Chapter 11: Achievement tab

"System, open the achievement tab."

Immediately, the achievement page appeared on the system screen.

[Note: Achievements that have yet to be unlocked will not be listed in the achievement page, only achievements that have been unlocked will be listed in the achievement page]

[Achievements that have been unlocked]

[Achievement: Impregnate your first woman – Reward: First child is guaranteed to possess a spiritual root]

Looking at the achievement page, Sebastian's mind was once again filled with question marks.

"What? That's all?"

"There isn't any hint or whatsoever for what the other achievements might be? I have to figure it out by myself?"

"Well, it's better than nothing, I guess."

"This reward is actually pretty decent too, especially since I didn't possess the special body, sperm strengthening body, when I managed to impregnate Julia..."

"Which meant that there was a high chance that the child that was within Julia's stomach wouldn't possess a spiritual root."

"After all, the chances of a couple who both possessed lower-quality spiritual roots being able to give birth to a child who possesses a spiritual root was less than 20%."

"And although the child that was reproduced by a half-draconic and a full-blooded human who both possessed lower-quality spiritual roots had more than 30% chance to possess a spiritual root... 30% chance isn't really that high honestly, given that a half-draconic has a much harder chance of being able to successfully impregnate a full-blooded human..."

"So, without the sperm strengthening body to guarantee my child being able to possess a spiritual root, it was more likely that the child within Julia's stomach would have been born without possessing a spiritual root."

"However, with the reward that I obtained from the achievement reward, it seems like my child with Julia is definitely going to possess a spiritual root."

"That is going to be a big help for the reward that I will be able to obtain from the system when Julia gives birth to the child."

"Still, I must say, I must have been pretty lucky, just one round of sex and I actually managed to get Julia pregnant."

"Hmm, there's nothing else, right?"

"Since that's the case, I should really head to sleep, it's been a long day..."

Upon seeing that there wasn't anything else to see, Sebastian closed his eyes and went to sleep.

And because it had been a long day for him, both emotionally and physically, he fell asleep in no time.

...

Next day, early in the morning.

Upon waking up, Sebastian felt extremely energized.

Ever since Sebastian had transmigrated over to this world, this was the first good night's sleep he has had.

Previously, because he was feeling very stressed with various issues that he was facing with, from issues like having transmigrated to a body that possesses the worst aptitude, a lower-quality spiritual root, thus possessing a very slow cultivation speed...

To issues like only having two years' time left to either break through and become an official talisman crafter, or reach level 3 of energy refining realm, if not, he would be kicked out of Bright Moon Sect...

Every night when he went to sleep, when he closed his eyes, various thoughts would continuously appear in his mind, preventing him from having a good night's sleep.

But yesterday, after having his system awakened, Sebastian felt that all of the stress and worries that he had in his mind were gone.

Although there was still the pressing issue of having two years' time left to either become an official talisman crafter or reach level 3 of energy refining realm...

However, with the help of the system, Sebastian was certain that he would be able to break through and become an official talisman crafter in less than a year, or at worst, in less than two years' time.

After waking up and seeing that his wife, Julia, wasn't beside him, Sebastian got off the bed and began looking for her in the house.

Shortly after, Sebastian discovered that Julia was in the kitchen, and she could be seen to be standing by the sink and washing up some vegetables.

On the kitchen table, a whole chicken was placed on a chopping board, and a chopping knife was situated right beside the chopping board.

Evidently, Julia was intending to chop the chicken into pieces after she was done washing up the vegetables.

Upon seeing that, Sebastian hurriedly walked over to Julia, then took the vegetables away from Julia's hands and said with affection and care.

"What are you doing so early in the morning when you just had your first night with me not too long ago. You should be resting instead of waking up so early and busying yourself with chores like cooking.

Let me handle the cooking, you should head back to the bedroom and continue resting. I will wake you up when breakfast's ready."

After taking the vegetables away from Julia's hands and placing the vegetables in a clean bowl, Sebastian held onto Julia's right hand, intending to bring her back to the bedroom, so that she could continue resting.

"Sebastian, it's fine, my body can handle it."

"It's still best for you to continue resting so that your body can properly recover!"

"But... it's my duty as a wife to..."

"It's fine, it's fine, come on, let's head to the bedroom."

"No, let me handle the cooking, it won't take too... Ah!"

Upon seeing that Julia was being obstinate and was unwilling to head back to the bedroom to rest, Sebastian suddenly placed his left hand onto Julia's legs, and his right hand onto Julia's waist, then carried her up from the floor with a princess carry.

This caused Julia to let out a cry of surprise before she even managed to finish her sentence.

"What are you doing! I told you I'm fine!"

With her hands holding onto Sebastian's neck, Julia said shyly as she pouted her lips.

And upon seeing how cute Julia looked with her lips pouted, Sebastian couldn't help but kissed onto Julia's lips.

Immediately, Julia's face turned extremely red as she buried her face into Sebastian's chest.

With a smile on his face, Sebastian carried Julia to the bedroom, and after placing her onto the bed and covering her with a quilt, Sebastian kissed onto her forehead, then said tenderly.

"Rest up, okay? I will wake you up when breakfast's ready."

"En..."

Julia muttered in response as she held onto the quilt and covered half of her face with the quilt, then closed her eyes.

Upon seeing that Julia had closed her eyes, Sebastian turned around and began walking back to the kitchen.

And when Julia heard the sound of the bedroom door closing, shortly after, Julia opened her eyes and looked toward the closed door with a shy and happy look on her face, then closed her eyes and went to sleep.

Meanwhile, right when Sebastian arrived at the kitchen, he realized that a new text log had appeared on his system page.

Chapter 12: Affection

[Julia Lisandris's affection has reached 30]

"Julia's affection has reached 30?"

"Seems like my actions from a while ago made Julia's affection toward me to increase."

"However, there's no reward or anything else?"

"The system just merely informed me that Julia's affection toward me has increased?"

"System, open Julia Lisandris's affection stats!"

"System, open Julia Lisandris's stats tab!"

"System, open..."

Sebastian tried to tinker around with the system, to see if there's any hidden function that he could try to activate.

However, there wasn't any response coming from the system.

"Seems like there currently isn't any function with the affection thing. I guess the system is just informing me of my partner's affection level toward me."

"Maybe something might happen if Julia's affection toward me become even higher and reached a certain number... But for now, this isn't something I should care too much about."

"The matter on hand I should care the most about is to break through and become an official talisman crafter!"

"But before I get to that, I should focus my mind on preparing the breakfast first."

"Julia is going to be surprised when she wakes up and tastes my breakfast. After all, my cooking skills that have been sharpened for 20 years isn't something to be taken lightly!"

Upon seeing that there wasn't any response coming from the system, Sebastian threw the affection matter to the back of his mind and focused on preparing breakfast.

