Chapter 31: Luneth Mooncrown and Euna Mooncrown

"This phenomenon... Has a formidable treasure appeared within the North Continent, or perhaps, someone is undergoing an ancestral blessing currently...?"

"No... judging from how wide the radius in which the spiritual energy within the air and earth that are being absorbed and dragged onto is, there is no way it could be due to a cultivator undergoing an ancestral blessing."

"Therefore, this means that, a formidable treasure has appeared within the North Continent!"

"This may be a great opportunity for Bright Moon Sect to go from being the third strongest sect within the upper north continent to being the strongest sect within the upper north continent!"

"So long as Bright Moon Sect is the one who is able to obtain the formidable treasure!"

The extremely beautiful yet mature-looking woman who seemed to be in her early thirties could be seen to have flames of ambition burning within her eyes while she was staring at the spiritual energy vortexes that had formed throughout the entirety of the sky above her.

Looking at this woman, this woman could be seen to possess silky long light blue color hair that draped over her back, all the way until her waist...

A youthful, yet mature-looking beautiful face, evidently that of a face that belonged to a woman in her early thirties...

A tall figure, seemingly to be in the height of 175 cm...

As for the sizes of her breasts and butt... Due to the light blue color Daoist gown that she was currently wearing being rather big and loose, it was hard to make out the curves of her body through the Daoist gown that she was currently wearing.

However, one could easily tell that this woman definitely possesses rather large sized breasts and butt.

After all, even though the Daoist gown that she was currently wearing over her body was rather big and loose, one could still faintly make out the curves of her breasts and butt through the Daoist gown if they focused hard enough.

Of course, as the woman was a cultivator who was in the golden core realm, if anyone dares to try and stare at her body and tries to figure out the sizes of her breasts and butt, she would definitely be able to sense it with her spiritual sense, and what followed by for the person who dared to do that would definitely be swift death.

If a cultivator who belonged to Bright Moon Sect was currently present outside of the throne room and saw this woman who was currently standing outside of the throne room's entrance, they would definitely be able to correctly guess this woman's identity.

Luneth Mooncrown, a beautiful woman who possessed the cultivation of golden core realm and was also the current sect master of Bright Moon Sect!

"I wonder... Just how long are those spiritual energy vortexes going to last?"

"With those spiritual energy vortexes in the way, I'm unable to extend my spiritual sense outward and try to look for the source in which the spiritual energy are flowing toward..."

"Sigh... I hope that those two other sects don't possess any strong detection type magical tool that allows them to track the source in which the spiritual energy are flowing toward to."

Shortly after Luneth Mooncrown had thought to herself in her own mind, a beautiful woman who was as beautiful as Luneth Mooncrown could be seen jumping off from a flying sword and landing right beside Luneth Mooncrown.

Right as the beautiful woman had landed beside Luneth, the beautiful woman immediately kneeled down on her right knee, then cupped her hands at Luneth and said with utmost respect in her tone, "Sect master, you were looking for me?"

"Sigh, how many times do I have to tell you this? There's no need for you to be so formal whenever you are alone with me." Upon seeing that the beautiful woman had kneeled down in front of her, and upon hearing that the beautiful woman called her sect master, Luneth immediately frowned her brows and said with an upset tone.

Right after Luneth finished speaking, she made a beckoning gesture with her right index finger, causing the beautiful woman to be lifted up by a mass of spiritual energy, and thus ended up standing upright in front of Luneth, and no longer kneeling down on her right knee.

"Alright, I will let you off this time because there's an urgent matter that we have to attend to right now."

"Look at those spiritual energy vortexes. I'm sure you are aware what the appearance of those spiritual energy vortexes represent, don't you, my dear daughter?"

That's right, the beautiful woman that was standing beside Luneth was actually Luneth's daughter.

Or to be more precise, the beautiful woman was Luneth's adoptive daughter who Luneth had adopted 30 years ago.

This beautiful woman was called Euna Mooncrown, a woman who possessed the aptitude of top-quality spiritual root, the cultivation of level 10 foundation establishment realm, and was currently in the process of working toward breaking through to the golden core realm.

Euna Mooncrown was not only Luneth Mooncrown's adoptive daughter, but she was also Luneth Mooncrown's first direct disciple, and also the head of Bright Moon Sect's justice department.

Different from Luneth who was rather easy-going, Euna was the type of person who treats everything seriously, which was why despite the fact that Luneth was her adoptive mother, she chose to call her sect master instead of mother.

Looking at Euna, she possessed short black hair, and the right side of her face was completely covered by her short black hair...

For her attire, she wore a black color Daoist gown that was tightly wrapped around her body, and looking at her figure that was easily visible to one's eyes, it could be seen that, compared to the figure that her adoptive mother possesses, her figure was rather disappointing...

Or at the least, her breasts were the disappointing part, where her breasts seemed to be around the size of A cup, yet somewhat close to arriving at the point of B cup.

However...!

Chapter 32: Opposite opinions

However, although Euna possessed rather small breasts, perhaps due to the fact that she was a cultivator who cultivated a body tempering technique instead of mind tempering technique...

The size of her butt was actually rather big, whereby if someone like Sebastian were to grab onto Euna's butt cheeks with his hands, Sebastian's hands wouldn't be able to fully cover onto the entirety of Euna's butt cheeks, and furthermore, a great amount of the meat of Euna's butt cheeks would seep out through the gaps of Sebastian's fingers.

However, discarding about the fact of the size of her breasts, if one were to compare Euna to Luneth just solely by judging on their looks and figures, they wasn't anything that they can nitpick in order to make it so that one of the other person amongst the two ranks higher in terms of looks and figures.

Both Euna and Luneth possessed slender waists, beautiful faces, and body heights that were pretty much the same as height as each other, whereas Euna was 174 cm tall, while Luneth was 175 cm tall.

Perhaps, if one preferred a woman who possessed a mature-looking appearance, they would rank Luneth's appearance over Euna's appearance.

However, if a person preferred a woman who possessed a beautiful yet stern looking appearance, and also at the same time, constantly have a solemn look on their face, and the person likes to be berated by a woman, the person would definitely rank Euna's appearance over Luneth's appearance.

