

Married at First Sight - Married at First Sight Chapter 5251 - 5262

Translation effect: Here's some of the names to substitute on the characters, so you don't get confused.

Zheng Hua – Holden

Feng Yue – Clarissa

Feng Family - Farrel family

Feng Ruo – Shiloh

Lan Ruoruo – Romina

Zhan Wei – Merissa

chapter 5251

4-4 minutes

Little Nineteen blinked, “Really? Then why didn’t Sister wait until I had my vacation before going to Uncle Liu’s house?”

Zhan Muchen said, “Sister needs to go to Uncle Liu’s house first to help you tidy up your room, and then she’ll go see what fun things there are to do. Once you get there

, she'll take you to play." "So Sister went first not because she doesn't like you. Our Little Nineteen is the cutest, who wouldn't like you? We all like you very much. Of course, we like you even more if you don't cry."

Little Nineteen immediately raised her hand to rub her eyes and said, "Big brother, I won't cry, I'm very good. Sister said I can't cry, if I cry, she won't take me to Uncle Liu's house."

"So Little Nineteen must not cry, you have to be happy. Our Little Nineteen is so cute when she smiles, and Big brother loves to see you smile."

"I'll smile, I'll smile every day. Big brother, where are you going now?"

Little Nineteen asked.

She could tell that Big brother was about to leave.

Zhan Muchen put him down and said, "Big brother is going to the hotel to pick up your cousin Yangyang. He'll be coming over for dinner today, along with two other distinguished guests."

"I want to go with big brother!"

Little Nineteen immediately requested. "I haven't seen cousin Yangyang in so long!"

Zhan Muchen hesitated slightly but agreed to the little guy's request.

He went back inside to tell his parents that Little Nineteen wanted to go with him to pick up his cousin.

Serenity said to Little Nineteen, "Nineteen, don't go. Why don't you stay home and play with your aunt?"

"No, I want to go with big brother!"

Zachary also said, "Stay home. When your brothers get up, you'll have someone to play with. Your big brother has to go back to the city, which is a bit far. You'll be bored on the bus."

"I want to go with big brother."The little guy insisted on going to the hotel with Zhan Muchen.

Zachary had no choice but to say to his son, "Baby, then you take Nineteen with you, but take good care of him."

“Okay.”

Zhan Muchen took his little cousin’s hand and was about to leave when Serenity stopped the two brothers. She went to get two toys and handed them to Nineteen, saying, “Take your usual toys with you. You can play with them in the car so you won’t get bored.”

They had watched the little guy grow up and knew his character very well.

He liked going out with his older siblings, but he couldn’t sit still for more than ten minutes in the car.

Then every few minutes he would ask when they would arrive, saying he was bored, or he would fuss for an adult to give him a phone to play with. However, the adults in the family usually wouldn’t let him play with a phone, for fear that he would become addicted.

Short trips were fine; they could coax him until they arrived.

But if it was a long trip, requiring more than an hour’s drive, unless he fell asleep, he would be noisy the whole way. Taking Nineteen out was really troublesome.

Not just anyone could coax him. He wasn’t afraid of even his parents; the only ones he was afraid of were his older brothers and sisters.

So, the only way to keep him quiet is to have a few people he’s afraid of in the car.

If his toys are with him, he’ll sit still the whole way.

The little guy took his toy from Serenity’s hand, “Thank you, Auntie.”

Serenity bent down and patted his head, “When big brother is driving, you have to be quiet, okay?”

“Auntie, I will. I won’t bother big brother while he’s driving.”

“Auntie trusts Nineteen.”

Married at First Sight - Married at First Sight Chapter 5252

4-5 minutes

Serenity straightened up and gave her son a few more instructions.

A few minutes later, Zhan Muchen drove off, with Xiao Shijiu sitting in his child safety seat in the back.

The little guy liked going out with adults; whether it was his elders or his older siblings' cars, there was always a child safety seat installed, specially prepared for him.

“Big brother, when are my other brothers coming back?”

“Well, big brother hasn't asked them yet. They might come back, or they might not. Summer vacation is long, so your brothers who are in college might go to do holiday jobs.”

Zhan Muchen recalled that since high school, every winter and summer vacation, he would work at his family's company. It wasn't to be a big CEO, but to start from the bottom and do all kinds of work.

The people at the Zhan Group knew he was the eldest son of the Zhan family, and when he first started working holiday jobs, they treated him very politely, not daring to assign him any work.

When his father found out, he said that he wouldn't get paid if he didn't do any work; he had to do things to get paid.

Starting the next day, even when others hesitated to assign him work, he would eagerly take on tasks. He would do anything he was capable of, and learn from others before attempting anything he couldn't.

Seeing that he didn't act like a spoiled young master, people gradually became more willing to give him work.

His ability to quickly take over the Zhan Group after adulthood was largely due to the years of holiday work he had accumulated, which gave him considerable experience.

After becoming an adult, his parents would frequently take him to various events, introducing him to the business tycoons of Dongguan City and also making him known as the eldest son of the Zhan family, the future successor to the Zhan Group.

His cousins followed the same path; once the Zhan family children entered high school, they would spend their winter and summer vacations training at the company or working at branch offices.

Of course, they could also find summer jobs on their own, and Beibei preferred to do so.

She knew that her elders doted on her and treated her differently from her brothers, so she didn't want to work for the family company. Instead, she chose to find holiday work in another city, so that no one would know she was the daughter of the Zhan family.

