Chapter 101: Julia under the table

And while pulling onto Sebastian's pants, Julia said with a leisured tone to her voice.

"Isn't it obvious? It is love-making time right now! You said a while ago, that we can continue on with whatever we were doing after we are done eating!"

"Therefore, I'm trying to pull your pants down from your lower body so we can get our love-making going on! Come on, darling, lift your butt up for a moment, I'm unable to pull your pants down completely while you are still seated in your seat!"

Looking at how leisured and relaxed Julia was when talking about making love, if it were not for the fact that Sebastian was sure that everything he had experienced yesterday was indeed real, he would never be able to connect the current Julia to the Julia from yesterday.

The Julia from yesterday, she would act elegantly and modestly, and when it comes to sex-related stuff, her face would turn red from embarrassment and shyness.

Meanwhile, the Julia right now, although she still possesses an elegance to her due to her gentle yet elegant appearance, when it comes to sex-related stuff, she was unrestrained, and even somewhat vulgar.

But to tell the truth, Sebastian was much fonder of the current Julia. After all, the way that Julia was acting right now was because she now trusts him completely and had fallen completely for him.

Upon hearing Julia told him to lift his butt, Sebastian did as she told him to do without any hesitation.

And immediately as Sebastian had lifted up his butt from his seat, his pants, along with his underwear, were pulled down all the way to his ankles, and onto the floor.

Right as Sebastian had sat his butt back down onto his seat, Julia could be seen grabbing onto Sebastian's dick with her hands and began stroking onto the dick with her hands.

Shortly after, as the dick that was within her hands had become completely erected, Julia then began pulling the dick's foreskin backward, exposing the dick's glans to the open air.

Right as the dick's glans was exposed to the open air, Julia moved her nose right onto the glans, then took a deep sniff onto the glans.

"Sniff..."

"Ah... this is exactly the smell that I was looking forward to. Slightly funky yet alluring and arousing at the same time."

Upon speaking up to here, Julia gave a lick onto the tip of the glans with her tongue, then closed her eyes for a moment, seemingly to be savoring the taste of Sebastian's dick.

Meanwhile, upon seeing Julia's action, Sebastian's dick began twitching for a bit due to how stimulated he was, and in the next moment, Sebastian couldn't help but curse out as he placed his right hand onto Julia's left cheek, then rub his thumb onto Julia's cherry red alluring lips.

"Fuck, Julia, do you know how slutty you are acting right now? My dick feels like it is about to burst just from seeing how slutty you are acting. Julia, quickly, continue on stroking onto my dick with your hands."

"Darling, I'm glad that you are feeling excited and aroused because of me. Don't worry, I will start pleasing this smelly and naughty dick of yours right away. Mwah!"

After saying seductively while looking upward submissively and seductively at Sebastian, Julia looked back toward the dick, and right before Julia began pleasing onto the dick before her, she pressed her lips onto the dick's glans and gave a hard and long smooch onto the dick's glans.

And as Julia kissed onto the dick's glans, she was able to sense from her lips that the glans actually twitched a few times, evidently that the owner of the dick must have been feeling incomparably excited when he saw her kissing her lips onto his glans.

Upon finding out about that, a seductive grin appeared on Julia's face as she moved her eyes upward to take a glance at Sebastian's face, and as Sebastian met with Julia's eyes, Sebastian could tell how proud Julia was feeling right now just from the expression that she was making with her eyes.

As Julia lowered her eyes back to the glans before her, Julia retracted her head slightly backward, then began stroking onto the dick's body with her right hands, while gently rubbing onto the dick's glans with her thumb, middle finger, and index finger.

However, after only a few seconds of rubbing onto the dick's glans, seemingly to feel that the dick's glans was a bit dry to work with, Julia moved her head forward and positioned her mouth above the dick's glans, then began accumulating saliva onto her tongue.

Shortly after doing so, Julia opened her mouth, then began drooling the saliva that she had accumulated onto her tongue onto the dick's glans that was below her mouth.

After the dick's glans had been completely covered with her saliva, then did Julia finally closed her mouth and retracted her head backward.

This time, with the dick's glans covered with her saliva, as Julia began rubbing onto the glans with her fingers, it was evidently much smoother than before.

"This is much better to work with now that your dick has been lubricated with my saliva."

After a few minutes had passed since Julia had begun stroking and rubbing onto his dick, Sebastian was evidently no longer satisfied with just Julia's hands, and thus, Sebastian placed his right hand onto Julia's head, then said, "Julia, enough with your hands, use your mouth now, I want to finish in your mouth."

Upon hearing what Sebastian said, without any hesitation or complaints, Julia opened her mouth and took Sebastian's dick into her warm and wet mouth.

"Ah... fuck... this is the best..."

Chapter 102: Julia's obedient blowjob

"Ah... that's right, Julia, use your tongue like this... this feels fucking good..."

"Hmm..."

While Sebastian's dick was inside of Julia's mouth, whenever Julia retracted her head backward, all the way until only the glans remained in her mouth, she would press her tongue onto the urethra of the dick's glans, then exert all of her strength into her tongue, seemingly to be trying her best to push her tongue into the opening of the urethra, and every time when that happened, Sebastian couldn't help but feel a chill rushing down the back of his spine due to how good it actually felt.

And as she took the entire dick into her mouth, whenever the dick was sliding its way into the back of her throat, she would not forget to use her tongue to lick onto the dick's body, and as the dick's glans arrived at the back of her throat, she would purposely squeeze her throat for a few seconds, causing Sebastian to feel as if his dick's glans was actually inserted into Julia's pussy, although, in truth, it was merely Julia's throat imitating the tightness of her pussy.

"Slurp... slurp..."

"Slurp... slurp..."

After what seemed like 10 minutes had passed since Julia had begun using her mouth to pleasure Sebastian, upon sensing that he was about to cum soon, Sebastian grabbed onto Julia's head with both of his hands, then began rocking Julia's head back and forth without restraint.

"Fuck...! Julia, I'm about to cum soon, raise your eyes upward and look into my eyes!"

"Hmm..."

Upon hearing Sebastian's request, Julia obediently listened and raised her eyes upward, then looked into Sebastian's eyes while with a pitiful yet submissive expression on her face.

