

PATH TO IMMORTALITY BEGINS WITH MARRIAGE

Chapter 191: Miuna's new abilities

On the other hand, when Sebastian saw that Miuna had looked over to him...

Evidently to be seeking his permission to tell Coril and the others what had happened to her that allowed her to not only awaken her holy physique, the devouring lotus physique, but also break through to foundation establishment realm all the way from level 7 of energy refining realm...

Sebastian didn't think too much of it and merely thought that Miuna was being considerate, unbeknownst to the fact that Miuna's reaction subtly shows that she had now began prioritizing him over her own cultivation family.

However, right when Sebastian's was about to nod his head...

Sebastian caught Wu Sheng's figure with the side of his eyes, and thus, Sebastian looked over to Coril, then asked in an extremely low voice, in which he thought that Wu Sheng wouldn't be able to hear him.

Unbeknownst to him, once a cultivator had reached golden core realm, their senses would become way heightened compared to a foundation establishment realm cultivator, and especially an energy refining realm cultivator.

Thus, no matter how extremely low Sebastian tried to speak...

With how close Wu Sheng was to Sebastian... Wu Sheng was going to be able to hear everything that came out from Sebastian's mouth.

"Great Grandpa Coril... I don't think it's best for Miuna to talk right now. That guy over there... Wu Sheng... he's not closely related to us, isn't he...?"

Upon hearing what Sebastian said, Coril took a quick glance at Wu Sheng, followed by Ning Zhi, then reassured Sebastian.

"It's fine, it doesn't matter if he listens to everything that Miuna is about to say. After all, he won't be able to share what he hears to anyone else even if he wants to."

Upon hearing what Coril said...

Although Sebastian didn't really understand what Coril meant by that Wu Sheng won't be able to share what he hears to anyone else even if he wants to...

Sebastian didn't think too much about it as he knew that Coril wouldn't mean any harm to him.

Thus, Sebastian looked over to Miuna, then said to Miuna.

"Miuna, it's fine, you can go ahead and tell everyone in detail what had happened to you."

Upon hearing what Sebastian said, Miuna finally looked over to Coril, then began explaining in detail everything that had happened to her.

"Great Grandpa Coril, this is what happened."

"When Sebastian and I were in bed with each other, right after Sebastian was done ins... inseminating me, I immediately sensed a great burst of energy appearing within my body."

"And the moment I sensed the great burst of energy appearing within my body, I..."

"And the next time I opened my eyes and regained my consciousness, I sensed another great burst of spiritual energy entering into my body, followed by my cultivation strength becoming stronger, whereby I went from leveling up from level 1 of foundation establishment realm to level 3 of foundation establishment realm!"

"The moment I had arrived at level 3 of foundation establishment realm, then did the spiritual energy that was surging into my body finally came to a stop."

"Right after, various information began appearing in my mind, such as how to control the lotus, and the new abilities that my devouring lotus physique currently possesses after I had broken through to foundation establishment realm and successfully survived through the lightning tribulation!"

After what seemed like close to 9 or 10 minutes had passed, then did Miuna finished explaining to everyone everything that had happened to her.

During the entire time that Miuna was talking, everyone aside from Sebastian could be seen having a shocked look on their face...

And even Ning Zhi, who was extremely knowledgeable about lots of things that most cultivators within the Lower Realm wouldn't know about thanks to her identity as being a direct disciple of a spatial tempering realm cultivator, was no different too.

Though, for Wu Sheng's case, aside from having a shocked look on his face...

The longer he listened to the words that came out from Miuna's mouth, the more uneasy and apprehensive he was becoming, and right after Miuna had finished speaking, he could be seen to actually be sweating buckets.

Upon being done explaining to everyone everything that had happened to her, seemingly to be excited to show off the new abilities that she had unlocked...

With an excited look on her face, Miuna took quite a number of steps backward and distanced herself away from Coril and the others, then said excitedly while she was standing right beside her huge lotus.

"Look, this is the first ability that I had unlocked after managing to break through into the foundation establishment realm and surviving through the lightning tribulation!"

Right after Miuna finished speaking, Miuna closed her eyes and began focusing onto the black color huge lotus that was situated by her side, and shortly after, the huge lotus could be seen shrinking and turning back into a black color lotus mark in just a few seconds.

Right as the huge lotus turned back into a black color lotus mark, it flew back onto Miuna's forehead.

Shortly after the lotus mark had returned back onto Miuna's forehead, Miuna finally opened her eyes, and right as she opened her eyes, the lotus mark began shining, followed by her hands being covered with spiritual energy that was black in color.

"Uncle Dave, shoot an energy-based attack at me!"

With her hands that were covered with spiritual energy raised in front of her and her palms faced in the direction of Dave, Miuna shouted out excitedly at Dave.

Upon hearing Miuna's request, Dave could be seen raising his brows, then subconsciously took a look at Coril first.

Upon seeing Dave looked over at him, Coril nodded his head, gesturing for Dave to go ahead and do what Miuna said.

Right after, without any hesitation, Dave shot out an ice lance at Miuna.

To everyone's surprise, right as Dave's ice lance came into contact with Miuna's palms, the ice lance actually sunk into Miuna's palms.

But even more surprising...!

Chapter 192: Yin dao

Shortly after the ice lance had sunk into Miuna's palms, a new ice lance that was black in color was shot out from Miuna's palms and into Dave's direction.

Upon seeing that Miuna had shot out an ice lance at him, Dave decided to shoot out another ice lance to counter the ice lance.

However, to his surprise, the moment his ice lance had come into contact with Miuna's ice lance, his ice lance was immediately shattered by Miuna's ice lance.

With a startled look on his face, Dave hurriedly shot out another ice lance, and this time, because of being startled, he actually shot out an ice lance without holding back his spiritual energy.

Evidently, during the first time that Dave had shot out an ice lance at Miuna, Dave purposely held back his spiritual energy when he manifested the ice lance.

Though, to everyone's surprise, Dave's ice lance was once again shattered by Miuna's ice lance the moment his ice lance had come into contact with Miuna's ice lance.

Evidently, Miuna's ice lance was way stronger than Dave's ice lance!

Right before the ice lance was about to land onto Dave, Ning Zhi suddenly appeared in front of the ice lance, followed by grabbing onto the ice lance with her right hand.

Shortly after inspecting onto the black color ice lance that she was holding in her right hand...

Ning Zhi looked over to Miuna while with her eyes opened wide.

"You managed to comprehend one of the hardest heavenly daos to comprehend, the heavenly dao of yin?!"

Upon hearing what Ning Zhi said, everyone else aside from Sebastian immediately opened their eyes wide too as they looked over to Miuna and waited for Miuna's answer.

