#Chapter 152: Complete darkness and silence - Read Path to Immortality Begins With Marriage Chapter 152: Complete darkness and silence

Chapter 152: Complete darkness and silence

Before Ye Wei had even launched his right hand into Sebastian's direction, intending to grab onto Sebastian's with his right hand...

The moment Ye Wei's right hand had been covered with flames...

Perhaps due to his yin and yang cores, or perhaps due to the beast-like instincts that he possesses because of the tiny dragon bloodline he possesses, Sebastian immediately sensed that he was going to be attacked by Ye Wei...

And instinctively, without even thinking, Sebastian subconsciously used his yin core's ability, darkness envelopment, onto Ye Wei.

"Darkness envelopment!"

The moment Sebastian decided to use darkness envelopment and subconsciously shouted out the words "darkness envelopment" in his own mind as he began revolving his yin core, Sebastian could sense that 1/10 of the yin energy that was contained within his yin core immediately began surging toward his left eye...

As the yin energy arrived at Sebastian's left eye, Sebastian's entire left pupil turned into a yin and yang symbol for a moment, followed by the yin part of the yin and yang symbol overwhelming and enveloping the yang symbol, causing the yin and yang symbol to turn completely black.

And right as the yin and yang symbol turned completely black, Sebastian could feel that something was being shot out from his left eye.

As for what was being shot out from his left eye...

Sebastian was aware it was precisely the yin core's ability, darkness envelopment!

And as how for Sebastian knew that?

After all, right as Sebastian sensed that something was shot out from his left eye, Ye Wei's body suddenly went completely limp, as if Ye Wei had fainted and lost consciousness.

Though, looking at Ye Wei's eyes that were still opened, it didn't really seem that he had really fainted and lost consciousness, but instead, seemed as if his soul had completely left his body.

Right as Ye Wei's body was about to land onto Sebastian's body, Sebastian subconsciously kicked his right foot onto Ye Wei's stomach, causing Ye Wei's body to get send flying and landing a few meters away from Sebastian's body.

From the start to finish, where Ye Wei's right hand was covered in flames, to Ye Wei suddenly being send flying by Sebastian's right feet...

It all happened within just a few seconds.

Thus, when everyone in the wedding venue saw what happened before their eyes...

Seemingly to be shocked speechless, all of them remained completely silent for quite a while.

"What the hell just happened...? Ye Wei, the second strongest energy refining realm cultivator within Bright Moon Sect, actually lost to a random no name cultivator...?"

"I was thinking that it was strange for Ancestor Coril to allow a married-in son-in-law to marry another Lisandris Family's female member, despite the fact that this married-in son-in-law had already married a Lisandris Family's female member a day or two ago... Seems like there is something that Ancestor Coril knows and is keeping a secret from us..."

"Senior Brother Ye Wei lost?! What even happened during these few seconds?! More importantly, just who is this person that managed to overpower Senior Brother Ye Wei and defeat Senior Brother Ye Wei with just a kick?!"

After what seemed like 10 seconds of silence had passed, then did everyone slowly start coming back to their senses as they thought to themselves while staring at Sebastian, and Ye Wei, who was currently lying down on the ground with his eyes still opened, yet with a soulless expression on his face, seemingly as if he was in a vegetable state.

From the table that the talisman crafting department's disciples were sitting at, there could be seen to be 3 male disciples and 2 female disciples sitting at the table...

And the wedding venue's complete silence was broken by one of the two female disciples sitting at the table.

"Senior Brother Ye Wei!"

At the table of the talisman crafting department's disciples...

A female disciple who possessed a rather attractive figure, a figure that was on-par with Miuna Lisandris's sexy and alluring figure...

Yet an appearance that was elegant and gentle, similar to the kind of elegant and gentle appearance that Julia Lisandris possesses...

Could be seen standing from up her seat, then shouting out with a worried look on her face as she ran over to Ye Wei's side to check up on Ye Wei.

"Senior Brother Ye Wei! It's me, Nerissa! Don't scare me, wake up, please!"

Upon arriving by Ye Wei's side, Nerissa kneeled down by Ye Wei's side, then began shaking onto Ye Wei's body as she called out to Ye Wei while with a worried look and voice that seemed to be on the edge of sobbing.

"That's... that's right! Recovery pills!"

Suddenly, seemingly to finally recall something important, Nerissa mumbled to herself as she began looking into her spatial ring for recovery pills or medicinal herbs that would be able to be of help to Ye Wei's current situation.

But, right when she had just taken out a recovery pill from her spatial ring...

Ye Wei, who was lying on the floor as if he was in a vegetative state, suddenly propped his body up from the floor, then began breathing hurriedly while with an extremely frightened look on his face, seemingly as if he had just witnessed something extremely horrifying.

"What... what the fuck was that..."

"I... I... I thought I had died or something when I sensed an overwhelming feeling of fright appearing throughout my entire body, followed by my entire vision and senses being swallowed by complete darkness and silence..."

"What... what was I doing before that happened..."

"That's right... I was about to grab onto a guy's neck..."

"A guy..."

Upon thinking to himself up to here, Ye Wei subconsciously raised his head upward, and right as Sebastian's cold expression came into his eyes...

Seemingly to have been traumatized badly by what he had just experienced...

The feeling of fright immediately began enveloping his body, and without hesitation, he quickly began crawling backward while shouting out with obvious fear in his voice.

"You... you... don't you dare do anything stupid!"

Chapter 153: Nerissa

"My... my father is Ye's Family current family head, and my master is the great elder of the pill concoction department!"

"If you dare to do anything to me, they definitely won't let you off easily!"

Due to the immense feeling of fright that he could still feel surging throughout his entire body, and his battle instinct that something frightening was targeted onto him...

While Ye Wei was crawling backward and distancing himself from Sebastian, Ye Wei actually stoop to the low point of bringing out both his father and master to threaten Sebastian...