One thing worth noting, the reason Sebastian had his system screen opened by his side despite being able to close his system screen was because he wanted to make sure he didn't miss any new text log if any new text log were to appear.

Sebastian had noticed that the system didn't possess any alert functions.

Which meant that, when a new text log appeared, the system wouldn't do something like ringing a sound to notify him about it.

Also, if his system screen was closed, when a new text log appeared, the system screen wouldn't open by itself to show that a new text log had appeared.

Therefore, Sebastian decided to always have the system screen opened by his side.

And this was how Sebastian was able to quickly notice the new text log regarding Julia's affection toward him had reached 30.

In any case, since Sebastian was able to adjust the translucency of the system screen, the system screen didn't really affect his vision.

Therefore, if he wasn't in combat or anything, the system screen constantly being by his side didn't really post any inconvenience to him.

"Hmm, what should I cook? Chicken and vegetables..."

"Stir fry chicken with vegetables?"

"No, I should cook something that is invigorating and nutritious..."

"I know, I should cook ginseng chicken soup!"

"If I remember correctly, the ginsengs of this world are actually much more nutritious than the ginsengs in my previous due to the medicinal properties and energy that they possess within them."

"A 100-year-old ginseng costs roughly 1 lower-quality energy stone, and I still have a few lower-quality energy stones left."

"Since the Lisandris Family is going to provide me with a year's worth of talisman crafting ingredients, and I don't intend on focusing on cultivating to level 3 of energy refining realm..."

"It means that I don't really have much use for the energy stones right now."

"Therefore, spending 1 energy stone on a 100-year-old ginseng should be fine."

"In any case, Julia's body is of the utmost important!"

"Not only did she just have her first night not too long ago, but she is also now pregnant with my child! Therefore, it is even more of a reason that I should spend 1 energy stone on buying a 100-year-old ginseng to nourish her body!"

"Furthermore, since it is definite that the child within her possesses a spiritual root, it means that the child is going to absorb a great amount of energy from her body when the child is beginning to form into an embryo inside of her..."

"And when the child has developed into a fetus, it is going to start absorbing even more energy from her body..."

"Alright, it has been decided! I will prepare ginseng chicken soup for breakfast!"

Upon coming to a decision, Sebastian went to get his pouch, which he had his lower-quality energy stones stored in.

Afterward, he headed out of Lisandris Family's Manor and went to the nearest medicinal herb store to buy a 100-year-old ginseng.

When Sebastian arrived back home, 40 minutes had already passed since he had left the Lisandris Family's manor.

Without wasting any time, Sebastian immediately head to the kitchen, then began preparing the ingredients to cook the ginseng chicken soup.

From the preparations of the ingredients to getting all of the ingredients into a pot, it took Sebastian roughly 15 minutes.

Now, all Sebastian has to do is to cook the ginseng chicken soup at low heat for roughly 3 to 4 hours and check the ginseng chicken soup from time to time, tasting and adjusting the soup accordingly so that it tastes good.

"Hmm. Now all I have to do is to let it simmer at low heat, then taste and season it accordingly."

After Sebastian was pretty much done with the ginseng chicken soup, he took a stretch, then let out a groan as he muttered to himself.

"Now, with the 3 to 4 hours that I have, I should start testing out my talisman crafting skills."

"I wonder how much experience I am going to be able to gain in 1 session of talisman crafting..."

While muttering to himself in his own mind, Sebastian began walking toward the talisman crafting room.

Upon walking into the talisman crafting room, a huge low rectangle table could be seen situated in the middle of the room, and by the door was a row of storage cabinets.

A sitting mat was placed on one side of the table, and on the table, the talisman crafting ingredients that were needed to craft fireball talismans were already placed there in advance.

Evidently, that was the doing of Julia when she had woken up earlier this morning.

"How thoughtful of Julia, but how did she know that I was intending on crafting fireball talismans?"

"I guess that Dave Lisandris must have informed her that I was close to being able to craft fireball talismans without failing."

Seated on the sitting mat, Sebastian muttered to himself as he checked onto the ingredients to confirm that there was nothing wrong with the ingredients.

After checking and confirming that there was no problem with the ingredients...

Sebastian took in a deep breath and prepared himself for a session of talisman crafting.

Chapter 13: Talisman crafting

After Sebastian took a few deep breaths in and out, for the sake of calming himself down and getting his body to become relaxed...

Feeling that he was ready, Sebastian took in and let out one last deep breath, then picked up the talisman brush that was on the table.

Looking at the talisman brush, it looked very similar to a calligraphy brush.

Right after picking up the talisman brush, Sebastian dipped the brush into a bright red color liquid mixture that was made from mixing the blood of magical beasts with various medicinal herbs.

With the brush dipped, Sebastian began transferring his fire energy into the brush, and soon after, upon sensing that the energy that was within the liquid mixture was becoming "alive", Sebastian immediately began to draw onto a talisman paper with the brush.

Without coming to a stop even once, one pattern after another pattern was drawn onto the talisman paper in succession.

And when roughly 10 minutes had passed, Sebastian had already managed to draw 15 patterns onto the talisman paper.

The moment Sebastian was done with drawing the 15th pattern onto the talisman paper, Sebastian set the talisman brush onto the side, then looked closely at the talisman paper.

After the 15th pattern was drawn onto the talisman paper, the 15 patterns that were drawn onto the talisman paper began to come alive.

As the 15 patterns came alive, the 15 patterns began wriggling, and soon after, the 15 patterns began dissolving and slowly forming into a symbol that resembles a fireball.

When Sebastian saw that a fireball symbol was formed on the talisman paper, Sebastian knew that his first attempt of the day at crafting a fireball talisman was successful, and a satisfied smile appeared on his face.

"Seems like lady luck has been on my side lately."

"Firstly, my system that had awakened seemed to be an overpowered gaming type of system."

"Secondly, I managed to marry a beautiful and virtuous wife."

"And now, thirdly, it's only my first attempt of the day, and I have already managed to successfully craft 1 fireball talisman."

"From what I remember, for a talisman crafter of my level, one session of talisman crafting usually lasts close to 1 hour."

"After 1 hour, it would usually mean I have worn out my mind and spiritual soul, and I would have to rest up for at least 6 hours before I can start another session of talisman crafting."

"During a session of talisman crafting, it usually meant I have 6 attempts at crafting fireball talismans."

"If I were to successfully craft at least 3 fireball talismans, it means that I have managed to successfully break even with the cost of the talisman crafting ingredients needed to begin a session of talisman crafting."

"And if I were to successfully craft 4 or more fireball talismans, it means that I would be at a profit."

"Although, technically speaking, since those talisman crafting ingredients are provided to me for free by the Lisandris Family, even if I managed to only craft 1 fireball talisman out of 6 attempts, I could still be counted to be at a profit."

