Chapter 5201

“This is… the clan leader’s token of my Hu clan!”

Hu Mazi picked up the token, shaking with excitement. “It is said that only the clan leader can have it. I didn’t expect to find it here!”

Kai picked up the animal skin and unfolded it. The words on it were obscure and difficult to understand. Fortunately, he had dabbled in ancient characters and could barely make out the general meaning.

The animal skin records the origin of the Demon Burial Abyss. This was once the battlefield where humans and demons fought each other in ancient times, and countless powerful people died here.

Later, a powerful talisman master set up a large formation and sealed the dead monsters at the bottom of the abyss, hence the name “Demon Burial Abyss”.

The talisman master who set up the formation was none other than the ancestor of the Hu family!

“Your ancestor was actually an ancient talisman master!”

Kai looked at Hu Mazi with a hint of surprise in his eyes. “It is said on the animal skin that he exhausted all his efforts to seal the monsters at the bottom of the abyss. Before he died, he hid a part of the inheritance of the talisman in the depths of the Demon Burial Abyss, hoping that his descendants in the future generations can inherit his will and protect Jiupan Mountain.”

Kai finally understood why Hu Mazi’s spells were so powerful.

Hu Mazi looked at the words on the animal skin, his eyes reddened: “It turns out that my Hu family is not an ordinary family. Our ancestors had such great achievements…but why did we end up being exterminated?”

Kai continued to read, and the back half of the animal skin recorded a shocking secret.

The seal of the Demon Burial Abyss is not eternal. It weakens every thousand years. The mission of the Hu family at that time was to enter the Demon Burial Abyss when the seal weakened and re-reinforce the talisman formation.

But two thousand eight hundred years ago, the seal suddenly became abnormal, and the monster at the bottom of the abyss almost broke out.

The Hu family used all their strength to barely suppress it, but they were severely damaged and attacked by unknown forces.

“It seems that the extermination of your Hu family may be related to the seal of the Demon Burial Abyss.”

Kai put down the animal skin and said, “That unknown force is probably trying to use the monster to break the seal, or covet the talisman inheritance left by your ancestors.”

Hu Mazi clenched his fists, his nails digging deep into his palms: “No matter who it is, I must find out!”

He carefully put away the patriarch’s token and the animal skin, as if he was holding the hope of the entire family.

Kai cast his gaze towards the depths of the cave, where there was a narrow stone door with the same symbol array engraved on it as the bronze box.

With the clan leader's token, the talisman array on the stone gate collapsed by itself, and the two of them successfully entered the next area.

This is a long corridor with runes carved on the rock walls on both sides. Different from the ones seen before, these runes emit a faint golden light and are obviously left by human rune masters.

"These runes can suppress evil spirits. It seems that they were laid by your ancestors."

Kai reached out and touched the runes, feeling a gentle force surge into his body. "Following these runes, we should be able to avoid most dangers."

At the end of the corridor is a huge stone chamber. In the center of the chamber stands a ten-foot-tall stone tablet, which is engraved with dense runes and shines with dazzling light.

There are several skeletons scattered around the stone tablet. Judging from their clothes, they should be members of the Hu clan.

"These are... my Hu family's ancestors!"

Hu Mazi looked at the talisman remaining on the bones, his eyes moistened again, "They should have come to reinforce the seal, but they couldn't go back..."

Kai walked up to the stone tablet and studied the runes on it carefully. The more he looked, the more frightened he became.

The arrangement of these runes was extremely exquisite, containing the ultimate truth of heaven and earth, far beyond his understanding of the art of runes.

He tried to probe his spiritual consciousness into the rune, and actually felt a huge flow of information pouring into his mind, all of which were insights and techniques about the way of runes.

Chapter 5202

“This is… the talisman inheritance of your ancestors!”

Kai closed his eyes and absorbed all the information. “The runes on the stone tablet are a huge inheritance array. As long as someone of the Hu family bloodline approaches, the inheritance can be activated. Come here quickly!”

Hu Mazi hurriedly walked to the stone tablet and stuck the patriarch’s token on it.

The stone tablet suddenly burst into brilliant light, and countless runes flew out from the stone tablet, circling around Hu Mazi like fireflies and slowly merging into his body.

Hu Mazi only felt that there was a lot of knowledge about talismans in his mind, ranging from the basic production of talisman paper to the advanced arrangement of talisman arrays.

His body was also changing. The spiritual energy in his body became more refined, and his originally blocked meridians were unblocked by a gentle force. His cultivation actually began to slowly improve.

“This… this is true!”

Hu Mazi felt the changes in his body and was so excited that he was speechless.

Kai was guarding on the side, and at the same time he was also absorbing the talismanic information scattered on the stone tablet.

Although he did not have the Hu bloodline and could not obtain the complete inheritance, he benefited a lot from these scattered information, and his understanding of the way of talismans became deeper, and he even vaguely touched a new realm.

