Chapter 81: Veronica and Vanessa, Sebastian's future wives

"Great grandpa... There's something I want to talk to you about first before we head into my house."

Right as Julia's voice rang out, everyone could be seen moving their head over to Julia's direction, and after Julia was done speaking...

Coril could be seen raising his brow as he let out a groan, then said leisurely, "Hmm? What is it that you want to speak to me about? Go on, speak your mind."

Right before speaking, Julia took a quick glance at Miuna, then said to Coril while with a somewhat nervous tone to her voice, "Well... It is regarding the matter of you picking a few women from the Lisandris Family for Sebastian to marry..."

"I was thinking, before you start picking the women that you feel would be best for Sebastian to marry to... Would you mind letting my big sister, Miuna, marry Sebastian too...? And also, if possible, allow her to marry Sebastian at an earlier time than the other women that you will be picking to marry Sebastian...?"

While speaking, Julia was carefully judging Coril's expression, and when she saw that a slight frown had appeared on Coril's forehead when she mentioned to Coril about letting her big sister marry Sebastian too, a bad feeling immediately appeared in her gut.

And as expected of the bad feeling that she had felt appearing in her gut, right as she had finished speaking, Coril could be seen having a deep frown on his face, evidently to not be fond of the idea of letting Miuna marry Sebastian, and even furthermore, allowing Miuna to marry Sebastian at an earlier time than the other women that he will personally be picking to marry Sebastian.

After all, those few women that he was going to be picking to marry Sebastian...

One of those few women was going to be Veronica Lisandris, a golden core realm cultivator, and most importantly, a weapon enchanter at that!

And the other one of those few women was going to be Vanessa Lisandris, a woman who was not only Veronica Lisandris's daughter, but also a direct disciple of Elder Zhi!

Since Julia was married to Sebastian before Sebastian had even managed to awaken his sperm strengthening body, and was in paper, "responsible" for helping Sebastian to awaken his sperm strengthening body...

It was fine that a mere energy refining realm cultivator who possesses the cultivation aptitude of lower-quality spiritual root was going to be Sebastian's main wife, and thus ends up having a higher position than both of them right after they have become married to Sebastian...

But if Veronica were to come to find out that, Coril knowingly allowed Miuna, another mere energy refining realm cultivator who possesses the cultivation aptitude of lower-quality spiritual root, to marry Sebastian before both her daughter and herself had even married Sebastian, and thus making so that there would be another person who was going to be in a higher position than them...

Coril was sure that Veronica was going to end up making one hell of a scene.

This was why, right as Julia finished speaking, Coril was intending to open his mouth to reject Julia's request of letting Miuna marry Sebastian.

Though, of course, that wasn't really the main reason as to why Coril didn't want Miuna to marry Sebastian.

After all, even if he were to let Miuna marry Sebastian, and Veronica were to find out about that, Coril was still confident that Veronica would still choose to marry Sebastian.

As someone who possesses much more information about the special bodies than people like Dave did, mainly thanks to the fact that he possesses the rights to access the top floor of Bright Moon Sect's library, Coril understood all too well the enticement of being able to marry to a cultivator who possesses the sperm strengthening body.

And since Veronica was also a golden core realm cultivator, which means that she also possesses the rights to enter the library's top floor and gain access to further information about the special bodies, it was evident that Veronica herself would understand just how incredibly lucky and fortunate it would be for both her and her daughter if they were to be able to marry Sebastian.

Thus, once Veronica learns that Sebastian possesses the sperm strengthening body, even if she had come to find out that Coril had allowed Miuna to marry Sebastian before both her and her daughter, Veronica would at most make a huge scene, but in the end, together with her daughter, Vanessa, she would definitely still choose to marry Sebastian.

The main reason as to why Coril didn't want Miuna to marry Sebastian was because that Coril didn't want to have another woman who possesses the aptitude of lower-quality spiritual root marry Sebastian.

Or, at the least, just at this current stage, where Sebastian was still just an energy refining realm cultivator, Coril didn't want Sebastian to marry anymore women who doesn't possess the aptitude of at the least, top-quality spiritual root.

After all, only by marrying women who possesses high quality spiritual roots, then would the children that will be born will have the chance of possessing high quality spiritual roots!

And at this current stage, since it would be best for Sebastian to not marry too many women and give birth to too many children as it would cause suspicions to arise, the best course of action was to allow Sebastian to only marry women who possess spiritual roots that were of at the least top-quality, so that the children that would be born would have a high chance of possessing high quality spiritual roots!

Of course, when rejecting Julia's request, Coril wasn't going to tell her the main reason as to why he didn't want to let Miuna marry Sebastian, and instead, he was going to use Veronica as the reason, so that he doesn't end up decreasing Miuna's fondness toward him.

After letting out a deep sigh, Coril looked over to Miuna and gave an apologetic look to Miuna, then turned his head back to Julia and said...

Chapter 82: I will allow it!

"Julia, I would love to let Miuna marry Sebastian, but..."

Right as Coril was about to reject Julia's request of letting Miuna marry Sebastian...

Before Coril was even able to finish his sentence...

Seemingly to be aware that Coril was about to reject her request, especially since she had saw Coril gave an apologetic look to Miuna, which if Coril was going to allow Miuna to marry Sebastian, why would he bother giving an apologetic look to Miuna?

This was why, the moment Julia heard Coril said "but", she immediately knew that Coril was going to reject her request in the next moment, and thus, in hopes that what she would say next was going to be able to change Coril's mind, Julia immediately opened her mouth and cut off Coril from speaking.

"Great grandpa! Before I had even become married to Sebastian, Uncle Dave had already intended to marry both me and Miuna to Sebastian, although, the condition was that Sebastian had to be able to break through to becoming an official talisman crafter in the next few years, then would Miuna become married to Sebastian too!"

"Which is why, when Sebastian had awakened his special body..."

"Because I felt that since the sperm strengthening body was much better than breaking through to becoming an official talisman, Miuna would definitely be allowed to marry Sebastian after I had told Uncle Dave that Sebastian had awakened the sperm strengthening body..."

"I ended up telling Miuna's situation and Uncle Dave's plans to Sebastian!"