Sebastian muttered to himself as he picked up the fireball talisman from the table and began inspecting it closely.

Right after he was done inspecting with the fireball talisman, he looked toward his system screen, then said in his own mind.

"System, switch to the stats tab."

Looking at the stats tab, Sebastian could see that there was a change to his talisman crafter's exp.

[Talisman crafter: Peak apprentice (+0.05, Exp: 450.05/500)]

From the looks of it, Sebastian gained 0.05 exp after he had successfully crafted a fireball talisman.

"If 1 successful craft equals to 0.05 exp, to obtain 50 exp, it's going to take me 1000 successful crafts."

"Realistically speaking, if I do not slack off, I should be able to do 3 sessions of talisman crafting per day, which equals to 18 attempts per day."

"With my current average success rate, it means I should be able to successfully craft at least 12 fireball talismans per day."

"12 successful crafts per day means that I will be able to gain 0.6 exp per day..."

"This means, it should take me about 84 days to be able to gain 50 exp, then break through and become an official talisman crafter!"

"This is so much faster than I expected!"

"Although, if I only need 84 days to gain 50 exp, how did the previous host manage to take 5 years to gain 350 exp...?"

After thinking about it for a short moment, Sebastian immediately realized why.

Firstly, unlike Sebastian who possessed a system and was able to clearly see the progresses of his stats...

Because the previous host was unaware of how long it would truly take for him to either break through and become an official talisman crafter, or reach level 3 of energy refining realm...

The previous host chose to juggle between cultivation and improving his talisman crafting skills.

Secondly, unlike Sebastian who had the Lisandris Family to provide him with a year's worth of talisman crafting ingredients for free...

The previous host had to spend time working to afford to be able to buy talisman crafting ingredients, especially during the first few years when the previous host's success rate at crafting a fireball talisman was less than 20%.

...

Placing the successfully crafted fireball talisman to the side, Sebastian picked up the talisman brush, then continued on with crafting the remaining fireball talismans.

After an hour was about to pass since Sebastian had begun his session of talisman crafting...

As Sebastian was done drawing the last pattern onto a talisman paper, he placed the talisman brush that he was holding in his right hand onto the table, then let out a deep breath.

Soon after, just like the first fireball talisman that he had crafted for the day...

The patterns that were on the talisman paper dissolved and formed into a fireball symbol, signifying that the fireball talisman was successfully crafted.

Upon seeing that, a smile appeared on Sebastian's face as he muttered to himself.

"5 success out of 6 attempts..."

"This is 1 more success compared to the previous host's success rate of 4 success out of 6 attempts, a pretty decent way to start my day off!"

Chapter 14: Pass time

[Talisman crafter: Peak apprentice (+0.2 exp, 450.25/500)]

Sebastian gained 0.2 exp from the 4 fireball talismans that he had successfully crafted, and 0 exp from the failed fireball talisman.

From the looks of it, only successful crafts would provide Sebastian with exp, and unsuccessful crafts would not provide Sebastian with any exp.

In this session of talisman crafting, Sebastian managed to successfully craft 5 fireball talismans, thus managing to gain a total of 0.25 exp.

"Now, before I can start another session of talisman crafting, I'm going to have to rest until I managed to fully recover my mind and spiritual soul, and that should take about 6 hours."

"Well, since it has been an hour, it's time I go and check on the ginseng chicken soup."

After storing the successful crafted fireball talismans into one of the storage cabinets, Sebastian left the talisman crafting room and went to the kitchen to check on the ginseng chicken soup.

...

"Hmm, tastes good... But it needs a bit more salt and pepper..."

Sebastian began adding a bit more salt and pepper into the soup after tasting a sip of the soup.

After Sebastian was done, he decided to head over to the Lisandris Family's library to borrow a few books.

From Sebastian's house to the library, it would merely take Sebastian 10 minutes to reach the library by foot.

And while Sebastian was walking toward the library, he began muttering to himself in his own mind.

"I must say, as expected of a 100-year-old-ginseng that costs 1 lower-quality energy stone. Just a sip of the ginseng chicken soup and I can already feel slightly energized."

"I reckon that if I drank a bowl of the ginseng chicken soup, I will be able to recover all of the energy that I used up during the talisman crafting session."

"I guess this is why people say that resources are basically the most important factor to cultivating."

"If I have enough energy stones, I could spend the energy stones on buying 100-year-old-ginsengs every day, and on buying medicinal pills that could help speed up the recovery of my mind and spiritual soul."

"That way, I would be able to shorten the time needed to obtain 50 exp for my talisman crafting from 84 days into at the least less than 70 days."

"However, the problem of not having enough energy stones will be solved once I managed to break through and become an official talisman crafter."

"After all, once I managed to break through and become an official talisman crafter, that is when I will be able to start earning good money."

...

Not long after Sebastian had left his house, Sebastian arrived at the Lisandris Family's library.

Entering the library, although it was evident that the Lisandris Family's library was miniscule when compared to Bright Moon Sect's library, the collection of Lisandris Family's library was more than enough for a cultivator that was in the energy refining realm.

From cultivation techniques, martial skills, to professions' guidebooks, all of them were available for viewing within the Lisandris Family's library.

Of course, common books that could be found easily in the cultivation world, books that were related to energy refining realm, and books that were related to the beginner and apprentice levels of various professions...

All of them were free for the Lisandris Family's family members to view and borrow.

However, for rare books, books that were related to foundation establishment realm and higher, and books that were related to tier 1 or higher of any certain profession...

They were only available for viewing by either paying an amount of energy stones, or by completing missions that were given out by the Lisandris Family.

Since Sebastian was clear on what books he came to the library to borrow, it didn't take him too long to find the books that he wanted to borrow.

After signing his name at the checkout booth, Sebastian successfully borrowed 2 books from the library.

One of the books was a book pertaining to talisman crafting, and the other book was a book pertaining to alchemy.

Initially, Sebastian was intending on borrowing a book that had information on special bodies so that he could check whether there were any information that the system had left out regarding the special body that he had obtained from the system.

However, unfortunately for him, he discovered that, the book that had information on special bodies was one of those books that wasn't free to borrow, and to borrow the book, he had to pay 10 lower-quality energy stones.

Evidently, the book wasn't something he could afford to borrow right now, and thus, he decided to borrow the book at another time.

Arriving back home, only 30 minutes had passed since he left the house to head to the library.

After opening the bedroom door and checking to make sure that Julia was sleeping soundly, Sebastian brought the books that he had just borrowed from the library with him and head straight toward the kitchen.

Sitting down at the kitchen table, Sebastian picked up the book with information pertaining to talisman crafting and began reading it.

Just like this, time quickly passed by, and from time to time, Sebastian would pause his reading to go and check on the ginseng chicken soup, making sure that the ginseng chicken soup was fine.