Something that Ye Wei himself had never expected someone like himself would ever do.

However, in truth, Ye Wei was not to be completely blamed for his action, as his immense feeling of fright and instinct that something frightening was targeted onto him were both completely justified.

After all, while Sebastian was staring coldly at Ye Wei, Sebastian's left eye was already filled with yin energy, and he was prepared to use darkness envelopment onto Ye Wei once again if Ye Wei were to try and do something again.

And this time, if Ye Wei dares to attack him again, Sebastian didn't mind using his yin-yang breath to kill Ye Wei, even if it means attracting trouble and revealing to everyone that he possesses an ability that was capable of killing cultivators that were way higher level than him.

In truth, if not for the fact that there was currently too many people within the wedding venue, Sebastian would have definitely chose to kill Ye Wei.

So, again, how could Ye Wei possibly be blamed for the way that he was currently acting?

Being targeted by an ability that normally only an immortal realm cultivator would be able to possess and in thus having to withstand the immense spiritual pressure that was being emitted out by the ability...

If Ye Wei could possibly withstand the immense spiritual pressure and prevent the immense spiritual pressure from creating an immense feeling of fright that he was currently feeling surging through his body...

The yin and yang cores might as well have their title as "one of the strongest innate abilities within the Cultivation Realm" removed.

Meanwhile, upon seeing that her childhood friend was actually fine, Nerissa immediately let out a huge sigh of relief.

However, right when she was about to help lift Ye Wei up from the ground, the scene of Ye Wei crawling backward with fright while threatening Sebastian immediately began unfolding before her eyes.

And to tell the truth, upon seeing this particular scene unfolded before her eyes, Nerissa couldn't help but feel that her adoration toward Ye Wei was starting to crack a little.

After all, ever since she had known Ye Wei since she was a small child, Ye Wei had always been a prideful yet charismatic guy...

Always winning against other male cultivators that were in the same cultivation realm and level as him and also was always able to cultivate techniques and martial skills that he had learned to extremely high levels of proficiencies without much difficulty!

Ever since Nerissa had become a teenager and became truly aware of what marriages and intimate relationships meant...

Nerissa had always felt that Ye Wei was her ideal dao companion, and if possible, Ye Wei was precisely the person that she wanted to marry in the future.

However, right now, that feeling seemed to be getting weaker after she had witnessed the scene that had just unfolded before her eyes...

Especially when she paired this scene that she had just witnessed with these past few years of grievance she had accumulated toward Ye Wei...

Whereby during these past few years, not long after Feng Xue had joined Bright Moon Sect...

For the sake of chasing after Feng Xue and not let anyone think that he possess an ambiguous relationship with her, Ye Wei began giving her the cold shoulders...

Despite the fact that before Feng Xue had appeared, Ye Wei had been openly accepting both her and her family's gifts, seemingly to be intending on accepting her as his dao companion in the future.

Then again, at the end of the day, Ye Wei was still the person that she was currently still the fondest of...

Thus, without hesitation, Nerissa walked into the middle of Sebastian and Ye Wei, then cupped her hands at Sebastian and said respectfully while with her head slightly lowered.

"You... you are called Sebastian, right?"

"Senior Brother Sebastian, I apologize to you in Senior Brother Ye Wei's state."

"As apology, I will make sure to pay you a visit in the near future and prepare a huge gift for you to make up for this unruly scene that Senior Brother Ye Wei has caused."

"All I ask for you, is to let Senior Brother Ye Wei off this one time."

Faced with what Nerissa said, Sebastian couldn't help but raised his left brow and thought to himself.

"Erm... who is this person...? Most probably the guy's sister or something...? Since Feng Xue is his dao companion, right?"

"Hmm... I guess I should just accept this person's offer."

"In any case, the guy doesn't seem like he is going to attack me again, and since I won't be able to kill him right now due to the fact that there's so many eyes on me right now, I might as well take a consolation prize for now."

"As for this guy... I will deal with him again in the near future when I have the chance..."

Upon thinking up to here, Sebastian nodded his head, then said with a cold look on his face, "Fine, so be it, I will accept your apology. Since today is my wedding day, I will let this guy off the hook."

Upon hearing what Sebastian said, Nerissa let out another breath of relief in her own mind, then bowed slightly lowered as she said...

"Thank you, Senior Brother Sebastian! I will make sure to pay you a visit soon. For now, please excuse both me and Senior Brother Ye Wei."

Upon speaking up to here, Nerissa turned around and began lifting Ye Wei up from the ground.

However, faced with Nerissa's help, Ye Wei smacked away Nerissa's hands...

And right as he stood up...

To everyone's surprise, he actually took out a sword, then pointed the sword at Sebastian!

Chapter 154: 2 new side missions

"That... that doesn't count, it's merely because I wasn't prepared for your surprise attack! Fight me fair and square this time! Draw your sword, Sebastian!"

"Ye... Senior Brother Ye Wei! What are you doing?! Senior Brother Sebastian has already chosen to forg..."

"Nerissa, shut your mouth and get lost, I don't need your help!

Sebastian, draw your sword and face me fair and square now!"

Right as Ye Wei took out a sword and pointed the sword at Sebastian, Ye Wei shouted out loudly as he covered his hands, feet, and sword with flames, then got into a battle stance, evidently to be prepared to have a proper battle with Sebastian.

And as for the reason that Ye Wei actually dared to point his sword at Sebastian and challenged Sebastian to a fight despite the horrifying experience that he had just experienced was because...

A moment ago, when Nerissa got between Ye Wei and Sebastian...

Because Nerissa was blocking Sebastian's left eye from Ye Wei's body, which initially had the darkness envelopment charged and targeted at Ye Wei...

Ye Wei suddenly felt the heavy spiritual pressure that seemed to be pressing down hard on his body disappeared, and most importantly...