As of right now, in Sebastian's point of view, Julia was kneeling before him, both of her hands were currently placed stationarily onto his thighs, and she was looking at him while with a pitiful yet submissive expression on her face due to how rough he was being with her, however, faced with how rough he was being with her, she merely let out muffled groans and didn't resist at all.

"Hmm..."

"Slurp... slurp..."

Soon after, after a short moment of rocking Julia's head back and forth without restraint, Sebastian pressed Julia's head downward and pushed his dick as deep as he possibly could into Julia's tight throat, then shouted out while looking straight into Julia's pitiful eyes.

"Ah... fuck! Julia, darling, I'm cumming! Take it into your throat!"

Right as Sebastian was done shouting out, Julia could feel the dick's glans that was inserted deep into her throat twitching violently, and in the next moment, she could sense a hot liquid being shot out from the dick's glans and onto the wall of her throat.

"Hmm... hmm..." With a slight frown on her face, Julia began groaning due to the discomfort in her throat, however, she resisted the discomfort and tried her best to swallow the semen into her stomach, so as to prevent the semen from being stuck onto the walls of her throat.

And as Julia made the motion of swallowing, Sebastian felt as if his dick's glans was being massaged onto by Julia's throat due to the wriggling that was being made by the throat.

"Fuck... your throat is the best..."

Upon speaking up to here, seemingly to feel that he had shot enough semen straight into Julia's throat, Sebastian pushed Julia's head forward, all the way until only his dick's glans remained in Julia mouth, then said to Julia, "Don't swallow the semen that I am shooting in your mouth, understand?"

"Hmm..." Julia let out a groan in respond to what Sebastian said.

Shortly after, once Sebastian was done ejaculating, he pulled his dick out from Julia's mouth, then said to Julia as he grabbed onto Julia's chin with his right hand and raised Julia's head upward.

"Open your mouth."

"Ah..." Obediently, Julia opened her mouth and showed Sebastian that had listened to what he told her to body.

Looking into Julia's mouth, a puddle of cum could be seen to be on the top of Julia's tongue.

"Good girl, you can swallow it now."

"Gulp... Ah..."

After swallowing the cum into her stomach, Julia then opened her mouth once again to show Sebastian that she had indeed swallowed all of the cum into her stomach and that there wasn't any remaining cum left in her mouth.

Upon seeing how obedient Julia was, Sebastian couldn't help but feel a sense of pride, and also a deep feeling of love for Julia.

After all, everything that Julia had done up till now, Julia did it all for the sake of pleasing him.

Right after Julia had showed Sebastian that the inside of her mouth was empty, without being told to do so, Julia obediently took the dick into her mouth once again and began using her tongue and mouth to thoroughly clean the dick, making sure that there wasn't any semen left sticking onto the dick.

"Slurp... slurp..."

"Pop!"

"There, all clean and sparkly once again!"

After a minute or two of cleaning the dick with her mouth, Julia then gave one last hard suck onto the dick's glans before spitting out the glans from her mouth, causing a loud popping sound to ring out as the glans was spat out from her mouth.

Upon inspecting closely onto the dick and seeing that there was indeed no semen that was stuck onto the dick, Julia nodded her head in satisfaction.

Right after, Julia crawled out from under the table, then walked over to Sebastian and sat onto Sebastian's lap right after she had stood up from the floor.

Chapter 103: Sex with Julia in the kitchen

As Julia sat onto Sebastian's lap, she embraced her arms onto Sebastian's neck, then whispered into Sebastian's ear, "I'm done pleasing you, so, it's your turn to please me now."

"Carry me to the bedroom, my sweet, sweet darling, I want you to fuck my pussy with your hard and hot dick already..."

Upon hearing what Julia said, Sebastian's dick that had only just cummed a while ago immediately began becoming erected once again.

Without any hesitation, Sebastian stood up from his seat while carrying Julia in a princess carry.

However, unexpected to Julia's expectation, whereby Sebastian would carry her over to the bedroom, Sebastian kept away everything that was on the table, then placed Julia onto the table.

"Hmm...? Darling?" Upon seeing that Sebastian had placed her onto the table, a confused look appeared onto Julia's face as she asked confusedly.

After taking off his top, Sebastian began pulling Julia's long skirt upward, and while doing so, Sebastian said with a grin on his face, "There's no need to head to the bedroom. This time, let's do it while we are in the kit..."

However, right when Sebastian was about to finish his sentence, his eyes could be seen opening wide due to what he was seeing before him.

Right in front of Sebastian's eyes, Julia's long dress could be seen to have lifted all the way up to her waist, causing her lower body to become completely exposed to Sebastian's eyes.

However, completely unexpected to Sebastian, Julia was currently wearing a sexy looking white color lace panties.

Upon seeing the sexy looking white color lace panties, Sebastian's dick immediately became completely erected, and his breathing could also be seen evidently getting quicker and quicker due to how excited he was feeling right now.

Meanwhile, upon seeing how stunned Sebastian was when he saw the sexy looking white color lace panties that she had worn for him, a great feeling of satisfaction immediately appeared in Julia's heart as she looked silently at Sebastian while with a wide grin on her face.

After a short moment of silence, Sebastian moved his head over to Julia's crotch area and began inspecting closely onto the white color lace panties.

Shortly after, Sebastian placed his right hand onto the panties and began rubbing his right hand onto the panties, feeling the texture of the panties' laces.

"How is it? Do you like it? I wore this panties specially for you." With a huge, satisfied grin on her face, Julia asked.

"Like? I love it to death! Look at my dick, my dick is currently already completely erected. You don't understand just how sexy you look right now while wearing this white lace panties!"

"Is that so? If that's the case... don't you want to find out just what kind of bra I am wearing right now?"

Upon hearing what Julia said, Sebastian's eyes immediately opened even wider, while at the same time, Sebastian could feel his heart skip a beat for a second.

Right after, the moment Sebastian came back to his senses, Sebastian hurriedly began lifting the long dress upward even more, so that he could quickly see just what kind of bra Julia was currently wearing.

And the moment Sebastian saw the white color lace bra that perfectly covered onto Julia's B cup breasts, Sebastian couldn't contain the lust in his body anymore as he hurriedly undressed the long dress from Julia's body.