Time passed by quickly when one was immersed in doing a certain thing, and in no time, 4 hours had passed since Sebastian had started cooking the ginseng chicken soup.

Upon hearing the timer that he had set beforehand rang out, Sebastian stood up from the kitchen table, then walked over to the pot of ginseng chicken soup and turned off the fire.

After giving one last taste and confirming that the ginseng chicken soup tasted delicious, Sebastian began plating the ginseng chicken soup.

And once he was done plating the ginseng chicken soup onto the kitchen table, Sebastian headed toward the bedroom to wake up Julia.

Upon arriving at the bedroom, Sebastian walked over to the bedside, then squatted down and looked at Julia's asleep face.

Seeing how cute Julia looked when she was asleep, Sebastian couldn't help but poke his right index finger onto Julia's cheek as he called out to her.

"Julia, it's time to wake up, breakfast's ready."

Chapter 15: Julia, you are already pregnant

"Hmm..."

In response to Sebastian calling out to her, Julia let out a mutter, then rolled her body to the side, causing her back to be faced against Sebastian's face.

Upon seeing that, Sebastian got onto the bed and moved to Julia's side.

"Come on, time to wake up."

Right after, Sebastian called out to Julia as he pinched onto her nose.

And after a short moment, Julia could be seen trying to move the hand away from her nose as she opened her eyes.

"You awake? Breakfast's ready. Or well, technically, it's already time for lunch."

Upon seeing Julia opened her eyes, Sebastian said with a smile on his face as he looked into her eyes.

"Hmm? The food's ready? And it's already afternoon? How long have I been asleep for?"

Seemingly still half-asleep, Julia asked while rubbing onto her eyes with her hands.

"Yep, the food's ready, and it's already afternoon."

"If I counted correctly, you have been asleep for about 4 hours."

"You seemed like you are still half asleep. Come, let me carry you over to the dinner table."

While speaking, Sebastian got off from the bed, then suddenly lowered his upper body toward Julia, then carried her up from the bed with a princess carry.

"Ah!"

Julia let out a surprised gasp as she was carried up from the bed by Sebastian.

Immediately, Julia became fully awake.

"You got to stop surprising me like this! If this continue on, there's going to come a day where I get a heart attack because of you!"

Right after, Julia punched lightly onto Sebastian's chest with her right fist as she said while pouting her lips.

But evidently, Julia didn't mind Sebastian's action.

Soon after, arriving at the kitchen table, Sebastian placed Julia on the floor.

Walking over to the kitchen table, Julia took a look at the piping hot ginseng chicken soup, then turned her head around and asked.

"You cooked ginseng chicken soup? Where did you get the ginseng from?"

"I went out and bought it from a medicinal herb store."

Come on, don't just stand there, take a seat and have a try of this ginseng chicken soup that I cooked, I guarantee that you will like it!"

While speaking, Sebastian walked over to the kitchen table too and pulled out a chair from the kitchen table for Julia.

"Seems like someone is rather confident in his cooking skills."

Julia said with a smile as she sat down on the chair that Sebastian pulled out for her.

Right after, she picked up the spoon that was situated in front of her, scooped a spoonful of soup, blew onto the soup to cool it down, then drank a spoonful of soup in one go.

The moment she tasted the soup, her eyes lit up, and she had a pleasant look of surprise on her face.

However, right after, when she sensed the energy that suddenly appeared in her stomach, she immediately looked toward Sebastian while with a shocked look on her face and asked.

"This energy that I am feeling spreading within my stomach...? You bought a 100-year-old ginseng to cook this ginseng chicken soup?!"

"Yep. I felt that your body needed nourishment after... You know, last night."

"You... Even so, you shouldn't have spent money on buying a 100-year-old ginseng! It's such a waste of money, do you know that!"

You do know that I am a cultivator too, right? The miniscule injury that I got from having my first night is nothing to me.

Even now, I just need 1 more day, and my body will be able to recover completely, and honestly, my body has already almost recovered completely! There's no need to buy a 100-year-old ginseng for the sake of nourishing my body!

It cost 1 lower-quality energy stone to buy a 100-year-old ginseng, right? With that 1 lower-quality energy stone, we could have spent it on..."

With a smile on his face, Sebastian sat down at the dinner table, leaned onto the dinner table with his left arm, prop his face with his left hand, then watched as Julia went on with her rant.

Soon after, while Julia was going on with her rant, she realized that Sebastian was just looking at her with a smile on his face, seemingly not taking her word to heart.

Immediately, she pouted her lips and said angrily.

"Hey! You! Are you even listening to what I'm saying?"

Upon seeing Julia pout her lips angrily, Sebastian couldn't help but laugh.

Right after, still with a smile on his face, Sebastian said leisurely.

"I understand, I understand, but you don't have to worry!"

"It's just 1 lower-quality energy stone! This is nothing in front of your husband who will become an official talisman crafter soon!"

Upon hearing Sebastian's response, Julia couldn't help but roll her eyes as she immediately knew that Sebastian didn't take a single word of her rant to heart.

Deciding to ignore Sebastian for a while as his punishment, Julia began focusing on finishing her meal.

And seeing that Julia didn't say anything in response to him, and instead began focusing on finishing her meal, Sebastian decided to give an explanation to her after she was done eating her bowl of ginseng chicken soup.

Thus, Sebastian also began to focus his attention on the bowl of ginseng chicken soup that was in front of him.

...

After what seemed like 5 minutes had passed, Sebastian had already finished his bowl of ginseng chicken soup.

And looking at Julia, she was only halfway done with eating the chicken, and the soup within her bowl was still pretty much full.

Looking at Julia eat, Sebastian felt that it would be interesting to see her reaction toward what he was going to tell her while she was still eating her food...

And thus, he decided to just straightforwardly tell her the news.

"Julia, when we had sex last night, I managed to awaken a special body, and you are currently already pregnant with my child."

"Hmm...?"

"Hmm?!"

"Cough, cough..."

Upon hearing what Sebastian said, it took Julia a moment to register in her brain what Sebastian had just said, and immediately right after, she began choking onto the chicken meat that she had just swallowed.

Chapter 16: Reveal

"Cough... cough..."

Upon seeing that Julia was choking onto her food, Sebastian immediately got up from his chair and rushed over to Julia's side, then helped pat onto Julia's back.

"Woah, woah, are you okay?!"

Soon after, Julia managed to swallow the chicken meat down to her stomach.

And right after, not even caring about the fact that she had just choked onto her food due to being surprised by what Sebastian had just told her...

Julia looked over to Sebastian and asked anxiously.

"What did you just say?! I didn't hear wrongly, did I?!"

Upon seeing the anxious look on Julia's face, Sebastian felt that it was amusing and couldn't help but let out a laugh.

Right after, Sebastian went and brought his chair over to Julia's side, then began explaining to Julia while sitting right beside her.