"Dao...? What's that?"

Upon hearing what Ning Zhi said, a confused look appeared on Miuna's face as she asked with her head slightly tilted to the side.

It was normal that Miuna would have no idea about what dao was. After all, most cultivators only start learning about what dao was when they had finally arrived at golden core realm.

Though, although Miuna had no idea about what dao was, she was aware of the word "yin".

Thus, Miuna asked with an unsure tone in her voice.

"Elder Zhi, do you mean yin energy...? Because, if that's what you are referring to, a bunch of information regarding yin energy did appear in my mind a while ago."

Right after Miuna finished speaking, Ning Zhi appeared right beside Miuna, then took out a blue color crystal that fit in the palm of her hand and handed it over to Miuna.

"Here, hold onto this."

"Since you have managed to break into foundation establishment realm, you should have awakened your spiritual sense, right?"

Upon hearing Ning Zhi's question, Miuna nodded her head and let out a groan, "En."

"Alright. This thing that you are holding in your hand right now, it is known as a water essence crystal. What I want you to do now is to control your spiritual sense and seep your spiritual sense into the water essence crystal."

"Got it. Let me try..."

After closing her eyes, Miuna began to control her spiritual sense, followed by entering into the water essence crystal with her spiritual sense.

Because this was practically the first time that Miuna was using her spiritual sense, it took a while for Miuna to be able to properly control her spiritual sense.

Upon sensing that Miuna's spiritual sense had entered into the water essence crystal, Ning Zhi then said to Miuna.

"Now, similar to what you would do when absorbing the spiritual energy that is contained within an energy stone, whereby you would revolve your cultivation technique, followed by absorbing the spiritual energy within the energy stone into your body..."

"I want you to try and absorb the water essence that is contained within the water essence crystal into your body. However, since you don't cultivate a water-based cultivation technique, I want you to try absorbing onto the essence by using your spiritual sense."

Right after Ning Zhi finished speaking, Miuna began doing what Ning Zhi had told her to do.

Initially, Miuna thought that it was going to be difficult for her to do what Ning Zhi had told her to do, after all, Ning Zhi was being so solemn while instructing her.

However, Miuna quickly found out that it was incredibly easy, and that absorbing the essence within the water essence crystal felt pretty much no different from absorbing the spiritual energy within an energy stone, except for the fact that it took much more effort to absorb a water essence crystal than to absorb an energy stone.

In just what seemed like 10 seconds had passed since Ning Zhi had just finished speaking, Miuna had managed to begin absorbing the water essence, despite the speed in which she was absorbing the water essence was actually rather slow.

Nonetheless, when Ning Zhi sensed that Miuna had really actually managed to absorb the water essence, her eyes immediately opened wide as she looked back and forth between Miuna and the water essence crystal.

After letting out a deep breath, Ning Zhi finally opened her mouth and said to Miuna.

"Alright, good job Miuna, you can stop now."

Upon hearing what Ning Zhi said, Miuna retracted her spiritual sense, then opened her eyes and handed the water essence crystal back to Ning Zhi.

"It's fine, you can keep this water essence crystal. This water essence crystal should be enough to help you break through to level 6 of foundation establishment realm once you are done absorbing all of the essence within it."

Right after Ning Zhi finished speaking, Ning Zhi placed her palm onto Miuna's shoulder, then began walking back over to Sebastian and the others.

Upon arriving in front of Sebastian and the others, Ning Zhi said to Coril and the others.

"Yep, Miuna has indeed managed to comprehend the yin dao, albeit her understanding of the yin dao is merely at level 1 fundamental understanding."

"Now, the important question is..."

"Is the reason that Miuna is able to comprehend the yin dao also thanks to Sebastian, or did Miuna manage to comprehend the yin dao thanks to her holy physique?"

Right after Ning Zhi finished speaking, Ning Zhi looked over to Miuna.

Upon seeing that everyone aside from Sebastian was looking at her with an extremely curious look on their face...

Once again, instead of answering immediately, Miuna looked over to Sebastian, awaiting for Sebastian's permission to reveal to everyone that the reason in which she had managed to comprehend the yin dao was solely thanks to Sebastian.

Upon seeing Miuna looked over to him, Sebastian quickly nodded his head at Miuna.

Upon receiving Sebastian's permission, Miuna then looked over to Ning Zhi and said respectfully, "Elder Zhi, if you are talking about the various information regarding yin energy that appeared in my mind a while ago... It is indeed all thanks to Sebastian."

Although Ning Zhi was already pretty much confident that Sebastian was most likely responsible for everything that happened to Miuna, including the fact that Miuna had managed to comprehend the yin dao...

When Ning Zhi heard Miuna admitting it herself, Ning Zhi still couldn't help but feel shocked as she looked over to Sebastian and began sizing Sebastian up and down.

Upon seeing that everyone was looking over at him, evidently to be curious as to just how he was able to not only help Miuna awakened her holy physique and break through to foundation establishment realm, but also comprehend the yin dao...

Sebastian felt that he might as well just reveal his yin and yang cores to everyone.

In any case, everyone present had already saw his yin and yang cores, and judging from how shocked everyone was when they first saw his yin and yang cores floating above the huge lily, it was evident that they had managed to sense the frightening auras that were being emitted out by the yin and yang cores.

Most importantly, a while ago when everyone's attention was focused onto Miuna...

Sebastian had taken a quick peep at his system's new text logs, specifically the new text logs that appeared after Miuna had regained her consciousness shortly after she had survived through her lightning tribulation and level-ed up from level 1 of foundation establishment realm to level 3 of foundation establishment realm...

And after reading through those new text logs, he knew that he was going to need a reason to explain why he was able to help his women become stronger so quickly.

After all, from the looks of things, once a woman's affection toward him had reached 100 points, he was able to help increase the woman's cultivation strength with the help of the system.

Of course, there was no way that Sebastian was going to reveal the fact that he possesses a system to anyone...

Thus, Sebastian felt that the best thing for him to do was to reveal to everyone about his yin and yang cores, then pushed everything that had happened, and what was going to happen in the near future all onto the yin and yang cores.

As Sebastian opened his mouth, the yin and yang cores could be seen flying out from his mouth, then began floating right in front of him right as they had flew out from his mouth.

Upon seeing that everyone was looking closely at his yin and yang cores, Sebastian began explaining to everyone.

"These two cores are known as the yin and yang cores, and they are the immortal tier innate talent that I managed to awaken a day ago when I underwent something that was known as the ancestral blessing."

"The white color core is known as the yang core, and the black color core is known as the yin core."

"The yang core possesses an ability that is known as the phoenix's blessing, which allows my cultivation partners to gain various cultivation benefits whenever they dual-cultivate with me."