"Fuck... Julia, I can't take it anymore, I want to fuck you right away right now! Quickly, lift your arms upward so I can remove the long dress from your body."

"Hehe! Look at you, you are acting just like a child who can't wait to unwrap his birthday present." Upon seeing how hurried Sebastian was acting, Julia couldn't help but let out a giggle as she obediently lifted her arms upward and allowed Sebastian to remove her long dress from her body.

Right as Sebastian had removed the long dress from Julia's body, Julia's body was now only covered in her white color lingerie set.

"Hmm..."

"Hmm..."

Without wasting any time, Sebastian kissed his lips onto Julia's lips, then began French kissing ardently with her, and this time, Sebastian was evidently the one who was being the proactive one during the French kiss, continuously sucking onto Julia's tongue and coiling his tongue around Julia's tongue.

Of course, Sebastian didn't forget that his main goal was to fuck Julia, therefore, while French kissing with Julia, he could be seen pulling the white lace panties to the side with his right hand, causing Julia's pussy to become exposed to the open air, then began stimulating onto Julia's clitoris and pussy with his fingers, so that Julia's pussy could start becoming wet.

Upon sensing that her clitoris and pussy was being played with by Sebastian's fingers, Julia hurriedly embraced her arms onto Sebastian's neck, then began French kissing harder with Sebastian in order to vent the pleasure that was coming from her clitoris and pussy.

"Hmm... Hmm..."

Listening to the continuous loud groans and moans that was escaping from Julia's mouth, it was evident just how much pleasure Julia was currently in.

Shortly after, upon sensing that Julia's pussy was wet enough for him to insert his dick, Sebastian pulled his head away from Julia's embrace, and right as Sebastian did that, Julia could be seen opening her eyes and letting out a confused mutter.

"Hmm...?"

However, right after she let out the confused mutter, she suddenly let out a loud moan as she pressed her palms onto the table and arched her back slightly backward.

And the reason for Julia's reaction was because, right after Julia had let out the confused mutter, Sebastian immediately inserted his dick into Julia's pussy, and furthermore, he didn't bother pushing his dick slowly into Julia's pussy, allowing Julia to have some time to get accustomed to the dick that was entering into her pussy, and instead, right as Sebastian had inserted a tiny bit of his glans into Julia's pussy, he immediately slammed his waist forward, pushing his dick all the way into Julia's pussy and slamming his glans onto Julia's cervix.

Chapter 104: Twice in a row

Right after Sebastian had inserted his dick all the way into Julia's pussy and slammed his glans onto Julia's cervix, Sebastian grabbed onto Julia's thighs and spread her legs wide open, then without any hesitation, began thrusting his dick in and out of Julia's pussy as fast as he could.

"Pa! Pa! Pa!"

"Ah... My darling, my pussy feels so good! Don't go easy on me, fuck my pussy as hard as you can!"

"Ah... Darling... I love you so much... Ah..."

While with her legs spread wide open, her palms pressed onto the table, her back slightly arched backward, and her head raised upward while with her eyes closed...

Julia moaned loudly without any restraint.

Furthermore, because of the immense pleasure that she was feeling coming from her pussy, her toes could be seen curling inward.

"Fuck... Julia, your pussy is so tight, whenever I pull my dick out from your pussy, it feels as if your pussy is clinging onto my dick and isn't willing to let my dick go."

"Julia... Why are you so fucking slutty and hot? I swear, you have everyone fooled with this innocent, gentle, and elegant appearance of yours. If they were to find out just how much of a slut you actually are, they definitely would be shocked to death!"

"Fuck! Why is your pussy squeezing even tighter onto my cock while I am shaming you?! You fucking slut!"

While Sebastian was thrusting his dick in and out of Julia's pussy while talking dirty to Julia, when he was shaming Julia for how different she was acting compared to her innocent appearance, he was immediately able to sense Julia's pussy squeezing even tighter onto his dick.

And due to how excited he was right now, the moment he sensed that his dick was being squeezed even tighter by Julia's pussy, he couldn't contain his urge to cum anymore, and immediately after, after a few more thrusts, he thrust his dick all the way into Julia's pussy and pressed his glans with all his force onto Julia's cervix, then began shooting his hot semen right on the cervix.

"Fuck! Julia, I'm cumming!"

"Ah... it's so hot... I'm cumming too!!!"

Upon sensing that Sebastian's hot semen was being shot out with quite a considerable amount of force onto her cervix, Julia immediately came to an orgasm.

As Julia came to an orgasm, she began letting out a huge moan while arching her back backward as much as she possibly could.

Meanwhile, upon sensing that Julia's lewd liquid that was produced from her orgasm was splashing onto his glans, Sebastian let out another groan as he shoot his semen even harder onto Julia's cervix.

Shortly after the two was done with their orgasms, Sebastian could be seen sitting on a chair while panting heavily for breath, while Julia was currently panting heavily for breath while lying down on the table with her back completely flat on the table and her legs still spread wide open.

After what seemed like a few minutes had passed, and Sebastian was finally done catching his breath, Sebastian stood up from the seat, then said to Julia, "Darling, are you okay to go for another round?"

"Yeah... I'm okay with going for another round." Upon hearing Sebastian call out to her, Julia slowly got up from the table, then said to Sebastian while with a gentle smile on her face.

"Do you still have strength in your legs?"

"Yeah, I do. Why?"

"Come, get up from the table and stand in front of me."

"Like this?"

"That's right. Now, turn your body around and press your palms onto the table."

"What else do you want me to do?"

Right as Julia turned around and pressed her palms onto the table, Sebastian then pressed his right palm onto Julia's back, causing her to bend her upper body forward.

Upon seeing that Julia's body was now practically in the position that he wanted to her fuck in, Sebastian then pat onto Julia's perky right butt cheek and said, "Now, lift your butt slightly upward."

"Like this...?" After lifting her butt slightly upward, while with her upper body still perfectly bent forward, Julia then turned her head around and asked Sebastian.

"That's right, just like this. Good girl. Now, look forward and try to not lose strength in your legs, okay?"

"Okay."

