Chapter 5013

“Auntie will be here soon, let’s stop talking now and talk when we meet.”

“Okay.”

Hai Tong ended the call with her aunt.

She said to her husband, “Auntie is on her way to our house. She said she’s been missing Bei Bei for a long time.”

Zachary smiled, “Okay, we’ll go out after Auntie arrives.”

Audrey arrived quickly, and the aunt and nephew chatted for another ten minutes or so. Urged by Audrey, Zachary and his wife finally left together to go back to their respective companies.

Meanwhile, the old lady and Zhan Yue had just arrived at the hospital.

Zhan Yue said to his grandmother, "I can just come and get the results. Grandma doesn't need to come all the way. Bei Bei is still at home, and my older brother and sister-in-law have to go to work."

The old lady said, "Your older brother and sister-in-law will arrange everything. Grandma is only out for half a day and will be back at noon."

She wasn't worried at all; plenty of relatives were willing to help take care of Bei Bei.

"What if my older brother and sister-in-law are too busy?"

"If they really can't get away, your brother will take Beibei to the company, or you can ask Yun Chu to look after her. Yun Chu is free these days."

Zhan Yue said, "Why didn't you think of sending her to me? I'd be happy to take Beibei with me. If I spend more time with her, maybe I can have a daughter as cute as Beibei in the future."

The old lady smiled and said, "Xiao Jun has always wanted to take Beibei to stay at the Su family's house for a while. She's pregnant with her second child now and wants to have a daughter."

"But Beibei insists on having her mother with her at night before she'll sleep. During the day, anyone can take care of her, but at night, even your brother can't handle her."

"Let's go print out the results and then show them to Xiao Ya. Didn't your rival bring his mother to the hospital for a check-up today? Did he also register with Xiao Ya?"

"Is Grandma here to support me?"

Zhan Yue said with a laugh, "I don't need Grandma's support. I really don't take Dr. Lin, this rival, seriously." Zeng Xiaoya didn't like Dr. Lin.

Zhan Yue had nothing to worry about.

"Grandma just came to check on you. She knows you don't need her support."

The grandmother and grandson talked as they walked.

Zhan Yue helped his grandmother to the outside of Zeng Xiaoya's clinic, letting her sit and wait for him to pick up the test results.

Not long after Zhan Yue left, Dr. Lin arrived in a hurry with his parents.

His family had just returned from the beach and came straight to the hospital.

Even He Yuehua had come with them.

"Has your appointment been taken?"

Lin's mother asked, worried that her appointment had been taken.

"Not yet, you have to wait a little longer."

Dr. Lin checked his appointment time and saw an empty seat next to the old lady, so he let his mother sit down next to her.

He then walked to the clinic entrance and looked inside. When Zeng Xiaoya saw him, she nodded as a greeting.

Dr. Lin smiled back and didn't go in to disturb Zeng Xiaoya while she was seeing other patients.

Tomorrow, Zeng Xiaoya wouldn't be seeing patients at the outpatient clinic anymore; she would return to the inpatient ward.

She wouldn't need to see patients at the outpatient clinic again until next week.

He Yuehua and Lin's father stood silently beside Lin's mother. She knew that Dr. Lin was still resentful of Dr. Zeng, after all, she had admired him for many years.

Married at First Sight Chapter 5014

Just like with Dr. Lin, she knew he didn't truly love her, but she just couldn't let go.

She had poured so much effort into Dr. Lin and his family; how could she expect nothing in return for all that she had given?

Now, she saw hope.

Although she had brought up the issue of sharing a bed with him to demand he take responsibility, the best outcome would be for him to willingly marry her—only then could she be happy.

Forced relationships are never sweet, He Yuehua knew this, so after Dr. Lin didn't explicitly agree to take responsibility, she stopped using the issue of sharing a bed with him.

Dr. Lin's parents preferred her; that was her hope. Dr. Lin was a filial son; he would listen to his parents' advice.

Lin's mother grasped He Yuehua's hand and said softly, "Yuehua, in Auntie's eyes, you're better than Dr. Zeng."

The old lady beside her, hearing Lin's mother's words, recognized the woman as the family member of her grandson's rival. She turned to look at Lin's mother and smiled, asking, "Did you also get an appointment with Dr. Zeng?"

Lin's mother nodded, noticing the old lady's kind face and dignified air, and realized she was no ordinary person.

She asked, "Are you alone? Didn't your children or grandchildren accompany you to the doctor?"

Could this dignified old lady's life be less comfortable than hers?

"My grandson accompanied me. I'm not here for a doctor's appointment; I just came for a checkup yesterday. I'll get some of the results today, and I wanted to ask Dr. Zeng to take a look. My grandson went to get the results for me."

Lin's mother smiled. "Oh, I see. I also came for a checkup. Dr. Zeng and my son are alumni; they're senior and junior."

She boasted about her son's acquaintance with Zeng Xiaoya.

The old lady said "Oh," and then asked, "Does your son also work at this hospital?"

"He doesn't work at the hospital; he runs his own clinic."

The old lady praised him, "That's great! Running your own clinic and making a name for yourself earns more than working at the hospital. Is that your son?"

She looked at Dr. Lin.

Lin's mother nodded, "That's my son."

The old lady then looked at He Yuehua, sizing her up, and asked Lin's mother, "Is this your daughter-in-law? She and your son look a bit like a married couple."

"Yuehua? She's not my daughter-in-law yet, maybe not in the future. Really? They do look like a married couple? I haven't looked closely, but I really like Yuehua."

Lin's mother held He Yuehua's hand, "Yuehua is very good to me. Every time I come for a checkup, Yuehua accompanies me to the hospital."

He Yuehua smiled, "Auntie, it's what I should do."

She was also very gentle with the old lady because the old lady said she and Dr. Lin looked like a married couple.

"You just said your son's girlfriend is better than Dr. Zeng?" the old lady asked, looking gossipy.

Lin's mother looked a little embarrassed, and quickly said, "In my eyes, Yuehua is excellent. Dr. Zeng, old lady, to be honest, my son likes his junior, Dr. Zeng."

Lin's mother whispered the last few words in the old lady's ear, not wanting anyone else to hear.

She whispered, "Dr. Zeng comes from a good family, but I don't think she's good at managing a household. She's not as good at managing a household as Yuehua. My husband and I prefer Yuehua, but my son is still hung up on Dr. Zeng." The old lady also whispered, "Dr. Zeng is very busy with work, so she probably doesn't have time to take care of her family."

"I think so too. My son is a doctor himself, and he's busy too. If he marries someone equally busy, what will happen to their little family? I'm not trying to belittle Dr. Zeng, but unless she marries into a wealthy family and becomes a pampered wife, she'll likely be looked down upon on blind dates."

“They’ll think she doesn’t have time to take care of her family.”

“I just don’t know if Dr. Zeng is destined to marry into a wealthy family and become a pampered wife. If she chooses my son, it would be a good match.”

The old lady smiled inwardly. Lin’s mother was trying to have it both ways—she wanted He Yuehua as her daughter-in-law, and she also wanted Zeng Xiaoya. She valued He Yuehua’s ability to manage a household, and she valued Zeng Xiaoya’s family background.

Married at First Sight Chapter 5015

“I think Dr. Zeng is a very lucky person. Maybe she’ll really marry into a wealthy family and become a young mistress,” the old lady thought to herself. Her eighth son liked Dr. Zeng.

Dr. Zeng was destined to marry into a wealthy family.

The Lin family should stop dreaming about Dr. Zeng.

She learned from her eighth son that Dr. Lin and this Miss He had shared a bed. Miss He went to Dr. Lin’s house every day to help with housework and tidy up.

He had given so much; they couldn’t let Miss He go empty-handed.

Dr. Zeng wouldn’t compete with Miss He and was willing to give up Dr. Lin.

Lin’s mother chuckled twice, her tone laced with sarcasm: “You really think marrying into a wealthy family is so easy? It’s not easy at all. Besides, there aren’t many truly wealthy families. The women who marry into them are all from their upper-class circle.”

“They value matching social status and arranged marriages. Dr. Zeng’s family background is relatively good compared to us country folk, but it’s still far from being wealthy. How could a wealthy young master possibly marry her?”

“She’s blessed with good looks, but there are plenty of people who are blessed with good looks. Does everyone get to marry into a wealthy family and become a young mistress?”

“People live in reality. You have to accept reality and stop thinking about unrealistic things all day.”

Lin’s mother spoke in a low voice, but He Yuehua and Lin’s father could still hear her.

He Yuehua said softly, “Auntie, please don’t talk about Dr. Zeng like that.”

“I didn’t say anything bad about her, I was just telling the truth. I’m so old, I’ve never even seen what a wealthy family looks like.”

The old lady smiled and said, “Wealthy families, they’re just like that. They’re just ordinary families, just a little better off, and their members are a little busier. Their better conditions are the result of generations of hard work.”

“That’s true, but they have high standards. When they want to marry, they definitely want someone of equal social standing. We’ve all heard the Cinderella story, but how many Cinderellas are there in reality?” “Say less,”

Lin’s father gently nudged his wife.

They were outside Dr. Zeng’s consultation room; if others overheard and it reached Dr. Zeng’s ears, his son would be very embarrassed. Lin’s mother pursed her lips and muttered something under her breath, so much so that even the old lady sitting next to her couldn’t hear her.

The old lady thought to herself, “Xiaoya is a good judge of character; she’s wise.” “Mom, it’s our turn.”

It was Lin’s mother’s turn to see the doctor.

Dr. Lin turned to help her mother, but He Yuehua helped her up first.

When the old lady saw Lin’s mother reach the examination room door, a smile bloomed on her face.

Lin’s mother was just there for a follow-up check-up. Zeng Xiaoya had taken her blood pressure and written a few forms for her to do tests. They would see if the medication needed adjustment based on the results.

If it was well controlled, no adjustment was needed; the original dosage would suffice.

Ten minutes later, the Lin family came out of the examination room.

Lin's mother smiled and said to the old lady, "Grandma, I'll be going now."

The old lady nodded.

Dr. Lin glanced at the old lady and asked if her mother recognized her.

"I don't know her, but she was sitting next to me, and we chatted for a bit."

Just as the family left, Zhan Yue returned with the old lady's test results, and the two rivals bumped into each other.

"Dr. Lin."

Despite being rivals, Zhan Yue still greeted her politely.

"Mr. Zhan, what are you doing here? Are you faking illness or are you really sick?"

Dr. Lin's question was tinged with sarcasm.

Married at First Sight Chapter 5016

They suspected Zhan Yue was faking illness to get closer to Zeng Xiaoya.

Zhan Yue said, "I'm perfectly healthy, why would I pretend to be sick? If I wanted to see Xiaoya, I could just come directly to her; there's no need for any excuse."

Dr. Lin's expression darkened.

"My grandmother came for a checkup yesterday. I'm just here to get the results for her and then let Xiaoya see them."

Zhan Yue said, walking towards the old lady.

Dr. Lin and the others instinctively turned to look at Zhan Yue.

He realized Zhan Yue's true identity; Zhan Yue's grandmother was none other than the legendary Madam Zhan, known for her excellent management of the household and her ability to educate her grandchildren.

When he saw Zhan Yue walk straight to the old lady who had been sitting with his mother, Dr. Lin was shocked.

So that old lady was the Madam Zhan! Wasn't she supposed to be in her nineties? That old lady looked like she was in her seventies; was she just very well-preserved?

"A-Jian, who is he? Is he the one who likes Dr. Zeng?"

Lin's mother asked.

"It's him, the eighth young master of the Zhan family, the richest family in the world."

"The Zhan family, the richest family in the world?"

Lin's mother was taken aback, and He Yuehua raised an eyebrow.

She hadn't expected that Mr. Zhan, who liked Dr. Zeng, was actually the young master of the Zhan family, the richest family in the world. Yes, his surname was Zhan.

In Dongguan, the most famous family with the surname Zhan was the richest family.