"While the yin core possesses an ability that is known as the darkness envelopment, which allows me to envelop my target's vision, senses, and spiritual sense with complete darkness."

"When I revolve both the yin and yang core together at the same time, I'm able to use the ability that is known as the yin-yang breath."

"The darkness envelopment and yin-yang breath were how I managed to defeat Ye Wei with complete ease."

"And as for the phoenix's blessing, it was the reason why both Julia and Miuna managed to break through their cultivation levels without any bottlenecks, and also most likely the reason Miuna managed to awaken her holy physique."

"Though, right after Miuna had awakened her holy physique, my yin and yang cores began revolving on their own without my control."

"Thus, I honestly have no idea how the yin and yang cores managed to help Miuna comprehend the yin dao and form a heavenly foundation."

Right after Sebastian had finished speaking, everyone else continued on remaining silent for quite a while, evidently to be trying to completely register in their minds what Sebastian had actually just said.

Ning Zhi was the first one who came back to her senses and asked while staring intensely into Sebastian's eyes.

"Wait... You are saying, these so-called yin and yang cores aren't immortal tier treasures that you found through a stroke of luck, but actually an immortal tier innate talent that you have managed to awaken after undergoing an ancestral blessing?!"

"That's right."

"Wait... So, those huge energy vortexes that appeared throughout the North Continent a day ago, it was because of your ancestral blessing?! Then... this also means that... the immortal realm cultivator who opened the portal was actually talking to you?!"

"Huh...? Huge energy vortexes...? Immortal realm cultivator...?"

Upon hearing what Ning Zhi said, a confused look immediately appeared on Sebastian's face.

However, seeing the confused look that was on Sebastian's face, Ning Zhi was immediately sure that the huge energy vortexes were caused by Sebastian, and that the immortal realm cultivator was trying to speak to Sebastian, but Sebastian most likely didn't sense everything that happened due to being completely engrossed in his ancestral blessing.

"In any case, what is important is that... Sebastian not only possesses an immortal tier innate talent, but there's also an immortal realm cultivator who's looking out for him!"

"Most importantly... by a stroke of luck, I managed to take in Sebastian as my direct disciple!"

"No... wait... Sebastian still isn't officially my direct disciple yet..!"

Upon thinking up to here, while staring fervently at Sebastian, Ning Zhi opened her mouth and declared...!

"I have decided! Instead of holding Sebastian's disciple-master acknowledgement ceremony in a few weeks after I have returned back from the west, I will be holding Sebastian's disciple-master acknowledgement ceremony tomorrow!"

"Sebastian, you wouldn't mind that, would you?"

Upon hearing what Ning Zhi said, Sebastian hurriedly cupped his hands, then said respectfully, "Of course not, I will listen to whatever master plans for me."

Unbeknownst if it was because Ning Zhi was now aware that Sebastian not only possesses an immortal tier innate talent, but also possesses an immortal realm cultivator that was looking out for Sebastian...

When Ning Zhi saw how respectful Sebastian was acting toward her, though, Sebastian was merely acting the same way in which any other direct disciples would act toward their masters...

Ning Zhi somehow felt that the way in which Sebastian was acting toward her was extremely pleasing to her eyes.

After nodding her head a few times with satisfaction, Ning Zhi then looked over to Veronica, then said with a slight frown on her face.

"Veronica, how long have we known each other for? Was there really a need to go in such a roundabout way to get me to accept Sebastian as my direct disciple? You could have just told me straight up that Sebastian possesses..."

"...?"

Although Ning Zhi was speaking with a slight frown on her face...

Looking at the grin that was in the corner of her mouth, it was evident that she was in a rather good mood and was just merely trying to banter with Veronica.

However, while Ning Zhi was speaking...

When Ning Zhi spotted that not only Veronica had an extremely shocked look on her face, but the rest of the Lisandris Family's family members did too...

An epiphany appeared in her mind as she thought to herself.

"Wait... Was Sebastian not just explaining to me, but to everyone else too...?"

"The fact that all of them have such a surprised look on their faces... It must mean that all of them had no idea of the fact that Sebastian managed to awaken his immortal tier innate ability via an ancestral blessing, nor of the fact that Sebastian possesses an immortal realm cultivator who is looking out for him..."

"If this is the case... what is the reason for Veronica trying to get me to take in Sebastian as a direct disciple, and what is the reason that the Lisandris Family actually bothered marrying 2 of their women to Sebastian?"

"Is there something else that I'm not aware of...?"

Upon thinking up to here, Ning Zhi couldn't help but raise her brows, then asked as she looked over to Veronica, followed by Coril.

"Wait... Is there something that all of you are keeping a secret from me? Cause... it seems to me that all of you weren't aware of this immortal tier innate talent that Sebastian had managed to awaken a day ago via ancestral blessing."

"If that's the case..."

"Veronica, why did you try to convince me to take in Sebastian as a direct disciple? After all, I'm now pretty sure that the reason isn't just because Sebastian possesses a talent for talisman crafting."

"Also, Coril, why would you suddenly marry 2 of your Lisandris Family's female cultivators to Sebastian, who both belong to your main family branch, if you didn't know that Sebastian had awakened an immortal tier innate ability? It is a bit odd, now that I think about it."

Before Coril and the others even had the time to completely register in their minds what they had just heard from Sebastian...

Ning Zhi's questions immediately threw them off even more than they already were.

Though, perhaps thanks to his experience and wisdom that he had accumulated with his age, Coril immediately regain his composure in just a few mere seconds.

Previously, although Coril was threw off by what Sebastian had said...

What that caused Coril to take such a long time to come back to his senses was because he was starting to worry deeply that Sebastian wouldn't be staying too long in the Lower Realm...

Especially since Sebastian most likely was a descendant of the immortal realm cultivator who caused a huge scene in the entire North Continent a day ago.

Evidently, after listening to what Sebastian had said, Coril ended up having the wrong idea regarding Sebastian's background.

And in truth, Coril wasn't the only one who ended up having the wrong idea regarding Sebastian's background, everyone else within the scene currently had the same idea as Coril regarding Sebastian's background.

Right now, since Coril felt that there wasn't any reason to hide Sebastian's sperm strengthening body from Ning Zhi anymore.

After all, compared to the fact that Sebastian had awakened an immortal tier innate ability, and the fact that Sebastian possesses an immortal realm cultivator's backing...

The sperm strengthening body was pretty much nothing at all.

Sure, the sperm strengthening body was indeed the best utility type special body, especially for a cultivation family that was trying to increase the number of cultivators within their family...

And the wielders of special bodies were indeed able to have a higher odds than most other cultivators to climb toward the immortal realm...

But at the end of the day, it was just higher odds.