Upon hearing what Luneth said, Euna subconsciously raised her head upward and looked toward the spiritual energy vortexes that were spreading throughout the entire sky.

Immediately after looking at the spiritual energy vortexes, a deep frown couldn't help but appear on Euna's forehead as she opened her mouth and said worriedly, "When such a phenomenon occurs, it signifies that either a formidable treasure has appeared, or that someone is currently undergoing an ancestral blessing..."

"However, judging from the huge number of spiritual energy vortexes that had been formed within the sky, it is very unlikely that this phenomenon is occurring due to someone undergoing an ancestral blessing..."

"Thus, this means that a formidable treasure has appeared within the North Continent once again!"

"It has been only 20 years since the last time a formidable treasure had appeared within the North Continent, and yet, a formidable treasure that seemed to be even much more formidable than the formidable treasure that appeared 20 years ago has now appeared within the North Continent..."

"Sigh... Hopefully, the number of casualties that our Bright Moon Sect is going to suffer this time won't be as high as the number of casualties that we suffered 20 years ago..."

Meanwhile, when Luneth finished listening to what Euna said, Luneth couldn't help but let out a sigh, then said with a tone filled with worry, "Sigh... Rather than being worried about the number of casualties that our Bright Moon Sect is going to suffer this time, I'm more worried about the fact if whether our Bright Moon Sect will be able to obtain the formidable treasure or not."

"If our Bright Moon Sect is able to be the one to obtain this current formidable treasure that has appeared within the North Continent, I don't mind even if I have to sacrifice a large portion of our Bright Moon Sect's disciples..."

Immediately after Luneth had finished speaking, Euna could be seen angrily shouting out in a deep and low voice to Luneth, "Sect master, how could you even possibly think and say such things?! What would the sect's disciples think if they were to hear what you just said?! Don't you know that the sect's disciples are one of the most important factors in making the sect prosper and flourish?! Without the disciples who are devoted and loyal to Bright Moon Sect, Bright Moon Sect would just be but an empty shell!"

However, faced with Euna's angry glare and questioning, Luneth merely took a glance at Euna, then turned her gaze back toward the sky and let out a sigh that was filled with disappointment.

Ignoring Euna's questioning, Luneth began telling Euna the reason as to why she summoned Euna here, "Euna, go and gather all of the foundation establishment disciples and elders that are currently present in the sect. As for the energy refining disciples, you can leave them be for now."

"As for the golden core elders, I'm sure that without the need for me to inform them about anything, they themselves would make sure that they won't miss this great battle that's about to happen soon..."

Right upon speaking up to here, Luneth took out a spear from her spatial ring, then tossed the spear over to Euna, "Here, take this spear of mine along with you. With this spear, the elders won't dare to give you any trouble."

"Sect master! I must say, don't you think that... that... that..."

Right upon grabbing onto the spear that Luneth tossed over to her, Euna opened her mouth, intending to continue on questioning Luneth about what she had previously said about being willing to sacrifice the majority of the sect's disciples if she were able to obtain the formidable treasure, however, upon seeing the deep frown and stern look that appeared on Luneth's face right when she had only just spoken a few words, Euna couldn't help but begin stuttering.

"Humph!" And in the end, seemingly to be feeling afraid right when she saw that the usually easy-going Luneth had a stern and angry look on her face, Euna merely ended up letting out a snort, then turned her body around and flew away into the distance right after she had summoned out her flying sword and jumped onto the flying sword.

Right after seeing that Euna had flown into the distance, the stern and angry look that was on Luneth finally disappeared, and right now, Luneth could be seen to have a look of disappointment on her face.

Chapter 33: Huge fissure

After letting out a sigh, Luneth couldn't help but mutter in a low voice, "Sigh... my dear Euna, with the way you are, how am I possibly going to be able to dare to hand the sect master over to you even after you have finally managed to break through from the foundation establishment realm and arrived at the golden core realm..."

Luneth was certain that, with the way Euna was as a person, if she were to hand over the position of sect master to Euna, it won't take more than 10 years for Bright Moon Sect to end up going from a tier 1 sect, and also the 3rd best sect within the upper north continent, to end up becoming a tier 2 sect.

"Sigh... No use thinking about pointless things such as this. Right now, fighting and obtaining ownership of the formidable treasure is of the utmost importance!"

"It has been close to 15 minutes since the spiritual energy vortexes have appeared throughout the skies."

"I wonder just how much longer it is going to take for the spiritual energy vortexes to finally begin dissipating."

"If I remember correctly, 20 years ago when that formidable treasure appeared, the spiritual energy vortexes didn't even last a full minute before it finally began dissipating."

"From the looks of things, this formidable treasure is most likely going to be many times stronger than the formidable treasure that appeared 20 years ago."

"Sigh... Seems like Bright Moon Sect is really going to have to give it it's all in fighting over this formidable treasure... If this formidable treasure were to fall in the hands of either the Beast Taming Sect, or the Burning Sun Sect, things are going to really start looking very bad for Bright Moon Sect, and that is especially true if this formidable treasure were to fall in the hands of Burning Sun Sect."

"It has been 5 years since the Burning Sun Sect's sect master had been pressuring me to betroth Euna over to her son, and because of the formidable treasure that her sect had managed to obtain 20 years ago, she even somehow managed to convince one of the elders who is from the main sect to send a letter over to me, trying to convince me into betrothing Euna over to her son..."

Upon muttering to herself in a low voice up to here, Luneth suddenly clicked her tongue, then began cursing out at the Burning Sun Sect's sect master, "Tsk! That damned whore, does she think that I do not know what she has planned in that puny brain of hers?! It is a known fact that her son cultivates a dual-cultivation technique that allows the user to suck the cultivation of another cultivator, and yet she wants me to betroth my darling Euna to her son?!"

"This damned whore, that sickening lecherous old pervert from the main sect, and that disgusting pig of a son of that damned whore's... If I managed to obtain this new formidable treasure, I will make sure to repay everything in ten folds!"

Right as Luneth had muttered in a low voice up to here, Luneth suddenly sensed an extremely tremendous spiritual pressure appearing from within the sky, and immediately, she couldn't help but open her eyes wide and watched as a huge crack began being formed within the sky, followed by even more cracks being extended out from the huge crack, and not before long, the huge crack actually seemed to have split the entire North Continent's sky into half!

