

PATH TO IMMORTALITY BEGINS WITH MARRIAGE

Chapter 180: Holy physique, devouring lotus physique

[Your dao partner, Miuna Lisandris, has awakened her holy physique, devouring lotus physique]

"Holy physique...? Devouring lotus physique...?"

"I have completely no idea what a holy physique is..."

"However, from the phrase holy physique, and the fact that the system bothered notifying me about the fact that Miuna had awakened her holy physique, this situation should most likely be a good thing for Miuna, right...?"

While looking at the system screen, Sebastian mumbled to himself with a confused look on his face.

Evidently, Sebastian had no recollection of just what a holy physique was, so let alone any idea of what the devouring lotus physique was.

Right after mumbling to himself, Sebastian looked over to Miuna, and upon seeing that Miuna still had a satisfied smile on her face and didn't seem to be in pain or anything, Sebastian decided to begin reading the rest of the new texts in his system's text log tab.

Of course, while doing so, Sebastian was still watching closely onto Miuna's expression with the side of his eyes, so that he could immediately go and call for help if he ever spots that Miuna seems to be in pain or distress.

[Miuna Lisandris has been successfully impregnated by the host]

[Reward obtained]

[Reward: Experience points of talisman crafting, +100 exp]

"100 experience points for my talisman crafting!"

"With this, it means I have accumulated enough experience points for my talisman crafting!"

"With this, it means that all I need to do next is to prepare to break through to becoming an official talisman crafter!"

"As expected, since Miuna is a talisman crafter, the reward that I ended up obtaining by impregnating Miuna ended up being the same as the reward that I had obtained when I impregnated Julia, which was +100 exp to my talisman crafting."

"Next, I should look at my stats and Miuna's stats."

"System, change over to the stats tab."

Right as Sebastian muttered to himself in his own mind, the screen before Sebastian's eyes immediately changed from the text log tab to the stats tab.

[Note: Focus mind onto texts to open up more information regarding the specific texts]

"...?"

Initially when reading through his stats, Sebastian was merely glancing through pretty much all of the texts, as his main goal was to read his stats as a talisman crafter.

However, while reading through, he noticed something peculiar when his eyes glanced through his cultivation's stats.

Immediately, with a slight frown on his face, he moved his eyes back over to his cultivation's stats and began reading over his cultivation's stats again.

Right after doing so, he confirmed that he didn't see wrongly...

The experience points of his cultivation was really at 0.

Sebastian was very sure that the experience points of his cultivation was at 50/3000, especially when the last time that he had took a look at his stats was just this morning.

"Why did the experience points for my cultivation went from 50 to 0...?"

Upon thinking up to here, Sebastian couldn't help but recall the way in which Miuna's pussy was clinging hard and sucking out his semen constantly without stop, and when pairing that incident with the word "devouring" that exists within the name of the holy physique that Miuna had just awakened, which was the devouring lotus physique.

Right after recalling that incident and the name of the holy physique that Miuna had just awakened, Sebastian looked away from the system screen and over to Miuna, then began sizing up Miuna's body up and down as he thought to himself.

"Is it because of the holy physique that Miuna had awakened...?"

"Holy physique... Devouring lotus physique..."

"Seems like I am going to have to pay a visit to the Lisandris Family's library tomorrow when I have the time to do so."

"Hopefully, the Lisandris Family's library possesses books regarding this so-called holy physique."

Right upon thinking up to here, Sebastian continued on looking downward, and when he arrived at his stats at a talisman crafter, he nodded his head and thought to himself.

"Just as I expected, once I have accumulated enough experience points, it means I can finally start to breakthrough. Though, I must say, it's nice that the excessive experience points doesn't end up getting eaten by the system."

Right after being done with looking at his stats, Sebastian began swiping left onto the system screen.

Naturally, the first person that came up right as Sebastian swiped to the left of the system screen was Julia.

[Name: Julia Lisandris]

[Race: Human]

[Age: 18/125]

[Aptitude: Lower-quality spiritual root (Exp 950/10000)]

[Cultivation: level 6 energy refining realm (Exp 1100/3000)]

[Cultivation technique: Moon energy refining technique, proficiency – beginner (Exp 20/100)]

[Profession: Talisman crafter]

[Talisman crafter: Apprentice (Exp 20/500)]

[Affection toward the host: 85/100]

[Currently family territory's construction points that the host can gain from Julia daily: 3 points per day]

[Current talisman crafting's experience points that the host can gain from Julia daily: 3 experience points per day]

The last time that Sebastian viewed Julia's stats, her spiritual root's exp was at 750/10000, she was level 4 of energy refining realm, and her affection was at 82.

For Julia's stats, aside from her aptitude, cultivation, and affection, everything else remained the same as the last time.

Of course, Julia had already told Sebastian about the fact that she had managed to level-ed up 2 levels when she paid a visit to Coril's, thus, when Sebastian saw that Julia's cultivation level was at level 6, he wasn't surprised at all.