"If they go to work, they won't come back to the villa. My sister said that once they come back, they will take me to Uncle Liu's house. If they don't come back, won't I be unable to go to Uncle Liu's house?" "I miss my sister! I miss her every single moment!"

He usually goes to kindergarten, and his sister goes to university, so they're never home. He can only see her via video call.

Finally, they both had a long holiday, but his sister went to Uncle Liu's house by herself.

He cried and fussed for most of the day before getting her permission to let him go, saying she

'd wait for the other brothers to come home for their holidays so they could take him. Little Nineteen was eagerly anticipating his brothers' holidays.

If they all went to work and didn't come back to the resort, he'd cry his eyes out.

"Later, your big brother will ask your brothers. If they're not coming back, your older brother can go with you to Uncle Liu's house."

"Okay, or we won't wait for them. Big brother, you can buy plane tickets for me and my brother, and you can take us to the airport. My sister will pick us up there."

Little Nineteen couldn't wait to go to Uncle Liu's house.

"Your Meng brother seems to have gone there yesterday. I should have had him take you,"

Zhan Muchen said casually.

Everyone had overlooked Little Nineteen.

Upon hearing this, Xiao Shijiu's face immediately fell. "Brother Meng actually went to see my sister! He's the worst! He always tries to take my sister away from me! No way, big brother, please buy plane tickets for me and my brother later."

"I have to see my sister today! If I don't go, Brother Meng will take her away from me!"

Zhan Muchen: "..."

Why does he have to talk so much?!

Married at First Sight - Married at First Sight Chapter 5253

3-4 minutes

"Nineteen, we're having guests over today, and your older brother has to entertain them, so he's busy."

"How about a couple of days?"

Zhan Muchen asked the little guy as he drove.

Nineteen said, "Didn't you say it's Yangyang's cousin? Yangyang's cousin isn't an outsider; he's family."

He'd known Yangyang's cousin as family since he could remember.

"Yangyang's cousin brought two important guests! Look, your uncle, aunt, and me—why aren't we at work today?"

"It's summer vacation!"

Nineteen said matter-of-factly. "Why work on summer vacation?"

Zhan Muchen laughed. "You students get summer vacation, but your older brother doesn't. We still have to work."

“Your older brother doesn’t get summer vacation? Then...”

“We’re not working today specifically to entertain our important guests.”

Nineteen gave a half-understanding “Oh. ”

The elders in the family occasionally entertained guests.

Whenever guests came, his parents would always remind him beforehand not to cause trouble.

He didn’t cause any trouble at all; he’s been incredibly well-behaved. At most, he’d smear his mom’s cosmetics all over the walls and floor, and stain his dad’s suit.

Or he’d stuff the family pet dog and cat into his backpack and take it to kindergarten to show off to his classmates.

His pets are so cute and beautiful; he loves them dearly.

And then there’s the koi from the garden pond. He scooped one up and put it in his backpack to take to kindergarten, but when the teacher found out, the fish was dead.

The teacher called his mom and said he’d put another pet in his backpack—a fish—but it was dead. His mother was both amused and exasperated.

After that, every morning before he left for kindergarten, the adults in the family would repeatedly check his schoolbag to make sure it wasn’t stuffed with small animals or other things.

“How about Monday? We’ll definitely arrange for you and your brother to go to Uncle Liu’s house on Monday, okay? Your older brother can call your other brothers tonight and ask if they’re coming back.”

“Can’t it be tomorrow? If I go a day later, Meng-gege will have one more day to keep my sister.”

The little guy was anxious, wishing he could sprout wings and fly to H City immediately.

Especially after hearing that Su Meng had already gone, he became even more anxious.

Zhan Muchen deliberately teased him: “What will you do when your Meng-gege becomes your brother-in-law and spends his whole life with your sister?”

“Wherever my sister goes, I’ll go.”

Zhan Muchen laughed heartily.

When Bei Bei got married, Xiao Shijiu was her dowry.

Su Meng’s face could turn as black as charcoal.

“You can’t stay with your sister forever. She’ll get married.”

“Big brother, what does ‘getting married’ mean? Why does my sister have to get married?”

Zhan Muchen explained with a smile, “It means your sister will marry your brother Meng, and then she’ll go live with him and spend her life with him. That’s called getting married.”

“Brother Meng is trying to take my sister back to his house! He doesn’t have a sister, so he’s trying to take mine! Big brother, aren’t you going to do anything about it? Can you please stop Brother Meng from coming to our house?”

“Can I not let my sister get married?”

“Sure, we’ll let your future brother-in-law come live with us and become our son-in-law. That way, my sister won’t have to leave us.”

Married at First Sight - Married at First Sight

Chapter 5254

4-5 minutes

The little guy immediately nodded, “Then let my sister find a son-in-law who will live with us. We can’t let her leave. I can’t bear to part with her. Big brother, what does ‘son-in-law living with us’ mean?”

Zhan Muchen: “...You’re still young. You’ll understand when you grow up. I’m not talking to you anymore. You play with your toys. I need to focus on driving.”

Talking to the little guy was like having a million questions.

Zhan Muchen considered himself knowledgeable, but sometimes he would stumble when faced with his little cousin's endless questions. To avoid embarrassing himself as the older brother, he couldn't let the little guy keep asking.

Little Nineteen pouted and said, "Every time you adults don't want to talk to me, you say I'm still a little kid and don't understand anything. You say I'll understand when I grow up. But you don't teach me or tell me anything, so even when I grow up, I still won't understand."