And right as the entire North Continent's sky was split into half by the huge crack, the huge crack seemed as if it was pushing the skies into the opposite directions, causing a huge fissure to appear within the sky.

Looking at the huge fissure, the opposite side of the huge fissure was the far view of an extremely huge tree that towered over the sky. Looking at the tree, the tree seemed to be in an incredibly bad shape, as black gases could be seen constantly being emitted out from the huge tree.

"This... this is... the Celestial Realm?!" The moment the huge fissure appeared within the sky, and Luneth's gaze landed onto the scenery that appeared within the huge fissure, she couldn't help but exclaim loudly with an immense feeling of shock.

As for why Luneth knew that the opposite side of the huge fissure was the Celestial Realm? It was because, the moment Luneth's eyes landed onto the huge fissure, she could sense an immense amount of spiritual energy within the opposite side of the huge fissure, and every fiber and strand of her body and soul were currently yearning to go over to the opposite side of the huge fissure.

Immediately, without any hesitation, Luneth took out a flying sword from her spatial ring and intended to fly toward the Celestial Realm.

However, right when she was about to jump onto the flying sword, she came to find out that she wasn't able to smoothly revolve her cultivation at all due to the spiritual pressure that was being emitted out from the Celestial Realm.

"Hah... what was I thinking... Of course it wouldn't be so easy to..."

Right when Luneth was muttering to herself in a low voice, Luneth's muttering suddenly came to a stop, and immediately, both fear and reverence could be seen appearing on her face.

And the reason for both of those emotions appearing on her face was because of the deep sounding voice that came out from the huge fissure.

"15,000 years... it has been..."

"Descendant... of..."

"This is... all I can do to help aid you in your journey..."

"Do not disappoint... the dragon race... and the phoenix race..."

Right as the voice had spoken up to here, 3 items suddenly flew out from the huge fissure, and immediately after flying out from the huge fissure, the 3 items flew away in three directions and landed within 3 locations that were located within the North Continent.

Chapter 34: Tree of Death

Regarding the locations whereby the 3 items had flew over and landed on...

If one were able to see where the 3 items had flew over to, they would be able to see that the locations of the 3 items were extremely far away from Bright Moon City, which was the location that Sebastian was currently located at!

Right as the 3 items had landed within the 3 locations, the huge fissure that was within the sky could be seen closely slowly.

And after what seemed like 10 minutes had passed, the huge fissure and cracks that were within the sky disappeared completely.

Looking at the sky right now...

If not for the majority of cultivators within the North Continent that were currently still staring blankly at the sky, evidently to still have not come back to their senses from what they had just witnessed happening before their eyes...

It would definitely have seemed as if nothing had happened to the sky just a while ago.

Of course, there were various other cultivators who had come back to their senses right as the fissure had closed, and one of those cultivators was Bright Moon Sect's sect master, Luneth Mooncrown.

Right upon seeing that the fissure had closed, and upon sensing that her cultivation was able to revolve normally once again, Luneth hurriedly made the flying sword that was on the ground to float upward into the air, then jumped onto the flying sword.

Right as Luneth jumped onto the flying sword, she began flying at high speed in the direction of one of the 3 items.

And while she was flying on her flying sword, she took out a transmission talisman and said to the transmission talisman, "Euna, I'm currently heading toward the far east of North Continent since that is where one of the 3 items that came out from the Celestial Realm had flew over to."

"Once you are done assembling the foundation establishment realm disciples and elders, quickly head over to the far east of North Continent."

Right as Luneth finished speaking, she kept away the transmission talisman into her talisman, then concentrated on flying toward her destination.

However, while flying toward her destination, Luneth couldn't help but curse out in her own mind, "Fuck, fuck, fuck! Why am I so unlucky?! Why did all of the 3 items that came out from the Celestial Realm ended up flying so far away from where my sect is located at?!"

Meanwhile, the culprit who was responsible for the immortal realm being to even go through the trouble of tossing 3 items within the Lower Realm, just so that he could turn everyone's gaze away from Sebastian, and instead, toward the 3 items...

He was currently lying down on the bed with his back, while at the front of him, Julia could be seen giving her all in sucking onto his dick while looking affectionately and tenderly at him.

"Ah... This is what blissfulness truly is..."

Looking at Julia who was trying her best to please his dick with her mouth despite the fact that this was her second time at giving a blowjob, Sebastian couldn't help but feel a great sense of satisfaction as he muttered to himself in his own mind.

As for why this was Julia's second time giving a blowjob...? Just a moment ago, Sebastian had just ejaculated his semen into Julia's mouth...

Roughly 20 minutes ago before the huge fissure had closed...

While Sebastian still had his dick inserted all the way into Julia's pussy, and he was also still lying his body right onto Julia's body, the completion of his yin and yang core had already reached 80%.

And shortly after, after what seemed like a minute more had passed since the progress of his yin and yang cores had reached 80%...

Due to the extremely large amount of spiritual energy that was constantly being absorbed into his body without coming to a stop at all, the yin and yang cores that were located within his stomach were immediately done being formed completely!

However, right as the yin and yang cores were formed, the spiritual energy that were being absorbed into his body still didn't come to a stop!

If Sebastian possessed spiritual sense and was able to look inside of his body, he would be able to see that, as the yin and yang cores continued on with absorbing the spiritual energy that came from the air and earth, a single line was currently being formed onto each of the yin and yang cores!

Meanwhile, right as the yin and yang cores had formed within Sebastian's stomach...

Within the Celestial Realm, at a location that was once known as the Tree of Life, and was also once known as one of the nine sacred lands within the Celestial Realm...

But was now known as one of the 6 forbidden lands within the Celestial Realm, and also known as the Tree of Death...

At the peak of the Tree of Death, a huge hole could be seen to lead right into the Tree of Death.

And as one walks into the huge hole, they would be able to find themselves to have appeared within another location, and by looking around the surroundings of the location, they would be able to come to the conclusion that this was once a grand-looking throne room.