She should have thought of it earlier, but she just didn't want to think about it that way.

After all, the richest family and ordinary people like them were from two different worlds.

Who would have thought that Mr. Zhan, who liked Dr. Zeng and was Dr. Lin's rival in love, was actually the young master of the Zhan family, the richest family in the world?

Lin's mother watched as Zhan Yue helped the old lady into Zeng Xiaoya's clinic, and it took her a while to come to her senses.

"The old lady I was just chatting with is actually the matriarch of the richest family!” “No wonder she exuded an air of nobility; she’s from a wealthy family.”

“She praised Dr. Zeng, saying she looked lucky and would marry into a wealthy family and become a young mistress. I even said, ‘Dr. Zeng doesn’t have that kind of luck!’ Does this mean... the Zhan family agrees to their young master marrying Dr. Zeng?”

Lin’s mother looked at her son.

She had just bumped into Zhan Yue; it turned out he was her son’s rival. No wonder her son had always been rejected. That young man who had just walked by seemed more outstanding than her son.

Even without knowing him, just a glance was enough to tell he was an excellent young man.

His face was exceptionally handsome, his figure, his demeanor.

Lin’s mother wanted to side with her son, but couldn’t bring herself to say he was better than the Zhan family’s young master.

He Yuehua was a little envious.

Dr. Zeng really was lucky.

Being favored by the young master of the Zhan family, the richest family in China, also made Dr. Lin admire her for several years.

Regardless of whether Dr. Zeng chose Dr. Lin or the young master of the Zhan family, she was the object of envy and jealousy.

Personally, He Yuehua hoped Dr. Zeng would choose the young master of the Zhan family. She didn’t have Dr. Zeng’s good fortune in being noticed by a wealthy young master; she just hoped to marry Dr. Lin and be content as a small business owner’s wife.

“I’ve heard that the richest family has excellent family traditions, and the elders are very open-minded. As long as their children and grandchildren like them, the elders won’t object. So many girls dream of marrying into the Zhan family,”

He Yuehua said. “Dr. Zeng is also very good. The Zeng family is already something we look up to, so it’s not surprising that the elders of the Zhan family would agree to Zhan Shao marrying her.”

Indeed, Dr. Zeng truly inspired envy and jealousy.

So many heiresses couldn’t catch the eye of the eighth young master of the Zhan family, yet Dr. Zeng had been chosen by him.

Married at First Sight Chapter 5017

Lin’s mother couldn’t help but feel jealous. She muttered under her breath, “That old lady is just his grandmother. Just because his grandmother likes Dr. Zeng doesn’t mean his parents will.”

“Can his grandmother make decisions for him?”

“Mom!”

Although Dr. Lin was also jealous of Zhan Yue’s privileged family background, he wouldn’t make sarcastic remarks about Zeng Xiaoya not being destined to marry into a wealthy family.

Hearing his mother speak of Zeng Xiaoya like that, he had to speak up to stop his mother from continuing.

He said, “My parents have always lived in our hometown, so it’s not surprising they haven’t heard anything. We’ve lived in the city for a long time, and we’ve heard a lot of rumors about the richest family.” ”

Old Madam Zhan is the pillar of the Zhan family. She’s blessed with many children and grandchildren, and they’re all filial. She treats her daughters-in-law like mother and daughter, and her granddaughters-in-law like her own granddaughters.”

“The Zhan family has always been dominated by men, and Old Madam Zhan has neither daughters nor granddaughters, so she treats her daughters-in-law and granddaughters-in-law extremely well.”

“The most important thing for Zhan family men when choosing a wife is character and the woman’s family background. If she has good character and a good family background, even if there’s a big gap between their circumstances and their own, they won’t mind.” ”

I’ve heard that the elders in the Zhan family love to urge their younger generation to get married. As long as the younger generation is willing to marry, the requirements aren’t very high; they mainly trust their sons’ judgment.”

“Xiaoya is very good, and the Zeng family has a very good family background. If Zhan Yue is sincere, there won’t be any obstacles for her marrying into the Zhan family.”

Unless Zhan Yue is just playing around.

When Dr. Lin spoke to Zeng Xiaoya, she said Zhan Yue was just playing around, looking for something new, but deep down she knew he was probably serious.

And the men in the Zhan family were known for their devotion and pampering of their wives.

Lin’s mother said to her son, “You’re still defending her? She doesn’t even like you.”

“It’s not that I’m good enough if she doesn’t like me, or that we’re just not meant to be. I can’t deny her excellence just because she doesn’t love me and rejected me,”

He Yuehua said. “Dr. Zeng is very good.”

Lin’s mother pursed her lips and remained silent.

In her eyes, her son was so outstanding and had admired Zeng Xiaoya for so many years, yet Zeng Xiaoya had heartlessly rejected him; she was blind.

Zeng Xiaoya must have already gotten together with the young master of the Zhan family to reject her son; she was just a vain, materialistic person.

Lin’s mother didn’t say these words aloud.

But after meeting the eighth young master of the Zhan family and chatting with the old lady of the Zhan family today, Lin’s mother knew that her son had no hope. After returning home, she tried her best to persuade her son to accept He Yuehua.

Zeng Xiaoya was unaware of these matters. After reviewing the old lady's test results, she smiled and said, "Grandma Zhan, your test results are better than many young people's."

The old lady smiled and replied, "I pay great attention to health. I eat a light diet, practice Tai Chi every day to exercise, go to bed early and get up early, and relax. I don't worry about anything."

"Grandma Zhan's way of maintaining health is excellent. Keep it up."

The old lady had many children and grandchildren, all of whom were outstanding individuals. Her granddaughters-in-law were also filial, all daughters of wealthy families. What else could the old lady have to worry about?

She could be considered the happiest old lady.

"Yes, I will stick to my health regimen. Xiaoya, you go ahead with your work. Lao Ba and I are going back."

Married at First Sight Chapter 5018

"Okay, Grandma Zhan, take care. Zhan Yue, help Grandma Zhan up."

Zeng Xiaoya smiled and stood up to see the old lady off.

Zhan Yue looked at her intently and said, "Xiaoya, you're busy, no need to see me off."

Zeng Xiaoya still saw the grandmother and granddaughter out of the consultation room. Only after watching them walk away did she return to the consultation room and continue seeing patients.

The old lady turned her head and saw Zeng Xiaoya return to the consultation room. She said to Zhan Yue, "Your rival in love is nothing to fear. Just focus on making Xiaoya fall in love with you."

"Dr. Lin himself is very good, but his parents' taste isn't very good."

"I've never been afraid of him,"

Zhan Yue said confidently.

“Grandma, should I take you back to my place or my older brother’s?”

The old lady touched her phone and said, “Your older brother seems to have sent me a voice message, but I haven’t listened to it yet.”

She took out her phone, opened WeChat, and after listening to the voice message from Zachary, she said to Zhan Yue, “You heard it too, your older brother said that the Shang family came to pick up Beibei. Can you take me to the Shang family?”

“I haven’t been to the Shang family for a long time since Old Fei passed away. I’ll go chat with Feng Ying. She’s probably going crazy taking care of her grandson at home.”

When there was only one grandson, Audrey was quite patient.

But with more grandsons, Audrey had a headache.

The oldest was only a few years old, all at the age where they love to make a fuss. Zhan Yue laughed, “Grandma, are you gloating?”

Having so many children and grandchildren, even if the grandchildren are mischievous, it’s still a kind of happiness, better than a quiet house.” “That’s right, a lively family is what makes a normal family. After I retired, your grandfather and I took care of you and taught you. Although you were quite mischievous and naughty when you were little, I still felt very happy.”

“Before you started kindergarten, I was always by your side. After kindergarten and elementary school, I saw you morning and evening. In middle school, I saw you on weekends. After high school, I saw you once a month.”

“When you went to university, you worked during winter and summer vacations, so I only saw you during the Spring Festival. When you went to work, haha, sometimes I didn’t even see you during the Spring Festival.” “So, cherish the time your children have around. When you nine brothers were causing trouble at home, it was exhausting. But when you all left home for school, I longed for your return.”

“Now, you all have your own families. Although you are very filial to this old woman, you no longer need me, and you can’t be by my side every day like you were when you were little.”

“The house is always so quiet. Even with lots of people coming and going, Grandma still feels lonely. They’re just working for us, not family.”

“Thankfully, with great-grandchildren, Grandma is lucky. She’s seen so many great-grandchildren born, watched them grow up little by little, and the house is filled with the laughter and joy of children again, sweeping away Grandma’s loneliness.”

Zhan Yue said apologetically, “Grandma, we’re still not filial enough. We haven’t been by your side enough.”

“Now Grandma doesn’t need you to keep her company. I have my great-grandchildren to keep me company. Just help me get all my granddaughters-in-law, then I can die in peace.”

“I’m much more blessed than your grandfather. I can see you get married and hold my great-granddaughter.”

“Grandma, don’t always talk about dying. We don’t like hearing it.”

The old lady laughed, “Grandma is ninety years old, what’s there to be afraid of? Although Grandma is also greedy and wants to live to be one hundred and twenty, that’s what everyone wants. So many people dream of immortality. ”

Married at First Sight Chapter 5019

“Grandma has lived to this age and is still in good health. She’s easygoing and doesn’t dwell on anything.”

Having lived to ninety, the old lady has long since let go of life and death.

“We still don’t like to hear about it, Grandma. How about I take you to the store and then pick you and Beibei up in the evening?”

Zhan Yue changed the subject, not wanting to discuss the issue of life and death with his grandmother.

“You don’t need to pick us up. Your older brother will come to pick us up. Even if your older brother and sister-in-law are busy, Fengying will surely arrange a car to take us home.”

“You, just focus on making money. After work, come pick Xiaoya up. You can treat her to a late-night snack or take her to a movie. In short, you need to find ways to be with her.”

“Also, there’s no need to hide it anymore. If you love her, confess to her and let her know that you love her.” ”

Grandma doesn’t think Xiaoya dislikes you. If you confess, she might not accept you immediately, but once she knows your feelings for her, she will consider you.”

“If you don’t confess, she might think about the gap between our families and not dare to think about it. In that case, it will take you a long time to be together.”

“Grandma is hoping you two will get married this year. Look at your seventh brother. After he confessed to Romina (Lan Ruoruo), they are now talking about marriage and getting engaged. Time flies! It only took one summer to get settled.”

“No, your seventh brother hadn’t even confessed to Romina (Lan Ruoruo) at the start of summer vacation. He didn’t even know he’d fallen for her. It was only when your sister-in-law took the kids to Yangcheng for a trip that Romina (Lan Ruoruo) misunderstood, and the two of them realized their feelings.”

The grandmother and granddaughter talked as they walked out of the hospital.

Zhan Yue helped his grandmother into the car and said, “Grandma, don’t worry about me. I’ll know what’s good for me. Don’t worry, Xiaoya will definitely become your granddaughter-in-law.”

“From now on, you only need to worry about the ninth grandson.”

The old lady fastened her seatbelt herself. “The ninth grandson is still young, no rush. He doesn’t need Grandma to worry about him. You all will help Grandma urge him.”

She had chosen the marriage partners for her first six grandsons, but she hadn’t worried about the last three. It wasn’t that she didn’t want to worry, but that she couldn’t.

She was too old to travel around, and none of the three young men liked any of the wealthy young ladies in Dongguan.

The old lady could only leave the worries to her grandsons and granddaughters-in-law, letting them, as the older brother and sister-in-law, urge him.

“Old Jiu seems to have no idea about love yet. He only knows how to play around all day. He’s not mature enough and still acts like a child.”

Zhan Yue drove out of the hospital and headed towards the Shang family mansion.

The old lady said, “He hasn’t figured it out yet. Aren’t you all late bloomers? When you do, and fate brings you together, everything will be fine.”

At this moment, Zhan Yue’s phone rang. He said to the old lady, “Grandma, I’m driving. Can you answer this for me?”