Zhan Muchen laughed, "How could that be? Our Nineteen is so smart. When she grows up, she'll understand many things without being taught."

"Okay, big brother, can I borrow your phone for a bit?"

"What do you want to do?"

"I want to video call my sister. I miss her."

Zhan Muchen slowed down, picked up his phone, and handed it to the little guy. The little guy quickly reached out and took the phone.

"Thank you, big brother."

Zhan Muchen could finally drive with peace of mind.

"Big brother, I need the password."

Zhan Muchen told his younger brother the phone's screen lock password. He definitely wouldn't tell anyone else, but he didn't need to worry about Little Nineteen.

Usually, the little guy couldn't get his phone.

Little Nineteen entered the password, unlocked the phone, and immediately opened WeChat, easily found Beibei's WeChat, and then clicked on it to make a video call.

Beibei hasn't gotten up yet. She went out with her sixth uncle and aunt all day yesterday and didn't get back until late at night. They chatted for a long time after they got home and didn't go to sleep until late, which is why she hasn't gotten up yet.

Her sixth aunt said that she's on vacation now, so she doesn't have to go to school or work and can sleep until she naturally wakes up without needing to set an alarm clock. Beibei indulged herself, turning off the alarm and sleeping until she naturally woke up.

If her phone hadn't rung, she could have continued sleeping.

Awakened by the ringing phone, she was still groggy, her eyes barely open. She reached for her phone on the bedside table, and only opened her eyes when she found it and held it close. She saw it was a video call from her older brother. Without thinking much, Beibei answered the call

, assuming he had something urgent to tell her. But when the call connected, she saw Xiao Shijiu's handsome little face.

"Sister,"

Xiao Shijiu called several times.

"Shijiu? It's you?"

Beibei was wide awake, sitting up against the headboard, and asked with a smile, "Why did you take your older brother's phone? Are you in the car now? Where are you going? To the airport?"

She thought her little cousin was going to the airport to catch a flight to see her.

"No, my older brother took me to our family's hotel to pick up my cousin Yangyang. He's coming to our house for dinner today, and he said there are two important guests. My uncle, aunt, and older brother all have to entertain them at home."

"I'm not working. My older brother said he'll buy me plane tickets in a couple of days. He said he'll ask when the other brothers are coming back, and if they're not, he'll buy tickets for me and my brother so we can go."

"Sister, has Brother Meng gone? Brother Meng is so annoying! He's going to see you, why didn't he take me with him? If I had known he was going, I would have insisted on going with him!"

Beibei laughed. "Your Brother Meng texted me last night saying his flight is this morning, he should be on the plane now."

She checked the time; it was already past eight o'clock. Su Meng had already boarded the plane.

Su Meng told her his flight was at 7:48, and he had to get to the airport before dawn.

She also said that Su Meng bought such an early ticket, having to catch a flight so early in the morning. Su Meng said that the earlier he left, the earlier he arrived, the earlier he could see her.

Married at First Sight - Married at First Sight

Chapter 5255

4-5 minutes

"What? Brother Meng only went today?"

Little Nineteen was even angrier, having only heard that Su Meng's flight was today.

He complained, "Big Brother didn't tell me, and Brother Meng didn't tell me either. He must be trying to sneak over and steal my sister away."

"Sister, don't let Brother Meng steal you away. You're my sister, not his. He doesn't have a sister himself, yet he always tries to steal mine," Beibei laughed. "Don't worry, I'm your sister, always will be. No one can take me away."

"Your big brother probably forgot. Are there any guests coming today?"

Beibei asked curiously, also changing the subject to prevent the chatterbox from going on and on about the original topic.

Aunt Jiu always said that Little Nineteen was just like Uncle Jiu; he could talk non-stop when someone was talking to him.

In Beibei's memory, Uncle Jiu was indeed very eloquent.

Even her mother said that when she first met her future in-laws, Uncle Jiu was the kindest person to her mother.

Uncle Jiu, however, said it was because he was clinging to her mother's coattails, so of course he had to be nice to her.

"I don't know either. My older brother and I are on our way to the hotel. I'll secretly tell you when we pick up our VIP guests. Sister, do you miss me?"

"Yes, I miss you terribly! Our Nineteen is so cute, who wouldn't miss her?"

Little Nineteen was content; his sister was still his.

The siblings chatted on the phone for almost half an hour. Beibei said she had just woken up and hadn't had breakfast yet, and was now hungry and wanted to go downstairs for breakfast. Only then did Little Nineteen reluctantly hang up.

Beibei breathed a sigh of relief.

Just then, Long Ting sent her a message. She opened the message and saw that Long Ting asked how many days she would stay at her sixth uncle's house, and whether she planned to look for a job after a few days of fun. He said he could arrange a job for her at Longteng Group.

Bei Bei wanted to continue her studies, so she planned to work for two months during the summer vacation before returning to school.

H City was too far from Dongguan City, and the Zhan family usually protected Bei Bei very well. Few outsiders had ever seen her, so even if she got a job at Longteng Group, no one would know she was the daughter of the Zhan family.

Bei Bei replied with a voice message to Long Ting: "Thank you for your kindness, Brother Ting, but I don't need you to arrange a job for me. I'll find one myself."

"Play for a few more days. Su Meng came over today, and Xiao Shijiu will be coming in a couple of days. Spend a few days playing with your younger brothers first, then look for a job."

Long Ting took a break and called Bei Bei.

“Have you had breakfast?” Long Ting asked her.