After an unknown amount of time, the light on the stone tablet gradually dissipated, and Hu Mazi opened his eyes. A gleam of light flashed in his eyes, and the aura on his body became much stronger than before. He actually broke through to the Earthly Immortal Realm!

“I made a breakthrough!”

Hu Mazi clenched his fists, feeling the surging power in his body, “Thank you for reminding me, otherwise I would have missed this inheritance!”

“You have awakened your inherent strength. Your strength would not have increased so quickly just by relying on inheritance.”

Kai knew that Hu Mazi was originally very powerful, but after several reincarnations, his strength seemed to be sealed.

Now, with the help of the power of inheritance, Hu Mazi’s strength has been partially unlocked, so he can quickly reach the Earthly Immortal Realm.

Hu Mazi’s strength will become higher and higher in the future.

Kai’s eyes fell on a line of small characters at the bottom of the stone tablet. “It seems that we have to speed up. The stone tablet says that an ancient demon general is sealed in the core area of the Demon Burial Abyss. Now the seal is extremely weak. If it breaks out, the consequences will be disastrous.”

Hu Mazi’s face darkened: “Then the treasure that Youyue wants, could it be in the core area?”

“Very likely.”

Kai nodded, “The demons have always wanted to release the monsters from the abyss. The treasure that Youyue asked us to get may be something that can control the demon generals.

We must find the treasure before her people arrive, otherwise the consequences will be disastrous."

The two did not dare to delay and continued to go deeper along the passage behind the stone tablet.

The passage became narrower and narrower, and the demonic energy became thicker and thicker, but with the runes left by the ancestors of the Hu family and the clan leader's token on Hu Mazi, the demonic energy could not get close to them at all.

After walking for about half an hour, a magma pool appeared in front of them. Dark red magma was rolling in the pool, emitting a scorching breath, and baking the surrounding rock walls red.

There is no bridge across the lava pool, only a few thick iron chains connecting the other side. The chains are covered with rust and look like they may break at any time.

"How do I get through this?"

Hu Mazi looked at the rolling magma with a frown on his face. "The chain is too thin. It can't bear our weight at all."

The two were unable to fly at the moment and could only move forward on foot. The sudden appearance of such a magma pool was very deadly.

Kai observed the surroundings of the magma pool and found that there were protruding stones on the rock wall at regular intervals, with runes engraved on them. "These stones are footholds. The runes on them can withstand high temperatures, and we can step on the stones to get over.

Chapter 5203

He leaped onto the first stone, which was indeed as solid as a rock. The power emitted by the runes isolated the burning breath outside.

“Follow me, step by step, and don’t fall into the lava.”

Hu Mazi took a deep breath and followed Kai’s method, moving forward carefully on the stones.

There were roars coming from below the magma pool, as if something was rolling in the magma, making people’s scalps tingle.

Just as the two were about to reach the other side, a huge wave suddenly rose in the magma pool, and a monster covered with black scales jumped out of the magma, opened its huge mouth and bit towards Hu Mazi!

“careful!”

Kai pulled Hu Mazi to his side, and at the same time, he took out the Dragon-Slaying Sword and chopped towards the monster’s head.

With a crisp “clang” sound, the sword energy fell on the monster’s scales and was bounced back.

The monster roared and lashed at the two men with its tail like a steel whip, shattering the rocks under their feet.

“It’s the magma demon lizard!”

Hu Mazi recognized the monster. “Ancient books say it feeds on magma. It is invulnerable to swords and guns, and is immune to water and fire!”

Kai looked at the monster’s eyes that were burning with flames, and his heart trembled: “Its weakness should be in its eyes, Master Hu, use your talisman to restrain it!”

Hu Mazi immediately took out a few pieces of talisman paper, injected spiritual power into them, and threw them at the demon lizard.

The talisman paper turned into several golden light nets in the air, wrapping around the body of the demon lizard.

The demon lizard roared, and flames burst out of its body, burning the light net to ashes, but it was temporarily restrained.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, Kai flashed and rushed towards the head of the demon lizard like an arrow. The Dragon-Slaying Sword condensed all his spiritual power, transformed it into a long golden rainbow, and accurately pierced into the demon lizard's eyes!

"Ah——"

The demon lizard let out a shrill scream, and its huge body rolled wildly in the magma pool, and the stirred up magma fell like a rainstorm.

"Go!"

Kai pulled up Hu Mazi and jumped to the other side. Looking back, he saw the magic lizard struggling in the lava pool for a few times, and finally sank to the bottom of the pool and stopped moving.

The two men collapsed on the ground, gasping for breath, their backs soaked with cold sweat.

"This Demon Burial Abyss is truly thrilling at every step."

Hu Mazi wiped the sweat from his face and said, "If we continue like this, even if we are not killed by the monster, we will die of exhaustion."

Kai stood up and looked at the passage on the other side: "After passing the magma pool, we should be close to the core area. Let's work harder."

He took out some pills from the package and handed them to Hu Mazi: "Replenish your strength first, the road ahead may be even more dangerous."

