

Married at First Sight Chapter 5101-5114

Translation effect: Here's some of the names to substitute on the characters, so you don't get confused.

Zheng Hua – Holden

Feng Yue – Clarissa

Feng Family - Farrel family

Feng Ruo – Shiloh

Lan Ruoruo – Romina

Zhan Wei – Merissa

Chapter 5101

He Yuehua was startled by her second uncle and his wife's anger. She first calmed them down, saying, "Dr. Zeng, Mrs. Zeng, please sit down and talk slowly."

"What happened? I really don't know."

"Our Dr. Lin got drunk last night and hasn't returned to the clinic all day."

"I wonder what Dr. Lin did to offend Dr. Zeng?"

She poured them some warm water.

Uncle Zeng said, "Call Dr. Lin and ask him to come over. Let's have a good talk with him face to face. His family is really shameless. Our Zeng family has lived here for generations, and his mother has the nerve to ask my Xiaoya to move out."

"It's not that Xiaoya is clinging to her son; it's that her son is clinging to my Xiaoya."

"Miss He, we all know about you and Dr. Lin. If you really love him, then pursue him properly, be assertive, and don't let him pursue other girls."

"His love only brings harm to my Xiaoya."

Uncle Zeng was so angry mainly because he felt he had always treated Dr. Lin as a student, teaching him what he didn't understand and passing on his experience.

If Zhan Yue hadn't appeared, Uncle Zeng would have considered Dr. Lin his nephew-in-law.

Now, Uncle Zeng had to admire his wife; her judgment of character was much better than his.

His wife always said Dr. Lin and Xiaoya were mismatched.

He even thought his wife was materialistic.

"Second Uncle, Second Aunt."

Zeng Xiaoya knew her second uncle and aunt had gone out, heading towards the Lin family clinic, so she quickly followed.

Had her second uncle and aunt really come to settle scores with Senior Lin? Had they already heard about what happened this morning?

"Second Uncle, Second Aunt, what are you doing here? Come on, let's go home and talk about it at home."

Zeng Xiaoya stepped forward and pulled her second uncle and aunt up, saying to He Yuehua, "Miss He, it's alright, you're busy." She pulled her aunt and uncle away.

"Xiaoya, my second uncle wants to ask him in person..."

"Second Uncle, let's talk about it when we get home. I'll tell you everything."

Zeng Xiaoya interrupted her uncle.

Helpless, Zeng's second uncle and his wife had no choice but to go home with their niece.

After returning home, Zeng Xiaoya told her aunt and uncle everything, including mentioning that Zhan Yue had invited her to lunch, saying that Zhan Yue had helped her clarify the truth and protect her reputation.

"Senior Lin also apologized to me. He didn't know anything about it. Senior Lin is even more upset and angry than we are when he finds out his mother did such a thing."

After a long while, Zeng's second uncle sighed.

"Since you're not angry anymore, and Dr. Lin apologized to you, and he didn't know anything about it, your second uncle won't go after him. However, we should avoid contact with him in the future."

"After this incident, Senior Lin will also distance himself from us; he feels sorry for me."

Zeng Xiaoya sighed. "I never wanted to hurt him, but in the end, we still had a very unpleasant falling out."

"It's not your fault; you didn't do anything wrong," her second aunt said. "If you don't love him, just tell him clearly and reject him. It's much better than stringing him along."

"His mother is unreasonable; she has bad manners. Xiaoya, don't blame yourself; we did nothing wrong."

Zeng Xiaoya didn't say anything.

No matter how bad Lin's mother's manners were, she was still her senior's mother. She was very angry and aggrieved, but she didn't say much to Lin's mother.

She complained to Senior Lin, and he would handle his family relationships. She just hoped that today's incident wouldn't happen again.

Married at First Sight Chapter 5102

After calming her second uncle and aunt down, Xiaoya went upstairs to rest for a while.

Twenty minutes before her shift started, Zhan Yue came to pick her up.

A dozen minutes later, Zeng Xiaoya stepped out of the elevator and headed towards her office.

“Dr. Zeng!”

the nurses called out in unison when they saw her.

Startled, Zeng Xiaoya instinctively went to the nurses’ station. Before they could speak, she asked, “Could it be that auntie again?”

“Yes, she is. Dr. Lin came with his parents. It seems they’re here to apologize to you. They brought quite a few gifts.”

“They’re waiting outside your office.”

Zeng Xiaoya breathed a sigh of relief. “I’m not worried since Senior Lin came along. It’s alright, you guys get back to work.”

She walked towards her office.

Large hospitals are crowded, and even in the afternoon, many patients were still waiting outside her office for her to arrive.

“Xiaoya.”

Dr. Lin saw her, stood up, and called out to her.

He looked embarrassed, feeling guilty and somewhat ashamed to face her.

Mr. and Mrs. Lin also got up. Mr. Lin was a little better off, but Mrs. Lin looked incredibly embarrassed.

She felt so good about yelling at them that morning, and now she was as awkward as could be, wishing she could disappear into a hole.

From the moment she entered the hospital, Mrs. Lin felt that everyone was looking at her unfriendly.

It was her way of knowing she was terribly wrong and feeling guilty.

The people who came to see the doctor in the morning and the people who came in the afternoon were not the same group, and they had no idea about her unreasonable behavior that morning.

Only the hospital staff recognized her. Seeing her arrive with so many gifts, they guessed she was there to apologize.

Their eyes held a hint of disdain.

In recent years, Lin's mother had been pampered back home because of her successful son, who did well in the city and could help relatives and friends who needed medical treatment there.

This flattery had made her somewhat arrogant and concerned with her image.

If Dr. Lin hadn't threatened her with her future, she wouldn't have come to apologize.

"Dr. Zeng, I'm sorry. I was rude and unreasonable this morning. I know I was wrong, and I sincerely apologize to you now," Lin's mother said, forcing herself to apologize to Zeng Xiaoya for her son's sake.

She tried her best to make her apology seem sincere.