However, as of currently, the throne room was in complete ruins, except for the throne that was situated at the end of the throne room, and looking at the throne, a middle-aged looking man could be seen seating on the throne while with his eyes closed, and his body completely still.

It was unknown as to just how long the middle-aged man had been sitting still on the throne for, however, the moment the yin and yang cores had formed completely within Sebastian's stomach, the middle-aged man could be see slowly opening his eyes, then muttering in a low voice.

"Big... brother...?"

Chapter 35: All for nothing

"Big... brother...?"

Right after muttering that in a low voice, the middle-aged man's eyes were finally opened completely.

Looking at the middle-aged man, he possessed long gold color hair that reached all the way to the lower end of his upper body, and he possessed an incredibly handsome look for someone of his age.

Looking at his handsome face, it was evident that he must have been extremely handsome too back when he was younger.

With a black color Daoist gown that had intricated golden color totems sewn onto it worn on his body, and a gold color crown worn on the top of his head...

Pairing both of that with the fact that the middle-aged man was sitting on the throne room, it was evident that this middle-aged man was the emperor of this throne room.

Right as the middle-aged man's eyes were opened completely, the middle-aged man could be seen lowering his head and looking downward to the floor.

And right after doing so, the middle-aged man began muttering in a low voice once again, "No... a descendant... of big brother's...?"

"The yin and yang cores..."

"Sigh... cough, cough, cough..."

"Look at this... huge scene that... this descendant of yours... have created..."

"Is he that tired... of living...?"

Upon muttering in a low voice up to here, a slight smile could be seen slowly appearing on the corners of the middle-aged man's mouth as he let out a light chuckle, "Haha... cough, cough..."

"Those lowly humans must... most likely be scared shitless... right as they sensed that... your innate talent, the yin and yang cores... have appeared in the... cultivation world... once again..."

Unbeknownst to the middle-aged man, Sebastian himself was a human in his past life, and within this new life of his, although he wasn't a pure-bred human anymore, he was still half-human.

"Though... for this descendant of yours... to be located within the Lower Realm... I guess I can't fault him for ending up creating such a huge scene..."

"After all, the amount of spiritual energy that are needed in order to completely form... the yin and yang cores... are not a small amount at all..."

"Cough, cough..."

"I guess, rather than hoping... that someone would be able... to finally cure the... Tree of Life..."

"Perhaps, I should put all my hope... onto this descendant of... yours..."

"Sigh, after this... I wonder when would... I be able to wake up again..."

Right upon muttering in a low voice up to here, gold color flames could be seen suddenly appearing all around his body, and in the next moment, the middle-aged man had disappeared from the throne, while a phoenix that possessed gold color feathers and was enveloped in gold color flames could be seen appearing outside of the hole that was located at the peak of the Tree of Death.

"Caw!"

Right as the phoenix let out a loud cry, the phoenix could be seen flying over to the battlefield that was located not far away from the Tree of Death.

While ignoring the look of shock that the various cultivators that were at the battlefield had on their faces, the phoenix scooped up three random weapons that were scattered on the ground of the battlefield, then flew up high into the sky and scratched its sharp talons onto the empty space within the sky.

Right as the phoenix scratched its sharp talons onto the empty space, a portal that led toward the Lower Realm's North Continent immediately opened within the empty space.

Immediately after, the phoenix began enveloping its golden flame all around itself and the portal, forming a barrier of golden flame around both the portal and itself.

Right after, the phoenix transformed back into its middle-aged human form and began panting heavily for breath.

"Hah... hah... hah..."

"15,000 years... it has been..."

"Descendant... of..."

Right when the middle-aged man was about to mention his big brother's nickname, which was "The Banished", the middle-aged man was able to sense that something bad may happen if he were to utter his big brother's nickname, and thus, his voice came to a pause for a moment.

"..."

"This is... all I can do to help aid you in your journey..."

Upon speaking up to here, the middle-aged man tossed the 3 weapons that he had picked up from the battlefield, then began controlling the directions in which the 3 weapons were to fly toward to, which were the utmost east, utmost west, and utmost south of the North Continent, all of which that were located extremely far away from the upper north continent that Sebastian was currently located at.

Right after the 3 weapons had each landed onto the utmost east, utmost west, and utmost south of the North Continent, the middle-aged man began placing his view onto the upper north continent and tried to look for just who was the one who managed to awaken the yin and yang cores, intending to take a look at how his big brother's descendant looked like, and what kind of aptitude his big brother's possesses to actually had been able to awaken his big brother's innate talent, the yin and yang cores.

However, right as he placed his gaze onto the upper north continent, he could feel a chill running down his spine as he had the feeling that if he were to continue on with trying to look for just who was his big brother's descendant, his soul was going to end up being destroyed.

And for someone like him who was in the immortal realm, he was aware that his gut feeling was correct most of the time, and thus, without any hesitation, he closed his eyes and stopped gazing into the portal.

After what seemed like a few minutes of silence, the middle-aged man couldn't help but let out a mocking laugh, seemingly to be mocking at himself, "Hah... Seems like I did all this for nothing..."

Chapter 36: Break through again

"As expected of... big brother's descendant..."

"From the looks of things... big brother's descendant isn't someone simple..."

"To possess the capability of... being able to destroy my soul..."

"It seems that I did all of that for nothing..."

"Even if I were to leave him be to himself..."

"He would have most likely be completely fine even after... the spiritual energy vortexes had disappeared..."

"Cough, cough..."

"And now that I think about it, those lowly humans..."

"Cough, cough..."

"They definitely still haven't sensed that... the yin and yang cores had come... back to life and reappeared within the cultivation world..."

"Or else... cough, cough... they would have most likely already arrived here and try to fight against me..."

"The reason I was even able to sense... that the yin and yang cores had been formed..."

"Is because I possess the same bloodline as... big brother..."

"And since I'm the... only kin of big brother's... that's still alive currently... I'm the only one who was able to sense that... big brother's descendant... had managed to form the yin and yang cores..."

"Cough, cough..."

"I guess... this habit of mine of being hasty... still hasn't changed after all these years..."

"Nonetheless, perhaps, everything that I did... may still have contributed... a slight help to that descendant...of big brother's..."