What disappeared along the heavy spiritual pressure was the feeling of extreme fright that was surging throughout his body!

Upon sensing that both the heavy spiritual pressure and extreme fright had disappeared from his body...

And upon seeing that Nerissa was actually apologizing for him in his stead when he didn't ask for her to do that, nor did he intend to apologize...

A strong feeling of humiliation immediately began sweeping through his entire body as he began shouting out to himself in his own mind.

"Shit! Shit! Shit! How could I have lost to a no name cultivator?!"

"This isn't impossible! I... I must have lost merely because I let my guard down and ended up getting caught by surprise by a forbidden ability of sorts that he used onto me!"

"That's... that's right! That's the only explanation! If I were to fight with this guy properly one on one, there's no way I would lose!"

"And that forbidden ability of sorts that he used on me which enveloped my senses and vision with darkness..."

"I'm sure that this ability must have used an incredible amount of his spiritual energy, so, there's no way he will be able to use that ability onto me again!"

Upon thinking to himself up to here, Ye Wei suddenly sensed that his left arm and back were being held onto by Nerissa's hands, and from the looks of things, Nerissa seemed to be intending on lifting him up from the ground.

Upon sensing that...

Ye Wei's feeling of humiliation finally reached its peak, and thus, without any hesitation, he flung his left arm, smacking away Nerissa's hands from his body, then stood up from the ground by himself.

And right as he had stood up from the ground...

Seemingly to have convinced himself that he had previously lost merely because Sebastian had caught him by surprise...

Though, the truth was that he was the one that initially launched a surprise attack onto Sebastian despite the fact that Sebastian did nothing to provoke him...

He took out his sword from his spatial ring, then challenged Sebastian to a proper and official battle, so that he could wipe away his shame by defeating Sebastian, and this time, since it was going to be a proper battle, he was sure that there was no way he would be able to lose.

...

Upon seeing that this guy actually dared to challenge him while saying whatever he had said with a straight face, a speechless look couldn't help but appear Sebastian's face as he thought to himself.

"What is this guy shamelessly talking about, does he have no shame at all?"

"Isn't he the one who suddenly out of nowhere launched an attack onto me, seemingly to be intending to grab onto my neck with his right hand?"

"So, what is he even talking about right now, saying that he wasn't prepared for my surprise attack?"

"Then again... Since this guy seem to be the kind of person that is shameless and would hold grudges... Perhaps, I might as well take this chance to kill him off."

"If trouble will arise due to me killing him, then so be it."

"After all, even if the Lisandris Family somehow isn't strong enough to protect me against this guy's father and master... Worse come to worst, I will just reveal my sperm strengthening body to the sect."

"Once the sect knows of the fact that I possesses the sperm strengthening body, I'm sure they wouldn't allow any danger to befall me."

"More importantly, if I killed this guy, not only will I be able to eliminate a hidden future danger, but I will also be able to further progress this new side mission that I had unlocked..."

Upon thinking up to here, Sebastian slightly moved his eyes to the left and took a look at his system screen.

[New side missions have been added to the mission tab!]

[Side mission 2: Defeat 100 energy refining realm cultivators that are of the same level or higher level than you. Current progress: 1/100 (Deadline: 60 days remaining)]

[Side mission 3: Start making a name for yourself by first making up to 1000 cultivators become convinced of your strength and remember your name. Current progress: 13/1000 (Deadline: 60 days remaining)]

That's right, right as Sebastian had kicked his right feet onto Ye Wei's stomach and sent Ye Wei flying, 2 new side missions became available for Sebastian to complete.

Evidently, his 1/100 progress for his side mission 2 was due to him defeating Ye Wei...

And his 13/1000 progress for his side mission 3, it was all thanks to the energy refining realm cultivators that were present within the wedding venue that were shocked by Sebastian's action of defeating Ye Wei with just a simple kick.

Currently within the wedding venue, not counting Sebastian, there were 14 energy refining realm cultivators present at the venue.

Thus...

Chapter 155: Saved, or...?

Thus, this meant that, within the wedding venue, there was currently 1 energy refining realm cultivator who still wasn't convinced of Sebastian's strength.

And since Ye Wei still dared to challenge Sebastian to a battle, it was evident that Ye Wei was that remaining energy refining realm cultivator who still wasn't convinced of Sebastian's strength.

Right now, if Sebastian was able to look around the wedding venue...

He would be able to see that, Feng Xue, and Talisman Crafter Wu's daughter, were both looking at him with sparkly eyes.

And within both of their gazes, their gazes were filled with curiosity toward Sebastian.

Curiosity toward a person who was of their opposite sex...

This was usually the first step toward a young woman slowly falling in love, so long as the certain person that the young woman was curious about doesn't disappoint the young woman's expectations.

After taking a quick look at his system screen, Sebastian thought to himself, "To hell with it, I will worry about the future when it comes. For now, I should kill this guy and progress further with my side mission 3's progress."

"Also... I should probably act as cool as I possibly can when I accept this guy's challenge, followed by killing him clean with my yin-yang breath."

"After all, if I'm going to start making a name for myself by making other cultivators become convinced of my strength and also make them remember my name..."

"Acting cool, followed by destroying my opponents with absolute strength, should be the best way to allow myself to leave a strong impression on others, in thus making others remember my name, while at the same time, become convinced of my strength."

Upon thinking up to here, Sebastian took a step forward, then placed his hands to his back and raised his head slightly as he said with a cold and prideful look on his face.

"I was initially going to spare you because of your sister's pleading."

"However, since you seem to be tired of living, I should fulfill your request then!"

"Ye Wei, you should be prepared this time round, right?"

Right upon speaking up to here, without any hesitation, Sebastian immediately used his darkness envelopment onto Ye Wei, so as to not give Ye Wei any chance to attack him.

Right as Sebastian had used his darkness envelopment onto Ye Wei...