"Dr. Zeng, please accept my apology for the sake of A-Jian being your senior. Please be magnanimous and don't hold it against me. I promise I won't do it again."

"I was only acting impulsively because I was worried about my son. Please have pity on me as a mother. I'm sorry, Dr. Zeng, I sincerely apologize to you. I'm truly sorry."

Lin's mother quickly handed the gifts to Zeng Xiaoya. "Dr. Zeng, this is a small token of our appreciation. Please accept it."

Zeng Xiaoya gently pushed away the gifts offered by Lin's mother.

"Auntie, I accept your apology. Take the gifts back; I don't want them."

She then said to Dr. Lin, “Senior Lin, please take your parents home. Let’s leave it at that.”

Dr. Lin said apologetically, “Xiaoya, I’m truly sorry. I didn’t know my mother would do such a thing. I have already severely criticized her. My mother knows her mistake and promises not to do it again.”

“I accept Auntie’s apology.”

Their long-standing friendship also made Zeng Xiaoya give up on pursuing the matter further. She believed that Senior Lin had handled it properly and that such a thing would not happen again.

Married at First Sight Chapter 5103

Dr. Lin looked deeply at Zeng Xiaoya and said gratefully, “Xiaoya, thank you for forgiving my mother. I’ve booked high-speed rail tickets for my parents, and I’ll send them back to their hometown tomorrow.”

“That’s Lin’s family matter; I won’t interfere.”

Dr. Lin paused for a moment, then apologized to Zeng Xiaoya again, wanting to leave a gift, but Zeng Xiaoya firmly refused. The family of three could only leave with the gift.

Dr. Lin knew he was completely out of the running.

Leaving the hospital, Dr. Lin remained silent.

His mother occasionally glanced at her son, not daring to speak.

Only his father comforted him, “Dr. Zeng is a magnanimous person. She said she’ll accept your mother’s apology and won’t hold it against her anymore. A-Jian, you don’t need to worry too much.”

After getting into the car, Dr. Lin said, “Dad, I’m not worried about my future.”

“I feel that my relationship with Xiaoya has to end.”

“I won’t dare go to the Zeng family’s clinic anymore, and I won’t dare ask Uncle for advice. I feel sorry for Xiaoya.”

Dr. Lin’s parents fell silent.

His mother's face was full of guilt.

Only then did she realize how terribly wrong she had been to rush to the hospital that morning to berate and insult Zeng Xiaoya.

In the days that followed, Dr. Lin indeed stopped visiting the Zeng family clinic.

He knew there was no future with Zeng Xiaoya; his only choice was He Yuehua. He wasn't without feelings for He Yuehua; she had sacrificed a lot for him, and most importantly, his parents liked her very much.

Since there was no hope, he needed to keep his distance from Zeng Xiaoya and stop going to the Zeng family clinic every day as before.

Zeng Xiaoya's life returned to normal; she went to work and came home on time every day.

In her spare time, she would help Zhan Yue check on the progress of his house renovation, as Zhan Yue still had many renovation questions to ask her. Their relationship grew stronger.

Another week passed in the blink of an eye.

Zeng Xiaoya's vacation was again on Saturday.

This time, she had promised Zhan Yue she'd go on a road trip, inviting her grandmother and others along. Only her second uncle and her younger cousin were with her; her cousin was on his monthly break this week.

High school studies were stressful, and Zeng Xiaoya wanted her cousin to relax, so she brought him along.

The group went to enjoy the autumn scenery.

After driving around the outskirts, Zhan Yue said to Zeng Xiaoya, "Xiaoya, this isn't far from my hometown. Why don't we go there for a visit? With so many of us, we can have a barbecue. The weather's getting colder, so a barbecue is perfect." Zeng Xiaoya looked at him, "Is this place very close to your hometown? Is your hometown Youyou Mountain Village?"

"Yes,"

her second aunt interjected, “I heard the Zhan family’s old house is more beautiful than many scenic spots. Since it’s so close, let’s go take a look.”

The Zhan family’s old house isn’t open to the public; many people want to go in and admire the scenery but never have the chance.

Seeing that her second aunt was very interested, Zeng Xiaoya agreed to Zhan Yue’s suggestion.

Zhan Yue immediately called the head housekeeper of the old house and asked him to help prepare barbecue ingredients.

Not far away, Serenity handed the cut fruit to the old lady, glanced at Zhan Yue and the others, and said to the old lady, “Eighth Brother said he wants to take Xiaoya back to the old house to see it. I wonder if Xiaoya would like to go.”

The old lady used a disposable fork to pick up a piece of fruit and ate it, saying, “It’s so close, she should go. I’ve been away for a long time, it’s time to go back to the old house for a couple of days.”

“When we get back to the old house, all of you stay here. You can only go back to the city after dinner on Sunday night.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 5104

Serenity said, “Of course, it’s the weekend, we don’t have to work, we can stay at the old house and keep Grandma company.”

“Seventh Brother and Romina (Lan Ruoruo)’s wedding is coming up soon, should we go early? Do you need our help?”

Ning Yun Chu asked.

Zhan Yi Chen said from the side, “We definitely have to go early, it just depends on how many days early. Seventh Brother is married, Eighth Brother has a target, only Eighth Brother is still single.”

As he spoke, he sighed, “Time flies so fast, I always feel like I’m still an eighteen-year-old young man, in the blink of an eye, my son is old enough to run errands, and I’ve become a middle-aged uncle.”

“You can also think of yourself as an eighteen-year-old young man, still single, and able to pursue prettier and younger girls.”

Ning Yun Chu's words made Zhan Yi Chen quickly say, "Even if I become young again, I will still love you, and be with you for life."

"I didn't say anything to you, why are you so nervous?"

Zhan Yi Chen put his arm around his wife's shoulder and smiled, "Wife, I love you."

"Grandma's here."

Ning Yun Chu blushed.

The old lady smiled and stood up. "I'm old, my eyesight is failing, and my hearing is failing. I can't see or hear clearly. I'm going to see my great-grandchildren."