"And thus, Sebastian is already aware that Uncle Dave had intended to let him marry Miuna once he had broken through to becoming an official talisman crafter, and Sebastian had already told me that he doesn't mind marrying Miuna too!"

"In actuality, the reason that I brought Miuna with me to Uncle Dave's house was not to only just tell Uncle Dave about Sebastian's situation, but to also get Uncle Dave to help set up the marriage between Sebastian and Miuna, since both Sebastian and Miuna don't mind marrying each other!"

"So, Great Grandpa Coril, can you please allow Miuna to marry Sebastian too? And furthermore... allow Miuna to become Sebastian's second wife...?"

Right after Julia finished speaking, Julia looked silently at Coril while with a pleading look on her face.

While looking at the pleading look that Julia had on her face, Coril took quick glances at both Miuna and Dave.

On Dave's face, Dave had an awkward look on his face as he immediately averted Coril's gaze when he saw Coril's eyes moving over to him.

While on Miuna's face, Miuna could be seen having a hopeful look on her face, hoping that Coril would be able to find it in his heart to allow her to marry Sebastian too.

In actuality, Miuna initially thought that her marrying Sebastian was basically something that was going to happen no matter what, which was why she was filled with excitement during all this time.

However, only when Julia brought up the topic of letting her marry Sebastian to Coril, and upon seeing Coril's reaction, did she realize that things may actually not be going as she had expected.

After all, looking at the frown that was on Coril's face, anyone was able to tell that Coril didn't seem to be fond of the idea of her marrying Sebastian.

Thus, in truth, Miuna's heart and mind were actually beginning to be filled with despair, and the despair was about to reach its peak when Miuna heard the word "but" coming out from Coril's mouth.

As for why Miuna would be so despair toward not being able to marry Sebastian...

If it were not for the fact that she had basically given up on trying to break through to becoming an official talisman crafter after she had learned of Sebastian's sperm strengthening body from Julia...

And furthermore, was already planning to focus all of her attention onto Sebastian, as it was evident to her that Sebastian was going to be able to help her climb toward a position that was higher than any position that she would ever be able to attain even if she were to manage to break through to becoming an official talisman crafter...

Perhaps, Miuna may not had felt such a huge amount of despair.

Fortunately for Miuna, right when she was filled with utter despair...

For the sake of her big sister, Julia actually had the guts to cut off Coril from speaking and began trying her best to change Coril's mind.

When Miuna saw Julia cut Coril off and began trying her best to make Coril change his mind, the despair that had filled Miuna's heart and mind immediately began dissipating at an incredibly high speed, and instead, the feeling of gratitude and familial love began filling Miuna's heart and mind.

"Sigh... I guess, things just don't go well for me no matter what happen..."

"But no matter! Even if I'm unable to marry Sebastian, I will still try my best to help solidate Julia's position as Sebastian's main wife!"

These were the thoughts that appeared in Miuna's mind as she watched Julia try her best to change Coril's mind.

Of course, despite those thoughts, if possible, Miuna would much prefer if she were able to marry Sebastian, and thus, right as Julia finished speaking, she could be seen having a hopeful look on her face as she looked at Coril and waited for Coril's answer.

After a moment of silence, that seemed to be about 30 seconds worth of silence...

Coril broke the silence by first letting out a sigh.

"Sigh..."

Upon hearing the sigh, a sad and disappointed look immediately appeared on both Julia and Miuna's faces as they both thought that Coril was still fixed on his initial thought.

However, shortly after, a huge look of surprise appeared on both Julia and Miuna's faces when they heard the following words that came out from Coril's mouth!

"If Sebastian is fine with marrying Miuna, I will allow it! Even if some other people may become upset when they learned that I allowed Miuna to marry Sebastian!"

Chapter 83: Small and discreet wedding ceremonies

Shortly after hearing Coril said that he was fine with Miuna marrying Sebastian...

Julia was the first to come back to her senses from her shock as she quickly bowed at Coril and said gratefully, "Thank you so much, great grandpa!"

And right after Julia was done speaking, upon sensing that Miuna wasn't speaking, Julia moved her eyes over to Miuna, and immediately, upon seeing that Miuna still had a shock look on her face and still haven't come back to her senses, Julia hurriedly grabbed onto Miuna's arm and shook onto Miuna's arm.

Sure enough, right after Julia shook onto Miuna's arm, Miuna immediately came back to her senses, and just as Julia did, Miuna hurriedly bowed at Coril, and with her tone evidently filled with incomparable excitement and gratitude, she shouted out loudly, "Thank you so much, Ancestor Coril!"

Right as Miuna gave her thanks to Coril, an unhappy look appeared on Coril's face as he said with a grave voice, "Miuna! Why are you calling me Ancestor Coril when I'm your great grandpa?"

"Julia is addressing me as Great Grandpa Coril, while you are addressing me as Ancestor Coril. If one didn't know better, they might think I am purposely mistreating you or showing bias to your little sister!"

"So, just like Julia, you should be calling me Great Grandpa Coril too! Understand?"

Upon hearing what Coril said to her, Miuna's heart was immediately filled with elation, and without hesitation, Miuna hurriedly call out to Coril as Great Grandpa Coril, instead of Ancestor Coril.

"Great Grandpa Coril!"

Of course, although Miuna felt very happy that Coril actually allowed her to address him as Great Grandpa Coril...

Miuna was completely aware that the only reason Coril suddenly allowed her to address him as Great Grandpa Coril instead of Ancestor Coril was because it was now confirmed that she would be marrying Sebastian too!

Otherwise, there was no way Coril would even bother paying much attention to her and even allowed her to address him casually as Great Grandpa Coril.

Therefore, despite the fact that Coril seemed to be acting very friendly to her, Miuna was aware that she shouldn't treat Coril's friendliness toward her too seriously, and that she should still speak as respectfully to him as she did before while speaking to him.

"Hahaha! That's right, that's right! This sounds way much better!"

After letting out a hearty laugh and nodding his head in satisfaction, Coril asked while looking at both Miuna and Julia, "So, have you all decided on the date of the wedding ceremony yet, or is nothing planned out yet?"

