

the mans Decree: Kai Ping / Chen Ping

Chapter 5341

Kai and Hu Mazi exchanged a glance, then bowed to the crowd and said, "Take care, everyone! We're leaving!"

Ling Xue looked at Kai, her lips moved, as if she wanted to say something, but in the end, she only said: "Brother, you must come back safely."

Kai looked at the water in her eyes, his heart softened, and he nodded, "Wait for me."

As soon as they finished speaking, the spiritual energy around the two of them surged, and they used the flying technique to the extreme. Their figures turned into two streams of light and flew towards the sky.

Ling Xue watched their backs gradually disappearing, tears finally falling. She raised her hand to wipe away her tears, silently saying in her heart: "Brother, I will practice hard and wait for you to come back."

Mo Chen, Li Chunfeng and Nan Batian watched the two figures disappear into the sky, their eyes full of solemnity.

They all knew that the road to the Sixth Heaven was far more difficult than that to the Fifth Heaven, and that the Sixth Hall of the Divine Temple and the Main Hall of the Evil Path Hall were both extremely difficult opponents.

"I hope they are safe." Li Chunfeng said softly.

Mo Chen nodded: "Kai is a child with a strong character and extraordinary luck. With the help of Master Hu, he will definitely be able to overcome the danger."

After leaving Sword Saint City, Kai and Hu Mazi rushed all the way towards the Sixth Heaven.

The border between the fifth and sixth heavens is a mountain range called “Duanyun Ridge”.

The mountains are towering into the clouds and are covered by thick clouds all year round. The clouds contain rich spatial power, and ordinary cultivators cannot pass through them at all. Only those who have reached the seventh level of Earth Immortal Realm can barely resist the tearing of the spatial power.

“The Cloud Breaking Ridge is just ahead.”

Kai pointed to the cloud-covered mountain range ahead and said in a deep voice, “It is said that the spatial force inside is extremely chaotic. We must be careful.”

Hu Mazi nodded, took out two yellow talismans from his storage bag, and handed one to Kai: “This is the ‘Fixing Space Talisman’, which can help us stabilize the surrounding space force and reduce resistance.”

Kai took the talisman and stuck it on his body.

The talisman instantly turned into a faint yellow light, enveloping his body. Sure enough, he felt that the power of the surrounding space had become much gentler.

The two of them said no more, and with a flash of their bodies, they disappeared into the clouds of Duanyun Ridge.

As soon as they entered the clouds, they felt a strong pulling force that seemed to tear their bodies apart.

The surrounding space continued to distort, and black space cracks appeared from time to time, emitting a heart-pounding aura.

“Be careful of the space cracks!”

Hu Mazi shouted loudly and continuously cast talismans in his hand. Yellow light fell around and temporarily stabilized the space crack.

Kai also concentrated and was on guard. The power of the dragon in his body was circulating, golden scales covered his arms, and golden light surged around his body, blocking the pull of the force of space outside his body.

The Dragon Slaying Sword hummed beside him, and the sword energy slashed out from time to time, cutting off the approaching space cracks.

The two of them shuttled through the clouds with difficulty. In their ears were the whistling sound of the wind and the “sizzling” sound of the distorted space. In front of them were the constantly changing clouds and space cracks. Every step was extremely difficult.

After an unknown amount of time, a ray of light finally appeared ahead.

“The Sixth Heaven is ahead!”

A hint of excitement flashed in Hu Mazi’s eyes and he quickened his pace.

The two rushed towards the light, passing through the last layer of clouds, and the scene before them changed instantly –

The sky was no longer the light blue of the fifth heaven, but a deep azure. The clouds floated in the air like cotton wool, exuding a rich fairy air.

Below are rolling mountains covered with dense forests. From time to time, the roars of monsters can be heard in the forest, and their aura is several times stronger than that of the monsters of the fifth level.

“Such a dense immortal energy!” Hu Mazi took a deep breath, a look of amazement on his face. “It’s at least three times denser than the fifth level! Practicing here will at least double my speed!”

Kai also felt the spiritual energy in the air and was secretly shocked.

The concentration of immortal energy in the Sixth Heaven is indeed far higher than that in the Fifth Heaven. No wonder the cultivation level of cultivators in the Sixth Heaven is generally higher than that in the Fifth Heaven.

This is only the sixth heaven. If you reach the ninth heaven, the nineteenth heaven, and finally the thirty-sixth heaven, the immortal energy will not be so dense and substantial!

Chapter 5342

Under the azure sky, two streaks of light cut through the clouds and landed steadily in a dense ancient forest.

Kai retracted the golden light around him, and his fingertips still felt the tingling sensation of the spatial force when he crossed Duanyun Ridge. Hu Mazi couldn't wait to take a deep breath of air, his face full of amazement.

“Wow, this sixth-level immortal energy is even richer than the fifth-level spiritual spring!”

Hu Mazi smacked his lips, his spiritual energy circulating through his body. He felt his meridians become more relaxed. “I’ve been stuck in the ninth level of the Earthly Immortal Realm for so long. Maybe if I stay here for a few months, I can reach the threshold of the Human Immortal Realm!”

Kai didn't respond, his eyes had already swept around.

This ancient forest was completely different from the Black Wind Mountains of the Fifth Heaven. The trees were so thick that they required more than ten people to hug them. The trunks were covered with pale golden moss, emitting faint spiritual energy fluctuations.

Fist-sized crystals can be seen everywhere on the ground, reflecting the sunlight and shining brightly;

The roar of the monster coming from afar was so powerful that it was enough to scare even the early stage cultivators of the fifth level of the Earth Immortal Realm.

“Be careful,”

Kai held the Dragon Slaying Sword at his waist. The sword hummed faintly in its sheath, as if giving a warning. “The demon beasts of the Sixth Heaven are not only more powerful, but they may also possess some strange abilities nurtured by immortal energy.”

Just as he finished speaking, there was a loud “crack” sound suddenly coming from the dense forest on the left, followed by a gust of wind, and the fallen leaves on the ground were blown all over the sky.

A huge monster rushed out from behind the tree, its whole body covered with blue-black scales. Its head was like that of a giant crocodile, but with three scarlet eyes. There was a pair of broken flesh wings on its back. Saliva dripped from its sharp fangs, and when it fell on the ground, it instantly corroded small pits.

“It’s the three-eyed rot-scale beast!”

Hu Mazi’s expression changed slightly as he pulled out two talismans from his storage bag. “I’ve seen records in ancient books from the Fifth Heaven that this beast’s scales can withstand attacks from a seventh-grade Earthly Immortal. Its saliva is highly poisonous, and the most troublesome thing is that its third eye can spit out a foul smell that will corrode the soul if it touches it!”

The three-eyed rot-scale beast obviously regarded the two men as prey. Its third eye suddenly lit up red, and a dark green rotten aura shot towards Kai like a sharp arrow.

Kai moved his feet slightly and performed the Fire Control Step. His body turned into a shadow to avoid the foul air. The foul air fell on the ancient tree behind him, and the trunk turned black and rotten in an instant. In just a few breaths, it turned into a pool of black water.

“Just in time!”

Hu Mazi laughed loudly and threw the talisman in his hand, “Flame Talisman!” Two flames exploded in the air and turned into two fire snakes that coiled around the three-eyed rotten-scale beast.

The fire snake touched the scales, making a “sizzling” sound, but failed to break through the defense and only left two scorch marks.

The three-eyed rot-scale beast felt pain, roared angrily, and opened its huge mouth to bite Hu Mazi.

Hu Mazi didn’t dare to take it head-on, and quickly cast a wind-moving talisman, floating several feet backward. At the same time, he cast a binding talisman with his backhand. The yellow runes intertwined into a large net in the air, entangling the limbs of the three-eyed rotten-scale beast.

“Kai, take action!”

Hu Mazi shouted.

A golden light flashed in Kai’s eyes, and the power of the dragon in his body circulated wildly. The Dragon Slaying Sword was unsheathed, and a golden sword energy with a blazing flame slashed out.

“Dragon Flame Slash!”

The sword energy fell on the back of the three-eyed rotten-scale beast, and the scales shattered instantly. The flames spread and burned its skin and flesh.

“roar—!”

The three-eyed rot-scaled beast let out a shrill scream and struggled to break free from the binding talisman, but Hu Mazi had already added several talismans, and the runes became tighter and tighter, binding it firmly in place.

The golden flames continued to devour its vitality, its breath became weaker and weaker, and finally it collapsed to the ground, turning into a pile of charred corpses.

Kai walked forward slowly, and the flame on the Dragon Slaying Sword gradually went out.

Chapter 5343

He looked at the corpse of the three-eyed rot-scale beast and found a light green crystal in its head, emitting faint spiritual power.

“This is the Corrupted Scale Crystal. Perhaps it can be used to refine an elixir that can dispel evil.”

He put the crystal away and turned to look at Hu Mazi, “It seems that the dangers in the Sixth Heaven are greater than we expected.”

Hu Mazi nodded and put away the talisman. “Let’s go. First, find a place with many monks to inquire about the location of Leiyin Temple. By the way, find out what the kingdom of gods is all about. I always feel that place is not simple.”

Without stopping, the two of them soared into the air, heading out of the ancient forest. Along the way, they encountered several powerful monsters, but they easily defeated them all.

About half an hour later, an open area appeared in front of them. A small town was located in the valley. A wooden sign was hung at the entrance of the town with three big characters “Qingfeng Town” written on it.

People come and go in the town, most of them are monks, some wear Taoist robes, some wear armor, and some carry huge weapons. The one with the lowest aura is also at the seventh level of the Earthly Immortal Realm.

When Kai and Hu Mazi walked into the town, they immediately attracted a lot of people's attention. Although the aura on them had been restrained a lot, the pressure of the ninth level of the Earthly Immortal Realm still made the low-level cultivators feel uneasy.

“My two fellow Daoists, have you just reached the Sixth Heaven?”

A middle-aged monk in gray cloth stepped forward with a kind smile on his face. “I'm the guide of Qingfeng Town. My last name is Wang. If you need any information or accommodation, you can come to me.”

Kai looked at Guide Wang and found that his cultivation was only at the seventh level of the Earthly Immortal Realm, yet he dared to take the initiative to approach and talk to him, which showed that he had some courage.