Of course, Sebastian didn't reveal the fact that he possessed a system to Julia.

He merely made up an explanation as to how he managed to awaken his special body, the sperm strengthening body.

And truth to be told, the system was most likely a secret that Sebastian was going to take with him to his grave.

Even the closest of wives and husbands have their own secrets. So, as long as Sebastian wasn't harming his wife, what does it matter if he keeps a few secrets to himself and from his wife?

And the reason as to why he was willing to reveal to his wife that he actually awakened a special body was because there was pretty much no reason to keep his special body a secret from her.

Sure, there were cons to revealing his special body, but there were also pros, and for Sebastian's current situation, the pros were currently outweighing the cons.

For example, take a look at Feng Xue, the girl who possessed the special body, phoenix rebirth body.

If she had kept her special body a secret, would she have been able to get accepted as a direct disciple by Bright Moon Sect's Elder Zhi?

The answer was evidently no.

Perhaps, by revealing her special body, Feng Xue might have made herself a target to be eliminated by Bright Moon Sect's enemies...

But as a cultivator, cultivation resources were of the utmost importance.

Comparing the huge amount of cultivation resources that she would be able to receive to the dangers that she might have to face, it was practically an easy decision to make.

Furthermore, it was not like Bright Moon Sect wasn't going to protect her from the dangers that may come to her.

From what Sebastian knew, direct disciples were able to receive cultivation protectors, which were basically high realm cultivators assigned by the sect to protect the direct disciples from dangers.

Thus, all in all, for Feng Xue, revealing her special body to Bright Moon Sect was the better decision for her, compared to choosing to keep her special body a secret from Bright Moon Sect.

As for Sebastian, by revealing his special body to Julia...

Not only would he be able to get her to be prepared for giving birth to children who possess spiritual roots...

But he would also be able to make her realize of the fact that it would be the best choice to have him to take in more wives or concubines, as that would be the best way to utilize his special body, the sperm strengthening body.

As for the Lisandris Family, Sebastian intends to also reveal to them of the fact that he possesses a special body, but he intends to do it in a few more years' time, or when he manages to breakthrough and become an official talisman crafter and his first child had been born.

Firstly, only when his child is born, then would a spiritual root testing stone be able to work on the child.

After the spiritual root testing was done on his child, he would be able to prove to the Lisandris Family, or at the least begin convincing the Lisandris Family that he does indeed possess a special body as his child does possess a spiritual root.

Secondly, when he finally becomes an official talisman crafter, that would be when he finally possesses a decent identity, and thus would be able to possess more leverage when discussing things with the Lisandris Family.

...

"Yep, you didn't hear wrongly, last night when we had our first night together, I could sense that something was changing within my body, and the moment the change was complete..."

"Information began flooding into my mind, and I realized what happened to me. I had awakened a special body, and the special body was called the sperm strengthening body."

"Regarding what this special body is able to do... For now, while I am at energy refining realm, firstly, I'm able to get stronger whenever I impregnate a woman, and secondly, this special body allows me to impregnate women with a 100% success rate and guarantees that my children are born with spiritual roots."

"This means that, right now, you are currently already pregnant with our child."

"This is why I bought the 100-year-old ginseng to cook the ginseng chicken soup. You are not just one person anymore, there's a fetus forming within your stomach. Thus, we have to make sure that your body stays nourished, understand?"

After Julia finished listening to Sebastian's explanation, she went into a daze for a moment.

And right after, she stood up and grabbed onto Sebastian's shoulder, then asked him anxiously.

"Wait! So, you are saying, not only did you manage to awaken a special body..."

But also, I'm currently already pregnant with our child, and the child is definitely going to possess a spiritual root?!"

"Yep, that's pretty much it."

"Ah! I love you to death!"

"Mwah, mwah, mwah!"

Upon hearing Sebastian's confirmation, Julia couldn't contain her excitement anymore as she immediately embraced onto Sebastian and began kissing onto his right cheek and left cheek.

"Hmm? Just my cheeks only?"

Sebastian looked at Julia and said teasingly.

"Tsk!"

"Here you go! Mwah! Satisfied?"

With her face red, Julia kissed onto Sebastian's lips, then looked passionately at Sebastian...

And right after, she lowered her head to Sebastian's left ear and whispered in a low voice.

"Carry me to the bed..."

Chapter 17: Sex with Julia again

"Right now...?"

"Shouldn't you at least finish your food first?"

After hearing what Julia said to him, Sebastian said as he looked toward Julia's bowl of chicken ginseng soup that was not even halfway finished.

"You are such a blockhead! It's fine to leave it on the table, I can just heat it up again later!"

Upon hearing what Sebastian said, Julia couldn't help but rolled her eyes at him and grumbled.

However, right after she finished speaking, when she saw the teasing look that Sebastian had on his face, she immediately knew that Julia was just messing around with her.

"Tsk!"

Immediately, Julia couldn't help but clicked her tongue, then punched lightly onto Sebastian's chest with her right fist.

"My wife is so incredibly cute when she gets mad."

"Mwah!"

Looking at how cute Julia looked right now, Sebastian said teasingly while with a smile on his face, then kissed onto Julia's lips.

"Humph! Don't you dare think that you can get me to forgive you for messing around with me just because you called me cute!"

Julia snorted, then said coquettishly.

Although that was what Julia said, however, when listening to Julia's tone, it was evident that she wasn't mad at Sebastian for messing around with her.

"Alright, alright. Don't worry, your husband, Sebastian, will make it up to you in bed right away!"

Right after Sebastian finished speaking, Sebastian stood up from his chair, then began heading to the bed while carrying onto Julia with a princess carry.

...

Arriving at the bedroom, Sebastian laid Julia onto the bed, and without wasting any time, he began taking off his clothes right away.

After Sebastian was done undressing himself, he immediately got onto the bed and laid down beside Julia.

"Hmm..."

"Hmm..."

The moment Sebastian laid down on the bed beside Julia, he pulled Julia into his embrace and kissed onto Julia's lips.

Slowly, Sebastian began to insert his tongue into Julia's mouth, then began coiling his tongue onto Julia's tongue.

"Hmm... hmm..."

As the two French kissed with each other, Julia's muffled moans could clearly be heard coming out from her mouth.

"Ah..."

"Julia... Your hands feel so good..."

"Hah..."

However, to Sebastian's surprise, while he was French kissing with Julia, Julia's hands suddenly held onto his penis and began stroking onto his penis.

And the reason that Sebastian was surprised was because Sebastian felt that Julia was not someone who was the type to be assertive during sex.

Therefore, it surprised him when Julia took the initiative to hold onto his penis with her hands, and even more, began stroking onto his penis with her hands.

The moment Julia held onto Sebastian's penis with her hands, Sebastian couldn't help but let out a moan.

