

Chapter 269

She lowered her eyes and began reading the papers. She was stunned to discover that it was a marriage contract between her and Bryan Morrison!

It stated that she was going to be his wife and Luna, but there was no way she could break the marriage until he wanted it.

She raised her gaze from the papers and looked at him.

"I will never marry a man like you," she said in anger.

Bryan smirked at her. "Why? Didn't you want a name and the position of my Luna? Isn't it what you wanted all this time and went to another man to humiliate me around? I will show you now what it costs to be Alpha Bryan's Luna."

Sophia shook her head as tears streamed out of her eyes. "I regret loving you, Bryan Morrison. You are the worst person I have ever seen. I hate you."

Bryan rolled his eyes and grabbed his phone from the table in front of him.

He lifted his legs and rested them on the table before dialing a number. He put the phone on speaker and inquired,

"Is her mother still alive?"

"Yes, Alpha."

Bryan looked at Sophia and muttered,

"Then kill her."

"NO!"

Sophia screamed in fear. Bryan was about to hang up the phone, but she stood up and rushed to him.

"Don't kill my mom. She is innocent. You can kill me, but don't hurt her."

Bryan pushed her hands away from his body and stood tall.

He looked down at her and grabbed her jaw tightly.

"Congratulations! You have now qualified to be my enemy. It seems like you will have to spend the rest of your life with your enemy."

He let go of her jaw, and she took a step back. She shook her head, not wanting to sign the papers.

But the memory of her mother's condition flashed through her mind. She pushed Bryan into his chest in anger.

"I hate you. I wish I had killed you that time."

When she touched Bryan, every guard around them pointed their guns at her. But Bryan did not move a little by her push.

He scoffed at her and turned his head to his officials.

"What's with this sulky mood? Arrange a bachelor party, guys. Your Alpha is getting married."

He turned his head back to Sophia and asked, "Or should I cancel the party? Let's hurry. My men are waiting outside the operation theater, you know."

Sophia realized that Brayn's man was still on the phone. She bit her tongue in anger and grabbed the papers.

Theta Noble walked to her and offered her a pen. She grabbed it and glanced at Bryan.

A year ago, she was eager to marry this man, but tonight, she found herself regretting everything.

She gripped the pen firmly and signed the marriage contract.

When Theta Noble took the folder from her, she overheard Bryan telling his man, who was on the call,

"Don't kill her. Her daughter is clever enough to save her life."

Sophia felt lost. She was broken inside. She was defeated in front of this man. He was a devil who possessed so much power that he could do anything he wanted.

Theta Noble handed the folder to Bryan. He signed the papers with a fury on his face. His officials did not look pleased at all. They were aware that Bryan's decision could lead to chaos.

He not only violated the agreement to marry Mila, but he also rejected the consequences of his crime from years ago.

Robert stared at Bryan. It was forbidden for Bryan to marry someone other than Mila, but he was not the same Bryan anymore who followed any rules. He had returned to the old Bryan, who did not give a damn about any contract and did whatever he wanted. He let go of all the thoughts of the consequences that he and his pack would have to face because of his one decision.

Robert turned his head toward Sophia and felt that it was all her fault. Bryan was so in love with her, but she made fun of his heart. However, what she had done today was something no one had ever thought of. It made Bryan realize that she was not the woman he loved. She had changed, so he changed himself as well.

Bryan handed the folder to Theta Noble after signing and gave his guards a cold look.

"Bow down to her. She is now the Luna of your pack."

When everyone heard that, they were stunned. Because they assumed Bryan would treat her poorly and punish her in the future.

Almost immediately, all the guards bowed their heads at Sophia, obligated to obey their Alpha.

"All hail to the new Luna of our pack."

Sophia did not react as she stared at Bryan with empty eyes.

Bryan walked up to Sophia and leaned down to whisper in her ears.

"I will give you everything you desire. But you will never get the one thing in your life that I wanted to give you, even if you were not my Luna. And that's my love."

Sophia stepped backward while shaking her head. "I will never forgive you for this. You made me cancel my wedding and forced me to marry you."

Bryan nodded, tucking one hand into his pocket, and replied,

"You are right. I did it. Now what? Will you go and cry to your ex-fiancé about it?"

He took a step toward her and raised his hand. When he placed his hand on her head, she immediately pushed it away.

He laughed when she did that.

"Go and tell your ex-fiancé that Alpha Bryan is back. If he dares to come after me for canceling his wedding, then come with his full force. My border is always wide open for him. I am not a coward like him, who will banish him from my pack in fear."

Sophia looked away from him and turned around to leave the house.

She ran outside, feeling hatred for Bryan. It was increasing day by day. What Bryan did today was something she had never expected. Just to defeat Victor, he tried to kill her mother and forced her to marry him.

Sophia saw a car stop in front of her as she exited the residential area.

The driver got out of the car and opened the back door for her.

“Luna, please get into the car. Alpha ordered me to drop you off at the pack hospital.”