In Sebastian's point of view, while Julia's butt was lifted upward in his direction, he was able to clearly see Julia's pussy in clear view.

Without any hesitation, Sebastian held onto his dick which was already completely erected, then inserted his glans into Julia's pussy once again.

"Ah... fuck..."

"Ah... Darling..."

The moment Sebastian's glans entered into Julia's pussy, both Julia and Sebastian couldn't help but let out a moan due to the pleasure.

Slowly, Sebastian began pushing his dick into Julia's pussy, and without long, Sebastian's dick had once again reached all the way into Julia's pussy, and his glans was currently giving a hard kiss onto Julia's cervix once again.

"Hah..." After Sebastian had grabbed onto Julia's butt cheeks, evidently intending to use Julia's butt cheeks to help keep Julia's body still, Sebastian took in and let out a deep breath, then began thrusting his dick in and out of Julia's pussy at full speed.

"Pa! Pa! Pa!"

"Ah... darling... ah..."

"This position... it feels as if your dick... ah..."

"Is able to reach into my cervix even faster than usual..."

"Ah... this feels so good..."

From Sebastian's point of view, every time when he thrust his dick into Julia's pussy, because of the size of Julia's butt, which was rather large, albeit not as large as Miuna's butt, it seemed as if his dick was being swallowed by Julia's butt, instead of Julia's pussy.

Furthermore, in this position, every time he thrust his pelvis forward, his pelvic area would slam into Julia's butt cheeks, causing Julia's butt cheeks to shake.

Because this was Sebastian's first-time having sex in this position...

The sexiness of Julia's butt cheeks shaking every time he slammed his pelvic onto Julia's butt cheeks, while paired with the white sexy lace panties that was barely able to cover onto her butt cheeks...

It was all too much for Sebastian to look continuously at without being able to feel extremely aroused.

And thus, before 10 minutes had even passed since they began having sex in this position...

Sebastian couldn't hold it in anymore as he slammed his dick deep into Julia's pussy, then began cumming and shooting his semen into Julia's pussy once again.

"Julia... I'm cumming!"

"Ah! Darling, shoot it all in my slutty pussy!" Upon hearing what Sebastian said, Julia subconsciously raised her butt even higher, then began twirling her butt in a circular motion as she began taking in Sebastian's cum into her pussy.

Chapter 105: Another meeting

"Hah... hah..."

After a minute or two since Sebastian had cummed, having finally caught his breath and came back to his senses, Sebastian carried Julia in a princess carry and began carrying her to the bed.

"Hmm...?"

Right after being carried by Sebastian, Julia subconsciously embraced onto Sebastian's neck, and upon sensing that Sebastian wasn't continuing on with another round of sex, Julia opened her eyes and let out a confused mutter.

"Let's continue in the bed."

"En..." Upon hearing Sebastian's answer, Julia let out a soft groan, then began nibbling onto Sebastian's neck.

Meanwhile, at the living room of Coril's house...

Coril Lisandris, Lisandris Family's current strongest golden core realm cultivator, and also Lisandris Family's only remaining true ancestor who was present during the initial start of Lisandris Family...

Henry Lisandris, Lisandris Family's previous family head, Coril's son, and also the father of Dave and Damien...

Damien Lisandris, Lisandris Family's current family head, Henry's first son, and the big brother of Dave...

Of Lisandris Family's 4 golden core realm cultivators, 3 of them could be seen to be present, and all of them were currently sitting down on couches while remaining silent, seemingly to be waiting for the arrival of a certain person.

Of course, as the person who was responsible for recruiting Sebastian into the Lisandris Family, Dave Lisandris could be seen to be present in the living room too.

However, different from the 3 who were leisurely sitting down on couches, and despite the fact that he was responsible for recruiting Sebastian into the Lisandris Family...

Dave was currently kneeling down on a mat that possessed a formation on it, and looking at Dave's face that was evidently wincing due to the pain that he was in...

It was evident that Dave was currently being punished by Coril.

In truth, it has already been more than 30 minutes since everyone has been waiting for the arrival of a certain person.

While Coril and Henry didn't seem to mind being made to wait so long for the arrival of a certain person...

Damien, on the other hand...

Looking at the annoyed expression and the deep frown on his face, it was evident that his patience was close to running out already.

And expected, after 5 more minutes had passed, and upon seeing that a certain person still hasn't arrived yet...

Damien finally couldn't hold it in anymore as he opened his eyes, then stood up and said with an annoyed look on his face, "What the fuck is this Veronica doing making us wait so long for her?! She must be doing this on purpose or something! I can't stand it anymore, I'm going to go and look for her! If she doesn't have a good explanation as to why she made us wait so long for her, I will..."

However, right before Damien was about to finish his sentence, the door to Coril's house could be seen suddenly opening, followed by closing by itself.

Immediately as Damien heard the sound of the door opening, he immediately closed his mouth and sat back down on his couch, then acted as if nothing had happened as he tried his best to put on a calm look on his face.

However, looking at the corner of his mouth that was currently twitching, it was evident that he wasn't feeling as calm as he was feigning to be right now.

Right after the door had closed, Veronica finally took off her concealment magical tool, causing her body to no longer be concealed by the concealment magical tool.

Veronica Lisandris, the other remaining golden core realm cultivator within the Lisandris Family.

Originally, Veronica possessed the surname Vye as she belonged to the Vye Family, a cultivation family that was originally weaker than the Lisandris Family.

But right after marrying into the Lisandris Family, seemingly to be because of a deep feud that she had between the Vye Family, Veronica decided to drop the surname, Vye, and use only the surname, Lisandris.

Different from Sebastian's previous world, where most women would take on their husbands' surnames right upon they have become married, and after taking on their husbands' surnames, their husbands' surnames would be the only surnames that they would only use from thereon...

In the Cultivation World, normally when a woman were to become married to a man, the woman would take on the man's surname, while also still possessing her original surname, but most of the time, the woman would still be called by the original surname that she possesses.

Of course, for the woman and man's children, their children would only take on one surname, which in most cases would be their father's surname, unless their father was a married-in son-in-law, which means, they would take after their mother's surname.

