Chapter 178: Can't remove

Chapter 178: Can't remove

"Hah... hah... hah..."

While Sebastian was cumming and panting heavily for breath...

Sebastian's entire body was pressing down onto Miuna's body due to Miuna having wrapped her legs and arms tightly onto him.

Though, because of Miuna's huge breasts, when Sebastian's chest was pressed down hard onto Miuna's breasts, Miuna's breasts ended up getting squashed into oval shapes and ended up leaking out from the sides of their chests.

If Sebastian was able to see the alluring scene of Miuna's breasts leaking out to the sides from between his and Miuna's chests, Sebastian may possibly end up getting a nose blood, especially due to how aroused he currently already was.

At the start when Sebastian was cumming, Sebastian didn't think too much about anything during the first 10 seconds.

However, after 15 seconds had passed, and he sensed that his dick was still cumming, he slowly begin to come back to his senses from the immeasurable pleasure that swept over his body when he had begun cumming inside of Miuna's pussy.

Upon sensing that his semen was currently still being shout out from his glans, and that the amount of semen that was being shot out from his glans was continuously the same amount of semen from the start till now...

Seemingly as if the stream of semen wasn't going to start weakening and that his glans was intending to keep on shooting out semen, all the way until all of the semen that he had within his body had been shot out into Miuna's pussy...

Sebastian couldn't help but think to himself as he began focusing his mind onto his dick...

"This is a bit weird... Haven't I been cumming for a while already? Usually, after cumming for close to 5 seconds, the amount of semen that was being shot out from my dick would start getting lesser, and when 5 to 10 more seconds had passed, no more semen would start coming out from my dick."

"Is it because of the way in which Miuna's cervix seems to be sucking tightly onto my glans...?"

"Although Julia's cervix does wriggle around a bit and when I pressed my glans onto her cervix while I was cumming, Julia's cervix definitely doesn't do whatever that Miuna's cervix is doing right now..."

"The pleasures that come from Julia's cervix and Miuna's cervix while I am cumming and pressing my glans onto their cervixes are basically night and day, and Miuna's cervix definitely feels many time better."

"Wait... My dick is still shooting out semen without any decrease in volume...?"

"Shit, I should most likely start taking my dick out from Miuna's pussy. If I continue shooting out anymore semen, I wonder if there's going to be any semen left in my testicles for round 2..."

As Sebastian thought up to here, Sebastian opened his eyes and began pressing his palms onto the bed to help raise his upper body, then began moving his waist backward, intending to take his dick out from Miuna's pussy.

However, right as he tried to move his waist backward and take his dick out from Miuna's pussy, he realized he couldn't do it!

When he tried to pull his dick out, he could sense that not only was Miuna's cervix actually grabbing tightly onto his glans, but Miuna's pussy walls were also clinging tightly onto his dick.

"What the hell is this...?"

Upon sensing what was happening, Sebastian's eyes immediately opened wide as he lowered his head and looked toward his and Miuna's crotch areas that were both currently tightly connected to each other.

Right after taking a glance at their crotch areas, Sebastian looked over to Miuna, who currently had her eyes closed while with a satisfied smile and flushed red blush on her face, then said to Miuna.

"Miuna, let go of your arms and legs from my body, I think there's something weird going on... I..."

However, while speaking to Miuna, when Sebastian somewhat sensed that Miuna's cultivation strength seemed to be getting stronger and doesn't seem to be responding to him...

He realized that Miuna most likely wasn't able to hear him right now due to experiencing his yang core's ability, phoenix's blessing, for the first time, and was currently most likely close to breaking through to the next level of her cultivation realm.

[Phoenix's blessing: Allows the user's partner to gain various cultivation benefits when mating with the user. The various cultivation benefits that the user's partner is able to gain depends on the user's cultivation realm.]

From what Sebastian was aware of, whenever a woman mated with him for the first time, the woman was able to receive a way more effective phoenix's blessing than normal.

Thus, if a woman who was within the energy refining realm were to mate with him for the first time, the woman most likely would be able to break through at least 1 or 2 of her current cultivation realm's level without any bottlenecks, just as Julia did.

Though, in Julia's case, although Julia had already mated a few times with Sebastian when Sebastian had managed to awaken the yin and yang cores and gained the ability, phoenix's blessing...

Which meant that Julia should have merely just gained a small amount of benefits when experiencing the phoenix's blessing for the first time...

But because Julia was in the middle of mating with Sebastian when Sebastian had awakened the yin and yang cores, Julia managed to gain various huge cultivation benefits from the phoenix's blessing...

Whereby she not only level-ed up a few times, but had also gained quite an amount of luck, which was stored within her body, and later on further helped her level-ed up 2 more times by helping her experience a cultivation enlightenment.

Upon realizing that Miuna wasn't able to hear him, Sebastian decided to remove Miuna's arms and legs away from his body by himself.

After freeing himself from Miuna's tight embrace, Sebastian was currently once again kneeling down in front of Miuna's pussy.

After taking a huge breath...