He freed one hand to take out his phone and let his grandmother answer the call for him.

It was his secretary calling about work. The old lady didn’t ask him anything; after listening to the secretary’s instructions, she arranged how to handle it for him.

Zhan Yue remained silent until his grandmother hung up the phone. He then said, “Grandma knows everything about my company, and she knows it all.”

“Don’t forget, your grandma is still a businesswoman. I have quite a few businesses under my name, I just don’t manage them personally.”

“Grandma has looked into the projects you brothers have invested in, so she knows everything.”

Zhan Yue felt that his grandmother was still very capable for her age, truly the pillar of their family; nothing escaped her notice.

It’s just that his grandmother didn’t want to manage things anymore. If she still wanted to, the Zhan Group could be handed over to her to manage.

“You should go on a business trip next week. One of your subsidiaries is having some problems, and you can’t afford to ignore it. Your business rival is a formidable opponent, so don’t be careless.”

Zhan Yue’s expression turned serious, and he said, “Grandma, I know. I’ll just go on a business trip in the next couple of days to handle that matter. I won’t give the rival a chance.” ”

Xiaoya is taking a day off on Saturday. Didn’t we agree to invite her to your house for a visit? It’ll also be a chance for her to keep me company and chat. This is a legitimate opportunity that Grandma has managed to secure for you, even if it means losing face.”

The old lady felt that business was important, but winning over her granddaughter-in-law was even more important.

Their Zhan family was large and powerful; even if their grandsons’ companies had problems, they wouldn’t collapse. At most, it would just give them a headache for a few days.

Married at First Sight Chapter 5020

They were all business talents she had personally trained. Through taking over the family business, they had accumulated a lot of experience, and they could handle any problem.

Even if the sky fell, she believed they could hold on.

“I’m going on a business trip for the next two days, I’ll be back on Saturday.”

“With your abilities, you can’t solve the problem in two days. You should postpone your trip for two days.”

Zhan Yue: “...Okay.”

If his grandmother hadn’t answered the phone for him, he wouldn’t have known that she was so perceptive. She even knew about the problems at his branch company and said he couldn’t handle it in two days.

His opponents were quite formidable. His head office hadn’t encountered any strong rivals, probably because the head office was located in Dongguan.

Everyone knew that Dongguan was the Zhan family’s stronghold, with the powerful Zhan Group as their backing. He didn’t have any strong opponents in Dongguan.

On the contrary, his branch company had many competitors. That was other people’s territory. He was doing business in other people’s territory, and they didn’t want his branch company to grow big.

Naturally, they would seize any opportunity to bite him.

“Grandma, is there anything else you don’t know?”

Zhan Yue asked with a smile.

“Yes, I don’t know when Xiaoya will marry you.”

Zhan Yue: “...”

Grandma has killed the conversation.

The old lady yawned and said to Zhan Yue, “Eighth brother, Grandma got up early today and is a little sleepy. Grandma will close her eyes and rest for ten minutes. When we get to Shangjia, wake me up.”

“Grandma, go to sleep. I’ll wake you when we get there.”

The old lady fell asleep quickly.

Zhan Yue envied his grandmother’s good sleep; he sometimes tossed and turned, unable to sleep.

A dozen minutes later, they arrived at the Shang family’s villa.

Zhan Yue honked the horn, and soon Audrey came to open the door.

Seeing Zhan Yue and the old lady, Audrey smiled, “I just came from Tongtong’s place, and you’ve already arrived.”

The old lady woke up at just the right moment, without Zhan Yue needing to wake her.

Once the car had pulled into the villa and parked, the old lady opened the door herself and got out.

“Great-Grandma!”

Audrey was playing with Beibei in the yard, so when she heard the car horn, she opened the door herself without waiting for the servants.

Beibei was overjoyed to see the old lady and ran over, calling out “Great-Grandma!

” Audrey quickly called out, “Beibei, don’t run so fast, be careful not to fall.”

The old lady also hurried towards her great-granddaughter.

It was a mutual rush between the two grandmothers.

“Great-Grandma!”

“Yes!”

Beibei rushed over, and the old lady picked her up.

Married at First Sight Chapter 5021

“Great-Grandma, where did you go?”

Beibei hugged the old lady’s neck. “I haven’t seen Great-Grandma when I wake up these past two days.”

She looks for her mother at night, and during the day, she looks for Great-Grandma.

“Great-Grandma had something to do and went out. Tomorrow, starting tomorrow, Beibei will be able to see Great-Grandma when she wakes up.”

The old lady said affectionately, “From now on, whenever Great-Grandma goes out, she will take Beibei with her, okay? She won’t let Beibei stay home alone anymore.”

Beibei let go of the old lady’s neck and asked seriously, “Is what Great-Grandma said true?”

“When has Great-Grandma ever lied to you? Great-Grandma loves you the most.”

Beibei smiled happily, “I love Great-Grandma the most.” Seeing Zhan Yue, she called out happily again, “Uncle Eight, hug me.”

Zhan Yue took the little girl from the old lady’s arms and teased her, “Doesn’t Beibei like Uncle Eight?”

“Yes.”

“Is he your favorite?”

The little girl blinked her big eyes and looked at Zhan Yue, as if she was struggling with whether to tell the truth or lie. In the end, she told the truth, “He’s not my favorite, but I like all the uncles.”

Everyone laughed.

Audrey teased her, “Beibei, tell your great-aunt, which uncle do you like the most?”

“I like my mom and dad, great-grandmother, and brother the most.”

“Uncle, um, I like my second uncle the most because I can see him every day.”

Children naturally like whoever spends the most time with them.

She can see her second uncle every day, he can hug her every day, and he can make her happy. He’s the one she’s most familiar with and the one she likes the most, so naturally, it’s her second uncle.

Zhan Yue’s handsome face fell. “Beibei doesn’t like Uncle Ba the most, does she? Uncle Ba, please try to spend more time playing with Beibei in the future, okay?”

The little girl nodded.

“Aying, where’s your grandson?”

the old lady asked Audrey, and the two walked towards the main house together.

Beibei was being carried by her Uncle Ba.

“The older one went to kindergarten, and the younger one went back to her parents’ house with her mother, so I can finally have some peace and quiet. Beibei is so easy to take care of; she’s such a sweet and adorable little girl. It’s so comforting to hear her ask a million questions.”

“Beibei has so many questions now. She’s only started speaking more fluently lately, and her little mouth just keeps chattering away.”

The old lady praised her granddaughter for being so talkative.

“It’s good that she’s not like her father. Ah Yin doesn’t talk much, he’s more lively like Tong Tong.”

Zhan Yue said, “Big brother talks a lot now.”

“That’s in front of family. When he was little, he was the least talkative. When guests came, he would at most say hello and then sit quietly to the side, only speaking when asked a question.”

Audrey laughed, “Zachary was like that when he was little. Bei Bei looks more like Zachary, and also a bit like Tong Tong. She’s inherited the best features from both her parents.”

“That’s right, our Bei Bei is so good.”

After entering the house and sitting down, the maid served hot tea, and the old lady asked again, “Where is your old Shang?”

“He doesn’t need to take care of his grandson. He’s already gone fishing. He’s obsessed with fishing now. He feels uneasy if he doesn’t go fishing for a day. Sometimes he even asks me to go with him, saying he’ll fish and I’ll grill the fish, and we’ll eat it all on the spot before coming back.”

Audrey said disdainfully, “The fish he catches are so small that I can barely eat two bites after grilling them. It’s a waste of my time. ”

“It would be better to just have someone buy the ingredients and have a barbecue in the yard,” the old lady said. “When are we having a barbecue? Call me; I haven’t had one in ages.”

Audrey said, “...Let’s wait until winter, when it’s colder. But you’re getting on in years, so you should eat less.”

“It’s alright. I just had a checkup at the hospital, and the doctor praised my health, saying my test results were better than many young people’s,”

Zhan Yue said. “If Grandma wants to eat, we can have it at home. But like Aunt Feng said, let’s wait until winter; it’s still warm now.”

Winter comes late in Dongguan; right now, it's only cool in the evenings and mornings, far from cold.

It won't get cold until November, and even then, it won't be cold for long before the temperature rises again.

In Dongguan, thick coats won't be necessary for winter.

"It'll be more lively with more people,"

Audrey said with a smile. "We'll all come to your house and have a barbecue with you, it'll be so much fun."

"Then it's settled. Eighth Brother, give Beibei to me, you should go back to work. I've taken up half your day again."

The old lady changed the subject, urging Zhan Yue to go back to work.

Zhan Yue said, "I was thinking of staying at Aunt Feng's for lunch before I left, but Grandma won't let me stay?"

"That's right, since you're already here, stay for lunch before you leave."

Audrey also wanted Zhan Yue to stay for lunch.

Zhan Yue said that, but he didn't really want to stay. After putting down his teacup, he stood up and said to Audrey, "Aunt Feng, I was just joking. I have important business at the company, I have to go back first."

"You have another lunch appointment. Next time you have time, I'll definitely stay at Aunt Feng's for lunch."

After the two families became relatives, they had a close relationship and got along like family. Audrey didn't try to keep him, and said with a smile, "Alright, you go ahead and do your work, come over for lunch another day." She asked the housekeeper to escort Zhan Yue out.

After Zhan Yue left, Audrey asked the old lady, "Tongtong said your eighth son is making a move? She's a doctor. What's the girl like?"

"She's a doctor. Her whole family are doctors. She's a nice person. She's not exactly stunning, but the eighth son is a good match for her. As long as the eighth son likes her, I don't care."

“You’ve had so many granddaughters-in-law already. Even if a grandson brought a man home, I could accept it.”

Audrey chuckled. “You make it sound so easy, old lady. If someone actually brought a man home, you’d be so anxious you’d get blisters on your lips. When my second son was always single, I said the same thing: as long as he was willing to get married, I’d accept it even if he brought a man home.”

“That was just talk. If he actually brought a man home, it wouldn’t be like that. Luckily, my second son is a normal kid.” ”

Tongtong said the eighth son hasn’t confessed yet. Did he only recently fall for her?”

The old lady replied, “I only found out recently. He probably fell for her last month. You know he was in a car accident at the beginning of last month and was hospitalized.”

“Xiaoya happens to be his doctor. He fell in love with her at first sight. He didn’t want to be hospitalized at first, but later he wanted to stay in the hospital for a long time. He stayed for more than ten days and was almost kicked out of the hospital.”

“When you have someone you like, you stay a few more days, haha, it’s normal. Your grandsons are all like that. I guess all men with a woman they love are pretty much the same.”

“Great-Grandma, I’m hungry.”

Beibei didn’t understand the conversation between the two. She played by herself for less than two minutes and then went to the old lady and said she was hungry.

“Beibei is hungry, shall we have some porridge?”

Audrey quickly got up and went to the kitchen, saying as she went, “Tongtong said that Beibei still eats mostly soft food. Before I went to pick her up, I had someone cook porridge.” ”

Beibei’s teeth come in later than most children, and she doesn’t eat much solid food yet, so I’ll cook porridge for her.”

Their children are not lacking in nutrition, but Beibei’s teeth just come in a little later than her brothers’.

Married at First Sight Chapter 5024

They all felt that Zhan Wei had lived in Yangcheng for several years and bought a large villa there, which meant he had essentially settled down in Yangcheng, so the wedding would be held there.

Zhan’s relatives and friends would be able to charter flights to Yangcheng for the wedding banquet.

“We’ve bought two more large villas in Yangcheng. When the wedding is held, relatives and friends will have a place to stay,” the old lady said. “Okay, I’ll call the master’s apprentice later and ask him to help Lao Qi choose an auspicious day for the engagement ceremony. After that, they can get their marriage certificate, and the wedding will be held in about a month.”