“We would like to inquire about the location of Leiyin Temple,” Kai said. “Also, we would like to learn about the situation in the ‘Kingdom of God’.”

When Guide Wang heard the word “God's Kingdom,” his expression changed slightly. He subconsciously looked around and said in a low voice, “Fellow Daoist, you can't talk about the God's Kingdom in public!

That's the top power in the Sixth Heaven, and the people living there are all gods, and they are all arrogant. If we human cultivators offend them, at best we will have our cultivation crippled, and at worst we will lose our lives!”

Hu Mazi frowned. “So powerful? What's the relationship between the Kingdom of God and the Temple? I heard that the Sixth Palace of the Temple is also in the Sixth Heaven.”

Guide Wang sighed, led the two to a corner of a teahouse, sat down, ordered a pot of spiritual tea, and then slowly said: “The Kingdom of God and the Temple, although both belong to the Gods, are two different things.

The Kingdom of Gods is the orthodox kingdom of the gods, occupying the 'Godfall Plains' in the eastern part of the Sixth Heaven. The gods there are all born with divine powers and are extremely powerful.

The Sixth Hall of the Divine Palace rose to prominence later. Located in the 'Dark Canyon' to the west of the Sixth Heaven, the divine arts they cultivate are somewhat unorthodox, and they are said to capture human monks to refine medicine. The Divine Kingdom despises them, and they, in turn, refuse to submit to the Divine Kingdom, leading to constant open and covert fighting over the years.

"As for Leiyin Temple," Guide Wang continued after taking a sip of tea, "it's one of the few neutral forces in the Sixth Heaven, built on Leiyin Mountain. Its abbot, Taoist Wuji, is a ninth-rank Earthly Immortal. He's kind and often helps human cultivators, but he disappeared for many years and only recently reappeared. Starting from Qingfeng Town, head three thousand miles south and you'll see Leiyin Mountain."

Kai nodded, took out a fairy stone from his storage bag and handed it to Guide Wang: "Thank you for telling me, Brother Wang."

Guide Wang took the immortal stone and smiled even more broadly, "You're too polite, fellow Daoist. By the way, something seems to have happened in the Divine Kingdom recently. I heard that a noble from the Divine Clan escaped, and the Divine Kingdom has sent many people to track him down.

If you encounter monks wearing silver armor and bearing winged divine patterns on the road, you must stay away from them. They are the "Divine Guards" of the Divine Kingdom, and their strength is at least at the eighth level of the Earthly Immortal Realm! "

Chapter 5344

The two thanked Guide Wang and left the teahouse.

As soon as he left the town, Hu Mazi started to speak: “I didn’t expect the Kingdom of God to be so overbearing, and that Sixth Palace of the Divine Temple sounds even worse than the Palace of Evil.

The Leiyin Temple we are looking for is in the middle, with powerful enemies on both sides. The water in the sixth heaven is much deeper than that in the fifth heaven.”

Kai looked towards the south with a deep gaze: “The more dangerous it is, the more careful we must be. First find Taoist Wuji and find out the situation of the six halls of the temple, then make plans.”

The two were about to fly away when they suddenly heard the sound of fighting coming from the dense forest not far away, mixed with a woman’s muffled groan.

Hu Mazi’s eyes lit up: “Is there something exciting to see? Let’s go and take a look!”

Kai did not stop them. He also noticed that there was a special aura in the sound of fighting. It was neither the spiritual power of human cultivators nor the demonic aura of monsters, but a kind of majestic power, somewhat similar to the gods that Guide Wang mentioned.

The two men sneaked into the dense forest, hid behind an ancient tree, and looked in the direction where the fighting sound came from.

In the open space, a woman was fighting fiercely with three monks wearing silver armor.

The woman was wearing a white long dress with golden divine patterns embroidered on the hem. Her long black hair fluttered in the wind. She had a beautiful appearance, but with a hint of cold arrogance.

She had no weapons in her hands, and only used a pair of jade hands to display her magical powers. Golden light flowed through her fingertips, and every time she swung, she could force back a divine guard.

The three divine guards held spears with winged divine patterns engraved on the spears. They cooperated tacitly, forming a triangular formation, trapping the woman in the middle.

“Your Highness, surrender!”

The leading divine guard said coldly, “His Majesty has already ordered that as long as you return and admit your mistakes, your life will be spared! Otherwise, we will have no choice but to forcibly bring you back to the Kingdom of God!”

“Admit your mistake?”

The woman sneered, her voice clear but with a hint of chill, “I did nothing wrong! My father is trying to marry me off to the son of the Third Lord of the Temple in order to form an alliance with the Temple. I will never go back!”

The leading divine guard’s face darkened. “Your Highness, this is a matter of great importance to the Divine Kingdom. You cannot act arbitrarily! Since you refuse to cooperate, don’t blame us for being rude!”

After he finished speaking, he waved his hand, and the other two divine guards attacked at the same time, their spears carrying a sharp aura, aiming straight at the woman’s vital points.

A trace of panic flashed in the woman’s eyes. Although her cultivation had reached the seventh level of the Earthly Immortal Realm, she was gradually losing the upper hand when facing three eighth-level Divine Guards of the Earthly Immortal Realm.

A spear grazed her shoulder, leaving a trail of blood, and her white dress was instantly stained red.

“If we don’t take action now, this little girl will be captured.”

Hu Mazi whispered, already taking out a talisman in his hand. “Judging from her appearance, she must be the noble who escaped from the Divine Clan that Guide Wang mentioned. Perhaps we can get more information about the Divine Kingdom and the Divine Temple from her.”

The most important thing is that Hu Mazi fell in love with this female cultivator. After rescuing her, he could have some fun with her and vent his emotions, which was worth it.

Kai took a look at Hu Mazi and naturally knew what this guy was thinking.

However, the woman in front of him seemed to be from the Kingdom of God. Perhaps through her, he could learn about the Kingdom of God and the six halls of the Temple.

So Kai nodded and said, “Go ahead!”

Before he finished speaking, Hu Mazi threw out two talismans, “Evil-breaking Talisman!” Two golden lights flashed and landed on the spears of the two divine guards. The divine patterns on the spears instantly dimmed and their power was greatly reduced.

Kai’s body flashed, and he used the Fire Control Step and instantly appeared behind the leading divine guard, with the Dragon Slaying Sword pointing directly at his back.

“who?”

The leading divine guard was startled and quickly turned around to block the attack. However, his speed was far inferior to Kai’s, and the golden sword energy instantly pierced through his armor and pierced his shoulder.

He let out a scream and blood gushed out.

Chapter 5345

Seeing this, the other two divine guards quickly turned around to rescue.

Hu Mazi took the opportunity to cast a binding talisman to tie up one of the divine guards, while Kai swung his sword to force back the other divine guard.

The woman also seized the opportunity, golden light burst out from her fingertips, and she slapped the bound divine guard on the chest. The divine guard vomited blood and fell to the ground.

The leading divine guard knew he was no match for them and gritted his teeth, “Who are you? How dare you interfere in the affairs of the Kingdom of God!”

Kai didn’t answer, but just looked at him coldly: “Get lost. If you dare to pester me again, you will die.”

The golden flame on his body ignited slightly, and the invisible pressure was released instantly. The leading divine guard turned pale and did not dare to say another word. He helped up his injured companion and fled in embarrassment.

The battle was over, and only Kai, Hu Mazi, and the woman from the divine tribe were left on the open ground.

The woman put away her magical powers and glanced at the two of them. There was no gratitude in her eyes, but instead a hint of vigilance and arrogance.

She wiped the blood off her shoulder and turned to leave.

“Hey, little girl!”

Hu Mazi couldn’t help but speak, “We saved you. If you didn’t just say you could sleep with me, you should at least say thank you, right?”

The woman paused, glanced back at Hu Mazi, and said in a cold voice, “Human monk, don’t think you can tell me what to do just by saving me. If I weren’t in poor condition today, those three losers would be no match for me.”

After saying this, she did not stay any longer, turned around and walked into the depths of the dense forest, and soon disappeared.

Hu Mazi stood there in a daze, puffing his beard and glaring angrily: “What the hell is this? Are the gods so arrogant? I really want to capture her and let her know what politeness is!”

Kai shook his head helplessly. “Forget it. The Gods have always been like this. But she mentioned that the Kingdom of God wants to form an alliance with the Sixth Palace of the Divine Temple and wants to marry her to the son of the Third Palace Master. This is important news.”

“Alliance?”

Hu Mazi frowned. “Aren’t the Kingdom of God and the Temple at odds? How could they form an alliance?”

Kai pondered for a moment: “Perhaps it’s for the common good. In any case, this is not a good thing for us. If the Kingdom of God joins forces with the Sixth Palace, it will be even more difficult for us to eliminate the Sixth Palace Master.”

The two of them no longer bothered about the woman from the divine race and continued to fly towards Leiyin Mountain.

Along the way, they encountered several waves of divine guards from the kingdom of God, who were obviously tracking down the whereabouts of the woman.

The divine guards were a little wary when they saw Kai and Hu Mazi, but after sensing Hu Mazi’s aura of the ninth level of the Earthly Immortal Realm, they did not act rashly.

About three hours later, a towering mountain appeared in front of them. The mountain was shrouded in clouds and mist, and the outline of a Taoist temple could be vaguely seen. At the top of the temple, a golden lightning flashed, exuding a majestic aura.

“That’s Leiyin Mountain!”

A hint of excitement flashed in Hu Mazi’s eyes and he quickened his pace.

The two men landed at the foot of Leiyin Mountain. They saw two Taoist priests in green robes guarding the mountain path. Seeing Kai and Hu Mazi, they stepped forward and bowed, “My two Taoist friends, may I know what brings you to Leiyin Temple?”

Kai bowed in return, “I am Kai, and this is Hu Mazi. We are here to pay our respects to Taoist Wuji.”

The two Taoists looked at each other, and one of them said, “So you are Kai. Please follow us.”

“Do you two know me?” Kai was a little curious!

“Our Taoist priest said that if someone named Kai comes looking for him, he should be brought to see him immediately.”

A Taoist priest said!

Kai didn’t expect that Taoist Wuji had already guessed that he would come to Leiyin Temple to find him!