And when Julia began stroking onto his penis with her hands, Sebastian suddenly felt a chilling pleasure spreading through his entire body for a moment and he couldn't help but separate his lips from Julia's lips, then called out Julia's name affectionately.

"Does it really feel that good?"

With her face red, Julia placed her head onto Sebastian's chest, then said in a low voice.

"Hah... Yes... Your hands are so soft and smooth... It feels so good when your hands are stroking onto my penis..."

Sebastian answered while panting.

Right after Sebastian had answered Julia's question, as he was afraid that he might end up cumming too quickly due to the pleasure, Sebastian closed his eyes in order to calm himself down.

However, after what seemed like 3 minutes had passed since Sebastian had closed his eyes to attempt to calm himself down, looking at the way that he was currently panting, which was no different from the way that he was panting just a while ago, it was evident that his attempt at trying to calm himself down was futile.

Quickly, Sebastian opened his eyes, then grabbed onto Julia's hands and stopped her from continuing stroking his dick with her hands.

"Hah... Julia... it's enough, your hands feel too good, if this continues on any longer, I'm going to end up cumming before I have even entered into your body..."

"Ah! Okay... Give me a moment, I will undress right now..."

When Sebastian suddenly grabbed onto Julia's hands, it caused Julia to let out a cry of surprise since she was completely focused on stroking onto Sebastian's dick.

And when Julia heard what Sebastian said, Julia immediately sat her body up straight and began to undress her clothes.

While Julia was undressing herself, Sebastian took the chance to catch a breather, and as he laid by his side and watched as Julia undressed her clothes, a smile couldn't help but appear on his face.

When Julia was done undressing, when she looked over and saw that Sebastian was looking at her while with a smile on his face, her face began turning even redder than it already was.

"What are you looking at me like that for!"

"I'm... I'm already undressed, so what are you still waiting for?"

After Julia finished her second sentence, which was basically her telling Sebastian to quickly come and have sex with her already, Julia immediately turned her face away from Sebastian's eyes as she felt as if her head was going to explode from embarrassment.

Although Sebastian wanted to wait a few more minutes so that he could completely calm his body down, the moment Sebastian heard what Julia had said, and saw how adorable Julia was behaving, he knew that he wouldn't be able to calm his body down anymore even if he wanted to.

"Hmm..."

Right after Julia turned her face away from Sebastian's eyes, Sebastian immediately pulled Julia into his embrace and began French kissing with her once again...

Chapter 18: Sex with Julia again (2)

"Hmm..."

"Slurp..."

Although Julia had been acting shy just a moment ago, the moment Sebastian pulled Julia into his embrace and pressed his lips onto Julia's mouth, Julia immediately responded fervently by embracing her arms onto Sebastian's neck, then opened her mouth and inserted her tongue into Sebastian's mouth.

While French kissing with Julia, Sebastian slowly pressed Julia down onto the bed, and right as Julia lied down onto the bed, Sebastian moved his hands away from Julia's waist and stopped embracing onto her.

With his hands free, while still French kissing with Julia, Sebastian moved his right hand onto Julia's left breast and lightly rubbed onto both Julia's left breast and left nipple.

"Hmm...! Slurp... Slurp..." Upon sensing that her left breast and left nipple were being rubbed onto by Sebastian, Julia couldn't help but let out a muffled moan as she hugged even tighter onto Alan's neck with her arms, then began French kissing even harder with Sebastian in order to vent the pleasure that was coming from her left breast and left nipple.

Looking at how hard Julia was sucking onto Sebastian's mouth and tongue, it seemed as if Julia was intending to swallow Sebastian's tongue, along with all of Sebastian's saliva.

After what seemed like a few minutes had passed since Sebastian had pressed Julia down onto the bed, the two finally stopped their French kissing and separated their mouths from each other's mouth.

Right as Sebastian moved his lips away from Julia's lips, the two could be seen immediately panting for breath.

Because Julia was still embracing her arms onto Alan's neck, the distance in which Alan had separated his lips away from Julia's lips wasn't far at all.

As of now, the distance between Sebastian and Julia's faces were merely a few centimeters.

Thus, while panting for breath, Sebastian was looking directly into Julia's eyes, and looking at Julia's eyes, it was evident that Julia's eyes were filled with affection toward Sebastian.

"Hah... hah..."

"Hah... hah..."

Evidently, just looking at the way the two were panting heavily for breath, it was obvious just how passionately they had been French kissing with each other.

Right after catching his breath, Sebastian began lowering his head once again, intending to continue French kissing with Julia.

However, before Sebastian's lips had even landed onto Julia's lips, Julia hurriedly removed her arms from continuing embracing onto Sebastian's neck, then quickly pressed her palms onto Sebastian's chest and pushed her palms onto Sebastian's chest, stopping Sebastian from continuing lowering his head and kissing his lips onto her lips.

Right after stopping Sebastian from kissing his lips onto her lips, Julia opened her mouth, then said shyly in a low voice, "Sebastian, let's stop kissing... My body and heart feel like they are on fire... So, give it to me already..."

And right after Julia finished speaking, seemingly to feel very embarrassed about what she had just said to Sebastian, Julia hurriedly covered onto her face with her hands.

Meanwhile, upon hearing what Julia had just said, and upon seeing how cute and shy Julia was acting, Sebastian's heart couldn't help but skip a beat, and the tip of his dick couldn't help but twitch a few times due to how excited and turned on he was right now.

"Alright, I will get right to it!"

After responding hurriedly with an excited tone, Sebastian began moving his body downward of Julia's body, all the way until he arrived at the front of Julia's pussy.

Right as Sebastian arrived at the front of Julia's pussy, Sebastian kneeled down in front of Julia's pussy, then held onto his dick with his right hand, and began pressing the tip of his dick onto Julia's pussy.

"Hmm...!"

The moment Sebastian's dick came into contact with Julia's pussy lips, Julia immediately let out a light moan, and upon hearing the light moan that came out from Julia's mouth, Sebastian couldn't help but subconsciously raised his head and took a look at Julia's face.

Immediately, Sebastian saw that although Julia was still covering her face with her hands, Julia wasn't properly covering her eyes with her hands anymore and was currently peeping through the gaps of her fingers and looking with anticipation at her crotch area.

While Julia was looking at anticipation at her crotch area, awaiting for Sebastian to finally insert his dick into her pussy, so that she could finally quench the fire of lust that was burning her body and heart...

When Julia saw that Sebastian's movement had come to a freeze, question marks immediately appeared within her mind, and subconsciously, she raised her eyes upward and looked toward Sebastian's face.

Immediately after, right as she raised her eyes upward, she saw that Sebastian was actually looking at her with a slightly surprised expression on his face.

The reason Sebastian was feeling slightly surprised was because Sebastian didn't expect to see Julia looking with anticipation for him to insert his dick into her pussy.