Right before Ye Wei's body had gone limp and fell powerlessly onto the ground, Sebastian shamelessly shouted out as he ran forward and did a jump kick with his right foot onto Ye Wei.

"Come, show me what you got!"

Right as Sebastian finished speaking, Sebastian's right foot came into contact with Ye Wei's stomach, sending Ye Wei flying once again, followed by landing powerlessly onto the ground.

"Sigh... Weak... too weak..."

Upon landing on his feet, Sebastian shook his head as he let out a helpless sigh, then purposely muttered out loudly, so that everyone within the wedding venue could hear what he said.

"To save you from embarrassment, I will be merciful and wipe your existence off from this world."

"Wait...!"

Right after Sebastian finished speaking, without hesitation, Sebastian began using his yin-yang breath.

The moment Sebastian used his yin-yang breath, Sebastian could sense that a huge amount of yin and yang energy were being depleted from his yin and yang cores.

And shortly after, Sebastian could sense a huge amount of yin energy surging to his left eye, while a huge amount of yang energy surged to his right eye.

Right as Sebastian's eyes were filled with yin and yang energy, Sebastian's left eye turned completely black, while his right eye turned completely white.

The moment Sebastian's eyes had changed colors, Sebastian knew that he was now able to use his yin-yang breath, and thus, without hesitation, he opened his mouth and shot the yin-yang breath at Ye Wei!

From the time where Sebastian charged up his yin-yang breath, to the time where Sebastian used his yin-yang breath...

Everything took less than 2 seconds.

Thus, the moment Nerissa heard that Sebastian was intending to kill Ye Wei and had just opened her mouth, evidently to be intending to plead for Sebastian to spare Ye Wei...

It was all too late.

In everyone's eyes, immediately after Ye Wei had been kicked and sent flying by Sebastian, a breath attack that seemed to be a mix of fire and ice elements was shot out by Sebastian's mouth, and into Ye Wei's direction.

And judging from what Sebastian had said right before shooting out that breath attack, everyone understood that Sebastian was confident that this breath attack of his was able to kill Ye Wei.

Thus, everyone was sure that Ye Wei was going to end up being killed by Sebastian.

However...

Right as Sebastian had shot out his yin-yang breath, Ye Wei's body could be seen suddenly disappearing from the ground, and thus, Sebastian's yin-yang breath ended up landing onto nothing but the ground.

"Hmm? Where did the guy..."

Right as Sebastian's yin-yang breath came to a stop, Sebastian couldn't help but mutter to himself in his own mind while with a confused look on his face.

But right before Sebastian was able to finish his thought, Sebastian felt that his left shoulder was tapped onto by someone's hand, and thus, he subconsciously turned his head toward his left shoulder.

"Elder Zhi...?"

"Alright, it's enough that you have defeated Ye Wei, there's no need for you to go so far as to killing him.

Give me some face and let Ye Wei off this one time, won't you, Sebastian?

I promise you that you will be compensated greatly for the scene that Ye Wei had caused."

Evidently, Ning Zhi was the one who had saved Ye Wei at the last moment.

After all, looking at Ning Zhi's side, Ye Wei's powerless and limp body could be seen lying on the ground.

Chapter 156: My direct disciple

"And as for this guy... you can be reassured that he will be punished severely and won't dare to come looking for any trouble with you in the future."

When Ning Zhi moved her gaze away from Sebastian and over to Ye Wei, Sebastian subconsciously followed along Ning Zhi's gaze, and when he saw Ye Wei's body...

He couldn't help but let out a sigh as he thought to himself.

"Sigh... I somewhat knew that I won't be able to successfully kill this guy, especially since Elder Zhi is present here, and this guy seems to be a disciple of the talisman crafting department."

Upon thinking up to here, Sebastian cupped his hands at Ning Zhi and said respectfully, "Since Elder Zhi has said so, I should listen to Elder Zhi."

Upon hearing what Sebastian said and seeing how respectful Sebastian was toward her, Ning Zhi nodded her head with satisfaction.

Right when Ning Zhi was about to open her mouth to speak...

Seemingly that the darkness envelopment had finished lasting onto Ye Wei, Ye Wei finally regained his senses, and thus, Ye Wei could be seen waking up as he let out a painful groan.

"Urgh..."

"Wait... I'm still... alive...?"

Shortly after opening his eyes and coming back to his senses, a huge look of relief could be seen appearing on Ye Wei's face.

However, that huge look of relief quickly changed into an extreme look of fright when he raised his head and saw Sebastian's figure standing before him.

Despite the fact that Sebastian currently wasn't targeting onto Ye Wei with either the darkness envelopment or yin-yang breath, which meant that Ye Wei wasn't feeling any immense spiritual pressure being pressed onto his body...

With an extremely frightful look on his face, Ye Wei immediately began crawling backward, distancing himself from Sebastian...

And while Ye Wei was crawling backward, he could be heard shouting out with extreme fear in his voice, "I... I admit defeat! Don't kill me!"

As for the reason why Ye Wei was acting the way he was acting...

It was because, this time, not only did he experienced absolute darkness and silence due to being hit by Sebastian's darkness envelopment...

But while he was enveloped in absolute darkness and silence, he actually felt that his soul had become frozen, followed by a deep feeling of fright appearing in his soul as a burning sensation began enveloping his soul.

Although Ye Wei had never experienced such a deep feeling of fright before, one thing that he knew was that this deep feeling of fright was due to his soul sensing that he was about to die.

This was the reason as to why Ye Wei had a huge look of relief on his face when he had just came back from his senses.

After all, when he sensed that deep feeling of fright appearing in his soul, he thought that he was going to die for sure.

On the other hand, a moment ago, everyone's gaze was fixed onto the long trench that Sebastian had created with his yin-yang breath.

And only when Ye Wei had begun shouting out loudly with extreme fear in his voice, then did everyone regain their senses from their feeling of shock as they looked over into Ye Wei's direction.