Right after Veronica removed her concealment magical tool and kept the concealment magical tool into her spatial ring, Veronica began walking over to the living room, and while walking over, Veronica looked over to Damien while with her brows raised and said coldly.

"Mr Family Head, what were you going to do if I don't have a good explanation as to why I made you wait for so long, huh? Go on, finish your sentence!"

Despite the fact that Damien was Lisandris Family's family head, and it was actually not right for a family member to be disrespectful toward a family head...

However, faced with Veronica's questioning and disrespectful tone...

Damien merely remained silent and acted as if he didn't hear what Veronica said.

However, as someone who was petty and loves holding grudges, Veronica was evidently not going to let Damien off.

"What? All of a sudden you are now a mute and can't speak, huh?!"

"Pa!"

Right upon arriving at the living room, before walking over to the remaining empty one-seat couch to sit down on, Veronica walked over to Damien and smacked the palm of her right hand onto Damien's head without any mercy.

Furthermore, since Veronica currently still had a pair of blacksmith work gloves worn on her hands...

Chapter 106: To a certain person

And Veronica actually used spiritual energy onto her right palm, Damien actually ended up getting send flying off from his seat by the force that came from Veronica's right palm and flying into the coffee table before him.

Fortunately for the coffee table, right before Damien was about to land onto the coffee table, Coril quickly enveloped his spiritual sense onto the coffee table and moved the coffee table away.

Thus, in the end, Damien ended up landing onto the floor instead of the coffee table.

Shortly after landing onto the floor, Damien hurriedly stood up, then said angrily while glaring at Veronica, "Veronica! No matter what, I am now currently the family head of the Lisandris Family! As a family member of the Lisandris Family, how dare..."

However, right before Damien was able to finish his sentence, he was cut off by Coril.

"Alright, enough! Have you not caused enough of a scene already?! Sit back down on your seat and remain quiet!" Coril chided at Damien.

Right upon being chided by Coril, seemingly to not be able to believe his ears as to what Coril had just said, when he was evidently the one who was send flying by Veronica...

A shocked look appeared on Damien's face as he looked over to Coril, then opened his mouth, wanting to defend himself.

"But..."

"What?! Are you going to retort me now, huh?! Where are your manners, Coril?! Is this how you are supposed to act toward your elder?! Sit back down on your seat already, I don't want to hear another word coming out from your mouth until I said you are allowed to!"

Before Damien was even able to say another word, Coril immediately cut Damien off once again.

And right after Coril was done chiding Damien, Coril put on an amicable look on his face as he looked over to Veronica, who had just sat down onto the remaining one-seat couch, then said with a gentle and friendly tone to his voice, "Veronica, don't pay attention to this brat, this brat didn't know that you were in the midst of making a sword when I called you over to my house for a meeting."

Meanwhile, upon hearing what Coril said, Damien, who had sat back onto his seat, couldn't help but look speechlessly at Coril and thought to himself, "Great Grandpa Coril... couldn't you have just told us that from the start... If you had told us that from the start, I wouldn't have said what I just said..."

But in truth, even if Coril had told Damien that, Damien would have still thought that Veronica was purposely making them wait for her.

After all, after Damien had assumed the role of Lisandris Family's family head, whenever he had held family meetings, the number of times that Veronica had purposely stalled the meetings by making everyone wait for her arrival couldn't even be counted with two hands.

Although Veronica was feeling a little weirded out by the amicable look that Coril had on his face while looking at her, and Coril's gentle and friendly tone while speaking to her, Veronica didn't let it show on her face.

"I apologize, Ancestor Coril. I ended up arriving 10 minutes later than I told you I would arrive because something went wrong while I was heat treating the sword, which caused me to have to spend a bit more time before I'm able to get done with heat treating the sword.

What is it that made you hold this meeting?

Once this meeting is over, I want to return back home and get back to making my sword.

So, let's get this meeting over with as quickly as possible, should we?"

In truth, Veronica didn't possess any respect for anyone within the Lisandris Family that was still currently alive, and Coril was no different too.

After all, in Veronica's eyes, Coril was nothing but a mere coward that ran away from the Lisandris Family right after the Lisandris Family had suffered a huge blow and was at a stage where it needed him the most.

The only reason that Veronica bothered explaining herself was because that Coril possessed a higher cultivation level than her, otherwise, she wouldn't even bother apologizing and explaining herself to Coril.

The hierarchy system of the Cultivation World was deeply ingrained within everyone's brain, whereby, the higher cultivation one possesses, the more respectable one would be.

And of course, that was if the cultivator's cultivation wasn't gained by extremely despicable methods.

Thus, even though Veronica indeed didn't possess any respect toward Coril, Veronica still showed the bit of respect that Coril deserves since he possesses a higher cultivation level than her.

Although, in everyone's eyes, aside from Veronica's apology and her taking the initiative to explain why she was late, the remaining words that she spoke while speaking to Coril was nothing short of being disrespectful.

Looking at Veronica right now, she could be seen to be dressed in a blacksmith outfit, and was currently sitting down at the couch with both her legs and arms crossed.

Leather boots, leather work gloves, leather apron that was worn over a simple-looking brown shirt, baggy pants, a brown hat worn on her head, and her hair was tied into a ponytail.

Looking at the slightly dirty state that her blacksmith outfit was currently in, it was evident that Veronica was indeed in the midst of making a sword when Coril used a communication jade to call her and notify her to come over for a meeting at his house with the other golden core realm cultivators.

Seemingly as if he didn't hear Veronica's words, Coril shook his right hand at Veronica and said amicably, "It's fine, it's fine, there's no need for you to apologize. After all, I'm the one who is taking up your time by calling for this meeting."

"Veronica, the main reason that I called you over for this meeting is because I am thinking of marrying you and your daughter over to a certain person."

Chapter 107: Veronica's initial plan

Right as Coril had just finished speaking, everyone could feel the atmosphere of the living room dropping to below 0 degrees Celsius, mainly due to the deep frown and piercing sharp gaze that Veronica currently had on her face as she stared coldly at Coril.

However, seemingly to be unaware of the deep frown and piercing sharp gaze that were on Veronica's face, Coril took out 3 pieces of jade from his spatial ring, then tossed the 3 pieces of jade over to Damien, Henry, and Veronica.