Upon hearing Coril's question, Julia was the one to open her mouth and gave an answer, "Great grandpa, both Sebastian and I felt that it would be best for Sebastian to be able to marry Miuna as soon as possible, so, I was initially thinking that..."

"If it was possible, the wedding ceremony can be held either tomorrow, or the day after tomorrow if holding the wedding ceremony tomorrow would be too rushed."

"Of course, since great grandpa you are here right now, and you are the most knowledgeable and wisest amongst all of us, I'm fine with letting you decide on the date of the wedding ceremony between Sebastian and Miuna, and I'm sure Sebastian himself would be fine with it too!"

With a smile on his face, Coril couldn't help but shake his head as he said helplessly, "You, you, you... Where did you learn to be so glib-tongued?"

"In any case, since you and Sebastian are both fine with holding the wedding ceremony either tomorrow or the day after tomorrow, and both of you feel that it would be best for the wedding ceremony to be held as soon as possible, we will hold the wedding ceremony tomorrow then!"

"With me overseeing the entire wedding ceremony, there is going to be more than ample time even if we were to hold the wedding ceremony tomorrow afternoon!"

Upon speaking up to here, Coril put a solemn look on his face and said with a serious tone to his voice, "However, just so that the two of you know..."

"Since Sebastian has awakened his special body, the sperm strengthening body..."

"For the sake of not attracting too much of other people's attention onto Sebastian, all of Sebastian's wedding ceremonies from now onward will be held as discreetly as possible, as in, we won't be sending wedding invitations to any of our associates, thereby, no one who is not a part of the Lisandris Family will be invited to Sebastian's wedding ceremonies."

"Therefore, the wedding ceremony that will be held tomorrow will just be a small and discreet one, and there won't be many guests attending the wedding ceremony."

"Of course, Miuna, to make it up to you for the various wedding gifts you will miss out from our various associates who we would normally invite to the wedding ceremonies that we hold, I will make sure to prepare a huge wedding gift for both you and Sebastian!"

Upon hearing what Coril said, Miuna hurriedly said, "Great Grandpa Coril, you don't have to prepare a huge wedding gift for the sake of appeasing me! I'm already more than grateful about the fact that I'm even allowed to marry Sebastian! Therefore..."

Right before Miuna was able to finish speaking, Coril cut her off, then said with a resolute tone to his voice, "No, the huge wedding gift is a must."

"Look, Miuna, you aren't going to be the only one to receive a huge wedding gift from me. In the future, when various other women are marrying Sebastian... During their wedding ceremonies, I will also be preparing huge wedding gifts for them too."

"Therefore, Miuna, you don't have to feel uneasy about receiving this huge gift from me."

"And in any case, this huge gift is not just for you, but also for Sebastian too!"

Upon speaking up to here, Coril said with a teasing tone, "Miuna, you wouldn't want Sebastian to miss out on obtaining a bunch of cultivation resources, would you?"

Chapter 84: Essence of one of the four divinity beasts

Upon hearing what Coril said, especially the parts where Coril said that the huge gifts would be something that all Sebastian's future wives will be able to obtain from Coril, and that the huge gift was a gift to not only her, but to Sebastian too...

Miuna immediately stopped feeling uneasy about receiving the huge gift from Coril as she bowed to Coril once again and gave another thanks to Coril to show her gratitude.

"I got it, great grandpa! Thank you again, great grandpa!"

Faced with Miuna's thanks, Coril simply let out a laugh, then said to everyone, "Alright, come on, let's head on into the house so that I can finally meet with Sebastian already."

Upon hearing what Coril said, Julia immediately opened the gate, then began leading everyone into her and Sebastian's house.

Shortly after Julia's had opened the door to her house and all of them had entered into the house...

It didn't take them too long to come across Sebastian when they arrived at the living room.

When Sebastian first came into their vision, Sebastian could be seen to be sitting at the dinner table that was located at the kitchen, and looking at Sebastian, he was fiddling around with what seemed to be the various parts of a chicken, which had been laid out onto a white color porcelain round plate that had blue color flower patterns engraved onto it.

On the plate, a chicken wing, a drumstick, breast meat, thigh meat, and the carcass of a chicken that had no meat on it could be seen to be laying on a plate.

Looking at Sebastian's face, he could be seen to have an extremely curious look on his face as he examined closely onto the various chicken parts that were on the plate, seemingly as if there was something extremely interesting or unique about the various chicken parts.

In actuality, it has been more than over 10 minutes since Sebastian had been examining onto the various chicken parts...

And the reason that caused Sebastian's weird action to come around was because...

Roughly 15 minutes ago, after getting out from the bath and feeling that there was nothing much for him to do, Sebastian decided to head to the kitchen and have a bowl of chicken ginseng soup to replenish his energy and hunger.

However, right as he arrived at the kitchen and saw the bowl of chicken ginseng soup that Julia had left on the table, his four divinity beasts reconstruction technique suddenly began revolving at high speed, and right as his four divinity beasts reconstruction technique began evolving at high speed, he immediately felt the urge to consume the entire bowl of chicken ginseng soup before him.

Or to be more precise, he felt the urge to consume all of the chicken meat that was in the bowl before him!

And since Sebastian's proficiency of the four divinity beasts reconstruction technique was at the highest proficiency, which was perfect, it was only natural that Sebastian would have a complete understanding of the four divinity beasts reconstruction technique.

Thus, when Sebastian felt the urge to consume all of the chicken meat that was in the bowl of chicken ginseng soup, he immediately knew that the urge that had appeared in his body was because the chicken meat that was in the bowl of chicken ginseng soup actually possesses the essence of one of the four divinity beasts!

A mere chicken, which evidently wasn't even a wild beast or magical beast, and was just a mere normal animal... Actually possesses the essence of one of the four divinity beasts?!

"What the hell?! Aren't the four divinity beasts supposed to be some kind of incredibly rare creatures? Even if it's a creature that somehow possesses an incredibly small amount of one of the four divinity beasts' bloodline, the creature should at the least be a wild beast or magical beast, right...?"

"So, why do a mere normal chicken actually possesses the bloodline of one of the four divinity beasts?!"