And as for why Sebastian's movement came to a freeze, it was because Sebastian was stunned by Julia's adorableness and cuteness.

After all, within Sebastian's eyes, Julia looked extremely adorable and cute when she was peeping through the gaps of her fingers that she purposely made on her own.

After a few seconds of the both of them silently looking into each other's eyes, Julia ended up being the one who broke the silence.

"Ah! What... what are you looking at me with that surprised and stunned look on your face for! Stop looking at me like that and continue on with what you were doing already!"

With her face turned completely red, due to the embarrassment that she was feeling, Julia hurriedly closed the gaps of her fingers so that her eyes were covered by her hands once again, then shouted out loudly to conceal her embarrassment.

However, although Julia was shouting, because of her personality and temperament, there wasn't any power or intimidation within her shouts at all, and instead, when she shouted at Sebastian, it just seemed as if she was acting cute and coquettish.

"Cough... cough... Don't worry, I will get right to it!" Meanwhile, upon hearing Julia shout at him, not knowing how to respond, Sebastian decided to let out a few awkward coughs to hide his awkwardness, then reassured Julia that he will quickly insert his dick into her pussy already.

"Hah..."

After taking in and letting out a deep breath to calm himself down slightly, Sebastian began rubbing the tip of his dick onto Julia's pussy, so that he could get the tip of his dick to become covered with Julia's pussy juice.

Because Julia's pussy was already wet from the French kissing, it didn't take too long for the tip of Sebastian's dick to become completely covered with Julia's pussy juice.

With his glans now covered with Julia's pussy juice, Sebastian began to slowly insert his glans into Julia's pussy.

And the moment Sebastian's glans was being pushed into Julia's pussy, Julia couldn't help but let out a moan.

However, seemingly to be feeling embarrassed about what had happened just a while ago, Julia purposely held back her moan, causing her moan to become stifled and hard to hear by Sebastian.

"Ah... fuck..." Right as Sebastian had inserted the entirety of his glans into Julia's pussy, Sebastian couldn't help but let out a groan due to the pleasure that was coming from his glans.

After pausing for a short moment to get used to the pleasure that was coming from his glans, whereas his glans was feeling like it was being squeezed tightly onto, while at the same time being massaged onto...

Sebastian took in a deep breath, then with his teeth clenched tightly, he began pushing the entirety of his dick into Julia's pussy.

"Hah..." With his dick completely inserted into Julia's pussy, Sebastian finally let out a deep breath, then looked toward Julia's face.

Upon seeing that Julia was still covering onto her face with her hands, a playful grin appeared on Sebastian's face as he looked downward at Julia's pussy.

Looking at Julia's pussy, specifically, the top area of Julia's pussy, Sebastian could see that Julia's clitoris was completely exposed into the open air.

Although Sebastian was still a virgin up until yesterday, Sebastian's knowledge regarding sex wasn't limited at all.

After all, the amount of knowledge regarding sex that he had accumulated through the usage of internet during his past life could be counted as immense when compared to the knowledge that Julia had regarding sex.

Thus, Sebastian was well aware that aside from normal sex, the way in which a woman could obtain immense pleasure was by having their clitoris stimulated.

With a playful grin on his face, Sebastian moved his right hand onto Julia's clitoris, and right after, without any hesitation, he pressed his right thumb lightly onto Julia's clitoris.

"Ah!!!"

And to Sebastian's surprise, right as he pressed his right thumb onto Julia's clitoris, Julia suddenly let out a loud moan, followed by liquid being spurt out from her pussy.

Chapter 19: Julia's weak spot, clitoris

"Ah...! What is this... this feels so good...! Ah!!!"

"Hah... hah... hah..."

The moment Julia came to an orgasm, Sebastian immediately sensed that Julia's pussy walls were squeezing even tighter onto his dick, while at the same time, Julia's pussy walls were wriggling even more than before, followed by a light gush of water being splashed onto his glans.

And if Sebastian didn't guess incorrectly, the light gush of water that he had sensed being splashed onto his glans was most likely Julia's pussy juice.

The sensation of his dick being clamped tight onto by Julia's pussy walls, the sensation of Julia's pussy walls wriggling, which made his dick felt like it was being gently massaged onto by the pussy walls, followed quickly by Julia's pussy juice splashing onto his glans...

Sebastian almost couldn't help but come to an orgasm when he felt those three distinct sensations coming from his dick.

If not for the fact that Sebastian quickly bit his teeth down onto his lower lips when he felt like he was about to cum due to the heavenly sensations that he was sensing from his dick, Sebastian would have definitely come to an orgasm along with Julia's orgasm.

After biting his teeth down onto his lower lips to stop himself from cumming, Sebastian hurriedly closed his eyes and tried to calm himself down.

However, looking at the way that Sebastian was panting heavily, it was evident that he wasn't doing well in trying to calm himself down.

In truth, Sebastian really didn't expect Julia to come to an orgasm just from his thumb touching onto her clitoris.

From the looks of it, Julia seemed to possess an incredibly sensitive body, or at the least, Julia's clitoris seems to be an extremely weak spot of hers, and because of Sebastian's sudden idea of deciding to pleasure Julia by playing with Julia's clitoris, Sebastian somehow found out just how he would be able to bring Julia to an orgasm easily, which was to stimulate Julia's clitoris.

Meanwhile, on the other hand, Julia could be seen to be grabbing tightly onto the bedsheet with her hands, her body was currently arched slightly upward, her eyes were rolling upward, her tongue was sticking out from her mouth, and she had a distorted look on her face due to the immense pleasure that she had just experienced for the first time in her life.

Paired all of that with the constant alluring moaning that was coming out from Julia's mouth, it was truly a miracle that Sebastian even managed to hold himself back from cumming when he saw this incredibly alluring and sexy scene before him.

Compared to the squirting that Julia had experienced yesterday, Julia felt that the orgasm that she had just experienced was so much more pleasurable.

The pleasure was so pleasurable to the point that she couldn't even bother with maintaining her gracefulness.

Looking at Julia right now, the position she was in was rather unwomanlike, with her crotch raised upward toward Sebastian's body due to her body being arched slightly upward.

And next, when looking at Julia's face, there wasn't any gracefulness or elegance on her face at all.

Rather than gracefulness or elegance, Julia currently had an extremely slutty look on her face, which was why Sebastian had to hurriedly close his eyes in order to calm himself down.

If he hadn't closed his eyes immediately after seeing how slutty Julia looked, from her slender and smooth body that was slightly arched upward, to the extremely slutty look that Julia had on her face...

If he were to continue on looking at the slutty look that Julia had on her face due to the orgasm that she had just experienced, Sebastian felt that he definitely wouldn't be able to hold himself back from cumming.

After all, what's more alluring than when a woman who was usually the type to be elegant and gentle began showing such a slutty look on her face when she was in bed with you?

