

Chapter 277

Sophia turned her head to look at her brother. She did not know if she should feel happy that her brother had returned. Because she had no feelings left in her heart to describe on her face.

All this time, she tried to understand everything, and what she decoded was,

Bryan raped Victor's mate, and when she complained about it, he killed her. Because of his crimes, the former Alpha of that pack attempted to take action against him, but Alpha Lucas was the head Alpha, so he had the power to rescue him. He saved him by making him vow to marry his daughter.

But there was one thing that Sophia could not understand. Why did Alpha Lucas choose a man to be his son-in-law who had sexually assaulted his son, Victor's mate?

In her heart, Sophia was shaken. Sophia could not believe that Bryan could have done such a thing. Her heart turned stone when she thought that he had committed such a crime.

However, for an unknown reason, her heart did not agree to accept it.

One by one, a blow came to her heart as she saw Victor's behavior and heard what was on Victor's mind. He even said mate for mate, which meant he would not feel bad to try to hurt her in the future. All he wanted was revenge.

Bryan's behavior also did not go unnoticed by her, as she saw how carelessly he was smoking. He did not even deny any of his crimes.

Now, when she saw her brother, she was upset that he would have to face this bitter truth.

"Gamma Abraham," Beta Robert said.

Abraham walked inside but paused when his eyes fell on Sophia. He frowned at her and asked,

"Why are you here, Sophi?"

"Bro-Brother--"

"Come here, Abraham. Don't waste your time with your disloyal Luna. I have other things to do. I don't want to waste any more time here."

Abraham's eyes widened when he heard Bryan.

"L-Luna?" he questioned.

Delta Edger cleared his throat, indicating that Bryan was already mad, so he should not waste his time.

Gamma Abraham looked away from Sophia and walked toward the table.

He was holding something resembling a rolling poster.

He bowed to Bryan as he stood beside him.

"Alpha, I did what you ordered me to do."

Bryan clenched his jaw and muttered, "And I did what I promised you before you even finished your task."

Abraham lowered his head. Victor looked at Abraham with a perplexed expression.

"What is in your hand? This man forced your sister to marry him by blackmailing her about your mother."

Abraham parted his lips in shock. "My mother? What happened to her?"

He turned his head to glance at Sophia. She stared at him with a pair of empty eyes.

"She is totally fine. She is under Alpha's protection," Robert assured Abraham.

Sophia refrained from saying anything. She felt that this was no longer an appropriate situation for her to speak in.

But she was broken inside. Her shattered heart could not withstand any further blows.

"What is that, Abraham?" Alpha Harry inquired as he looked at the brown poster-like paper.

Abraham unrolled the paper and laid it on the table.

As soon as Alpha Lucas and every other member of the Moon Valley Pack saw it, their eyes widened as they were taken aback.

Alpha Lucas looked at Bryan. In response, Bryan smirked at him.

Victor spoke with a perplexed expression, "It is the map of the Moon Valley Pack."

Bryan sneered at him.

"You have been the Moon Valley Pack's Alpha for the past two years. But, aside from roaming around with women, what did you do? You don't even know it's not just a map but the royal deed of your pack. Perhaps your beloved grandfather forgot to show you. Wait, how could he show it to you? It was already too late for him to survive before you became the head Alpha."

After mocking him, Bryan let out a laugh. Everything gulped as they fixed their gazes on the map.

Victor glared at him. Victor's expression was fierce as he attempted to sprint towards Bryan to launch an attack. But his officials and Bryan's officials grabbed him from moving.

Sophia could understand. What would they do with the map or the royal deed?

Abraham looked at Victor and said,

"Every sub-Alpha who is in charge of different parts of the Moon Valley Pack signed the map in their state. In their opinions, they do not want a clash with Alpha Bryan and want to end the rivalry here by letting go of the crime since you never marked that woman as your mate in the first place."

Victor's eyes widened as he snatched the map and gripped it in his hands.

"How dare they betray their lord?"

Bryan got up from his chair and smashed the cigarette bud on the wooden table.

"An Alpha who forced his pack members to call him their lord while doing nothing for them but benefiting from his position as head Alpha is not their real lord. It looks like they are just waiting for a chance to throw you out of your position, Alpha Victor. Isn't it why your grandfather banished me from your pack? In fear that his pack would be on my side."

Victor shook his head. "No way. I can't accept it. You still require the main sign, which is the sign of the current Alpha."

Bryan seemed to be annoyed. He looked at Alpha Lucas, whose eyes were on the map.

"Is this really your son? People fear him simply because he holds the title of Head Alpha. He thinks I am a fool with no plan other than to do whatever comes to mind, just like him."

Alpha Lucas slowly looked at Bryan. His eyes were upset, and then he lowered his head in defeat.

Victor shook his head again as if he refused to accept his defeat.

"I don't believe you; I demand punishment and the removal of your position."

Bryan ignored him and looked at his other officials, who were standing next to Victor.

"Why are you all there? Are you his officials?"

They hurriedly made their way to Bryan. They only went to Victor to protect Alpha Lucas from him.

Bryan told Delta Edger, "Go and bring him here."

Everyone was confused about who he was talking about. Delta Edger left the hall and returned within a minute.

A man wearing a black coat entered the hall.

Sophia blinked her eyes as she saw the familiar face. She tried to recognize the man until her eyes widened.

It was the same man she had seen at the airport with Victor. He was the pregnant woman's husband, with whom she was sitting at the airport.

At that time, Victor's furious voice rang throughout the hall.

"He is my lawyer! What is he doing with you?"