Looking at the entire history of the Cultivation World, which spanned over millions of years, there were hundreds of thousands of people who had managed to awaken special bodies, but the number of those cultivators who had managed to reach the immortal realm was less than a few thousand.

Meanwhile, it was widely known that cultivators who possessed an immortal tier innate talent, it was basically certain that they would be able to reach the immortal realm with ease!

Furthermore, Sebastian not only just possessed an immortal tier innate talent, but he also possesses an immortal realm cultivator who would look out for him!

Thus, upon hearing what Ning Zhi said...

Coril decided to just reveal Sebastian's sperm strengthening body to Ning Zhi.

Chapter 195: My daughter possesses a special body!

After letting out a cough, Coril said to Ning Zhi.

"Cough... Since Sebastian has basically revealed all of his secrets to us, I guess there is no reason for us to continue keeping this thing a secret from you."

"In actuality, before Sebastian had awakened his immortal tier innate talent, he managed to awaken a special body on the same night that he had married into our Lisandris Family, and the special body that he had managed to awaken was the sperm strengthening body."

"Since we were aware that our Lisandris Family wouldn't be able to protect Sebastian once word of him possessing the sperm strengthening body starts spreading throughout Bright Moon City and Bright Moon Sect, we decided to form an alliance with you and the sect master."

"Though, due to various reasons, which I'm sure you would be able to deduce on your own, we decided that we would only start informing both you and the sect master about Sebastian's sperm strengthening body after our Lisandris Family had managed to give birth to a few children first."

"However, after finding out that the North Continent would be going into complete chaos soon, due to the portals that have appeared in the North Continent..."

"We decided to reveal the fact that Sebastian possesses the sperm strengthening body to the sect master immediately, which we had already did just a couple hours ago."

"And as for you, we intended to reveal to you of the fact that Sebastian possesses the sperm strengthening body in possibly a few months' time."

"In the meantime that you were unaware of Sebastian's sperm strengthening body, we were thinking of getting Sebastian accepted as your direct disciple first, so that you and your disciples can take this time to get acquainted with Sebastian first."

Right after Coril had finished speaking, Ning Zhi could be seen having a speechless look on her face as she said.

"What? That's all? Just because of a sperm strengthening body, you are going to such lengths to keep it a secret from me, even though you are intending to get me to join an alliance with you and the sect master?"

Upon speaking up to here, Ning Zhi shook her head, then said with a disappointed tone in her voice, seemingly to be disappointed about how short-sighted the Lisandris Family and Veronica were.

"Sigh... Then again, I guess I can't blame you and Veronica for being so over-protective about Sebastian's sperm strengthening body. After all, you all are not to be blamed for having your insight narrowed due to being born in the Lower Realm."

Although that was what Ning Zhi was saying right now...

In truth, if not for the fact that Ning Zhi was now aware of the immortal tier innate talent that Sebastian had awakened and that Sebastian had an immortal realm cultivator backing him up...

Ning Zhi would have certainly become extremely startled when she found out that Sebastian had awakened the best utility type special body, the sperm strengthening body!

Even more, she would have certainly kidnapped Sebastian so that she could give Sebastian to her master as a gift and gain her master's favor.

Though, different from what Veronica had expected Ning Zhi would do, whereby Ning Zhi would kill everyone that was aware of Sebastian's existence, Ning Zhi would merely just kidnap Sebastian, then leave the Lower Realm for good.

After all, the reason that Ning Zhi was currently even staying in the North Continent was because she was aware that she didn't possess the capability of contending against her master's other direct disciples if she were to decide to head over to the sect that her master was in right now.

However, it would be a different case if she managed to kidnap Sebastian and offered Sebastian as a gift to her master.

Upon hearing Ning Zhi belittling her, the corner of Veronica's mouth couldn't help but twitch as she rolled her eyes at Ning Zhi, then said to Ning Zhi with disdain in her voice.

"Alright, enough already Ning Zhi, you are speaking as if you weren't born in the Lower Realm just like us."

"What's the big deal, isn't it just because you possess a master who is in the spatial tempering realm?"

"Look, Sebastian not only possesses an immortal tier innate talent, but also an immortal realm cultivator to back him up, and yet, do you see Sebastian bragging or being as conceited as you?"

Upon hearing what Veronica said, Ning Zhi's expression immediately came to a froze for a moment.

Though, because Ning Zhi was aware that what Veronica just said was true...

For the sake of not embarrassing herself, Ning Zhi decided to just ignore what Veronica had just said to her.

After letting out a cough to hide her awkwardness, Ning Zhi acted as if she didn't hear what Veronica had just said to her as she looked over to Talisman Crafter Wu, then said.

"Cough..."

"In any case, before we discuss about other things, I think we should deal with this guy first, don't you all agree?"

Right after Ning Zhi finished speaking, a sword could be seen to have suddenly appeared within Ning Zhi's right hand.

Upon seeing that Ning Zhi tried to change the topic, Veronica couldn't help but click her tongue to show her dissatisfaction toward Ning Zhi's action.

Though, right as Ning Zhi finished speaking, Veronica immediately followed suit and took out her sword from her spatial ring too, evidently to agree with what Ning Zhi had just said.

The moment Talisman Crafter Wu heard what Ning Zhi said and saw that Ning Zhi and the others had taken out their weapons...

He immediately stopped resisting against the various spiritual senses that were pressing down on his body and shouted out at the top of his voice as his body collapsed onto the ground.

"Stop, stop, stop! I apologize for overstepping my boundaries! I surrender! I surrender! Don't kill me!"

"Look, look! You all are trying to form an alliance to make use of Sebastian's sperm strengthening body right?!"

"My daughter possesses a special body...!"

Chapter 196: Final alliance

"My daughter possesses the special body that is known as the soothing nature body!"

"Just so in case you all are unaware of what the soothing nature body does!"

"Similar to the sperm strengthening body, it's a utility type special body too!"

"The wielder of the soothing nature body possesses the abilities to not only help heal extremely difficult to heal injuries, but also to eliminate threats such as qi deviation and inner demons!"

"You all want to help Sebastian create a formidable cultivation family, right?!"

"If that's the case, the soothing nature body will definitely be a huge asset to Sebastian!"

"After all, there is definitely bound to come a time where Sebastian himself, his wives, or his descendants, will end up being injured, right?!"

"But so long as the soothing nature body is available for Sebastian's cultivation family to use, things such as injuries, qi deviation, and inner demons will no longer be much of an issue!"

"What do you all think?! My offer is tempting, isn't it? All I ask is for you all to spare my life, and I swear I will convince my daughter to marry Sebastian!"

"Also, you all don't have to worry that I would dare to try pull anything funny!"

