’t want the Spirit Beast Valley to turn into a purgatory, then clear the way for me immediately,” Zander demanded.

He had thought that revealing their identities would be enough to intimidate everyone.

However, not a single person made way.

“Soulless Hall?” Kai immediately thought of Xanthus. “How dare a servant of the Demon Seal Alliance cause trouble here? Do you truly believe the Soulless Hall is so formidable?”

Upon hearing Kai’s words, Zander felt a sudden jolt in his heart.

The others from the Soulless Hall were also taken aback in an instant.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3522

Only a select few knew that the Soulless Hall served the Demon Seal Alliance. They couldn't comprehend how Kai had discovered this information.

“What nonsense are you spouting? Insulting the Soulless Hall is a death wish!” Zander yelled furiously at Kai . He couldn't admit that the Soulless Hall was merely a servant of the Demon Seal Alliance.

“Whether I'm speaking nonsense or not, deep down you all know the truth. As members of the Soulless Hall, I won't let you go even if you release the telepathic beast,” Kai said, his gaze icy-cold.

The Soulless Hall members were also hunting him. He couldn't let them off easily now that he had encountered some of them.

When they joined forces with the Spirit Beast Valley, they were far from weak. They were more than capable of dealing with the Demonic Cultivators from the Soulless Hall.

“Kid, it seems you're prepared to fight us to the bitter end...”

Zander's eyes turned cold as he unleashed a surge of black energy from his hand. This seemingly ordinary black energy was infused with terrifying power, heading straight for Kai . Zander refused to believe that he couldn't defeat Kai .

Seeing the situation, Catina immediately shouted, “How dare you-”

“Don't interfere. He's just a Sixth Level Tribulator cultivator. I've been meaning to test him out,” Kai swiftly intercepted Catina, his eyes flashing with a cold glint.

Kai was suddenly enveloped in a golden glow as he activated Golem Body. Instantly, his entire body was covered in golden scales.

The surge of black energy thundered down, and Kai quickly cast two shields, assuming a defensive stance.

However, the moment the two shields made contact with the black energy, they shattered instantly.

It then struck Kai 's Golem Body.

Kai took three steps back.

The golden scales on his Golem Body began to fall off, exposing his skin. However, the black energy didn't cause any significant harm to Kai and dissipated slowly.

“A Sixth Level Tribulator cultivator isn't as impressive as I thought...”

Kai 's eyes were filled with disdain.

If it weren't for the corrosive black energy, Zander wouldn't have been able to penetrate Kai 's Golem Body.

Zander was astounded by his failure to kill Kai . He hadn't even managed to injure him. Kai was only a First Level Tribulator cultivator, while Zander was a Sixth Level Tribulator cultivator.

They were five levels apart.

The other members of the Soulless Hall also stared at Kai in shock and disbelief.

“Release the telepathic beast...”

Kai turned his gaze towards Mayze, his eyes cold as he spoke.

“Hmph! Just because you survived my brother's attack doesn't mean you can withstand one from me. Who do you think you are to make me hand it over?” Mayze retorted, setting down the telepathic beast and preparing to confront Kai .

“A rude girl like you needs to be taught a lesson.”

Catina let out a cold huff, and suddenly, a surge of energy burst forth from within her.

Before Mayze could react, she felt as if a weight of a thousand pounds had fallen upon her. With a thud, she collapsed onto the ground.

“Mayze!” Zander shouted anxiously.

Mayze gritted her teeth, desperately trying to get up, but she couldn't move.

Facing Catina, a Seventh Level Tribulator cultivator, Mayze, being only at the Sixth Level, found herself completely powerless to resist.

“The members of the Soulless Hall are too weak. Despite their high level of cultivation, they lack true skills...” Catina couldn't help but let out a cold laugh.

From a logical standpoint, it shouldn't be possible for a Seventh Level Tribulator cultivator to immobilize a cultivator of the Sixth Level.

However, the individuals from the Soulless Hall had now become servants of the Demon Seal Alliance, and they were lacking the necessary resources for cultivation.