Serenity also stood up. "I'm going to see those little dragons too, they're having a blast."

She helped the old lady up.

The old lady laughed. "Grandma, you don't need to help me. Where did A-Yin take them?"

They had pitched a tent on a large lawn, and Zachary had taken a few children away, no one knew where they went to play.

"Maybe they went fishing by the lake. There's an artificial lake up ahead, lots of people are fishing there."

"Let's go take a look." Serenity helped the old lady walk towards the artificial lake. Many people were there to play; the air was filled with the laughter of children. Some adults were with their children, while others sat under the trees playing on their phones or resting in tents.

This was a popular weekend camping spot, with a pleasant environment of green hills and clear water, far from the hustle and bustle of the city center.

There was also a playground for children and some exercise equipment.

It was a bit windy today, and some children had brought kites and were flying them.

“Grandma, Lao Qi’s wedding is coming up soon. Don’t we really need to go and help beforehand?”

Serenity returned to the previous topic.

“In a few days, your parents, Uncle and Aunt will go first. You’ll be busy with your business, so you can go two days before the wedding. Your Uncle and Aunt are helping out in Yangcheng. Everything is ready, so we don’t need to help much.”

Because the wedding banquet was being held in Yangcheng, the Lan family had taken on many tasks, and the Zhan family only needed relatives and friends to attend.

“Does your sister have time to come over for a drink at the wedding?”

the old lady asked about Liberty’s situation.

“My sister said that no matter how busy she is, she and her husband will bring Niu Niu to the wedding banquet. They might go a day early.”

As the head of the Feng family, Liberty is even busier than Serenity.

The Feng Group has been under her management for several years and is doing better than when the previous head of the family was in charge, all thanks to Liberty and her husband.

The previous head of the family never dared to let her husband manage the company and family affairs, fearing that he would seize power. Even his allowance was strictly limited, never exceeding five hundred yuan a day.

This kind of thing will not happen to Liberty and Duncan.

Married at First Sight Chapter 5105

“It’s not the weekend, so Yangyang can’t come along,”

Serenity said. “I haven’t seen Yangyang in a while. He has a lot of schoolwork to do, but he’s grown up and knows how to share his parents’ burdens. My sister said that whenever he’s on holiday, she’ll take him to the company.”

“Let him see more, get to know how the company operates.”

“With Niuniu along, Yangyang will take good care of his little sister.”

Niuniu can be said to have grown up under the watchful eyes of everyone at the Feng Group.

After giving birth to her daughter and completing her postpartum confinement, Liberty returned to work at the company. She has a nanny at home, but she wasn't comfortable with that, so she brought her daughter back to the company, working and taking care of her at the same time.

The little girl slept in her office from the very beginning; everyone in the company watched her grow up little by little.

Liberty brought her daughter back to work because she didn't feel comfortable leaving her daughter with a nanny, and also because she felt that the Feng Group would eventually be handed over to Niuniu. She wanted Niuniu to grow up at the company, develop an attachment to it, and thus dedicate more effort to it in the future.

As for Yangyang, Liberty wanted him to get acquainted with the business before making any plans. If Yangyang was willing to work for the Feng Group, Liberty would arrange for him to start from the bottom.

However, Yangyang would always be relegated to supporting his sister at the Feng Group.

Liberty hoped that Yangyang would start his own business and create his own success when he grew up.

She wouldn't mistreat her eldest son and would pave the way for him, but almost everything she inherited and owned belonged to the Feng family. According to the Feng family's rules, apart from her previous business in Dongguan, everything else belonged to Niuniu.

Duncan's Lu Group could be handed over to Yangyang to manage, but Niuniu was Duncan's biological daughter, which meant that the Lu Group wouldn't belong to Yangyang alone.

Of course, there was no need to worry about Yangyang's future. Even if he couldn't fully inherit the Lu Group, Duncan would give him half of the shares. Even if he didn't inherit his stepfather and mother's businesses, he still had his aunt, Serenity, who would also arrange a smooth path for her nephew.

From the elders' perspective, they naturally hope that Yangyang can be self-reliant and support himself without relying on anyone.

"There's no need to rush. Yangyang is still a junior high school student. At least wait until he graduates from high school, and then let him work part-time at the company during the holidays to learn." The old lady said, "When you're studying, just focus on your studies and don't get distracted."

"Yangyang's grades are very good."

"That's right, Yangyang has an exceptionally good memory and is very smart. He'll be even more outstanding than his parents in the future, surpassing them completely."

Zhou Honglin wasn't stupid. He lost his job because Zachary was deliberately retaliating against him on behalf of his sister-in-law.

Without Zachary's precise revenge, Zhou Honglin, with his abilities, might have climbed even higher.

Now, Zhou Honglin has long lost his ambition. He earns a few thousand yuan a month, living a peaceful life. He's just waiting for his wife to be released from prison. His son lives with Liberty, so he doesn't have to worry about him. Father and son see each other every now and then for a few days.

Zhou's parents are old and don't want to cause any more trouble. They used to constantly urge Zhou Honglin to divorce Ye Jianni, but now they've stopped. They don't have the energy to do it anymore, and they know their son won't listen to them.

Zhou Honglin said he used to listen to his parents and sister too much, which ultimately led to losing Liberty and depriving his son of a complete family.

"Seventh Brother's wedding is over, and the New Year is almost here. Another year is coming to an end," the old lady sighed, reflecting on how quickly time flies.

It felt like just yesterday that the New Year was over, and now it's almost here again.

“Grandma doesn’t know how many more New Years she has left. At this age, every day is a bonus.”

“Grandma, don’t say those things. We don’t like hearing them. Grandma said she wants to live to be a hundred, like Old Fei, living past a hundred.”

The old lady smiled. “Grandma tries her best, but the outcome is beyond our control. Grandma is already ninety. Even if she passes away tomorrow, she’ll have lived enough, lived enough.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 5106

“Grandma has a great-granddaughter now, and seven great-grandsons, making nine grandchildren in total. Only the ninth one is still single, but Grandma isn’t worried about him. You all help Grandma look after him.”