"Veronica, before you say anything, take a look at the information that is stored within the information jade that I have just handed over to you first."

"Once you have come to understand everything, I'm sure that you would understand that I meant you well when I thought of marrying both you and your daughter to this certain person you are about to learn about."

Coril said with an amicable look on his face to Veronica after tossing one of the 3 jades over to Veronica.

Upon hearing what Coril said, Veronica decided to see just what Coril was actually up to.

If Coril wasn't able to give her a good explanation to cover up for what he had just said, even if Veronica was aware that she wouldn't be able to defeat Coril, she wouldn't mind destroying the entirety of the Lisandris Family's manor before fleeing over to the Vye Family.

In any case, even if she weren't able to defeat Coril due to Coril possessing a much higher cultivation level than her...

Due to her identity as a weapon enchanter, she was basically one of the richest cultivators within Bright Moon City, and as someone who was an extremely rich cultivator, it was only normal that she would possess lots of magical tools and talismans that were able to help her in combat...

And with those magical tools and talismans to aid her in combat, so long as there weren't multiple golden core realm cultivators that were much higher level than her trying to prevent her from escaping, Veronica was confident in escaping from any of the golden realm cultivators that were within Bright Moon City, and naturally, that includes Coril.

Furthermore, to tell the truth, Veronica was already tired and bored of staying in the Lisandris Family.

If not for her daughter, Vanessa, who was rather fond and attached to the Lisandris Family, she would have long left the Lisandris Family and returned back to the Vye Family, so that she could start with her plan on taking revenge on the Vye Family and taking back what she personally felt the Vye Family owed her.

Also, during the previous meeting, when Veronica learned that the main sect was going to send people to visit Bright Moon Sect in a few years' time, Veronica had decided that she was going to leave the Lisandris Family in a few days' time and start enacting her plan to take revenge on the Vye Family.

And since her plan should take less than a few years to complete, by the time she had been done with taking her revenge on the Vye Family, it should be more or less about time that the people from the main sect will soon arrive at the Bright Moon Sect.

After the people from the main sect were done visiting both Bright Moon Sect and the forbidden land, Dragons' Grave, and were going to leave the North Continent...

Together with her daughter, she will ride along on the tier 6 flying ship that the people from the main sect used to be able to cross over the Endless Tribulation Ocean which separated the North, South, East, and West Continents from the Middle Continents.

And when she and her daughter had arrived at the main sect, she will then officially join the main sect as a disciple, while her daughter will become a disciple of the main sect.

With her identity as a weapon enchanter, Veronica was confident that the main sect would gladly accept her as an elder and also take her daughter in as an outer-disciple, even if her daughter doesn't possess an outer-disciple slot.

During the previous meeting, the reason that Veronica even bothered saying that she will be taking one of the 3 outer-disciple slots that Coril had obtained, despite the fact that she didn't really need the outer-disciple slot in order to help her daughter join the main sect as an outer-disciple...

It was solely so that she could disgust and upset the other Lisandris Family's members that were present at the meeting.

If there were any chances or opportunities that she could grab onto or use in order to upset and disgust those people that she dislike, Veronica wouldn't hesitate at all.

Thus, all in all, judging from Veronica's current mindset, it wasn't hard to come to the conclusion that Veronica currently had no misgivings about destroying the Lisandris Family's manor, then flee over to the Vye Family, if Coril's answer wasn't able to appease her.

It didn't take too long for Damien, Henry, and Veronica to finish reading the information that was stored within the jades that Coril handed over to them.

And right after all 3 of them had finished reading, Damien and Henry could be seen looking over to Coril while with a confused look on their faces...

While Veronica could be seen to be looking at Coril with an even colder look than before.

"Sebastian Force and Julia Lisandris? What is this senile old man showing me information about these two energy refining realm insects for? Is this damn senile old man trying to mess around with me or something? This senile old man better have a good explanation, or else..."

Veronica thought to herself as she looked coldly at Coril while remaining silent, evidently to be waiting for an explanation from Coril himself.

Upon seeing that everyone was evidently done with reading the information within the jades that he handed over to them...

Coril asked...

Chapter 108: Sebastian awakened the sperm strengthening body!

Seemingly to not be able to see the icy cold look that Veronica was giving to him, Coril asked with a smile on his face, "So, Veronica, what do you think of this guy named Sebastian Force?"

Upon hearing Coril's question, Veronica replied coldly without any hesitation or thinking, "What do I think of him? A cultivator who not only possesses no background but also possesses the aptitude of a lower-quality spiritual root. You tell me, what is there to even think about?"

Upon speaking up to here, seemingly to be running out of patience, Veronica began speaking without holding back her tongue.

With a look of disdain on her face, Veronica said coldly to Coril, "To even ask such a senseless question as you just did. Tell me, have you gone senile already? Did that incident from 20 years ago actually gave you such a huge blow, to the point that you not only ran away from the Lisandris Family with your tail between your legs and went hiding in the sect, but also ended up causing you to become senile despite the fact that you are actually a golden core realm cultivator?"

And while Veronica was speaking, Veronica had already wrapped her spiritual sense onto the large quantities of talismans that she had stored within her tier 3 spatial ring, evidently ready for Coril to fly into a rage after she had finished speaking.

However, right as she had finished speaking, unexpected to her, Coril still had an amicable look on his face, though, looking at the corner of his mouth that was twitching incomparably, it was evident that Coril was quite triggered by what she had just said, but for some reason unbeknownst to her, Coril held himself back from flying into a rage.

Unbeknownst to Veronica, there were 2 people even more shocked than her when they saw that Coril actually didn't fly into rage after hearing what Veronica just said to him, and those 2 people were precisely Henry and Damien.

Even more, when they heard the following words that came out from Coril's mouth, their mouths could be seen opened wide due to how shocked they were.

If not for the fact that they could sense that they were perfectly fine and weren't caught in an illusion or trap, they might have launched an attack at Coril to check if the Coril before them was real or not.

After containing the anger within his heart, with an obviously forced smile on his face, Coril let out a cough to hide his awkwardness, then said as amicably as he possibly could right now, "Cough, cough. Veronica, you are as humorous as ever. As a golden core realm cultivator, how could I possibly be able to go senile?"