Sebastian mumbled to himself while with an incredibly curious and surprised look on his face as he used a spoon to scoop out a piece of chicken meat from the bowl of chicken ginseng soup.

After inspecting closely onto the piece of chicken meat for a bit and coming to the conclusion that the piece of chicken meat looked no different from that of a normal chicken meat, Sebastian opened his mouth and put the chicken meat into his mouth.

"Yeah... This tastes exactly as I expected... The taste of chicken meat and ginseng..."

Sebastian thought to himself as he chewed and swallowed the piece of chicken meat into his stomach.

But right when the piece of chicken meat entered into his stomach, the four divinity beasts reconstruction technique revolved a single cycle around his meridians, and in the next moment, he could sense that the piece of chicken meat had been refined completely into an extremely, extremely, extremely tiny bit of essence.

Right as the extremely tiny bit of essence appeared, the four divinity beasts reconstruction technique revolved another cycle around his meridians, and this time, as the technique revolved, he could sense the essence moving toward his spine...

And as the essence entered into his spine...!

"Hmm...?"

"What...? Why do I feel nothing at all?"

"Is there a problem with the essence or something...? Why don't I feel anything after absorbing the essence into my spine...?"

Sebastian muttered to himself with an extremely confused look on his face.

"Perhaps... it's because there's not enough essence...?"

Right upon muttering that to himself in a low voice, Sebastian decided to finish all of the meat that was within the bowl.

And shortly after finishing all of the meat that was in the bowl...

"Huh...? Why do I still feel nothing after absorbing all of those essence into my spine...?"

"Ah! That's right! I should take a look at the system stats tab, maybe there's a change to the technique's description...?"

Right after muttering that, without any hesitation, Sebastian decided to check on his stats tab.

Chapter 85: First part, thoracic spine

"System, open the stats tab on the system screen."

"Hmm... There's no change to neither my aptitude's experience points nor my cultivation's experience points..."

After taking a quick look through his stats and seeing that there wasn't any changes to the experience points of both his aptitude and cultivation...

Sebastian began focusing his mind onto the texts of the four divinity beasts reconstruction technique...

And in the next moment, not only did information of the four divinity beasts reconstruction technique appeared below the original texts, but new additional information also appeared below the information texts.

[Information of the four divinity beasts reconstruction technique: Allows the user to reconstruct their body and form a special cultivation body that possesses a high percentage bloodline of all four of the four divinity beasts]

[Usage of the four divinity beasts reconstruction technique: Refine essences into essences of the four divinity beasts, followed by using the refined essences to reconstruct various body parts. The higher the user's proficiency of the technique, the faster the user will be able to refine essences.]

When the dragon essences were refined by the four divinity beasts reconstruction technique, the dragon essences would be refined into the essence of an Azure Dragon.

This was the extremely formidable part of the four divinity beasts reconstruction technique...

Whereby for example, if a cultivator of the four divinity beasts reconstruction technique wanted to reconstruct his spine, there wasn't any need for the cultivator to hunt for Azure Dragons or creatures who possessed the specific bloodline of an Azure Dragon...

And instead, since the technique was able to refine any kind of dragon essence into the essence of an Azure Dragon, any creature that possessed the bloodline of a dragon would be fine.

Furthermore, since any kind of dragon essence was able to be refined into the essence of an Azure Dragon by the four divinity beasts reconstruction technique, it meant that the user of the technique didn't need to just focus their attention onto creatures who possess the bloodline of dragons, but the user could also focus their attention on medicinal herbs and magical treasures that possess the essences of dragons within them.

And it has to be known, within the Cultivation World, there were plenty of medicinal herbs and magical treasures that possess some kind of dragon essence within them!

Last but not least, regarding the spine that was being reconstructed when cultivating the four divinity beasts reconstruction technique...

There were a total of 5 parts within a spine, and those parts were known as the cervical spine, thoracic spine, lumbar spine, sacrum, and coccyx.

When a user of the four divinity beasts reconstruction technique was reconstructing their spine, the thoracic spine was the first part to be reconstructed.

After all, the thoracic spine was the longest part amongst all of the spine's parts, which meant reconstructing the thoracic spine first was basically just like setting up a good foundation for reconstructing the remaining parts of the spine.

"As expected, there's new additional texts regarding the technique after I had absorbed those extremely tiny bit of essences into my spine."

"From the looks of things, the reason that I didn't feeling anything is because the amount of essence that was absorbed into my spine was extremely, extremely, extremely tiny."

"Though, that was to be expected, I guess..."

"After all, the fact that a normal chicken even being able to possess the bloodline of a dragon is already enough to be counted as a miraculous feat, so how could I even expect the bloodline of the chicken to amount to anything much at all, especially after the chicken's dragon bloodline was refined into an Azure Dragon's essence."

"Then again... since this is just a normal chicken... there should be a lot more of this chicken, right...?!"

"If one bowl of chicken meat is able to provide 0.000001% worth of experience points to my spine, and an entire whole chicken is about 5 bowls of chicken meat..."

"Which means, I should be able to obtain 0.000005% worth of experience points by refining an entire whole chicken!"

"Although this may not seem much at first glance..."

"But if I'm actually able to have a huge endless supply of chickens that are just like this chicken who possess the bloodline of a dragon, it basically means I will be able to easily reconstruct my spine, as long as I have enough money to buy as many of those chickens as I can!"

"When Julia returns back home, I have to ask her just where she got this chicken from!"

"But for now, since I have nothing to do, maybe I should try and examine onto the different parts of the chicken and see if there's any difference between the different parts of the chicken..."

Upon thinking up to here, without hesitation, Sebastian took out a round plate from the kitchen cabinet, then opened the pot's lid and began picking out chicken parts from the pot and placing the chicken parts onto the plate.

This was why, when Julia and the others stepped into the living room, they saw that Sebastian was closely examining onto the chicken parts that had been plated onto a round plate as if there was something extremely interesting or unique about the chicken parts.

"Sebastian...!"

Chapter 86: Sebastian meeting with Coril

"Sebastian, what are you doing?"

"Is there something wrong with the chicken...?"

Shortly after seeing Sebastian, and seeing that Sebastian was acting a little strange, Julia quickly fastened her footsteps as she hurriedly walked over to Sebastian, then called out to Sebastian after arriving close to Sebastian.