Serenity protested, “Grandma, I don’t like talking about these things. Let’s not talk about it anymore.”

“Alright, alright, we won’t talk about it anymore,” the old lady said indulgently.

The two walked and talked, Serenity glancing around every now and then, looking for Zachary and the children.

“Mommy, Great-Grandma!”

Bei Bei’s voice called out.

Finally, they found the group of little ones.

Zachary hadn’t taken them fishing; the oldest was only a little over six years old, and such young children wouldn’t have the patience to fish quietly.

He had taken the children to the amusement park and bought them kites, one for each of them.

Zachary was helping his daughter fly her kite when the little girl saw her mother and great-grandmother arrive. She even abandoned the kite, leaving her father and the kite behind, and ran towards her mother.

“I thought they were fishing, but they’re just flying kites,”

Serenity laughed.

“It’s windy today, perfect for flying kites. Seeing other kids flying kites made me think, we didn’t buy any, so we brought some with us.”

“Ah Yin bought some for the kids.”

After saying that, the old lady let go of Serenity’s hand, took a few quick steps forward, and picked up her great-granddaughter who rushed over. Beibei’s little face was flushed, probably from running around to fly the kite.

“Look at you, you’re all sweaty.”

The old lady took out a tissue to wipe the sweat from Beibei’s forehead. “Are you hot? Do you want to take off your coat?”

Beibei replied, “Yes, I want to take off my coat, but Daddy won’t let me.”

After wiping her sweat, the old lady put her down and said, “You’re all sweaty, don’t take it off yet, you can take it off later.”

“Great-Grandma, the kite! Daddy bought a kite.”

“That’s Beibei’s kite. Great-Grandma, look how high it flies, how pretty it is.”

Beibei pointed to the kite her father was holding. “That’s Beibei’s kite. Beibei can’t fly it, so Daddy is helping Beibei fly it.”

The old lady and Serenity led Beibei back to Zachary’s side.

Several children immediately gathered around, each wanting the old lady to see their kites. The old lady praised each of their kites for flying well.

After Zachary helped his daughter fly the kite, he handed her the other end of the kite string and said to the old lady, “Grandma, it’s a bit sunny. Let’s go sit under a tree.”

“No, let’s go back. It’s not far from here. Let’s take Xiaoya back to the mountain resort.”

The old lady looked at the children's kite in flight. "Let the children play for a few more minutes, then we'll go back. They can fly kites just as well back at the mountain resort. They have playmates, so they'll be happy playing anywhere."

Usually, only Beibei is home, and it takes a lot of effort to play with her. When no one plays with her, she gets bored and cries for her mother.

With playmates, she won't even look for her mother if she doesn't see her for a whole day.

Married at First Sight Chapter 5107

Soon after, the group headed back home, not directly to the city, but instead to the Zhan family's old residence, Youyou Mountain Villa.

Upon returning to the foot of the villa, Zeng Xiaoya was captivated by the vast expanse of flowers at the foot of the mountain.

She parked her car.

Zhan Yue, following behind her, also parked.

Zeng Xiaoya rolled down her window and leaned out to say to Zhan Yue, "Zhan Yue, it's so beautiful here, can I go take a look?"

"So many flowers!"

Her aunt, sitting in the passenger seat, had already taken out her phone and was snapping photos of the vast flower field.

Zhan Yue said, "These vast fields of flowers also belong to my family. Let's go up the mountain first, park the car, come inside for a drink of water, and then come down to admire the flowers."

"And those fruit orchards, they grow seasonal fruits, so there's fruit ripening all year round. The fruit I gave you last time was picked from those orchards."

"Later, I'll take you for a walk around the orchards. Pick some of whatever fruit you like to take home; it'll be absolutely fresh and taste better than what you buy outside."

Because they also eat fruit, the fruit from the orchards is rarely sprayed with pesticides or ripening agents, making it much better than what you buy.

“Those flower fields are yours too? Do you grow flowers at home?”

“We entrust them to our workers to manage. We grow them and sell them to various flower shops. Many flower shops in Dongguan get their flowers from here.”

Zeng Xiaoya smiled and said, “I didn’t expect you to be in the flower business too.”

“You can’t eat all the fruit from those orchards, so you probably supply them to various fruit shops as well, right?”

“We supply fruit shops relatively infrequently. We usually supply our family’s hotels and Sixth Brother’s restaurant.”

The Zhan Group has many affiliated hotels, and there are people specifically in charge of the operation of each hotel, namely Zhan Haoyu, the third young master of the Zhan family.

The hotels also have a large demand for fruit. It’s already quite good that the Zhan family’s own orchards can supply themselves. Indeed, there isn’t much fruit left to sell to others. This trip completely changed Zeng Xiaoya’s understanding of the Zhan family, the richest family in China.

She thought the Zhan family only did big businesses, but she didn’t expect them to also grow fruit and flowers, and not worry about sales at all.

Yes, the largest company under Sister Tong’s name is a vegetable and fruit company. Sister Tong and her best friend jointly contracted many barren fields to grow vegetables, and the various vegetables and fruits grown by her company are sold all over the country.

Many schools and restaurants in the city also receive vegetables from Sister Tong’s company.

It’s said that Sister Tong is particularly strict about managing vegetables and fruits, saying that food must be strictly managed and food standards must be followed.

Especially for supplies to schools, Hai Tong requires minimal pesticide use and the use of organic fertilizer as much as possible. There are dedicated vegetable markets supplying schools, making it quite green and environmentally friendly.

Hai Tong said she would rather earn less than make money through dishonest means; they're not short of money.

Although the prices of their company's vegetables and fruits aren't high, due to their good reputation, high quality, and customer trust, and large sales volume, they are still profitable, just not as profitable as her other investments.

She said that as long as they don't lose money, that's fine.