Upon speaking up to here, Coril then took out another 3 pieces of jade from his spatial ring, then tossed over those 3 pieces of jade to Damien, Henry, and Veronica, then said, "This is their latest information, which is less than a day after they have become married to each other."

Coril purposely skipped over the fact that Veronica said that he ran away from the Lisandris Family with his tail between his legs as he was aware that Veronica wasn't particularly wrong, and there was no way for him to refute her, unless he were to fly into a rage and cause a scene, which was evidently something he couldn't do, especially since getting both Veronica and her daughter, Vanessa, to marry Sebastian, was a crucial part of his following plans in helping Sebastian's cultivation family grow quickly, yet safely at the same time.

"What the heck...? This senile old man actually didn't fly into a rage... Isn't he known for having a rather bad temper? Or did I remember wrongly? Whatever, I will continue playing along with him. I should see just what he is trying to pull."

Upon thinking to herself up to here, Veronica began reading the new piece of jade that Coril had tossed over to her.

While reading the information that was stored within the new piece of jade, a slightly surprised look could be seen appearing on Veronica's face, and both Henry and Damien were no different too.

After Veronica was done reading the information within the new piece of jade, Veronica began rereading the information that was stored within the previous piece of jade, so as to confirm that she didn't miss out any information.

Shortly after, upon seeing that Veronica was done reading and was currently looking at him once again and waiting for an answer from him, Coril asked once again, "So, Veronica, let me ask you again, what do you think of this guy named Sebastian Force?"

With a slight frown on her face, Veronica said coldly, "I will admit it. If it's as the information said, that he didn't use any cultivation pills in order to go from level 2 to level 5 of energy refining realm within less than a day, and furthermore, he possesses the ability to help increase his cultivation partner's cultivation strength too, he may perhaps be deserving of some praises."

"From the looks of things, it seems that this guy is the certain person that you are thinking of getting me and my daughter to marry to, right?"

"However, if that is everything about this so-called Sebastian guy, what even made that senile mind of yours think I would be fine with not only marrying my daughter to him, but also marry him together with my daughter?"

Upon speaking up to here, a look of disdain appeared in Veronica's face once again as she clicked her tongue, then began taunting Coril once again, "Tsk, ts, ts. Senile old man, it seems that you have really gone se..."

However, right before Veronica was able to start with her taunting...

With the corner of his mouth twitching...

To prevent Veronica from shooting off her mouth once again, Coril said hurriedly, "Sebastian managed to awaken a special body during his wedding night, and the special body that he awakened is the sperm strengthening body!"

Chapter 109: There's still hope

Right as Coril had finished speaking, the living room immediately went completely silent for quite a good number of seconds.

Only after what seemed like 10 seconds had passed since Coril had spoken, then did Veronica finally managed to register in her mind what Coril had just said to her, and immediately upon coming to a realization what Coril had actually just said, Veronica hurriedly stood up from her seat, then asked loudly while with her voice trembling due to excitement.

"This... this guy awakened a special body... And... the special body that he had awakened... is the sperm strengthening body?! You are not lying to me, are you?!"

After Veronica finished speaking, Veronica could be seen gazing at Coril's face while with her eyes opened completely wide, evidently trying to see if Coril was lying or not from his facial expression.

Meanwhile, faced with Veronica's question and intense gaze, seemingly to have regained his confidence and composure as the Lisandris Family's strongest golden core realm cultivator, Coril purposefully ignored Veronica's question and turned his head over to Henry, then asked while with a leisured and composed look on his face.

"Henry, since Veronica is evidently not interested in marrying Sebastian, and is also not interested in marrying her daughter to Sebastian, once this meeting is over, I want you to compile a list of women that belong to our family's main branch."

"From the list that you compile, I will personally pick those who I feel are compatible and worthy enough of having the honor of marrying Sebastian."

"I want you to be done with compiling this list and hand this list over to me by tomorrow morning, so that I can start picking in the morning, and inform Sebastian in the afternoon about the women that I have picked for him during the afternoon when he is having his wedding with Julia's big sister, Miuna."

"Understand?"

Right as Coril had finished speaking, Henry immediately stood up from his seat, then cupped his hands and shouted out loudly while with an obvious tone that was filled with excitement, "Understood, father!"

However, right after shouting out with excitement, a slightly anxious look appeared on Henry's face as he asked anxiously, "But, father, are you..."

Right before Henry was able to finish with asking his question, Coril suddenly cut him off by chiding at him with a stern look on his face, "Henry, where are your manners?! When there is a stranger present with us, you should be addressing me as Ancestor Coril, not father!"

"Judging from the way that Veronica had been behaving, it is obvious that she doesn't treat us as family at all. Therefore, while Veronica is still present in the living room, you should address me as Ancestor Coril, you understand?"

While Coril was speaking, an ugly look could be seen slowly appearing on Veronica's face, and the corner of her mouth could also be seen twitching constantly.

Listening from the words that came out from Coril's mouth, and the fact that Coril purposely ignored her question, Veronica was completely aware that Coril was purposely repaying her back for how disrespectful she was acting toward him just a while ago.

But what was worse of all that was happening, was that...

Since Veronica knew that she was in the wrong in the first place, she also knew that she had no right and no proper reason to flip out right now even if she wanted to.

Thus, all she could do right now was to remain silent and wait for Coril to turn his attention back to her.

Meanwhile, right as Coril was done with his chiding, Henry subconsciously took a quick glance at Veronica before cupping his hands at Coril once again and shouted out, "Understood, Ancestor Coril!"

"Good. Go on with your question, what is it that you wanted to ask me?"

"Ancestor Coril... are you 100% sure that Sebastian has indeed awakened the sperm strengthening body...? Or is this a case whereby you aren't 100% sure that Sebastian has awakened the sperm strengthening body, but you feel that there is a high chance that Sebastian has awakened the sperm strengthening body...?"

Right as Henry finished speaking, Henry, Damien, and Veronica could be seen looking at Coril's face while with an intense look on their faces, evidently to be hoping that Coril was indeed 100% sure that Sebastian had indeed awakened the special body, sperm strengthening body!