"After all, to be able to marry off my daughter to Sebastian, a cultivator who is evidently not only just a descendant of an immortal realm cultivator but is also a cultivator who possesses an immortal tier innate talent, it is both my honor and my daughter's honor!"

Wu Sheng has never spoken so fast in his entire life. However, for the sake of not being killed, he tried to speak as fast as he possibly could.

"Soothing nature body...? This is indeed a special body that would be a huge asset to Sebastian's cultivation family."

"However, do you think we would trust you just solely based on your words?"

"Sure, we don't mind letting you off and letting your daughter marry Sebastian, but you have to show us some sincerity with your actions instead of just words, don't you think so?"

With her right brow raised, Veronica crossed her arms and looked at Wu Sheng, then began speaking to Wu Sheng, evidently wanting Wu Sheng to do something to show them that he wouldn't betray him.

"What do you all want me to do to prove my sincerity? Just tell me! I will do it!"

Wu Sheng said hurriedly.

"Simple, swallow this pill, then swear to the heavenly daos that you will not betray Sebastian, or else, may you die a horrible death and have your soul suffer eternal damnation."

Right after Wu Sheng finished speaking, Veronica took out a bottle that contained 2 pills from her spatial ring and tossed one of the pills over to Wu Sheng.

Looking at the pill that Veronica tossed over to Wu Sheng, the pill was pretty translucent, and a small black color centipede-like creature was remaining completely still in the middle of the pill, seemingly to be in a dormant state.

Meanwhile, the other remaining pill that was still in the bottle that Veronica took out from her spatial ring...

The pill was pretty much identical to the pill that Veronica had tossed over to Wu Sheng, just that the centipede-like creature was red in color instead of black.

Upon grabbing onto the pill with his right hand, Wu Sheng began examining closely onto the pill for a short moment, then raised his head and asked with an apprehensive look on his face.

"What is this pill...? What does it do after I have swallowed it?"

"Do you think that you are even in the position to be asking questions? Do you want to live or not? If you do, swallow the pill now."

Knowing that he had no choice but to obey whatever Veronica said if he wants to live...

Wu Sheng gave in to his fate and tossed the pill into his mouth.

The moment the pill arrived at Wu Sheng's stomach, Wu Sheng could sense that the pill had already disintegrated completely, and the black color centipede-like creature had awakened from its slumber.

Right as the centipede-like creature had awakened from its slumber, it began crawling toward Wu Sheng's heart.

"Don't resist against it, let it attach itself to your heart."

After a minute or two had passed, upon seeing that the color of the centipede-like creature that was within her pill had changed to pink color, Veronica nodded her head in satisfaction, then said to Wu Sheng.

"Alright, good, you did as you were told. Now, swear to the heavenly dao."

After using his spiritual sense to take a quick glance at the centipede that was currently clinging onto his heart, Wu Sheng let out a deep breath, then began swearing.

"I swear to the heavenly daos, I, Wu Sheng, will not ever betray Sebastian and am genuinely intending on marrying my daughter over to Sebastian. If I am lying, or go back on my word, may I die a horrible death and have my soul suffer eternal damnation!"

"Boom!"

Right as Wu Sheng finished swearing, the loud boom of a thunder rang out in the sky above them, despite the fact that a lightning didn't appear.

Upon hearing the thunder, the corner of Wu Sheng's mouth couldn't help but twitch as he stared blankly at the sky for a short moment, while Veronica and the others could be seen nodding their heads with satisfaction while looking at the night sky.

After taking in and letting out a deep breath, Wu Sheng looked over to Veronica and the others, then said with a forced smile on his face.

"Here, this should be enough to show my sincerity, right?"

Right as Wu Sheng finished speaking, Veronica looked over to Ning Zhi and Coril, and upon seeing that both Ning Zhi and Coril had nodded their heads, Veronica looked over to Wu Sheng, then spoke while holding the bottle that she was holding in her right hand in front of Wu Sheng.

"Look..."

Chapter 197: Evident change in attitude

"Look, you see the bug that is lying dormant within the middle of the pill?"

"This bug is the main bug amongst the two bugs, and the bug that is currently attached to your heart is the subsidiary bug."

"The moment the main bug is killed, the subsidiary bug will explode and burst your heart into pieces."

"Also, just in case you are having doubts that the subsidiary bug's explosion will be strong enough to burst your heart into pieces..."

Right upon speaking up to here, Veronica took out another bottle of pill, then poured the 2 pills that were contained within the bottle onto her left palm.

Looking at the 2 pills... These 2 pills were basically the same as the 2 pills that she had just took out a while ago.

As Veronica tossed the pill that had the subsidiary bug contained within it into the sky, Veronica picked up the pill that had the main bug contained within it with her right thumb and index finger, then squashed the pill, effectively killing the main bug.

Immediately as the main bug died, the pill that Veronica had just tossed into the sky suddenly exploded.

Albeit the explosion was an extremely small one... everyone within the scene could sense the decently frightening spiritual energy that was being emitted out from the explosion.

If a golden core realm cultivator had faced this explosion head on in close proximity, they would definitely get injured by the explosion.

Thus...

It wasn't too hard to imagine just what would happen to Wu Sheng if such an explosion were to explode directly at his heart.

Upon seeing the evident fear that was lingering in Wu Sheng's eyes as he stared blankly at the explosion, Veronica finally opened her mouth and pulled Wu Sheng's attention back to her.

"Don't worry. I will give you my word. Once Sebastian has managed to break through to golden core realm, and your daughter is done giving birth to a few children for Sebastian, I will remove the subsidiary bug from your heart."

"Though. Just a word of advice. It's best that you don't try to do anything funny to the subsidiary bug and just leave it alone."

Right after Veronica finished speaking, she looked over to Sebastian, then said amicably to Sebastian.

Though, this time, different from the way in which she was previously able to speak casually with complete ease to Sebastian, it was evident that she was subconsciously being cautious with her tone, in which she was trying to make sure that she wasn't being too casual when speaking with Sebastian, so as to not make Sebastian think that she was purposely trying to be disrespectful toward him or anything.

"Alright, Sebastian, since tonight is still your wedding night with Miuna, we won't be holding back the two of you any longer than we already have.

If there's anything you need, feel free to call my communication jade, okay?"

"Got it, Veronica."

Upon seeing that Sebastian had responded to her, Veronica then looked over to Miuna and said to Miuna.

"Miuna, I will come and look for you in the morning tomorrow, so make sure to be prepared.

After all, now that you have broken through to the foundation establishment realm, there are a few things that you are going to have to do, such as changing your cultivation technique, registering your new details in the sect's administration department, and so on."

"Understood!"

Having said everything that she wanted to said, Veronica then took the lead to leave the scene.