Hu Mazi took the pill but did not eat it immediately. Instead, he took out the clan leader token from his arms and wiped the dust off it carefully: "With the inheritance of my ancestors and the token, I feel full of strength. No matter how dangerous it is, I will go on."

Kai looked at the determination in his eyes and nodded slightly.

He knew that Hu Mazi was no longer the man who only knew how to play with women, but the true successor of the Hu family's will.

The two rested for a while and continued along the passage.

At the end of the passage is a huge stone door with a ferocious demon head pattern engraved on it. Its eyes are flashing red and exuding a terrifying aura.

"This should be the entrance to the core area."

Kai looked at the devil head pattern on the stone door and said, "The aura on it is very strong. I'm afraid there is a ban protecting it."

Hu Mazi stuck the clan leader's token on the stone gate. The light on the token collided with the red light of the demon head pattern, making a "sizzling" sound.

The stone gate began to vibrate violently, and the red light in the eyes of the demon head pattern became brighter and brighter, as if it was coming alive.

"No, the clan leader's token can't open this door."

Hu Mazi withdrew his hand, frowning, "The restriction on this stone door was set by the demons, and it is mutually exclusive with the ancestor's runes.

Chapter 5205

At this moment, the altar suddenly vibrated violently, the black magic core burst out with dazzling light, and the runes around the altar quickly melted like ice and snow.

A huge pressure came from under the altar, and the entire underground palace began to shake, as if something was about to break out of the ground.

“Oh no! The seal is about to be broken!”

Kai’s face changed drastically. “Youyue probably knew this would happen a long time ago. She asked us to come and get the magic core just to make us break the seal!”

A deafening roar came from under the altar, and huge cracks appeared on the ground. Black demonic energy gushed out from the cracks and condensed into a demonic shadow dozens of feet tall.

The demon shadow holds a huge axe and has a ferocious face. He is the sealed ancient demon general!

“Hahahaha… I’m finally out!”

The demon general’s voice exploded like thunder, causing pain in the two men’s eardrums. “It’s been two thousand eight hundred years, and I didn’t expect that someone would dare to open this seal!”

Hu Mazi’s face turned pale, and the hand holding the clan leader’s token trembled slightly: “This is… the ancient demon general? His aura is so strong!”

Kai protected Hu Mazi behind him, and the spiritual power in his body burst out without reservation. The Dragon Slaying Sword made a buzzing sound and exuded a sharp sword energy: “It has just broken the seal and its strength has not yet fully recovered. We still have a chance!”

The demon general’s gaze fell on Kai, and a trace of disdain flashed in his eyes: “You are just a human cultivator, and you dare to be so presumptuous in front of me? Die before me!”

It swung its giant axe and chopped towards the two of them. The black axe blade, with its earth-shattering momentum, tore apart the air in the entire underground palace.

Kai did not dare to be careless. He pulled Hu Mazi and jumped to avoid the axe.

The axe blade fell to the ground with a loud bang, and a bottomless chasm was created in the ground, with gravel flying everywhere.

“Senior, this guy is out. You attach yourself to me and kill him right away. He’s not as awesome as you!”

Kai hurriedly called upon the Red Cloud Demon Lord to possess him, and then killed the demon general.

But Kai shouted for a long time, but Demon Lord Chiyun seemed not to hear him!

“F*ck, pretending to be dead…”

“Master Hu, find a way to reinforce the seal again!” Kai had no choice but to ask Hu Mazi to reinforce it, while he rushed towards the demon general with the Dragon Slaying Sword in hand, “I’ll hold it back!”

He knew that it was impossible to defeat the ancient demon general with just the strength of two people, and the only way to have a chance of survival was to seal it again.

Hu Mazi also reacted and immediately took out the talisman paper and began to draw talismans to strengthen the seal according to the method passed down by his ancestors.

When the demon general saw that Kai dared to attack, a trace of anger flashed in his eyes, and he swept the giant axe towards Kai’s waist.

Kai dodged like a ghost and at the same time summoned the Dragon-Slaying Sword. The golden sword energy fell on the demon general like raindrops.

However, the demon general had extremely strong defense, and the sword energy only left a faint white mark on him, causing no substantial damage at all.

“It’s useless! My demonic body is invulnerable to swords and spears. With your little ability, do you think you can hurt me?”

The demon general laughed arrogantly and swung the giant axe again, forcing Kai to retreat again and again.

Kai was anxious, he could feel that the demon general’s strength was recovering. If this continued, not to mention reinforcing the seal, both of them would die here.

At this moment, he suddenly remembered the magic dragon’s inner elixir and hurriedly took it out from his arms.

The inner elixir exudes a strong demonic energy, which may be used to temporarily suppress the demon general.

He injected spiritual power into the inner elixir, and the inner elixir instantly burst out with dazzling black light and flew towards the demon general.

When the demon general saw the inner elixir, a hint of greed flashed in his eyes and he reached out to grab it.

“Now!”

Kai seized the opportunity, and the Dragon-Slaying Sword turned into a stream of light and slashed towards the demon general’s arm.