"Right now, with the remaining spiritual energy that I possess... it's time to set up a trap within the portal that leads from the... Celestial Realm, to the Lower Realm's North Continent..."

"If any of those lowly humans somehow find out about... this descendant of... big brother's..."

"I should be able to store them... for at least 20 years... with the trap that I had set up..."

Upon muttering in a low voice up to here, flames could be seen sipping out from the middle-aged man's body, and into the portal.

After what seemed like 6 minutes had passed, upon sensing that the trap that he had set up was perfect, the middle-aged man began closing the portal, and right as the portal had closed, he transformed into a phoenix once again, then hurriedly flew back into his throne room.

This time, after he had sat on his throne room and closed his eyes, the middle-aged man had no idea when will be the next time that he would be able to finally open his eyes again, or perhaps, right as he closed his eyes, there won't be a next time anymore, and instead, death may be what was going to await him next.

However, to tell the truth, he didn't regret what he had just did for his big brother's descendant.

After all, even if what he had just did was only able to help eliminate a danger that possessed a 1% chance to harm his big brother's descendant, he personally felt that it was still all worth it.

Meanwhile, on the other hand, roughly 18 minutes before the huge fissure had closed...

Sebastian himself was completely oblivious to the chaos and mess that he had ended up creating due to the ancestral blessing that he had somehow underwent just by having sex with Julia.

Right now, he was enjoying the feeling of his yin and yang cores getting stronger and stronger due to the continuous spiritual energy that was still being absorbed into his body despite the fact that his yin and yang cores had already formed completely.

Within just the span of 3 minutes, there was currently already 4 lines on each of the yin and yang cores.

And right as the fourth line had appeared on the yin and yang cores, the spiritual energy that was being absorbed into his body was now being absorbed by both his spiritual root and energy core!

And perhaps due to the fact that his dick was currently still inserted deep within Julia's pussy, a portion of the spiritual energy that was flowing into his body actually flowed toward Julia's body, followed by the spiritual energy being absorbed by Julia's spiritual root and energy core!

In just the span of a minute, both Julia and Sebastian managed to break through to the next level of their cultivation realms!

In Sebastian's case, he managed to break through from level 3 energy refining realm to level 4 energy refining realm.

And in Julia's case, she managed to break through from level 1 energy refining realm to level 2 energy refining realm.

The moment Julia had managed to break through to level 2 of energy refining realm, she immediately regained consciousness and could be seen opening her eyes while with a surprised and bewildered look on her face.

Since she herself was able to sense that she had actually managed to break through to the next level of her realm, but she herself had no idea what was it that caused her to be able to break through to the next level of her realm while she was still unconscious...

It was thus normal for her to have a surprised and bewildered look on her face right as she opened her eyes.

"Darling, what did you do...?"

"Why did my cultivation level break through to the next level while I was unconscious..."

Upon hearing Julia's voice ring out in his ears, Sebastian immediately opened his eyes, then reassured, "Shh... Baby, a good thing is currently happening to us. This is most likely a hidden effect of my special body, the sperm strengthening body. Close your eyes and don't move, let whatever that is happening to us continue on until it stops."

In truth, up till now, Sebastian was still unaware that he had managed to trigger an ancestral blessing, and everything that was currently happening was due to the ancestral reward that he had obtained from the ancestral blessing.

Currently, Sebastian felt that everything that had happened up till now was because of his special body, the sperm strengthening body.

Thus, faced with Julia's questioning, without any hesitation, Sebastian placed everything that had happened onto being a special hidden effect that his special body possesses.

Chapter 37: Julia's blowjob

Family System: Path to Immortality Begins With Marriage: Chapter 37 – Julia's blowjob

[Aptitude: Middle-quality spiritual root (Exp 0/50000)]

[Cultivation: level 4 energy refining realm (Exp 700/1000)]

12 minutes before the closure of the huge fissure...

2 minutes until the spiritual energy absorption finally comes to a stop...

It had only been less than two minutes since he had broken through to level 4 energy refining realm, and yet, if Sebastian were able to see his current stats right now, he would be able to see that he was now very close to being able to break through to level 5 energy refining realm already.

Furthermore, his lower-quality spiritual root had managed to evolve into a middle-quality spiritual root!

And right as his lower-quality spiritual had evolved into a middle-quality spiritual root, he could sense the speed in which his energy core was able to absorb spiritual energy was becoming even much faster than before!

Thus, before 30 seconds had passed since his lower-quality spiritual root had evolved into a middle-quality spiritual root, he managed to break through from level 4 energy refining realm to level 5 energy refining realm!

On the other hand, who knows whether it was coincidence or not, right when Sebastian had broken through into the next level of his realm, Julia also managed to end up breaking through to the next level of her realm, going from level 2 of energy refining realm to level 3 of energy refining realm!

"Hmm..." Right as Julia managed to break through to the next level of her realm, while with her eyes currently closed, she couldn't help but let out a light moan due to the feeling of her body getting stronger.

And after a minute and 30 seconds had passed, the absorption of the spiritual energy finally came to a stop, and as of right now, Sebastian was able to sense that his energy core was actually filled up pretty well, and that it shouldn't take too long for him to accumulate enough experience points in order to break through to the level 6 of energy refining realm.

[Cultivation: level 5 energy refining realm (Exp 1200/1500)]

Worth noting, during the past minute and 30 seconds, both Sebastian and Julia had heard the deep voice of a man ringing out within their eardrums, however, because they didn't sense the spiritual pressure that was being emitted out from the Celestial Realm and the man that was speaking from the opposite side of the Celestial Realm, they merely thought that it was just some random man grumbling extremely loudly while flying past the Lisandris Family's manor.

After all, the man merely spoke a few words before his voice disappeared completely.

As for the reason that both Sebastian and Julia weren't able to sense the spiritual pressure that was being emitted out from both the Celestial Realm and the man, it was most likely because their bedroom was filled with an inconsiderable amount of spiritual energy, and furthermore, the spiritual energy was actually the spiritual energy that was scattered throughout the air and earth, which thus help added another layer of protection in helping to deflect away the spiritual pressure.

Shortly after sensing that the spiritual energy had stopped entering into their bodies, both Julia and Sebastian could be seen opening their eyes at the same time.