“Not yet. I was too tired from playing yesterday and only woke up now. I was woken up by Nineteen’s call. He’s been nagging me ever since he found out Brother Su Meng is coming today.”

Long Ting laughed. “Nineteen is so attached to you. He doesn’t even want his parents when you’re around.”

“Uncle Jiu and the others are busy. Since Nineteen was born, we older brothers and sisters have been taking care of him. He’s very attached to us.”

“Brother Ting, aren’t you busy?”

“Yes, I’m busy. I wanted to get a glass of water, so I took this opportunity to call you. Su Meng is here? Doesn’t he have to work? Did he take leave? Baby, let him go!”

Bei Bei said, “He did take leave. My dad still goes back to the company, and Uncle Su Han hasn’t retired yet. How could my brother not approve Brother Meng’s leave?”

Her brother scolds Su Meng, saying he treats Su Meng like a brother, but Su Meng wants to be her brother’s brother-in-law. In reality, her brother and everyone in her family have long assumed that she and Su Meng are a couple.

She only stayed at the resort for two days after her vacation before flying over. Su Meng was away on a business trip in Dongguan those two days and didn’t see her.

He said he hadn’t seen her for more than half a year and wanted to take time off to come and keep her company.

Married at First Sight - Married at First Sight

Chapter 5256

4-5 minutes

Beibei thought for a moment. Had they not seen each other for more than half a year?

She remembered seeing Su Meng every month. Su Meng would take a few days each month to go on a business trip to the city where she went to university, and then naturally spend a few days with her.

The Zhan Group had opened a branch in the city where she went to university, and whenever the branch needed to send someone from the head office, it was always Su Meng who went.

“Brother Ting, you should take care of your health and not overwork yourself.”

“It’s okay, Brother Ting is used to it. Your cousin Yangyang went back to Dongguan, so I have to work a little harder. When he comes next month, I can relax a bit.”

“Go and eat something. I can’t chat anymore, I have to go to a meeting.”

“Bring Ninth Sister over for dinner when you have time. It will be very lively next time you come.”

Long Ting replied with a smile.

He wondered when he would have time to visit the Ouyang family.

Last time he came back, he was assassinated. Although he and Chu Jiu were unharmed, they were being watched too closely by the Long family. For the time being, Long Ting would not go to the Ouyang family to avoid implicating them.

Even if the Ouyang family wasn’t afraid of the Long family, he didn’t want to drag them into this mess.

This was his deepest grudge, and he would avenge it himself.

After ending the call, Long Ting had already gotten some water. He drank a cup in the break room, then got another cup before coming out.

Chu Jiu saw him come out and reminded him, “Young Master, you should go to your meeting. Your secretary just came to urge you again.”

Long Ting hummed in agreement. “Take a moment to call Bei Bei and try to arrange a job for her, but she refused.”

“I asked her last time, and she said she didn’t need you to arrange anything for her; she could find a job herself. Let her try her luck. I trust Bei Bei.”

Bei Bei was showered with love and affection, but she wasn’t spoiled or pampered by her elders. She was a very smart and capable girl, and Chu Jiu believed that with Bei Bei’s abilities, she could find a good job. Moreover, Beibei is only doing a holiday job, not a long-term one. Beibei’s requirements are lower; she just wants to accumulate some work experience so she can find a better job after further studies.

Beibei could easily choose not to work or start a business; she’s not short of money. Her brothers each give her a monthly allowance, more than her salary from her job.

However, Beibei doesn’t want to be a freeloader; she wants to work and try her luck.

She told Chu Jiu that after experiencing the workplace, she would start her own company and become her own boss. Her goal is to become a successful businesswoman like Jun Yan.

“I know Beibei can find a job, but I was thinking of getting her into my company so I can look after her.”

“You look after her? In the company, if you’re even slightly nice to her, people will misunderstand your relationship. Be careful Su Meng comes looking for trouble.”

Chu Jiu said bluntly.

Long Ting: “...”

“Young Master, you should hurry up and go to the meeting. Don’t keep everyone waiting.”

Long Ting checked the time; there were still five minutes before the meeting started.

He walked towards the office door, carrying his water glass, muttering, “Five more minutes.”

The meeting was in the conference room on the top floor, just two rooms away from his office, less than a two-minute walk. He had three more minutes to chat with Chu Jiu.

Unfortunately, Chu Jiu wouldn’t give him that chance, urging him to go to the meeting.

Sigh, when will Yangyang be back at the company?

Without Yangyang at the company, he felt like a donkey pulling a millstone, constantly turning, utterly exhausted!

Married at First Sight - Married at First Sight Chapter 5257

3-4 minutes

At the Guancheng Grand Hotel,

after having breakfast with Yangyang and the Fu family grandfather and grandson, they didn't leave the restaurant immediately but continued chatting. Since he wasn't in a hurry to leave, the Fu family grandfather and grandson didn't want to rush him.

"Auntie asked Baobao to pick us up,"

Zhou Yang explained why he wasn't in a hurry to leave.

Fu Wanning said, "Aunt Hai is too kind. We can drive there ourselves."

It would be more convenient.

"Mr. Zhou, is Baobao referring to Zhan Shao?"

Fu Wanning asked.

Zhou Yang nodded with a smile, "Baobao is his nickname. My aunt got pregnant and gave birth to Baobao more than a year after getting married. It was his first child, and he's the eldest grandson of the Zhan family, so everyone dotes on him."

"When Baobao was little, everyone called him Baobao, and it became his nickname. When his sister was born, they gave her the nickname Beibei. The siblings' nicknames together mean Baobao, their parents' treasure."