"The oranges and tangerines you brought us last time were so much better than the ones from the fruit shops. You said they were from your own orchard, and I thought you were kidding, but it turns out they were real,"

Auntie said with a smile. "I won't stand on ceremony with you. I'll go pick a few oranges to take home later."

"If you're not going to stand on ceremony with me, then pick more. Picking a few is already being polite," Auntie said with a bright smile.

"Okay, I won't stand on ceremony with you later."

"Xiaoya, let's go up the mountain first."

Serenity and the others' vehicles were no longer visible; they must have gone up the mountain.

Married at First Sight Chapter 5108

Zeng Xiaoya had seen the vast sea of flowers and thought it was beautiful, so she wanted to stop and take pictures to admire the flowers.

Knowing it belonged to the Zhan family, she wasn't in a hurry anymore. She restarted the car and continued up the mountain along the winding road.

Along the way, her aunt was taking pictures.

She said to Zeng Xiaoya, "I've long heard that the old mansion of the richest family, the Zhan family, is very beautiful, far surpassing many scenic spots. Many people who have been there once want to come back countless times, but it's their private residence. Many people who come probably just take pictures of that sea of flowers."

Youyou Manor isn't a place that ordinary people can enter.

Only a few wealthy families with close ties to the Zhan family can freely enter and exit Youyou Manor.

"The scenery along the way is very beautiful, truly picturesque. Although a manor has been built, the natural environment has been very well protected."

It's clear that the Zhan family takes great care in maintaining their living environment.

Zeng Xiaoya's cousin said, "The air here is very good too. When you parked the car just now, I heard the sound of running water; there must be a stream."

"This is the suburbs, quiet, with good greenery, and the air is much better than in the city."

Zeng Xiaoya had been to Zhan Yue's large villa in the city. Although that villa also had many flowers, trees, and shrubs, and the air was quite fresh, it still paled in comparison to the suburbs.

She preferred the suburban environment.

If it rained, the air would be even fresher.

However, living here wasn't as convenient as in the city.

Zhan Yue had mentioned that his brothers all owned houses in the city, and they usually lived there for commuting and for their children's education.

They only returned to their old house for holidays or vacations to spend time with their elders.

Normally, the elders lived in the old house; they were retired, no longer involved in business, and enjoyed their retirement there. Even before entering Youyou Manor, Zeng Xiaoya was already thinking that if she could retire in such an environment, her life would be complete.

"I think this place is even better than the place we went to this morning," her younger cousin said. "Brother Yue should have brought us here directly to enjoy the autumn scenery."

Zeng Xiaoya smiled, “This is our first time here, and we think it’s so beautiful. But for them, this is their home, they’re used to it, so naturally they want to take the kids to other places.”

“Kids like excitement,” her cousin thought, agreeing with his sister.

A few minutes later, Zeng Xiaoya’s car stopped at the entrance of Youyou Manor.

The security guard on duty quickly opened the gate for her.

Zeng Xiaoya glanced at Zhan Yue’s car; he had followed her. Without further hesitation, she drove in after the gate opened. She immediately saw Hai Tong and the others.

Hai Tong waved to her.

Zeng Xiaoya drove over, where more than a dozen cars were parked, with parking spaces marked on the ground—it was the resort’s open-air parking lot.

Serenity walked away with her daughter, letting Zeng Xiaoya park the car.

Beibei had fallen asleep in the car, and Zachary, worried that his wife would get tired, came over and said softly, “Wife, leave Beibei to me. I’ll take her back to rest.”

“Where’s the baby?”

The baby was asleep in the car too.

Married at First Sight Chapter 5109

“They woke up a while ago and ran off with Su Meng and Lele. They must have gone to the amusement park and had a blast. Let them play. They’re at home

, so there’s no need to watch them.” Zachary wasn’t worried about the children once they were home.

With so many workers at the old house, the children could be watched no matter where they went.

Besides, the entire estate had a lot of surveillance cameras and a central loudspeaker. He could just call his son over the loudspeaker and he would come back; he didn't need to follow them around every step of the way.

Hai Tong laughed, "We just got home. They ran off as soon as we got out of the car. I thought they'd be tired and sleep for a long time."

Children have so much energy.

They only slept for ten or twenty minutes in the car, and when they woke up, they were full of energy again.

"Tongtong."

Tang Junye and his third wife came over.

The two sisters-in-law hadn't gone on the road trip but had returned to the old house.

Knowing the group was going back, they came to check on them.

"Mom, Third Aunt,"

Hai Tong called to her mother-in-law.

"Beibei is asleep."

Tang Junye saw his granddaughter being held by his son, walked over to take a look, and then wanted to take her away. Zachary said, "Mom, I just took her away, and you take her away again. Keep changing who's holding her; Beibei won't sleep peacefully."

"Mom, I'll take Beibei back inside first."

As if afraid his mother would try to take his daughter away from him, Zachary quickly took his daughter and went ahead.

After Zeng Xiaoya and the others got out of the car, Tang Junye and the others warmly invited them to go to the main house in the center. The butler had already arranged several sightseeing vehicles to take them to the main house, as the open-air parking lot at the entrance of the resort was a bit of a distance away. Since there wasn't enough parking space at the main house entrance, everyone parked in the open-air parking lot and the butler arranged for sightseeing vehicles to transport them. This also made it convenient for the guests to enjoy the scenery of the resort along the way.

Several more minutes passed before Zeng Xiaoya and the others arrived at the main house.

Her second aunt and younger cousin were already astonished by the Zhan family's understated luxury, but they pretended to be worldly-wise and dared not show any apprehension, as it concerned Xiaoya's reputation.

Zeng Xiaoya, however, felt nothing.

She was just a guest; what was there to be nervous about? She wouldn't be coming often anyway.

As long as she didn't do anything embarrassing, it was fine.

Therefore, Zeng Xiaoya was much calmer than her second aunt and younger cousin, neither amazed by the Zhan family's extravagance nor having any other thoughts.