“Are two villas enough? You can buy a few more; we’ll have many people coming,”

Bei Bei said, seeing that her great-grandmother was about to speak loudly. She sensibly handed the phone back to her great-grandmother and climbed onto the old lady's lap, sitting in her arms so she could hear her great-grandmother and grandfather clearly.

Zhan Lirong said, "That's enough. Seventh Brother already owns two villas. He just bought one, which is very close to the Lan family's house. He said he'll live there after the wedding, so it'll be convenient for Romina (Lan Ruoruo) to visit her parents' home."

"If it's not enough, we'll arrange for her to stay in a hotel."

That's their plan.

The prospective in-laws also said they could arrange accommodations for the Zhan family's relatives and friends who come to the wedding.

The old lady nodded, "Just make the arrangements. As long as it's not embarrassing, it's fine. This is a major life event for Seventh Brother, so it can't be taken lightly. Make sure it's handled properly and that he marries Romina (Lan Ruoruo) in a grand and glorious way."

Among the grandsons' weddings, apart from the eldest son Zachary's wedding, which was the most grand, the weddings of the other grandsons were all of the same level. No one would be treated unfairly.

"Mom, don't worry at all. With so many of us coming, how could we possibly mess it up? This isn't our first time hosting a wedding; we've got experience."

The old lady smiled. "I trust you all to handle things. Let your wife answer the phone; she probably still wants to talk to Beibei."

Zhan Lirong said, "Doesn't Beibei want to talk to Grandpa?" "Beibei can talk on the phone now? Let me talk to Beibei!" came the voices of Master Zhan and the others from the side.

Before they went to Yangcheng, the little girl could barely speak, but now she could actually chat on the phone.

Everyone was vying for the phone to talk to Beibei.

The little girl didn't show favoritism and spoke to every elder, but the conversation was always the same few sentences over and over again.

After finally ending the call, the old lady's phone was burning hot.

After the old lady put down her phone, Audrey asked with a smile, "When is your seventh son inviting us to his wedding?"

"The betrothal gifts are ready. They asked me to pick a new date for the ceremony. After the engagement banquet, they'll come back first, and then go for the wedding."

The old lady smiled and said, "After the master chooses a date, I'll send you the invitations."

"Is the wedding in Yangcheng?"

"Yes, it's there. If she's a native of Yangcheng, having the wedding in familiar surroundings will make her feel more comfortable."

Although Romina (Lan Ruoruo) had been to Guancheng, she was still unfamiliar with it. She didn't know most of the people there and would feel uncomfortable.

"Anyway, the seventh son has acquired property there, works there, and lived there for several years. It's practically his home, so having the wedding there is fine."

"Our relatives here will all be chartered flights by the Zhan family. They've also bought houses. If they dare to invite you to their wedding, they'll definitely be able to arrange everything perfectly."

Married at First Sight Chapter 5025

Audrey said, "We never worry about these little things."

"Your Zhan family is really considerate of the bride's family,"

Audrey sighed in admiration.

"Mainly because the child lives there and is familiar with their circle, it's suitable to hold the wedding there."

Audrey nodded, agreeing.

“Great-Grandma, I’m sleepy.”

The little girl yawned as it was time for her afternoon nap, then leaned against the old lady.

The old lady hugged her, saying affectionately, “Sleep, Great-Grandma will hold you while you sleep.”

Audrey was worried about tiring the old lady, so she reached out to take Beibei, saying, “Grandma, let me hold Beibei to sleep. You’ve been holding her for so long, don’t tire yourself out.”

After all, she was a ninety-year-old woman.

Her stamina wasn’t as good as a young person’s.

The old lady asked Beibei, “Beibei, would you like Auntie to hold you while you sleep?”

The little girl wasn’t picky at this point, and when Audrey reached out, she let her hold her.

Within two minutes, she was sound asleep.

Audrey said softly, “Beibei is easier to take care of than my grandson. No matter how active she is, she’s not as mischievous as those boys.”

“That’s right, Beibei is so smart and sensible.”

The old lady didn’t hold back in praising her great-granddaughter.

“I’ll call the master first and ask him to pick an auspicious date for my seventh son.”

This time, she’ll choose two dates: one for the betrothal gifts and one for the wedding.

Some of the dates she chose before have already passed, or are too close, too rushed, or too far away. Seventh Brother couldn’t wait any longer.

While the old lady was calling a fortune teller to choose a new auspicious date, Zhan Wei was getting out of his car with a bouquet of flowers, heading towards the Lan Group’s office building.

Now that the two companies were negotiating a collaboration, he used the excuse of discussing the deal every day to actually come see his beloved.

Chang Xiao privately complained to his wife that after knowing Zhan Wei for so many years, this was the first time he'd realized Zhan Wei was someone who loved beauty more than power. Now, many company matters were being handled by him.

He was working himself to death!

Mrs. Chang could only comfort her husband, saying things would be better after Zhan Wei and Romina (Lan Ruoruo) got married.

Chang Xiao said Zhan Wei would go on his honeymoon after the wedding, and by the time he returned, the New Year wouldn't be far off.

Mrs. Chang continued to comfort her husband, saying he was the founder of Yangtai Company and should contribute more. For the past few years, Zhan Wei had been managing the company; he, as the founder, couldn't always be a hands-off boss.

Actually, Mrs. Chang also hoped Zhan Wei would get married soon and return to his previous work efficiency, so that she and her husband could continue to enjoy a comfortable life.

Chang Xiao said that once Zhan Wei had settled his life's major event, he would definitely leave the company, only collecting quarterly dividends and refusing to concern himself with anything else. If he tried to manage even a small matter, Zhan Wei would simply dump the entire company back on him.

He was truly not cut out for business; if it weren't for Zhan Wei's newly reorganized management team, he wouldn't have been able to handle it. Although Zhan Wei frequently visited the Lan Group, he still made arrangements for the company's major affairs.

Zhan Wei also knew in his heart that he couldn't completely rely on Chang Xiao, the founder.

"President Zhan."

"President Zhan."

As he entered, the people from the Lan Group greeted Zhan Wei with smiles.

They were already used to his daily visits.

Before, when Zhan Wei and Romina (Lan Ruoruo) were mortal enemies, Zhan Wei would often appear at the Lan Group, but back then he came to fight with Romina (Lan Ruoruo).

At the height of their conflict, Zhan Wei actually came to the Lan Group to slam his fist on the table with Romina (Lan Ruoruo).

Married at First Sight Chapter 5026

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) had frequently gone to Yangtai to bang on Zhan Wei's desk.

Everyone in Yangcheng's business community thought the two would fight forever, until they were old and dead. No one expected them to become lovers and get married soon. The fact that their two companies could turn enemies into friends was a complete surprise.

Zhan Wei smiled in response.

Taking the elevator upstairs, he saw Romina (Lan Ruoruo)'s secretary and asked, "Is Romina (Lan Ruoruo) here?" "

The vice president just came back from a meeting. President Zhan, you've come at just the right time. If you had come five minutes earlier, you would have had to wait."

The secretary strongly suspected that Zhan Wei knew her vice president's schedule, as he always arrived just when the vice president had finished something and had some time to receive him.

Zhan Wei smiled, "Then I've come at just the right time."

He carried the bouquet to the office door, knocked, and only after receiving a reply from Romina (Lan Ruoruo) did he push the door open and go in.

Hearing familiar footsteps, Romina (Lan Ruoruo) looked up, a smile playing on her lips. "Why are you here?"

“Just came to see you.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) laughed. “We see each other every day, why bother seeing each other?”

“I wish I could be with you all the time.”

Zhan Wei walked to her desk, handing her the bouquet of flowers, his eyes filled with affection. “Romina (Lan Ruoruo), these flowers are for you.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) stood up and took the bouquet. “You send me flowers three times a day, my place is practically surrounded by flowers.”

“I’m used to it. I just want you to be surrounded by flowers every day, to keep you in a good mood.”

“I’m in a good mood every day now.”

She put down the bouquet, walked around the desk, and led Zhan Wei to the sofa in the reception area.

“I’ll get you a glass of water.”

“No need, you sit down. The secretary said you just came back from a meeting, you must be tired. You should rest. I can do it myself, it’s not like it’s the first time I’ve come.” Zhan Wei wouldn’t let her get up to get water.

He came to her office every day, and was so familiar with it that it felt like his own home.

He went to get water himself, and also poured a glass for Romina (Lan Ruoruo), then washed some fruit and grabbed some snacks.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) looked at him naturally and said, “I feel like I’m the one who’s here as a guest.”

“Are we still distinguishing between each other?”

Zhan Wei placed the fruit and snacks in front of her. “You should eat these while they’re fresh. I’ll bring you more when you’re done.”

That’s right, the tea leaves, coffee beans, fruit, and various snacks in Romina (Lan Ruoruo)’s tea and fruit shop were all brought by Zhan Wei.

“How can I eat so much? You brought too much. I had to share with my brother and others to finish what you brought in a day.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) complained that he brought too much, but her heart was filled with sweetness.

After they became lovers, she tasted what the sweetness of love was like.

Zhan Wei truly dotes on her and treats her with all his heart. No wonder her parents and family urged her to settle down with Zhan Wei as soon as they learned he liked her, fearing that something might go wrong and Zhan Wei would be snatched away by someone else.

This man is really good.

Of course, he can be incredibly infuriating when he's angry; she's been driven crazy by him countless times before.

Now, she's cherished by him.

Sometimes, thinking about the change in their relationship, Romina (Lan Ruoruo) finds it unbelievable.

“If you can't finish it, share it with my older brother and the others. It'll indirectly help me gain favor with my brother-in-law,”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) said. “My older brother and you are like brothers now, do you still need to keep trying to win him over?”

“Yes, I need to keep trying to win him over so that he won't regret entrusting you to me.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 5027

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) chuckled, “I'll decide my own marriage, it's not up to my older brother.”

However, Lan Dongxiao had indeed spoken highly of Zhan Wei to her, always praising him as a formidable opponent and expressing his desire to avoid a prolonged rivalry.

Even before she and Zhan Wei realized they were in love, her brother hoped the two companies would stop their cutthroat competition, mainly because the Lan Group sometimes didn't benefit from it.

Constantly losing out like this was exhausting and costly.

Of course, Romina (Lan Ruoruo) wouldn't tell Zhan Wei these things, lest he get too cocky.

"I know you're in charge, but you still need to win over your brother-in-law first."

"You don't need to win over my brother; he's always admired you."

Zhan Wei boasted, "Of course, I'm so outstanding, everyone praises me."

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) chuckled, "Alright, alright, you're the best. Everyone admires you, especially many girls who want to get to know you better. Do you want to get to know them better? I can introduce you to some."

Now that Zhan Wei is her fiancé, some people still come to her privately to tell her they love Zhan Wei too and hope she won't monopolize all of his love, but share some with them. Romina (Lan Ruoruo)

, who loves to keep everything to herself, didn't hold back in rebuking those admirers. If they had the guts, they could take Zhan Wei away from her; she wouldn't give her man to anyone.

It wasn't that no one wanted to pursue Zhan Wei, but it was all in vain. After they confirmed their relationship, Zhan Wei, unless he was at the Lan Group, actually started having a bodyguard team around him, not allowing any young woman other than her to come within three meters of him.

She found it a little funny and touching; after he understood his feelings, he treated her incredibly well.

Zhan Wei also said that he learned this from his older brother, who still went out with a bodyguard team, and that even though his brother and sister-in-law had been married for several years and had two children, many women still wanted to interfere in their relationship.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) had met all the young masters of the Zhan family, and she had to admit that the most mature, stable, and exuding masculine charm was Zachary, the eldest young master.

No wonder many girls, after meeting Zhan Wei, disregarded the fact that Zachary was already a husband and father, and tried to interfere in his marriage with Serenity.

Some young girls in their early twenties tried to outshine Serenity, who was already in her thirties, by relying on their youth and beauty.

However, they couldn't even get close to Zachary, their pursuit ending in vain. Often, Zachary didn't even know their names.

His excellent memory was only for Serenity.