Upon hearing Julia call out to him, because Sebastian was currently lost in his own thought, it took a short moment for him to finally register in his mind that Julia had returned home.

Thus, only after Julia had asked him if anything was wrong with the chicken, then did he come back to his senses and turned his head to the side.

And because his gaze was fixed onto Julia who was already standing by his side, he didn't notice the 3 people that were currently standing in the living room.

"Why are you examining so closely onto these chicken parts with such a curious look on your face?"

Julia asked curiously as she lowered her upper body and took a look at the chicken parts, trying to see just what it was that caused Sebastian to examine onto those chicken parts while with such a curious look on his face.

Meanwhile, right as Julia finished speaking, Sebastian stood up from his seat as he said loudly while with a pleasantly surprised look on his face, "Ah! Julia, my darling, you are back already! Come here, give me a kiss!"

Right after Sebastian finished speaking, without giving Julia any time to respond, Sebastian could be seen embracing onto Julia's waist with his arms, then kissing his lips onto Julia, giving a hard and long smooch onto Julia's lips.

"Mwah...!"

Right as Sebastian separated his lips from Julia's lips, Sebastian was intending on opening his mouth to ask Julia where she got the chicken from...

But right when he was about to do so, Julia who had came back to her senses from Sebastian's kiss immediately smacked her right palm lightly onto Sebastian's chest, then with her face to have evidently turned red from shyness, she said seriously in a low voice that only Sebastian was able to hear while with a coy yet serious look on her face.

Unbeknownst to her, despite how low her voice was, both Dave and Coril were still able to hear the following words that came out from her mouth due to their cultivation realms.

"Alright, don't mess around! My great grandpa is here to pay you a visit! Act properly and also address me properly as Julia while my great grandpa is here, you understand?!"

"Just so you know, my great grandpa is one of Lisandris Family's golden core realm cultivators, so, make sure to address him as Ancestor Coril later on when you speak to him!"

"Also, my great grandpa is here to bring you good news, so you don't have to worry about anything!"

Upon hearing what Julia said to him, and seeing that Julia was acting all serious, a confused look appeared on Sebastian's face as he asked curiously while looking around the house, "Huh...? Your great grandpa, a golden core realm cultivator, is here to pay me a visit?!"

"Where is... he..."

It didn't even take more than 10 seconds before Sebastian finally spot that 3 people were currently standing within the living room and looking straight at him.

Looking at the 2 of the 3 people, he recognized that those 2 people were Dave and Miuna, Julia's uncle and big sister, and on their faces right now, they could be seen having an awkward smile on their faces, seemingly to be feeling awkward for Sebastian for acting so brazenly while in front of Coril.

Meanwhile, the third person that he doesn't recognize, Sebastian knew that this person was most likely the great grandpa that Julia was talking about.

Right as Sebastian moved his gaze over to Coril, he could see that Coril had an extremely friendly smile on his face.

And before Sebastian had time to think of what he should do next, Coril let out a hearty laugh and spoke with a loud and enthusiastic voice as he walked over to the kitchen, "Hahaha! You must be Sebastian! I have heard a lot of good things from Julia and Dave about you, and expected, you have not fall short of my expectations!"

Meanwhile, since Sebastian knew that Coril was a golden core realm cultivator, and from his memories, he was aware that golden core realm cultivators were basically the peak of power within the North Continent...

When Sebastian saw that Coril had arrived in front of him, without any hesitation, Sebastian bowed and cupped his hands at Coril, then said respectfully, "Greetings, Ancestor Coril! Ancestor Coril, you are far too kind with your words!"

"Hahaha! Look, not only is Sebastian such a talented person, but he is also so respectful toward his elder!"

Upon speaking up to here, Coril looked over to Dave and chided at, "Dave, you should honestly learn a thing or two from Sebastian! Especially since, from the look of things, this brain of yours is lacking a lot of contents within it!"

"Ancestor Coril, I..."

Upon hearing Coril chided at him, Dave immediately understood the reason that Coril chided at him was because he previously had doubts regarding Sebastian's motives as he initially thought that Sebastian was lying about the abilities of his sperm strengthening body.

Thus, Dave immediately opened his mouth to try and explain himself.

However, before Dave was even able to do so, Coril could be seen placing his right arm over Sebastian's shoulders, then said amicably to Sebastian, "Come, Sebastian, let's head over to the living room and have a seat on the couches instead."

And while walking over to the living room, Coril could be seen correcting Sebastian on his way of addressing him, "Also, Sebastian, since you are my dear great granddaughter Julia's husband, there's no need for you to address me as Ancestor Coril. You can address me the same as Julia do, as Great Grandpa Coril."

Upon hearing what Coril said, since Sebastian was able to tell that Coril was trying to get close to him, without any hesitation, Sebastian immediately responded, "Understood, Great Grandpa Coril!"

"Hahaha! Great, great!"

Chapter 87: Swearing to the heavenly daos

Right after everyone had sat down in the living room, Coril went straight to the point as he said toward Sebastian who was sitting in front of him across the table.

"Sebastian, I will cut to the chase with you, I'm here because I was made aware by Julia and Dave of the fact that you have awakened the special body, sperm strengthening body."

"So, just to confirm with you, is it true that you have awakened the sperm strengthening body?"

Upon hearing Coril's question, Sebastian subconsciously took a glance at Julia, and upon seeing that Julia gave him a reassured look in response to his glance, Sebastian let go of his misgivings as he admitted to Coril that he had indeed awakened the special body, sperm strengthening body.

"That's right, Great Grandpa Coril, I have indeed awakened the special body, sperm strengthening body!"

Although Coril was already pretty sure that Sebastian had indeed awakened the special body, sperm strengthening body, after all, there was no reason for Sebastian to ever lie about such a thing, but when Coril heard Sebastian admitting that he had indeed awakened the sperm strengthening body...

Coril still couldn't help but let out a huge smile on his face as he nod his head with satisfaction.

Soon after, with a slightly curious look on his face, Coril asked with a slight curiosity in his tone, "Sebastian, I hope you don't mind me asking, but do you remember how you were able to awaken the sperm strengthening body?"

