

Chapter 180

Sophia went into the forest after Victor had left.

The cold wind was blowing, and it was moving the branches of the trees. She walked for a while, thinking about her life.

She had no tears in her eyes. But her eyes were empty, as if she were lost in this strange world.

She felt that this cruel world was not for her. She was a happy girl who liked to see everyone happy. How could fate want the opposite of her?

The sky was overcast with clouds. The clouds shifted away from the moon. The moon found its full light and illuminated the whole forest.

Sophia's eyes turned ocean blue. She looked to her right and left and sniffed the air to see if someone was close to her.

When it was clear that there was no one, she shifted into her wolf form.

The moonlight lit the white fur of her body. The ocean blue eyes were enough to kill any Alpha, making them want to have her.

Every moment of her and Bryan's intimacy rushed to her mind when she started to run.

Her mind kept replaying Bryan's words. He was sacrificing the matebond because of the desire to gain some other pack.

More than that, what hurt her was the way he told her that he had never loved her. Not for once.

She came to a stop in front of a lake and sat down there.

In the water of the lake, there was a reflection of a white wolf with eyes the color of the ocean shining through.

It had been a very long time since she had shifted.

'Why did you make me so weak?' she thought while looking at the moon.

'Everyone thinks I am fragile, but at the same time, they like to break me into pieces.'

Her heart froze for that man. She wanted to get rid of the pain in her heart. However, she could not remove the man overnight.

She realized that all these months, she had been madly in love with Bryan. It was a blind love where she could not see when he was hiding another woman in his life.

'I have lost all of my self-respect in front of you. Otherwise, I am not this shameless to beg a man to stay in my life.'

She recalled how she broke up with Bruce. He said sorry countless times to her. However, she never allowed herself to forgive him in her heart.

That is how strong she was.

After learning that the head Alpha, the elder brother of her ex-boyfriend, was her mate, she told the man to reject her on the first day. She was that strong.

Her mate wanted her to sacrifice herself to save her brother's position. She did not think about herself and gave up herself for her brother. She was that strong.

'How could you think I am weak? Are you saying that I am weak simply because I have shown you my care and love, treated you gently, and blushed around you in love?'

She shook her head. She was not weak. She only trusted that man without question.

'How could you use me for your sexual desire? When your chosen Luna is back, you kicked me to the corner so easily. You didn't feel any sympathy for me?'

The fact that she had always ignored Bryan's cold behavior toward her made her feel like a foolish girl.

She let out a heartfelt howl while gazing at the moon.

Her howls were resonating throughout the forest, indicating that a wolf was in distress and suffering from a broken heart.

Sophia could not just forget how he talked to her tonight in the restaurant.

How could he ruin her special day? He left her because of that woman.

Her howls changed into growls as time went on. Her ocean-blue eyes turned colder.

Bryan mistook her. She was a very sharp-minded girl. In love, she liked to give her all. But when she was done, she never turned back to the man again.

Because of Bryan, she lost her pride, her self-respect, her innocence, and her happiness.

How would she repair herself now?

She recalled how she used to dream about going for a run with him. Everything was just her delusion.

He had never dreamed of anything with her.

It was always only her. It was always one-sided from her side.

Regarding her, it was fine. In love, it was not necessary to have the same goal. If he wanted to marry another woman, she would not stop him.

If he was happy with his pack, she should let him be.

She would not stop him anymore.

---

As time went on, the sky became lighter.

Soon, the sun began to rise.

Sophia was still looking at the lake. She was there the whole night.

She stood up and jumped into the water in her wolf form. After shaking her body, she emerged from the water of the lake.

She went back to the path where she had shifted. She shifted back, put on her clothes, and grabbed her bag.

While she was getting back on the road, she checked her phone.

There were thirty missed calls from her brother Abraham and five missed calls from Bryan.

She ignored Bryan's number and directly called her brother back.

"Where the hell are you?"

The angry voice of her brother came out of the phone. But she did not flinch at it like other times.

"Brother."

Her voice did not seem okay to Abraham as he asked,

"Where are you? Why didn't you come back home last night?"

She walked out of the forest with her hair dripping water onto the ground beside her feet.

"Sophia? Are you okay? Where are you? Just tell me. I talked to Alpha last night. He said you were not with him. Mom and I were very worried about you."

When she heard Bryan's name, her eyes moved slightly. She blinked her eyes after a while, then replied in a calm tone.

"Everything is over, brother."