Upon seeing that Veronica had flew away while standing on her magical flying sword, the other cultivators followed suit and left the scene too.

Of course, right before they left, all of them said their goodbyes to Sebastian and Miuna.

If one didn't know better, just judging from the way in which those cultivators were evidently trying to be friendly and nice toward Sebastian, they would think that Sebastian actually possessed a higher cultivation realm than all of those cultivators.

Right before leaving, Wu Sheng honestly wanted to stay for a bit to have a chat with Sebastian, however, knowing that there was going to be plenty of time in the near future for him to try and get close to Sebastian, Wu Sheng held back his urge and immediately left after saying his goodbye to Sebastian.

Upon seeing that everyone had left, and only her and Sebastian were now standing at the open field.

Miuna couldn't hold back the intense emotions that were currently still surging through both her heart and mind as she launched her body into Sebastian's embrace and hugged her arms around Sebastian's neck the moment that her body had come into contact with Sebastian's body, then immediately kissed her lips onto Sebastian's lips.

This time, when Sebastian sensed that Miuna's tongue had entered into his mouth shortly after she had kissed her lips onto his lips...

Sebastian didn't retract his head as he did a while ago.

After embracing his arms around Miuna's waist, Sebastian began responding gently to Miuna's ardent and passionate French kiss.

Though, before 10 seconds had even passed...

Julia's voice suddenly rang out from not far away from them.

"Sebastian, Miuna!"

"What happened just now?!"

"That lightning just now... it was a lightning tribulation, wasn't it?!"

The moment Julia's voice rang out, Miuna and Sebastian immediately separated their mouths from each other and looked over to Julia's direction.

Immediately, they saw Julia who was running over to them while with a startled look on her face.

Upon seeing that, Sebastian looked over to Miuna, then said to Miuna, "Miuna, you go ahead and explain everything to your big sister, I'm sure she's going to be thrilled once she is done listening to what happened to you."

"En!" Upon hearing what Sebastian said, Miuna walked over to Julia and began explaining everything to Julia.

Meanwhile, Sebastian took this time to confirm what he had previously seen on his text log tab.

[Congratulations, Miuna Lisandris's affection toward the host has reached 100!]

Chapter 198: Allocable exp points

[Note: Once a woman's affection toward the host has reached 100, it means that the woman has completely fallen for the host.

At 100 affection points, so long as the host doesn't do anything that upsets the woman too much, it will be extremely difficult for any of the host's actions to end up causing the woman's affection points toward the host to decrease.]

[Congratulations, the host is now able to obtain daily allocable exp points!]

[Note: Only women who possess 100 affection points toward the host will be able to provide the host with a certain number of allocable exp points daily.

The number of allocable exp points that each woman is able to provide to the host daily depends on the woman's cultivation realm.]

'Seems like I didn't read anything wrong, Miuna's affection toward me has really reached 100!'

'I guess, in a world where cultivation is basically the most important thing toward pretty much every cultivator, it makes sense as to why Miuna's affection toward me would suddenly rise all the way to 100 after I have managed to not only help her awaken her holy physique but also help her break through to the foundation establishment realm.'

'Furthermore, the foundation that she managed to form after she had broken through to the foundation establishment realm was not a normal foundation, but a heavenly foundation!'

'Daily allocable exp points...? Judging just from the words, it most likely mean that I'm now able to obtain a certain number of exp points per day, and I'm allowed to add those exp points to whatever stats that I want to.'

'Though, what's most important is... just how many allocable exp points am I going to be able to obtain per day...'

Right after rereading the text log tab, Sebastian quickly changed the text log tab to the stats tab.

[Host: Sebastian Force]

[Race: Half-draconic, half-human]

[Age: 22/125]

[Aptitude: Middle-quality spiritual root (Exp 2570/50000)]

[Special body: Sperm strengthening body]

[Talent: Yin and yang cores (Current lines: Yin core (4), yang core (5))]

[Yin and yang cores' ability: Yin-yang breath]

[Yin core's ability: Darkness envelopment]

[Yang core's ability: Phoenix's blessing]

[Cultivation: level 6 energy refining realm (Exp 0/3000)]

[Cultivation techniques (2)]

[Sun energy refining technique, proficiency – expert (Exp 160/1000)]

[Four Divinity Beasts Reconstruction Technique, proficiency – perfect (MAX)]

[Professions: Talisman crafter, alchemist]

[Talisman crafter: Apprentice (Exp 553.25/500, breakthrough available)]

[Alchemist: Beginner (Exp 30/100)]

[Family territory's construction points (+53 per day): 56]

[Allocable exp points (+500 per day): 500]

'Wait... the number of construction points that I'm able to gain per day went from +6 per day to +53 per day?'

'This means that the number of construction points that I'm able to obtain from Miuna per day must have increased from 3 per day to 50 per day after her affection had increased from 87 to 100!'

'Allocable exp points...'

'Hmm... so, I'm able to gain 500 allocable exp points per day...'

'That's not too bad at all! After all, my...'

'...?!'

'Hmm?!'

'Wait a moment! 500 allocable exp points per day?!'

'That much?! I'm not seeing wrongly, am I?!'

Just a few seconds after Sebastian had saw that the number of allocable exp points that he was able to obtain per day was actually 500, his eyes immediately opened wide with shock the moment his mind had finally fully registered what he had just saw.

500 allocable exp points per day!

Sebastian doesn't even have to think much about it at all to realize just how big of a number that was, especially when the experience points that were needed in order to level up his cultivation and sun energy refining technique's current proficiency were 3000 experience points and 1000 experience points respectively.

What did this mean?

This meant that, even if he were to do nothing at all from now on...

Just with the 500 allocable exp points that he was able to obtain daily all thanks to Miuna's affection toward him having reached 100...

He would still be able to break through to foundation establishment realm and increase the proficiency of his sun energy refining technique to perfect!

'I have struck it rich! I love Miuna to death!'

'Now, I should try adding the allocable exp points to one of my stats, so that I can make sure that the allocable exp points are able to function as how I initially thought it would be able to function.'

'Question is...'

'Should I add the experience points to my cultivation, or the sun energy refining technique?'

After contemplating for a bit, Sebastian decided on what to do.

'Hmm... I guess I should add the experience points to the sun energy refining technique.'

'It's most likely best for me to max out my sun energy refining technique's proficiency to perfect, so that I can complete the chain mission as soon as possible.'

'Furthermore, the higher that my proficiency of the sun energy refining technique is, the more experience points I will be able to gain to my cultivation when I'm cultivating by revolving the sun energy refining technique.'

Upon thinking up to here, without hesitation, Sebastian added all 500 allocable experience points to his sun energy refining technique.