The two followed the Taoist priest up the mountain path. The road was lined with pine trees, and the air was filled with a faint scent of sandalwood and fairy air.

About half an hour later, they arrived at the gate of Leiyin Temple.

The gate of Leiyin Temple is made of rosewood, with three large golden characters “Leiyin Temple” engraved on it. There is a stone lion on each side of the gate, exuding an aura of suppressing evil.

Chapter 5346

Entering the gate, there is a spacious courtyard. In the center of the courtyard stands a huge bronze bell with dense runes engraved on it. It is the treasure of Leiyin Temple – the Leiyin Bell.

But at this moment, the runes on the Leiyin Bell were a little dim, and it was obvious that something had gone wrong.

An old Taoist wearing a white Taoist robe, with white hair and a youthful face walked out of the hall. His eyes were like torches, and he exuded the pressure of a ninth-level earthly immortal. He was none other than the abbot of Leiyin Temple, Taoist Wuji.

Taoist Wuji knew that Kai and the others would definitely come, and once the matters of the Fifth Heaven were dealt with, Kai could not stay in the Fifth Heaven forever.

Kai quickly bowed and saluted: “Master, how did you know I would come to the Sixth Heaven?”

“The Sixth Hall of the Temple is in the Sixth Heaven. Of course you would come here. Besides, with your cultivation speed, it’s impossible for you to stay in the Fifth Heaven forever. The higher you go, the more resources you will have, which will be more helpful for your cultivation.”

“Besides, haven’t you always wanted to know your father’s identity? I’m afraid that unless you reach the pinnacle of the Heaven Realm, you won’t be able to find out your father’s identity, nor will you understand the secrets of the Heaven Realm back then!”

Taoist Wuji said with a smile.

Taoist Wuji knew Kai well. This guy would never be content with the status quo.

After hearing this, Kai could only smile faintly, “Master, you still understand me...”

“Nonsense, I don’t know you, how can I promise Ting’er to you?”

“But boy, you should stop messing around with other women. The little bit of yang energy in your body has been sucked away by women.”

Taoist Wuji glared at Kai and said!

Kai’s face was filled with embarrassment and he stopped talking.

Hu Mazi laughed heartily and said, “This guy keeps calling me a pervert, but he’s actually been with many more women than I have. He’s like an animal, either playing with women or on his way to playing with them, and they’re all young girls.”

“I always play with Xu Laobanniang, she’s never picky about food...”

“Master Hu, stop talking...” Kai blushed!

Seeing Kai blushing, Taoist Wuji and Hu Mazi all burst into laughter!

Hu Mazi glanced at the Leiyin Bell in the courtyard and said, “Master, there seems to be something wrong with this bell.”

Upon hearing this, Taoist Wuji looked at the Leiyin Bell, sighed, and a serious expression appeared on his face. “Fellow Daoist Hu, you have good eyesight. To be honest, Leiyin Temple has indeed encountered a difficult situation recently. Three days ago, the Leiyin Bell was stolen.”

“What?” Kai and Hu Mazi were shocked at the same time.

The Leiyin Bell is the treasure of the Leiyin Temple. It can restrain evil magic. How could it be stolen?

Taoist Wuji led the two into the main hall, and the host and guest sat down. A little Taoist boy brought them spiritual tea.

Taoist Wuji took a sip of spiritual tea and said slowly: “This Leiyin Mountain may seem ordinary, but it is actually a sealed place.

In the belly of the mountain, there are 100,000 demon souls suppressed. These demon souls committed many evil deeds in the past and were sealed here by the ancestors of my Leiyin Temple.

The Leiyin Bell is the key to suppressing the evil spirit.

Every hundred years, the Thunder Bell must be rung. The thunder energy contained in the bell’s sound will strengthen the seal, preventing the demonic spirit from escaping.”

Kai and Hu Mazi looked at each other and saw shock in each other’s eyes.

If all the 100,000 demon souls rush out, the Sixth Heaven will be devastated.

“Then Taoist priest, do you know how the Leiyin Bell was stolen? Do you have any clues?” Kai asked with a frown.

Taoist Wuji shook his head, his expression solemn: “Three nights ago, the disciples on duty suddenly heard a strange sound of wind, and then the Thunder Sound Bell began to hum and flash.

By the time they arrived at the bell pavilion, the Thunder Sound Bell had vanished. Only some strange footprints remained at the scene, like those of some kind of demonic beast, but also tinged with demonic energy. We tracked them for a long time, but had no clue what was going on.

Chapter 5347

Kai lowered his head in thought, feeling vaguely that this matter was closely related to the demons.

The demons have been trying to break the seal, release the demon soul, and make a comeback.

Now that the Leiyin Bell has been stolen, and the time is approaching the hundredth anniversary, this is by no means a coincidence.

“Master, I have an idea.”

Kai raised his head, took out the dragon-patterned bell from his storage ring, and looked at Taoist Wuji, “I have a dragon-patterned bell in my hand. Although it is not as good as the Thunder Sound Bell, it is also a treasure.

I thought, maybe I could draw runes on the Dragon Pattern Bell to mimic the Thunder Sound Bell’s effects and see if I could suppress the demonic spirit first.”

A glimmer of hope flashed in Taoist Wuji’s eyes. He looked at the dragon-patterned bell in Kai’s hand, examined it carefully for a moment, and nodded slightly: “The material of this bell is extraordinary. If runes can be drawn on it, perhaps there is a chance of trying it.

However, drawing runes is not an easy task and requires a master who is proficient in the art of spells.”

“Master, leave this matter to Master Hu and me!”

Kai turned to look at Hu Mazi, who patted his chest and assured him, “That’s right, I’m an expert at drawing runes! As long as I have the right materials, I can definitely draw powerful runes on the Dragon Pattern Bell!”

Taoist Wuji immediately ordered his disciples to get the materials needed to draw the runes, which were all mineral powders containing thunder spiritual power, as well as specially made spiritual pens and talisman paper.

Kai and Hu Mazi found a quiet room and began to draw runes in seclusion.

The two worked tirelessly day and night, drawing runes on the dragon-patterned clock stroke by stroke with their superb skills and powerful mental strength.

Each rune contains the spiritual power and hard work of the two people, and echoes the dragon pattern on the bell.

After a few days, the dragon-patterned bell was covered with dense runes, exuding a mysterious aura.

At this moment, Leiyin Mountain suddenly shook violently. The sky was covered with dark clouds, and black demonic shadows were looming in the clouds. Sharp roars echoed in the mountains. One hundred thousand demonic souls seemed to sense the loosening of the seal and began to attack frantically.

“It’s too late. We can only try our best and ring the dragon-patterned bell!”

Kai shouted loudly, and together with Hu Mazi, he carried the dragon-patterned bell to the platform on the top of the mountain.

Kai mobilized his spiritual power, held the bell hammer in both hands, and smashed it hard at the dragon-patterned bell.

“when—”

With a loud bang, the dragon-patterned bell emitted a dull sound, and the sound spread throughout the Leiyin Mountain.

The moment the bell rang, the evil shadows seemed to be restrained by some force, and their originally crazy momentum of attack was halted.

However, the power of the demon soul was too strong, and after just a moment, it began to frantically attack the seal again.

The runes on the dragon-patterned bell were shining, constantly resisting the attacks of the demon souls, but some demon souls still broke through the seal and rushed towards the top of the mountain.

Just when everyone was in despair, the dragon pattern on the dragon-patterned bell suddenly flashed with dazzling golden light, and then the golden light condensed and turned into a huge green dragon.

The Azure Dragon roared towards the sky, shaking the heavens and the earth, and then waved its huge claws to smash the demonic souls that broke through the seal one by one.

The evil spirit was temporarily suppressed, but everyone knew that this was only a temporary measure.

Although the Dragon Pattern Bell is powerful, it is not specifically designed to suppress evil spirits, and I am afraid it cannot maintain the seal for a long time.

“We must find the Leiyin Bell as soon as possible!”

Kai’s face was solemn as he looked at Taoist Wuji, “Master, I think the person who stole the Thunder Sound Bell must be trying to release the demon soul, and is most likely related to the demon clan.

Master Hu and I will go down the mountain to investigate this matter. Taoist Priest, you will lead your disciples to guard the Dragon Pattern Bell and make sure the seal remains stable.”

Taoist Wuji nodded, his expression firm. “Alright! I’ll leave everything up to you. Everyone at Leiyin Temple will do their utmost to protect the Dragon Pattern Bell and prevent the demonic spirit from escaping.”

Kai and Hu Mazi bid farewell to Taoist Wuji and flew down the mountain.

Chapter 5348

They knew very well that time was running out and that once all the evil spirits rushed out, the consequences would be disastrous.

During this investigation, they not only have to retrieve the Leiyin Bell, but also find out the mastermind behind the incident and completely put a stop to the demon clan's conspiracy.

After leaving Leiyin Mountain, Kai and Hu Mazi headed straight to Qingfeng Town.

The token that Xiao Cui had given to Kai was still in his arms. The information building corresponding to the token was one of the few intelligence bases in the Sixth Heaven that dared to get involved in the secrets of various forces. As long as they could afford the price, there was almost no information they could not find.

The two landed at the alley at the east end of Qingfeng Town. Deep in the alley was an inconspicuous wooden house. A subtle gear pattern was engraved on the lintel of the wooden house, which was the mark of the News Building.

Hu Mazi was about to push the door open when Kai raised his hand to stop him. He gathered a wisp of spiritual power at his fingertips and pressed out the same pattern as on Xiao Cui's token on the door knocker.

With a creaky sound, the wooden door opened automatically. The room was filled with a faint scent of ink. A woman in a green suit and a veil on her face was sitting at a desk sorting files.

She glanced at the two of them, her gaze pausing on the token in Kai's hand. She spoke in a flat tone, "The Information Office only recognizes tokens, not people. What are you two looking for? Let me make it clear first, if you're looking for information involving the secrets of the Kingdom of God or the core plans of the Temple, you'll need to pay high-grade immortal stones, and the completeness of the information is not guaranteed."

“We are investigating the theft of the Leiyin Bell from Leiyin Mountain three days ago.”

Kai placed the token on the table. “This includes all traces of forces that appeared near Leiyin Mountain that night, abnormal spiritual power fluctuations, and recent transaction records related to the ‘Demon Soul’ and ‘Seal’.”