The Zhan family was the richest family in Dongguan; it was only natural that their home would be luxurious.

After they sat down, the butler served them fragrant tea and snacks.

The old lady smiled kindly, inviting Zeng Xiaoya and the others to drink tea and have some snacks.

After sitting for a while, the old lady instructed Zhan Yue, "Eighth Brother, take Xiaoya and the others around to familiarize them with the environment. Xiaoya seems to really like the sea of flowers at the foot of the mountain; take her there to admire the flowers."

"Mrs. Zeng, tell Eighth Brother to take you to the orchard to pick some fresh fruit. After dinner, you can go back and take some fresh fruit back for Xiaoya's second uncle to try."

The second aunt smiled and said, “Grandma, don’t worry, we won’t stand on ceremony with you.”

“No need to stand on ceremony at all. Xiaoya has helped our Eighth Brother so much, and I like Xiaoya very much. I dote on her like a granddaughter, and consider her family. Family doesn’t need to be polite.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 5110

The old lady was practically saying she considered Xiaoya her granddaughter-in-law.

Considering that Lao Ba hadn’t confessed his feelings yet, she changed her tune to treating her like a granddaughter.

Her words implied they were family, and also told Aunt Zeng that the Zhan family was very satisfied with Xiaoya and had no objections whatsoever. If Xiaoya liked Zhan Yue, the two families could become in-laws anytime.

There was no need to worry about the difference in their social standing.

The Zhan family had never looked down on the Zeng family, and besides, the Zeng family wasn’t bad either.

Zhan Yue stood up and said to Zeng Xiaoya, “Xiaoya, come on, I’ll take you, your aunt, and your brother for a walk. The Bao brothers have all run off somewhere to play; they might be at the amusement park. Let’s go look for them there.”

“I knew those kids were missing,”

Aunt Zeng laughed. It turned out the Zhan family had a children’s amusement park.

“Zhan Yue, you can take Xiao Ya out for a walk. Your second aunt is getting old and her legs aren’t strong enough. She’s too tired from walking today, so she won’t go out. She’ll stay here and chat with the old lady.”

The younger cousin wanted to go with them, but his second aunt gently tugged at him. Realizing what was happening, he said, “Brother Zhan, I don’t want to go out either. You and my sister go out.”

In the end, it was Zhan Yue and Zeng Xiao Ya who went out.

Everyone was creating an opportunity for them to be alone.

After the two left, the old lady stopped hiding her feelings and said to Aunt Zeng, “Mrs. Zeng, what do you think of our eighth son?”

“Madam, you can just call me Aying,”

Aunt Zeng said. “Zhan Yue is very good, a very outstanding young man. Since you’ve brought it up, I’ll be frank too. The first time I saw Zhan Yue, I thought he was a very good boy.”

“The way he looks at our Xiaoya, with such undisguised tenderness, I knew he liked her.”

“Although he hasn’t confessed to Xiaoya yet, I know what he’s worried about. Xiaoya has been hurt in love before and is very cautious about relationships. Besides, there’s a significant gap in our families’ circumstances.” ”

Zhan Yue is probably worried that Xiaoya won’t be able to accept it all at once. He’s not in a hurry to confess; he’s taking it slow. Her second uncle and I have both seen this.” “My Zeng family may not be as good as your Zhan family, but my Zeng family is not bad either. Our Xiaoya is a perfect match for Zhan Yue.”

The Third Madam quickly said, “We were worried that you would look down on our Eighth Prince. We also like Xiaoya very much. I liked Xiaoya the moment I saw her.”

Tang Junye and the others echoed her.

The old lady smiled, “Ah Ying, this is our family’s attitude. We have absolutely no objections to Xiaoya, we like her very much. As long as Lao Ba and Xiaoya develop feelings for each other, we can help them hold a wedding anytime.”

“That’s right, we haven’t met Xiaoya’s parents, grandparents, or any of them yet.”

“I wonder when Xiaoya’s parents will return to Dongguan. I think our two families can meet.”

Aunt Zeng said, “My grandfather is turning eighty for the birthday. Although we’re not planning a big celebration, he will come back for a visit. Everyone who can come back will come.”

“Xiaoya also told us that she’s inviting you to dinner on her grandfather’s birthday.”

“When my older brother and sister-in-law come back, I’ll have Xiaoya invite you all over for dinner so everyone can meet. There’s no need to rush things between the two kids; let them develop their feelings first.”

Zhan Yue hasn’t confessed to Xiaoya yet.

If Xiaoya accepts after the confession, they’ll start dating and see how things go.

If she doesn’t accept, Zhan Yue will still have to pursue her.

So, no rush.

Take it slow.

Aunt Zeng felt that the Zhan family seemed quite anxious, eager for Xiaoya to marry into the Zhan family and become the eighth young mistress.

Could there be something wrong with Zhan Yue?

This thought suddenly flashed through Aunt Zeng’s mind.

Married at First Sight Chapter 5111

After thinking about this question, the second aunt didn’t hold back and asked.

“Grandma, I’m a bit blunt, I just say what I think. If you feel uncomfortable, please bear with me.”

The old lady and the others said, “It’s alright, just say what you think.”

The second aunt asked, “Is Zhan Yue healthy? Does he have any problems? Is he a normal man? Or is he just a eunuch in disguise?” As soon as the second aunt asked her question, everyone in the room was stunned.

Everyone looked at the second aunt.

The second aunt was a little embarrassed by everyone’s stares, but she still said, “I just think your family is in a bit too much of a rush. You can’t wait for our Xiaoya to marry Zhanyue right now.”

“Zhanyue is so outstanding, and he has no dating experience. Let him and our Xiaoya chat slowly, cultivate their feelings, go on dates, and develop a deep affection before getting married. That’s a natural progression.”

“We elders don’t need to rush. But you’re so anxious. I’m worried that Zhanyue might have some kind of problem that we don’t know about. Are you in such a hurry for Xiaoya to marry into the family because you’re afraid we’ll discover Zhanyue’s problems?”