"I only want to have a deeper conversation with you,"

Zhan Wei said, his eyes burning as he looked at her.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) blushed slightly. "Let's get our marriage certificate after this busy period."

Zhan Wei smiled. "Okay, I'm free anytime. Grandma will pick two auspicious dates for us, one for the betrothal gifts and one for our wedding."

Mentioning the wedding, Romina (Lan Ruoruo) asked him, "Are you sure you won't have the wedding in Dongguan?"

"My job is here, and I've bought a house, so I've settled down here. I'll go back to my hometown, but I'll be living in Yangcheng long-term. Our friends and clients are all here now." "

I think having the wedding in Yangcheng is perfect. My relatives and friends from my hometown can come for the celebration." "

Having the wedding in Yangcheng is comfortable for you, and you'll feel at ease. All the relatives and friends are familiar to you. I'll introduce you to my relatives and friends from my hometown." "

Except for very close relatives and the major families, we don't need to worry about distant relatives. Some relatives are only invited for big celebrations."

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) knew that his decision to have the wedding in Yangcheng was entirely for her sake.

"Our wedding house is ready. It's close to your parents' home, so it'll be convenient for you to visit them in the future. We don't want to eat at home, so it only takes a few minutes to walk to your parents' house for a meal."

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) said with a smile, "My family is even thinking of coming to our house for a meal after we get married. They say you're a good cook and they love your cooking."

Married at First Sight Chapter 5028

He also mentioned that among his brothers, his sixth brother was the best cook.

But Romina (Lan Ruoruo) found his cooking delicious.

She was extremely grateful to Grandma Zhan for raising such an excellent man, whom she had married.

"What did your parents and uncles and aunts say?" Romina (Lan Ruoruo) knew the Zhan family elders had come for her and Zhan Wei's marriage.

She could feel how much the Zhan family valued their union.

It felt wonderful to be valued.

Spending time with the Zhan family elders, Romina (Lan Ruoruo) increasingly felt she had struck gold; her future in-laws treated her better than their own children.

A marriage between equals was indeed without obstacles.

Her parents also liked Zhan Wei very much, treating him better than they treated her.

“They had no objections and even praised my thoughtfulness. I already have a home here, so having the wedding here is fine. Many people work away from home, buy houses, and then hold their weddings where they work.”

“Usually, people just invite relatives from their hometown for the wedding banquet. Some people go back to their hometown for a second banquet, but I don’t think that’s necessary. On our wedding day, everyone I invite can come.”

His parents had already bought two large villas; the closest relatives would stay at his house, and the others would stay in hotels.

“We could also have a second banquet in Dongguan.”

He was so considerate of her, and Romina (Lan Ruoruo) was happy to consider his perspective.

“Let’s just have one wedding, a lifelong commitment.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) laughed, “You don’t think having two banquets is like getting married twice, do you?”

“Anyway, it’s just once—one time I fell in love, one marriage, and a lifetime of love.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) leaned in and gave him a quick kiss on the cheek. “Zhan Wei, I love you to death!”

Zhan Wei pulled her close, his voice low and husky. “I love you to death too. One kiss on the cheek isn’t enough.”

Then, he kissed her red lips tenderly and passionately.

After the kiss, Zhan Wei didn’t want to let go, holding her tightly.

Every kiss was filled with passion; he longed to become one with her.

But they weren’t married yet, and he respected her wishes, not wanting to cross any lines before the wedding.

He’d just have to bear with it.

It would be soon.

His grandmother knew he was impatient and would definitely help him choose an auspicious day so that after he and Romina (Lan Ruoruo) got engaged, they could immediately begin preparing for the wedding.

With the help of his parents and uncles, all the wedding arrangements were in place; everything was ready except for him and Romina (Lan Ruoruo), the soon-to-be-married couple.

“Romina (Lan Ruoruo), I really want to have the wedding soon. I’m going crazy thinking about you.”

His last sentence carried a deeper meaning.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) understood his meaning, and her face flushed slightly.

She whispered, “Isn’t it almost time? Once we get our marriage certificate, we’ll be a legally married couple.”

“Right, I haven’t really looked at our wedding room yet. I just took a quick look around last time.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 5029

“You can come over anytime to browse; the decor is exactly what you like.”

“The furniture and appliances I bought were all to your liking. It’s our home.”

Zhan Wei said, then returned to her lips and gently poked them, his voice low and husky, “Now, the only thing left to do is decorate our wedding room, and put up the red double happiness symbols.”

Not only the wedding room, but the entire villa will be decorated with festive red double happiness symbols.

His current villa will also be decorated; it just depends on where Romina (Lan Ruoruo) wants to stay on her wedding day.

Anyway, it’s all his house, and it will all be her home in the future.

“Romina (Lan Ruoruo), you can go wherever you want on your wedding day.”

“I’ve arranged everything, you could say everything’s ready, except for you, the bride, entering the house.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) gently pushed him away. “Stop fooling around. Let’s move into the house you’re living in now, the first house you bought in Yangcheng, and where you’ve lived for a long time. That’s where home feels.”

“We can stay at the houses you buy later occasionally. I also have my own dowry house.”

The house he lives in regularly feels like home. The other houses feel like hotels; he can stay there for a few days if he wants, and go home when he doesn’t.

“Okay.”

“Romina (Lan Ruoruo), kiss me.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo): “...”

This guy is like a leech; once you give in to him, he keeps pestering you.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) still gave him a solid, deep kiss.

A knock sounded at the door, and the two who were kissing quickly let go of each other.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) sat up straight and nudged Zhan Wei, telling him to sit properly so that no one would know what they were doing as soon as they came in.

“Come in,”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) said.
The person who knocked entered.

It was a secretary carrying several documents.

“Vice President, our boss says these documents need your signature.”

The secretaries of the senior management were used to calling their superiors “boss,” as it was the highest-ranking manager in their respective departments.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) took the documents from the secretary, carefully reviewed them, and, finding nothing wrong, gestured for the secretary to fetch a pen from her desk.

The secretary quickly brought the pen and handed it to Romina (Lan Ruoruo) for her signature. After signing, Romina (Lan Ruoruo) returned the documents to the secretary, saying, “Just get the president’s signature.”

The secretary thanked Romina (Lan Ruoruo) and respectfully left the vice president’s office.

She didn’t leave immediately but chatted with Romina (Lan Ruoruo)’s secretary for a moment, speaking softly so the vice president in the office wouldn’t hear.

“President Zhan has successfully proposed. When are you and President Zhan having your wedding, Vice President?”

the secretary asked gossipily.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo)’s secretary replied, “It’ll be handled. You hurry back to work, don’t let the vice president see you chatting here.”

She had been working for Romina (Lan Ruoruo) for several years, her abilities were recognized by the vice president, and she was extremely discreet.

It wasn’t their place to pry into their boss’s private affairs; even if she knew, she wouldn’t say anything without her boss’s permission.

Since their boss and President Zhan became a couple, many junior secretaries and employees in the company liked to come to her to inquire about the news, partly out of gossip, and partly out of envy and jealousy.

They envied and envied the mutual affection between Vice President Lan and President Zhan, who used to be like antagonists, everyone recognizing them as mortal enemies.

Once they fell in love, they were head over heels in love, their sweetness making everyone envious.

“President Zhan is so handsome,” the secretary sighed in admiration.

Married at First Sight Chapter 5030

“Don’t overthink it. President Zhan only has eyes for Vice President Lan. He’s the young master of the richest family in Dongguan, a multi-billion dollar family. He’s also very capable; Yangtai is the best proof of his ability.”

“He’s a prodigy, not someone we ordinary people can even dream of.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo)’s secretary, being experienced, reminded her younger sister not to be infatuated. No matter how good

President Zhan is, he’s not for them. The younger sister said, “I know, I was just marveling. Coming to work here, I realized there really are such handsome and young CEOs in real life.”

“While CEOs in novels and TV shows are all young and handsome, I know that 90% of CEOs in reality are older and can’t possibly be as handsome as idol stars.”

“After meeting President Zhan, I believe there really are such handsome, capable, well-connected, and devoted CEOs in real life.”

“They exist, but they’re very rare.”

Even if they did, they wouldn’t meet them.

“That’s right, multi-billion dollar families are rare. Our Vice President Lan is truly fortunate.”

The secretary said, “Our Vice President Lan is also very outstanding; many bosses dream of her.”

It’s just that they don’t think about it.

The Lan Group’s status in Yangcheng was undeniable; few dared to covet Romina (Lan Ruoruo).

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) herself was a strong woman, and she feared no one.

The unspoken rules of the business world were useless against her; anyone who dared to lay a finger on the eldest daughter of the Lan family was practically courting death.

“Go back to work,”

the secretary urged her junior secretary to leave.

The junior secretary took the signed documents and left.

A while later, Zhan Wei emerged from the vice president’s office. Romina (Lan Ruoruo) was still busy, and he didn’t want to keep taking up her time. If she couldn’t finish her work and needed to work overtime that night, she wouldn’t be able to go on a date with him—it wouldn’t be worth it.

After leaving the Lan Group, Zhan Wei returned to his company.

Chang Xiao, seeing him return, acted as if he’d been saved, dumping all the work on Zhan Wei and then fleeing the company like his life depended on it, ignoring Zhan Wei’s shouts.

He was exhausted from working overtime every day, entertaining clients, and negotiating business deals.

He wanted to rest before Zhan Wei and Romina (Lan Ruoruo)’s wedding.

Once they were married and on their honeymoon, he’d be back at the company like a beast of burden, working himself to death.

“Runs faster than a rabbit,”

Zhan Wei chuckled, unable to stop Chang Xiao.

“So unwilling to work, so unwilling to manage things, yet you were so enthusiastic about starting this business.”

He created Yangtai, which failed miserably, and he saved it, but Chang Xiao, the founder, acted as if it had nothing to do with him.

All he did was ask Chang Xiao to come to the company every day and do some work, and he acted like the sky had fallen and landed on him.

“This is the most irresponsible founder I’ve ever seen,”

Zhan Wei resignedly sat back down at his desk.

After reviewing two documents, Grandma sent him a picture.

It was a new auspicious date chosen for him and Romina (Lan Ruoruo) by a master’s apprentice—who could also be called a master—Grandma had asked.

The betrothal ceremony was in three days, which happened to be a Saturday.

The wedding was in twenty days. For others, this might be a bit rushed, but for Zhan Wei, who had everything prepared, it felt a little late. He wished it could be earlier.

However, he didn’t bother choosing.

The date chosen by that powerful master’s apprentice couldn’t be bad; it was perfect for him and Romina (Lan Ruoruo).

Married at First Sight Chapter 5031

Even the day he was to get his marriage certificate had been carefully chosen by his grandmother.

Tomorrow morning, between nine and eleven, was the perfect time.

Zhan Wei looked at the date list his grandmother had sent, a smile spreading across his face. His grandmother truly understood him; she had picked the closest possible date for him.

He called his grandmother.

The old lady answered the phone and asked him, “Seventh Brother, do you have any objections to this date? It’s the closest one, suitable for the two of you.”

“Grandma, I’m very satisfied. Thank you for your trouble.”

The old lady smiled and said, “Grandma knew you were in a hurry, so we chose the closest date to get your marriage certificate. We were lucky; it just so happened to be an auspicious day.”

“Thank you, Grandma.”

“Why are you being so polite with Grandma? As long as you’re both married, Grandma is at ease. All my wishes have come true.”

Zhan Wei smiled and said, “All of Grandma’s wishes will come true. I heard that Eighth Brother also has someone he likes. Grandma even gave him some advice on how to pursue his wife.”

“Yes, Eighth Brother’s crush lives in Dongguan, not far away, very close. Grandma just gave him some pointers. Eighth Brother is slow and not in a hurry at all.”

“He’s still young, no need to rush. Let him date first.”

“He’s not young anymore, he’ll be thirty in two years. It’s okay for Eighth Brother to be slow. As long as he has someone he likes, Grandma is at ease.”