The woman picked up the token and rubbed it for a while, then took out a crystal ball from the drawer and placed the token on the surface of the ball.

The crystal ball instantly lit up with a blue light, reflecting a line of small characters: “Fifth Heaven News. This token has been personally granted by the owner of this building. It has Class A authority and can access intelligence from the eastern part of the Sixth Heaven within three months.”

She put away the crystal ball, turned around, and pulled out three yellowed volumes from the bookshelf, placing them in front of the two people: “On the night the Leiyin Bell was stolen, the Information Tower’s spies on the outskirts of Leiyin Mountain recorded a total of three abnormal auras.

The first is the “bone-eroding black air” of the Sixth Hall of the Temple. Scouts have discovered traces of black-robed men on the northern slope of the mountain. They seem to be restraining the patrolling disciples of Leiyin Temple.

The second possibility is the Kingdom of God’s ‘Holy Mark Divine Power’. Remnants of silver divine patterns were detected in the stream south of the mountain, and they are consistent with the patterns on the Divine Guards’ armor; the third possibility...”

The woman paused, her tone becoming more serious. “It’s the ‘Corrupted Heart Evil Qi’ from the Evil Path Hall. I found half a talisman with a skull pattern in the grass near the bell pavilion. The talisman is made of the same material as the one used in the Fifth Heaven Evil Path Hall branch.”

Hu Mazi slammed his hand on the table, shocking the file holders. “Damn it! Haven’t these three bastards always been at odds with each other? The Divine Kingdom despises the sorcery of the Sixth Temple, and the Divine Temple hates the Dao Temple for stealing their alchemy resources. How could they get together to steal the bell?”

Kai did not speak in a hurry, but picked up the corner of the half talisman and examined it carefully.

There was still a faint trace of evil energy on the edge of the talisman, which was exactly the same as the aura encountered in the branch of the Fifth Heaven Evil Temple. But what was even more strange was that there was a faint divine pattern engraved on the back of the talisman. The style of the divine pattern was 70% similar to the golden pattern seen on the skirt of the princess of the Kingdom of God before.

Kai gathered spiritual power on his fingertips and gently tapped the talisman. “The talismans of the Evil Dao Temple never have divine patterns engraved on them, unless... someone deliberately grafted the aura of the Kingdom of God onto the talismans of the Evil Dao Temple, or these three parties are already colluding.”

Upon hearing this, the woman in light gauze handed over another file: “If you two don’t believe me, you can take a look at this transaction record.

Half a month ago, a man wearing a bronze mask posted a task in the news building, purchasing the Leiyin Mountain Sealing Rune Structure at a high price. The person who accepted the order also had financial dealings with the Sixth Hall of the Temple, the Secret Department of the Kingdom of God, and the Hall of Evil.

It’s just that the man’s identity is hidden, and we haven’t found out his true face yet.”

Chapter 5349

Hu Mazi leaned over and glanced at the transaction amount on the file, then gasped, “Wow, a full 100,000 high-grade immortal stones! What the hell does this bastard want to do?”

“I want to borrow 100,000 demon souls to disrupt the Sixth Heaven.”

Kai closed the file, a cold look flashing in his eyes, “The Sixth Temple wants to use the Demonic Soul to weaken the power of Leiyin Temple and the Kingdom of God, so as to take the opportunity to expand their territory;

There might be traitors in the Kingdom of God who want to use the demon soul to create chaos and overthrow the current ruler. After all, the princess of the Kingdom of God ran away from her marriage, which already showed that there were divisions within the Kingdom of God.

As for the Evil Path Hall, they have always wanted to capture powerful souls to refine into the ‘Soul Killing Pill’. 100,000 demon souls are the perfect raw material for them.”

The woman in the veil nodded. “Mr. Chen’s analysis is correct. But I have another piece of information that may be useful to you.”

Last night, the Divine Kingdom’s divine guards suddenly sealed the west gate of the Divine Kingdom’s capital, claiming they were tracking down a thief who stole the Divine Kingdom’s sacred artifacts. However, according to our spies, the Divine Guards were actually looking for a cultivator who could control demonic energy. This person seems to be connected to the Evil Dao Temple.

Kai and Hu Mazi looked at each other and had a direction in mind.

The sudden attack on the gate of the Divine Capital by the Divine Guards must be related to the Leiyin Bell. Perhaps the cultivator who controlled the demonic energy was the one from the Evil Dao Palace who was responsible for transporting the Leiyin Bell.

“Master Hu, I want to go to the Kingdom of God. This time, all three forces are suddenly involved with the Leiyin Bell. I always feel that something is wrong.”

“The people of the God Clan have always been extremely arrogant and should not practice evil magic. However, the Sixth Palace Master of the Temple is not necessarily the same. Many of the God Clan members in the Temple have no backbone.”

“So I want to understand this Divine Kingdom and see what’s going on. If this Divine Kingdom, the Divine Temple, and the Evil Dao Temple are really connected, it won’t be easy to get the Thunder Sound Bell back!”

After leaving the news building, Kai said to Hu Mazi!

“It’s too dangerous for you to go to the Divine Kingdom alone. Besides, the Divine Kingdom is full of Divine Clan monks, each of them is extremely arrogant. You will be exposed immediately if you go there.”

“Besides, if you go like this, I’m afraid you won’t even be able to enter the God City, and people will look down on you...”

Hu Mazi said!

“Don’t worry, I have a plan. Aren’t they trying to capture the princess? I can help the Kingdom of God capture the princess, and then we can enter.”

Kai said!

Hu Mazi was a little worried when he heard this. “Are you really going to capture the princess of the Kingdom of God? Not to mention that she might have hidden guards around her. Even if you capture her, the Kingdom of God is heavily guarded. Can you go in with a princess who is full of resistance?”

“Besides, we don’t know where the princess is now. How are you going to catch her?”

“The News Building should know. I can get information from the News Building.”

After Kai finished speaking, he rubbed the token given by Xiao Cui with his fingertips, and soon the specific location of the princess of the kingdom of God appeared in his sea of consciousness.

Kai smiled faintly: “The News Tower just sent a message that the princess is hiding in the Luoxia Valley south of Qingfeng Town. She is alone in the valley without any divine guards.

As for entering the Kingdom of God, as long as she is in my hands, the Kingdom of God will not easily take action against me. They want a complete princess for marriage and will never let anything happen to her.”

Hu Mazi still felt uneasy, but he also knew that there was no better way at the moment, so he could only take out a few invisibility talismans from his storage bag: “Here, Luoxia Valley has a natural spiritual barrier, this talisman can help you hide your breath.

If it really doesn’t work, don’t force it, we can think of other ways.”

Kai took the talisman and casually stuck it on his body. His figure instantly blended into the surrounding light and shadow: “You stay in Qingfeng Town and keep an eye on the movements of the Information Building. If you find out the whereabouts of the Leiyin Bell, report it to me immediately.

I will definitely return with news from the Kingdom of God in ten days at the latest.”

As soon as he finished speaking, he took off into the air and flew towards the Sunset Valley.

Chapter 5350

Luoxia Valley lives up to its name. It was dusk at this time, and the sky was filled with rosy clouds, casting even more brilliant colors on the pink flowers and trees all over the mountains.

By the stream in the center of the valley, the princess of the gods in a white dress was sitting on a blue stone. Her fingertips lightly touched the water surface, and golden divine patterns rippled in the water. She was the woman who had been rescued by Kai and Hu Mazi before.

Kai hid behind a tree, looking at the sadness between her brows, and did not show up rashly.

It was not until the sun had completely sunk into the horizon, dusk enveloped the valley, and the princess stood up to leave that he suddenly took action.

A golden spiritual power instantly wrapped around the princess' wrist, firmly restraining her magical powers.

The princess turned around in shock and anger, and saw Kai appearing out of nowhere. Her eyes were full of vigilance: "It's you! What do you want to do?"

"Take you back to the Kingdom of God."

Kai's tone was flat, and the spiritual power at his fingertips tightened. "The Kingdom of God is looking for you everywhere. Instead of being captured and punished by the Divine Guards, why not come with me? At least I won't do anything to you like they did."

The princess struggled to break free, but Kai's spiritual power was as firm as an iron clamp. She mobilized her divine power, and golden divine patterns lit up around her body, but were instantly suppressed by the evil-breaking talisman cast by Kai's other hand. "Don't waste your energy. Your cultivation is not as good as mine. If you continue to struggle, you will only suffer."

“Impossible, you are just a first-rank cultivator in the Earthly Immortal Realm, how could you trap me...” The princess didn’t believe it and continued to struggle!

But no matter how she struggled, she couldn’t break free.

“Even if I’m a first-grade Earthly Immortal, you’re no match for me. Just follow me!”

Kai said with a faint smile!

“I would rather die than return to the Kingdom of God!”

A trace of determination flashed in the princess’ eyes, and she was about to use her divine power to hurt herself.

Seeing this, Kai’s eyes turned cold. He took a step forward, stretched out his hand to grab the hem of her skirt, and pretended to pull it down: “If you dare to die, I will destroy your chastity now.

Do you think that the kingdom of God will use you as a princess of the gods who has lost her virginity for marriage?

By then, not only will you be unable to save yourself, but even the people you want to protect will be implicated by you.”

The princess froze, and the determination on her face was instantly replaced by horror.

As a princess of the God Clan, she was taught from childhood that chastity was more important than life. If her reputation was really ruined by Kai, a human cultivator, she would not only become a laughing stock in the God Clan, but her father might even attack the people around her to save face.

“You...you dare!”

The princess' voice trembled, but she didn't dare to struggle anymore. She could only glare at Kai angrily: "What do you want? I'll go with you, but if you dare to disrespect me, I'll take you down with me even if it costs me my life!"

Kai loosened his hands, retracted his spiritual power, took out a rope from his storage bag, and gently tied her hands. It seemed like a restraint, but in fact it left room for her to maneuver and would not hurt her.

"Don't worry, as long as you take me into the Divine Kingdom Palace, I will naturally let you go. Before that, you'd better be obedient, otherwise I will take off my pants and f*ck you."

Kai spoke to the princess like a rough man.

When the princess heard this, her face immediately turned red and her legs involuntarily clamped together. She didn't expect Kai to say such vulgar words.