And the moment Sebastian opened his eyes, and his eyes came into contact with Julia's eyes, he could see that Julia's eyes were currently filled with incomparable affection toward him.

"Julia, I..."

Before Sebastian was even able to finish his sentence, Julia suddenly embraced her arms around Sebastian's neck, then pulled Sebastian's body into her embrace, pressed her cherry-like lips onto Sebastian's lips and began French kissing fervently with Sebastian.

"Hmm... Slurp... slurp...!"

After just a minute of fervent French kissing, seemingly to feel that just French kissing alone wasn't enough to express the affection and love that she currently was feeling for her husband...

While hugging onto Sebastian's neck with her arms, Julia suddenly exerted strength into her legs, then flipped Sebastian's body over to the side of the bed.

Looking at them right now, Julia body was currently positioned above Sebastian's body, while Sebastian was lying down on the bed with his back.

"What are you trying..."

"Shh... Darling, let me serve upon you. I really love you to death! I am so blessed to be able to become your wife..."

Right before Sebastian was able to finish speaking his sentence, Julia cut Sebastian off once again, as she could be seen placing her right index finger onto Sebastian's lips, followed by hushing him.

And right as Julia finished speaking while with both her eyes and tone filled with immense affection toward Sebastian...

Julia began taking out the dick that was within her pussy, then began crawling backward, all the way until she arrived at the front of Sebastian's dick and was kneeling in front of Sebastian's crotch area.

Right as Julia kneeled in front of Sebastian's dick, without any hesitation, Julia grabbed onto the base of the dick with her right hand, then began lowering her head downward.

Right as her lips arrived on top of the tip of Sebastian's current completely erected dick, Julia raised her eyes upward and shyly took a glance at Sebastian, and upon seeing that Sebastian currently had an extremely surprised look on her face, yet at the same time, a look of anticipation within his eyes, evidently because he was currently feeling extremely surprised as to how assertive Julia was currently being, while at the same time, actually anticipating that what he actually think Julia was about to do was really going to happen for real...

Julia's face could be seen immediately turning flushed red as she hurriedly lowered her eyes and looked toward the glans that was currently painted with the mixture of her pussy's liquid and Sebastian's semen.

However, despite the fact that most women would find such a scene to be disgusting and off putting, because of the intense feeling of affection that Julia was currently feeling for Sebastian right now within her heart, right as Julia's eyes came into contact with Sebastian's glans that not only was painted with the mixture of pussy juice and dick semen, but was also emitting a rather foul smelling smell, Julia didn't hesitate for even a slight moment as she opened her cherry-like plump lips and took the dick into her mouth.

"Ah... Fuck..." The moment Sebastian sensed that Julia's alluring and sexy cherry-like lips pressed and squeezed onto his glans, he immediately couldn't help but let out a loud groan, followed by cursing out loudly due to how intense the pleasure he was currently feeling was.

A while ago, Sebastian had thought that there was nothing better in life than the feeling of either breaking through to the next level of his cultivation realm, or cumming deep inside a woman who he loves...

But right now, despite having only just experienced a few seconds of Julia taking the initiative to pleasure his dick with her lips, Sebastian immediately decided that perhaps, there may still be plenty other extremely enjoyable things in life that he hasn't experienced in his life, and that it was arrogant of him to assume that breaking through to the next level of cultivation and cumming deep inside a woman who he loves would be the best things to experience in life.

Meanwhile, when Julia heard the loud groan that Sebastian had let out right when she had pressed and squeezed her lips onto his glans...

Feeling encouraged, Julia began rocking her head back and forth at a rather fast speed, while continuously pressing her lips and squeezing her lips as hard as she possibly could onto the glans.

Although the speed in which Julia was rocking her head back and forth was rather fast, however, because Julia was merely rocking her head back and forth slightly, only Sebastian's glans was being stimulated by Julia's lips and mouth.

However, just the stimulation and pleasure that Sebastian was currently feeling coming from his glans were more than enough to make Sebastian feel like he was in heaven.

And within just 5 minutes since Julia had began rocking her head back and forth, Sebastian couldn't help but let out a loud moan, followed by shouting out loudly, "Fuck...! The pleasure is too much! Julia, darling, I'm about to cum! You can take my dick out from your..."

Chapter 38: Getting addicted to Julia

"Julia, darling, I'm about to cum! You can take my dick out from your..."

Because Sebastian was aware that this was Julia's first time giving a blowjob, he didn't want to cum inside of Julia's mouth as he felt that it would be too much for Julia to handle in one session of blowjob, thus, right when he was about to cum, he immediately informed Julia to take his dick out from her mouth.

However, to the utmost of Sebastian's surprise...

Before Sebastian had even finished uttering out the last word, which was "mouth"...

Julia actually began sucking even harder onto his glans, and furthermore, even began extending her tongue forward and rubbing her tongue onto the glans that was entering in and out of her mouth while making a circular motion with her tongue.

In Julia's point of view...

When Julia heard what Sebastian was saying to her, Julia immediately understood what Sebastian was intending to say to her when she heard the word "out" came out from Sebastian's mouth, and thus, immediately, Julia became touched by Sebastian care for her, which made her yearn even more to pleasure Sebastian to the utmost best that she could possibly could.

Thus, without any shame or hesitation, instead of moving her lips and mouth away from Sebastian's glans, Julia began sucking even harder onto the glans instead, while at the same time, began using her tongue to pleasure onto the glans.

"Slurp...! Slurp...! Slurp...!"

Looking at Julia's cheeks that were sunken inward of her mouth, it was evident just how hard she was actually sucking onto Sebastian's glans with both her lips and mouth.

It must be said, there was a kind of strange feelings of excitement and lust that would start appearing in a man's body and heart when a woman who was the kind that was usually elegant and gentle take the initiative to act so slutty solely for the sake of pleasing and pleasuring her man to the upmost best that she could possibly could.

In Sebastian's point of view, although the stimulation and pleasure that came from Julia's sucking hard onto his glans with both her lips and mouth, while at the same time, using her tongue to rub in a circular motion onto his glans that was constantly entering in and out of her mouth were indeed extremely pleasurable and made him felt excited...