'System, add all 500 of the allocable experience points to the sun energy refining technique!'

[Sun energy refining technique, proficiency – expert (Exp 660/1000)]

The moment Sebastian had added 500 exp points to his sun energy refining technique, Sebastian suddenly sensed that his understanding toward the sun energy refining technique had increased by a decent amount, and if he were to revolve the sun energy refining technique right now, he would be able to revolve it better than he did previously.

'I must say...'

'The feeling of getting stronger without having to spend time cultivating is a rather nice feeling.'

'The system said that the number of allocable exp points that I'm able to gain from my women that possess 100 affection points toward me depend on their cultivation realms, right?'

'I wonder how many allocable exp points I will be able to gain from Julia once her affection toward me has reached 100 since Julia is still at energy refining realm.'

'For now, I'm only aware of how many daily allocable exp points that a woman who is within the foundation establishment realm is able to provide to me once the woman affection toward me has reached 100.'

'In any case, I should take a look at Miuna's stats now.'

[Name: Miuna Lisandris]

[Race: Human]

[Age: 27/405]

[Aptitude: Middle-quality spiritual root (Exp 47,750/50,000)]

[Holy physique: Devouring lotus physique]

[Dao: Yin dao – level 1 fundamental understanding (Exp 25,000/100,000)]

[Cultivation: level 3 foundation establishment realm, heavenly foundation (Exp 5000/25,000)]

[Cultivation technique: Sun energy refining technique, proficiency – intermediate (Exp 160/200)]

[Profession: Talisman crafter]

[Talisman crafter: Apprentice (Exp 420/500)]

[Allocable exp points (+500 per day): 500]

[Affection toward the host: 100/100]

[Currently family territory's construction points that the host can gain from Miuna daily: 50 points per day]

[Current allocable exp points that the host can gain from Miuna daily: 500 points per day]

Looking at Miuna's stats...

Thanks to the heavenly foundation that she had formed, 250 years were added to her lifespan, and adding on with the 10 years of lifespan that she had obtained from breaking through level 1 of foundation of establishment realm to level 3 of foundation establishment realm...

She gained a total of 260 years of life span, bringing her total life span from 145 years to 405 years.

A normal foundation was able to provide 25 years of life span, while an earthly foundation provided 100 years of life span, and a heavenly foundation provided 250 years of life span.

This was 1 of the main reasons why when a foundation establishment realm cultivator had managed to form a heavenly foundation, it pretty much meant that this foundation establishment realm cultivator was definitely going to be able to break through to golden core realm.

This was also why Veronica spoke to Miuna so amicably just a while ago and even took the initiative to meet up with Miuna tomorrow morning and help Miuna out with completing the various tasks that Miuna will have to do due to her having broken through to foundation establishment realm.

After all, upon finding out that Miuna not only broke through to foundation establishment realm, but also formed a heavenly foundation...

Veronica immediately knew it was going to be just time that Miuna would become a golden core realm cultivator, and even more, there was going to be a high chance that Miuna was going to be able to overtake her cultivation...

Especially since Miuna had not only awoken her holy physique but also already managed to comprehend a heavenly dao to level 1 fundament understanding!

Thus, what better time to get on Miuna's good side but now?

'Oh? Miuna's middle-quality spiritual root is actually pretty close to transforming into a top-quality spiritual root!'

'Hmm... seems like everything is pretty normal for...'

'...?!'

'Hmm?!'

'Wait... Miuna also possesses allocable exp points?!'

Chapter 199: Path ahead

'Wait... Miuna also possesses allocable exp points?!'

Upon seeing that Miuna also possesses allocable exp points on her stats, and evidently, Miuna's allocable exp points were separated from his own allocable exp points, since he had already used all of his own allocable exp points onto his sun energy refining technique...

Sebastian's eyes immediately opened wide with shock as he stared closely onto the text before his eyes.

[Allocable exp points (+500 per day): 500]

It was reasonable for Sebastian to be filled with shock, after all, it doesn't take him too long to realize what this basically meant.

'With this new allocable exp points function... It basically means that I will be able to help my women become stronger easily!'

'Or, well, specifically the women who possess 100 affection points toward me.'

'It is now pretty obvious what the path ahead of me is going to be like.'

'Aside from getting my women to constantly give birth to children, I should also try my best to get all my women's affection toward me to reach 100!'

'The difference in benefits between a woman whose affection toward me is at 100 affection points and a woman whose affection toward me is at below 100 affection points are just way too huge!'

'After all, when Miuna's affection toward me was at 80 affection points, she was only able to provide me with 3 daily family territory's construction points and 3 daily talisman crafting's experience points.'

'Furthermore, the 3 daily talisman crafting's experience points are only added to my stats, and not Miuna's stats.'

Upon thinking up to here, Sebastian lowered his eyes toward the few remaining texts below.

[Affection toward the host: 100/100]

[Currently family territory's construction points that the host can gain from Miuna daily: 50 points per day]

[Current allocable exp points that the host can gain from Miuna daily: 500 points per day]

'Meanwhile, now that Miuna's affection toward me is at 100 affection points, she's not only able to provide me with 50 daily family territory's construction points, which is basically a jump of 47 points, but most importantly...'

'She's able to provide to the each of us 500 allocable exp points per day'

'If I think about it, that's basically as if I'm gaining 1000 allocable exp points per day. After all, Miuna getting stronger is basically equivalent to me getting stronger.'

'Though, which stats of hers should I add the allocable exp points onto?'

'It's most likely her spiritual root, right? Since her spiritual root is pretty close to transforming from a middle-quality spiritual root to top-quality spiritual root.'

Upon thinking up to here, Sebastian suddenly recalled something that Julia told him about Miuna, which was that Miuna was obsessed with talisman crafting, and although Miuna had pretty much given up on talisman crafting after marrying him as she intends to dedicate her time to serving upon him with her little sister...

If he were to somehow be able to help Miuna break through to becoming an official talisman crafter, Miuna would definitely become extremely grateful toward him and fall deeply for him.

Previously, when Julia told Sebastian all of that, Sebastian decided that he was going to try and help Miuna with breaking through to becoming an official talisman crafter after he had managed to break through and become an official talisman crafter himself, so that he could raise Miuna's affection toward him.

Furthermore, with the fact that he was able to see the experience points of his women's stats, he was rather confident that he was going to be able to properly guide Miuna with her talisman crafting skills and help her to finally break through to becoming an official talisman crafter.

Though... Since Miuna's affection toward him was already at 100 affection points, there was currently no more need for him to do this just for the sake of raising Miuna's affection toward him.

'Actually, before I do that, I should help Miuna with fulfilling one of her wishes, which is evidently to break through and become an official talisman crafter!'