Everyone: “...”

The third wife quickly explained for her son, saying, “Mrs. Zeng, absolutely not. Our Zhanyue is very healthy, has no problems, and is a normal man. He couldn’t possibly be a eunuch.”

“We’re anxious because Zhanyue is getting on in years. His peers are all fathers, and he’s still not married. That’s how parents are; seeing other people’s children married while their own children are still single makes them anxious.”

“Zhan Yue is really fine, he’s very healthy. If he had any problems, we wouldn’t let him harm Xiao Ya.”

The old lady chimed in, “Lao Ba was in a car accident and was hospitalized for a while. He had all sorts of tests done. Xiao Ya was his attending physician. She knows whether he has any health problems or not.””Mrs. Zeng, you can rest assured. Our eighth son is a very healthy child and a normal man. There are no hereditary diseases in our family, and the whole family has a comprehensive physical examination every year.”

“What my daughter-in-law just said is exactly what we felt. We were anxious because our eighth son is getting on in years and still single. We’ve been urging him to get married for a long time, even before he met Xiaoya.” ”

Finally, he found someone he likes, and after getting to know each other for a while, we’re very satisfied with Xiaoya, which is why we’re so eager for him to marry her as soon as possible.”

“Don’t worry, even after Xiaoya marries into the family, we won’t stop her from doing whatever she wants. She’ll still be free, unlike other families with many rules.”

“We don’t have those rules that prevent women from showing their faces in public. Look at my granddaughters-in-law; they’re all CEOs, busy every day. Their business acumen and earning power are in no way inferior to men’s.”

“When I was young, my husband and I did business together. Before my son and daughter-in-law retired, they were always together, managing the business as a team.”

Everyone nodded in agreement.

Aunt Zeng said, “I’m relieved to hear you say that. I thought Zhan Yue had some problems we didn’t know about.”

“That’s good, that’s good.”

The old lady was right. When Zhan Yue had his car accident, Xiaoya was his attending physician, and he underwent a full examination at the hospital. How could Xiaoya not know if there was something wrong?

She was overthinking it.

“I’m sorry, I was overthinking it and asked a few extra questions.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 5112

Aunt Zeng felt embarrassed.

“It’s alright, ask us anything you need to know, we’ll answer everything. You’re doing this for Xiaoya’s own good; it’s clear you love her like a daughter. Xiaoya is so lucky to have such a good aunt like you,”

Third Madam praised Aunt Zeng.

Knowing that Zhan Yue liked Zeng Xiaoya, they had no objections whatsoever. It wasn’t just that they liked Xiaoya as a person, but they also felt the Zeng family had a good family tradition—a large family without conflict, living in harmony.

It was similar to their Zhan family’s tradition.

As they said, when men in the Zhan family married, they valued character and the quality of the woman's family background.

Zeng Xiaoya herself was good, and her family was also good. Even if the Zeng family wasn't as wealthy as the Zhan family, they wouldn't look down on Zeng Xiaoya.

The second aunt said, "These are all children we've watched grow up. We have a bond with them. I don't have a daughter myself, so I treat my nieces like daughters. I hope they all marry well in the future." "

Xiaoya and Zhan Yue are a perfect match. Her second uncle and I also like Zhan Yue very much and think highly of them."

"Thank you, Mrs. Zeng, for thinking so highly of our eighth son," the third wife said.

She added, "Once the eighth son and Xiaoya get married, I will also treat Xiaoya like a daughter, loving and cherishing her. I don't have a daughter either, just four sons. Four sons! It

's a real headache." "They're lucky to have been born into the Zhan family. They don't have to worry about food or clothing. If they had been born into ordinary families, it's uncertain whether all four sons would have found a partner."

Getting married isn't easy these days.

Many young people don't want to get married, feeling content living alone. Those who are willing to marry often encounter high dowries, leading to breakups because of the exorbitant fees. Second Aunt laughed, "The sons of your Zhan family are all excellent; they won't have trouble finding wives. If it were an ordinary family, having four sons would be a real headache."

She'd heard that when Third Madam was young, she tried to have daughters, but after three sons, she still wouldn't give up. Second Madam gave up after having three sons, but Third Madam, still hoping for a daughter, tried for a fourth child, but it was another son.

She finally gave up and dared not try for a fifth, fearing that having several sons would be even more of a headache.

Although they had no worries about food, clothing, or finding wives, having several sons was still a source of anxiety.

Before Third Madam retired, she wished she could stay at the company 365 days a year, not wanting to go home and face her four sons.

Fortunately, her in-laws were very kind; they took care of the younger generation's education, and they raised the children very well. They might not have been able to raise them as well if they had to discipline them themselves.

Third Madam's sisters-in-law were very grateful to their in-laws and never spoke ill of them outside the home; of course, their in-laws wouldn't speak ill of them either.

The women there got along with their mother-in-law like mother and daughters, and also like friends.

Countless people envied their excellent relationship with her.

Many wealthy women don't get along well with their mothers-in-law; while the mother-in-law is alive, they have to be subservient and try their best to please her. Only after the mother-in-law passes away can they stand tall and truly take charge.

This kind of thing won't happen to the Zhan family's mother-in-law and daughters-in-law.

Married at First Sight Chapter 5113

Neither Zhan Yue nor Zeng Xiaoya knew that after they left the house, their elders had already begun discussing their marriage.

Zeng Xiaoya loved the sea of flowers, so after leaving the house, Zhan Yue took her down the mountain first.

He had originally wanted to drive a sightseeing vehicle himself to take Zeng Xiaoya down the mountain, so she wouldn't be able to enjoy the scenery along the way.

But Zeng Xiaoya refused.

She suggested walking.

Even if the Youyou Manor had a sightseeing vehicle, it would just whiz by, and the scenery wouldn't be as good as walking.

Zhan Yue laughed, "If you want to walk, then let's walk. I'm just worried you'll get tired later."

"Let's walk down the mountain first. If we get tired, I'll call the housekeeper and have him drive down to pick us up."