In truth, the moment Sebastian had used his yin-yang breath, everyone within the wedding venue was immediately able to sense their hair standing on its end due to the immense frightening aura that was contained within the yin-yang breath.

And even after Sebastian was done using the yin-yang breath, everyone could still sense the lingering frightening aura of the yin-yang breath from the long trench that was created by the yin-yang breath.

Thus, after Sebastian had used his yin-yang breath, aside from Ning Zhi, everyone's heart was filled with shock as they stared absentmindedly at the long trench.

Though, although Ning Zhi wasn't staring absentmindedly at the long trench and still had a cold and indifferent look on her face when she spoke to Sebastian...

Amongst everyone, Ning Zhi was actually the one who felt the most shocked toward Sebastian.

Meanwhile, upon coming back to her senses, Nerissa ran over to Ye Wei's side, then began helping Ye Wei up from the ground as she said in a low voice to Ye Wei.

"Senior Brother Ye Wei, you have to thank Elder Zhi, Elder Zhi was the one who saved you from... Senior Brother Sebastian's breath attack."

This time, due to the fact that he was still overwhelmed with fear, Ye Wei didn't stop Nerissa from helping him.

And right upon Ye Wei had stood up from the ground with the help of Nerissa...

Ye Wei let out a huge breath, then cupped his hands at Ning Zhi and said in a low voice while with his head hung low, "Elder Zhi, thank you for..."

However, right before Ye Wei was able to finish giving his thanks to Ning Zhi, Ning Zhi waved her left hand at Ye Wei and cut off Ye Wei from speaking.

"Alright, alright, I merely saved you because of your master. After all, if I were to let you die under my eyes, I'm certain I won't hear the end of it from your master."

"If not for your master, just based on the fact that you actually dared to cause a scene at my direct disciple's wedding is more than enough for me to allow my direct disciple to kill you, and your Ye Family wouldn't dare to do anything even if you had died."

Upon speaking up to here, Ning Zhi made a high pitch whistle with her mouth.

Shortly after Ning Zhi made a high pitch whistle with her mouth...

A serpent-like creature that was covered in white scales, possessed a pair of ruby-like eyes, had a pair of wings attached on its back, and a pair of dragon-like horns protruding out from its head could be seen flying down from the sky and landing in front of Ning Zhi.

Chapter 157: Ning Zhi's change of mind

"Hiss..."

Right as the serpent-like creature landed in front of Ning Zhi, it let out a hiss as it lowered its head to the front of Ning Zhi's body.

"Hiss..."

And as Ning Zhi began rubbing her right hand onto its head, the serpent-like creature could be seen squinting its eyes with satisfaction and letting out another hiss.

After Ning Zhi was done rubbing onto the serpent-like creature's head, Ning Zhi opened her mouth and said to the serpent-like creature.

"Ning Jiao, bring this guy over to Bright Moon Sect's pill concoction department and hand him over to pill concoction department's great elder."

"Hiss..."

Upon hearing Ning Zhi's order, the serpent-like creature let out a hiss as it obediently nodded its head, then began enveloping its spiritual sense onto Ye Wei, using its spiritual sense to carry Ye Wei by its side, followed by flying into Bright Moon Sect's direction.

Right as the serpent-like creature and Ye Wei had flew into the distance, Ning Zhi looked over to Sebastian, then began nodding her head a few times with satisfaction while sizing Sebastian up and down.

Right after Ning Zhi was done sizing Sebastian up and down, Ning Zhi put on a gentle and amicable smile on her face, then said with a gentle and friendly tone to Sebastian.

"As expected of my soon to be new direct disciple, it would seem that you have far exceeded my initial expectations of you, Sebastian."

"...?"

"...?!"

Meanwhile, right as Ning Zhi had finished speaking, Sebastian could be seen having an extremely confused look on his face...

While Feng Xue could be seen having an extremely shocked look on her face as she stared intensely onto the gentle and amicable smile that her master currently had on her face.

"What the heck?! Is this really my master?!"

"I didn't know that this bad-tempered master of mine who would always have a cold look on her face would be able to smile so gently and amicably, and even more, speak with such a gentle and friendly tone!"

"She didn't get possess by an evil spirit or something, did she?!"

Upon thinking up to here, Feng Xue walked up to Ning Zhi, then tiptoed and waved her left hand in front of Ning Zhi's eyes as she asked with a suspicious look on her face.

"Master, are you alright? Why are you acting so weirdly? Are you feeling unwell or something...?"

Faced with Feng Xue's question, the corner of Ning Zhi's mouth couldn't help but twitch a few times as she thought to herself.

"Calm down, calm down, ignore this unfilial disciple of yours, you can deal with her later on. Right now, your main focus is to get Sebastian to acknowledge you as his master."

"Though, I must really give it to my sixth sense. I knew it was a good idea to stay back and watch when I sensed that Sebastian somehow managed to break through my spiritual sense that I had used to form a barrier in front of him when Ye Wei suddenly launched a surprise attack at him."

"If I had stopped the two of them from fighting from the start, I wouldn't have been able to witness that breath attack that Sebastian used!"

"That immensely frightening aura that was contained within that breath attack..."

"I'm 100% certain that it is similar to the frightening aura that I felt from the immortal treasure that is stored within Lunar Eclipse Sect's secret realm!"

"The fact that this guy who is merely at the energy refining realm is able to use an attack that possesses such an immensely frightening aura that is akin to the aura that was emitted out from an immortal treasure..."

"No matter what, I have to get this guy to accept and acknowledge me as his master!"

That's right, after witnessing everything that had unfolded before her eyes, Ning Zhi had decided to take in Sebastian as her direct disciple.

In truth, Ning Zhi initially wasn't intending on accepting Sebastian as her direct disciple, even if Sebastian somehow managed to break through to becoming an official talisman crafter in a month or few months' time.