What truly made his blood to begin boiling, and even his spine to go numb for a second due to how fast his heart was suddenly beating...

Was when he saw that Julia was looking tenderly and affectionately at him by having her eyes raised upward while she continued on with sucking hard onto his dick.

Julia's face that was usually beautiful yet innocent and gentle looking... Her cheeks were currently incredibly caved in due to how hard she was sucking onto his dick, causing the innocent and gentle look that she possessed on her face to become completely ruined and instead turned into the look that a depraved slut possesses...

However, although the gentle look was no longer on her face, the gentle look could still be found within Julia's gaze that was filled with gentleness and affection.

"Slurp...! Slurp...! Slurp...!"

Immediately, upon seeing the extremely sexy and enticing scenery that was before his eyes, and pairing that scenery with the loud sexy slurping sounds that were being produced due to how hard Julia was sucking onto his glans...

Sebastian couldn't hold himself back anymore as he grabbed onto Julia's head with his hands, then thrust his waist upward and came to an orgasm.

Immediately upon arriving at an orgasm, semen immediately began shooting out from Sebastian's glans and into Julia's mouth.

"Ah! Julia, my baby, I'm cumming!"

"Hmm..."

Despite feeling that the semen that was being shot into her mouth tasted a little foul, Julia didn't frown or show any discomfort on her face, and instead, she merely let out a light groan, then continued looking gently and affectionately into Sebastian's eyes, and even while Sebastian's dick was shooting out semen into her mouth, she didn't stop rubbing her tongue onto the dick.

The way in which her tongue was coiling and rubbing gently around the dick was as if she was gently comforting the dick and making sure that the dick would be able to shoot out all of its cum into her mouth.

After what seemed like half a minute had passed, upon sensing that he was done cumming, Sebastian's waist could be seen collapsing back on the bed, causing his back to be lying down flat on the bed once again.

"Hah... hah..."

With his eyes closed, Sebastian couldn't help but pant for breath.

Shortly after Sebastian was done catching for his breath, Sebastian opened his eyes, then said gently as he looked toward Julia, "Julia, you can stop already, I'm done cumming."

Upon hearing what Sebastian said, then did Julia finally stopped gently licking and sucking lightly onto Sebastian's glans.

From the way in which Julia was gently licking and sucking onto the glans despite the fact that his dick was actually already done shooting out all of its semen into her mouth, it was as if Julia was giving after care toward his dick by giving his dick a gentle massage.

If Julia continued on treating him so nicely and gently while she was serving upon him in bed, Sebastian felt that he was going to become addicted to Julia, and in the future, when he get married to other women, he won't be able to become satisfied in bed with those other women unless those women learned and followed the way in which Julia acted while Julia was passionately serving upon him in bed.

"Slurp... Pop...!"

"Mwah!"

Right before Julia took Sebastian's dick out from her mouth, Julia gave one last hard suck onto the glans, causing a loud popping sound to ring out right when the glans was spat out from her mouth, and right as the dick was spat out from her mouth, she pressed her lips onto the glans and gave a hard smooch onto the glans, then finally raised her head and looked gently into Sebastian's eyes.

Chapter 39: Julia's swallow

A while ago, Sebastian was already feeling rather surprised when Julia actually took the initiative to make him cum while his dick was still within her mouth, allowing all of his cum to be shot into her mouth, despite the fact that he had actually notified her to take his dick out of her mouth right when he sensed that he was about to cum since he knew that it was Julia's first time giving a blowjob, and he felt that it would be too much for Julia if he were to cum and shoot all of his semen into her mouth during Julia's first time of giving a blowjob.

However, to Sebastian's utmost surprise, Julia's following action made him felt even more surprised, especially when he connect to the fact that Julia didn't seem to be the kind of woman who would be extremely assertive when it comes to sex.

Right after Julia spat out Sebastian's dick from her mouth, then gave a hard smooch onto Sebastian's glans...

And while looking gently into Sebastian's eyes with her eyes full of affection, Julia opened her mouth and showed Sebastian her mouth that was currently filled with cum.

"Ah..." Right as Julia opened her mouth, Julia let out a mutter as she slightly stretched out her tongue, and looking at her tongue, a bunch of white color liquid could be seen to have covered onto her tongue, and at the middle of her tongue was an obvious pool of semen.

Right upon seeing Julia's action, Sebastian thought that Julia wanted to spit out the semen that was in her mouth, and thus, without hesitation, he extended out his right hand and placed his palm right in front of Julia's mouth, "Here, you can spit it out on my hand."

However, faced with Sebastian's gesture, Julia actually shook her head, evidently showing Sebastian that she either didn't want to spit out the semen onto his hand as she felt that it would be dirty to spit out the semen onto his hand and didn't want to dirty his hand, or perhaps, she didn't intend to spit out the semen at all.

As for whether it was the former or the latter, it didn't take long for Sebastian to realize it was the latter.

After all, right after Julia shook her head, Julia retracted her tongue back into her mouth and closed her mouth...

And right upon closing her mouth, Julia's face could be seen turning red as she looked silently at Sebastian for a few seconds while with a shy look on her face, seemingly to be feeling embarrassed about what she was about to do next.

After looking silently at Sebastian for a few seconds, Julia suddenly closed her eyes, then tilted her head upward slightly and began swallowing all of the semen that was within her mouth into her stomach, "Gulp...!"

And because the semen tasted much fishier than she had expected, right when Julia began swallowing all of the semen into her stomach, she couldn't help but wrinkle her brows slightly, causing a slight frown to appear on her forehead.

However, despite feeling like she was going to heave due to how fishy the semen was, Julia didn't hesitate or pause when swallowing all of the semen that was in her mouth down her throat, and into her stomach.

And right after Julia had swallowed down all of the semen into her stomach, Julia opened both her eyes and mouth once again.

While looking into Sebastian's eyes, Julia opened her mouth as wide as she possibly could, so that Sebastian could clearly see the entirety of the inside of her mouth, "Ah..."

"Darling, look, I swallowed all of your cum into my stomach..."

Meanwhile, upon seeing everything that unfolded before his eyes, Sebastian's dick that just cummed a moment ago immediately began getting hard once again.