The princess bit her lip and looked at the rope around her wrist, her eyes full of humiliation, but she didn't say anything in the end.

Kai said no more and took her into the air, flying towards the capital of the kingdom of gods.

After flying in the air for about eight hours, the world in front of us suddenly changed.

The originally sparse clouds became dense as cotton wool, emitting a faint golden light. The fairy air in the air was so rich that it almost condensed into dew. When I inhaled it, I felt my meridians getting slightly hot.

Below was no longer the jagged rocks of an ordinary mountain range, but a vast plain.

Chapter 5351

Fairy grasses several feet high can be seen everywhere on the plains, with bright spiritual light flowing on their leaves. Some of the fairy grasses even have scarlet fairy fruits on the top, emitting alluring spiritual fluctuations.

Green veins bulge out from the ground from time to time. Those are the exposed immortal veins. One can vaguely see light golden spiritual energy rushing through the veins, like the blood of the earth.

“Is this the God’s Falling Plain?”

Kai was secretly shocked.

He had seen many spiritual veins in the fifth heaven, but he had never seen such a dense and pure group of immortal veins.

The resources on this plain alone are probably equivalent to the combined resources of half of the forces in the fifth heaven.

It is no wonder that the Kingdom of God has become the top force in the Sixth Heaven as it owns such a precious land.

The princess of the kingdom of gods, with her hands tied, felt a familiar breath, but her face became uglier. She turned her head away and didn’t look at the scene below. It was obvious that she only felt resistance and disgust towards this land that nourished the gods.

“Further ahead is the capital of the Kingdom of God.”

The princess’ voice was icy. “There are three layers of barriers outside the Divine Capital. Only those who possess the Divine Kingdom’s token or possess divine blood can enter. If you try to force your way in, you will be torn apart by the divine power of the barriers.”

Kai did not respond, but just glanced sharply ahead.

Sure enough, at the end of the plain, the outline of a huge city gradually became clear.

The walls of the Divine Capital were built with pale golden divine stones, reaching a height of a hundred feet. The walls were engraved with intricate golden divine patterns. As the divine patterns flowed, an invisible barrier enveloped the entire city, emitting a heart-pounding pressure.

Dozens of divine guards in silver armor stood at the city gate. The aura of each divine guard was above the seventh level of the Earthly Immortal Realm. The double-winged divine patterns on the spears in their hands were shining brightly, and they were on high alert.

Kai and the princess slowly landed at the city gate. As soon as they touched down, two divine guards immediately stepped forward, their spears pointed directly at Kai: “Who are you? How dare you trespass into the divine capital! Let go of Her Highness the Princess!”

The princess raised her head and said coldly, “I followed him voluntarily. I asked your commander to come out and see me.”

The divine guards looked at each other, their faces full of surprise and suspicion.

The order they received was to retrieve the princess at all costs. Now the princess was brought here by a human monk, who said she came voluntarily, which made them at a loss as to how to respond.

One of the divine guards did not dare to delay and quickly turned around and ran towards the city, apparently to report.

Although the other divine guards did not put away their guns, they did not act rashly. They just surrounded Kai and the princess vigilantly, staring at Kai, fearing that he would do something bad to the princess.

After about an incense stick of time, a clear sound of ringing bells came from the city.

A woman walked slowly over. She was wearing a lavender palace dress with delicate phoenix patterns embroidered on the hem of her skirt. Her long black hair was tied into a flying bun and pinned with a red gold hairpin inlaid with gemstones. Her skin was as white as jade, and there was a hint of charm between her eyebrows, yet a hint of calmness.

She looked to be in her early twenties, but her aura had already reached the peak of the eighth level of the Earthly Immortal Realm.

The woman walked up to Kai, her eyes first swept over the princess with her hands bound, then fell on Kai, her tone calm but with a bit of scrutiny: “My fellow Taoist, thank you for sending Her Royal Highness the Princess back to the Divine Capital.

I am Ziyuan, an aide to the king. May I know your name? Is there anything I can do for you in returning the princess to her home?”

Kai looked at Zi Yuan and thought to himself.

The staff of the Lord of the Kingdom of God is so young, beautiful, and has a high level of cultivation.

If an ordinary cultivator wants to climb to this position, it will take at least hundreds of years of accumulation. Zi Yuan looks so young, either she is gifted or has special connections.

Looking at the palace dress she was wearing, although it was not the style worn by the queen and concubines, it was made of fine materials and was completely different from the clothing of ordinary officials.

Chapter 5352

The look she gave him, besides scrutiny, also held a subtle hint of wariness. It was the look of someone who had spent years at the center of power, accustomed to weighing the pros and cons.

Kai quickly guessed in his mind: This Zi Yuan was probably not just the king's aide.

The ruler of the Divine Kingdom is old and needs someone to take care of him. Zi Yuan is young and beautiful, and has sufficient cultivation and intelligence. Maybe she is the ruler's bedmate.

On weekdays, he helps the king deal with trivial matters, and occasionally participates in political affairs as a staff member, which allows him to hide his tracks while staying by the king's side at any time.

Kai felt a little distressed when he thought of such a beautiful girl being pressed down by an old man.

However, Kai did not show it, but instead showed a perfect smile on his face, and said with a cupped hand: "I am Kai. I am not sending the princess back this time for any reward. It is just that I happened to encounter Her Royal Highness the Princess alone outside, and I was worried about her safety, so I took the liberty to send her back.

After all, the Kingdom of God and the Temple are about to marry, and the safety of Her Royal Highness the Princess is related to the stability of the Sixth Heaven. I dare not sit idly by."

He specifically mentioned the word "marriage" to test Zi Yuan's reaction and to make his own behavior appear more reasonable.

A monk who cares about the situation in the Sixth Heaven and sends the lost princess back is more likely to make people let down their guard than a monk with ulterior motives.

When Zi Yuan heard the word "marriage", a subtle fluctuation flashed in her eyes, but she quickly regained her composure and said with a smile, "Fellow Daoist Chen is indeed thoughtful.

Her Royal Highness the Princess has just returned and must be tired. Let her return to the palace to rest first. I will take Fellow Daoist Chen around the Divine Capital."

Kai nodded: "Okay."

Zi Yuan said no more and ordered the divine guards to take the princess away. She then turned around and led Kai towards the city.

The streets of the Divine Capital are wide and clean, and the buildings on both sides are built with divine stones and fairy wood, with carved beams and painted rafters, exuding the luxury and majesty of the gods everywhere.

The gods' monks who were coming and going on the street would avoid Zi Yuan when they saw her, obviously they were extremely wary of Zi Yuan's identity.

The bluestone road was slightly moistened by the morning dew, with a light golden sheen. The branches and leaves of the sacred trees on both sides drooped, filtering the scattered sunlight onto Kai's shoulders.

Zi Yuan walked half a step ahead, the hem of her skirt with phoenix pattern swaying slightly with her steps. She seemed nonchalant, but her eyes were always fixed on Kai's expression. She would ask Kai a few questions every few steps.

"Fellow Daoist Chen looks unfamiliar. Perhaps he has just arrived at the Sixth Heaven?"

Zi Yuan's fingertips brushed against a hairpin inlaid with spiritual jade on a street stall. Her tone was as gentle as a casual chat, "The Sixth Heaven is not like the Fifth Heaven. The forces are intertwined and complex. Fellow Daoist, a casual cultivator, dares to walk around alone. You are quite brave."

Kai was staring at the arrogant face of the God Clan stall owner behind the stall. He scratched his head when he heard this and smiled a bit foolishly: "I have only been in the Sixth Heaven for a few days, I just want to see the excitement.

I was bored of staying in the Fifth Heaven before, and when I heard there was a magnificent place called the Divine Kingdom in the Sixth Heaven, I wanted to come and take a look. Who knew I would even meet Her Royal Highness the Princess?

He deliberately emphasized the word “lively” and his eyes fell on a group of children from the God Clan who were arguing around the fairy fruit not far away, as if he were a casual cultivator who had never seen the world.

Zi Yuan paused slightly, and when she turned her head, the scrutiny in her eyes intensified. “Oh? What do you do for a living in the Fifth Heaven? Life is not easy for independent cultivators. Since you have cultivated to the first level of the Earthly Immortal Realm, you should have some ability to make a living, right?”

Her words seemed concerned, but in fact they were just questions. If Kai had a powerful force behind him, he would definitely reveal flaws in his ability to make a living, or mention the industry of a certain sect.

Kai seemed not to hear the hidden meaning and sighed: “What else can I do? I can run errands for others and find some low-level immortal herbs to exchange for immortal stones.

Sometimes I’m lucky enough to pick up discarded talisman paper thrown away by others, and I’ll try to draw it myself. I didn’t expect that I would actually use it to trap Her Royal Highness the Princess this time.

Chapter 5353

As Kai spoke, he pulled out a wrinkled yellow talisman from his arms. The runes on it were crooked and twisted, showing the appearance of a beginner. “Look, this is just a broken thing. I thought it was useless.”

Zi Yuan’s eyes swept across the talisman paper, and she subconsciously gathered a wisp of spiritual power at her fingertips. It was indeed the lowest-level god-trapping talisman. The spiritual power fluctuations were chaotic. Not to mention trapping the princess of the gods, even a first-grade cultivator in the Earthly Immortal Realm might not be able to hold her back for a moment.

But she clearly remembered that when Kai imprisoned the princess at the city gate, the golden spiritual power was as condensed as substance, which was definitely not comparable to this useless talisman.

“You are lucky, fellow Daoist.”

Zi Yuan suppressed her doubts and pointed to a group of Divine Guards passing by at the end of the street. “Those in front are Divine Guards responsible for patrolling the West City District. The Divine Capital has been a bit uneasy lately, and there are always some unidentified cultivators wandering around. If you’re wandering around, please avoid those secluded alleys.”

She deliberately mentioned the unidentified monk to see whether Kai would react to the divine guards sealing the city gate.

Kai, however, only squinted his eyes to look at the silver armor of the divine guards, and said in amazement: “This armor is really shiny, much more impressive than those soldiers I saw in the fifth heaven!

If I had one, no one would dare to bully me when I go out to run errands.”