After all, unknown to most, Ning Zhi really disliked the idea of taking in a male cultivator as her direct disciple.

And if Sebastian was a female cultivator, Ning Zhi would have most likely considered taking in Sebastian as her direct disciple after she had read up Sebastian's information from the information jade that Veronica had handed over to her to read.

However, from the looks of things, when certain things reach a certain point, Ning Zhi didn't mind discarding away her dislike.

After calming down, while still with a gentle and amicable smile on her face, Ning Zhi continued speaking to Sebastian.

"Looking at this confused look on your face, it would seem that you aren't aware that Veronica recommended me to take you in as my direct disciple?"

"In any case, now that you are aware of it, what do you say, Sebastian? Are you willing to acknowledge me as your master and become a direct disciple of mine?"

Faced with Ning Zhi's question, rather than giving an immediate answer, Sebastian first subconsciously looked over to Dave, seemingly to be seeking for a confirmation from Dave if what Ning Zhi just said was true.

And upon seeing that Sebastian looked over to Dave, Ning Zhi finally remembered that she had previously used a freezing technique onto Dave to prevent Dave from doing anything to interrupt the conflict between Sebastian and Ye Wei.

Thus, without any hesitation, Ning Zhi quickly removed the freezing technique that she had previously used onto Dave.

Meanwhile, upon sensing that he was able to move his body once again, Dave couldn't help but let out a breath of relief as he took a glance at Ning Zhi while with the corner of his mouth slightly twitching.

Evidently, Dave was aware that Ning Zhi was the one who used a freezing technique on his body.

Chapter 158: First order

Though, since Dave didn't dare to show any dissatisfaction toward Ning Zhi, he didn't say anything to Ning Zhi, and instead, merely nodded at Sebastian when he saw that Sebastian looked over to him for a confirmation.

Since Sebastian was aware that Veronica was one of the 3 female cultivators that Coril was going to introduce to him and get him to marry to in the near future, which meant that Veronica wouldn't mean any harm to him...

Upon receiving the confirmation from Dave...

Without any hesitation, Sebastian kneeled down onto the ground and kowtowed 3 times to Ning Zhi, then stood up and cupped his hands at Ning Zhi, followed by shouting out respectfully to Ning Zhi.

"Master Zhi!"

Upon seeing that Sebastian kneeled down onto the ground and began kowtowing to her, a slight grin could be seen immediately appearing on Ning Zhi's face despite the fact that Ning Zhi was trying her best to maintain a normal gentle smile...

And right as Sebastian addressed her as Master Zhi, Ning Zhi couldn't contain her feeling of delight anymore as a wide grin appeared on her face.

With a wide grin on her face, Ning Zhi nodded her head multiple times with great satisfaction, then said with an evident delighted tone to her voice.

"Excellent, excellent!"

"Sebastian, I promise you, you won't regret acknowledging me as your master. After all, within this North Continent, I can promise you that there is hardly anyone who can win against me in either battle, or against the background that I possess!"

Upon speaking up to here, Ning Zhi put a solemn face as she said seriously.

"I, Ning Zhi, hereby accept Sebastian Force as my fourth direct disciple!"

And right as Ning Zhi finished speaking, Ning Zhi let go of the solemn look on her face and continued speaking to Sebastian while with a smile on her face again.

"Of course, although I have now taken you in as a direct disciple of mine, this 'mere exchange of formality' won't count as a proper master-disciple acknowledgement ceremony."

"When we have returned from the west, which should be in a few weeks' or a month's time, I will hold an official master-disciple acknowledgement ceremony for you within the Bright Moon Sect and announce to everyone that I have taken you in as a direct disciple of mine."

"When that time comes, let me tell you, Sebastian, you are definitely going to be extremely busy for the entire day, and there are going to be plenty of procedures regarding the official master-disciple acknowledgement ceremony that you will have to learn about."

Upon speaking up to here, Ning Zhi took out a ring from her spatial ring, then handed over the ring to Sebastian.

"Here, this is your welcome gift from me, your master."

After Sebastian had took the ring from her and was beginning to inspect closely at the ring with a curious look on his face, Ning Zhi began explaining the ring's functions to Sebastian.

"This ring is a tier 3 peak-quality defensive ring."

"Not only is it able to form a barrier that is able to sustain a great number of attacks from foundation establishment realm cultivators and a few attacks from golden core realm cultivators, and teleport you a few kilometers away from the spot that you were in..."

"But most importantly, the ring also allows you to communicate with me."

"Thus, if you are in any danger, so long as you aren't too far away from me, I will be able to come to your rescue as soon as possible."

"Of course, this ring just a normal welcome gift that I give to every direct disciple of mine."

"When our master-disciple acknowledgement ceremony is being held, I will make sure to prepare a huge gift for you, just as I did for your 3 other senior sisters when I took them in as my direct disciples, so you can look forward to that."

Upon speaking up to here, Ning Zhi introduced Feng Xue to Sebastian.

"This naughty one over here is Feng Xue, my third direct disciple. You can address her as Senior Sister Feng Xue."

"Though... even though she's technically your senior sister, and based on seniority, you should indeed be respectful to her and listen to her, if she asks anything too much of you, you can just ignore her."

Right as Ning Zhi finished speaking, without hesitation, Sebastian cupped his hands and greeted respectfully to Feng Xue.

"Nice to meet you, Senior Sister Feng Xue!"

Meanwhile, before responding to Sebastian, Feng Xue couldn't help but roll her eyes at her master as she thought indignantly to herself.

"What do you mean that if I asks anything too much of Junior Brother Sebastian, he can just ignore me!"

"You are basically spoiling Junior Brother Sebastian's image of me, making him think that I am a bad senior sister or something, you old hag!"

Upon thinking up to here, Feng Xue looked over to Sebastian.

"Hmm! Hmm! Hmm!"