Fu Wanning smiled, "Indeed, they are their parents' treasure."

“How old is Young Master Zhan’s sister?”

“She just graduated from university this year. She’s supposed to be twenty-two, but actually, her twenty-second birthday hasn’t come yet.”

“I heard that your aunt’s family has always been predominantly male, and your cousin is the only girl in her generation, showered with love and affection.”

The Zhan family’s daughter is the envy of countless people.

Everyone says she’s God’s favorite, having been given such a wonderful family. Not only was she born into a billionaire family, but she was also the only girl, doted on by over a dozen brothers. She could practically walk all over the place at home—no, she could walk all over the place in Dongguan City.

“Beibei isn’t just the only girl in this generation; she’s the girl the Zhan family has been hoping for for generations. From the moment she was born, she’s been pampered by everyone, even I dote on her.”

In Yangyang’s eyes, Beibei and Niuniu were both his sisters.

He loved both of them equally.

Every time he returned from a business trip, he would prepare the same gifts for both of them, never showing favoritism.

“But Beibei isn’t spoiled or arrogant. She’s a very good girl. I’ll introduce you two to each other sometime.”

Fu Wanning smiled and said, “Okay.”

“Is Miss Zhan not home right now?”

“No, she’s in City A in X Province, at her sixth uncle’s house. Summers there aren’t as hot, and she can’t stand the heat. Every summer she goes to a cooler city for vacation.”

Fu Wanning expressed his understanding.

They sat in the restaurant for over an hour when Zhou Yang’s phone rang. He took it out and saw it was Bao Bao calling. Guessing she had arrived at the hotel, he answered.

“Cousin Yangyang, where are you? Come out! Big brother and I are at the hotel entrance,” came Xiao Shijiu’s childish voice from the other end.

“Shijiu? Where’s your big brother? Why is it you calling?”

“Big brother is driving. He lent me his phone to video chat with my sister. He told me to call you and tell you to wait for us at the hotel entrance.”

Married at First Sight - Married at First Sight

Chapter 5258

4-5 minutes

“Big brother said we’re not going in,”

Zhou Yang laughed. “Okay, then we’ll go out right away.”

After hanging up the phone, Zhou Yang said to the Fu family grandfather and grandson, “Baby’s here, waiting for us at the hotel entrance. Let’s go out.”

Fu Wanning helped his grandfather up, and Chairman Fu said, “Judging from the voice, it’s a little baby.”

“That’s Baby’s youngest cousin, only five years old this year. He’s on summer vacation and likes to stick to his older brothers and sisters, he doesn’t even go with his parents.”

Chairman Fu suddenly realized that the Zhan family’s large family made him incredibly envious.

If his Fu family had a few more children, he would wake up laughing in his sleep.

Unfortunately, while the Fu family was wealthy, its offspring were few. By his granddaughter’s generation, there wasn’t even a male heir, only a granddaughter.

It was precisely because there was only a granddaughter that those relatives were eyeing the Fu Group, wanting to seize a share of the Fu family’s assets.

Many people told him that he should just give his granddaughter a dowry and marry her off, advising him to adopt a grandson and leave the family fortune to him.

Chairman Fu wanted to curse.

Whenever someone tried to advise him like that, he would turn pale, and if he was in a bad mood, he would curse those people out.

The adopted child wasn't even of the Fu family bloodline; he'd be a fool to leave his inheritance to his adopted grandson instead of his biological granddaughter.

His Fu family wasn't lacking in descendants; they didn't need adoptions!

The Zhan family's ancestral graves were truly auspicious, making the Zhan family increasingly prosperous and their wealth undiminished—truly a family of both wealth and offspring, the envy of everyone.

“Young Master Zhan has such a young cousin? The brothers are quite far apart in age?”

Chairman Fu knew some things about the Zhan family, but he only knew about the adults; he didn't know anything about the minors, or even who was who among them. The Zhan family is very protective of their children. Before they reach adulthood, the media is not allowed to expose their children's faces. The media in Dongguan City have a tacit understanding: even if they manage to photograph a Zhan family child, they only dare to capture their back, not their face.

If they do manage to photograph their face, they immediately delete the photo and dare not publish it online.

They fear attracting kidnapers to the Zhan family's children. Although the Zhan family's children practice martial arts and have bodyguards, it's always better to be cautious, especially with minors, as kidnapers have more opportunities to strike.

Only by keeping their underage children's appearance a secret and allowing them to grow up like ordinary children can they reduce the chances of being kidnapped.

Zhou Yang replied, “The difference is huge. The oldest and the youngest are more than twenty years apart.”

“My uncle’s generation has nine brothers, and each of them had children, so Bao Bao has many cousins.”

Chairman Fu said enviously, “The family is so prosperous. It makes our family, which is not so large, extremely envious.”

Zhou Yang smiled, looked at Fu Wanning, and said, “President Fu, if you get married and have more children in the future, the family will be prosperous.”

Fu Xiaoning chuckled, “President Zhou, if my grandfather pressures me to have more children in the future, I’ll hold you accountable.”

“Haha, just kidding. Two children are enough. One is always a bit too few. There’s no one to discuss things with, especially for an only child like President Fu, the pressure is even greater.”

“If you have a sibling, at least he can help you share the burden, and you can discuss things together.”

Chairman Fu was happy to hear what Zhou Yang said. He said as he walked, “That’s what I think too. I only have one child, and my son only has Wanning. I hope Wanning can have more children in her generation.”