Upon hearing Coril's question, a slightly awkward look appeared on his face as he said after scratching onto the back of his right ear with his right hand to try and hide his awkwardness.

"Hmm... Well, how do I say it... Right after I had my first night with Julia, I just somehow managed to awaken the sperm strengthening body, and immediately after awakening the sperm strengthening body, various information about the sperm strengthening body appeared within my mind, which was how I managed to learn that I had awakened the special body, sperm strengthening body."

"I see... I guess it makes sense that this was how you managed to awaken the sperm strengthening body."

Coril said while rubbing onto his chin with his right hand, and right after, Coril put on a serious look on his face and said seriously to Sebastian.

"Sebastian. Since you have awakened the sperm strengthening body, I am intending on investing all of the Lisandris Family's future onto you, and in return, I hope that you will help out the Lisandris Family in its growth in the future when both you and your own cultivation family have become way stronger than the Lisandris Family."

"And for the sake of letting you be reassured that I mean you no harm at all and that I am sincerely intending on investing onto your future..."

Upon speaking up to here, Coril stood up from his seat and lifted his right hand straight upward.

With his right hand lifted straight upward and positioned right by his head, Coril then began swearing solemnly, "I, Coril Lisandris, swear to the heavenly daos that I mean Sebastian Force no harm at all and that I am sincerely intending on investing onto Sebastian Force's future. If anything that I have said is false, or if I were to go against anything that I had just said in the future, may I die an extremely horrible death and have my soul be doomed for an eternity!"

Right as Coril finished speaking, both Coril and Sebastian could sense a profound aura appearing within the living room for a single split moment.

Sebastian didn't really understand what the profound aura represented, but Coril himself actually understood that the profound aura appearing was a sign that the heavenly daos had actually listened to his swearing and furthermore, acknowledged his swearing.

Upon sensing that the heavenly daos had actually acknowledged his swearing, Coril was immediately 100% sure that Sebastian had indeed awakened the special body, sperm strengthening body.

After all, if it was place at usual times, if a golden realm cultivator like him were to swear to the heavenly daos, there was no way that the heavenly daos would even bother paying attention to a mere golden realm cultivator like him, and yet, right when he made a swear that was pertaining to Sebastian, the heavenly daos actually listened to his swear and even more, acknowledged his swear!

What did this mean? It meant that Sebastian was someone that was important enough for the heavenly daos to pay attention to!

And as of now, Coril couldn't think of any other reason for Sebastian to be able to be so important that the heavenly daos would pay attention to him, aside from the reason being that it was because Sebastian had awakened the special body, sperm strengthening body!

A special body that represents the embodiment of a few heavenly daos!

A special body that signifies that Sebastian possesses the chance of reaching the immortal realm just simply by making full use of his special body!

Meanwhile, upon seeing that Coril actually went so far as to swear to the heavenly daos so that he could gain Sebastian's trust, Dave could be seen opening his mouth, evidently wanting to stop Coril with his swearing, but in the end, upon remembering that he still wasn't scot-free from Coril's scolding yet, he decided to just shut his mouth and not do anything stupid that would end up further lowering Coril's impression toward him.

As for Julia and Miuna, they merely felt that Sebastian's sperm strengthening body must be really formidable since Coril actually went so far as to swear just for the sake of gaining Sebastian's trust.

As for what it signifies to swear to the heavenly daos, in truth, both Julia and Miuna had not a single idea at all.

Right after Coril finished his swearing, a fervent look immediately appeared in Coril's eyes as he looked at Sebastian and said...

Chapter 88: Heavenly daos' acknowledgement

"Sebastian, with this, you should be able to trust me and believe that I am being serious about everything that I have said to you, right?"

"So, what do you think Sebastian?"

"Are you willing to accept my investment onto you?"

Right after Coril finished speaking, Coril remained silent as he looked fervently at Sebastian, evidently to be very excited about investing the Lisandris Family's future onto Sebastian.

Upon seeing that Coril was looking fervently at him and waiting for his response...

Since Sebastian was completely aware that this was actually a heaven-sent fortune that had basically landed onto his laps...

After all, with the support and help of a golden realm cultivator, it would basically mean that he will be able to build his own cultivation family with ease!

Without any hesitation, Sebastian stood up from his seat, then cupped his hands at Coril and said respectfully while with his voice filled with obvious excitement, "Great Grandpa Coril, of course I'm willing to accept your investment!"

Upon speaking up to here, seemingly to want to reassure Coril that he will indeed help out the Lisandris Family in its growth once he has become way stronger than the Lisandris Family, Sebastian imitated what Coril did previously.

As Sebastian lifted his right hand straight upward, Sebastian began swearing with a solemn look on his face, "I, Sebastian Force, swear to the heavenly daos that I will repay Coril Lisandris' investment onto me by helping the Lisandris Family in its growth in the future when I have become way stronger than the Lisandris Family!"

"If I were to not uphold my word, may I die an extremely horrible death and have my soul be doomed for an eternity!"

However, unexpected to everyone within the living room, right when Sebastian had just finished swearing, a short sequence of rumblings of thunder suddenly began ringing out within the sky despite the fact that the weather was completely sunny and there wasn't any stormy clouds in the sky at all.

Furthermore, looking at how everyone else within the Lisandris Family Manor was continuing on with their daily life, it was evident that only the people who were within the living room of Sebastian's house was able to hear the loud rumblings of thunder ringing out within the clear sky.

"Boom...!"

"Boom... boom... boom...!"

Meanwhile, within the living room, while the thunder was rumbling, everyone except for Sebastian could feel their blood turning cold and felt as if something extremely frightening had their eyes fixed onto them.

Fortunately, the rumbling of thunder only lasted for what seemed to be just 10 seconds, despite the fact that it felt like an eternity had passed for Miuna, Julia, Dave, and Coril.

Right before the thunder's rumblings had come to a stop, everyone within the living room could heard an indistinct voice that seemed to be coming from an extremely far away place ringing out within the living room.

"Acknowledged..."

Strangely enough, the indistinct voice sounded neither like that of a male nor a female, and even more, it even sounded rather distorted as it rang out within the living room, however, despite how indistinct and distorted the voice was, everyone within the living room was able to clearly understand the word that came out from the voice.