As he spoke, he stretched out his hand to touch the armor of the divine guard, but was glared at coldly by the divine guard and he withdrew his hand awkwardly, without responding to the words of the unidentified monk.

Zi Yuan looked at his nonchalant look, and the doubts in her heart not only did not disappear, but became even heavier.

She didn’t believe that a cultivator who could trap the princess would be so vulgar and ignorant, but Kai’s words and actions were flawless. Whether it was his awe of the kingdom of God, his greed for treasures, or his avoidance of key issues, he was like a real low-level cultivator.

“The Moon-Watching Tower is in front of us. It’s one of the few towers in the Divine Capital that allows outsiders to enter. Would you like to go up and sit for a while?”

Zi Yuan suddenly changed direction and led Kai to a loft with cloud patterns carved on it. “From upstairs, you can see most of the scenery of the Divine Capital. Since you are here to see it, why not go up and take a look?”

She planned to try in a different environment. Perhaps when she saw the imperial palace or the sealed place from a high place, Kai would reveal his true identity.

Kai’s eyes lit up immediately, and he quickly followed: “Great, great! I’ve never stood on a tall building and admired the scenery!”

He took two steps at a time and walked up the attic stairs, completely unaware of Zi Yuan’s cold gaze on his back.

She had already decided that no matter whether Kai was really a casual cultivator or not, she would send someone to keep an eye on him. A person who could trap the princess of the gods at the first level of the Earthly Immortal Realm must not be left alone.

As soon as I reached the second floor of the attic, I heard two gods’ monks talking in low voices at the next table. One of them mentioned that the seal of Leiyin Mountain had moved again. The other one quickly covered his mouth and glanced around vigilantly.

Kai picked up the tea on the table and pretended to drink it, but his ears pricked up secretly.

Zi Yuan was sitting opposite him, watching all his little movements, with an imperceptible smile on her lips. She wanted to see how long Kai, who was pretending to be stupid, could keep pretending.

At this time, the sound of loud morning reading attracted Kai. Kai looked in the direction of the sound and found that there was an institution of higher learning not far from Wangyue Tower!

Kai looked at the students in the academy. He saw that they were dressed in gorgeous clothes, had rosy complexions, and their every move showed the inherent dignity of the gods. However, in Kai's eyes, their spirit and energy revealed a sense of pedantry.

Seeing Kai's eyes looking at those students, Zi Yuan said proudly: "This is the most noble institution of higher learning in our Kingdom of God. All the students here are geniuses."

"We, the cultivators of the God Clan, not only practice cultivation blindly, but also learn knowledge, cultivate our sentiments, and cultivate our inner spirit."

"If you don't have an inner spirit and just practice blindly, you will become a barbarian!"

Chapter 5354

"It turns out that the monks of the God Clan are so elegant, but I heard that many of the monks in the temple are practicing evil magic, and it seems that all the monks in the temple are from the God Clan." Kai said calmly!

Zi Yuan was stunned for a moment, then said: "The God Clan is huge, so it's normal for there to be some trash. Anyway, the cultivators in our God Kingdom are definitely all elegant people."

Kai's lips curled up slightly, forming a subtle arc. There was a hint of teasing in that smile, and he did not follow Zi Yuan's words to praise the elegance of the people of the Kingdom of God.

"Miss Zi, what kind of classics, history, and literature do you study in this academy?"

Kai asked curiously, with a somewhat nonchalant tone, but he was actually secretly observing the surrounding environment.

There was a faint fluctuation of spiritual energy in this academy, which was completely different from the hustle and bustle of the streets in the capital, and it seemed to hide some unknown power.

Since you are so curious about the university, I will take you on a tour.

Zi Yuan took Kai out of Wangyue Tower and headed straight for the academy!

Zi Yuan saw that Kai was looking at the academy with eyes full of curiosity and shock, a hint of pride flashed in her eyes, and she walked into the academy with lotus steps.

The two sides of the academy were guarded by divine guards, but when they saw Zi Yuan, they all saluted without anyone stopping them, which showed Zi Yuan's status in the kingdom of God.

“If you want to understand our school, you must go to the library and study carefully.”

Zi Yuan took Kai to the library.

Kai was very surprised that Zi Yuan dared to bring Kai to such an important place.

“Miss Zi, you brought me to the library just when we first met. Aren't you afraid that I might discover the secrets of your God Clan?”

Kai asked curiously!

“Hahaha, this library contains only some classics of our God Clan, recording the glory of ancient times and passing on the wisdom of our ancestors.”

“Students studying here can not only comprehend the ultimate principles of heaven and earth, but also cultivate their character and learn etiquette.”

“If you want to learn, you can take a look. Then you won’t be like those cultivators in the lower worlds who only know how to fight and kill, without any foundation.”

As she spoke, her eyes swept towards Kai intentionally or unintentionally, and the contempt in her words was not concealed at all.

Kai snorted in his heart, but still had a gentle smile on his face. He walked to the bookshelf and casually pulled out an ancient book.

When I opened it, I found that it was full of the glorious history of the gods, with many derogatory words about other races, and the text was full of arrogance and prejudice.

The so-called gods are nothing but the human race. It’s just that some cultivators feel that they are gifted and of noble status, so they deliberately separate themselves from the human race, creating an extra god race.

Over time, the gods became larger and larger. After all, many cultivators were proud of their status as gods.

Kai calmly closed the book, turned to look at Zi Yuan, and asked, “Miss Zi, in your opinion, which is more important, studying or practicing?”

Zi Yuan raised her eyebrows slightly and replied without hesitation, “Of course, both are important. Cultivation can improve strength and protect the dignity of our God Clan; reading can enlighten the mind and see the nature, allowing our God Clan to enjoy the light of civilization forever.”

“Fellow Daoist Chen, you are from the Fifth Heaven. I imagine that the cultivators there only focus on cultivation and neglect inner cultivation, right?”

As she spoke, she observed Kai's expression, trying to find flaws in his reaction.

Kai thought to himself that Zi Yuan was indeed pressing forward step by step, but he would not reveal his identity so easily.

He shook his head slightly and said with a false sigh, "Miss Zi is absolutely right. Most cultivators in the fifth heaven are busy trying to survive and really don't have time to care about these things."

"I am also fortunate to have come to the Kingdom of God and witnessed such a prosperous civilization. But I wonder, if I immerse myself in ancient books and ignore the changes in the outside world, how can I improve my strength?"

Chapter 5355

Zi Yuan's lips curled up, revealing a confident smile. "Fellow Daoist Chen, you may not know that in my Divine Kingdom, cultivation methods and knowledge complement each other. In the process of reading and understanding, your understanding of the spiritual power of heaven and earth will also become more profound, and your cultivation will be twice as effective with half the effort."

"Furthermore, the Divine Kingdom's schools also have training grounds. The students combine work and rest, so their strength should not be underestimated."

At this moment, the bell in the academy rang, and a group of students filed out and walked towards the training ground.

Kai's eyes flashed, and he suggested, "Miss Zi, in that case, could you let me see the cultivation style of the students from the Kingdom of God?"

Although Zi Yuan had some doubts in her heart, she did not want to lose her composure in front of Kai, so she nodded and agreed: "Okay, Brother Chen, please follow me."

The two arrived at the training ground and saw dozens of students displaying their magical powers.

Some of them were surrounded by golden divine patterns, controlling their spiritual power to transform into sharp blades, slashing towards the void; some of them were chanting something, summoning the power of space, and stirring up a gust of wind.

Their moves were smooth and their coordination was seamless, clearly a result of extensive training.

Kai looked amazed on the surface, but he was secretly analyzing in his heart.

The strength of these students is indeed impressive among their peers, but their fighting styles are too rigid and lack flexibility.

If you encounter an opponent of equal strength but with strange tactics, it may be difficult to deal with.

While observing, he talked to Zi Yuan inconspicuously, trying to get more information about the Kingdom of God from her words, especially clues related to the theft of the Leiyin Bell.

However, Zi Yuan seemed to be prepared and her words were always watertight, making it difficult for Kai to break through.

At this moment, a male student glanced over here and then walked straight over.

The male student was wearing a brocade blue academic robe and a jade pendant with the word “Wei” engraved on it around his waist. He had a handsome face but a bit of arrogance.

When he saw Kai standing side by side with Zi Yuan, his brows immediately furrowed. He bowed to Zi Yuan and said in a gentle voice, “Master Zi Yuan, why are you here at the training ground?”

As he spoke, his eyes swept across Kai like a sharp sword, with undisguised scrutiny and hostility, as if he was looking at something inferior.

Zi Yuan smiled faintly and introduced, “This is Fellow Daoist Kai, who just came to the Divine Capital from the Fifth Heaven. I’m showing him around the academy. This is the son of Lord Weiwei, Wei Feng.”

When Wei Feng heard the words “Fifth Heaven”, the contempt in his eyes grew even stronger. He nodded perfunctorily at Kai, his tone polite as if giving alms: “So you are a fellow Daoist from the Fifth Heaven. No wonder you look unfamiliar. But this academy is a sacred place of the Divine Kingdom, not just anyone can visit casually.”

He obviously did not take Kai, who was at the first level of the Earthly Immortal Realm, seriously, especially since the other party was a human cultivator from a lower world.

Zi Yuan looked at the two of them with a smile on her face, without interrupting, and was obviously happy to see Wei Feng putting pressure on Kai.

Seeing that Zi Yuan didn’t stop him, Wei Feng became bolder and deliberately raised his voice: “Fellow Daoist Chen, I see that you seem very interested in the academy? But I must remind you that the academy in my Divine Kingdom teaches exquisite knowledge inherited from ancient times.

“It involves the laws of heaven and earth, the mysteries of the soul, and is not something you can compare to with the superficial methods of the Fifth Heaven. I’m afraid that even if you were allowed to stay in the academy, you might not be able to understand even a little bit of this knowledge.”

This statement is both a boast and a naked humiliation.

When the students around heard the noise, they stopped practicing and gathered around curiously, their eyes moving between the three people, and many of them had an expression of watching a good show on their faces.

Kai smiled nonchalantly, his tone calm, “Master Wei, you are wrong. The way to learn is to be practical, not to pretend to be profound.”

I just flipped through a few books in the library. They were all about how glorious the gods were and how lowly other races were. But there was no mention of the balance between the soul and spiritual power that is truly important in cultivation. It is better not to learn such knowledge.