Despite appearing to be Sixth Level Tribulator cultivators, Zander and Mayze did not display impressive actual strength.

Catina finally comprehended why Kai had dared to stop her from intervening and withstand the attack from Zander alone.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3523

“We will return the telepathic beast to you. We no longer want it. Now, release us at once,” Zander said to Catina.

However, Catina remained motionless, still holding Mayze down. Seeing this, Zander turned to Kai, realizing that only Kai’s words mattered at that moment.

“Tell me, what does the Soulless Hall want with the telepathic beast?” Kai asked Zander. Zander hesitated for a moment, furrowing his brows.

“Hmph! Tell me the truth, or else...” Catina intensified her aura, causing Mayze to let out a horrifying scream.

“I’ll tell you!” Zander hurriedly said. “There’s a traitor in the Soulless Hall. We need the telepathic beast to detect the traitor’s aura and find out where they are hiding.”

“A traitor?” Kai furrowed his brows, immediately thinking of Xanthus. “Is the traitor you mentioned, by any chance, Elder Fabrizio from the Soulless Hall?”

Zander was taken aback, disbelief filling his face as he looked at Kai. “How... do you know that?”

Kai narrowed his eyes slightly. “You don’t need to concern yourself with that. First, tell me, how did you all find out about Elder Fabrizio’s betrayal?”

“I cannot say,” Zander shook his head.

Kai instantly summoned the Dragonslayer Sword, placing it on Mayze’s shoulder.

“If you won’t say, then she shall meet her end...” Kai threatened.

“Zander, we mustn’t speak of it, or else the Soulless Hall will be finished. Elder Fabrizio’s betrayal has already put us in deep water. You mustn’t say anything further,” Mayze said.

Zander was filled with anxiety, caught in a dilemma.

Kai tightened his grip on the Dragonslayer Sword, and a fine cut appeared on the woman's neck. Fresh blood began to drip continuously. Seeing that Kai was indeed about to take action, Zander hurriedly said, "Don't do it. I'll tell you..."

After a brief pause, Zander continued, "It was Mr. Cabeza of the Demon Seal Alliance who informed us. We are indeed cooperating with the Demon Seal Alliance. He said that Elder Fabrizio secretly attacked Mr. Xavion of the Demon Seal Alliance, which led to his death by someone named Kai Chance. Mr. Cabeza insisted that we provide an explanation. He is also in contact with the nearby branches of the Demon Seal Alliance, preparing to hunt down the man named Kai."

"Does the leader of the Demon Seal Alliance know his son is dead?" Kai asked coldly.

"He doesn't. If he finds out, I'm afraid neither the Soulless Hall nor Mr. Cabeza will survive. Everything I've said is true. Can you please release my sister now?"

"Of course I know what you said is true because I am the very Kai Chance you were talking about..." Kai said with a faint smile.

"You're Kai Chance?"

Zander was filled with astonishment. He couldn't believe that he had encountered Kai in the Spirit Beast Valley.

Mayze also looked at Kai with an incredulous expression.

"I am the real Kai Chance. Didn't the Soulless Hall receive orders to hunt me down?"

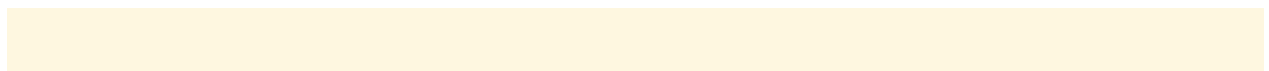

Kai still had a smile on his face.

Zander's face turned pale. He knew that he would not fare well in Kai's hands. Mayze also slowly lowered her head. At this point, they had no choice but to accept their fate.

If Catina weren't there, they could engage in a battle with Kai. Even with the assistance of the Spirit Beast Valley, they were not afraid.

But now, with Catina present, they were simply no match for them.

"Since we have fallen into your custody, feel free to kill or torture us as you please. Nevertheless, my master will undoubtedly seek revenge on our behalf," Zander said with a cold tone.