On the other hand, right as the voice rang out in Sebastian's mind, various information suddenly appeared within Sebastian's mind, and immediately, Sebastian understood what he had actually just done by copying Coril and swearing to the heavenly daos.

Thus, while with the corner of his mouth twitching, a speechless look couldn't help but appear on Sebastian face as he looked speechlessly at the ceiling and thought to himself, "Ah... So this was why this old man actually swore to the heavenly daos... I actually thought that this old man was doing it for show... But swearing to the heavenly daos is actually something that works?!"

"Wait... what did I swear to the heavenly daos again...?"

"Ah, that's right! I swore that I will help the Lisandris Family in its growth in exchange for this old man's investment onto me! Phew, it seems that this swear of mine is fine, I guess...?"

"In any case, all I have to do is to help out the Lisandris Family in its growth, and that's something I'm fine with doing once I become strong, especially since Julia and Miuna are both from the Lisandris Family, and my upcoming wives are also most likely going to be women who are from the Lisandris Family."

Shortly after the rumblings of thunder had come to a stop, Coril was the first one to come back to his senses from the frightening feeling that he had just experienced.

However, looking at Coril's face, it was evident that the frightening feeling that Coril had just experienced didn't affect Coril's mood in any way, and even more, the fervent look that Coril currently had in his eyes as he looked at Sebastian was even more fervent than before.

Looking at just how fervently Coril was looking at Sebastian, if one didn't know anything about the situation, they most likely would have somehow come to a wrong idea about Coril.

"Hahahaha...!"

After letting out a hearty and unrestrained laugh, Coril suddenly disappeared from his spot and appeared by Sebastian's left side, then pat his right hand onto Sebastian's left shoulder.

"This is just what I would expect of a man of your caliber, Sebastian!"

"The fact that you are willing to swear to the heavenly daos even when you didn't have to..."

"I must say, you have gained my utmost respect, Sebastian!"

"Don't worry, I will make sure that you won't come to regret this decision of yours!"

"Since we both have each other's utmost trust now, I'm sure there isn't any point for me to try and further gain even more of your trust by going into details of what I'm intending to do for you, so, I should take my leave for now."

"Sebastian, I will see you again tomorrow when I attend you and Miuna's wedding."

Chapter 89: Jealousy

"Sebastian, I will see you again tomorrow when I attend you and Miuna's wedding."

Upon speaking up to here, Coril looked over to Miuna and Dave, "Come, the both of you, it's time for us to leave, let's not keep Sebastian and Julia hold up any longer."

"In any case, Miuna, you are going to have to start preparing for your wedding with Sebastian, which will be held on tomorrow afternoon, so, it's best for you to head back home and start preparing."

"I'm sure there are many things you are going to have to do, from things like packing up your stuff that you will be bringing over to Sebastian's house, to things like preparing yourself for the wedding, right?"

Although Miuna wanted to stay at Sebastian's house and chat with Sebastian, and perhaps, even began staying at Sebastian's house starting from tonight, so that she could try and work toward improving her relationship with Sebastian as soon as possible...

However, upon hearing what Coril said to her, Miuna knew that she had no choice but to wait until tomorrow before she would be able to begin making Sebastian fall deeply for her by pleasing and serving upon Sebastian to the best that she could.

"That's right, great grandpa." After responding to Coril, Miuna looked over to Sebastian, then said to Sebastian while with a shy look on her face, "So... I will be taking my leave for now first. See you tomorrow during our wedding."

"Ye... yeah, see you tomorrow." Upon seeing the shy look that was on Miuna's face and pairing that shy look with the seductive appearance that Miuna possesses, Sebastian couldn't help but feel his heart skip a beat for a moment, causing him to stutter for a bit when responding toward Miuna.

Meanwhile, upon seeing Sebastian's reaction, Miuna couldn't help but put on a wide smile on her face as she was able to tell from Sebastian's reaction that Sebastian was attracted to her appearance.

And as for Julia, although she was feeling very happy for her big sister that Sebastian seems to be fond of Miuna's appearance, she couldn't help but feel a slight feeling of jealousy appearing within her heart, and thus, Julia could be seen giving a meaningful glance toward Sebastian as she decided that she was going to try and squeeze Sebastian dry once everyone else has left her and Sebastian's house.

After giving a meaningful glance to Sebastian, seemingly to recall something, Julia hurriedly walked over to Miuna, then pulled Miuna to the kitchen.

And while Julia was pulling Miuna to the kitchen, Julia looked over to Coril and said, "Great grandpa, give me and Miuna a moment first before you all leave, I have something to talk to Miuna about! It will be quick!"

"Got it, got it, take your time, there's no rush. Miuna, we will wait for you outside at the gate." Coril replied with an amicable smile on his face while shaking his head helplessly, then began walking toward the house's entrance.

"Great Grandpa Coril and Uncle Dave, I will see the both of you off to the gate!" Upon seeing that Coril and Dave was walking over to the entrance, Sebastian said hurriedly, then began seeing both Coril and Dave over to the gate.

Meanwhile, unbeknownst to both Julia and Miuna, compared to the both of them, Coril was actually the one who was feeling the most elated when he saw Sebastian's reaction.

When Coril saw that Sebastian stuttered when he was replying to Miuna, Coril felt immeasurably elated as he immediately knew that the women that were from the Lisandris Family that were going to marry Sebastian were all going to be treated very well by Sebastian.

Of course, previously when Coril saw how affectionately Sebastian was acting toward Julia, Coril was already somewhat sure that Sebastian was not the typical cultivator who treated their cultivation partner as just a means to reach a higher level of cultivation, and instead, was actually the rare kind of cultivator who actually cares and loves their cultivation partner.

But upon seeing Sebastian's stuttering when replying to Miuna, Coril was able to push his "somewhat sure" to becoming "pretty certain".

"I guess, the fact that Sebastian truly cares and loves his cultivation partners may be one of the reasons that Sebastian had been able to end up awakening the special body, sperm strengthening body."