Chapter 5356

“You’re talking nonsense!”

Wei Feng’s face darkened, and he immediately retorted, “The Divine Rune Resonance Technique recorded in the scriptures of my Divine Kingdom is the supreme method for harmonizing the soul and spiritual power. You don’t even understand it, and you dare to comment on it?”

“Oh? Divine Rune Resonance?”

Kai raised his eyebrows, as if he was interested. “Could it be that by using the mental fluctuations when drawing the divine runes, the spiritual energy is guided to flow at a specific frequency? If so, then this method is too backward.”

He paused, his voice clearly carried throughout the audience: “The essence of divine patterns is the embodiment of the rules of heaven and earth. True resonance is not about deliberate guidance, but about allowing the soul to merge into the rules themselves.

Just like water naturally diverges when it encounters rocks, there’s no need for forced manipulation. Your obsession with fixed divine patterns has only constrained the nature of your spiritual power, and this is simply missing the point.”

These words seemed simple, but they directly pointed out the core flaw of the divine rune technique. Even Zi Yuan couldn't help but have a hint of surprise in her eyes.

Wei Feng's face flushed red as he tried to defend himself, "That's nonsense! How can we allow a foreign cultivator like you to slander the magic that has been passed down in our Divine Kingdom for thousands of years? You say our knowledge is useless, then what profound knowledge do you have?"

Kai smiled slightly and looked around: "Knowledge is not about quantity, but about depth. For example, I just saw a student practicing spatial magic, but he could only forcibly tear the void, but did not know the trick of 'space folding'.

Using the soul as a mirror, reflecting the folds of space, only a trace of spiritual power is needed to pry open a distance of a hundred miles, which is a hundred times more labor-saving than tearing it apart with brute force."

He casually picked up a dry branch and drew a simple folded symbol on the ground: "Understand this symbol, then use your spirit to sense it, and you will know after trying it."

A student who had just manipulated the power of space skeptically tried Kai's method. After a moment, he exclaimed, "Really! I feel the space around me soften, and it's effortless to manipulate it!"

The whole audience was in an uproar. Even Wei Feng was stunned. He only had a superficial understanding of the advanced method of spatial magical power, and Kai could actually explain it in one sentence?

"Humph, you only know some techniques!" Wei Feng immediately pulled out an ancient book. "This is 'The Theory of Heaven and Earth Gods' written by my divine ancestor. It contains the ultimate understanding of the laws of the great Dao. How can a casual cultivator like you from a lower world understand it?"

Kai took a look and found that he had seen the so-called theory of heaven and earth in the library, so he smiled faintly and said, “Like the book said, ‘The gods should be judged by blood, and all those who are not gods are ants.’ But all things in heaven and earth have spirits, and even ants can shake trees, so what can blood tell us?”

Furthermore, this chapter on cultivation only emphasizes the step-by-step absorption of immortal vein spiritual energy, but does not mention how to break through in desperate situations. If these students leave the immortal vein treasure land of the kingdom of God, how much strength can they have?”

He spoke at a steady pace, and each of his words accurately pointed out the biases in the ancient books.

Wei Feng’s face flushed red as he pointed at Kai, unable to speak for a long time. “You...you are making a crooked argument! How can you interfere with the texts of my God Clan? If you have the guts, explain it clearly. If you can’t, I will make you pay for blaspheming our ancestors today!”

A hint of surprise flashed in Zi Yuan’s eyes. She didn’t expect that Kai could remember the contents of the book just by flipping through it in the library. She didn’t expect that he could even offer insights into the classics of the gods.

Zi Yuan then followed up the conversation by saying, “Since Master Wei is interested, why not let Fellow Daoist Chen speak? This will also allow us to hear different perspectives.”

Wei Feng immediately perked up and started to debate: “Okay! Then let me ask you, the Hongmeng Sutra states that ‘the divine pattern is the mark of the beginning of heaven and earth, and can only be activated by the blood of the gods’. Do you dare to refute it?”

Chapter 5357

Kai smiled and said, “The divine pattern is indeed the manifestation of the rules of heaven and earth, but the activation of the rules depends on the control of spiritual power, not bloodline.

Although I am not a god, I can draw talismans to suppress divine patterns.”

He flicked his fingertips, and an evil-breaking talisman appeared out of thin air. Runes flowed on it, and there was a faint fluctuation that could restrain the golden divine pattern.

Kai had learned the art from both the Divine Pattern Ancestor and the Array Demon, all of which were taught directly. For Wei Feng to talk about the Divine Pattern in front of Kai was like showing off his sword in front of Guan Gong.

Wei Feng’s pupils shrank, and he asked again, “Then the Wanfa Tongjian says ‘cultivation should be gradual and progressive, and one should not jump to a higher level’. Do you dare to say that this is wrong?”

“Gradual progress is a foundation, but it’s not an iron rule.”

Kai shook his head. “Back then, the ancestor of the human race had a sudden enlightenment in a desperate situation, breaking through two major realms from Earthly Immortal to Heavenly Immortal in one night. Was he also following a routine? Cultivation is like rowing against the current. Sometimes, burning your boats can open up a new path.”

He quoted from classics, ranging from ancient human books to practical examples of cultivation, and refuted each question raised by Wei Feng thoroughly.

The students around gradually gathered around and listened to Kai’s words, many of them showing thoughtful expressions.

Veins popped up on Wei Feng’s forehead. He was completely no match for him in terms of knowledge. He could only get angry and say, “Empty talk will harm the country! In the end, what counts in cultivation is strength!”

You’re a first-grade Earthly Immortal trash. Even if you talk big, it won’t change the fact that you’re weak! If you’re brave enough, let’s have a fight and see how I teach you, a human who doesn’t know your place, a lesson!”

As he spoke, the golden divine patterns around him lit up, and the aura of a seventh-level Earthly Immortal Realm was released, clearly showing that he was truly furious.

Zi Yuan frowned and said, “Wei Feng, don’t be rude!”

But Wei Feng refused to listen. He stared at Kai and said sternly, “What? You don’t dare anymore? Weren’t you very talkative just now? Now I’ll let you know that in the face of absolute strength, your twisted theories are not worth mentioning at all!”

Kai looked at his exasperated expression, a cold arc rising from the corner of his mouth: “Let’s compete, but I have a condition.”

“What conditions?” Wei Feng thought he was begging for mercy, and a smug smile appeared on his face.

“If I win, you’ll have to admit that what the Divine Kingdom Academy teaches isn’t necessarily the truth.” Kai’s gaze swept across the students around him, “You’ll also have to admit that Divine Clan cultivators aren’t necessarily superior to Human Clan cultivators.”

Wei Feng agreed without hesitation: “Okay! If you lose, you will kneel down and kowtow, slap yourself in the face, and get out of the capital!”

Kai’s lips curled up into a playful smile. “No problem. But I’m not a man of few words. If Young Master Wei gets hurt, don’t go crying and complaining to the Lord Weiwei.”

“Arrogant!” Wei Feng shouted angrily, his figure flashed, and the golden spiritual power condensed into a fist, rushing towards Kai’s door with a sound of breaking wind!

“Puff...”

Kai’s eyes were full of disdain, and the Dragon-Slaying Sword suddenly appeared in his hand, and he slashed with it casually.

The sound of blood splattering was particularly harsh in the quiet courtyard of the school. The warm blood beads splashed on the bluestone slabs, instantly spreading into dazzling red.

Wei Feng, a seventh-level Earth Immortal, froze in place, his pupils suddenly contracted, staring at his empty right arm.

Where the arm was supposed to be connected, there was only a smooth wound left. The meridians at the break were still madly gushing out spiritual power and blood. The severe pain instantly overwhelmed his mind like a tide.

“Ah, my hand!”

A shrill scream suddenly rang out, and Wei Feng staggered back two steps, pressing his wound tightly with his other hand. The pride and arrogance on his face were instantly torn apart by fear and pain.

He looked at Kai with eyes filled with incredible resentment, “You dare to hurt me? I am the son of the Lord Guard of the Divine Kingdom, and you, a lowly human cultivator, dare to cut off my arm!”

Chapter 5358

Zi Yuan’s face darkened. Kai’s sword was so fast that she couldn’t stop it.

The surrounding students of the Divine Clan had already turned pale with fear. At this moment, they were all silent and subconsciously shrank back.

They grew up in the kingdom of God and were used to seeing fellow cultivators competing with each other, but they had never seen such a brutal attack. Without a word of nonsense or hesitation, with just one sword, the arm of the seventh-grade cultivator in the Earthly Immortal Realm was cut off.

The dragon-slaying sword with a cold glow looked ordinary, but when the sword was swung just now, they did not see Kai's movements clearly. They only saw a flash of silver light before their eyes, followed by blood splattering.

A first-grade Earth Immortal easily cut off the arm of a seventh-grade Earth Immortal. No one would believe this kind of thing if they hadn't seen it with their own eyes.

Zi Yuan's pupils also shrank sharply. She always thought that Kai was just a pawn pushed forward by the forces behind the scenes. He was at a low level and only dared to escort the princess back because of the support of others.

But the scene just now completely overturned her cognition. A first-grade Earthly Immortal Realm cultivator cut off the arm of a seventh-grade Earthly Immortal Realm cultivator. This could not be explained by good luck or a strong weapon.

The control of spiritual power when swinging the sword, the grasp of timing, and the absolute control over the situation are simply not something an ordinary first-grade cultivator in the immortal realm can possess.

"We already agreed not to pursue grievances later. Do you, the cultivators of the God Clan, all talk like farts?"

Kai slowly retracted the Dragon Slaying Sword. The blood on the sword flowed along the sword pattern like a living thing, and instantly restored its original bright color.

And after saying this, everyone in the room blushed!

They just heard that Kai and Wei Feng had agreed that even if they were injured, they would not seek revenge.

Now Wei Feng is actually using his identity to pressure others, which is obviously a lack of credibility.

Kai raised his eyes and glanced at the students from the Divine Clan present. Wherever his eyes fell, all the students subconsciously lowered their heads, not daring to look him in the eye.

The young men who had been full of contempt just now now felt that the gaze was as cold as ice, as if if they looked at him one more time, they would end up like Wei Feng.