“It would be best to have two sons and two daughters, that way the family will be lively.”

Fu Wanning: “...Grandpa, I’m not a pig, why would I have so many? Nowadays, who has so many children? Most people only have one or two.”

Her plan is to do IVF and have twins, a boy and a girl, so that she will have two children in one pregnancy, a son and a daughter.

Married at First Sight - Married at First Sight

Chapter 5259

4-5 minutes

Chairman Fu said, “Two is fine, but the prerequisite is that you have to quickly fall in love, find a boyfriend, and then get married so you can have two great-grandchildren for your grandfather to hold.”

Fu Wanning said helplessly to Zhou Yang, “Look at my grandfather, he seizes every opportunity to urge me to get married. Mr. Zhou, do your family members urge you to get married?”

“Same here, but although my elders urge me to get married, they haven’t pressured me. They’ve also told me not to settle. I’ve told them I won’t be a bachelor for life, and they don’t need to worry about me not getting married.”

“But I have to wait until I meet someone I like, someone I’m willing to end my single life for.”

“Look, I’m still waiting for my true love to knock on my door.”

Both of them had experienced being pressured by their families to get married, and they felt a lot closer to each other.

Zhou Yang led the grandfather and grandson out of the hotel.

“Brother, over here.”

Bao Bao rolled down the car window and waved to Zhou Yang.

Xiao Shijiu rolled down the car window a little, peeking out. Seeing an elderly man and an older brother beside Zhou Yang, Xiao Shijiu asked, “Big brother, are those Yangyang’s cousin’s distinguished guests?”

“That older brother... he looks different from you guys. His chest muscles are really nice.”

Bao Bao chuckled, correcting him, “That’s an older sister. President Fu is a girl; she’s just dressed androgynously. No, Shijiu, are your eyes okay? President Fu is wearing a skirt.”

Xiao Shijiu said, “My eyes are fine! I thought she was a man dressed as a woman. She doesn’t have very long hair, unlike my sister, who has long hair.”

Most of the women he’d seen had long hair.

That older sister’s hair was as short as his.

“Not all girls have long hair. President Fu kept it short for convenience.”

“It’s so short! She really looks like an older brother. If she weren’t wearing a skirt, I think many people would think she was an older brother.”

Zhan Muchen didn’t refute this.

From behind, President Fu did indeed appear to be a man, but she wasn’t deliberately dressed as a man, unlike his third aunt when she was young.

His third aunt had deliberately dressed as a man in her youth and always presented herself as the young master of the Qiao family.

Fu Wanning had never said she was a man; she always presented herself as a woman, simply preferring to wear suits, have short hair like a man, and act very much like a man.

“Big brother, is that big sister cousin’s girlfriend?”

Little Nineteen, though young, was precocious; seeing a woman beside Zhou Yang, she assumed she was Zhou Yang’s girlfriend.

“No, she’s an important client of my cousin’s; she wants to visit our house.” Little Nineteen said “Oh.

” “They’re coming, stop talking.”

The little guy knew that when gossiping, no one should hear.

“Big brother, don’t tell anyone I mistook the big sister for a boy,”

Little Nineteen instructed his brother, afraid he’d tell everyone about his embarrassing mistake.

That big sister was wearing a skirt, yet he mistook her for a big brother. Yes, when he first saw her, he indeed thought she was a brother, and wondered why a brother would wear a skirt. Turns out she was a sister.

Baby laughed heartily, “You’re afraid people will laugh at you?”

“Do you think I’m too young to care about my reputation?” Baby laughed even harder.

Even a little kid like him knows how to save face.

When Zhou Yang approached, Baby unlocked the car, got out, and opened the door for Grandpa Fu and his granddaughter, inviting them in.

Zhou Yang sat in the passenger seat.

“Nineteen, this is Grandpa Fu and Sister Fu,”

Zhou Yang told the little guy.

Little Nineteen looked at Chairman Fu and greeted him sweetly, “Hello, Grandpa Fu.”

Then she looked at Fu Wanning and said, “Hello, Sister Fu.”

Fu Wanning smiled and extended her right hand, which the little guy quickly extended to shake hers, very happy.

Because Sister Fu didn’t treat him like a little kid.

“I’m sorry to have troubled you to come all this way,”

Fu Wanning said to the baby.

“It’s alright, I was just sitting at home anyway, so I only made a trip. I’m sorry to have kept you waiting; I should have left earlier.”

Married at First Sight - Married at First Sight

Chapter 5260

4-5 minutes

After everyone got into the car, Bao Bao drove away from the hotel.

Yang Yang said, “I didn’t expect you to come pick us up. I was thinking of driving myself.”

He had also said that his cousin didn’t need to pick him up, but Bao Bao insisted on coming.

“I’m in my dad’s way at home, so I had to come pick you up so he wouldn’t dislike me,”

Zhou Yang said with a smile. “Your uncle still loves you very much.”

Bao Bao is his uncle’s first child, so how could his uncle not love her?

Although he loves Bei Bei more after Bei Bei was born, Bao Bao still holds a unique place in his heart.

Along the way, everyone chatted about business.

Xiao Shijiu didn’t understand, so he focused on playing with his toys.

Fu Wanning saw that he wasn’t making a fuss and played with the same two toys repeatedly without getting bored, so she thought the child had great self-control.

She had heard that the Zhan family had a good family tradition and good genes.

The rumors were probably true; even a five-year-old child had such good self-control.