The Mans Decree - The Mans Decree Chapter 3524

“I won’t kill you. Go back and tell your master not to risk his life for the Demon Seal Alliance anymore. If you from the Soulless Hall still wish to aid the Demon Seal Alliance in killing me, I am always ready. However, next time, you won’t be so fortunate.”

Kai sheathed the Dragonslayer Sword.

Mayze was astonished. She hadn’t expected Kai to spare her. Zander was also surprised that Kai let them go.

“Are you serious?” Zander asked, unable to believe it.

“Of course. You can all leave now...”

Kai waved his hand, signaling Catina to withdraw her aura.

Mayze felt a sudden relief in her body and slowly stood up.

The siblings glanced at Kai and led their people away.

“Master, why didn’t you kill these people? They’ve been relentlessly pursuing you. Why show mercy to a threat?” Feenix asked, confused.

“Killing them here would inevitably cause the Soulless Hall to hold a grudge against the Spirit Beast Valley. When that time comes, I’m afraid the Spirit Beast Valley will no longer have peaceful days. The people from the Soulless Hall aren’t very strong, so there’s no need to worry,” Kai explained with a faint smile.

Evindal felt deeply grateful when he saw that Kai was looking after the Spirit Beast Valley.

“Mr. Chance, please take this mini telepathic beast with you. Even though it was just born, it is equally sensitive to aura. Moreover, the fertility of these telepathic beasts is quite high. I believe it won’t be long before the number of telepathic beasts in the Spirit Beast Valley significantly increases,” Evindal said to Kai .

Thank you, Mr. Grelamin.”

Kai didn't hesitate and picked up the mini telepathic beast. After bidding farewell, Kai, Feenix, and the telepathic beast hurriedly headed toward the Blood Spirit Valley.

Henningsen City, located in the southern region, was a city at the foot of Demonica Mountain, not far from Forlisle.

It was named Henningsen City because it was home to the largest family there, the Henningsen family.

The Henningsen family was a branch of the Demon Seal Alliance.

Ilias Henningsen, the head of the Henningsen family, was a branch leader of the Demon Seal Alliance.

"Mr. Cabeza, we have a total of eighteen sub-branches in the southern region. I have already given orders. As long as Kai is still in the southern region, he won't be able to escape," Ilias informed Zayan, who was sitting across from him.

"Thank you, Mr. Henningsen..." Zayan expressed his gratitude.

"You're welcome, Mr. Cabeza. We all serve Mr. Lefterov. Now that his son has been killed by Kai, it's only right that we give our utmost effort," Ilias stated.

"Mr. Cabeza, I have already sent my disciple to the Spirit Beast Valley to purchase a telepathic beast. Once we have the telepathic beast, I am certain I will be able to capture Elder Fabrizio. I will provide an explanation to you and the Demon Seal Alliance."

Sitting on the other side, an elderly man with a goatee began to speak.

This individual was none other than Hanes Soulton, the overlord of the Soulless Hall.

"Hmph! The Soulless Hall has been serving the Demon Seal Alliance for so many years, yet your first assignment was a disaster. Even a traitor emerged from your ranks. If Mr. Lefterov were to find out, the entire Soulless Hall would be doomed."

Zayan glanced at Hanes, his eyes filled with discontent.

Cold sweat covered Hanes's forehead as he repeatedly apologized profusely.

At this moment, the siblings who had gone to the Spirit Beast Valley to acquire the telepathic beast had returned.

Hanes glanced at the siblings and inquired, "Were you able to successfully procure the telepathic beast?"

"Master, we-"

Zander's face displayed embarrassment. Just as he was about to reveal the truth, Mayze interjected, "Master, we have already completed the purchase. Now we can proceed with capturing the traitor."

Upon learning that the telepathic beast had been obtained, Hanes promptly stood up. He then turned to Zayan and declared, "Mr. Cabeza, Mr. Henningsen, I will go and apprehend that traitor. I guarantee that within three days, I will return with Elder Fabrizio's head."

"Go ahead. If you fail to capture the traitor, you are aware of the consequences."

Zayan gestured with his hand.