Perhaps because they had just driven up the mountain, it felt like they arrived at the manor in no time. Zeng Xiaoya said, "We're people who exercise regularly. We won't get tired from walking for a while."

"This mountain isn't high, it's flat-topped. Let's treat it as a hike. I sometimes go hiking when I'm on vacation."

Zeng Xiaoya believed she was in good physical condition.

Climbing such a mountain is no problem, especially since the path up is paved with cement and not too difficult to walk on.

Zhan Yue smiled and said, "Alright, let's walk."

He led Zeng Xiaoya out of the mountain villa on foot. As they walked, Zeng Xiaoya looked at the scenery and asked him, "Can we explore the whole villa in one afternoon?" "We're going to admire the flowers at the foot of the mountain now, and then we'll go fruit picking on the orchard. You don't have much time to explore the whole resort. Come back another time when you're free, and I'll show you around."

"If you want to appreciate the scenery properly, it would generally take a whole day to walk around the entire resort. If you just want to see it quickly, a few hours will suffice."

"The scenery isn't that beautiful now. It's most beautiful in spring when all the flowers are in bloom, and in summer there are lotus flowers, which is also nice."

Winters in Dongguan aren't cold. If it were in the north, you could even enjoy the snow scenery when it snows in winter.

Zeng Xiaoya turned her head to look at Zhan Yue, her expression quite surprised, and said, "Is your place really that big? It would take a whole day to walk around it."

She was inside and couldn't see the entire size of Youyou Mountain Resort yet, but from the open-air parking lot to the main house in the center, you need to take a sightseeing bus to see a corner of the resort, and it's still this big.

She glanced around and saw that besides the main house in the center, there were several other buildings, not too far away.

As they walked and chatted, Zeng Xiaoya asked, "Do you all live separately, or do you all live in the main house in the center?"

"We live separately. My father and his two brothers live separately, each in their own house with their own private space. During holidays, when we all eat together, we all eat in the main house in the center."

"My grandmother lives with my eldest uncle and his family in the main house in the center; that's where the head of our Zhan family lives."

"In the future, my brothers and I can build a few more small villas and live separately, each with our own private space. But currently, it seems my brothers don't plan on that."

"We're all scattered around and rarely come back to the old house. Even when we do come back, the houses we live in now are enough for us. After the children grow up, they'll all move out, so we don't need to build too many houses."

Married at First Sight Chapter 5114

"It's enough to live in. The old house is actually a place for us to spend our retirement years in peace. The whole villa is in a garden style. My grandmother especially likes the Fenglin style, so my grandfather spent a lot of money to build this villa for her."

"Actually, Youyou Villa isn't our Zhan family's real old house. The real old house is in another place. The house is very old; it's a real ancient building. It's repaired every now and then to ensure that the old house doesn't collapse."

"We haven't lived in the real old house since. Only a few years ago, when my eldest brother was hiding his true identity from my sister-in-law, he took her home for the New Year, and the whole family lived in the real old house for a while."

Zeng Xiaoya had heard about Zachary and Serenity's love story, and she asked gossipily, "Your eldest brother hid his identity and had a whirlwind marriage with your sister-in-law. How did he manage to keep it from being exposed for so long?"

"Our whole family cooperated with him in the act. To be honest, we were also at fault. We're sorry to my sister-in-law."

"But my brother asked us to cooperate with his act, so we had no choice but to go along with it. At that time, my brother thought my sister-in-law was a gold digger. He had only met her two or three times before the whirlwind marriage, so we weren't really familiar with her."

"Also, because my grandmother forced my brother to marry my sister-in-law, she fell and injured herself while out playing. My sister-in-law took her to the hospital, but whether it was intentional or accidental, it's hard to say." "We all suspect that my grandmother did it on purpose. My grandmother knows kung fu, and she's very skilled at it. In her youth, she was more than just a powerful figure in the business world."

"Have you heard of the Su family?"

Zeng Xiaoya asked. "The mysterious Su family that's so good at gathering information?"

"Yes, the Su family respects my grandmother very much. Some of their connections were given to them by my grandmother. Our family follows the legitimate path of business, so my grandmother entrusted those connections to the Su family."

"They signed an agreement that if our Zhan family ever needs the Su family's help, the Su family will provide full assistance."

"Therefore, our two families are old friends, and my elder brother and Brother Su Nan are best friends, so the friendship between our two families is even deeper."

"Grandma said my sister-in-law was her savior, and she wanted to repay the favor by trying to matchmake my brother and sister-in

-law. At first, my sister-in-law refused, but later her brother-in-law complained about where she lived, and the couple argued, so she was anxious to move out."

"Remembering that Grandma wanted to introduce her to a boyfriend, she contacted Grandma, which led to my brother and sister-in-law's whirlwind marriage." "My brother was pressured too much by Grandma and was full of resentment towards my sister-in-law, so at the beginning of the whirlwind marriage, he was wary of her like a thief, and even concealed his identity to test her character."

"The result was that one lie had to be covered up with countless others."

At this point, Zhan Yue looked at Zeng Xiaoya and said, "I think you've heard about what happened afterward. My brother and sister-in-law's love story is no secret in Dongguan; it's common knowledge."

Zeng Xiaoya smiled, "I have heard about it. It's indeed common knowledge. It's said that after your sister-in-law married your brother, many ordinary people dreamed of becoming Cinderella, fantasizing about being as lucky as your sister-in-law and marrying into a wealthy family as a young mistress."

"Later, when everyone learned that your sister-in-law was also from a wealthy family, they suddenly realized that all the marriages in your family still adhered to the principle of matching social status."

It was said that the elders of the Zhan family weren't picky and would accept anyone as long as their children liked them.

In reality, Zhan Yue's brothers all married heiresses from wealthy families, successful women.

So, in the Zhan family, marriages still emphasized matching social status.

She dared not dream anymore.

Compared to the young mistress of the Zhan family, she was like Cinderella.