“We, the monks of the Divine Kingdom, believe in ‘convincing others with reason’. How can you hurt others at will?”

A middle-aged monk in a green Confucian robe stood out from the crowd. He was a tutor at the academy, and his cultivation level was at the eighth level of the Earthly Immortal Realm. At this moment, he stared at Kai with a sullen expression.

“Fellow Daoist Chen, this is the Divine Kingdom Academy, not the place for you to act wildly! Why don’t you apologize quickly? Come with me to see Lord Weiwei and explain this matter clearly!” said the middle-aged monk!

“Convince people with reason?”

Kai sneered, his eyes filled with mockery. “Just now, your student, relying on his high realm, humiliated me in every way, saying I was ‘uneducated and therefore a barbarian,’ and that I was ‘unworthy of entering the academy as a first-grade Earthly Immortal.’ Why didn’t you come out and ‘convince him with reason’? Now that he’s failed in his attack and got hurt instead, you’re jumping out to talk about the rules?”

He took a step forward, and an invisible pressure suddenly spread out. The mentor was forced to take half a step back by this pressure, and was horrified.

This aura was clearly only of the first level of the Earthly Immortal Realm, but it carried a crushing domineering aura, as if the one facing was not a low-level cultivator, but a powerful being who had been in a superior position for a long time.

“Doesn’t the Kingdom of God say ‘cultivate both the inner and the outer’?”

Kai’s voice was quiet, but it reached everyone clearly. “Didn’t the books you read teach you ‘Do not do to others what you do not want others to do to you’? Didn’t they teach you ‘Don’t bully others’? Or is it that the ‘etiquette’ of your kingdom of God is only for those weaker than you?”

The tutor was speechless after being asked this question. He opened his mouth but couldn’t find any words to refute.

He was indeed present when Wei Feng provoked him just now, and he even felt that Kai, a human cultivator, deserved to be taught a lesson for daring to be so presumptuous in the Divine Kingdom Academy. But now that Kai was questioning him with the “etiquette” that they themselves advocated, he had no way to refute.

Chapter 5359

Zi Yuan took a deep breath, stepped forward quickly, and stood between Kai and his mentor. She tried to keep calm on her face, but she couldn’t hide the turmoil in her eyes.

“Fellow Daoist Chen, it is true that my students from the Divine Kingdom were at fault in this matter, but cutting off someone’s arm in public is too extreme.

Lord Weiwei holds a high status in the Kingdom of God. If this matter becomes a big deal, it will not be good for you, fellow Taoist.

How about letting the academy’s physician treat this student’s injuries first? I will report the subsequent matters to the king and handle them appropriately. How about that?”

At this moment, she no longer dared to treat Kai as a “chess piece”.

A cultivator who can crush the seventh level of the Earthly Immortal Realm with his first level of the Earthly Immortal Realm, and can also eloquently expose the hypocritical etiquette of the Kingdom of God, even if there is a real force behind him, he himself is definitely the core figure.

This kind of person must not be offended, at least not before figuring out his purpose.

Kai glanced at Zi Yuan and didn’t respond to her. Instead, he looked at Wei Feng, who was covering his wound and had a pale face, and said lightly: “You just said I was useless? Now it seems that you are the real useless person, not worthy of my full strength.”

“you!”

Wei Feng was so angry that he was shaking all over, but he didn’t dare to move forward. He could only glare at Kai with gritted teeth, “My father won’t let you go! Just wait!”

“I’ll wait.”

Kai’s tone was calm, as if the other party’s threat was just a passing wind. “But if you dare to speak so arrogantly again next time, it won’t be as simple as cutting off an arm.”

After saying this, he no longer paid attention to the people present and turned to walk towards the entrance of the school.

The figure was tall and proud, and although he was only at the first level of the Earthly Immortal Realm, all the gods present felt that he was the master of this world, and no one dared to stop him.

Zi Yuan looked at Kai's back, feeling mixed emotions.

She originally wanted to take the opportunity of visiting the Divine Capital to gradually find out the power behind Kai, but now it seems that not only did she not find any clues, but Kai severely slapped the face of the Divine Kingdom.

First, they crushed them with knowledge, then they intimidated them with force, and finally they punctured the illusion of the "noble etiquette" of the Kingdom of God.

"What are you still standing there for? Take him to get healed!"

Zi Yuan turned around and glared at the students and teachers who were gathered around her. She lowered her voice and said, "This matter must not be spread outside. If the King knew that something like this happened in the academy, you would not be able to bear the consequences!"

Everyone quickly agreed and hurriedly carried Wei Feng to heal his wounds.

Zi Yuan quickly caught up with Kai. When she reached his side, the scrutiny in her tone was gone, and she spoke with a more serious tone: "Fellow Daoist Chen, weren't you too hasty just now?"

Lord Weiwei is an important official close to the king, in charge of the defense of the Divine Capital. If he were to pursue the matter, even with me here, I might not be able to protect you."

"Protect me?"

Kai turned his head and glanced at Zi Yuan with a hint of a smile in his eyes. “Miss Zi, do you think I need someone to protect me?”

Zi Yuan choked and was speechless.

The moment Kai swung the sword just now, she clearly felt that the murderous aura contained in the sword was definitely not something that an ordinary cultivator possessed.

This kind of murderous aura can only be precipitated after experiencing countless life-and-death battles. It is much stronger than those monks in the Kingdom of God who only practice in a greenhouse.

The two walked side by side on the streets of the Divine Capital. When the Divine Clan monks on the street saw Kai, they subconsciously avoided him because Kai was actually carrying a vague murderous intent in him at this moment.

“Miss Zi, your Divine Kingdom’s academy cultivates students who are both ‘cultivating within and without’?” Kai suddenly spoke, breaking the silence. “You rely on your high realm to be arrogant, and when you lose, you threaten them with your family background. Is this what you call ‘noble’?”

Zi Yuan’s expression was somewhat grim, but she still managed to maintain her pride and said, “Fellow Daoist Chen, the mistakes of individual students cannot represent the entire Divine Kingdom. The Divine Kingdom has been passed down for thousands of years, and emphasizes ‘propriety, righteousness, benevolence, wisdom, and trustworthiness’. It’s just that some young people are still immature, so it’s inevitable that they will be a little arrogant.

“arrogant?”

Kai sneered, “I think it’s arrogance. In this heavenly realm, strength is the foundation, but your kingdom of God regards ‘reading’ and ‘etiquette’ as capital for showing off, thinking that studying in addition to cultivation makes you nobler than others.

But what is the reality? Your students are not as good as others in cultivation and knowledge, and in the end they can only use “divine blood” as a shield. What is the difference between them and frogs in a well?

Zi Yuan was speechless after hearing what Kai said. She wanted to refute but couldn’t find a reason.

Just now in the academy, when Kai was debating, he quoted from classics and talked about everything from the great principles of heaven and earth to the origin of cultivation. Even she, the king’s aide, felt greatly benefited from those contents.

The students of the Kingdom of God, apart from being able to recite a few verses of scriptures, were unable to even conduct basic logical debates. In the end, they could only rely on their realm to suppress others, but ended up having their arms cut off by Kai’s sword.

“In front of us is the ‘Treasure Pavilion’ of the Divine Kingdom. It houses many rare treasures from the heavens. Would you like to go in and take a look?”

Zi Yuan changed the subject. She knew that arguing with Kai about whether it was “noble” or not would only embarrass herself. It would be better to continue to inquire about his purpose. “There are many treasures in the Wanbao Pavilion that can improve cultivation. Although fellow Daoist is powerful, his realm is still a bit low. Perhaps you can find something suitable here.”

Her words seemed to be well-intentioned, but in fact they were a test.

If Kai had a powerful force behind him, he would definitely not be short of treasures; if he was just a casual cultivator, he would inevitably show greed when faced with the treasures of Wanbao Pavilion.

Kai glanced at the Wanbao Pavilion not far away. The pavilion was built entirely of white jade and inlaid with countless luminous pearls. Even in the daytime, it emitted a soft light. Two guards of the eighth level of the Earthly Immortal Realm stood at the door with a calm aura.

It can be seen that the things in the Wanbao Pavilion are extremely precious, otherwise they would not use guards of the eighth level of the Earthly Immortal Realm.

“No need.”

Kai refused calmly, “I have no interest in treasures.”

There are many treasures in Kai’s storage bag, and his God King Bow is a real divine weapon. I’m afraid that the things in the Wanbao Pavilion cannot compare to it.

A hint of surprise flashed in Ziyuan’s eyes. She didn’t expect Kai to refuse so bluntly.

The treasures in the Wanbao Pavilion may not be easily obtained even by cultivators from the Kingdom of God. How could Kai, a cultivator of the first rank in the Earthly Immortal Realm, not be tempted at all?

“Don’t you want to improve your realm, fellow Daoist?”

Zi Yuan asked, “A first-grade Earthly Immortal Realm cultivator is only considered a low-level cultivator in the Heavenly Realm. If you can obtain the ‘Marrow Cleansing Immortal Dew’ in the Myriad Treasures Pavilion, you might be able to directly break through to the third-grade Earthly Immortal Realm.”

“realm?”

Kai glanced at Zi Yuan, his tone filled with disdain, “In my opinion, realm is just a superficial appearance of cultivation. Some people have a high realm, but it’s just a facade, and they can’t even beat a first-grade Earth Immortal.

Some people have a low realm, but can kill cultivators who are several ranks higher than themselves. Miss Zi, what do you think is more important, realm or strength?”

Zi Yuan was silent.

She thought of Wei Feng, who was at the seventh level of the Earthly Immortal Realm, but had his arm cut off by Kai’s sword;

He thought of himself, who was at the peak of the eighth level of the Earthly Immortal Realm, but subconsciously felt fear when facing Kai’s pressure.

“What Daoyou said makes sense.”

Zi Yuan sighed, her tone less arrogant and more sincere, “But in the Kingdom of God, the level of realm directly determines one’s status. Without a sufficient realm, no matter how strong one is, it will be difficult for others to recognize one.”

“That’s why your kingdom of God is getting weaker and weaker.”

Kai said calmly, “If you only focus on the surface realm and don’t pay attention to the actual strength, over time, you will become a group of useless people who can only show off their bloodline and realm.