“I told Grandma a long time ago not to worry about us. Just make sure she eats well, drinks well, sleeps well, and has fun. We’re all adults; we can handle our own affairs.”

Zhan Wei has never been in a rush about major life events.

It’s just his family who are anxious, seeing him approaching thirty-two, they’re all getting impatient.

Now he’s given the fastest answer.

He’ll find someone he likes within a few months, then meet the parents, discuss marriage, and finally get married—all within six months.

“Aren’t you off work yet? Grandma will eat first. I’ll come over after you and Romina (Lan Romina (Lan Ruoruo)) have your wedding. I won’t go to your engagement party.”

“Your parents are there, and your eldest uncle and third uncle are also there.”The old lady was too old to run, and she couldn’t run anymore.

Sometimes, you can’t deny getting old.

After ending the call, Zhan Wei forwarded the picture his grandmother had sent him to Romina (Lan Romina (Lan Ruoruo)).

Romina (Lan Romina (Lan Ruoruo)) was either busy or off work, and didn't reply immediately.

Zhan Wei wasn't in a hurry.

Anyway, his marriage to Romina (Lan Romina (Lan Ruoruo)) was inevitable.

After dinner, the old lady, accompanied by Audrey, took a walk in the yard to digest her food before returning to the guest room to rest.

Beibei had fallen asleep after eating porridge and hadn't woken up yet.

It was good that the little one was still sleeping, so the old lady could rest.

Otherwise, if she woke up, the old lady would have to play with her.

For the old lady, every day was happy and fulfilling.

So, time passed quickly.

In the blink of an eye, it was Saturday.

Meanwhile, Zhan Wei and Romina (Lan Romina (Lan Ruoruo)) had already obtained their marriage certificate and held their engagement banquet in Yangcheng, and were just waiting for the wedding.

Tang Junye and his wife, as well as the Third Master and his wife, returned to Dongguan first.

Zhan Wei's biological parents are still in Yangcheng.

Zhan Wei is their youngest son, so they still have to worry about him a bit.

Their son and daughter-in-law have returned, and it's the weekend, so their grandson and granddaughter-in-law don't need to go back to the company. The old lady doesn't have to worry about her beloved great-granddaughter being left unattended, so she had her driver take her to Zhan Yue's house last night.

Married at First Sight Chapter 5032

As dawn broke, the old lady, as usual, got up to take a walk in the yard, then practiced Tai Chi for a while. Returning to her room, she hadn't seen Zhan Yue come downstairs yet. She asked the housekeeper, "Hasn't Eighth Master gotten up yet?"

The housekeeper replied, "Usually on weekends, Eighth Young Master doesn't get up until almost noon, unless he has plans to go out with friends or is with important clients."

"Eighth Young Master always says he's busy all week, and on the weekend he wants to sleep in for a couple of days," the old lady said. "What day is it today? He's still sleeping in. I

'll go upstairs and wake him." The old lady said, heading upstairs. The housekeeper offered to help her, but she refused.

She could walk two laps around the yard herself; she didn't need help.

Usually, her grandsons helped her; she was just giving them a chance to be filial.

The housekeeper then gave up on helping the old lady upstairs and stood at the top of the stairs watching her slowly ascend.

Zhan Yue had actually set an alarm, but after it went off, he turned it off and went back to sleep.

He'd even forgotten why he'd set his alarm on Saturday.

He'd been out socializing until late last night, and the house in Wansheng Garden was being renovated; work was suspended today because Master Tang couldn't come, and he'd told him last night.

So, he didn't need to go over today.

He just wanted to get a good night's sleep.

Then, knocking on the door kept coming, making it impossible for Zhan Yue to fall back asleep.

He walked out barefoot to open the door, his handsome face still gloomy. He thought it was the housekeeper knocking, and was seething with anger.

He opened the door, about to unleash a torrent of abuse, when he saw his grandmother standing there. Zhan Yue was startled. “Grandma?”

“Still sleeping? The sun’s high in the sky! Get up!”

“Then go pick up Xiaoya from the Zeng family clinic. Have you forgotten my appointment with Xiaoya? I asked her to come over today to chat with me and give you a tour of your big villa.”

Zhan Yue: “...Grandma, I almost forgot. I was wondering why I set my alarm on Saturday.”

The old lady slapped him across the face. “You brat! I shamelessly fought for this opportunity for you, and you’ve forgotten it! Hurry up and get ready to pick up Xiaoya.”

Zhan Yue wasn’t angry at all after being slapped by his grandmother. Instead, he grinned and said, “Grandma, I’ll be right there. Give me ten minutes.”

“Hurry up.”

“Okay.”

Zhan Yue turned and walked back.

The old lady went downstairs and instructed the housekeeper to prepare food, drinks, and various fruits that she thought were delicious, so she could entertain Xiaoya when she arrived.

Ten minutes later, Zhan Yue appeared before the old lady looking refreshed.

“Grandma, how do I look? Do I look good? Is my outfit alright today?”

He was wearing a white short-sleeved T-shirt and black casual pants, and his stubble was clean-shaven.

“No problem. Casual clothes are fine at home. Your skin tone suits white tops too. You look great.”

“Would you like something to eat before picking up Xiaoya?”

the old lady asked. Without waiting for Zhan Yue’s answer, she quickly instructed the housekeeper to bring out Zhan Yue’s breakfast.

Zhan Yue had intended to leave for the Zeng family clinic now, but his grandmother had already instructed the housekeeper. He said, “I’ll eat something before I head out; it’s still a bit early.”

The clinic was only a ten-minute drive from his home, taking about twenty minutes unless there were red lights along the way.

It wasn’t far.

“Grandma, isn’t Beibei coming with us?”

Zhan Yue asked.

He had assumed his little niece was with her grandmother.

Married at First Sight Chapter 5033

The old lady said, “I had the driver bring me here last night. Your uncle and his family came back, so they let them have some time to get to know each other. You weren’t even back when I arrived.”

She went to bed early. Even after she went to sleep, Lao Ba (the eighth son) still hadn’t returned.

And the housekeeper and the others finished work at ten o’clock at night.

Zhan Yue didn’t know that his grandmother had come last night, which was normal; he assumed she had come early this morning.

“Grandma came over last night. I thought she had just arrived. I was wondering why she didn’t bring Beibei. I’ll bring my two little darlings over to play this weekend. With two kids around, Xiaoya will feel more at ease,” the old lady said. "If you want the sound of children's laughter at home, that's easy. Your nephews don't have to go to kindergarten this weekend. Have something to eat first, then go pick up Xiaoya. Grandma will call your brothers and sisters-in-law for you."

"Have them bring their kids over to play for a day. It'll be lively, as lively as you want."

"Do you want just the kids to come, or do you want your brothers and sisters-in-law to come too?"

"Only Ayin and Yichen are in Dongguan. Your other brothers aren't in Dongguan," Zhan Yue said. "Then let's invite my eldest and second brothers over. Bring the kids over for dinner. It'll be lively, and Xiaoya can spend some time with my two sisters-in-law."

"Okay, Grandma will call them later and ask them to bring the kids over to play. Your Xiaojun's child is also at your older brother's house. Xiaojun is pregnant with her second child, and Su Nan is worried that his son is too naughty and might run into Xiaojun."

"Su Meng has been staying at your older brother's house recently, so he will definitely come over."

Zhan Yue laughed, "Grandma, this isn't a small place. We can manage with another child. Bring them all. Isn't Yangyang coming back this weekend?"

The old lady said, "No, he's a bit busy with his studies now. After all, he's in junior high school. Although his grades have always been very good, it's because he puts in a lot of effort. He lives at school during the week and can only come home on weekends. He also wants to spend time with his parents and sister."

"I guess we won't be back until winter break. The kids are all grown up now; we can't have them by our side every day like when they were little,"

the old lady sighed.

When A-Yin and Tong-Tong got married in a whirlwind romance, Yang-Yang was only two years old; now he's in middle school. Time really flies.

“Feng-Ying helped take care of Bei-Bei for a day the other day. If you don’t mind having more people, you could invite Xiao-Fei and her husband. It would be even more lively if they brought their child.”

Zhan Yue: “...I won’t invite them for now. We’ll invite friends and family after Xiao-Ya and I are officially together, and I’ll introduce Xiao-Ya to everyone.”

“I’m worried that too many people will make Xiao-Ya uncomfortable.”

His own brother and sister-in-law didn’t mind; Xiao-Ya had already met his brothers.

The old lady nodded, “Then let’s talk about it later. When winter break comes, all your brothers and sisters-in-law will be back for the New Year, everyone will be there, and you can get together again. You should confess to Xiaoya then, right?”

“Eighth brother, Grandma thinks even if you confess now, it won’t scare Xiaoya. She’s not naive; she’s had a failed relationship before. In terms of relationship experience, she’s much more experienced than you. She won’t be scared.”

The medical student is quite bold.

“Grandma, I’ll arrange it myself.”

“Okay, you arrange it yourself. Hurry up and finish eating to pick up Xiaoya.”

The old lady said, “I won’t disturb your meal. I’ll call Tongtong and Yun Chu and ask them to bring their children over.”

Zhan Yue nodded.

Married at First Sight Chapter 5034

He overheard his grandmother calling his two sisters-in-law while he was having breakfast.

Serenity said on the phone, “I was planning to go with Grandma, but she went last night. I have to take Bei Bei with me, so it’s not appropriate for her to come. I was just talking to Zachary about how the four of us, along with Su Meng, will go to Lao Ba’s house for dinner later.”

“Just as I finished speaking, Grandma called. Grandma, is there anything we need to buy?”

The old lady said, “You guys can buy whatever you think is appropriate. Mainly, buy some food, drinks, and toys for the children. Lao Ba doesn’t have much here, and we’re worried the children might get bored.”

“Also, prepare a small gift for Xiao Ya. It doesn’t need to be too expensive. Lao Ba hasn’t won her over yet, so don’t give her anything expensive for now; Xiao Ya won’t accept it.”

“A small gift is fine. You don’t need to make a big deal out of it. Just bring it up when you’re chatting, and then say you have some here for Xiao Ya.”

Serenity said, “Grandma, don’t worry, I know how to do it.”

“Yes, Grandma trusts you completely. Okay, you two come over early. Eighth Brother will go to the Zeng family to pick up Xiaoya later. I’ll call Second Brother and his wife.”

After instructing Serenity, the old lady called Zhan Yichen, who was still lazing in bed.

The couple were so engrossed in their sweet talk that they almost started trying to conceive when the old lady called.

Zhan Yichen picked up his phone from the bedside table, glanced at the caller ID, and said to his wife, whom he had rolled over and pinned beneath him, “It’s Grandma.”

Ning Yun Chu quickly pushed him away, urging him, “Answer it quickly, Grandma must have something urgent to say.”

Even without her prompting, Zhan Yichen answered immediately.

Grandma was getting old, and they were most afraid of receiving her calls, fearing it was a call for help.

“Grandma, what’s wrong? Are you feeling unwell? Or is there something you need us to do?”

Zhan Yichen appeared calm, but was inwardly quite nervous.

“Grandma’s fine. You haven’t gotten up yet? You sound like you just woke up. You’ve all become lazy, sleeping in late on weekends. You need to stick to going to bed early and getting up early, and you need to exercise regularly. People get fat and lose their good looks in middle age.”

Hearing that his grandmother’s voice was still strong, Zhan Yichen felt relieved, knowing everything was alright.

He said, “We’re usually busy, and it’s only a rare weekend off. Sleeping in a little longer isn’t illegal.”

The couple were usually so busy that even when they slept in the same bed, they didn’t have much time to chat, let alone be affectionate.

If they wanted to be affectionate, they had to arrange a time, avoid social engagements, and go home early.

They also had to wait until the children were asleep, otherwise they worried about being disturbed by them.

