

Chapter 126

Everyone turned around and looked in the direction of the door. Bruce had just returned to the pack house.

It appeared as though he was perplexed, but when his gaze landed on Sophia, his expression changed.

"Sophia?"

Juliana and Harry glanced at each other. They were under the impression that Bruce was innocent and would feel hurt seeing Sophia.

Sophia stared at Bruce. She found it difficult to accept that he had not only not yet told his parents the truth but had also repeatedly begged her forgiveness.

She looked away from Bruce, but then her eyes fell on Bryan, who was staring at her. His eyes were predatory, as if observing her.

As soon as she recalled what Bryan had done to her when he found out about her meeting with Bruce, she immediately averted her gaze from Bryan.

It was evidently clear that he did not like it.

"Bruce, you are back," Juliana said, walking to him.

Bruce moved his eyes from Sophia and turned his attention to his mother.

Juliana reached out and grabbed his hand before making her way toward the other people.

"Your brother has come to attend the family dinner. Let's have dinner together."

Bruce came to a stop beside Sophia and turned his head toward her.

"Sophia, what are you doing here?"

He had a voice that was too soft while talking to her, which was not something that his parents liked. They appeared to be taken aback by the gentle manner in which he addressed Sophia. It was their expectation that he would become enraged with her.

Sophia lowered her head and made an effort to avoid making eye contact with anyone who was present in the living hall.

"I came here with Alpha," she replied.

Bruce glanced at Bryan and kept his eyes on him for a while.

Bruce cleared his throat and spoke out politely.

"Brother, long time."

However, Bryan did not respond to him. Bruce observed that his big brother's eyes were still on his ex-girlfriend.

In response to Bryan's gaze on Sophia, he clenched his fists and tightened his grip on them.

"You stop coming to the pack house. This house seems to welcome you as a guest."

Bryan's eyes moved from Sophia and turned beside her.

He looked directly into Bruce's eyes.

Bruce could see that his brother was angry for some reason. He did not know why Bryan brought Sophia with him to a family dinner.

Perhaps...

His head shook, and he took a breath that was shaky. Nevertheless, when Bryan spoke to him, he came dangerously close to losing his breath.

"When you become a guest in this pack, I will say the same thing to you at that time."

As he took in the meaning of what Bryan had said, Bruce's eyes widened in surprise.

"BRYAN!"

Harry yelled at Bryan.

Astonishment engulfed Juliana. She could not believe that her elder son could talk about banishing his own brother from the pack.

On the other hand, Sophia could not be more nervous. She was also stunned by Bryan's remark.

"B-Brother, did I do something to offend you?" Bruce asked.

His voice or tone no longer felt like taunts or mockery. Sophie was able to pick up on the fear in his voice.

However, she was only thinking about how she would escape from this situation right now.

Bryan did not reply to Bruce. Instead, he turned his gaze to his father and said,

“Don't yell at me again. The first thing you should do is question your younger son about his wrongdoings.”

Harry looked at Bruce with a frown and asked,

"What is Bryan talking about? What did you do?"

Sophia slowly turned her head toward Bruce to look at him.

Bruce could not look into her eyes and lowered his head as if he realized what his brother was talking about. After that, he muttered in a low tone.

"I cheated on Sophia. I lied to you all that day."

Both Harry and Juliana's eyes widened. Shock was clearly visible in their eyes.

"No! This is not possible. Are you saying this to keep her from feeling ashamed? Don't lie to us. I know my son can't do such things. You mentioned how much you had loved her in the past. How can you do that?"

Sophia glanced at Juliana and Harry. It was difficult for them to believe it.

She could feel that they had a soft spot in their hearts for their younger son. This son was close to them, unlike their elder son, who was always busy with his work.

Sophia took a deep breath and felt that it was time to let go of the past.

Since she was with Bryan now, there was no need to recall the past again and again.

"I'm telling the truth, Mom. She was innocent. I cheated on her with her best friend. I can't explain why I did it, but I did. It was a mistake that I will regret for my whole life."

Hearing Bruce, his parents were unable to respond in any way.

Juliana glanced at Sophia. As if she did not want to apologize to her for what she had done to her, she clenched her fists and made a tight fist. The arrogance that she possessed prevented her from apologizing to Sophia.

"I still can't beli—"

"Enough of this drama. I don't have time for all your nonsense," Bryan said, turning around.

He glanced at Sophia and raised a brow.

"What? Do you want to stay here and keep watching their drama?"

Sophia was shocked by his words. He did not just care about anything.

"Bryan! When did you start acting in such an impolite manner? You can't talk to your family like that in front of an outsider," Harry said with anger.

"He is not an outsider for me."

Saying that, Bryan grabbed Sophia's hand and dragged her along with him as he left the pack house, leaving his family behind in shock.