And possibly because Sebastian had just broken through a total of 3 levels of his current realm within such a short span of time, whereby he went from level 2 energy refining realm to level 5 energy refining realm in less than an hour time...

Sebastian could feel that his body was currently filled with endless energy.

Thus, although he had just ejaculated, when his dick began getting erected again due to seeing how sexy and alluring Julia was acting, it only took 20 seconds for his dick to become completely erected.

Upon seeing that her husband's dick had become completely erected once again, a look of surprise appeared on Julia's face, and immediately after, while with a shy look on her face, Julia moved her gaze away from the erected dick and onto Sebastian's eyes, then said shyly in a low voice.

"Darling, your dick... it got hard again..."

"Do you want to do it again...?"

Although Julia was being shy...

Looking at the look of anticipation that was filled within both of her eyes, it was evident that Julia was looking forward to having another round of sex with Sebastian.

Similar to Sebastian, because Julia had managed to break through 2 levels of her cultivation realm, whereby she went from level 1 of energy refining realm to level 3 of energy refining realm, Julia currently felt that her body was filled with endless energy.

And with that endless energy that she had within her body right now, paired with the incomparable feeling of excitement due to learning of the fact that her husband's special body, which was the sperm strengthening body, was not only able to enable her to reproduce children that possess spiritual roots, but also was able to help increase her cultivation...

Julia felt that she had to have another round of sex with Sebastian to be able to vent out all of her feeling of excitement.

Upon hearing what Julia said, Sebastian hesitated for a moment, "Is your body able to handle going for another round...?"

Faced with Sebastian's question, Julia...

Chapter 40: What do you think of marrying my big sister?

Faced with Sebastian's question, Julia said confidently while with a confident look on her face, "Of course! Because I broke through from level 1 to level 3 of energy refining realm, I feel like my body is currently filled with endless energy!"

"Right now, I feel that I'm able to go for at least 3 more rounds of sex with you and I won't even feel exhausted!"

"Darling, let me service your... your dick with my mouth first!"

Upon speaking up to here, Julia held onto the base of Sebastian's dick once again with her right hand, then without any hesitation, lowered her head and took in Sebastian's dick into her mouth once again.

And this time, instead of just focusing onto the glans of Sebastian's dick, Julia took in as much of Sebastian's dick as she possibly could, all the way until the dick reached into the back of her mouth, and to the point of nearing her throat, then moved her head backward, until only the tip the glans remained in her mouth.

Just like this, Julia began sucking onto Sebastian's dick.

Every time when Julia retracted her head backward, all the way until only the tip of the glans remained in her mouth, she would pause for a few seconds and use her tongue to rub all around the glans...

And it was unknown to Sebastian just where Julia learned such a move from, or if Julia did it unknowingly, or if she actually learned to do it just after a single time of giving blowjob to him, but every time after Julia was done rubbing her tongue all around his glans...

Right before she moved her head downward and took his dick into her mouth once again, she would slide her tongue to the middle of his glans, then press the tip of her tongue onto the urethra of his glans, seemingly as if she was intending to push the tip of her tongue into the extremely tiny hole of his urethra...

And every time that happened, Sebastian couldn't help but feel a slight chill running down his spine and let out a light moan, especially when paired with the pleasurable sensation that he had never experienced or felt before coming from his balls.

While Julia was doing all of that with her mouth and tongue to pleasure Sebastian's dick, her left hand was gently rubbing and massaging onto his left testicle, followed by his right testicle, alternating between each testicle every time after what seemed like 10 seconds had passed, while her right hand was merely holding onto the base of the dick to make sure that the dick remained still.

However, although her right hand wasn't doing much, when looking closely at her right hand, her thumb could be seen gently pressing and massaging onto a seemingly huge vein that ran from the base of the dick to the top part of the dick, and even though what Julia was doing with her thumb doesn't seem to be much, this action of hers did add a great amount of pleasure toward the pleasure that Sebastian was experiencing right now.

"Ah... fuck... Julia, where did you learn all of these from... It feels so fucking good... I feel like I am in heaven right now... I love you to death, Julia..."

While with his eyes closed, Sebastian couldn't help but moan continuously. And in truth, just after 5 minutes of experiencing Julia's insanely pleasurable blowjob and handjob, Sebastian was already feeling like he was close to cumming, despite the fact that he had already just cummed a while ago.

However, was Sebastian to be blamed? The answer was naturally no.

This was after all Sebastian's first time experiencing such pleasure, whereby 5 different spots of his lower body, his urethra, glans, dick's main vein, testicles, and dick's body were continuously sending pleasure signals to his brain.

Meanwhile, although Julia was busy pleasuring Sebastian's dick, Julia's eyes could be seen to be fixed onto Sebastian's face, trying to make sure that everything that she was doing was contributing to bringing pleasure to Sebastian, and that she wasn't causing any discomfort to Sebastian, especially since it was her first time massaging onto both the testicles and dick's main vein with her hands, and there was a chance that she might exert too much force into her hands and cause discomfort to her darling husband.

Upon hearing what Sebastian said to her, Julia immediately spat the dick out from her mouth, however, right before she spat the dick out from her mouth, she could be seen giving one hard suck onto the glans first.

"Slurp...!"

"Pop...!"

Right as the dick was spat out from Julia's mouth, a loud popping sound rang out within the bedroom due to how hard Julia sucked onto the glans right before spitting the glans out from her mouth.

With the dick out of her mouth, Julia continued on with whatever that she was doing with her hands, but this time, as for what she was doing with her mouth...

Due to the fact that she currently had to use her mouth to speak, she was merely licking her tongue onto Sebastian's glans from time to time whenever she had the time to do so.

"Darling, do you remember my big sister, Miuna Lisandris? Slurp..." Right after Julia had just finished her sentence, she immediately began licking onto the dick's glans once again, seemingly not wanting to waste any time on not pleasuring onto the dick that was before her eyes.

"Ah... Yeah, I do. What about her?"

"I was able to learn all of these things that I'm doing to pleasure you right now because of her. Slurp..."

"Is that so? Seems like I'm going to have to prepare a gift for her as thanks, huh?"

"Slurp... Darling, what do you think of marrying my big sister too?"

"Hmm...?"