The extreme contrast of Julia's usual gentle and elegant look, compared to the current extremely slutty look that Julia had on her face, it was more than enough to make Sebastian feel like his heart was going to jump out from his throat due to how fast it was currently beating.

After a minute had passed, looking at the two of them right now, Sebastian was panting for breath while with his eyes closed, trying his best to calm himself down and hold himself back from cumming, and Julia who had stopped moaning and was also currently panting for breath while with her eyes closed.

Just like this, the two remained still and silent, and all that filled the bedroom was their panting for breath.

"Hah... hah..."

"Hah... hah..."

After a few minutes of panting, Sebastian who had somehow managed to calm himself down and held himself back from cumming was the first one amongst the two to open his eyes.

Right upon opening his eyes, when Julia's body came into Sebastian's eyes, Julia's body could be seen to be lying flat on the bed once again, her arms were spread wide open, and her eyes were still closed.

With lust filled within his mind, Sebastian didn't bother uttering a word to Julia.

"Hah..." After taking in and letting out a huge breath, Sebastian held onto Julia's legs that were lying flat on the bed and lifted Julia's legs upward.

With Julia's legs raised upward, Sebastian then placed Julia's legs onto his shoulders and wrapped his arms around Julia's legs, making sure that Julia lower body was going to remain still when he begun with whatever that he was about to do next.

Meanwhile, when Julia sensed that her legs were being picked up by Sebastian, then placed onto Sebastian's shoulders, Julia finally opened her eyes and looked over at Sebastian while with a slightly confused expression on her face.

However, right in the next moment, Julia's expression immediately changed...

Chapter 20: Julia's dirty talk

Right when Julia sensed that her legs were placed onto Sebastian's shoulders and wrapped around by Sebastian's arms, Julia finally opened her eyes and looked over at Sebastian while with a slightly confused expression on her face.

With her eyes still blurry, and an evident slightly confused expression on her face, Julia let out a confused mutter while looking straight at Sebastian's face, "Hmm...? Sebastian, what..."

However, before Julia was even able to finish her sentence, Julia's eyes suddenly turned wide opened as she let out a loud moan, "Ah...!"

And the reason for Julia's reaction was because...

Right when Sebastian saw that Julia had opened her eyes, a playful grin appeared on Sebastian's face once again, and without hesitation, Sebastian pulled his dick out from deep within Julia's pussy, all the way until only the tip of his penis remained with Julia's pussy, then thrust his waist forward with all of his strength, causing his dick to get pushed into Julia's pussy with great force, and in the end, causing his glans to press hard onto Julia's cervix, which ended up causing Julia to open her eyes wide and letting out a loud moan due to the immense pleasure that she felt coming from her pussy.

Before Julia had even come back to her senses from the immense pleasure of having her pussy walls rubbed against by Sebastian's penis and her cervix being pressed hard onto by Sebastian's glans...

While hugging tightly onto Julia's legs with his arms, Sebastian began thrusting his hips back and forth without holding back any of his strength, not even caring about whether if he would cum faster due to not holding himself back.

And within just a minute of forceful thrusting, while with her eyes closed, Julia could currently be seen hugging tightly onto a pillow and biting her teeth onto the pillow as she let out moans that sounded like whimpers.

However, seemingly to be unable to withstand Sebastian's forceful thrusting, or perhaps, to be more specific, seemingly to be unable to withstand the immense pleasure that she was feeling coming from her pussy, Julia stopped biting her teeth onto the pillow and opened her eyes, then looked toward Sebastian while with a pitiful look on her face and began pleading while moaning at the same time.

"Hmm... hmm..."

"Pa! Pa! Pa!"

"Darling... not so hard... hmm..."

"Pa! Pa! Pa!"

"This is... hmm... too much for me..."

"Pa! Pa! Pa!"

"Darling... please..."

However, unbeknownst to Julia, when Sebastian heard Julia called him "darling" for the first time, paired with how sexy and alluring she looked when she was pleading him to be gentle with her, it merely caused Sebastian to become even more aroused and hornier than he already was.

"Fuck... Julia, my baby... Hah... Hah..."

"Do you know... Hah... how fucking sexy you look right now?"

"Hah... hah..."

"How am I possibly going to... hah... be able to hold myself back..."

"When you look so fucking sexy... hah..."

"Bear with it for a few more minutes, okay, baby?"

"I should... hah... be able to cum in a... hah... few more minutes..."

Upon hearing what Sebastian said, while still with a pitiful look on her face, Julia pouted her lips, then said in a low voice while still moaning, "Hmm... Alright... I will bear with it, so don't worry about me..."

"Thank you, my beloved... Hah... I love you." Upon hearing what Julia said, despite lust being the main feeling that was filled within his entire mind right now, Sebastian couldn't help but said gently as he stopped his thrusting for a moment and lowered his upper body downward and kissed gently onto Julia's lips.

Of course, right after kissing gently onto Julia's lips, Sebastian immediately raised his body back upward, then intended on continuing on with his relentless thrusting.

However, unexpected to Sebastian, right as he was about to continue on with his relentless thrusting, Julia suddenly opened her mouth and said seductively, "Darling, don't hold yourself back, fu... fuck my... my pussy as hard as you can!"

And right after Julia finished speaking, when she saw that Sebastian had a rather dumbfounded expression on his face, evidently due to being shocked at the words that just came out from her mouth, Julia immediately covered onto her face with her hands then shyly hurried Sebastian to continue on with his thrusts, "What... what are you looking at me like that for! Go on and fu... fuck my pussy hard with your dick! My pussy wants your dick to satisfy it right now!"

What... what the fuck did I just hear Julia said?! I am not hearing things wrongly, am I? Is the stimulation from the sex that I am having with Julia so over stimulating that I am actually hallucinating...?

Upon hearing what Julia said, Sebastian couldn't help but question if he was actually hallucinating or not.

After all, never in Sebastian's mind would he imagined that Julia would actually willingly say such vulgar words like "fuck", "dick", and "pussy".

Within Sebastian's mind, Julia was the kind of woman that was elegant, graceful, and gentle. Vulgar words such as "fuck", "dick", and "pussy" shouldn't be words that were within Julia's dictionary.

And yet, what did he just hear Julia say to him?

After what seemed like 10 seconds of becoming dumbfounded by the words that came out of Julia's mouth, Sebastian finally came back to his senses, and immediately after coming back from his senses, Sebastian began speaking in a deep voice due to how aroused he was actually feeling right now by Julia's dirty talk.

"Fuck! Julia, I love you to death!"

"You better brace yourself, I definitely won't be able to hold myself back anymore after hearing what you just said to me!"

Right after Sebastian finished speaking, while with Julia's legs placed on his shoulders, Sebastian pressed his palms down onto the sides of Julia's stomach, then began thrusting his dick in and out of Julia's pussy without any mercy.