If this was placed in normal times, with Coril's temper, Coril would have definitely smacked his right palm onto Henry's head for asking such a disrespectful question such as this.

After all, by asking such a question like this, Henry was basically questioning Coril's intelligence and judgment.

For someone who have lived as long as him, and cultivated to the realm and level that he was currently at, would he have been so dumb as to announce something that was so huge and important toward the Lisandris Family if he wasn't already 100% sure that Sebastian had indeed awakened the sperm strengthening body?

No matter what others think, Coril personally think that the answer was evidently no!

Fortunately for Henry, because Coril was in an extremely great mood today, and perhaps, the best mood he has ever been since 20 years ago...

Henry didn't end up getting smack by Coril right after asking such a disrespectful question to Coril.

After moving his gaze through everyone's face that was filled with expectancy toward his answer, a wide smile appeared on Coril's face as he answered leisurely, "Naturally,

I'm 100% sure that Sebastian has awakened the special body, sperm strengthening body!"

Right as Coril had finished speaking, amongst everyone, Henry was the one who showed the most emotion.

With his entire body filled with excitement and joy, Henry shouted out loudly without restraint, "Great! Great! Great! This is great! I knew it, the heavens have yet to completely abandon our Lisandris Family!"

"The Lisandris Family still has hope to regrow back to its former glory!"

Chapter 110: Reason for Lisandris Family's current state

"The Lisandris Family's legacy... It... it won't... won't end... sob... because of me..."

"Sob... Sorry, I... I can't hold back my emotions... sob... don't mind me..."

While Henry was shouting out with joy, his voice suddenly began trembling, and shortly after his voice began trembling, he couldn't hold himself back from crying anymore.

Toward Henry's reaction, to be honest, everyone sort of understood why Henry would react like this upon finding out that Sebastian 100% possesses the special body, sperm strengthening body.

After all, the main reason as to why the Lisandris Family was in the current state that it was in, if one person had to bear the most blame...

That person would be Henry Lisandris.

20 years ago, when Henry was still the Lisandris Family's family head...

If Henry didn't make the decision to send over most of the Lisandris Family's golden core realm cultivators and foundation establishment realm cultivators to support Bright Moon Sect in fighting over the tier 4 peak-quality weapon that appeared in the middle of North Continent...

For the sake of hoping that Bright Moon Sect would show more favoritism to the Lisandris Family, and even support the Lisandris Family in raising to becoming the top family within the Middle District after the fight for the tier 4 peak-quality weapon was over...

Most of the Lisandris Family's golden core realm and foundation establishment realm cultivators wouldn't have ended up dying or becoming gravely injured in the huge incident that was caused by the Burning Sun Sect.

And if most of Lisandris Family's golden core realm and foundation establishment realm cultivators were still alive right now, even if the Lisandris Family still wouldn't be able to climb toward becoming the number 1 cultivation family within the Middle District without the help of Bright Moon Sect...

At the least, the current Lisandris Family would still possess the original strength and influence that it possesses 20 years ago.

Then again, in truth, back then, no matter if it was Coril, Damien, or Veronica, before the huge incident had happened, all of them did indeed think that Henry's decision of sending over a huge portion of the Lisandris Family's cultivators to support Bright Moon Sect in fighting over the tier 4 peak-quality weapon, flaming serpent spear, was the right decision.

After all, back then, Bright Moon Sect was actually already really close to obtaining the flaming serpent spear...

Especially since the area that the flaming serpent spear was located at had been successfully conquered by Bright Moon Sect, and Bright Moon Sect's sect master, Luneth Mooncrown, only needed a week's time to be able to refine the flaming serpent spear and obtain ownership of the flaming serpent spear.

However, no one would have expected that, for the sake of obtaining the flaming serpent spear...

Burning Sun Sect, a sect that actually belonged to the same main sect as Bright Moon Sect, would actually go so far as to act in cahoots with demonic cultivators.

Of course, after the incident was over, Burning Sun Sect denied their involvement with the demonic cultivators, but everyone was aware that Burning Sun Sect was lying through their teeth.

However, even if everyone was aware that Burning Sun Sect was lying through their teeth, no one was interested in showing up to Burning Sun Sect and force Burning Sun Sect to admit their involvement with the demonic cultivators, especially now that the Burning Sun Sect possesses the tier 4 peak-quality weapon, flaming serpent spear.

Although Coril sort of understood why Henry was reacting the way in which he did, it didn't mean that Coril would cuddle and comfort Henry.

With the way in which the Cultivation World, where perseverance and willpower were two of the various traits that were deemed highly important by cultivators...

Crying as a man was deeply frowned upon, especially when the man was already way, way, way, over his teenager years.

After all, if a man couldn't even control his own emotions and hold himself back from crying, how was this man going to be able to climb toward higher cultivation realms?

Thus, upon seeing that Henry was crying, a frown appeared on Coril's face as he chided sternly, "What are you even crying for?! You are already over 200 years old, and yet you can't even control your own emotions?!"

"Wipe those tears away and stop crying already! You are fortunate that I am in a good mood today, otherwise, you would have gotten a good beating and a long lecture from me!"

Upon hearing what Coril said, Henry quickly began wiping away his tears while breathing in and out slowly so as to regain his composure.

Meanwhile, Damien and Veronica could be seen having a strange look on their faces while they were looking at Henry, evidently to be rather surprised that Henry would sob so uncontrollably.

And Dave, who was kneeling on the floor, could also be seen having a strange look on his face as he took a peek at his father who was sobbing uncontrollably.

After what seemed like 30 seconds had passed, upon seeing that Henry had regained his composure, Coril then asked leisurely.

"Henry, do you know where your little sister, Liss, is at right now? Before calling all of you over for this meeting, I tried to contact her through her communication jade, but I can't seem to reach her."

"Liss? If I recall correctly, she's currently at Dragon Forge City. As for why you aren't able to reach her, I think it's most likely because of the erratic spiritual energy that's constantly emitted out from the Dragons' Grave.

If you want to reach her, you are going to have to send a letter over to her, or head over to the Dragon Force City to meet her directly."

"Hmm... Is that so? Since that's the case. Henry, after this meeting is over, I want you to start heading over to Dragon Forge City and bring her back home as soon as possible."