"Then again, it is an extremely good thing for the Lisandris Family that Sebastian is the kind of cultivator who actually truly cares and loves his cultivation partners."

"This means that, since Sebastian's upcoming wives are going to be women that are from the Lisandris Family, it is only natural that, as time passes by, Sebastian will end up feeling a great sense of attachment toward the Lisandris Family!"

"After all, not only are his first few wives all women that come from the Lisandris Family, but his first few children will also possess the bloodline of the Lisandris Family..."

"And no matter how many women Sebastian ends up marrying in the future, and how many children Sebastian ends up having in the future, it is only natural that Sebastian would feel the most attached and have the most feelings toward his first few wives and first few children!"

"This is good... this is good... this means that, in the future, there is a high chance for the Lisandris Family to become the most important subsidiary cultivation family that is attached to Sebastian's own cultivation family!"

"Though... the only problem now is whether all of those girls will be able to live in harmony or not..."

"Back then when Sebastian stuttered when replying to Miuna, it was obvious that Julia had felt a little jealous toward Sebastian's reaction."

"Sigh... if even two blood related sisters who are very close to each other can't help but feel jealous toward each other, who knows just how much jealousy Julia and Miuna would feel toward Sebastian's future wives..."

Chapter 90: Cultivation World's underwear

"Hopefully, as a golden core realm cultivator, and also as someone who will be the oldest amongst all of Sebastian's women, Veronica will be sensible enough and know just what she should do in order to make both Sebastian's family and the Lisandris Family prosper."

"After all, with her seniority and cultivation strength, I'm sure that none of the girls that are from the Lisandris Family will dare to go against her, and thus, she will be able to control all of the girls that are from the Lisandris Family and prevent any dispute from happening."

"So long as Veronica is willing, it is a definite thing that everyone will be able to live in harmony with each other, at the least, during this initial stage where all of Sebastian's women are women that come from the Lisandris Family."

"Then again... With the way Veronica is... Petty and hold grudges... I don't think I can hold much hope that she would be sensible enough to do what is right and best for both Sebastian's family and the Lisandris Family..."

Coril thought to himself as he walked toward the gate with Dave and Sebastian.

Meanwhile, within the house...

Initially, Julia was merely intending on asking Miuna a few short questions so that she don't hold up Coril's time, however, upon hearing that Coril told her to take her time and that he will be waiting for Miuna out at the gate, Julia changed her mind and decided to take up Coril's offer and take up a short while of Miuna's time.

Thus, only after seeing Coril, Dave, and Sebastian had left the house, then did Julia finally opened her mouth as she pulled onto Miuna and brought Miuna to her bedroom.

"Miuna, come with me to my bedroom!"

"Julia, what is it that you want to speak to me about? Can't you speak to me in the kitchen, why are you bringing me to your bedroom?"

Upon seeing that Julia was dragging her to the bedroom, Miuna couldn't help but said helplessly while shaking her head.

Shortly after, as the two arrived at the bedroom, Julia could be seen dragging Miuna to the front of her wardrobe, and upon arriving in front of the wardrobe, with a shy look on her face, Julia asked shyly, "Miuna... Do you remember the few lingerie sets that you gave to me the day before my wedding...?"

"Yeah, I do. What about them?"

"Well... are you sure that Sebastian would like it if I wear those lingerie...? Would he really be happy and excited when he see me wearing those lingerie...? He wouldn't think that I am slutty and that I am a shameless woman, would he...? I mean, I don't want to end up making Sebastian's impression toward me decrease..."

Upon hearing what Julia said, a slight frown immediately appeared on Miuna's face as she looked directly into Julia's eyes and said with a displeased tone to her voice, "Wait... So, you are telling me that you didn't wear any of the lingerie sets that I gave to you when you had your first night with Sebastian?"

"En..." Upon hearing the evident displease in Miuna's tone, an awkward look appeared on Julia as she let out a soft mutter while looking away from Miuna's eyes.

"Sigh..." After letting out a sigh, Miuna then asked with a helpless look on her face, "So, what did you wear when you had your first night with Sebastian?"

"Wait! Give me a moment!"

Julia could be seen running toward the bathroom, and shortly after, Julia returned with the bra and panties that she wore on her first night with Sebastian.

"Here! These are what I wore!"

As Julia extended out her left and right hands to the front, a red bra and red panties could be seen on her hands.

The red color bra had rose patterns sewn onto it, which made it looked somewhat pleasing to the eyes, however, the red panties were just merely a plain red panties.

Upon seeing the red color bra and plain looking red color panties, the corner of Miuna's mouth couldn't help but twitch, and shortly after, Miuna couldn't help but gave a light knock onto Julia's head with her right fist.

"Ouch! What did you do that for!" Julia grumbled with her lips pouted.

"Because you deserve it!" Miuna rolled her eyes at Julia, then began lifting Julia's long dress so that she could see what Julia was currently wearing under her long dress.

"Ah! What..."

"Shut up and don't move!"

Right as Miuna lifted up Julia's long dress all the way up to Julia's neck, Miuna's eyelids and the corner of her mouth couldn't help but begin twitching when she saw the extremely plain and boring underwear that Julia was currently wearing.

Within Miuna's view, Julia could be seen to be wearing a grey color tank top that covered her upper body down to her waistline, and a grey color square boxers.

In truth, these were what the female cultivators within the Cultivation World normally wear as their underwear.

The red color bra that had rose patterns sewn onto it, and the red color triangle-shaped plain looking panties, these two underwear were not normally worn by female cultivators, thus, let alone the various lingerie sets that Miuna had gave to Julia to wear.

"Julia... do you know that by wearing these plain looking underwear, you are putting yourself at a high risk of making your sexual attraction toward Sebastian decrease?"

After letting go of Julia's long dress, Miuna said with a solemn look on her face right as Julia's body was once again covered completely by the long dress.

Upon hearing what Miuna said and seeing how solemn Miuna was, a startled look immediately appeared on Julia's face as she said hurriedly, "What?! I... I didn't know about that! Miuna, are you sure that's true?!"

"Of course! I read all about it in the books that I bought, and those books were written by a high realm female cultivator who belongs to a dual-cultivation sect! And there's no reason for the high realm female cultivator to lie, right?"