"Don't worry, as your senior sister, I will take good care of you, Junior Brother Sebastian!"

After nodding her head a few times with satisfaction while letting out a few satisfied groans, Feng Xue walked over to the front of Sebastian, then tiptoed and pat her right hand a few times onto Sebastian's left shoulder and said with a smug look on her face.

However, shortly after she was done patting onto Sebastian's left shoulder...

Due to having come into physical contact with Sebastian's body...

Feng Xue's extreme excitement of the fact that she was no longer the youngest amongst Ning Zhi's direct disciples was quickly overwritten by the urge of wanting to "devour" onto Sebastian...

An urge that she had been sensing being emitted out from her body ever since Sebastian had arrived at the wedding venue.

Thus, right after Feng Xue had finished speaking...

With her face gradually turning extremely red once again, Feng Xue let out a cough, then said seriously, "Cough, Junior Brother Sebastian, as your senior sister, this is my first order to you!"

"Remain still and let me do a check onto your body!"

Chapter 159: Urge to mate

Right as Feng Xue had finished speaking, without waiting for Sebastian to give his consent...

Feng Xue immediately placed both of her hands onto Sebastian's dantian!

And right as Feng Xue's hands came into contact with Sebastian's dantian, Feng Xue's face immediately turned even more red, despite the fact that her face was already extremely red.

Looking at her complexion that was completely flushed red, if one didn't know better, they might think that Feng Xue was sick or something and was close to fainting.

While rubbing her hands onto Sebastian's dantian, Feng Xue began muttering in a low voice, "This is it... I can sense it... the source in which that is making my body emit the urge to "devour" is right here..."

Right as Feng Xue was about to place her hands onto Sebastian's body once again...

Ning Zhi was initially about to stop Feng Xue from doing so.

However, upon recalling the breath attack that Sebastian used, which was a mix of ice and fire elements...

And since Feng Xue's phoenix rebirth body was extremely sensitive to fire element...

Ning Zhi chose to not stop Feng Xue and allowed Feng Xue to do what she wants to do.

After all, Ning Zhi felt that Feng Xue's urge to devour was most likely the yang or fire energy that were contained within Sebastian's dantian.

Though, to prevent everyone else within the wedding venue from hearing anything vulgar or important that may possibly come out from Feng Xue's mouth, Ning Zhi erected a sound barrier around her, Feng Xue, and Sebastian.

In truth, Ning Zhi was somewhat close to her guess, in which that Feng Xue's urge to devour was most likely coming from either the fire or yang energy that were contained within Sebastian's dantian.

However, what both Ning Zhi and Feng Xue had thought wrongly about was that...

Feng Xue's urge wasn't actually to devour, but to actually mate with Sebastian.

After all, not only was the yang core technically something that was much stronger when compared to the phoenix rebirth body...

But the phoenix bloodline that Feng Xue possesses thanks to her phoenix rebirth body was able to sense that the yang core was the epitome of yang energy condensed into a core, and by mating with Sebastian, the phoenix bloodline would be able to become purer and stronger.

After a short moment of rubbing her hands onto Sebastian's dantian area, seemingly to be unable to contain her urge anymore...

Feng Xue suddenly moved her face forward to Sebastian's dantian area, and right when her mouth was about to arrive at Sebastian's lower abdomen, she suddenly opened her mouth and tried to bite onto Sebastian's lower abdomen!

Fortunately, since Ning Zhi's attention was fixed onto Feng Xue, Ning Zhi managed to stop Feng Xue immediately right before Feng Xue was about to bite onto Sebastian's lower abdomen.

"Alright, that's enough!"

After grabbing onto Feng Xue's neck once again and pulling Feng Xue away from Sebastian, Ning Zhi couldn't help but take a look at Feng Xue and muttered to herself while with the corner of her mouth twitching.

"This damn unfilial disciple, does she not know we are in public right now?!"

After letting out a sigh, Ning Zhi looked over to Sebastian's dantian area, then began using her spiritual sense to enter into Sebastian's dantian.

However, as her spiritual sense had entered into Sebastian's dantian, all she was able to sense was the same as before, which was that Sebastian does indeed possess a rather refined yang and fire energy within his dantian.

"Hmm... now that I think of it... if Sebastian only possesses yang and fire energy within his dantian... how did he manage to create the ice element within that breath attack of his...?"

Meanwhile, upon seeing that his newly acknowledged master was looking at his dantian while with a slight frown on her face, seemingly to be contemplating about something...

And by piecing with what Feng Xue had previously said while she was rubbing her hands onto his dantian area...

It wasn't hard for Sebastian to come to the conclusion that his yang core may be the source in which that was causing Feng Xue to act the way that she had acted...

Especially when he had sensed that his yang core actually began revolving right as Feng Xue's hands had landed onto his dantian area, causing him to have the urge to want to mate with Feng Xue.

That's right, since Sebastian was already experienced with having sex, Sebastian was able to tell that the urge was actually the urge to mate, and not to devour.

As for Feng Xue's case, since she was still a virgin, and she basically didn't have any knowledge about sexual stuff, it wasn't odd that she wouldn't be able to tell that the urge that she was sensing being emitted out by her body was to mate, and not to devour.

If possible, Sebastian would prefer to not reveal his yin and yang cores.

After all, from what Sebastian knew, the yin and yang cores were basically one of the strongest immortal tier innate talents.

And if Ning Zhi were to learn that he actually possesses the yin and yang cores...

Even if it was true that Ning Zhi was now his master, who even knows if Ning Zhi would be able to hold herself back from killing him, so that she could claim the yin and yang cores for herself?

Evidently, Sebastian was not intending on gambling and finding out what that outcome was going to be.

Thus, although he was aware that there was a chance that Ning Zhi may already be aware that he possesses something extremely great hidden within his dantian...

Especially when piecing together the fact that Feng Xue was acting so obsessed with his dantian with the fact that he had used an extremely formidable breath attack, which a normal energy refining realm cultivator shouldn't possess the capability of being able to use...