Fu Wanning knew how good Zhan Muchen was after only meeting him once, so it was no wonder that her grandfather hoped Zhan Muchen could become his grandson-in-law.

Fu Wanning had no feelings for Zhan Muchen; in fact, she had no feelings for any man. She wouldn’t fall in love easily.

No matter what her grandfather said, Fu Wanning wouldn’t consider Zhan Muchen a partner; she disliked relationships with younger men.

When the group returned to Youyou Manor, it was close to noon, time for lunch.

Even before reaching the manor entrance, just at the foot of the mountain, Fu Wanning was captivated by the vast fields of flowers. Despite not liking taking photos, she pulled out her phone and snapped a couple of pictures of the sea of flowers.

It was truly beautiful.

The scenery along the winding mountain road was also stunning.

Upon entering Youyou Manor, Fu Wanning couldn’t resist rolling down the car window to admire the view.

Zhan Muchen drove directly to the main house before parking.

Convenient.

Those just wanting to enjoy the scenery could only glance at it briefly.

The butler, seeing the young master's car return, immediately went inside to inform the waiting group. Serenity and her husband came out of the house to greet him.

"Wanning."

Serenity went forward to open the car door for Fu Wanning.

"Wanning, you're here."

As Fu Wanning got out of the car, Serenity warmly took one of his hands and then peeked into the car to greet Chairman Fu.

"Auntie."

Seeing Serenity holding Fu Wanning's hand so warmly, Xiao Shijiu jumped out of the car and stretched out his hands to Serenity for a hug.

Fu Wanning smiled and greeted Serenity and her husband. After Serenity picked up Xiao Shijiu, she praised him, "This child has great self-control. He didn't move around at all the way here and played quietly with his toys."

Xiao Shijiu blushed at the praise from the unfamiliar older sister.

Serenity laughed and said, "That's because he's not familiar with you yet. I'm sorry, this child is very naughty. During his vacation at home, his parents had a terrible headache. He rummaged through everything and took apart a lot of things in the house."

"Auntie!"

Xiao Shijiu called out, his face still red.

Serenity smiled, "Alright, alright, Auntie won't say anything more. Our little Nineteen has his pride too."

Little Nineteen said, "I'm a person, everyone has pride. Do you think a child doesn't have pride?"

Everyone laughed.

Zachary reached out and picked up his little nephew, "Let your aunt hold you for a bit, that's enough. You're all grown up now. Letting your aunt hold you for so long will tire her out."

"Uncle, I'm still a child. I haven't grown up yet."

"Yes, yes, you're still a child. Isn't it good for Uncle to hold you?"

Little Nineteen hugged Zachary's neck, "Okay, I like Uncle the most."

"You're lying to Uncle, aren't you? Didn't you say your favorite person is your sister? You always say you like everyone you meet the most."

Zachary bluntly exposed the little guy's sweet lie.

Little Nineteen giggled.

Married at First Sight - Married at First Sight Chapter 5261

4-5 minutes

"Uncle, Auntie,"

Zhou Yang greeted with a smile after getting out of the car. Then, he and his baby went to the back of the car, opened the trunk, and took out many gift boxes.

After Serenity and her husband greeted Chairman Fu, she said to her nephew, "You've bought so many things again. Auntie's family has everything we need, we have so many supplements that we can't even finish them all, yet you always buy us supplements."

Now that the children are older, whenever they come home for vacation, they always buy supplements for the elders in the family, and Zhou Yang, this nephew, is no exception; whenever he comes, he brings bags and bags of things.

“I already told my cousin, and both he and Mr. Fu insisted that I park the car. They bought so many supplements, and Mr. Fu said that since we were coming to bother them today, we couldn’t come empty-handed.”

Serenity said to Fu Wanning, “Wanning, you’re too kind.”

“It’s just a small token, I hope Aunt Hai won’t mind.”

“I don’t mind at all, as long as it’s from you, I won’t mind. Wanning, you look very beautiful today, this dress suits you very well.”

Serenity complimented her a couple of times, then reached out and gently touched Fu Wanning’s head, saying, “You would look even better if you had long hair.”

Fu Wanning raised her hand and touched her short hair, “I’m used to having short hair, it’s easier to manage, and washing my hair is the easiest. Even if I get home late at night, I can wash my hair and blow-dry it quickly.”

“It won’t take up too much time. If I had long hair, it would take more time to manage. Even if I just wash my hair, long hair doesn’t dry as quickly. I’m busy with work, and I often don’t get home until the early hours of the morning.”

“Short hair is more convenient. I haven’t worn a skirt in over twenty years, and I feel a little uncomfortable in one.”

Serenity smiled and took her arm, leading her into the house. As they walked, she said, “I understand. You can wear skirts in your free time, especially in summer; they’re much more comfortable.”

Fu Wanning’s personality is masculine and forthright.

She wouldn’t feel comfortable wearing a skirt.

Serenity knew that this skirt was a gift from her to Fu Wanning; otherwise, Fu Wanning wouldn’t have worn it.

This was a gesture of respect.
The two got along well.

In fact, Serenity could chat with anyone, and Fu Wanning, being a businessman, wouldn't be lacking in eloquence either.

Zachary put down his nephew and invited Chairman Fu into the house. Chairman Fu smiled and said, "President Zhan, sorry to bother you."

"Not at all, Chairman Fu coming over is giving us face."

Chairman Fu turned to look at Zhou Yang and Bao Bao, and Zachary said, "Let them carry the things, it's fine."

The children of the Zhan family aren't spoiled.