“Missing exercise for a couple of days won’t make me gain weight. I pay close attention to my fitness; I won’t get fat in middle age. I’m even more afraid of obesity than Grandma.”

“Do you three have any plans for today?”

the old lady asked.

Instead of answering, Zhan Yichen asked, “Grandma, what are your plans?”

“If you don’t have any plans, bring Momo to Lao Ba’s place for a get-together. Lao Ba brought his sweetheart back, but they haven’t officially started dating yet, so be careful not to scare the young lady.”

Hearing the old lady say this, Ning Yun Chu immediately said from the side, “Grandma, we don’t have any plans. We’ll get up right away, eat something, and then go over. Momo also said she wants to play with her brother.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 5035

“Should Serenity’s whole family come over?” Ning Yun Chu asked again.

“Yes, they’ll be over in a bit. Lao Ba was just worried his sweetheart would be bored, saying that having children around would make things more lively and ease her awkwardness.”

Zhan Yi Chen laughed, “Lao Ba is really considerate.”

“That’s right, Lao Ba is very considerate. That kid, apart from being a bit slow, is better at winning a girl’s heart than you are.”

Zhan Yi Chen said, “Grandma, I wasn’t bad back then either, was I?”

He then asked his wife, “Wife, when I was pursuing you, wasn’t I very considerate? Very good at winning your heart.”

Ning Yun Chu slapped his face, “No way! I couldn’t even see you back then, and you insisted that I bring you flowers. Heaven knows how difficult it was for me to make the trip back and forth. That wasn’t considerate, it was making things difficult for me.”

“I didn’t accept your feelings, and you still took liberties with me. Is that considered considerate?”

Zhan Yi Chen: “...”

The old lady laughed wildly on the phone.

“Second son, it wasn’t Grandma talking about you, it was your wife. But it’s the truth, haha.”

Zhan Yichen said helplessly, “Grandma, could you please stop laughing so loudly? My face is turning red. Grandma, we’ll be there in a bit, okay?”

Having been embarrassed by his wife, Zhan Yichen quickly hung up the phone, not wanting to hear his grandmother’s unrestrained laughter.

Putting down the phone, Zhan Yichen asked his beloved wife, “Wife, did you particularly dislike me back then? Did you think I was making things difficult for you?”

Ning Yun Chu said, "Back then, I just felt you were making so many demands. I felt like you were targeting me, wanting to see me make a fool of myself. You knew I couldn't see, and it's quite a distance from my flower shop to your company. It was very tiring for me to walk to deliver flowers to you."

"But I didn't know what I had done to offend you. I run a business, and whatever the customer asks for, I have to do my best to meet their needs, so I gritted my teeth and delivered the flowers to you."

Zhan Yichen pulled her into his arms, apologetically saying, "Wife, I'm sorry, I used the wrong method. I was thinking that since you can't see, but you sometimes come to see me, I wanted to train you so you could get used to the route from your shop to my company."

"After I knew you were the one I was going to marry, I was prepared to be your eyes for life."

"There are always difficulties in life that you have to overcome yourself,"

Ning Yun Chu said. "So many years have passed, I'm not angry with you anymore. If it weren't for you, I wouldn't be able to see again."

"I molested you... well, it was uncontrollable, but I was wrong, and I apologized to you later."

Afterwards, he was very respectful to her. Before marriage, if she didn't want to, he wouldn't even dare to kiss her, afraid of upsetting her.

Ning Yun Chu pulled him close, biting his lip, then released him before he could react, quickly rolling off the bed to avoid being caught, followed by another round of lingering kisses.

Who knows when she'd be able to get out of bed like that.

Zhan Yichen realized what was happening and really wanted to grab his wife, but he was a step too slow, and Ning Yun Chu had already run away.

He said with a hint of annoyance, "Wife, you've gone astray."

Ning Yun Chu laughed, "This is to repay you. You kissed me without my permission back then, and now I'm kissing you without your permission, so we're even. Let's not bring up the past."

She went into the walk-in closet, picked out an outfit, and asked her husband, “Honey, do I look good in this outfit?”

Zhan Yi Chen had already gotten out of bed and followed her over. Seeing the outfit she had picked up, he said, “You look good in anything, but I’d love to see you in a long dress. It looks beautiful.”

“Wife, since the weather isn’t cold yet, will you wear a dress for me?”

Zhan Yi Chen went over and coaxed her.

Married at First Sight Chapter 5036

“I need to play with the kids, so wearing a dress isn’t very convenient. I’ll just wear this.”

Ning Yun Chu didn’t want to change. She said, “Even if it’s cold, I can still wear a dress. A winter dress is just as good.”

“You should go change too. Go check on our son’s room and see if Mo Mo is up yet.”

Zhan Yi Chen didn’t insist that his wife wear a dress for him; he was just suggesting it.

Thinking about spending the weekend with the kids and playing with them, wearing a dress was indeed inconvenient.

He said, “He gets up before dawn when he doesn’t have to go to school, but when it’s time for school, he won’t get up no matter how much I call him.”

“It’ll be cold soon, and the bed will be the warmest place then. Mo Mo prefers to stay in bed longer when he has to go to school.”

“Kids are all like that.”

Zhan Yi Chen said a little sourly, “Wife, I feel like you favor our son more and don’t love me as much anymore.”

Ning Yun Chu rolled her eyes at him.

“How old are you? Still competing with your son for attention? That’s your son, your offspring! How dare you compete with your son for attention?”

“Yes, yes, you step aside. Zhan Mo is number one in my heart. Isn’t that normal? Most mothers put their children first.”

Zhan Yichen said sourly, “See, you’re telling the truth. You put Zhan Mo first. He took my place, and I can’t even say a word?”

Despite competing with her son for attention, Zhan Yichen still changed her clothes and went to her son’s room. She found her son already up, sitting at the Lego table building with blocks.

Yes, she had given the little guy two new bags of blocks last night, and he hadn’t finished building them all night. He had the kind with very small Lego pieces.

Zhan Mo was only three years old; building with Lego was still a bit difficult for him.

The little guy loves building blocks. Give him two bags to play with, and he can play all day.

Seeing his father come in, Lele looked up at him. When his father got closer, he said, “Dad, I haven’t finished building my blocks yet.”

Zhan Yichen looked closer and saw that the little guy had spread the instructions on the table, sorted the blocks by type, and had already completed most of the building.

“You’ve already finished most of it, that’s great!”

Zhan Yichen sat down next to his son, looked at his achievement, and praised, “Our Lele is really amazing.”

“What time did you get up?”

Zhan Mo said, “I got up as soon as I woke up, I don’t know what time it was, Dad, what time is it now?”

“It’s not early, it’s already past nine o’clock. Aren’t you hungry?”

“I made myself some milk powder, I’m not hungry.”

Little Zhan Mo, engrossed in building blocks, really didn't feel hungry. He probably drank 200 ml of milk powder.

He was over three years old, but he liked milk powder, so his parents hadn't stopped him from drinking it and let him continue.

Most of the time, his mother would make him formula, as his father liked to make him do everything himself, saying that children in the Zhan family needed to learn self-reliance and be able to do everything.

Zhan Mo then made himself his formula.

"Hmm, you won't go hungry. Don't work on it yet, or pack it up and take it to work on with your older brother."

Married at First Sight Chapter 5037

Zhan Mo immediately asked happily, "Dad, are we going to Uncle's house today? I miss Beibei so much; we haven't been to Uncle's house in so long."

He was going to kindergarten, and his parents were busy with work. After school, the housekeeper would pick him up, and he would play at home by himself.

He didn't have any friends to play with.

On weekends, his parents would usually take him out to play, so they hadn't been to Uncle's house.

"It hasn't been that long, has it? Dad remembers playing with your brother and sister last time."

"It has been a long time."

Zhan Yichen smiled. "Okay, it has been a long time. Hurry up and get ready. Your great-grandmother called and asked Mom and Dad to take you to your eighth uncle's house for a couple of days."

"Pack your things and bring two sets of clothes; your eighth uncle doesn't have any clothes for you."

“Are we going to my eighth uncle’s house? Didn’t we say we were going to play with my older brother?”

Lele asked, puzzled.

If they went to his eighth uncle’s house, he would only play for half a day and then come back; he wouldn’t need to stay overnight.

Anyway, it wasn’t far from his uncles’ houses.

“Your great-grandmother is at your eighth uncle’s house, and your eldest uncle will also be taking your older brother and younger sister there today. Since you’re going, why don’t you stay at your eighth uncle’s house for a couple of days?”

“Let your eighth uncle play with you for a couple of days, and you can also spend some time with your great-grandmother.”

Lele said “Oh.” “If your older brother and younger sister are going, then I’ll go pack my clothes now. Dad, can you help me pack up my building blocks?”

“It’s your own business. You can do it yourself if you don’t want to bring them. Your older brother has a lot of toys, he might not even want your building blocks.”

“I’m just worried you’ll be bored at your eighth uncle’s house, that’s why I asked you to bring your unfinished building blocks to play with your brother.”

The eighth uncle is unmarried, so even if he has some toys at home, there aren’t many. They’re mostly for his nieces and nephews. The children usually go to their older brother’s house. Surprisingly, the little ones don’t really want to go to their single, unmarried uncles.

He thought it wasn’t fun and he had no one to play with.

Lele stopped talking, took out his little backpack, packed two sets of clothes, and then came over to put away his building blocks.

Zhan Yichen just watched his son pack up by himself, without helping at all.

“Dad, where’s Mom?”

Lele quickly finished packing up his blocks and asked about his mother.

“She’s changing clothes. After you’re done, go downstairs and eat something. You eat slowly, so eat first, and we’ll eat when we go downstairs later, so we can catch up with you.”

Lele said “Oh” again.

He carried his little backpack and a bag, which contained the toys he wanted to take with him to play with his older brother and sister.

The father and son went out together.

Zhan Yichen led his son to the stairwell, then let his son go downstairs by himself while he went back to his room to wash up.

Ning Yun Chu was already prepared. Seeing him come in, she asked, “Where’s our son?”

“He’s downstairs. He got up very early and is playing with building blocks in his room. I gave him those two boxes of blocks last night, but he hasn’t finished them yet.”

Ning Yun Chu said to him, “You give him Lego bricks, how could he possibly finish them so quickly? Do you think your son is a big kid? No matter how smart and sensible he is, he’s still just a three or four-year-old.”

The little guy, whose full name is Zhan Mo and nickname is Lele, has just turned three and is now a little over three years old, not yet four.

In Ning Yun Chu’s eyes, her son is still a tiny little thing.

But her husband always likes to let their son take care of himself, saying that all children in the Zhan family are like that, they have to learn to take care of themselves from a young age.

He said he started learning martial arts at four, but Lele hasn’t started yet. Ning Yun Chu wants to wait until her son is five before he starts learning martial arts.

“Our son is so smart. He can’t read many words yet, but he can understand those illustrated instructions. Following the instructions, he’s actually put most of the blocks together.”

“I told him to pack them up and take them to Lao Ba’s house to continue building. With his older brother’s help, he can finish those two bags of blocks today.”

Ning Yun Chu said, “Maybe the baby will bring a whole bunch of toys to Lao Ba’s house too.”

The little ones all know that whenever they go to the houses of those uncles who don’t yet have aunts, they have to bring toys, because those uncles don’t have many toys. Even if they prepare some beforehand, it won’t be much.

To avoid being bored, they all bring their own toys.

“That’s perfect, the brothers can play together, they don’t have to stick to you like glue. You should spend the weekend with your man.”

Ning Yun Chu chided him, “Are you still a child? Go wash your face and shave, it’s prickly.”

“I’ll go get something to eat first.”

Zhan Yi Chen stroked his chin and said, “It gets prickly if I don’t shave for a few days.”

He still held onto his wife, asking for a sweet kiss before letting her go downstairs.

He washed up as quickly as possible, shaved, and then felt that his clothes didn’t make him look handsome enough, so he changed into another set of clothes. He looked at himself in the mirror for a while before finally going downstairs satisfied.