'In any case, Miuna is just 80 experience points off from being able to do so.'

'For now, I should test out if I'm able to add experience points to Miuna's stats while she is situated away from my body.'

Upon thinking up to here, without hesitation, Sebastian added 1 allocable experience point to Miuna's talisman crafting skills.

'System, add 1 allocable exp point to Miuna's talisman crafting.'

[Talisman crafter: Apprentice (Exp 421/500)]

Immediately, the experience points of Miuna's talisman crafting went from 420 to 421.

Upon seeing that, Sebastian nodded his head with satisfaction, then continued thinking to himself.

'Hmm, it seems like I'm able to add exp points to Miuna's stats even when Miuna is situated away from my body.'

'Though, even if I'm able to do that, in the future when I'm adding exp points to any of Miuna's stats, I should do it whenever I'm having sex with her and cummed inside of her.'

'That way, I can explain to her that the reason I'm able to not only strengthen her spiritual root and cultivation but also bestow comprehension toward her cultivation techniques and profession is all thanks to my yin and yang core.'

'In any case, even if the system did say that a woman is completely loyal to me when the woman's affection toward me is at 100 affection points, but still, I think it's best that I just keep the fact that I possess a system to just myself.'

Upon thinking up to here, Sebastian stopped looking at his system screen and looked over to Miuna and Julia.

As Sebastian looked over to Miuna and Julia, he could see that Miuna had transformed her lotus mark into a huge lotus and was currently showing off to Julia while with a smug yet excited look on her face.

Meanwhile, Julia could be seen looking at Miuna with a look of envy on her face. Though, aside from envy, the emotion that was most prevalent on her face was happiness.

Chapter 200: Miuna's new plan

The happiness that was on Julia's face was a genuine look of happiness.

Not only was Julia happy for Miuna having awakened her holy physique and successfully broke through to the foundation establishment realm, which, from Miuna's words, her holy physique seemed to have been remaining dormant in her body ever since she was born, and had only been awakened today thanks to Sebastian...

But she was also extremely glad that she had managed to marry Sebastian, and furthermore, made sure to immediately get Sebastian to marry Miuna after she had found out that Sebastian had awakened the sperm strengthening body.

After all, without Sebastian, it was evident that everything that had happened to both her and her big sister in these past few days wouldn't have happened.

If Sebastian had bothered taking a look at Julia's stats, Sebastian would have been able to see that Julia's affection toward him had already reached 89, and judging from the way the affection within Julia's eyes seemed like it was about to leak out from Julia's eyes while Julia was constantly glancing at Sebastian with the sides of her eyes...

It was evident that it was going to be any time soon that Julia's affection toward Sebastian was going to reach 90 affection points!

Because Julia was constantly glancing at Sebastian with the sides of her eyes, the moment Sebastian began walking over to her and Miuna, Julia immediately spotted Sebastian's movement.

Thus, Julia stopped Miuna who was currently still describing in detail about everything that had happened to her just a while ago with an excited look on her face.

"And after the lotus mark was about to be formed, all of a sudden..."

"Miuna, you can continue telling me about it tomorrow. Sebastian is walking over to us."

"Hmm...?"

Upon hearing what Julia said, Miuna immediately turned her head over to Sebastian's direction.

"What are the two of you talking about to each other? Come on, let's head back into the house, the two of you can continue talking to each other once we are back in the house."

"Hehe, anything you say, darling!"

Right as Sebastian finished speaking, Miuna immediately began skipping joyfully over to Sebastian's right side, then let out a giggle before hugging onto Sebastian's right arm and speaking coquettishly with a grin on her face.

Meanwhile, Julia just stood still and continued on looking affectionately at Sebastian.

The moment Sebastian arrived by Julia's side, Sebastian extended out his left arm and held onto Julia's waist, then said with a slightly confused look on his face.

"What are you staring at me like that for? Come on, let's head into the house."

"En."

Julia responded with a soft groan, then began walking toward the house with Sebastian and Miuna.

Looking at the scene, Sebastian was currently holding onto two beautiful women's waists with his arms as he walked toward the house that the 3 of them shared, and those two beautiful women were both currently looking affectionately at Sebastian with the sides of their eyes.

Such a scene like this was honestly something that Sebastian would have never expected to be able to happen so quickly in just a few days of him having transmigrated to the Cultivation World.

Shortly after arriving in the house...

Right as Sebastian had closed the door behind him and turned his body around...

Julia opened her mouth and said with a gentle yet teasing smile on her face.

"Alright, I will be heading back to my bedroom and leave the two of you alone to each other."

"After all, you two's wedding night still isn't over yet."

"Darling, make sure to go easy on Miuna, okay?"

Right after Julia finished speaking... For the sake of not making things awkward, Julia turned her body around without any hesitation and began heading back to her bedroom.

However, right as Julia had just turned her body around and was about to take a step forward...

Miuna suddenly called out to Julia as she grabbed onto Julia's right arm, preventing Julia from leaving.

"Julia, wait a moment!"

"Hmm...?"

Upon being grabbed onto Miuna, Julia turned her head around and looked at Miuna with a confused look on her face.

Meanwhile, after stopping Julia in her tracks, Miuna could be seen pursing her lips as her eyes shifted back and forth between Julia and Sebastian, seemingly to be contemplating about something.

Upon seeing that Miuna was remaining silent and acting a little strange after calling out to her, a confused yet worried look appeared on Julia's face as she asked Miuna with a worried voice.

"Miuna, what's the matter? Is there something wrong?"

However, faced with Julia's question, Miuna didn't answer it at all.

After all, the moment that Miuna saw the genuine worried look on Julia's face and heard the genuine worried tone in Julia's voice...

Miuna immediately stopped contemplating on whatever that she was contemplating about just a while ago.

'That's right! What even is there for me to contemplate about!'

'Julia is basically my closest family right now, aside from Sebastian!'

'Furthermore, if not for Julia putting in a word for me while we were in front of Great Grandpa Coril... It was evident that Great Grandpa Coril wasn't intending on letting me marry Sebastian.'

'If I had not been able to marry Sebastian, I wouldn't have been able to awaken my holy physique, nor would I have been able to break through to foundation establishment realm, and even more, form a heavenly foundation!'

'I know that I did tell Julia that it would be best for us to slowly surprise Sebastian so that he doesn't grow tired of us too quickly...'

'But now... who even cares about that!'

'All that matters right now is that we pleasure Sebastian to the best that we can and shower Sebastian with as much affection as we possibly can while Sebastian's wives are still only the two of us!'

Upon thinking up to here, a resolute look appeared on Miuna's face as she moved her mouth right next to Julia's right ear and whispered in a low voice that only Julia was able to hear.

"...?!"