Zhan Muchen and Zhou Yang were both carrying large and small bags. Zhan Muchen complained to his brother, "Cousin, don't buy so much next time. Although I'm strong, carrying so much in both hands is still a bit heavy."

Zhou Yang said, "Every elder should have a share."

He chuckled, "Who told you to have so many elders in your family?"

There were six grandfathers and eighteen fathers. Even if the other uncles and aunts weren't at the resort, Zhou Yang would prepare a share for them every time he came, which made it all the more.

He bought things like this, and Fu Wanning followed suit, making the total even more.

Zhou Yang said, "The road isn't far, it's fine. If you park your car in the open-air parking lot at the entrance of the resort, you'll have to walk a long way, that would be tiring."

Zhan Muchen: "..."

Okay, his cousin is right.

If you include all the elders in his family, that's twenty-four people, and if each person gets a gift, that's twenty-four gifts.

Married at First Sight - Married at First Sight Chapter 5262

5-6 minutes

When he travels for work, he brings back a lot of gifts for his elders, and they usually give double to each elder.

“Chairman Fu must envy your family so much, so large and so united,”

Zhan Muchen smiled. “That’s true. My family has the best atmosphere. Sometimes when I’m tired or feel wronged outside, I just want to go home. When I’m home, everything is fine.”

Home is their haven.

After everyone entered the house, Zhou Yang introduced the Zhan family members to the Fu family grandfather and grandson.

When there are guests from the eldest branch, people from the second and third branches come over to help entertain them.

Chairman Fu is a few years older than Tang Junye and his wife, so they are of the same generation and quickly hit it off. After drinking tea and eating something, Zhou Yang didn’t need to accompany him; the three Zhan brothers accompanied Chairman Fu to tour the resort.

Fu Wanning was accompanied by Serenity and others, but Zhou Yang still followed along. After all, these were his clients, and he couldn’t really leave them to his aunt to entertain.

The villa was vast. The Fu family grandfather and granddaughter spent an afternoon strolling around, a whirlwind tour, but if they were left to explore on their own, they wouldn’t remember the way. The villa was too big; such a rushed tour wouldn’t be enough to retain anything.

In the evening, Zhan Yichen and his wife, along with Lao Jiu and his wife, returned. Zhan Muchen’s cousins, who had already started working at the company, knowing guests had arrived, canceled their engagements and drove back to the old house for dinner.

Then, Su Nan and his wife, and Jun Ran and his wife, happened to arrive and joined them for dinner.

It was a lively and bustling affair.

The Fu family grandfather and granddaughter experienced this kind of lively atmosphere for the first time. Fu Wanning understood that her grandfather hoped she and Zhan Muchen would become a couple; the Zhan family home was lively, and the atmosphere was good.

She got along well with Aunt Hai. Although President Zhan was a bit serious, he was very gentle with his family, especially doting on his wife. Aunt Hai had been pampered by him for decades, and the couple's relationship remained as strong as a first love, truly enviable.

Fu Wanning also witnessed the Zhan family's affection for Zhou Yang, learning that Zhou Yang had frequently visited the Zhan family since he was two years old. The Zhan family could be considered his second home, and the elders of the Zhan family doted on him.

They treated him no differently than they treated Zhan Muchen. No wonder Zhou Yang is so outstanding. Growing up in such a loving environment, surrounded by such outstanding elders, even if he wanted to be ordinary, his elders would guide him towards excellence.

It was dark when the Fu family grandfather and grandson finally said goodbye and returned to their hotel in the city. Zhou Yang drove them back. Zhou Yang hadn't driven himself; he used the Zhan family's car. His aunt's garage was large enough to host a car show, and he could drive whichever car he wanted.

After dropping the Fu family grandfather and grandson off in the city, Zhou Yang planned to go back to the Zhan family's old house for the night, chat with his aunt, and exchange work experiences with his cousins.

They arrived back at the Dongguan Grand Hotel at nine o'clock in the evening, which was still early for Fu Wanning, who often worked overtime.

"Thank you, Mr. Zhou, for driving us back. We are so grateful to Mr. Zhou and the Zhan family today,"

Fu Wanning thanked Zhou Yang.

Chairman Fu was also very satisfied and happy with the day's trip. He had a pleasant conversation with the three Zhan brothers and got along very well.

Zhou Yang smiled, "President Fu, you're too kind. This is something I promised you. President Fu should have promised my aunt to let me stay at the resort for one night, and then spend another half a day sightseeing tomorrow before returning."

Fu Wanning said, "How could I keep bothering Aunt Hai? My grandfather and I will be sightseeing in Dongguan tomorrow, buying some gifts for my mother, and then heading back early the day after tomorrow."

"The schedule is too tight; there's really no way to stay longer. If you have the chance to come again, you should stay a few more days. I really enjoy the food in Dongguan."

Chairman Fu also smiled, "I wish I could settle down in Dongguan. Wanning, when you have time, let's come and look at houses, buy a house in Dongguan, and stay longer when we come here on business trips."

Fu Wanning chuckled, while Zhou Yang said, "If Chairman Fu really wants to buy a house, would you like me to help keep an eye out?"

"The Zhan Group has invested in quite a few properties before. I'll ask Bao Bao to see if there are any suitable ones to recommend to Chairman Fu. You're probably looking to buy a villa, right?"

Chairman Fu nodded. "Yes, we want a villa, not too big, as we have a small family. But it needs to have a front and back yard. I like growing flowers, so a yard is nice for growing flowers."