The family of three had breakfast, and it was already ten o’clock in the morning when they went out.

Lele was the happiest, constantly urging her father to hurry up.

Even after getting in the car, he was still complaining, “Every time we go out, Dad is the slowest, like a snail.”

Zhan Yichen laughed, “If Dad is a snail, then you are the little snail, because you are my son.”

Lele: “...”

Ning Yunchu smiled, “Your dad is like this, when we go out to play, he dawdles, and on weekends he just wants to stay at home and sleep in.”

“Dad is a lazybones.” “Yes, Daddy, that lazybones, gave birth to you, that little lazybones.”

Lele fell silent.

He was his father’s son, and no matter what he said about his father, his father would say it was him, which was equivalent to saying it about himself.

He couldn’t win against his father.

Hmm, it was a loss, so he decided not to say anything.

Zhan Yichen and his family of three went to Zhan Yue’s house, where Zhan Yue was still waiting for Zeng Xiaoya at the Zeng family clinic.

Recently, the flu had started, and many people had been infected. Both hospitals and clinics were crowded with patients.

Zhan Yichen hadn’t studied medicine, and seeing how busy the Zeng family was, he put on a mask and helped get the medicine.

He wasn’t very good at reading prescriptions and always had to ask his second aunt before he could help.

After a while, the number of patients decreased.

His second aunt knew that her niece was going to Zhan Yue’s house to chat with the old lady today. It was something that had been arranged in advance, and it was hard to change it. Besides, Zhan Yue had been waiting for a full hour, so she couldn’t let him wait in vain.

“Xiaoya, you’re not so busy anymore. You and Zhan Yue go out and play,” his second aunt said to Zeng Xiaoya.

Zeng Xiaoya glanced at the few patients left before she finished seeing them all. She asked Zhan Yue, “Are you in a hurry? If not, I’ll help Uncle see these patients so he can catch his breath.”

Since the clinic opened at 6:30 in the morning, many patients had come in one after another, and the uncle and nephew had been busy until now. Xiaoya was fine; she worked at a large hospital and was used to the high-intensity work.

She was worried about her uncle, who was getting older and whose physical strength wasn't as good anymore.

Zhan Yue considerately said, "No rush, you help your second uncle see these people, they're getting impatient too."

Every year when the flu strikes, it's mostly children who get infected, as their immune systems are weaker and they're more susceptible.

Most of the people waiting to be seen right now are children, each with fever patches on their foreheads.

Although he's not married and doesn't have children, he has several nieces and nephews, and parents are always the most anxious when their children are sick; he understands them.

Anyway, he brought Xiaoya over to chat with his grandmother, show her around his house, and let her get to know his two sisters-in-law. No rush, let's see the patients first.

Second Uncle Zeng said, "It's alright, I can see these people. Xiaoya, you and Zhan Yue go out, don't keep the old lady waiting."

Zeng Xiaoya had already told her aunt and uncle that she was going to chat with Grandma Zhan during her vacation and also visit Zhan Yue's large villa.

Second Uncle and Aunt Zeng thought that Grandma Zhan was helping Zhan Yue pursue his wife, creating opportunities for the two young people to spend time together.

The couple also thought highly of Zhan Yue, but kept quiet about it.

Only their niece was too naive, thinking it was just a chat with the old lady.

However, Xiaoya didn't dislike Zhan Yue, so there seemed to be a chance.

The Zhan family had a good reputation for its family traditions; if Zhan Yue was serious, Xiaoya marrying into the Zhan family would indeed be better than marrying into the Lin family.

Zeng Xiaoya smiled and said, "Then I'll help my second uncle see two more patients and then leave to him."

The patients waiting for their appointments, hearing the uncle and niece's conversation, knew Zeng Xiaoya was about to leave and quickly sat down so she could see them first.

Zeng Xiaoya saw two more patients before leaving with Zhan Yue. As soon as they stepped out of the clinic, they saw Lin's parents walking by on the street, accompanied by He Yuehua.

"Dr. Zeng,"

He Yuehua greeted them first. Mr. and Mrs. Lin nodded to Zeng Xiaoya as a greeting.

"Uncle Lin, Auntie, Miss He, are you going shopping?"

Zeng Xiaoya wasn't surprised that He Yuehua was accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Lin.

Although she didn't love Lin, they maintained a friendly relationship as senior and junior students until he confessed his feelings to her. She knew that Mr. and Mrs. Lin would come to the city every now and then, and He Yuehua always accompanied them.

He Yuehua smiled and replied, "I took Uncle and Auntie to the supermarket and bought groceries for lunch."

Zeng Xiaoya glanced at the bags they were carrying; they had bought groceries, fruit, and some household items.

She said "Oh. "

Mrs. Lin looked at Zhan Yue and recognized him as the young master of the Zhan family she had seen at the hospital that day. He was indeed taller and more handsome than her son, and had a great demeanor—the young master of a billionaire family.

Looking at Zeng Xiaoya, she felt that she and Zhan Yue were a perfect match.

Not at all! He was the young master of a billionaire family.

Lin's mother inwardly grumbled, unwilling to admit that Zeng Xiaoya and Zhan Yue looked good together.

She was incredibly jealous that Zeng Xiaoya was chosen by such a privileged family, while her most prized son could only be with a nurse like He Yuehua.

Although she thought He Yuehua was more capable and better suited for her son than Zeng Xiaoya, she still harbored some resentment towards He Yuehua's family background.

Unfortunately, Zeng Xiaoya simply didn't love her son.

"Dr. Zeng, where are you going? Is this Dr. Zeng's boyfriend?"

Married at First Sight Chapter 5040

Lin's mother asked Zeng Xiaoya.

Zeng Xiaoya looked at Zhan Yue and replied, "Auntie, Zhan Yue is my male friend, not my boyfriend yet. We're going out for a while."

She didn't need to tell Lin's mother where they were going.

Lin's mother felt awkward, thinking to herself, "A male friend will become a boyfriend later. "

Zeng Xiaoya's answer was tantamount to telling them that Zeng Xiaoya and the young master of the Zhan family might become friends.

"Uncle, Auntie, we'll be going now."

Zeng Xiaoya didn't like dealing with Lin's mother. Ever since Lin's mother made unreasonable demands on her years ago, she hadn't had a good impression of her. She only gave Lin some face because she was Lin's mother. She would still greet Lin's parents when she saw them on the way.

"Oh, okay."

Zeng Xiaoya nodded to He Yuehua, then followed Zhan Yue to his Maybach.

Zhan Yue didn't say a word, because he wasn't familiar with those people.

He considerately opened the car door for Zeng Xiaoya, and after she got in, he closed the door before walking around the car to get back into the driver's seat.

He drove off quickly.

The three watched the car disappear into the distance. Lin's mother said, "The car that Young Master Zhan drives isn't much different from our A-Jian's car."

Lin's father said, "You don't know its value. That car is obviously expensive. Our son's car is definitely not in the same class as his. You can tell from the wheels that his car is excellent."

The three walked back to the Lin family clinic. He Yuehua laughed as they walked, "Dr. Lin's car is indeed not in the same class as Mr. Zhan's. The money from one of Mr. Zhan's cars could buy Dr. Lin a dozen."

"That's a Maybach, costing several million,"

He Yuehua explained.

Dr. Lin's car, at its peak, cost just over 300,000 yuan, but now it's dropped to just over 200,000 yuan.

Lin's mother clicked her tongue, a hint of envy in her voice, "Aren't they all black cars? They don't look that high-end, yet they cost millions. Millions for a single car?"

"Are these rich people so rich they don't know what to do with their money? Spending so much on just one car is less valuable than buying a house,"

He Yuehua said. "A car costing millions is probably commonplace for them. They probably have even more expensive cars, cars costing tens of millions. They probably own those." "

They're low-key, that's why they drive cars costing millions."

Lin's mother: "..."

Poverty limited her imagination.

The young master of the Zhan family is so rich, yet driving a car costing millions is considered low-key. If Zeng Xiaoya really marries into the Zhan family, wouldn't she become a young mistress, living a life of extravagance? "What's so great about Zeng Xiaoya? She's not bad-looking, but she's not exactly a beauty. The young master of the Zhan family is rich and handsome; he must have many women who admire him. What kind of beautiful women hasn't he seen? Why would he be interested in Zeng Xiaoya?" Lin's mother blurted out. He Yuehua didn't answer immediately. After the three crossed the street, He Yuehua said, "I heard that the richest family values character when choosing a daughter-in-law. The elders are open-minded; as long as the child likes her, they will support her." "Maybe it's because Dr. Zeng has a blessed face. Everyone who has met Dr. Zeng says she has a blessed face, and her smile is very pleasant. They say that seeing Dr. Zeng's smile tells you she's a very good person," Lin's mother said, pursing her lips.

Married at First Sight Chapter 5041

"Wealthy families really like girls who are blessed with good fortune," said Lin's mother. "They are already extremely rich, do they really need women with auspicious looks to bring them good luck? Those girls with such good fortune should be left for ordinary people."

"Let us ordinary people also welcome good fortune into our homes and be surrounded by it,"

He Yuehua said, remaining silent.

She knew Lin's mother was jealous of Dr. Zeng.

To be honest, she was also jealous of Dr. Zeng. She had admired Dr. Lin for many years, but Dr. Lin had never given her a definite answer.

Yet Dr. Zeng easily won Dr. Lin's love.

Now, she even had a wealthy young master by her side; Dr. Zeng's luck was truly excellent.

However, while He Yuehua was jealous, she wouldn't do anything to hurt Dr. Zeng because of jealousy. She knew that Dr. Zeng had never loved Dr. Lin, and if she did something to hurt Dr. Zeng out of jealousy

, Dr. Lin would definitely be angry and have a problem with her, making it even harder for her to win Dr. Lin's affection.

Everyone has their own destiny.

Dr. Zeng's life was exceptionally good.

That's something you can't envy.

If you don't have that good fortune, even if you win the affections of a wealthy young master, you still won't be able to marry into that family.

The three returned to the Lin family clinic.

"Mom and Dad, you're back. Why didn't you stay out a little longer?"

Dr. Lin asked with a smile when he saw his parents return.

He then looked at He Yuehua and said to her, "I'm giving you two days off. Please spend some quality time with my parents. It's flu season now, and there are so many people coming to see me every day. I'm quite busy."

He Yuehua put down her purchases, washed her hands, put on her nurse's uniform, and went to get medicine for the patients, saying, "No need for a holiday. When I'm not busy, I'll take Uncle and Auntie shopping. When I'm busy, I'll help you here."

Her colleague winked at her.

He Yuehua nudged her colleague, who chuckled.

Lin's father found a place to sit down.

Lin's mother wanted to help, but she couldn't.

She didn't know how to treat patients, nor did she understand how to dispense medicine.

"A-Jian, you go ahead and do your work."

Lin's mother saw that her son's clinic had more patients than the Zeng family's clinic, and she thought her son's medical skills were better than the Zeng family's, which immediately improved her mood.

What kind of medical world is this? It's still no match for her son.

Zeng Xiaoya doesn't like her son, and she doesn't like Zeng Xiaoya either. Don't cry when Zeng Xiaoya is abandoned by the young master of the Zhan family.

Lin's mother only saw the surface.

At the Zeng family clinic, Uncle Zeng and his nephew Xiaoya help with patient care, while Aunt Zeng and Zhan Yue prepare the medicine. Their division of labor makes the process much faster, unlike Dr. Lin who only sees patients alone.

Slower consultations mean longer wait times for patients, making the clinic seem crowded.

"We passed by the Zeng family clinic on our way back from the supermarket,"

Lin's mother said softly, pulling a stool closer to her son. "We saw Dr. Zeng leaving with the young master of the Zhan family. We wonder where they're going. Isn't Dr. Zeng working today?"

"It's Saturday. She's probably on holiday. "