Sebastian still put on a confused look on his face and asked timidly...

Chapter 160: Guest employee

"Master, is there anything wrong...?"

Upon hearing Sebastian spoke to her, Ning Zhi immediately snapped away from her thoughts.

After disabling the sound barrier that she had previously erected around her, Sebastian, and Feng Xue, Ning Zhi then said with an amicable smile on her face as she shook her head.

"No, there isn't anything wrong."

"Come, let me introduce you to the 2 other people that are sitting at this table."

Right after answering Sebastian, Ning Zhi walked over to Sebastian's side and pat her hand onto Sebastian's back, then began leading Sebastian over to Talisman Crafter Wu and his daughter.

Before Ning Zhi had even began walking over to Talisman Crafter Wu and his daughter...

The moment Talisman Crafter Wu heard what Ning Zhi said, Talisman Crafter Wu could be seen immediately standing up from his seat, followed by urging his daughter to stand up from her seat too, then watched as Ning Zhi and Sebastian walked over to them.

Just from this action of Talisman Crafter Wu's, it wasn't difficult to see that Ning Zhi was the one who possessed the stronger identity.

Right as Ning Zhi and Sebastian was about to arrive in from of him and his daughter, Talisman Crafter Wu put on a wide smile on his face and let out a hearty laugh, then cupped his hands at Ning Zhi and congratulated Ning Zhi.

"Haha! Elder Zhi, congratulations in taking another promising cultivator as your direct disciple!"

"First, you managed to take in Feng Xue as your direct disciple, a cultivator who possesses the phoenix rebirth body..."

"And now, Sebastian, a cultivator who actually managed to defeat Bright Moon Sect's 2nd strongest energy refining cultivator with complete ease despite the fact that he's currently only level 6 of energy refining realm!"

"Elder Zhi, it seems that lady luck is truly on your side."

Upon speaking up to here, Talisman Crafter Wu looked over to Sebastian, then took the initiative to begin introducing himself and his daughter to Sebastian.

"Nice to meet you, Sebastian. I'm Wu Sheng, you can address me as Talisman Crafter Wu, and this young lady over here is my daughter, Wu Yue."

Upon hearing her father had introduced her to Sebastian, Wu Yue quickly cupped her hands and greeted at Sebastian with a low and soft voice, while with a slightly shy yet curious look on her face as she inspect closely onto Sebastian.

"Nice to meet you, Sebastian."

"Nice to meet you, Talisman Crafter Wu."

After first greeting Wu Sheng, Sebastian then greeted Wu Yue, "Nice to meet you, Wu Yue."

While standing before Wu Sheng and Wu Yue...

Sebastian could see that Wu Sheng was a middle-aged looking man who possessed short grey hair, was 170 cm tall, and possessed a slim build.

Meanwhile, Wu Yue was a pretty young lady who was 165 cm tall and seemed to possess a shy and timid temperament based on her demeanor and looks.

Upon seeing that everyone had greeted each other, Ning Zhi then began introducing Wu Sheng's identity to Sebastian.

"Sebastian, Talisman Crafter Wu is a tier 3 talisman crafter, and just like me, he is also a golden realm cultivator."

"However, most importantly, he is a level 3 guest employee at Fairness Trade."

"If you aren't familiar about Fairness Trade's guest employee system, or Fairness Trade itself..."

"Fairness Trade itself is a company that has countless number of stores scattered throughout all of the continents, and also the Celestial Realm."

"To put things in perspective, Fairness Trade is over 100,000x stronger than Bright Moon Sect."

"Though, if we were to just talk about the Fairness Trade store branch that is located in Bright Moon City, this store branch's strength is a little weaker than the Zhi Family that I belong to, and when compared to Bright Moon Sect..."

"Just like the top 3 families within Bright Moon City's Inner District, this store branch's strength pales greatly in comparison to Bright Moon Sect's strength."

"Then again, you have to remember, this store branch is merely just 1 of countless number of stores that Fairness Trade possesses."

"As for Fairness Trade's guest employee system, for now, all you have to know is that, going from level 2 guest employee to level 3 guest employee is a huge breaking point, mainly due to the huge difference in benefits and identity."

Right upon speaking up to here, Ning Zhi extended out her right hand over to Wu Sheng, then said indifferently.

"The jade, hand it over."

Meanwhile, upon seeing Ning Zhi's arrogant attitude, Wu Sheng's mouth couldn't help but twitch, followed by him trying to feign ignorance as he asked with a confused look on his face.

"Huh? Hand what..."

Before Wu Sheng was able to finish speaking, Ning Zhi cut him off.

"Don't test me. You know exactly what I'm referring to. Fairness Trade's trial admittance jade. Every level 3 guest employee is able to obtain 2 trial admittance jades, and I have information on you that you still have 1 spare trial admittance jade."

Upon hearing what Ning Zhi said, a speechless look appeared on Wu Sheng's face.

"You got information on me...? Where did you even..."

Seemingly to be too unbothered to listen to Wu Sheng or answer Wu Sheng's question...

Once again, before Wu Sheng had finished speaking, Ning Zhi cut him off.

After taking out a small bottle that seemed to have 2 pills in it, Ning Zhi tossed the small bottle over to Wu Sheng, then said indifferently.

"There's 2 peak-quality heavenly treasures infused foundation establishment pills within this bottle."

"This should be more than enough to exchange for that remaining trial admittance jade of yours."

"Also, I'm sure your daughter is intending to try and break through to foundation establishment realm right after she is done participating in Fairness Trade's trial, which will be held in a month's time."

"Therefore, these 2 peak-quality heavenly treasures infused foundation establishment pills are definitely extremely beneficial to her."

"Unless... you are intending on letting your daughter break through by using some normal foundation establishment pills and letting her form a normal foundation?"
